19. All such persons as shall be born on board any of the ships employed about the said trade, or in any the places which shall be discovered or possessed by the company, shall be deemed natural-born subjects, id. s. 53.

20. No ship which shall belong to, or be freighted by the company, or persons licensed by them to trade within the limits aforesaid, shall be stopped or detained by any embargo or other restraint, unless such ships be particularly named in such embargo, id. s. 54.

21. H. M., by letters patent, may grant to the company such further powers as she shall think fit for the encouraging the said trade, so as such powers, &c. be not contrary to the laws of this realm, or the prerogative of the crown, or the privileges of the bank of Eng., id. s. 55.

22. Upon importation of any goods by the company, and in all other cases where security is required to be given by the company to the crown, the commissioners and officers of the customs may take such security by bonds under the common seal of the company, id. s. 56.

23. All bonds under the common seal of the company shall charge, as well the annual fund payable to the company, as the other stock and effects of the company; and all bonds under the common seal, whereby the company shall oblige themselves to pay any money, shall be assignable at law, by indorsement upon such bond, under the hand of the person to whom such money shall in such bond be made payable, his executors, administrators, or assigns, and not otherwise; and every such assignee may, on failure of payment, maintain his action of debt against the company, as if such bond had been made to such assignee; and if any person shall counterfeit the common seal of the company or shall forge or alter any bond under the common seal of the company, or shall offer to dispose of any such forged or altered bond (knowing the same to be such), or shall demand the money therein contained, or any part thereof, of the company, or their officers (knowing such bond to be forged, &c.), with intent to defraud the company, or any other person, every person so offending (and being convicted) shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 57.

24. Neither the company hereby erected, nor their successors, agents, or persons licensed by them, shall proceed into any of the limits (in s. 46. ante, pl. 16.) mentioned beyond the southernmost part of Terra del Fuego, except only through the Straits of Magellan, or round Terra del Fuego, nor go from thence into any port in the East Indies, nor return to G. B., or any port in Europe, Asia, Africa, or America, by any other way except through such straits, or by Terra del Fuego, under the penalties to be sued as after-mentioned; nor shall such company, &c. trade in any goods, &c. of the growth, product, or manufacture of the East Indies, Persia, China, or any of the countries within the limits of the East India Company, or with vessels coming from the places aforesaid, (such East India goods, &c. as shall be actually exported from G. B., and also such gold, silver, and wrought plate goods, &c. that are of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the West Indies, or continent of America, only excepted,) under the like penalties; and such company, &c. shall not send, or employ any vessel within the South Seas, from Terra del Fuego to the northernmost part of America, above 500 leagues to the westward of, and distant from, the countries and shores of Chili, Pernu, Mexico, California, or any other lands or shores of North or South America, contained between Terra del Fuego and the northernmost part of America, on pain that all such vessels, ships, &c. employed contrary hereto, and all the goods, &c. on board thereof, together with their guns, &c. and also such East India goods, &c. shall be seized and forfeited, with double the value thereof, by the owners, masters, or employers, 1-3d to H. M., and 2-5ds to the East India Company, to be recovered by action of debt, &c., or information in the courts at Westminster, with full costs, id. s. 58.

25. H. M., by her said letters patent, may direct a stock of 80s. upon every 100l. of the capital stock of such company, to be raised by the members thereof, as H. M. shall direct, so as no other of H. M.'s subjects be thereby excluded from the fishing trade; such stock to be kept apart, and always employed in carrying on the fisheries of the realm, 9 A. c. 21. s. 59.

26. The members of this corporation shall not be called on to pay any money for such fishery, but by order of a general court, and on 14 days' notice in the London Gazette, id. s. 60.

27. No person shall be capable of being elected a governor, deputy-governor, or director of such corporation, during the time he shall be a governor of the Bank of Eng., or the East India Company; and vice versa, id. s. 61.

28. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL FORGE, COUNTERFEIT, OR ALTER any receipt, warrant, or any indorsement or writing issued under the hand of any officer of the South Sea Company, upon or for any subscriptions for encreasing their capital stock under 8 G. 1. c. 4., or who shall tender any such forged, &c. receipts, &c. or any receipt, &c. with such counterfeit, &c. indorsement, knowing them to be forged, &c. to such company, or any of their officers, or shall offer to dispose of the same, with intent to defraud such company, or any other person or body, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, 6 G. 1. c. 11. s. 50.

29. FOR REDUCING THE INTEREST ON THE CAPITAL STOCK of the South Sea Company, and for preventing frauds committed by officers and servants of such company, 24 G. 2. c. 11.

30. The annuity of 4 per cent. heretofore granted on the capital stock of such company, shall be reduced to 3 per cent. per ann., until the redemption thereof, in full discharge of all demands which the company claim against the king of Spain, on account of the asiento, or annual ship, besides the 100,000l. paid pursuant to treaty, id. s. 1.

31. The charges of management on such part of the old and new South Sea annuities, as are not redeemed, and on the capital stock of the company, shall be continued to the company, id. s. 2. [See guarantee fund established 55 G. 3. c. 57. s. 2. post, pl. 38.]

32. Every officer or servant of the company entrusted with any note, bill, dividend warrant, bond, deed, or any security, money, or other effects belonging to such company, or having any such bill, &c. of any other person deposited with such company, or with him as an officer or servant of such company, who shall embezzle, secrete, or run away with the same, shall, on conviction, be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 3.

33. FOR REDUCING THE NUMBER OF DIRECTORS of the South Sea Company, and for encouraging the fishery, and for regulating the election of the governors and directors of such company, 26 G. 2. c. 16.

34. The court of directors of the South Sea Company shall consist of one governor, one sub-governor, one deputy-governor, and 21 directors only, and the majority of such court, whereof the governor, sub-governor, or deputy-governor (except as in their charter excepted) shall be always one, shall be deemed a court of directors, id. s. 1.

35. No more than 15 who were at the last preceding general election of directors, chosen into the office of director, shall be again chosen to such office, id. s. 2., provided the salaries of the governors and directors of such company shall continue the same as they now are, id. s. 3.

36. TO REPEAL THE PROVISIONS OF FORMER ACTS granting exclusive privileges of trade to the South Sea Company, and to indemnify such company for the loss of such privileges, 55 G. 3. c. 57. [AMD. 55 G. 3. c. 141. REP. as to certain of the duties, 56 G. 3. c. 77., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 60., and such duties excepted out of the general repeal of all customs, 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4.]

37. So much of 9 A. c. 21. s. 46. pl. 16. as vests in the South Sea Company the sole and exclusive trade and traffic into, unto, and from all kingdoms, lands, countries, territories, islands, and places within the limits of the charter of the said company, as described by such act, and all powers, privileges and penalties by such act given, and enacted for securing the same shall be REP., 55 G. 3. c. 57. s. 1.

38. In consideration of the surrender of such exclusive privileges a guarantee fund shall be formed under this act in some of the public stocks, bearing interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per ann. and a separate account shall be opened at the bank of Eng. in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, to be called "The South Sea Company Guarantee fund," and when such fund shall amount to a capital stock of 610,464l. 3s., bearing interest at 3 per cent. per ann., such commissioners shall forthwith transfer the same to the South Sea Company, in full satisfaction of such exclusive rights, id. s. 2.

39. Until such transfer, as in s. 2. pl. 38. is made, the court of directors of such company (if their annual income and profits which are applicable to the payment of one half per cent. per ann. on the capital trading stock of such company, in addition to 3 per cent. per ann. payable on such capital, is not sufficient to pay such dividend as heretofore, after all their expences,) shall state to the treasury the amount of such deficiency, and the treasury shall then direct the payment out of the consolidated fund, of a sum sufficient to make good such deficiency, so as to enable such company, to pay the additional dividend of one-half per cent., 55 G.3. c.57. s.3.

40. In order that the sum applicable to such dividend be not diminished by any unusual increase of expenditure, before any such issue is made to supply such deficiency, such directors shall, on such statement, and when required by the treasury, deliver to them an account of their expences, and the application of such income, &c. for the whole period since any previous delivery of any such account, id. s.4.

41. The following duties shall be paid to H. M., without any discount, on all goods, &c. imported into the U. K. from any place within the limits of the South Sea Company, other than blubber, train-oil, head matter, or whale fins, seal skins, and other produce of fish, or creatures living in the sea, caught by the crews of British and Irish built ships, (viz.) a custom duty of 2*l.* on every 100*l.* value of all such goods, &c. and a tonnage duty of 1*s.* 6*d.* for every ton burthen of every vessel entering inwards or outwards, to or from any part of the U. K. to or from any place within such limits, and all such duties shall be paid in British currency, id. s.5. [REPEAL as to bullion and foreign gold and silver coin imported from such places, 56 G.3. c.77. s.1].

42. Such duty of 2*l.* in the 100*l.* shall not be paid for any goods, &c. which are deposited under any act for depositing goods in warehouses for exportation, and which are taken out for exportation, and duly exported under the regulations applicable to goods taken out of warehouses for exportation, 56 G.3. c.77. s.2.

43. Such duty of 1*s.* 6*d.* by 55 G.3. c.57. granted, shall not be raised and paid on the ton burden of vessels importing only blubber, train-oil, &c. and no other cargo, id. s.3.

44. No tonnage duty shall be charged on vessels in ballast only entering outwards or inwards, at any port of the U. K., to or from any port or place within the limits heretofore granted, to the South Sea Company, the 55 G.3. c.57. notwithstanding, 1 & 2 G.4. c.60.

45. All the duties hereby imposed on such goods, &c. shall be ascertained under the rules, and subject to the same penalties as prescribed, for ascertaining and collecting duties to be paid according to the value of the goods by the acts in force in G. B. and Ire., relating to duties of customs, and ascertaining such value for the purpose of payment of duty; and in case any goods shall not be valued according to such acts, the proper officer of customs may detain the same, to be dealt with in the manner by such acts prescribed, 55 G.3. c.57. s.6.

46. The duties of tonnage hereby imposed shall be paid to the proper officer every voyage such vessel shall so enter, as in s.5. pl. 42., outwards or inwards; and the tonnage of every British or Irish built or owned ship, shall be computed according to the registers thereof under any act in force in G. B. and Ire. in relation thereto, and the tonnage of every other vessel shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained by admeasurement, in the manner by such acts prescribed, id. s.7.

47. The commissioners of customs in Eng. Scot. and Ire., shall manage such duties according as they arise within their respective jurisdictions, id. s.8.

48. Every act in force in G. B. or Ire. by which any rules, &c. are established for ascertaining the value of any goods, &c. or for remitting or allowing any deduction of duties on account of damage, or for securing the revenue of customs, or for the regular exportation of any goods, &c. from G. B. or Ire., except where hereby altered, shall be in force and applied in execution of this act, 55 G.3. c.57. s.10., 55 G.3. c.141. s.2.

49. The duties hereby granted on exportation of goods, or the tonnage of vessels, shall be managed, levied, &c. except where hereby altered as former custom-duties in general may be, and also by such special means as such former duties on goods, &c. of the same kind or sort, or tonnage-duties on vessels ought to be managed, levied, &c.; and such goods and vessels shall be liable to all the conditions, rules, seizures, and forfeitures to which goods in general are, and also to such special rules, &c. to which the like goods, &c. or vessels chargeable with tonnage duty were, by any act in force in G. B. or Ire. before this act passed respecting the customs; and all pains, penalties, &c. for any offence against any such act, as well of death as otherwise, and all clauses, &c. therein shall extend to the duties hereby granted, id. s.9. [EXT. to such goods imported, 55 G.3. c.141. s.1.]

50. Such commissioners of customs respectively shall keep separate accounts of the produce of such duties, and pay the same into the exchequers of G. B. and Ire., and from the Irish into the British exchequer, and the same shall be applied in raising such guarantee fund; and the auditor of the receipt of the exchequer in G. B. shall keep a book wherein to enter all such duties separately, 55 G.3. c.57. s.11.

51. Such money shall be paid quarterly into the bank of Eng., and to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, who shall from time to time lay out the same in the purchase of capital stock in the public funds, bearing an interest transferable at the said bank, of 3 per cent. per ann. until such guarantee fund is complete, id. s.12.

52. When such guarantee fund is completed, such last-mentioned commissioners shall certify the same to the treasury in G. B., who shall cause notice thereof to be inserted in the London and Dublin gazettes, and after the time mentioned in such notice, such duties shall cease, and any surplus shall be carried to the consolidated fund of G. B. or Ire., according to where it arises, 55 G.3. c.157. s.13.

53. Actions for any thing done under this act shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the proper county, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the jury find against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited or discontinued after appearance entered, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.14.

54. TO ENABLE H. M. to be governor of the South Sea company, 1 G.4. c.2.

55. H. M. shall be capable of being governor of the South Sea company for the time prescribed by the charter, and an address of the said company for the purpose (in case H. M. shall be pleased to accept of being their governor), shall be deemed an election of H. M. to be governor within the meaning of their charter, without the forms of balloting, id. s.1.

56. The oath prescribed by such charter or law, and all other acts requisite to qualify a subject to be such governor, shall not be deemed requisite for H. M.'s qualification; nor shall such oaths be administered to him, and H. M. in all cases where any act or vote is to be done or given him as governor, may, by warrant under his sign-manual, if he think fit, appoint the sub or deputy governor to act or vote for him, id. s.2.

31. The clergy shall not presume to claim or put in use any constitution, canons, or ordinances provincial: nor shall enact, promulgate, or execute any such in their convocations, (which shall always be assembled by authority of H. M.'s writ,) unless the clergy have H. M.'s royal assent and licence to make, promulgate, and execute the same on pain that every one of them being convict of doing contrary, shall suffer imprisonment, and make fine at H. M.'s will, 25 H. 8. c. 19. s. 1.

32. No canons shall be made or put in execution in this realm, by authority of convocation, which shall be repugnant to H. M.'s prerogative, or to the customs, laws, or statutes of the realm, id. s. 2.

33. No appeal shall be made out of H. M.'s dominions to the bishop or sec of Rome in any causes beginning in any courts within H. M.'s dominions, but all appeals, what cause soever they concern, shall be made as is limited for appeals in causes of matrimony, tythes and oblations, by 24 H. 8. c. 12., id. s. 3.

34. For lack of justice in the court of the archbishops it shall be lawful to appeal to chancery, on which appeal, a commission [court of delegates] shall be directed to persons named by H. M., as in appeal from the admiralty, [see ADMIRALTY.] to hear and determine such appeals, and the commissioners' sentence shall be definitive, and no further appeal had, id. s. 4.

35. Every person suing any appeals to the bishop or sec of Rome, or procuring or executing any process therefrom in derogation of this act, shall, with their aiders, counsellors or abettors, incur the penalties in the acts of provisors and præmunire 16 R. 2. c. 5., id. s. 5.

36. Where appeals from the jurisdictions of any heads of houses, or places exempt, might, before this act, be made immediately to Rome, they may now be taken immediately to H. M. into chancery, and shall be definitively determined by authority of H. M.'s commission, as in s. 4. pl. 34., id. s. 6.

37. Provided that such canons, constitutions, ordinances, and synodals provincial already made not repugnant to the laws of this realm, nor to the damage of H. M.'s prerogative, shall be used, as before this act, till otherwise ordered by the 32 persons appointed by this act, id. s. 7.

38. NO SPIRITUAL PERSON having benefice within the archdeaconry of Richmond, co. York, shall take after the decease of any person any duty in the name of a pension or portion, on pain of the statute of provisors, 25 E. 3., but shall administer his goods as in 24 H. 8. c. 5., 26 H. 8. c. 15. ss. 1, 2.

39. PERSONS IN HOLY ORDERS shall be subject to the same pains for the offences contained in 22 H. 8. c. 14. (SANCTUARY), 25 H. 8. c. 3. (BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 9, 10.) and id. c. 6. (SODOMY), as other persons, 28 H. 8. c. 1. s. 7. [MADE PERP. 32 H. 8. c. 3. s. 1. and EXT., id. s. 8. next pl.]

30. PERSONS IN ORDERS guilty of clerigable offences, and admitted to the benefit of clergy, shall be burnt in the hand as lay clerks, 32 H. 8. c. 3. [But see 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 3., BURNING IN THE HAND, pl. 8. where it is provided that that punishment may be changed to fine or whipping. And see also note in Index, tit. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, Div. I. at the end.]

41. DOCTORS OF THE CIVIL LAW, made ecclesiastical judges or officers, may exercise ecclesiastical jurisdiction, though married, 37 H. 8. c. 17. ss. 1, 4. [REP. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 22. REV. 1 E. c. 1. s. 12.]

42. TO TAKE AWAY ALL POSITIVE LAWS made against marriage of priests, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 21. and recital in s. 1. [CONF. 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 12.]

43. All laws and ordinances made by man's authority forbidding marriage to any ecclesiastical person who by God's law may marry are void, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 21. s. 2.

44. The matrimony of ecclesiastical persons is lawful, and their issue legitimate; they may be tenants by the curtesy, and their wives are dowerable of their lands, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2., 1 J. 1. c. 2. ss. 50, [REP. 1 M. S. 2. c. 2. (which is REP. 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 48.) and REV. and MADE PERP., 1 J. 1. c. 25. ss. 49, 50.]

45. Nothing in these acts shall give liberty to marry without asking in the church, or without the ceremonies in the common prayer book, or make any matrimony good which is prohibited by the law of God, or other cause, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 21. s. 3. and 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 12. s. 3.

46. FOR PLURALITIES OF benefices, 21 H. 8. c. 15. ss. 9—11. 15—25. 29. 31. 33. [rest of this act is REP. and EXP.; see Tab. of Stats. Exp., &c.]

47. If any person having one benefice with cure of souls, being of 21. yearly value, or above, accept any other with cure, and is instituted and inducted in possession thereof, the first benefice is void, 21 H. 8. c. 15. s. 9; and the patron thereof may present another, as if the incumbent had died or resigned, any dispensation to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 10.; and every license, union or dispensation contrary to this act, shall be void, id. s. 11.

48. Every person procuring at the court of Rome, or elsewhere, any licence, union, toleration or dispensation to take more benefices with cure than above limited, or putting in execution any such licence, shall lose the whole profits of every benefice taken by force of such licence, &c. and shall incur penalty of 20*l.*, one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue by original writ, bill, plaint of debt or information in any H. M.'s courts, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 12.

49. All spiritual men of H. M.'s council may purchase dispensation, and take 3 parsonages or benefices, with cure of souls; and all H. M.'s chaplains not sworn of the council, and those of the queen, or any of H. M.'s children, brothers, sisters, uncles or aunts, may, in like manner, purchase dispensation, and keep two benefices with cure of souls, id. s. 13.

50. Every archbishop may have 8 chaplains; duke or bishop, 6; marquis or earl, 5; viscount, 4; duchess, marquis, countess or baroness, being widow, or marrying below the degree of a baron, 2; lord chancellor, baron, or knight of the garter, 3; treasurer and comptroller of the household, H. M.'s secretary, dean of H. M.'s chapel, H. M.'s amner, master of the rolls, 2; C. J. of K. B., 1; warden of cinque ports, 1; which chaplains may respectively purchase dispensation, and have two benefices with cure of soul, id. ss. 14—19. 24. 33. [And see 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 10. infra, pl. 100.]

51. The brothers and sons born in wedlock of all temporal lords and knights may purchase dispensation, and have two benefices with cure of souls, id. ss. 20, 21.

52. Such chaplains so having plurality of benefices with cure, shall be bound to have and exhibit where need is, letters under sign or seal of H. M., or other their master, testifying whose chaplains they are, or else shall not enjoy such plurality, id. s. 22.

53. Doctors and bachelors of divinity, doctors of law and bachelors of law canon admitted to such degrees by any of the universities of the realm, and not by grace only, may purchase dispensation, and have two benefices, id. s. 23.

54. Number of chaplains so limited shall not be exceeded, and any spiritual person advanced above it shall incur the penalty of this act, id. s. 25.

55. H. M., notwithstanding this act, may give any number of benefices to his chaplains without their incurring its penalty, id. s. 29.

56. Provided no deanery, archdeaconry, chancellorship, treasurer'ship, chauntership or prebend in any cathedral that hath a vicar endowed, nor any benefice perpetually appropriate, be comprehended under the term 'benefice having' cure, id. s. 31.

57. EVERY JUDGE OF K. B. and C. P., and every chancellor and chief baron of exchequer, and H. M.'s attorney and solicitor-generals for the time being, may retain and have singularly to every of them in his house, or attendant on his person, one chaplain, having one benefice with cure of souls, who may be non-resident on such his benefice, 25 H. 8. c. 16. s. 1. [sem. CONF. 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 10. infra, pl. 100.]

58. Chancellors of the court of the duchy of Lancaster, general surveyors of H. M.'s lands, treasurer of H. M.'s chamber, and the groom of the stole, may retain each one chaplain, having one benefice with cure, who may be non-resident thereon, 33 H. 8. c. 28. ss. 1, 2. [Sem. CONF. 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 16. infra, pl. 107.]

59. Every such chaplain must repair twice a-year to his benefice, and tarry 8 days to visit and instruct his cure, on penalty of 40*s.*, to be recovered and disposed of as in 21 H. 8. c. 13. s. 26., id. s. 3.

60. SUCH FORM OF CONSECRATING archbishops, and other ministers of the church, as shall be devised and set forth under great seal before 1st April next, shall be lawfully exercised and used, and none other, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 12. [REP. 1 M. S. 2. c. 2. but that act is REP. 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 48.]

61. FOR REPEAL OF A BRANCH (viz. s. 18.) of 1 EL. c. 1. concerning commissioners for causes ecclesiastical, 16 C. 1. c. 11. s. 5. and 13 C. 2. S. 1. c. 12. s. 3. [The rest of 16 C. 1. c. 11. is REP. 13 C. 2. S. 1. c. 12. s. 2.]

62. The high commission court abolished, and no new court shall be erected with its powers, 16 C. 1. c. 11. s. 3. [and see pl. 66.]

63. Archbishops, bishops and other persons exercising ecclesiastical jurisdiction, may exercise all manner thereof, and all censures and coercions belonging thereto in all matters belonging to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, according to H. M.'s ecclesiastical laws, as amply as before 16 C. 1. c. 11. passed, 13 C. 2. S. 1. c. 12. s. 1.

64. No person having ecclesiastical jurisdiction may tender to any person the oath usually called the oath ex officio, or any oath whereby he may be charged to confess, accuse or purge himself of any criminal matter, whereby he may be liable to censure or punishment, 16 C. 2. s. 1. c. 12. s. 4.

65. Nothing herein shall give any new ecclesiastical jurisdiction, or diminish H. M.'s supremacy, id. s. 5.

66. FOR PREVENTING ECCLESIASTICAL PERSONS from buying the next avoidance of any church preferment, 12 A. S. 2. c. 12. s. 2. [s. 1. as AMD. by 36 G. 3. c. 83. is with that act, REP. 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 1.]

67. If any person shall, for any money or profit, in his own name, or in that of any other, take, procure or accept the next presentation to any benefice with cure of souls, dignity, prebend or living ecclesiastical, and shall be presented or collated thereupon, such presentation, &c. and every induction thereon shall be void, and the agreement simoniacal, H. M. presenting for that one term; and the person so corruptly taking such benefice, &c. shall be disabled to hold the same, and shall be subject to any ecclesiastical punishment, as if such corrupt agreement been made after a vacancy in the benefice, 12 A. S. 2. c. 12. s. 2. [See SIMONY.]

68. FOR ORDINATION OF FOREIGN CLERGYMEN, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 35. [Framed; as the original title repeats s. 1.]

69. The bishop of London for the time being, or any other bishop by him to be appointed, may admit to the order of deacon or priest persons being subjects or citizens of countries out of H. M.'s dominions, without requiring them to take the oath of allegiance, id. s. 1.

70. No person so ordained shall be thereby enabled to act as deacon or priest in H. M.'s dominions, id. s. 2.

71. In the letters testimonial of such orders, the name of the person so ordained shall be inserted with the addition of the country, whereof he is a subject or citizen, and the further description of his not having taken the said oath of allegiance being exempted therefrom by this act, id. s. 3.

72. THE ARCHBISHOPS of Canterbury and York, WITH ANY OTHER bishops they may call to their assistance, may consecrate subjects of countries out of H. M.'s dominions to the office of bishops therein, without H. M.'s licence for their election, or the royal mandate under the great seal for confirmation and consecration, and without requiring them to take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, and of due obedience to the archbishop, 26 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. [This act CONF. 59 G. 3. c. 60. s. 6.]

73. No such consecration shall be made till the royal licence by warrant under sign-manual is obtained by either archbishop, empowering him to perform it, and expressing the names of the persons to be consecrated, nor until the archbishop is fully satisfied of the sufficiency of their learning, the soundness of their faith, and the purity of their manners, 26 G. 3. c. 84. s. 2.

74. No person so consecrated bishop, or desiring consecration from any bishop so consecrated or ordained by such bishop or his successor, shall be enabled to exercise their respective offices in H. M.'s dominions, id. s. 3.

75. A certificate of such consecration under hand and seal of the archbishop who consecrates, containing the name, addition, and country of which such person is a subject, the church in which he is made bishop, and the further description of his not having taken the oaths in s. 1., being exempt therefrom by this act, shall be given, id. s. 4.

76. THE ABOVE ARCHBISHOPS, OR BISHOP of London, OR ANY bishop authorized by any or either of them, may admit to the holy orders of deacon or priest especially for the colonies any person whom on examination he shall deem duly qualified, especially for the purpose of taking on himself the cure of souls, or officiating in any spiritual capacity in H. M.'s colonies or foreign possessions, and residing therein; and a declaration of, and written engagement to perform such purpose under the hand of such person, being deposited in the hands of such archbishop, &c. shall be held a sufficient title with a view to such ordination; and it shall be distinctly stated in his letters of ordination, that he has been ordained for cure of souls in H. M.'s foreign possessions, 59 G. 3. c. 60. s. 1.

77. No person so admitted into holy orders for the purpose in last pl. shall be capable of holding or of being admitted to any benefice or other ecclesiastical dignity soever within the U. K., or of acting as curate therein, without the previous consent and approbation in writing, under hand and seal of the bishop of the diocese, in which any such benefice, &c. is locally situate, nor without like consent, &c. of such one of the said archbishops or bishop of London, by whom or by whose authority he has been originally ordained, or in case of the demise or translation of such archbishop or bishop of his successor in the same see; provided that no such consent, &c. shall be given, unless the applicant first produces a testimony of his good behaviour during his residence abroad from the bishop in whose diocese he has officiated, or if no such bishop, from the governor in council of the colony in which he may have been resident, or from the colonial secretary of state, id. s. 2.

78. No person admitted into holy orders by the bishops of Quebec, Nova Scotia, or Calcutta, or by any other bishop or archbishop than those of Eng. or Ire., shall be capable of officiating in any church or chapel of Eng. or Ire., without special permission from the archbishop of the province where he proposes to officiate, or of holding, or being admitted to any ecclesiastical preferment in Eng. or Ire., or acting as curate therein, without consent and approbation of the archbishop and of the bishop of the diocese wherein any such preferment or curacy is situate, 59 G. 3. c. 60. s. 3.

79. No person after 2 July 1819, ordained deacon or priest by a colonial bishop, who, at the time of such ordination, did not actually possess episcopal jurisdiction over some diocese, district, or place, or was not actually resident therein, shall be capable of at any time holding preferment within H. M.'s dominions, or of being stipendiary curate, or chaplain, or of officiating in any place or manner as a minister of the established church of Eng. and Ire., id. s. 4.

80. And all admissions, inductions, and appointments to curacies made contrary to this act shall be void, id. s. 5.

81. TO REMOVE DOUBTS RESPECTING THE ELIGIBILITY OF persons in holy orders to sit in the house of commons, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 63.

82. No person ordained a priest or deacon, or being a minister of the church of Scot., shall be capable of being elected a member of the house of commons, id. s. 1.

83. The election of such person shall be void; and if any person after his election is ordained a priest, deacon, or minister of the church of Scot., his seat shall be void, and he shall incur a penalty of 500*l.* for every day he shall sit or vote in the house, recoverable with full costs by any informer suing for the same in any of the courts at Westminster, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which no essoin, &c. and only one imparance shall be allowed; and every person against whom such penalty, &c. shall be recovered under this act, shall be incapable of holding any ecclesiastical preferment, or any office of profit under H. M., id. s. 2.

84. No person shall be liable to the penalty under this act, unless prosecution is commenced within 12 calendar months after it is incurred, id. s. 3.

85. Proof of celebration of divine service according to the rites of the churches of Eng. or Scot. in any church or chapel consecrated for public worship, shall be prima facie evidence of the party's ordination or ministry, id. s. 4.

86. TO ENFORCE DUE OBSERVANCE OF THE CANONS AND rubrics respecting the ages of persons to be admitted into the sacred orders of deacon and priest, 44 G. 3. c. 43.

87. No person shall be admitted a deacon till he has attained 25 years, nor a priest till 24 years of age complete, and any admission before those ages is void in law, and the person shall be incapable of holding any benefice or spiritual promotion soever in respect of such admission; but no title by lapse shall accrue by any avoidance, &c. under this statute, till after 6 months' notice given by the ordinary to the patron, id. s. 1.

88. Nothing herein shall affect the right of granting faculties by the archbishops of Canterbury and Armagh, id. s. 2.

89. TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND THE LAWS RELATING TO spiritual persons holding of farms, and for enforcing the residence of spiritual persons on their benefices, and for the support and maintenance of stipendiary curates in Eng., 57 G. 3. c. 99. [does not extend to Ire., id. s. 85.]

90. The 21 H. 8. c. 13. ss. 1—8. 26—28. 30. 32. 34. 35., 28 H. 8. c. 13. 13 El. c. 20., 14 El. c. 11. ss. 14—16., 18 El. c. 11., 43 El. c. 9. s. 8., 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 2. relating to spiritual persons, holding of farms, and to leases of benefices and livings, and to buying and selling, and to residence of spiritual persons on their benefices, and 12 A. S. 2. c. 12. s. 1. and 36 G. 3. c. 83. ss. 1—2. relating to maintenance of curates within the church of Eng., and making provision for appointing them stipends, as well as 43 G. 3. cc. 84. 109. and 53 G. 3. c. 149. shall be REP., id. s. 1.

91. No spiritual person having any dignity, prebend, canonry, benefice, or stipendiary curacy, or lectureship, shall take to farm for occupation by himself by lease, grant, words, or otherwise, for term of life or years, or at will, any lands exceeding in the whole 80 acres, for the purpose of occupying, using, or cultivating the same, without the special consent in writing of the bishop of diocese wherein such dignity, &c. is locally situate; and such permission shall specify the number of years (not beyond seven), for which the same is given; and every such spiritual person, who without permission shall take any more land than 80 acres, shall forfeit 40*l.* per acre above that number for every year during which he shall occupy the same, to be recovered by and to the use of party suing, id. s. 2.

92. No such spiritual person shall, by himself, or another to his use, engage in, or carry on any trade or dealing for gain, or deal in any goods or merchandize by buying and selling for profit in any fair or market, on pain of forfeiting the value of such goods bargained or bought to sell again contrary to this act; and every bargain or contract so made by him, or by any person to his use contrary to this act, shall be void, and the forfeiture go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, id. s. 3.

93. Nothing herein relating to being engaged in trade or dealing, or buying, or selling, shall extend to, or subject to any penalty, any spiritual person for keeping a school, or acting as a schoolmaster or tutor, or being in any way engaged in giving instruction or education for profit or reward, or for buying or selling, or doing any other act in relation to managing such school or employment; nor to any spiritual person for buying any goods or merchandize for the purpose of bonâ fide employing same for his family or household, and afterwards selling the same, or any parts thereof, which he may not want, or choose to keep, though at an advanced price; nor for buying or selling again for profit any kind of cattle, corn, or other things, necessary for the occupation, manuring, improving, pasturage, or profit of any glebe, demesne, farms, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which may be lawfully held by such spiritual person, or by some other to his use; but nothing herein shall authorize such persons to sell such cattle, corn, &c. in person in any market, fair, or place of public sale, 57 G.3. c.99. s.4.

94. All spiritual persons holding any benefice, who shall, without any licence or exemption as by this act allowed, wilfully absent himself therefrom for 3 months together, to be accounted at several times in one year, and abide elsewhere than at some other benefice, donative, &c. of which he may be possessed, shall, when his absence shall exceed such period and not 6 months, forfeit one third of the annual value (deducting thereout all outgoings except curates' salary) of the benefice, &c. from which he shall absent himself, id. s.5.

95. When such absence shall exceed 6 months but not 8, he shall forfeit one half of such values, and when it shall exceed 8 months 2 thirds, and when the whole year 3 fourths thereof, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or of great sessions in Wa., and no essoin, &c. allowed. The whole of penalty shall go to party suing, with such costs of suit as are allowed according to practice of the court where action brought, id. s.5.

96. Every spiritual person having any benefice and no house of residence thereon, and who has resided 9 months of the year within the limits of his benefice, or of the city, town, place, or parish, where his benefice is situate, (provided such residence be within 2 miles from the church or chapel of his benefice,) shall not be liable to any penalties for non-residence, nor obliged to take out any licence in respect thereof, but same shall be deemed a legal residence, and in all returns made by bishops, persons so residing shall be returned as resident, id. s.6.

97. Houses purchased by governors of Queen Anne's bounty, though not situate within the parishes for which they are purchased, approved by the bishop, by writing under his hand and seal, and duly registered in the registry of the diocese, shall be deemed houses of residence appertaining to such benefices, id. s.7. [See BENEFICE, pl. 34. 57.]

98. In cases of rectories having vicarages endowed, the residence of the vicar in the rectory house shall be deemed a legal residence, provided the vicarage house be kept in proper repair to satisfaction of the bishop, id. s.8.

99. The bishop in every case where there is not a house of residence belonging to any benefice within the diocese, may allow any fit house within, or if convenient without, the limits of the benefice, to be the house of residence thereof; and such allowance and adjudication in writing under hand and seal of bishop, shall be registered in the registry of the diocese; and such house shall be thenceforth deemed the house of residence for time being, id. s.9.

100. No spiritual person being chancellor, vice-chancellor, or commissary of either university of Oxford or Cambridge, or being warden, or other head of any college within such universities, or holding any professorship or public readership within such universities, being actually resident within the precincts of such universities, or actually residing and reading lectures therein; no scholar under 30 years of age abiding for study without fraud at either university; no chaplain of the king or queen, or their children, brethren, or sisters, during so long as he shall actually attend in discharge of his duty as such chaplain in the household to which he belongs; no chaplain of any archbishop or bishop, or temporal lord of parliament, or other person authorized by law to appoint chaplains [see 21 H.8. c.13. s.14., &c. pl. 51.] for so long as such chaplain, &c. shall abide and dwell, and daily attend in actual performance of his duty as such, in the household to which he so belongs; and no chaplain to house of commons, clerk or deputy-clerk of H.M.'s closet, or clerk or deputy-clerk of the closet of the heir-apparent, or chaplain-general of H.M.'s forces by sea or land, or chaplain of H.M.'s dock-yards, while actually attending and performing the duties of such office respectively; no chaplain of the household of British ambassadors abroad; no chancellor, or vicar-general, or commissary while performing the duties of their offices; no archdeacon while on visitation or otherwise engaged in his functions; no minor, canon, vicar choral, or priest vicar, or any other such like officer in any cathedral or collegiate church, during his actual residence within precincts thereof, or of the town, &c. where the same is situated, or its suburbs, and actually performing the duties of his office; no dean, subdean, priest, or reader, in H.M.'s chapels at St. James or Whitehall, or reader in H.M.'s private chapels at Windsor, or elsewhere, while residing and actually performing the duty of any such office respectively; no preacher in any inn of court or at the rolls; no bursar, treasurer, dean, vice-president, subdean, or public tutor, or chaplain, or other such public officer in any college or hall in Oxford or Cambridge, during his official and actual residence to perform the duties of any such office; no public librarian, public registrar, proctor, or public orator, or such like public officer in either Oxford or Cambridge, during like official and actual residence; no fellow of any college in such universities, during the time for which he may be required to reside by charter or statute, and shall actually reside therein; no warden, provost, or fellow, of Eton or Winchester colleges, or master of charterhouse, during the time he is required to, and shall actually reside therein, or within the city, or town, or suburbs thereof, within or near which the colleges are respectively situate; and no proctor or usher in the colleges of Eton, Winchester, or Westminster school, or as principal or professor of East India college; and no persons specially exempt from residence under any acts of parliament not hereby repealed, shall be liable to any of the penalties of this act for any non-residence, during the above period on any benefice; but every such spiritual person with respect to residence under this act shall be entitled to account such period, as if he had legally resided on some other benefice, 57 G.3. c.99. s.10.

101. Any dean, during residence on his deanery, or being prebendary or canon, or holding any other dignity in any cathedral or collegiate church, who shall reside any period not exceeding 4 months within the year upon such dignity, may account such residence as a legal residence on some benefice; provided, that any spiritual person holding any prebend, canonry, or dignity in any cathedral or collegiate church in which the year for the purposes of residence is accounted to commence at other period than 1st Jan., and who may keep the periods of residence required for 2 successive years at such cathedral, &c., in whole or in part between 1st Jan. and 31st Dec. in any one year, may account such residence, though exceeding 4 months in the year, as reckoned from 1st Jan. to 31st Dec. in any one year, as if he had legally resided on some benefice, id. s.11.

102. The bishop of the diocese in which any benefice is locally situate may license any longer period of non-residence thereon of any prebendary, canon, or other person holding any dignity in a cathedral or collegiate church, in cases where, from his own knowledge (if such cathedral is within his own diocese, or if not, by certificate of the bishop of diocese where it is locally situate,) it shall appear necessary; provided every such person shall in any such period reside on such dignity, id. s.12.

103. No person appointed to any such dignity before this act passed shall be subject to any penalty for non-residence on any benefice during his actual residence on such dignity, id. s.13.

104. Persons having houses of residence on their benefices, but not resident thereon, shall, during period of non-residence, whether for the whole or part of a year, keep the same in good repair; and if they neglect so to do, and on monition from the bishop shall not put it in repair according to and within the time therein mentioned, to the satisfaction of the bishop, and to be certified to him upon such survey and report as are required by the bishop in that behalf, shall be liable, to the penalties of non-residence notwithstanding exemption or licence during the time such house is out of repair, and until it has been put in good repair to the satisfaction of the bishop, id. s.14.

105. Any bishop, on application by petition in writing by any spiritual person, or by any fit person on behalf of any such person having any benefice locally situate within his diocese, upon such proofs as to any facts stated in such petition, as such bishop may think necessary and shall require by affidavit made before any ecclesiastical judge or his surrogate, or any justice of peace or magistrate, or master extraordinary in chancery, (which oath they are hereby respectively required to administer,) may grant in the cases herein enumerated, on due consideration of all the circumstances stated in any such application, and verified to his satisfaction as above, a licence in writing under his hand expressing the cause of granting it to such person to reside out of parish or proper house of residence, in order to exempt him from penalty of non-residence, id. s.15.

106. Such licence may be granted, 1st, to any spiritual person prevented from residence in the proper house of residence or in the parish by a actual illness of himself, wife, or child, making part of his family, and residing with him as such; 2dly, to persons holding any benefice wherein there is no house of residence, or where it is unfit for residence, such unfitness not being occasioned by default of such person, and same being kept in repair by him to satisfaction of the bishop; 3dly, to such persons holding any benefice and occupying in the parish thereof respectively any mansion or messuage, he keeping in repair such house of residence and producing proof thereof to satisfaction of the bishop at the time when the licence is granted or renewed; 4thly, to such persons holding any benefice of small value, and serving as stipendiary curate elsewhere, and providing for serving his own benefice to satisfaction of bishop; 5thly, to any master or usher of any endowed school licensed by bishop and actually employed in teaching therein; 6thly, to any master or preacher of any hospital or incorporated charitable foundation during the period of residence required by charter or statute of such hospital, &c. or other lawful authority therein; and shall actually reside and do duties therein; 7thly, to persons holding any endowed lectureship, chapelry, or preachingship, and executing the duties thereof respectively, with licence of the bishop in whose diocese he so officiates; 8thly, to any spiritual person holding any benefice of small value and serving as preacher in any proprietary chapel in any city or town, with like licence of the bishop; 9thly, to any person actually serving as a chaplain in any of H.M.'s garrisons, or to the royal military asylum at Chelsea, college at Sandhurst, or royal hospitals at Greenwich or Chelsea, Haslar or Plymouth, or to the Naval Asylum, or in H.M.'s navy, the gaol of Newgate, or Penitentiary at Milbank, or to any British factory, or as teacher at the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, or as principal surrogate or official in any ecclesiastical court of a diocese, or as librarian of British museum, or Sion college, or as trustee of lord Crewe's charity, during the time of their personal attendance on the duties of such offices respectively; provided the persons obtaining such licence shall pay to bishop's secretary or officer 10s. only besides stamp duty; and if such applicant is aggrieved by the refusal of such licence, he may apply to the archbishop of the province; who shall forthwith either by himself or some commissioners, appointed from among the bishops of his province under his hand make enquiry into the same, and by writing signed by himself confirm such refusal or grant a licence under this act, as seems just; provided that such appellant shall give security to the bishop to pay reasonable expenses attending such appeal as the archbishop or his commissioners shall award, 57 G.3. c. 99. s. 15.

107. Such bishop in any cases not above enumerated, may grant a licence to any person to reside out of the parish or proper house of residence, if he deems it expedient, and may assign, in cases where stipendiary curates are employed, such salary as he deems fit, having respect to the value of the benefice and all other circumstances of the case; and may grant such licence without application made for that purpose, in case of absence from the realm of any spiritual person, and may renew same, and in every such case shall appoint a stipendiary curate, in case none duly licensed is there employed in serving such benefice, and may assign him a salary, or if any curate already employed may encrease his salary, and in every such case may order the same to be paid by sequestration of the profits of the benefice; provided that the nature and special circumstances thereof, and the reasons which induced the bishop to grant such licence, shall be forthwith transmitted to the archbishop of the province; who shall forthwith, by himself or some commissioner appointed from his bishops by writing under his hand (and who are therefore authorized to execute such commission), examine into the case, and make such enquiries as to any particulars relating thereto as he may think necessary; and after such enquiries made by himself, or where made by commissioners after return of the substance thereof in writing to such archbishop, he shall thereupon allow or annul such licence or alter same in whole or in part as to the period for which the same has been granted or otherwise, and likewise as to the curate's stipend, as seems fit to him; and no such licence shall be good unless it is allowed by such archbishop, such allowance being signified by his signing the same, and the cause of granting the same need not be stated, id. s. 16.

108. The death or removal of the bishop shall not void any licences by him granted, but the same shall be good unless revoked by any successor, id. s. 17.

109. Every application to the bishop for licence for non-residence shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, and shall state whether the party will perform the duty himself, and if so, where and at what distance he intends to reside; or if he intends to employ a curate it shall state the salary to be given him, and whether curate will reside in the parish; and if so, whether in the parsonage house; and if he does not intend to reside therein, shall state at what distance therefrom, and at what place he will reside, and whether such curate serves any other parish as curate or incumbent, or has any ecclesiastical preferment, or holds any donative perpetual curacy or chapelry, or officiates in any other church or chapel, and also the gross annual value of the applicant's benefice, and such licence shall not be granted unless the application contain a statement of the above particulars; and all such applications and specifications shall be filed by the registrar in a separate book, of which no inspection or copies shall be made except by leave in writing from the bishop, id. s. 18.

110. During the vacancy of any see, such licences may be granted by the vicar-general of the diocese; or in case the bishop cannot exercise in person the functions of his office, the same shall be exercised by the person lawfully empowered to exercise his general jurisdiction in the diocese, id. s. 19.

111. Any bishop who has granted any licence for non-residence, as above, or his successors, may revoke the same if he thinks fit; but the spiritual person may appeal, as in s. 15. pl. 107. and the archbishop appealed to may order such reasonable fees and charges to be paid by the appellants, for any such proceedings, as in his discretion he shall deem fit; but no licence for non-residence shall continue in force above 3 years from its being granted, or after 31st Dec. in the second year after that in which it is granted, 57 G.3. c. 99. s. 20.

112. Every bishop granting or revoking any licence for non-residence, under this act, shall, within one month after, cause a copy of every such licence or revocation to be filed in the registry of his diocese, and the registrar shall make an alphabetical list, to be entered in a book, and inspected by all persons, on payment of 3s. only: and a copy of every such licence, with respect to any benefice, shall be transmitted by the spiritual person to whom it was granted, to the churchwardens of the parish, &c. to which it relates, within one month after grant thereof, and every bishop revoking any licence shall cause such revocation to be transmitted to a churchwarden of the parish or place to which it relates, to be deposited in the parish chest, and every registrar neglecting to enter the same, shall forfeit for each neglect 5l. to be recovered imposed may be, and a copy of every such licence or revocation, shall likewise be produced by the churchwardens, and publicly read at the visitation for the district, next succeeding such grant or revocation, id. s. 21.

113. Every archbishop who shall in his own diocese grant, or allow, or approve, as herein directed, any licence in cases not enumerated herein, shall annually, before 31st Jan., transmit to H. M. in council, a list of all such licences so granted, allowed, or so approved, in the year ending on 31st Dec. preceding, and shall specify therein the reasons that induced him to grant or approve the same, with the reasons transmitted to him by the bishops for granting same: and H. M. may, by order in council, revoke and annul any such licence, and if it is so revoked, a copy of any such order shall be sent to the archbishop granting or approving such licence, who shall transmit a copy thereof to the bishop of the diocese where the licence was granted, who shall file a copy of the mandatory part, in the registry of his diocese, and deliver a like copy to the churchwardens of the parish to which it relates, as in s. 21. pl. 113. and if granted by archbishop, he shall file and deliver such copies in his own diocese, but such licence, although so revoked, shall be deemed valid, for the period between its grant and revocation, id. s. 22.

114. On or before 25th March, in every year, every bishop shall make a return to H. M. in council, of every benefice within his diocese, and the name of the several persons holding the same, specifying those who have and those who have not resided, by reason of any exemption under this act, or of any licence granted by such bishop, for any, and what causes, enumerated by this act, and also of all persons not having any such exemption or licence, who have not resided on their respective benefices, as far as the bishop is informed thereof, and also the names of all curates licensed to serve the benefice of any non-resident incumbent, and whether the gross annual value of any benefice amounts to or exceeds 300l. per ann. or not, the amount of the curate's salary, and his place of residence; and every spiritual person non-resident by reason of exemption, or resident on another benefice, for which they need not take out any licence under this act, shall within 6 weeks after 1st Jan. in every following year, notify the same in writing, under his hand, to the bishop of his diocese, specifying the nature of such exemption, and whether the gross annual value of the benefice on which he is non-resident, amounts to or exceeds 300l. per ann. or not, and every spiritual person having more than one benefice, and residing on one of them, or residing during any part of the year on any dignity, or in performance of the duties of any office in any cathedral or collegiate church, or who are non-resident for any period of the year, for any of the causes of temporary exemption specified in this act, shall, in like manner, and within like period in each year, notify the same, id. s. 23.

115. Persons neglecting to make such notification within the time, in last pl., shall forfeit 20l. for each offence, to be levied by order of the bishop, by sequestration, (if not paid after monition to pay same) out of the profits of the benefice, in respect of which such neglect is incurred, to be applied according to direction of the bishop in charity, provided he may remit or order repayment of any part of the penalty (in same way as in pl. 119. allowed) for non-compliance with order for residence, id. s. 24.

117. Nothing in this act shall exempt any spiritual person from ecclesiastical censures for non-residence, without licence, or affect any proceedings hereinafter to be instituted in any ecclesiastical court, in relation to non-residence of any person holding any benefice; who is not licensed for nor has other lawful cause for absence, in order to inflict same, provided no proceedings be admitted in any ecclesiastical court, against such spiritual person for such non-residence, not exceeding 3 months in one year, except at instance of the bishop of the diocese where the benefice not resided on is situated, 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 25.

118. If any person holding any benefice, and not being licensed, or having other lawful cause of absence, does not sufficiently reside on the same, the bishop may issue a monition to him forthwith to reside thereon, and perform the duties thereof, and to make a return to such monition within a time therein limited; so as there be 30 days between the time of delivering the same to such person, or leaving it at his then usual or last abode, or if not there to be found, then with the officiating minister, or one of the churchwardens, and also at the house of residence (if any) belonging to such benefice, whither such person is required by such monition to go and reside, and the time for making a return thereto; on issuing a monition, a copy shall be filed in the registry of the bishop's court, and open for inspection on payment of 3s.; the person to whom such monition is directed shall make return into such registry, within the time specified, there to be filed, and the bishop may require such return to be verified on oath of such person, and others, before some surrogate, justice of peace, or master extraordinary in chancery, who shall administer the same, on application for that purpose; and in every case where no such return is made, or where it does not state satisfactory reasons for non-residence, or where the same or any of the facts therein shall not be so verified on oath when required, the bishop may issue an order in writing, under his hand and seal, requiring such spiritual person to reside as aforesaid, within 30 days after such order in writing, or delivery of a copy thereof, as hereinbefore required in case of monitions, id. s. 26.

119. In case of non-compliance with such order, such bishop may sequester the profits of the benefice of such spiritual person, till complied with, or good reasons stated and proved for non-residence, and may, by order under his hand, filed as in pl. 118., apply such profits after deducting the expences of serving the cure, in such way as he deems fit, in the first place, to pay the expences of such monition and sequestration; in the next, towards augmentation and improvement of any such benefice, or the house of residence, buildings, appurtenances, or glebe thereof; and may direct the same, or part thereof, to be paid to the governors of queen Anne's bounty, for augmentation of the maintenance of poor clergy, to be applied for the purposes of such augmentation, as such bishop shall under all circumstances think fit; and any such bishop, within 6 months after such order for sequestration, or after any money actually levied, may remit to such spiritual person any part of such sequestered profits, or cause any part thereof that has been paid to such governors of queen Anne's bounty, to be repaid him by order under the hand of such bishop, out of any money then or next coming into their hands, in any case where by reason of subsequent obedience to monition or order, or of the stating and proving sufficient reasons as above, such bishop shall think the same proper; provided such spiritual person may, within one month after order made, appeal against such sequestration to the archbishop of the province, who by himself, or his commissioner, or commissioners appointed from among his bishops, under his hand and seal, shall forthwith enquire into same, and make such order therein relating thereto, or to the profits so sequestered for the return of the same, or any part thereof, or otherwise, as under all circumstances he shall deem fit, after such inquiry made by himself, or the substance thereof returned in writing to him by such commissioner, &c. provided such appellant shall give security to bishop for payment of such reasonable expences of appeal, as the archbishop or his commissioners &c. shall award, and provided that no order for sequestration shall be put in force pending such appeal, id. ibid.

120. Every person who shall forthwith return to residence in obedience to monition, and the profits of whose benefice are not sequestered, shall nevertheless pay all costs attending the same, to be levied in same way as any costs may be levied on any spiritual person under this act, id. s. 27.

121. If any person, not licensed under this act for non-residence, or not having lawful cause of absence therefrom, shall, in obedience to any such monition or order, and before or after sequestration, begin to reside in his benefice, and shall within 6 months after such commencement to reside without leave of bishop, begin to absent himself, such bishop may again sequester, and apply the profits of his benefice as in s. 26. pl. 119. without issuing any other monition or order, and may so proceed in like cases from time to time, as occasion requires: provided that such party may again appeal against it, in like manner as before directed; but such sequestration shall nevertheless be in force during such appeal, id. s. 28.

122. Where any spiritual person has become subject to any penalty for non-residence, the bishop of the diocese within which the same has arisen, may proceed against him for such past non-residence, and levy the penalties incurred thereby by monition and sequestration, and direct application thereof in like manner, and with like regulations and powers of remitting or ordering repayment of any part of such penalties, as directed in cases of non-compliance with any order of residence, 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 29.

123. Where any archbishop or bishop has proceeded by monition to recover the penalties of more than one-third the value of such benefice for any non-residence exceeding 6 months in the year, and has remitted the same in whole or in part, such archbishop, &c. shall forthwith transmit to H. M. in council, and such bishop to the archbishop of his province, a list of such cases as have occurred in his or their dioceses, specifying the nature and special circumstances of each case, and reasons for the remission, as in s. 16. pl. 107., and H. M. or the archbishop, as the case is, may allow or disallow such remission, in same way as licences for non-residence, [see s. 15. pl. 106.], but the archbishop's decision in cases transmitted to him from any bishop is final, id. s. 30.

124. If the benefice of any spiritual person shall continue for 2 years under any sequestration made under this act, for disobedience to the bishop's monition, requiring him to reside on his benefice, or shall incur under this act, 3 such sequestrations in 2 years, (such spiritual person not being relieved therefrom on appeal) the benefice not resided on shall be void, and the bishop shall give notice thereof to the patron, who may present any other than the same spiritual person, id. s. 31.

125. All contracts for letting the house of residence, or buildings, gardens, orchards, and appurtenances, necessary to the convenient occupation thereof, belonging to any benefice, to which house any spiritual person is required by order of the bishop to proceed and reside therein, or which is assigned as a residence to any curate by the bishop, shall, on serving a copy of such order or assignment on the occupier thereof, or left at the house, be void; and a copy of such order, &c. shall immediately on its issue, be transmitted to one of the churchwardens, or such other person as the bishop thinks fit, and by him forthwith served on such occupier, or left at the house; and any person continuing to hold the same after the day appointed by such order for the residence therein of such spiritual person, or specified in any such assignment, and after service or leaving such copy as above, shall forfeit 40s. for every day which he shall, without permission of the bishop in writing, wilfully continue to hold the same, together with the expense of serving such order, if specially served, to be allowed by the bishop, and recovered and applied as the non-residence penalties, under this act; and the spiritual person so directed to reside, or curate to whom such residence is assigned, may apply to any justice or magistrate for a warrant for taking possession thereof, who, on production of the order for such possession, shall thereupon give a warrant for the same, and possession may thereupon be taken at any time in the day-time, by entering it by force, if necessary, without other proceeding by ejectment or otherwise, id. s. 32.

126. No spiritual person is liable to any penalties for non-residence during such time as such tenant shall occupy such house of residence and building, &c., id. s. 33.

127. After passing this act, no oath shall be required to be taken by any vicar in relation to residence on his vicarage, id. s. 34.

128. No penalty shall be recovered against any spiritual person under this act, other than such as were incurred within a year, ending 31st Dec. immediately preceding the commencement of any proceeding or action for recovery thereof, id. s. 35.

129. No action of debt for recovery of penalties under this act, shall be commenced or filed in H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or great sessions in W'a., until 1st May after expiration of the year in which the offence took place, id. s. 37.

130. For purposes of this act, the year shall commence 1st Jan. and conclude the 31st Dec. both inclusive, id. s. 38.; and the months herein named shall be deemed calendar months, except in any case where a month is to be made up of different periods less than a month, in every which case 30 days shall be a month, id. s. 39.

131. No writ shall be sued out, nor copy of any process served at suit of any informer on any spiritual persons, for any penalty incurred under this act, till a notice in writing of such intended writ or process shall have been left at the usual or last place of his abode, and also to the bishop of the diocese, by leaving it at the registry by the attorney or agent of the party intending to sue the same out, one calendar month before suing out or serving the same, in which notice shall be clearly expressed the cause of action, and the penalty to be sued for, and indorsed with name and abode of the attorney; and no such notice shall be given before 1st April, in the year next after any penalties have been incurred, id. s. 40.

132. No plaintiff shall recover in such action without proof made that such notices were given, and in default thereof, defendant shall have a verdict with double costs, id. s. 41.

133. No evidence shall be permitted to be given by plaintiff at trial of any such action of any cause of action, except that contained in his notice, id. s. 42.

134. Any spiritual person sued for such penalties may, with leave of the court, at any time before issue joined, pay into court such sum as the court deems fit, whereupon proceedings thereon shall be had, as in other actions, where defendant is allowed to pay money into court, 57 G.3. c.99. s.43.

135. The court where such action is pending for recovery of any penalty for non-residence under this act, shall, on application made for that purpose, require by rule or order of the court, or of any judge thereof, the bishop of the diocese within which the benefice is locally situate, or to whom the same is subject, according to this act, to certify in writing under his hand, to such court, and also to the party named for that purpose, in such rule or order, the reputed annual value of such benefice; and upon such rule or order being left with such bishop or his registrar, he shall certify accordingly, and such certificate in all subsequent proceedings on such action or information, shall be received as evidence of the annual value of the benefice for the purposes of this act, but without prejudice to the admissibility or effect of other evidence, respecting the real value thereof, id. s.44.

136. A licence for non-residence, and other licences granted under this act, may be pleaded in bar of any action for penalties under this act; and if after such plea pleaded, plaintiff discontinues, defendant shall have full costs of suit; and if a verdict is given for defendant, or plaintiff is nonsuited, defendant shall have double costs, with usual remedy to recover same, and the court, or a judge thereof may, on application, order that plaintiff shall give security for payment of such costs, and that proceedings shall be staid till such security is given as the court, &c. thinks fit, id. s.45.

137. Provided, that if at the time of filing any monition requiring any spiritual person to reside on his benefice, or to recover the penalties for past non-residence, no notice of action for any penalty shall have been already given as above, then no such action or information shall afterwards be brought for any penalty incurred before monition issued, or during proceedings had under it: and if any such action, &c. is so brought, defendant may plead in bar a monition, issued for the same benefice, and unless it is dispensed with on application to court, shall, on pleading such matter, file an affidavit, stating the period specified in such monition, and that he believes bishop is proceeding thereon to make it effectual, otherwise the plea shall be bad, id. s.46.

138. No penalty or costs incurred by any spiritual person for non-residence, shall be levied by execution on the body, whilst they hold the same or another benefice out of the profits of which it can be levied by sequestration within 3 years; and in case the body is so taken, the court or judge thereof shall, on application made, discharge the party, if it appears to his satisfaction that the penalty and costs can be so levied, id. s.47.

139. If any spiritual person holding any benefice, who does not actually reside thereon 9 months in the year, (unless he shall do the duty of the same, or has a legal exemption from residence,) or a licence to reside out of same, or out of the usual house of residence thereof) shall for exceeding 3 months absent himself therefrom, without leaving a curate duly licensed, or other spiritual person to, and who shall duly perform the ecclesiastical duties of such benefice, or shall for 3 months after the death or removal of any curate who has served his church, neglect to notify same to his bishop, or to nominate to him a proper curate, then the bishop may appoint and license one to serve such church, with salary as herein directed; provided that in every case the licence shall specify whether the curate is to reside within the parish or place, or not; and if he is permitted by the bishop to reside out of the parish, &c. the grounds of such permission shall be set forth therein; and the distance of his residence shall not exceed 5 statute miles from the church he is to serve, except in cases of necessity, approved by bishop, and specified in the licences, id. s.48.

140. Where a curate is appointed to serve the benefice of any incumbent who is non-resident for more than 3 months in the year, from exemption, licence, or otherwise, such curate shall reside within the parish, provided the gross annual value of the benefice amounts to, or exceeds 300*l.* and the population 300; or provided the population amounts to 1000 persons or more, whatever may be the value of the benefice; provided that where it is made out to bishop's satisfaction, that from peculiar circumstances great inconvenience would arise from such curate being compelled to reside in the parish, he may allow him to reside in some convenient place near; but such circumstances shall be specified in the licence, and entered and filed in the registry of the diocese, id. s.49.

141. Whenever it appears to satisfaction of the bishop, either of his own knowledge, or on proof by affidavit laid before him, that, by reason of the number of churches or chapels belonging to any benefice, locally situate within his diocese; their distance from each other, or from the residence of the clergyman serving them, or any, or either of them, or from the negligence of the incumbent, the ecclesiastical duties of such benefice are inadequately performed, the bishop may, by writing under his hand, require the incumbent to nominate to him a fit person, with sufficient stipend to be licensed by him to perform such duties, or assist therein, specifying the grounds of such proceeding; and if the incumbent neglects to comply with such requisition for 3 months after it is made, the bishop may appoint a curate or curates, as the case requires, with such stipend as the bishop thinks fit to appoint, not exceeding in any case in the whole the stipends by this act allowed, nor, except in case of negligence, exceeding one-half of the gross annual value of the benefice, though the incumbent may actually reside or serve the same; provided, that such requisition, and any affidavit made to found same, be forthwith filed in the registry of the bishops' court, and that such incumbent may appeal to archbishop of the province, in same way, [see pl. 119.] as in case of sequestration issued by the bishop, 57 G.3. c.99. s.50.

142. Bishops may enforce the performance of the morning and evening service on Sundays, or other service required by law, in any parish church or chapel, or extra-parochial church, by monition and sequestration, issued as in pl. 119. provided, id. s.51.

143. A statement of all particulars, by this act required to be stated by the applicant for a licence for non-residence, shall be given on application for any licence for a curate to serve for a non-resident incumbent, and none shall be granted till such statement is given; and such statement shall be kept filed and preserved for public inspection, as in s.18. pl. 109., id. s.52.

144. Every bishop shall (subject to the restrictions of this act) appoint to every curate the salary hereby allowed, and his licence shall contain the amount thereof; and such licence or a copy of the registry thereof, signed by the registrar, shall be evidence in all courts of its amount; in case of disputes between persons holding benefices and their curates, touching such salary, the bishop may, on complaint, summarily determine the same; and in case of wilful neglect or refusal to pay same, may proceed by monition to sequester the profits of the benefice, until payment of the stipend and its arrears is made; the curate obtaining such licence shall pay bishop's secretary or officer 1*l.*, exclusive of stamp duty, which fee shall go in lieu of all fees now demandable by such secretary, &c. for obtaining such licence, or for signature of any declaration by the curate in consequence of such licence, or of any certificate that such curate signed such declaration; provided, that as often as any person shall be licensed to 2 or more curacies within the same diocese at one time, one declaration only need be signed, as appointed by 13 & 14 C.2. c.4. s.3., [comm. semb.]; and one certificate of such signing is sufficient, id. s.53.

145. The bishop may appoint for the curate any stipend not exceeding 75*l.* per ann.; and also the use of the house of residence with its gardens and stables, or a further sum of 15*l.* in lieu of the use of such house or other house of residence, in case there is no house, or it shall appear inconvenient to assign the same to the curate, in respect of any benefice to which the incumbent was instituted before 20th July, 1813; but the bishops shall not appoint any greater stipend, in respect of such benefices, during the incumbency of such spiritual person, unless with his consent, or in case of neglect to nominate a proper curate to the bishop, id. s.54.

146. When any person shall, after 20th July, 1813, become incumbent of any benefice, and shall not duly reside thereon, (unless he shall do duty of the same, having a legal exemption from residence, or a licence to reside out of same, or out of the usual house of residence,) the bishop shall appoint the salary of the licensed curate, as follows: no such salary shall be less than 80*l.* per ann., or the annual value of the benefice, its gross value does not amount to that sum; nor less than 100*l.* per ann. or the whole value as above if the value shall not amount to 100*l.* per ann., in any parish or place, where according to the last parliamentary returns, the population amounts to or exceeds 300; and not less than 120*l.* per ann., or the whole value as above, if it does not amount to 120*l.* per ann., in any parish or place, where the population ascertained as above, amounts to or exceeds 500; and not less than 150*l.* per ann., or the whole value as above if it does not amount to 150*l.* per ann., in any parish or place where the population ascertained as above, amounts to or exceeds 1000; provided, that the annual value of all benefices, of which the value estimated as herein does not amount to 150*l.* per ann., shall be estimated from the returns made by the bishops of the several dioceses to the governors of queen Anne's bounty, or from any future like returns respecting places omitted in former returns, or in the actual income whereof, it is made appear to the bishops, that any considerable variation has taken place, either by augmentation by queen Anne's bounty or otherwise, id. s.55.

147. Where it appears to the bishop, that the actual annual value of any benefice, clear of all deductions, exceeds 400*l.*, he may assign to the curate resident within the parish and serving no other cure, a salary of 100*l.* per ann., though the population does not amount to 300; or where the actual income exceeds 400*l.* per ann., and the population shall also amount to or exceed 500, any larger salary, not exceeding by more than 50*l. per ann.*, those in s. 55. pl. 146. respectively appointed, 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 56.

148. Smaller salaries fixed at discretion of the bishops may be assigned to curates, in cases where by reason of sickness, age, or other unavoidable cause, any incumbent has become non-resident, or incapable to perform the duties of his benefice; but all licences granted in such case shall specify, that for special reasons the bishop hath not assigned the full salary hereby required, which special reasons shall be entered in a book and deposited in the registry, which book shall not be inspected, except by leave of the bishop or other proper authority, as in s. 18. pl. 109., id. s. 57.

149. If any incumbent of 2 or more benefices, bonâ fide residing on one of them in different proportions of each year, shall employ a curate to perform the duties thereof, interchangeably on the one from which he is absent whilst he resides on the other, the salary to be assigned to such curate shall not exceed that allowed under the act for the largest of such benefices, nor less than that for the smallest, as the bishop shall deem proper; but if any incumbent shall employ a curate or curates for the whole year, on each or any of such benefices the bishop may assign a salary to either or each of such curates less than the amount above fixed, as he thinks fit, id. s. 58.

150. No spiritual person shall serve more than 2 churches or chapels, or one church and one chapel in one day, unless from their local situation, or the value of the benefices, or other special causes, the bishops may deem it expedient to license a person to serve 3 churches or chapels, then he may grant a licence accordingly, the same not being distant from each other more than 4 measured miles; provided, that the reasons for granting such licence shall be stated in it, and shall not be good, unless they are so stated; and provided, that such person's residence is so placed, that he need not travel more than 16 measured miles in one day, to do the duties of such churches, &c., id. s. 59.

151. Where the bishop finds it expedient for proper performance of ecclesiastical duties, he may license any person holding a benefice, to serve as curate of an adjoining or other parish, with a salary less by a sum not exceeding 30*l. per ann.*, than that, in the several cases herein specified, ss. 55, 56. pl. 146, 147.; and where he finds it expedient to license any such person to serve as curate for more than one parish or place, he may direct his salary for serving each to be less by a sum, not exceeding 30*l. per ann.* than those in pl. 146, 147., id. s. 60.

152. All contracts between incumbents and their curates, in fraud or derogation of this act, whereby any curate in any manner undertakes or binds himself to accept or be content with any salary less than that stated in his licence, as allowed him, shall be void at law, and not pleaded or given in evidence at law or equity; and notwithstanding payment and acceptance in pursuance of any such contract, of any sum less than that specified in the licence, or any receipt given for such payment, &c., the curate or his representatives shall be entitled to the full amount of what remains unpaid of the salary specified in his licence; and payment thereof, with treble costs of recovering same, shall be enforced by monition, on proof of what remains so unpaid, to satisfaction of the bishop, and by sequestration of the benefice; provided the application of the curate be made to bishop within 12 months after quitting his curacy, or by representative within 12 months after his death; and provided that no sequestration shall, by virtue hereof, affect the profits of any benefice beyond the time during which it is held by the person liable to make the payment, id. s. 61.

153. Where a bishop appoints for a curate a salary equal to the whole annual value of the benefice, the same shall be subject to deduction for all charges and outgoings legally affecting such value, and to any loss or diminution therein, without wilful default of the incumbent, id. s. 62.

154. The bishop, on application of any spiritual person holding any benefice, the whole profit of which has been allotted to the curate, may allow such incumbent to deduct therefrom, in each year, any sum not exceeding one-fourth of such profit as has been actually laid out, during the year, in repair of the chancel, house of residence and its appurtenances, in respect of which such incumbent, or his executors, &c. would be liable for dilapidations to the successors; and may allow the incumbent of any benefice the profits of which do not exceed 150*l. per ann.* to deduct from the curate's salary, in each year, so much money as shall have been actually laid out in such repairs, above the surplus remaining of such profits, after paying such salary, so as it does not exceed one-fourth of the latter, id. s. 63.

155. The bishop who shall grant any licence to any curate to serve the church of an incumbent non-resident for 4 months during each year, may allot for his residence the house of residence, with the offices, gardens, and appurtenances, during the time he shall serve the cure, or during incumbent's non-residence; and may sequester the profits of such benefice in any case in which possession shall not be given up to the curate, and till such possession is given, and may apply or remit the profits of such sequestration as he thinks fit, id. s. 64.

156. Where a curate is assigned a salary not less than the gross annual value of the benefice he serves, and in addition thereto is directed by bishop to reside in the house of residence thereof, he shall, during such residence, pay the said taxes and parish assessments, in respect of such house and its appendages, which he may occupy as if he had been inducted to the benefice, 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 65.

157. The bishop at any time, on 3 months' notice in writing, may direct any such curate to give up possession of such house of residence with the appurtenances, who shall accordingly do so; and in case of refusal shall forfeit to the incumbent of the benefice 40*s.* for each day of such wrongful possession, to be recovered by such rector, &c. in action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster, as any penalties for non-residence under this act may be recovered, id. s. 66.

158. The incumbent of any benefice, the house of residence wherein has been assigned to curate as a residence, shall not dispossess him of such house until the permission of bishop is given in writing, with 3 months' notice to the curate of such his intention, who shall thereupon quit the same according to notice; and every curate residing in such house of any benefice which becomes vacant, shall quit same within 3 months after appointment of any spiritual person thereto, on being required so to do by the new incumbent, and on having one month's notice to quit, id. s. 67.

159. No curate shall quit any benefice to which he is so licensed, until after 3 months' notice of his intention to quit, given to the person holding such benefice, and to the bishop of the diocese, unless with consent of the latter; on pain to forfeit to such incumbent a sum not exceeding six months' salary, which may be retained out of the stipend when paid, or if it cannot be so retained, it may be recovered as other penalties under this act, id. s. 68.

160. The bishop may license any curate who is actually employed by any incumbent, though not expressly nominated to him by the latter; and the bishop may summarily revoke all licences granted to any curate employed in his diocese, or subject to his jurisdiction therein, and remove such curate for reasonable cause, subject to appeal to archbishop of the province, to be determined in a summary way, id. s. 69.

161. Every bishop who shall grant or revoke any licence to any curate, under this act, shall cause a copy of such licence or revocation to be entered in the registry of his diocese; and an alphabetical list thereof shall be made out by the registrar, and kept for public inspection on payment of 3*s.* only; and a copy of every such licence and revocation shall be transmitted by the registrar to the church or chapel wardens of the parish, &c. to which it relates, within one month after the grant or revocation thereof, to be deposited in the parish chest; and the registrar neglecting to make such entry, or transmit such copy, shall forfeit for each offence 5*l.*, to be recovered as any other penalty under this act; and every registrar shall be entitled to demand of such church, &c. wardens, a fee of 10*s.* only for each copy transmitted, which shall be allowed in the churchwardens' accounts, id. s. 70.

162. All the powers, provisions, and penalties contained in this act, in relation to bishops in their dioceses, shall extend to archbishops in their dioceses of which they are bishops, and also in their own peculiar jurisdictions, as fully as if named with the bishops in every such case, id. s. 71.

163. In all cases wherein the term 'benefice' is used in this act, it shall mean benefice with cure, and shall comprehend therein all donatives, perpetual curacies, and parochial chapels, id. s. 72.

164. Every archbishop or bishop, within the limits of whose province or diocese respectively any benefice, exempt or peculiar, shall be locally situate, shall exercise all the powers of this act therein as if it were not exempt or peculiar, but was subject in all respects to the jurisdiction of such archbishop or bishop; and where any such benefice is locally situate within the limits of more than one province or diocese, or between the limits of the two provinces, or of two or more such dioceses, the archbishop or bishop of the cathedral church to whose province or diocese the parish church is locally nearest, shall have and use all the powers necessary for due execution of this act, and enforcing it with regard thereto respectively, as he could have used if the same were not exempt, &c. and the same for all purposes of this act, shall be deemed within the limits of such province or diocese; provided that peculiars belonging to any archbishopric or bishopric, though locally situate in another diocese, shall continue subject to the person to whom they belong as well for the purposes of this act, as for all others of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, id. s. 73.

165. In every case where jurisdiction is given to the bishop of the diocese, or to any archbishop under this act, all other and concurrent jurisdiction in respect thereof shall cease; save such jurisdiction given under this act, id. s. 74.

166. In all cases where proceedings under this act are directed by monition and sequestration, such monition shall issue under hand and seal of the bishop, and being duly served, shall be returned with a certificate of service into the registry of the consistorial court of such bishop; whereupon the party monished may shew cause by affidavit or otherwise, against the sequestration issuing, and unless good cause is shewn to the contrary, sequestration shall issue under seal of such consistorial court in the usual form, 57 G.3. c.99. s.75.

167. The bishop of any diocese in which any spiritual person shall hold any dignity or benefice, or serve as stipendiary curate, may recover any penalty incurred under this act, in a summary way, by monition and sequestration issued as in s.26. pl. 119, with like powers of remission and repayment, as in case of penalties for non-residence; provided the party against whom such proceedings are had by the bishop, shall not be subject to any action at law by any informer or other person for recovery of any penalty for the same offence for which such proceeding has been so had by the bishop, id. s.76.

168. Any fees or costs incurred or directed to be paid by any spiritual person under this act, and remaining unpaid for 21 days after demand in writing left at the usual or last place of abode of the spiritual person liable to payment thereof, may be recovered by monition and sequestration, to be issued as by this act directed, id. s.77.

169. No commission issued by any bishop to any commissary to administer the oaths required to be taken by any curate for the purpose of any licence granted under this act, shall be subject to stamp duty, id. s.79.

170. Nothing herein shall affect H. M.'s present prerogative in granting dispensations for non-residence on benefices, id. s.80.

171. No parsonage that hath a vicar endowed, or a perpetual curate, and without cure of souls, shall be deemed a benefice within this act, id. s.81.

172. No archbishop or bishop having any benefice shall be liable to penalties for non-residence thereon; provided that if he hold any benefice in commendam with his archbishopric or bishopric, he shall appoint a resident curate under this act, id. s.82.

173. This act shall not affect any right, powers, or authority already vested in any archbishop or bishop, under any statute, canon usage, or otherwise howsoever, id. s.83.; or any act or other law for due celebration of divine service in any church or chapel, or for discharge of any other duty of any rector, vicar, or person holding any benefice by himself or his curate, id. s.84.

SPIRITOUS LIQUORS.

1. TO REGULATE THE USE OF SPIRITS, [Framed] 24 G.2. c.40. s.12.

2. From 1st July 1751, no person shall be entitled to or maintain any action for, or recover either in law or equity, any sum of money, debt, or demand soever, for or on account of any spirituous liquors, unless the debt has been bonâ fide contracted at one time to the amount of 20s. or upwards; nor shall any item in any account or demand for such liquors be allowed, where the liquors delivered at one time, and mentioned in such item, do not amount to 20s., and that without fraud or covin; and where no [QU. any] part of the liquors so sold or delivered are returned, or agreed to be returned, directly or indirectly; and every retailer of spirituous liquors, with or without licence, who shall take any pawn or pledge from any person, as security for payment of any sum owing by him for such liquors, shall forfeit 40s. for each pawn so taken, to be recovered by warrant under hand and seal of one justice of the place where the offence is committed, one moiety to the use of the poor of the parish, and the other to the informer. And the person to whom such pawn belongs, shall have the same remedy for recovering the same, or its value, as if it had never been pledged, 24 G.2. c.40. s.12. [And see ss. 13—17. ante, PRISON, &c. pl. 138, &c.]

ST. HELENA.

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUALLY DETAINING Napoleon Buonaparte, 56 G.3. c.22. [Exp.]

2. FOR REGULATING THE INTERCOURSE WITH THE ISLAND OF St. Helena during the time N. Buonaparte shall be detained there, and for indemnifying persons in the cases therein mentioned, 56 G.3. c.23. [Both these acts EXP. with the death of Napoleon, in May, 1821.]

STAGE-COACHES.

(STATUTES repealed.)

FOR LIMITING THE NUMBER OF PERSONS to be carried on the outside of stage-coaches, or other carriages, 28 G.3. c.50. [AMD. 30 G.3. c.36., 46 G.3. c.136. ALL REP. by 50 G.3. c.48. s.1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR REGULATING THE NUMBER OF PERSONS to be carried on the outside of stage-coaches, or other carriages, 57 G.3. c.48. [PUBLIC clause, id. s.26.]

2. The 28 G.3. c.57., 30 G.3. c.36., 46 G.3. c.136. are REP. id. s.1. Any coach, berlin, landau, chariot, diligence, calash, chaise marine, or other carriage, with 4 or more wheels, by whatever name called or known, and employed as a public stage-coach, or carriage for conveying passengers for hire, to and from different places in G. B., and drawn by 4 or more horses, shall be allowed to carry 10 outside passengers only, exclusive of the coachman, but including the guard (if any): one passenger may sit on the box, 3 on the front of the roof, and 6 behind, in the manner most safe for the passengers; but no passenger shall be allowed to sit on the luggage, or that part of the roof allotted thereto; and all stage-coaches, &c. above described, drawn by 2 or 3 horses, shall be allowed 5 outside passengers, and no more, exclusive of coachman: and all stage-coaches called long or double-bodied coaches, may carry 8 outside, exclusive of coachman, and including guard (if any), under the fines by this act imposed, where more outside passengers are carried than allowed by this act; such fines to be imposed and levied on the proprietor of any such coach, or any one or more of them, or on the driver, as in s.16. pl. 16.; but no child in lap, nor under 7 years old, shall be counted as one of such number, unless there are more than one; and if more than one, 2 such children shall be accounted equal to one grown person; and no person paying as outside passenger shall be permitted to sit or remain as an inside passenger, unless by consent of one inside passenger at least, and next to whom he shall be placed. Provided that where such coach being found peculiarly commodious, is licensed for the purpose, 4 instead of 5 outside passengers may sit on the front of such coach, so that the number does not exceed 10 in all, 50 G.3. c.48. s.2.

3. No driver or proprietor of any coach, mail-coach, &c., as in s.2. pl.2. described, travelling for hire, shall suffer in any way any luggage to be carried on the roof thereof, or any passenger to ride on the outside of such coach, the top of which shall be more than 8 feet 9 inches, from the ground, or the bearing of which on the ground shall be less than 4 feet 6 inches from the center of the track of the right or off-wheel to that of the track of the left or near wheel, under the penalty of 5*l.* for each offence, id. s.3.

4. No driver or proprietor of any such coach, mail coach, or other carriage above described, travelling for hire, shall carry or suffer any luggage whatever, exceeding 2 feet in height, to be conveyed on the roof of any such coach, &c., drawn by 4 or more horses, and where drawn by 2 or 3 horses, then not to exceed 18 inches above the roof; and every driver so offending, and any coach proprietor where such driver cannot be found, being convicted thereof, either by confession, view of a justice, or other magistrate, or oath of one or more witnesses, before any justice, or other magistrate acting for the county, &c., or place where any offence shall be committed, shall pay 5*l.* for every inch above the said heights of 2 feet or 18 inches; and in case the driver so offending is the owner of such coach, &c., he shall forfeit 10*l.* for every such inch; and such offenders shall, in default payment, be committed to the common gaol or house of correction of the same county, &c. or place, for 2 months, unless such penalties be sooner paid; provided that all such packages shall be so placed on the roof of such coach, &c. that no passenger shall sit thereon, on penalty of 50*s.* for each offence, to be paid by such passenger; and the space on the top allotted for luggage shall be distinctly separated from the other part of the top, by railing or otherwise; and any driver, owner, or part-owner, who shall refuse to allow any justice, magistrate, surveyor of road, inspector of coaches, authorized by stamp office, or passenger, to measure such carriage and luggage, when required so to do, shall forfeit the like penalty, id. s.4.

5. Any luggage may be carried of a greater height from the roof than 2 feet, provided it be not higher than 10 feet 9 inches from the ground, including the height of the coach, id. s.5.

6. In every licence to be taken out by any person keeping any carriage to be employed as a public stage-coach, or other carriage as above, for conveying passengers for hire, to and from different places in G. B., shall be specified the number of out as well as inside passengers to be carried therein; and such licence shall not be granted for more than the legal number, and shall contain the names and abodes of every proprietor of the coach, a copy of which licence shall be accessible at the board or office where such licence is issued, to any person applying either for a copy or perusal thereof, id. s.6.

7. Every person licensed to keep any such coach, &c. as in pl.2. conveying passengers for hire in G. B., (except mail coaches) shall paint on the outside of each door, or in some other conspicuous part thereof, in legible characters, of at least one inch long, and in a different colour from the ground on which they are painted, and in words at length, the number of out and inside passengers which the licence thereof shall specify, with the names of the persons, or firm of proprietors, to whom such coach, &c. shall belong; provided that the board of commissioners granting such licence may require, instead of such inscription, that a brass or metal plate shall be fixed on the side of each coach, with such names, and a distinct number for each, with intent to know the owner and driver of such coach, &c. And if any person or firm shall be licensed to keep more than one coach, every one of them shall have several numbers. And any person who shall obliterate or deface such number, &c., shall forfeit 5*l.*, and every person who shall employ any such carriage for carrying passengers for hire, in G. B. without licence, or without having such words, number, and name, so painted as above, or who shall at any time carry more outside passengers than are expressed in the licence, and by the words so painted as above, shall for each offence forfeit 10*l.* for every extra outside passenger, and 20*l.* if the driver be also owner or part owner; and every such inscription or plate shall be evidence of the parties to whom such coach, &c. doth belong being owners, &c. thereof, 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 7.

8. In case the driver of any such coach or carriage above described, [QU. if the exception of mail coaches in s. 7. pl. 7. extends to this?] travelling for hire, and conveying a greater number of persons, in any manner, inside or outside thereof, than by the act allowed, or permitting more than one passenger to sit on the box, is not known, or cannot be found, then the proprietor of the coach shall be liable to all such fines. Provided that if he make out to satisfaction of the justice, or other magistrate, by sufficient evidence, not resting on his own testimony, that the offence was committed by such driver without his privity, and that no benefit hath directly or indirectly accrued to him therefrom, such justice shall discharge him from such penalty, and lay it on the driver only when found, who, in default payment thereof, shall be committed to the gaol or house of correction of the county or place for not more than 6 nor less than 3 months, at discretion of such justice, &c. id. s. 8.

9. Any summons issued by any such justice, &c., commanding any driver or coach proprietor to appear before him, at a fixed time and place, for any offence against this act, or a copy thereof, shall be deemed well served if either the original, or a copy of such summons, be left with the acting book-keeper for such coach, &c., in any town or place into or through which any such driver shall drive the same, id. s. 9.

10. The driver of any such coach, mail coach, or other carriage travelling for hire, stopping at any place where assistance can be procured, shall not quit his horses, or the box, till a proper person be employed to hold the horses, or fore-horses, while the carriage stops, so as to prevent them from running away, and shall have actual hold of them till the driver has returned to his box, or till the post-boy is mounted with the reins in his hand; and any driver neglecting so to do, shall, on conviction by confession, view of the justice or magistrate, or oath of one witness, before the latter, forfeit not less than 10*l.*, nor more than 5*l.* for each offence, but this section shall not extend to hackney-coaches drawn by 2 horses only, id. s. 10.

11. In case the driver or guard of any such coach, mail coach, or other carriage as above described, as in pl. 2. shall, by intoxication, negligence, or misconduct, (except unavoidable accident) endanger the passengers' safety, in their lives, limbs, or property, or shall not give due care and protection to any other property with which they may be entrusted; or if any driver or guard of any mail-coach shall loiter or mispend time, so far as to retard the arrival of H. M.'s mail, at the next stage; or if such driver shall not, if possible, convey the mail, at so many miles per hour as are fixed by the post-master-general, unless prevented by weather, bad roads, or accident to coach or horses; or if any driver or guard of any such coach, mail-coach, or other carriage, shall not duly account to his employers, or their authorized agents, for all monies received by them for any passenger or parcel taken by such carriage, the offender on conviction, as in s. 10. pl. 10., shall forfeit not less than 5*l.* nor more than 10*l.* for such offence, and shall return the money embezzled; and in case of non-payment shall be committed to gaol [as in s. 8. pl. 8.] for not more than 6 nor less than 3 months, at discretion of such justice, id. s. 11.

12. Any driver or guard of such coach or other carriage above-described, who shall use insulting language to any passenger, or shall exact more than the legal sum, shall, on conviction thereof, as in s. 10. pl. 10., forfeit not more than 40*l.*, nor less than 5*l.*, and in case of non-payment shall be committed, as in s. 8., for not more than one month, nor less than 3 days, id. s. 12.

13. Every constable or peace officer who shall refuse or neglect to execute any warrant granted by any justice or magistrate, in pursuance hereof, shall forfeit 5*l.* on conviction by confession, or oath of one witness, before one such justice or magistrate; and in case of non-payment shall be committed, as in s. 8., for not exceeding one month, unless the penalty be sooner paid, id. s. 13.

14. If the driver of any coach or other carriage above described, [QU. if mail-coach included? see pl. 3—4, 7.] drawn by 2 or more horses, and travelling for hire, shall suffer more than one person on the box besides himself, and more outside than in this act allowed, any outside or inside passenger, who has been regularly booked, and has paid for his place, may require the driver to stop such coach, &c. at any turnpike, and require the toll collector to count the passengers, or measure the height of the luggage, and any driver refusing to stop, shall forfeit 5*l.* for such refusal; and if more than the right number of passengers have been carried, or if the luggage exceeds the given height, shall forfeit double the penalty above imposed for such offence, in moieties to the toll collector and passenger; and every toll collector who, when so required, shall not make such examination as above, shall forfeit 5*l.* for each offence; and every person endeavouring to evade such examination by descending before the coach reaches the turnpike, and re-ascending after its passing it, shall forfeit 10*l.*, recoverable as above, 50 G. 3. s. 48. s. 14.

15. If the coachman or person having the care of any coach, mail coach, or other carriage above described, shall permit any other person, without a proprietor's consent, or against that of the passengers, to drive the same, or shall quit the box without a reasonable occasion, or for a longer time than such occasion may require, (though the reins be left in the hands of a passenger on the box) or if he shall by furious driving, or any negligence or misconduct overturn the carriage, or endanger the persons or property of the passengers or proprietors, he shall forfeit not more than 10*l.*, nor less than 5*l.*, id. s. 15.

16. Where any penalties incurred for offences against this act are recoverable before any one or more justices or magistrates, the latter shall administer an oath, and on proof of such offence, shall give judgment for the penalty incurred, with reasonable costs of prosecution, and if the same be not paid, shall commit the offender, as in s. 8. pl. 8., for not less than one month, nor more than 3 months, at discretion, unless such person shall enter into such recognizances, with such surety before him or them, as herein-before [QU. after? see s. 25. pl. 25.] mentioned, id. s. 16.

17. If any such convicting justice, or other magistrate shall see cause, he may mitigate any penalty incurred under this act, to not exceeding one moiety thereof, above costs of prosecution, and one half of the whole, or of the moiety of such penalty, with the said costs shall be paid to the informer, for his own disposal, except as above specially provided, and the other half to the trustees of the roads where such offence is committed, who shall direct their surveyors to watch over the due execution hereof in the roads under their superintendence, id. s. 17.

18. Every guard to any such coach, mail coach, or other carriage, above described, who shall fire his arms while the coach is on the road, or going through or standing in any town, except for defence of such coach or passengers, shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be recovered and applied as above, id. s. 18.

19. Every person who shall commit any offence against this act, for which no specific penalty is provided, shall forfeit and pay at discretion of any one such justice or magistrate as above, not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 50*l.* on conviction on oath of one witness, before any justice or other magistrate acting for the county or place where the offence is committed, or by any other justice residing in any county or place where the offender is actually present, on satisfactory proof on oath of one witness, (to be administered by any such justice, &c.) and in default payment of the penalty awarded, he shall, on conviction, for every such offence, be committed as in s. 8. pl. 8., for not more than 3 calendar months, nor less than 5 days, id. s. 19.

20. Every person who shall receive any money for conniving at any offence prohibited by this act, either for any single offence or for a number of them, or by stipulation, by the day, week, year, or other period of time, and be duly convicted thereof before a justice or other magistrate as above, shall forfeit 50*l.* for each offence, and in default of payment, shall be committed to the house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months nor less than one month, id. s. 20.

21. All stage coaches (long coaches included) carrying no parcels or luggage soever except in the inside or front boot thereof, or in a boot behind or under the body, and where the top of such hind boot when the coach is empty is not more than 6 feet from the ground, having obtained a special licence for the purpose, and having the name of the owner and number of the passengers allowed painted thereon, shall be permitted to carry 2 more outside than above limited, id. s. 21.

22. Any prosecution for offences under this act shall be commenced within 14 days after the offence committed, and there shall be but one recovery for the same offence, except where the owners of stage coaches or other carriages above described, are required to paint their names or name, or sign, and to preserve the same in a legible state; for which prosecution may be commenced at any time, and one month's neglect to remedy the same shall be considered a new offence, id. s. 22.

23. This act shall not affect such hackney coaches, their owners or drivers, as are licensed by the commissioners of hackney coaches, whether licensed to be used in the ordinary work of hackney coaches, or as hackney coach stages between the metropolis and villages in its vicinity, id. s. 23. [But see such hackney coaches placed on same footing as stage coaches, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 11. STAMPS (Stage Coach).]

24. The forms of proceedings relative to the several matters in this act expressed, in the schedule annexed, may be used on all occasions, with variations adapted to the particular case or place where the prosecution shall take place, and no objection shall be taken for want of form therein; and every conviction, unless appealed from within 14 days, as in s. 25. pl. 28. shall be final, 30 G. 3. c. 44. s. 24.

25. Any party grieved by any judgment or conviction of any justice or other magistrate, made in any of the above cases, entering into a recognizance before such justice, &c. with one sufficient surety, the condition whereof shall be that such person shall appear before the next quarter sessions of the county or place, there to abide the final order of such sessions on the matters aforesaid; such person may appeal to such next quarter sessions, who, on hearing the appeal, shall finally determine it, and award such costs to the appellant, prosecutor, or informer, as they think fit, which proceedings shall not be removeable by certiorari or otherwise into any other court, id. s. 25.

26. FOR PUNISHING CRIMINALLY DRIVERS OF STAGE COACHES and carriages for accidents occasioned by their wilful misconduct, 1 G. 4. c. 4.

27. If any person is maimed or otherwise injured, by the wanton and furious driving or racing, or wilful misconduct of any coachman, or other person having charge of any stage coach or public carriage, such wanton and furious driving or racing, or wilful misconduct of such coachman shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punishable by fine and imprisonment; but this shall not extend to hackney coaches not plying as stage coaches, id. ibid.

[44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 26., this clause is virtually REF. by 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 55.], 45 G. 3. c. 28. ss. 10—11., 46 G. 3. c. 43. ss. 12—13., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 47., 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 10.

15. All the monies arising by the duties hereby imposed, shall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of stamp duties, who shall pay the same into the receipt of the exchequer, and such money shall be carried to the consolidated fund of G. B.; and on the 5th Jan., 5th April, 5th July, and 10th Oct. yearly, there shall be set apart a sum of 769,365*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* being one-fourth of the sum of 3,077,463*l.* 18*s.* being the yearly produce of the duties hereby repealed, and the residue shall be deemed an addition to the public revenue, to defray the charge of any loan or stock to be made or created this session; and during 10 years next ensuing, a book shall be kept in the office of the auditor of the receipt of the exchequer, in which all such surplus monies shall be entered apart from all other monies payable to H. M., 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 26.

16. The monies arising under this act, and from the several other duties under the management of the commissioners of stamps, shall be paid to the receiver-general of stamp duties in G. B., and by him into the bank of Eng., pursuant to 46 G. 3. c. 76., and shall afterwards pay the same (after deducting the charges of raising and accounting for the same, and all others payable hereafter, except the duties on any lottery licences and shares of tickets) into the receipt of the exchequer at Westminster, in one sum at the usual times, and such monies shall be carried to the consolidated fund of G. B., and be apportioned in the accounts of the consolidated fund, and of the public debt of G. B., as by 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14. directed, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 55. and c. 185. s. 13.

17. Out of the money so to be paid into the exchequer, there shall be set apart annually on the 5th Jan. so much of the duties on advertisements, almanacks, newspapers, pamphlets, gold and silver plate, and stage coaches, and of the yearly per centage duties on fire insurances, and the augmented legacy duties granted by this act, and the 55 G. 3. c. 184., as shall be a just proportion in respect of the augmentations so made; and there shall also be set apart at the same time, the surplus of the net produce of the duties on stage coach licences, and of the duties granted by 55 G. 3. s. 184., except the said per centage duties, and the legacy duty, after deducting thereout yearly, and so in proportion, for less than a year, the sum of 3,333,642*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.* being the aggregate of the net yearly produce of the duties on stage coach licences hereby repealed, and of the duties by 55 G. 3. c. 184. repealed, except such per centage duties, and there shall be also set apart at the same time so much of the bank composition as exceeds the sum hitherto paid by them, and the sums so set apart shall be deemed an addition to the public revenue of G. B. for defraying the increased annual charge occasioned by any loan made or stock created by any act passed, or to be passed in this session; and after setting apart such sum, the residue, (excluding the said 3,333,642*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.*) shall be considered as the produce of the duties granted for defraying the annual charge of the public debt, and be apportioned accordingly in the accounts of the consolidated fund of G. B. in such manner as the net proceeds of the duties now under the commissioners of stamps would have been, in case this act or the 55 G. 3. c. 184. had not been made, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14.

18. The duties payable in Scot. upon charters of resignation, instruments of seisin, and other instruments in use there for completing or renovating of titles to lands and other heritable subjects, hereby reduced from 1*4s.* to 7*s.* shall not be at any time added to in any greater degree than the duties of 1*5s.* charged in the schedule hereto annexed on surrenders and other instruments of copyhold in Eng.; and if such last-mentioned duties, shall be at any time diminished, the duties on charters, &c. shall be diminished in proportion, 48 G. 3. s. 149. s. 48.

19. Instead of the duties imposed by several acts on the same piece of vellum, &c. being levied in distinct sums, the commissioners of stamps may consolidate the money arising from the said several duties into one sum, and collect the same accordingly, and may keep one distinct account of the monies so arising, 43 G. 3. c. 127. s. 2.

20. Instead of the duties hereby repealed, there shall be raised and levied in respect of the several matters and things enumerated in the schedules hereto annexed, marked (A) and (B) the sums respectively set forth herein, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2. [The schedules A. and B. of 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2. have been REF. by 48 G. 3. c. 143. s. 1., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 1., 51 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1., 52 G. 3. c. 150. s. 2., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1., 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 1., except the duties here following.]

SCHEDULE of Duties annexed to 55 G. 3. c. 184.

PART THE FIRST.

Containing the Duties on Admissions to Offices, &c.; on Instruments of Conveyance, Contract, Obligation, and Security for money; on Deeds in general; and on other Instruments, Matters, and Things not falling under either of the following heads.

PART THE SECOND.

Containing the Duties on Law Proceedings, or Proceedings in the Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Courts, and in the several Courts of Law and Equity at Westminster, and other Courts in G. B., and in the Offices belonging thereto, and before the Lord High Chancellor or the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, in Matters of Bankruptcy and Lunacy.

PART THE THIRD.

Containing the Duties on Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration or Confirmations of Testaments, testamentary and dative; on Inventories to be exhibited in the commissary courts of Scot.; on Legacies out of real or personal, heritable or moveable estate; and on Successions to personal or moveable estates upon intestacy.

[NOTE by the Compilers.—Besides the exemptions herein contained, there are others collected under STAMPS, Exemptions, (p. 1416.)]

PART THE FIRST.

ADMISSION of any person to act as an advocate in any of the ecclesiastical courts, or in the high court of admiralty in Eng.; or in any of the courts of justice in Scot.

Exemptions from the preceding and all other stamp duties.

Where an advocate, admitted in one court in Eng., shall be admitted as an advocate in any other court in Eng.; or being admitted in one court in Scot. shall be admitted as an advocate in any other court in Scot.; his latter admission shall be free of duty, provided he shall have paid the proper stamp duty on his former admission, according to the laws then in force.

ADMISSION of any person to the degree of a barrister at law, in either of the Inns of court in Eng.; for the register or entry thereof £ 50 0 0
ADMISSION of any person to act as an attorney, solicitor, or proctor, in any court in Eng.; or as a sworn clerk, side clerk, clerk in court, or other clerk or officer, in any court in Eng., whose business and emoluments (like those of an attorney or solicitor) shall depend upon his being retained and employed by clients or suitors, and shall therefore be wholly uncertain in amount £ 25 0 0

Exemptions from the preceding and all other stamp duties.

Where any person duly admitted an attorney in either of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or in either of the courts of the great sessions in Wa., or of the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, shall be also admitted to act as an attorney in any other of the said courts, or in any inferior court of law, or as a solicitor in any court of equity in Eng., the latter admission shall be free of duty.

And where any person duly admitted a solicitor in the court of chancery or exchequer at Westminster, or in either of the courts of the great sessions in Wa., or of the duchy of Lancaster, or of the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, shall be also admitted to act as a solicitor in any other of the said courts, or in any inferior court of equity, or as an attorney in any court of law in Eng., the latter admission shall be free of duty.

Provided such attorney or solicitor shall have paid the proper stamp duty on his former admission, according to the laws then in force.

But in all cases not expressly exempted, the said duty is to be paid on every admission of the same person.

ADMISSION of any person to act as writer to the signet, or as a solicitor, agent, attorney, or procurator, in any court in Scot.; or as a clerk or officer in any court in Scot., whose business and emoluments (like those of a solicitor) shall depend upon his being retained and employed by clients or suitors, and shall therefore be wholly uncertain in amount. £25 0 0

And where any person shall be admitted to act as a solicitor or agent in the court of session, justiciary, or commission of teinds in Scot., who shall not have served a clerkship or apprenticeship for 5 years to a writer to the signet, or to a solicitor or agent, under regular articles or indentures of clerkship, or apprenticeship, which shall have paid the stamp duty payable by law for the same at the date thereof; his admission shall be charged with a further duty of. £60 0 0

And where any person shall be admitted to act as a procurator or solicitor, in the high court of admiralty in Scot., the commissary court at Edinburgh, or any inferior court in Scot., who shall not have served a clerkship or apprenticeship for 5 years to a writer to the signet, or to a solicitor, agent, or procurator, under regular articles or indentures of clerkship or apprenticeship, which shall have paid the stamp duty payable by law for the same at the date thereof; his admission shall be charged with a further duty of. £30 0 0

Exemptions from the preceding and all other stamp duties.

Where any person duly admitted a writer to the signet, or a solicitor, agent or attorney, in either of the courts of session, justiciary, exchequer, or commission of teinds, shall be also admitted to act in either of those capacities in any other or others of the same courts, his latter admission shall be free of duty.

Where any person, duly admitted as a solicitor or procurator in the high court of admiralty, or in the commissary court at Edinburgh, shall be also admitted a solicitor or procurator in the other of those courts, his latter admission shall be free of duty.

And where any person duly admitted a solicitor or procurator in any of the inferior courts in Scot., shall be also admitted a solicitor or procurator in any other or others of the same courts, his latter admission shall be free of duty.

Provided in each of the foregoing cases, the proper stamp duty shall have been paid on the former admission of such person, according to the laws then in force.

But in all cases not expressly exempted, the said duty is to be paid on every admission of the same person.

ADMISSION of any person as a master in ordinary in chancery, or as one of the six clerks, or one of the curators of the court of chancery in Eng., or as a sworn clerk, side clerk in court, or other clerk or officer whatsoever, in any court in G. B., who must necessarily be employed to do certain official business, and whose emoluments shall therefore be so far fixed and certain;

Where the salary, fees, and emoluments of the office or appointment shall not amount to 50*l.* per annum

Amounting to	and not to	Amounting to	and not to

Inland BILL, draft, or order, for the payment of any sum of money though not made payable to the bearer, or to order, if the same shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf. [The same duty as on a bill of exchange for the like sum, payable to bearer or order.]

Inland BILL, draft, or order, for the payment of any sum of money, weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, if made payable to the bearer or to order, or if delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be specified therein, or can be ascertained therefrom. [The same duty as on a bill payable to bearer or order on demand, for a sum equal to such total amount.]

And where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be indefinite. [The same duty as on a bill on demand for the sum therein expressed only.]

And the following instruments shall be deemed and taken to be inland bills, drafts, or orders, for the payment of money within the intent and meaning of this schedule, viz.

All drafts or orders for the payment of any sum of money, by a bill or promissory note, or for the delivery of any such bill or note in payment or satisfaction of any sum of money; where such drafts or orders shall require the payment or delivery to be made to the bearer, or to order, or shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf.

All receipts given by any banker or bankers, or other person or persons, for money received, which shall entitle, or be intended to entitle, the person or persons paying the money, or the bearer of such receipts, to receive the like sum from any third person or persons.

And all bills, drafts, or orders, for the payment of any sum of money out of any particular fund which may or may not be available, or upon any condition or contingency which may or may not be performed or happen, if the same shall

BOND in Eng. and personal bond in Scot., of any kind whatever, not otherwise charged in this schedule, nor expressly exempted from all stamp-duty. £1 15 0

Heritable BOND in Scot., of any kind whatever, not otherwise charged in this schedule, nor expressly exempted from all stamp-duty. £1 15 0

General Directions respecting Bonds.

Where any such bond as aforesaid, together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter put or indorsed thereon or annexed thereto, shall contain 1000 words or upwards, there shall be charged for every entire quantity of 1000 words contained therein, over and above the first 1000 words, a further progressive duty of £1 5 0

And where any such bond as aforesaid shall be given as a security for the payment of a sum of money, and also of a share in any of the stocks or funds before-mentioned, or an annuity, or both, or for the payment of an annuity, and also of a share in any of the said stocks or funds, the proper ad valorem duty shall be charged in respect of each.

And where any such bond as aforesaid shall be given as a security for the payment or transfer, to different persons, of separate and distinct sums of money, or annuities or shares in any of the stocks or funds before-mentioned, the proper ad valorem duty shall be charged in respect of each separate and distinct sum of money, or annuity or share in any of the said stocks or funds therein specified and secured, and not upon the aggregate amount thereof.

And where any bond in Eng. shall be given as a security for the performance of any covenant or agreement for the payment or transfer of any sum of money, or annuity, or any share in any of the stocks or funds before-mentioned, such bond shall be charged with the same duty as if the same had been immediately given for the payment or transfer of such money, or annuity, or share of the said stocks or funds.

And where in Eng. any bond for the payment or transfer, or for the performance of any covenant for the payment or transfer, of any sum of money or annuity, or any share in any of the stocks or funds before-mentioned, shall be contained in one and the same deed or writing, with any other matter or thing, in this schedule specifically charged with any duty (except any declaration of trust of the money, annuity, stock, or fund secured), such deed or writing shall be charged with the same duties as such bond and other matter or thing would have been charged with, if contained in separate deeds.

But where in Eng. a bond for the performance of covenants or agreements (other than for the payment or transfer of any sum of money, or annuity, or any share in any of the said stocks or funds), shall be contained in the same deed or writing, with any other matter or thing, the same shall not be charged separately, but the whole shall be considered as one deed and be charged accordingly under its proper denomination.

Exemptions from the preceding and all other Stamp-duties.

1,100 8,000 75 0 0

And where any freehold lands or hereditaments in Eng. shall be conveyed by a deed of feoffment, with or without any letter or letters of attorney therein contained to deliver or receive seisin, or by a deed of bargain and sale inrolled; such deed of feoffment or bargain and sale, unless accompanied with a lease and release, shall be charged with a further duty as follows:

If the purchase or consideration money therein or thereupon expressed, shall be under 20*l.* £0 10 0

If it shall amount to 20*l.* and not amount to 50*l.* 0 15 0

If it shall amount to 50*l.* and not amount to 150*l.* 1 0 0

If it shall amount to 150*l.* or upwards, 1 15 0

But if there shall be both a feoffment and a bargain and sale inrolled, then the said further duty shall not attach on either.

And where any lands or other property, of different tenures or holdings, or held under different titles, contracted to be sold at one entire price for the whole, shall be conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts or parcels, by different deeds or instruments, the purchase or consideration money shall be divided and apportioned in such manner as the parties shall think fit, so that a distinct price or consideration for each separate part or parcel may be set forth in or upon the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance relating thereto; which shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the price or consideration money therein set forth.

And where any lands or other property, contracted to be purchased by 2 or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, at one entire price for the whole, shall be conveyed, in part or parcels, by separate deeds or instruments, to the persons for whom the same shall be purchased, for distinct parts or shares of the purchase money; the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance, of each separate part or parcel, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the sum of money therein specified as the consideration for the same.

But if separate parts or parcels of such lands or other property shall be conveyed to or to the use of or in trust for different persons, in and by one and the same deed or instrument, then such deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration monies therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid, for the lands or property thereby conveyed.

And where any person, having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell to any other person, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser; the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the purchase or consideration money therein mentioned to be paid, or agreed to be paid, by the sub-purchaser.

And where any person, having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell the whole or any part or parts thereof, to any other person or persons, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed, by the original seller, to different persons, in parts or parcels; the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance, of each part or parcel thereof, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect only of the purchase or consideration money which shall be therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same, by the person or persons, to whom or to whose use or in trust for whom the conveyance shall be made, without regard to the amount of the original purchase money.

And in all cases of such sub-sales as aforesaid, the sub-purchasers, and the persons immediately selling to them, shall be deemed and taken to be the purchasers and sellers, within the intent and meaning of the provisions and regulations of the aforesaid act of the 48 G. 3. c. 149. STAMPS (Conveyance), relating to the ad valorem duties on conveyances on the sale of property thereby imposed, and which are to be observed and enforced with regard to the said ad valorem duties hereby granted.

But where any sub-purchaser shall take an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which shall be chargeable with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the purchase or consideration money paid or agreed to be paid by him, and shall be duly stamped accordingly; any deed or instrument of conveyance to be afterwards made to him, of the property in question, by the original seller, shall be exempted from the said ad valorem duty, and be charged only with the ordinary duty on deeds or instruments of the same kind not upon a sale.

And where any lands or other property separately contracted to be purchased of different persons, at separate and distinct prices, shall be conveyed to the purchaser, or as he shall direct; in and by one and the same deed or instrument, such deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration monies, therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same.

And where any lands, or other property shall be sold and conveyed, in consideration, wholly or in part, of any sum of money charged thereon by way of mortgage, wadset, or otherwise, and then due and owing to the purchaser, or shall be sold and conveyed, subject to any mortgage, wadset, bond, or other debt, or to any gross or entire sum of money, to be afterwards paid by the purchaser, such sum of money or debt shall be deemed the purchase or consideration money, or part of the purchase or consideration money, as the case may be, in respect whereof the said ad valorem duty is to be paid.

And to prevent doubts, respecting what shall be deemed the principal deed or instrument of conveyance, in certain cases, it is hereby declared:

That where any lands or hereditaments, in Eng. shall be conveyed by bargain and sale inrolled, and also by lease, and release or feoffment with or without any such letter or letters of attorney therein contained as aforesaid; the release or feoffment shall be deemed the principal deed; and the bargain and sale shall be charged only with the duty hereby imposed on deeds in general. (See Deed.) But the same shall not be inrolled or be available, unless also stamped for testifying the payment of the ad valorem duty on the release or feoffment.

And where any lands or hereditaments shall be conveyed by lease and release, and also by feoffment, with or without any such letter or letters of attorney therein contained as aforesaid; the release shall be deemed the principal deed; and the feoffment shall be charged only with the duty hereby imposed on deeds in general. (See Deed.) But the same shall not be available, unless also stamped for testifying the payment of the ad valorem duty on the release.

And where any copyhold or customary estate shall be conveyed, by a deed of bargain and sale, by the commissioners named in a commission of bankrupt, or by executors or others, by virtue of a power given by will, or by act of parliament, or otherwise, where a surrender shall not be necessary, the deed of bargain and sale shall be deemed the principal instrument.

And in other cases of copyhold or customary estates, the surrender or voluntary grant, or the memorandum thereof respectively, if made out of court, or the copy of court roll of the surrender or voluntary grant, if made in court, shall be deemed the principal instrument.

And copies of court roll, made after the 31st Aug. 1815, of surrenders and voluntary grants made in court before or upon that day, and subsequent to the 10th Oct. 1808, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duties. But copies of court roll, of surrenders, and voluntary grants made before or upon the 10th Oct. 1808, shall not be liable thereto.

And grants, and copies of court roll of grants, of copyhold or customary estates for a life or lives, are to be charged, as well as those for any greater interest.

And where in Scot. there shall be a disposition or assignation, executed by the seller, and any other instrument or instruments, writing, or writings, to complete the title, the disposition or assignation shall be deemed the principal instrument.

And where, upon the sale of any annuity or other right not before in existence, the same shall not be created by actual grant or conveyance, but shall only be secured by bond, warrant of attorney, covenant, contract, or otherwise; the bond or other instrument, by which the same shall be secured, or some one of such instruments, if there be more than one, shall be deemed and taken to be liable to the same duty, as an actual grant or conveyance.

And in the case of leases or tacks, where a yearly rent of 20*l.* or upwards shall be reserved, as part of the consideration for the same, there shall be charged a further duty; for which see LEASE.

AND WHERE THE principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance, together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter, put or indorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, shall contain 2160 words or upwards, then for every entire quantity of 1080 words contained therein, over and above the first 1080 words, a further progressive duty of £1 0 0

And where there shall be several deeds, instruments, or writings for completing the title to the property sold; such of them as are not liable to the said ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty, to which the same may be liable, under any general or particular description of such deeds, instruments, or writings contained in this schedule.

And where, in any case not hereby expressly provided for, of several deeds, instruments, or writings, a doubt shall arise which is the principal, it shall be lawful for the parties to determine for themselves which shall be so deemed, and to pay the said ad valorem duty thereon accordingly; and, if necessary, the other deeds, instruments, or writings, on which the doubt shall have arisen, shall be stamped with a particular stamp for denoting or testifying the payment of the ad valorem duty; upon all the deeds or instruments being produced, and appearing to be duly stamped in other respects.

And where there shall be duplicates of any deed or instrument, chargeable with the said ad valorem duty, exceeding 2*l.* one of them only shall be charged therewith, and the other or others shall be charged with the ordinary duty on deeds or instruments of the same kind not upon a sale; and on the whole being produced duly stamped as hereby required, the latter shall also be stamped with a particular stamp for denoting or testifying the payment of the said ad valorem duty.

And where any deed or instrument, operating as a conveyance on the sale of any property, shall operate also as a conveyance of any other than the property sold by way of settlement, or for any other purpose, or shall also contain any other matter or thing besides what shall be incident to the sale and conveyance of the property sold, or relate to the title thereto; every such deed or instrument shall be charged, in addition to the duty to which it shall be liable as a conveyance on the sale of property, and to any progressive duty to which it may also be liable, with such further stamp duty as any separate deed, containing the other matter, would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty.

Exemptions from the preceding duties on conveyances upon the sale of lands, &c.

Of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or heritable subjects belonging to the duchy of Lancaster, or belonging to the crown in Scot., whereof H.M., his heirs or successors, is or shall be authorized to make only certain limited grants, leases, or tacks; whether such grant, lease, or tack, shall be for term of life or years;

Of any goods, chattels, or personal or moveable estate, or other profit, whereof the grant is not otherwise charged in this schedule;

Where such grant, lease, or tack, shall be intended to operate in any degree, as a gift, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, then for every skin, sheet, or piece of vellum, parchment, or paper, upon which the same shall be written, a duty of $\pounds 30$ 0 0

And where any such grant, lease, or tack, operating as a gift, shall be of lands or other hereditaments, or heritable subjects, vested in H.M., his heirs or successors, by escheat or as ultimus hæres, for want of heirs of any person, who was a bare trustee thereof, or seized into the hands of the crown upon any outlawry, in a civil action, at the suit of any of H.M.'s subjects. $\pounds 15$ 0 0

And if any such grant, lease, or tack, charged with a duty of 1*l.* 1*s.* together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter, put or indorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, shall contain 2160 words or upwards, then for every entire quantity of 1080 words contained therein, over and above the first 1080 words, a further progressive duty of $\pounds 1$ 5 0

And where any such grant, lease, or tack, shall be made for what shall be deemed and intended as a full and adequate consideration for the same, either in money paid at once, or in rent, or in lands or hereditaments given in exchange, or otherwise. [The same duty as on a grant, lease, or tack of the like description, made by any of H.M.'s subjects.]

GRANT, or conveyance, under the seal of the duchy of Lancaster, made in pursuance of 19 G.3. c. 45., for enabling the chancellor and council of the duchy to sell certain rents, and to enfranchise copyhold and customary tenements within their survey. [The same duty as for any other conveyance upon the sale of any property for a consideration of the like amount. See CONVEYANCE.]

Exemptions from the preceding and all other stamp duties, except the duty on the receipt for the consideration money.

All grants and conveyances under the seal of the duchy of Lancaster, made in pursuance of the said act of 19 G.3. c. 45. where the consideration money paid for the same shall not exceed 10*l.* [See also 39 & 40 G.3. c. 72. s. 1., STAMPS, pl. 44.]

GRANT, lease, or other conveyance, from H.M., his heirs or successors, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or of any personal estate, being respectively the private property of H.M., his heirs or successors, and subject to his or their absolute disposal, by virtue of the 39 & 40 G.3. c. 88., (KING, &c. pl. 116.) concerning the disposition of certain real and personal property of H.M., his heirs or successors. [The same duty as on a grant, lease, or conveyance of the like description, from any of H.M.'s subjects.]

GRANT under the great seal of the U.K. of G.B. and Ire., or the seal kept and used in Scot. in place of the great seal formerly used there; or under the privy seal in Eng., or the quarter seal or privy seal in Scot., unless directed to the great seal; or under the sign-manual of H.M., his heirs or successors, unless directed to any of the seals aforesaid; out of the civil list, either of Eng. or Scot., or out of any other fund, not being part of the supplies of the year, or appropriated by parliament;

Of any definite and certain sum or sums of money,

Not amounting to 100 l.	Amounting to $\pounds 100$	and not amounting to $\pounds 250$	$\pounds 1$ 10 0
	250	500	4 0 0
	500	750	10 0 0
	750	1,000	20 0 0
	1,000 or upwards; for every 100 l. thereof		30 0 0

Of or any annuity or pension, Not amounting to 100 l. per ann.	Amounting to $\pounds 100$ and not amounting to $\pounds 200$ per ann.	$\pounds 1$ 10 0

exempted from the said ad valorem duty, shall be stamped with a particular stamp, for denoting or testifying the payment of the said ad valorem duty, upon all the deeds and instruments relating to the particular transaction being produced, and appearing to be duly stamped with the duties to which they were liable.

For general exemptions from the preceding and all other stamp duties, see the end of this part of the schedule.

MORTGAGE, wadset, &c. with a conveyance of the equity or right of redemption or reversion, or other matter in the same deed; viz.

Where any deed or writing shall operate as a mortgage or other instrument hereby charged with the ad valorem duty on mortgages, and also as a conveyance of the equity or right of redemption or reversion of any lands, estate, or property therein comprised, to, or in trust for, or according to the direction of an assignee, such deed or writing shall be charged not only with the said ad valorem duty on mortgages, but also with the ad valorem duty herein-before charged on a conveyance upon the sale of any property; but where the equity or right of redemption or reversion shall be thereby conveyed, or limited in any other manner, such deed or writing shall be charged only as a mortgage.

And in all other cases where a mortgage or other instrument hereby charged with the ad valorem duty on mortgages shall be contained in one and the same deed or writing with any other matter or thing (except what shall be incident to such mortgage or other instrument), such deed or writing shall be charged with the same duties (except the progressive duty), as such mortgage or other instrument and such other matter or thing would have been separately charged with if contained in separate deeds or writings.

And where any such deed or writing, as is mentioned in the two preceding clauses, together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter put or indorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, shall contain 2160 words or upwards, then for every entire quantity of 1080 words contained therein, over and above the first 1080 words a further progressive duty of PARTITION. Any deed, whereby any lands or other hereditaments, or heritable subjects, in Eng. or Scot., shall be conveyed, or any copyhold or customary lands or hereditaments, in Eng., shall be covenanted to be surrendered, in order to effect a partition or division thereof, among coparceners, joint-tenants, or tenants in common, heirs-portioners, conjux-fians, or joint-proprietors of any sort;

If no sum of money, or only a sum under 800*l.* shall be paid, or agreed to be paid, for equality of partition or division; the ordinary duty of

And if any sum or sums of money, amounting to 800*l.* or upwards, shall be paid, or agreed to be paid, for equality, [The same ad valorem duty as for a conveyance on the sale of lands, for a sum of money equal to the amount of the sum or sums so paid or agreed to be paid.]

And where any such deed of partition or division, together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter, put or indorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, shall contain 2160 words or upwards, then for every entire quantity of 1080 words contained therein, over and above the first 1080 words, a further progressive duty of,

If the deed be liable, in the first instance, to a duty of 1*l.* 1*s.*

Or if liable to a higher duty in the first instance

And any duplicate of any such deed of partition or division shall be charged with the same duty or duties.

And in case there shall be more than one deed, for completing the title to the estate or interest conveyed by either party, the principal deed only shall be charged under this head of partition; and any subordinate or collateral deed shall be charged with the duty to which it may be liable, under any other description in this schedule.

V. GENERAL exemptions from all stamp duties.

Warrants, mandates, or authorities to commence, carry on, or defend any actions, suits, or prosecutions in any court, where the debt, damage, or thing claimed or demanded, shall not amount to or be of the value of 40s.

Warrants, mandates, or authorities to commence, carry on, or defend any prosecutions or proceedings upon indictments, or upon any information, writ, or process, in the name of H. M., his heirs or successors, or at the instance of the attorney-general of Eng., lord advocate of Scot., or other officer legally authorized to prosecute or sue in the name or for the interest of H. M., his heirs or successors.

But these exemptions are not to extend to informations in the nature of quo warranto, filed by H. M.'s coroner and attorney in the court of K. B.; nor to informations in courts of equity, at the relation of private persons; nor to informations where any other person than H. M., his heirs or successors, shall be entitled to any penalty or forfeiture, or any share thereof.

All proceedings for or on the behalf of any person legally admitted to sue or defend in forma pauperis; and all proceedings of courts-martial; and all proceedings in criminal suits and prosecutions whatsoever.

All orders, decrees, and proceedings of or before any commissioners of sewers, and of or in the stannary courts in Eng.

All summonses, attachments, executions, and other proceedings in or issuing out of any of the courts established for the recovery of debts not exceeding 5l., commonly called courts of request, in Eng.

All warrants to sue and defend in the courts baron of any honours or manors in Eng., which hold pleas in actions or suits for any debt or damages, not exceeding 5l.; and all plaints, summonses, executions, writs, and other proceedings in or issuing out of such courts.

All proceedings in the courts called, or commonly known by the name of, small debt-courts in Scot.

And all proceedings under the Scotch statute, relative to the ailment of poor prisoners, or under the act of sequestration of the court of session in Scot., relative to the liberation of prisoners on account of sickness.

All petitions, proceedings, and copies, exempted from stamp duty by an act or acts of parliament, relating to abuses of trusts for charitable purposes.

SCHEDULE.—PART THE THIRD.

Containing the duties on probates of wills and letters of administration; on confirmations or testaments, testamentary and dative; on inventories to be exhibited in the commissary courts in Scot.; and on legacies out of real or personal, heritable or moveable estate; and on successions to personal or moveable estates upon intestacy.

PROBATE of a will, and letters of administration with a will annexed, to be granted in Eng.;

Probate of will, letters of administration, confirmation of testament, and all thereto, and inventory of the effects of any common seaman, marine, or soldier, who shall be slain or die in the service of H. M., his heirs or successors: Additional inventory to be exhibited and recorded in any commissary court in Scot.; where the same shall not be liable to a duty of greater amount than the duty already paid upon any former inventory exhibited and recorded of the estate and effects of the same person.

LEGACIES and SUCCESSIONS to personal or moveable estate upon intestacy.

1. Where the testator, testatrix, or intestate died before or upon the 5th April 1805.

For every legacy, specific or pecuniary, or of any other description, of the amount or value of 20*l.* or upwards, given by any will or testamentary instrument of any person who died before or upon the 5th April, 1805, out of his or her personal or moveable estate, and which shall be paid, delivered, retained, satisfied, or discharged, after the 31st Aug. 1815.

Also for the clear residue (when devolving to one person) and for every share of the clear residue (when devolving to 2 or more persons) of the personal or moveable estate of any person who died before or upon the 5th April, 1805, (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout,) whether the title to such residue, or any share thereof, shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy; where such residue, or share of residue, shall be of the amount or value of 20*l.* or upwards, and where the same shall be paid, delivered, retained, satisfied, or discharged, after the 31st Aug. 1815.

Where any such legacy, or residue, or share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of the deceased; a duty at and after the rate of 2*l.* 10*s.* per centum, on the amount or value thereof.

Where any such legacy, or residue, or share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the deceased; a duty at and after the rate of 4*l.* per centum on the amount or value thereof.

Where any such legacy, or residue, or share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of a grandfather or grandmother of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of a grandfather or grandmother of the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per centum 5 0 0

And where any such legacy, or residue, or share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of any person, in any other degree of collateral consanguinity to the deceased than is above described, or to or for the benefit of any stranger in blood to the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per centum 8 0 0

II. Where the testator, testatrix, or intestate, shall have died after the 5th April, 1805.

For every legacy, specific or pecuniary, or of any other description, of the amount or value of 20*l.* or upwards, given by any will or testamentary instrument, of any person, who shall have died after the 5th April 1805, either out of his or her personal or moveable estate, or out of or charged upon his or her real or heritable estate, or out of any monies to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of his or her real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, and which shall be paid, delivered, retained, satisfied, or discharged after the 31st Aug. 1815.

Also, for the clear residue (when devolving to one person) and for every share of the clear residue (when devolving to 2 or more persons) of the personal or moveable estate, of any person, who shall have died after the 5th April 1805, (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout,) whether the title to such residue, or any share thereof, shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy; where such residue, or share of residue, shall be of the amount or value of 20*l.* or upwards, and where the same shall be paid, delivered, retained, satisfied, or discharged after 31st August 1815:

And also for the clear residue (when given to one person) and for every share of the clear residue (when given to 2 or more persons) of the monies to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition, of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of, by any will or testamentary instrument, of any person, who shall have died after 5th April 1805, (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first made payable thereout, if any) where such residue, or share of residue, shall amount to 20*l.* or upwards, and where the same shall be paid, retained, or discharged after 31st August 1815:

Where any such legacy or residue, or any share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a child of the deceased, or any descendant of a child of the deceased, or to or for the benefit of the father or mother, or any lineal ancestor of the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per cent. 1 0 0

Where any such legacy, or residue, or any share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per cent. 2 0 0

Where any such legacy, or residue, or any share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per cent. 5 0 0

Where any such legacy, or residue, or any share of such residue shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of a brother or sister of a grandfather or grandmother of the deceased, or any descendant of a brother or sister of a grandfather or grandmother of the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per cent. 6 0 0

And where any such legacy, or residue, or any share of such residue, shall have been given, or have devolved, to or for the benefit of any person, in any other degree of collateral consanguinity to the deceased than is above described, or to or for the benefit of any stranger in blood to the deceased; a duty on the amount or value thereof at and after the rate of per cent. 10 0 0

And all gifts of annuities, or by way of annuity, or of any other partial benefit or interest, out of any such estate or effects as aforesaid, shall be deemed legacies within the intent and meaning of this schedule.

And where any legatee shall take 2 or more distinct legacies or benefits, under any will or testamentary instrument, which shall altogether be of the amount or value of 20*l.* each, shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount or value.

[How to calculate the value of annuities, See 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 8. Tab. I., II., STAMPS (Legacies), page 1456.]

Exemptions.

Legacies, and residues, or shares of residue, of any such estate or effects as aforesaid, given or devolving to or for the benefit of the husband or wife of the deceased, or to or for the benefit of any of the royal family. [See STAMPS (Legacies), 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 2. pl. 575., 45 G. 3. c. 28. s. 3. pl. 579.]

And all legacies which were exempted from duty by the act passed in the 39 G. 3. c. 73. [STAMPS (Legacies), pl. 575.], for exempting certain specific legacies given to bodies corporate, or other public bodies, from the payment of duty.

23. ALLOWANCES.—There shall be paid and allowed for and in respect of, all such articles and things as are inserted and described in schedule C., hereunto annexed, the several allowances, drawbacks, or sums, as are set forth in such schedule, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2.

SCHEDULE (C.) of 44 G. 3. c. 98.

Allowances to every person who, at one and the same time, shall produce at the head office for stamps in London, to be stamped, or shall buy of the commissioners of the stamp duties, vellum, parchment, or paper, charged with any stamp duty, to the amount in the whole of 30l. or upwards, 1l. 10s. for every one 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 30l.

To card-makers, on payment of the duty on cards, monthly, at the time of settling their accounts 1l. 10s. for every 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum.

To stationers who shall purchase stamps for receipts to the amount at one and the same time of 10l., in consideration of their making no charge to the public for the paper stamped for receipts, but actually and bonâ fide selling the same for the price of the stamp only, 7l. 10s. for every 100l. of the amount of the duty on such stamps for receipts, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum, not under the sum of 10l.; this allowance being over and above the usual allowance on the present payment of stamp duties to the amount of 30l. and upwards.

To printers, publishers, and proprietors of newspapers, who shall not have raised the price of their newspapers above the price at which the same were respectively sold at and immediately before the time of passing 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 33. STAMPS, (Newspapers), intituled, 'An act for granting to H. M. certain stamp duties on the several matters therein mentioned; and for better securing the duties on certificates to be taken out by solicitors, attornies, and others practising in certain courts of justice in G. B.,' and who shall at one and the same time produce at the head office of stamps, to be stamped, or shall buy of the commissioners of the stamp duties, paper stamped with the duty chargeable on newspapers, the duties whereof shall amount to 10l. or upwards, in consideration of prompt or present payment of such duty, 16l. 18s. for every 100l. on such payment, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not being under 10l. But if any such printer, publisher or proprietor, shall have raised, or shall raise, the price of his newspaper above the price at which the same was so sold at and immediately before the time of passing 37 G. 3., then and in such case no more or greater allowance shall be made, in consideration of such prompt or present payment, than at the rate of 4l. for every 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 10l. [See 49 G. 3. c. 50., and as to these allowances, 55 G. 3. c. 185. ss. 9, 10. STAMPS, (Newspapers).]

To the 2 universities of Oxford and Cambridge respectively, the annual sum of 500l. each.

To persons who shall purchase at the head office for stamps in London, stamps for hat linings to the amount, at one and the same time, of 10l. or upwards, 10l. for every 100l. of the amount of the duty on such stamps so purchased, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 10l. [Hat duties REP. 51 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1.]

For receiving the duty for and in respect of fire insurances, paying the same, and making out the accounts according to the directions of the several acts of parliament in that behalf made, 5l. for every 100l. so received, paid, and accounted for, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum. [See 50 G. 3. c. 35. STAMPS, (Insurance, Fire).]

To any person or persons, body or bodies politic or corporate, carrying on the business of sea insurances within the city of London, who shall have given or caused to be given (to the satisfaction of the commissioners of the stamp duties) security by bond for the payment of the duties on sea policies, at the times and in the manner to be prescribed by the said commissioners, and who shall duly pay the said duties in the time and manner prescribed, 1l. 10s. for every 100l. of the amount of the duties so paid, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum.

For receiving the duty for and in respect of gold plate or silver plate, made or wrought in G. B., paying the same, and making out the accounts according to the directions of the several acts of parliament in that behalf made, 2l. 10s. for every 100l. so received, paid, and accounted for, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum.

To persons who shall at one and the same time purchase stamped labels for medicines, the duty whereon shall amount to 5l. or upwards; 5l. for every 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 5l.

To persons who shall at one and the same time purchase stamped labels for medicines, the duty whereon shall amount to 50l. or upwards, 10l. for every 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 50l.

To persons who shall at one and the same time purchase stamped labels for medicines, the duty whereon shall amount to 100l. or upwards, 12l. 10s. for every 100l., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum not under 100l.

To clerks in any court of law or equity, entrusted by an act, made in the 25 G. 3. c. 80., intituled, 'An act for granting to H. M. certain duties on certificates to be taken out by solicitors, attornies, and other persons practising in certain courts of justice in G. B.; and certain other duties with respect to warrants, mandates, and authorities to be entered or filed of record as therein mentioned; [STAMPS (Attorneys Certificate, pl. 267,)] to enter and file of record certain memorandums or minutes; for their trouble in that behalf 2l. 10s. for every 100l. of the amount of the duties on such memorandums or minutes so entered or filed of record as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum.

To clerks of the peace or their deputies respectively, for and in consideration of their making out and delivering to the proper officer of the stamp duties, according to the directions of an act made in the 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 21. [ALXHOUSZ, pl. 83.], a list of persons licensed to sell beer, ale, and other excisable liquors, at and after the rate of one farthing, for the name of every such person inserted in such list.

To clerks of the peace or their deputies, or the sheriff or steward clerk respectively, for and in consideration of their making out, according to the directions of an act made in the 25 G. 3. c. 50. s. 4. [GAME, pl. 178.] a list of persons taking out game certificates, at and after the rate of one halfpenny for the name of every such person inserted in every such list.

To the clerk of the course, book-keeper, or other person authorised to enter any horse, mare, or gelding, to start or run for any plate, prize, sum of money, or other thing, in consideration of his trouble in receiving, accounting for, and duly paying the duty imposed on such horse, mare, or gelding, 5l. for every 100l. of the amount of the duties so received, accounted for, and paid, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum.

II. Exemptions from Stamp Duties. [See also the exemptions in 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. passim.]

24. This act shall not charge any bills of exchange, accounts, bills of parcels, or of fees, or any bills, or notes, not sealed, for the payment of money at sight, or on demand, or at the end of certain days, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 5. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 68. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sched. Part I. tit. Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.]

25. Nothing herein shall charge the probate of any will, or letters of administration, of any common seamen or soldier, who shall be slain, or die in H. M.'s service, a certificate being produced from the captain of the vessel, or of the troop, or company, under whom such seamen or soldier served, at the time of his death, and oath made of the truth thereof, before the officer who ought to grant such probate or administration, which oath such officer shall administer without fee, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 6., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 44., 19 G. 3. c. 66. s. 2., 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.

26. None of the rates hereby imposed shall be payable by any person admitted to sue, or defend in forma pauperis, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 14. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 63. 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 7.

27. [The act 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. shall not, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 2.] [This act shall not, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 45.] charge with any duty any warrant made, or recognizance taken before any justice of peace, or any surrender of any copyhold estate, or copies of such estate, or any certificate of marriage, of a widow of any seaman, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 2. See similar exception, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Certificate of Marriage. or any proceedings of any court martial, which relate to the trial of any common soldier, or any orders, decrees, or proceedings before any commissioners of sewers, or in the court of stannaries, [see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. exceptions at end], but the same shall be free of stamp duty, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 2., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 45.

27. (a) Duties by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. imposed upon the registry or entry of any degree in the 2 universities, shall not extend to charge therewith the degree of bachelor of arts, who is hereby exempted, 6 & 7 W. & M. c. 12. s. 3. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Admission.]

28. Commission of rebellion in process exempted from such duties, id. s. 4.

29. The admittance of any annual officer in any corporation, or inferior court, whose office is under 10*l.* in salaries, fees, &c. exempted from such duties, id. s. 5. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Admission.]

30. Officers at sea shall pay the same duties as officers at land, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 6., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 46.

31. Exception in favour of affidavits made in pursuance of the acts, 30 C. 2. St. 1. c. 3. and 32 C. 2. c. 1. (for burying in woollen), and likewise in favour of affidavits taken before officers of the customs, or any justice of peace, or any commissioner appointed by act of parliament, for the levying, &c. of any duties granted to H. M., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 28. [See other exemptions, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Affidavit.]

32. Nothing herein shall charge any letters patent for collecting charitable donations, commonly called Briefs, with duty, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 69. [See similar exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Grant.]

33. This act shall not charge any act of parliament, proclamation, order of council, forms of prayer, or thanksgiving, or any act of state ordered by H. M. to be printed, or the printed votes or other matters ordered to be printed by either house of parliament, with the duties on pamphlets or newspapers, or charge any books commonly used as school books in G. B., or any books containing only matters of devotion or piety, with such duties, or charge any single advertisement printed by itself, or the daily accounts, or bills of goods imported, or exported, or the weekly bills of mortality, so as the same contain only the usual matter, 10 A. c. 19. s. 102. [See similar exception, 55 G. 3. c. 185. Sch., tit. Pamphlet.]

34. Nothing in this or any other stamp act shall charge with stamp duties any warrant or instrument, signed by the chief justices in eyre, or by any warden, lieutenant, or other officer of H. M.'s forests or chases, for any thing done in their offices, 10 A. c. 26. s. 74.

35. Nothing in this act shall charge with any of the stamp duties hereby imposed any thing by the 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. exempted from stamp duty, 12 A. St. 2. c. 9. s. 22.

36. All such parts of any act of parliament relative to any turnpike, highway, paving, road, bridge, inclosure, navigation, or canal, or any other thing passed before 5th Dec., 1782. as exempt any mortgage, assignment, transfer, or other security for borrowing money, or any nomination, contract, warrant, bond, judgment, or other writing, so liable to stamp duties, from stamp duty, shall be repealed, 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 13.

37. Provided such repeal shall not extend to any transfer of any public or government stocks, or to any instruments, documents, or other writings concerning the public revenue, or public funds, or to any other writing expressly exempted from stamp duties by any act granting stamp duties, unless where such exemption has been repealed, id. s. 14.

38. No transfer or assignment of any stock in the bank of Eng., commonly called bank stock, or in the South Sea company, shall be liable to any greater stamp or other duties, than were payable for any transfer, &c. of any of such stocks, before the passing of the 23 G. 3. c. 58., 26 G. 3. c. 82. s. 11. [Now liable, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Transfer.]

39. Every licence that shall pass the seal of any archbishop, or bishop, chancellor, or other ordinary, or any ecclesiastical court, for appointing any stipendiary curate, in which the annual amount of the stipend is inserted, shall be exempted from stamp duty, and shall be available in any court of law or equity, 28 G. 3. c. 38., 28 G. 3. c. 56. [See like exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Licence.]

40. The exemption in 25 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1. in favour of bonds, so far as it relates to bonds given as security for money amounting to 100*l.* shall be REP., 55 G. 3. c. 30. s. 3.

41. Nothing in this act shall charge any bond or letter of attorney, with the duty hereby imposed, nor any deed, executed by one of the parties, prior to 1st Aug. 1797, 37 G. 3. c. 111. s. 2.

42. Nothing in this act shall extend to any indenture of apprenticeship, when the sum or value not exceeding 10*l.* shall be given, or contracted with, or in relation to the apprentice, nor to any lease of lands or tenements for a term not exceeding 21 years, the full improved annual value whereof, and rent reserved, shall not be more than 10*l.*, nor to any lease for lives, or years determinable on lives, where the fine or consideration shall not exceed 20*l.* and the rent reserved shall not exceed 40*s.*, 37 G. 3. c. 111. s. 3. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Lease.]

43. The duties by 37 G. 3. c. 111. granted, shall extend to every deed which by law may form, or is intended to form, a part of any conveyance of lands, or tenements, whereby a greater interest in the same is conveyed than a term of 21 years, whatever may be its value, the 37 G. 3. c. 111. s. 3. notwithstanding, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 13.

44. The provision of 19 G. 3. c. 45. (s. 10.), whereby any grant, conveyance, or assurance of the fee farm rents, of the duchy of Lancaster, are made free of stamp duty, shall exempt them from all stamp duties imposed by any act now in force, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 1. [See also the exceptions in 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Grant.]

45. No stamp duty shall be charged for any commissions granted to the officers of the yeomanry, cavalry, or volunteer infantry, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 18. [See similar exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Commission.]

46. Nothing herein shall charge with any duty, any proceeding with respect to persons suing in forma pauperis, nor any proceedings of any court martial which relate to the trial of any common soldier, nor any orders, decrees, or proceedings before the commissioners of sewers, or in the court of stannaries, nor any instruments which by the land-tax redemption acts are specially exempted from duty, id. s. 19. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part II. at the end, and pl. 27.]

47. All bonds entered into before the passing of this act, by any collectors of the assessed taxes, and property tax, and their sureties, relating to their offices, on unstamped paper shall be valid, and all persons shall be indemnified therefore; and all such bonds hereafter to be entered into shall be exempt from stamp duty, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 11.

48. All the several instruments hereafter mentioned shall be exempt from stamp duty, viz. all bonds to H. M. entered into by card-makers, for securing the payment of the stamp duty on cards; and by proprietors, printers, or publishers of newspapers, for securing the duties on advertisements, and by stationers and others who sell stamped paper for printing newspapers, for the due observance of the matters required by 38 G. 3. c. 78. [See general tit. Newspapers.] and also all warrants to sue and defend in courts baron of any honors or manors which hold pleus in actions for debt or damages, not exceeding 5*l.*, as well as all plaints, summonses, executions, writs, and other proceedings issuing out of such courts, 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 19. [See like exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Bonds, and general exemptions at the end of Part II.]

III. The Accounts.

49. THE COMMISSIONERS, RECEIVERS GENERAL, OR other persons employed in collecting such duties shall, between the 28th June and the 29th Sept. yearly, exhibit their accounts to the auditors of the imprest, or one of them, who shall examine upon oath the said accountants, of what money was received, and what part thereof was paid into the receipt of the exchequer, or by virtue of any privy seal, or warrant of the treasury, and to whom, and for what service; and they shall produce proper vouchers for the same, according to the ancient methods of the exchequer; and the accounts shall be declared before the lords commissioners of the treasury and chancellor of the exchequer, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 14.

50. THE COMPTROLLER AND ACCOUNTANT GENERAL OF such stamp duties, shall annually pass a general account in the court of exchequer, of the gross produce thereof; in which account there shall be charged all the monies due, for all the stamps put upon any vellum, &c. distinguishing those for which ready money is paid at the office, from those which shall be delivered over to be otherwise sold or distributed, and all the monies which shall arise to H. M. for penalties relating to such duties, and all the monies paid by the registers of the universities, or by any officers of the law, or others, for entries made in books, and all the monies arising for vellum, &c. delivered out by the commissioners, so that the profits may plainly appear; and all monies secured by bonds for such duties, and all other things which ought to be charged in a gross account; and in the discharge there shall be comprehended all the monies which have been duly paid by the receiver-general; and all salaries and incident charges, and discounts on prompt payments, and the monies which shall be paid for vellum, &c. provided by the commissioners, and all other things which by the course of the exchequer ought to be discharged, 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 8.

51. All debts and arrears of such duties, which at the end of such account ought to be charged upon any receiver, or others, shall be set insuper, upon the persons charged, that the same be duly recovered, unless the treasury shall stay proceedings, and give time for payment, id. s. 9.

52. The stocks of vellum, &c. stamped or unstamped, which at the end of every such account ought to remain in H. M.'s warehouses, shall also be set down at the first of such account, and such annual account shall terminate on 1st Aug., and be delivered by the comptroller, and accountant general to the auditors of imprest, before 25th Dec., and prosecuted, so that the same may be finished before 1st May, under the penalty of forfeiting his office, and 100*l.*; one moiety to H. M., and the other to such person as will sue for it, as in s. 6. [viz. by action of debt, &c.] 1 A. St. S. c. 22. s. 10.

53. If any such comptroller and accountant general shall knowingly return any receiver, distributor, or other person insuper, for any money or stamps, duly answered, whereby he shall sustain damage, such comptroller, &c. shall pay treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered by action on the case, in any court at Westminster, with costs, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 11.

54. The annual account of duties on stamped vellum, parchment, and paper, shall be made up from 10th Aug. 1799, on 5th Jan. annually, or on the day fixed by treasury, 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 10. notwithstanding, 39 G. 3. c. 92. [See 46 G. 3. c. 76. pl. 57.]

55. The receivers and others employed in collecting, &c. the duty hereby granted shall, between 2d Aug. and 15th Dec. yearly, exhibit their yearly accounts to the auditors of the imprest, who shall examine the same, on oath of such receivers, &c. concerning what sums were by them received, and what was paid into the bank of England, under s. 10. of this act, and such receivers, &c. shall produce vouchers for money received and paid, and such auditor shall have 20*s.* for each 1000*l.* such account shall amount to, which accounts shall be signed by such auditors, and be then deemed a good discharge, 12 G. 1. c. 53. s. 14. [Money to be paid into the bank of Eng. (s. 10.), and a book to be kept to the account of the suitors of the court of chancery, whose money had been found deficient in the hands of certain masters of the said court, id. s. 11.]

56. "Whereas by several acts it is provided, that during the space of 10 years then following, the auditors of the exchequer shall keep a book, in which shall be kept apart all money arising by duties intended to be a permanent addition to the revenue;" it is ENACTED, that after 5th Jan. 1804, the consolidated duties shall be entered in one account, and the treasury shall during the remainder of such 10 years cause separate accounts of such duties to be kept, to ascertain their respective amounts, and which accounts shall be, according to 42 G. 3. c. 70., annually laid before parliament, 43 G. 3. c. 127. s. 9.

57. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF THE OFFICE of receiver general of stamp duties in Eng., 46 G. 3. c. 76. [AMD. as to the weekly payments into the exchequer, 59 G. 3. c. 39.]

58. All money bills, drafts, and notes, which shall be received by the receiver-general of stamp duties, shall be paid into the bank of Eng., viz. the money and notes, and such bills and drafts as shall be already accepted, or do not require acceptance on the day after received, and such bills and drafts as do require acceptance, and are not accepted when received on the day after the same are accepted, and all such monies, &c. shall be placed in the books of the bank, to "The account of the public monies of the receiver general of stamp duties," inserting his name, 46 G. 3. c. 76. s. 1.

59. Such receiver general may retain out of the monies received by him, such sums not exceeding 1000*l.* per week, (unless a larger sum is allowed in writing, by 3 lords of the treasury,) as the commissioners of stamps shall direct for the payment of casual and ordinary charges, payable out of the stamp revenue, id. s. 2.

60. The bank of Eng. shall daily on receiving any money, bills, drafts, or notes, from the receiver-general, make an entry of the money, &c. so received in a book, which shall be forthwith returned to the stamp office, and then inspected by the comptroller, and accountant general, or their deputies, who shall compare the same with the books kept by him, to see that such receiver pays all money, &c. which he ought, into the bank, and any default found by them therein, they shall report to the commissioners of stamps, who shall report it to the treasury, id. s. 3.

61. The weekly payments into the exchequer, pursuant to law, of money arising from the stamp duty, shall be as follows, (viz.) such receiver-general, or one of his clerks, shall make an order on the bank to write off from his account the sum desired, which order shall be countersigned as the treasury shall direct, and on receipt of such order, the bank shall write off the same, and deliver a note for the amount (which note shall be cancelled) to the bearer of such order, who shall pay the same into the exchequer, and the bank clerks attending at the exchequer shall receive such note as cash, id. s. 4.

62. For the payment of such incidental charges, which the money retained by the receiver-general shall be insufficient to pay, such receiver-general, or one of his clerks, may draw out of the bank such sums as the commissioners of stamps may direct, and every draft for the payment of money for any such purposes, shall be countersigned as the treasury shall direct, and shall specify the head of service for which issued, and such receiver-general shall account for such money, as well as for the money so retained by him, and for the application thereof, as the commissioners of stamps, with the approbation of the treasury, shall direct, id. s. 5.

63. All drafts drawn according to the directions of this act, but not otherwise, shall be a good authority to the bank to pay the amount to the persons mentioned therein, or to the bearer of them, 46 G. 3. c. 76. s. 6.

64. [Upon the death, or removal of any receiver-general, the balance of cash for which he has credit, as such receiver, with the bank, shall when a successor is appointed, actually vest in such successor in trust for the public, and be forthwith placed to his account, to be applied as aforesaid; and such successor shall issue his drafts and orders for the payment of all unsatisfied demands, although they accrued in the time of any former receiver-general, id. s. 7.

65. Such receiver-general shall keep the account with the bank, of all monies issued by the bank, on account of the service of the public; and such receiver observing the rules, &c. of this act, shall not be answerable for any money bills, &c. which he shall so pay into the bank, but the bank shall, id. s. 8.

66. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or knowingly and wilfully assist in forging, &c. the name or hand writing of such receiver general, or of his clerk, or of either of the commissioners of stamps, to any instrument, in order to obtain any money, in the custody of the bank of Eng., on account of such receiver, or shall forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging, &c. any instrument in the form of a draft, made by such receiver-general, or his clerk, or shall utter, or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged, &c. with intention to defraud any person whomsoever, shall on conviction suffer death without clergy, id. s. 9.

67. The receiver-general of stamp duties shall, as directed by 46 G. 3. c. 76. s. 4. pl. 61. make payments into the exchequer, on such days, in every week, as the treasury shall direct, 59 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1.

IV. General Regulations.

68. H. M., UNDER THE GREAT SEAL OF Eng., [for the treasury, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25.] may nominate commissioners or officers for the purposes herein mentioned, who shall keep their head office at some place within London or Westminster, and they, or the major part of them, may, under their hands and seals, appoint inferior officers for marking or stamping of vellum, parchment and paper, or for better collecting the duties hereby granted, and they shall provide stamps to stamp all such vellum, &c. [which stamps shall be published by proclamation under the great seal, and such stamps may be altered or renewed as H. M. thinks fit, so as the same be notified by public proclamation, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 7., 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 7., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 48.

69. The head office for stamp duties may be in any of the four inns of court, or of the parishes of St. Andrew Holborn, St. Clement Dances, St. Paul Covent Garden, or St. Giles in the Fields, although the same be not in London or Westminster, 10 A. c. 19. s. 181.

70. Such commissioners shall take care that the impressions of such stamps are durable, and as little liable to be forged as possible, 5 & 6 W. 3. c. 21. s. 8.

71. If any commissioner or officer shall fix any such stamp to any vellum, &c. before such duties are paid or secured, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the person suing, in any court of record, by plaint, bill or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 10., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 59.

72. The commissioners may appoint a person to attend in any court or office to take notice of the vellum, &c. upon which any the things aforesaid shall be written, and of all other matters tending to secure the duties arising by this act, and the judges and others to whom it may appertain, at the request of the commissioners, or any two of them, shall make such orders, and do such things for the better securing of the duties as shall be reasonably desired, 5 & 6 W. 3. c. 21. s. 12., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 61., 26 G. 3. c. 48. s. 7.

73. Every person commissioned by their majesties, and every person to be employed for the stamping of vellum, &c. before his acting, shall take the oath following, viz.

I A. B. do swear, that I will faithfully execute the trust reposed in me, pursuant to an act of parliament, intituled, An act for granting to their majesties several duties upon vellum, &c. for four years, towards carrying on the war against France, without fraud or concealment; and shall from time to time true account make of my doing therein, and deliver the same to such person or persons as their majesties, their heirs and successors, shall appoint to receive such account; and shall take no fee, reward or profit for the execution or performance of the said trust, or the business relating thereunto, from any persons, other than such as shall be paid or allowed by their majesties, their heirs or successors, or by the commissioners of their majesties treasury, or three of them now being, or by the treasurer of the exchequer, or three or more of the commissioners of the treasury for the time being.

Which oath shall be administered to any commissioner by 3 commissioners; and any of the commissioners may administer the oath to the sub-commissioners or other persons employed, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 12., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 61.

74. The commissioners of stamps shall be sworn; and form of oath given, 8 A. c. 9. s. 42., 9 A. c. 23. s. 29., 10 A. c. 19. s. 106., 10 A. c. 26. s. 73. (but no form given), 12 A. St. 2. c. 9. s. 26., 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 9.

75. The commissioners and their officers shall observe the orders of the treasury, or of the treasurers of the exchequer, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 13., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 63., 43 G. 3. c. 127. s. 4. [See 8 A. c. 9. s. 44. post, pl. 82.]

76. The commissioners shall take care that the kingdom is sufficiently furnished with vellum, &c. duly stamped, so as all persons may at their election buy the same of the officers employed by the commissioners at a certain rate above the duty, or bring their own vellum, &c. to be stamped, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 13., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 62., 9 A. c. 23. s. 35., 10 A. c. 19. s. 116., 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 20., 16 G. 3. c. 34. s. 12., 26 G. 3. c. 48. s. 4.

77. All records, and other proceedings in the courts of law and equity, and all deeds and writings hereby charged, shall be engrossed and written as they have been usually or are now written, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 15., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 64.

78. H. M., out of the duties hereby arising, may cause such sums to be expended for salaries, and other incidental charges as may be necessary for collecting or managing the duties, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 22., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 66., 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 5.

79. The treasury shall, once a year, set the price of all sorts of stamped vellum, &c. at which it shall be sold, and shall stamp the same on it, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 9., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 68., 9 A. c. 23. s. 66., 10 A. c. 19. s. 117., 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 21., 16 G. 3. c. 34. s. 13.

80. NO OFFICER SHALL BE SUBJECT TO ANY PENALTIES, in this or any former act mentioned, for writing any thing in any book or roll without stamps, which shall have been first signed by the commissioners, or some officer by them authorized; so as the person having the custody of such book or roll do (as often as required) permit the commissioners, or any officer by them appointed, to inspect such book or roll, and do also pay unto the receiver-general of the duties all sums of money which according to the stamp acts ought to be paid in respect of all such things as shall be written in such book or roll, 1 A. S. 2. c. 22. s. 4.

81. All things (in respect whereof any of such stamp duties shall be payable) shall be written in such manner that some part thereof shall be either upon or as near as conveniently may be to the stamps; upon pain that the person who shall write any such thing contrary to the meaning hereof shall forfeit 10*l.*, with costs, id. s. 5.

82. THE COMMISSIONERS OF STAMPS, and all other officers employed in the revenue of stamps, shall observe the orders of the treasury, and shall take no fee for any thing done in pursuance of this act; and in case any such officer shall neglect to perform any thing by this act required, whereby H. M.'s subjects shall sustain damage, he shall be liable, by any action founded on this statute, to answer to the party grieved all such damages, with treble costs, 8 A. c. 9. s. 44., 9 A. c. 23. s. 30., 10 A. c. 19. s. 107., 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 24., 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 6., 2 G. 3. c. 36. s. 6., 5 G. 3. c. 47. s. 6., 26 G. 3. c. 48. s. 8.

83. All public officers, having custody of any revenue debenture, or any public books, files, records, remembrancers, docket or proceedings, the signet whereof may tend to secure the stamp duties, or discover any fraud in relation thereto, shall permit any officer authorized by the commissioners of stamps to inspect all such books, &c. and take notes thereout without fee, upon pain that such clerk or officers shall forfeit [5*l.*, 9 A. c. 23. s. 28.], [50*l.* 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 38.], with full costs, 9 A. c. 23. s. 28., 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 38.

84. Commissioners shall be from time to time appointed to manage the stamp duties, and they and their officers shall perform their duty therein under the like penalties and disabilities as by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. for the like offence inflicted, 9 A. c. 23. s. 48., 10 A. c. 19. s. 124., 10 A. c. 26. s. 77., 12 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 29., 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 12.

85. Breach of trust in the commissioners shall be punished as under former acts, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 25., 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 7., 2 G. 3. c. 36. s. 7., 5 G. 3. c. 47. s. 7.

86. Dies for stamping, though distinguished by letters to shew one from another, and the impressions thereby made, shall be lawful stamps according to the acts in that behalf made; and all stamps, provided in pursuance of this or any other act, shall (notwithstanding the addition of any letter or figure) be deemed lawful stamps, and made in pursuance of this act, 10 A. c. 19. s. 179.

87. No commissioner, officer or person concerning in the levying or managing any of the duties granted by this act shall, by word, message, writing or otherwise, endeavour to persuade any elector to give, or dissuade any elector from giving his vote for the choice of any person to be knight of the shire, commissioner, citizen, burgess or baron, for any county, city, borough or cinque port, and every officer or person offending herein shall forfeit 10*l.*, to go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; to be recovered by any person who will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, or the exchequer in Scot., in which no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed; and persons convict at any such suit shall be incapacitated for executing any office under H. M., 10 A. c. 19. s. 182.

88. Where any more than one of the matters charged with any stamp duty shall be engrossed, &c. upon one piece of vellum, &c., the duties hereby granted shall be paid on each of such matters respectively, 12 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 24.

89. One new stamp may be used to denote several duties, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 18., 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 3., 2 G. 3. c. 36. s. 3., 5 G. 3. c. 47. s. 3., 16 G. 3. c. 34. s. 9., 17 G. 3. c. 50. s. 19., 19 G. 3. c. 66. s. 4., 21 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3., 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 7., 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 3., 29 G. 3. c. 51. s. 4., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 4.

90. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL preventing of frauds in the stamp duties upon vellum, parchment, paper and cards, 12 G. 3. c. 48.

91. If any person shall write, engross, or cause to be written, &c. either the whole or part of any writ, mandate, bond, affidavit, or other writing or thing in respect whereof any duty is payable by any act made, or to be made, on the whole or any part of any piece of vellum, &c. whereon there has been before written any other writ, &c. in respect whereof any duty was payable before such vellum, &c. has been stamped again, or shall fraudulently erase or scrape out, or cause to be erased, &c. the name of any person, or any sum, date, or other thing written in such writ, &c. or fraudulently cut, tear or get off any mark or stamp in respect whereof any duty is payable or denoted to be paid from any piece of vellum, &c. playing cards, outside paper of any pack of playing cards, or any part thereof, with intent to use such stamp for any other writing or thing in respect whereof any such duty is payable, or denoted to be paid, then the person offending, and all persons knowingly abetting him therein, shall be guilty of felony, and on conviction be transported for not exceeding 7 years; and if such person so convicted or transported shall voluntarily escape or break prison, or return from transportation before the expiration of his term, he shall, on conviction, suffer death without clergy, and be tried for such felony in the county where apprehended, id. s. 1. [See as to playing cards, 6 G. 1. c. 21. s. 55. STAMPS (Cards and Dice), pl. 357.; and as to forgery, Div. VI.]

92. If any person shall commit any such offences, and afterwards, being out of prison, discover one person who since that time has committed any of such offences, so as such person is convicted, he so discovering shall have H. M.'s pardon for all of such offences by him committed before such discovery made, id. s. 2.

93. THE SEVERAL RATES now chargeable on vellum, &c. in respect of any matter engrossed, &c. thereon, shall be charged upon every other material on which any of such matters shall be engrossed &c.; which rates shall be charged, ascertained and secured as the duties now payable on vellum, &c. are directed to be by the laws now in force, 38 G. 3. c. 85. s. 4.

94. All the powers, regulations, penalties, &c. and application of penalties, and all other matters in any act now in force relating to the stamp duties shall be in full force with relation to the rates charged on all other materials, as in s. 4., and shall be applied in collecting or recovering, &c. the same, id. s. 5.

95. THE COMMISSIONERS of stamps, instead of distinct stamps directed to be provided to denote the duties on stamped vellum, &c. may cause one new stamp to be provided to denote such duties charged on every piece of vellum, &c. or other instrument as they think fit, and may alter, repair or renew the same, 43 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1.

96. Instruments, although stamped with a stamp of greater value than by law required, shall be valid, provided such stamp is of the proper denomination, id. s. 6. [See pl. 99.]

97. No single instrument, article or thing which is subject to only one specific duty, shall be charged under two distinct heads or denominations, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 11.

98. All instruments which have been stamped with two or more stamps for the denoting the amount of any single duty chargeable thereon, shall be as valid as if the same had been stamped with a single stamp; but no stamp appropriated to denote the duty charged on any particular instrument, and bearing the name thereof on its face, shall be used for denoting any other duty of the same amount, or if so used, the same shall be of no avail, 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 4.

99. INSTRUMENTS HAVING stamps of a wrong denomination, but of equal or greater value than the instrument required, shall be valid, except where the stamp is specially appropriated to another instrument by having its name on the face thereof, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 16., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 10. [See pl. 96.]

100. Old stamps may be used to denote new duties, and two or more stamps to denote one duty, until a single stamp provided; but no stamp bearing the name of any instrument shall be used for any other, or if so used, shall be of no avail, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 4.

101. All vellum, &c. stamped for denoting any former duties, may be used for instruments, &c. hereby charged with new duties of the same amount, and such commissioners may stamp such vellum, &c. with any additional stamps in order to make up the increased duty; provided no vellum, &c. bearing stamps appropriated by name to any particular instrument shall be used for any other purpose, or if used, shall be of no avail, 55 G.3. c.184. s.5.

102. Stamped paper rendered useless by this act may be exchanged within 12 months from 31st Aug. for other stamps, or have additional stamps affixed, id. s.6. [Exp.]

103. To REMOVE DOUBTS AS TO THE AMOUNT OF STAMP DUTIES to be paid on deeds and other instruments under the several acts in force in G.B. and Ire. respectively, 1 & 2 G.4. c.35.

104. Every deed, agreement or other instrument which shall relate wholly to any real or personal property in Ire., or to any thing (other than the payment of money) to be done in Ire., shall be chargeable with such stamp duties as are payable by the stamp laws in force in Ire., and no other; and every deed, agreement, or other instrument which shall relate to any real or personal property in G.B., or to any thing (other than the payment of money) to be done in G.B. or elsewhere than in Ire., shall be chargeable with such stamp duties as are payable by the stamp laws in force in G.B.; and every deed, &c. which shall relate to any real or personal property in Ire., or to any thing (other than the payment of money) to be done in Ire., and also to any real or personal property in G.B. or elsewhere than in Ire., or to any thing (other than the payment of money) to be done in G.B. or elsewhere than in Ire., shall be chargeable with such stamp duties as are payable by the stamp laws in force in G.B., and not with any other stamp duty; but every such deed, &c. shall be chargeable with such stamp duties accordingly, whether the same shall be ingrossed and executed at any place within the U.K. or not, and whether any of the parties to such deed, &c. are resident in or executing the same at any place in G.B. or Ire., or elsewhere; and any deed, &c. duly stamped, pursuant to this act, shall not be liable to stamp duty by reason of the same containing any covenant, agreement or obligation for the payment of money, at whatever place such money may be made payable, or may by law be payable, id. s.1.

105. All bonds, covenants and agreements for securing the payment of money only (where the money so secured shall not be also charged or secured upon any real or personal property), shall be liable to stamp duty as follows; viz. where there shall be only one obligor or covenantor, or person liable to pay such money, or several obligors, &c. but all shall be resident in G.B., or all shall be resident in Ire., such bond, &c. shall be charged with the stamp duty, payable in that part of the U.K. where the obligor, &c. shall bonâ fide reside at the time of executing the same, and where some or one of several obligors, &c. liable to payment of money secured by bond, &c. shall, at the execution of such bond, &c. be bonâ fide resident in G.B. and elsewhere, not in Ire., and some other or others shall be bonâ fide resident in Ire., then such residences shall be truly described in such bond, &c. and such bond, &c. shall be charged with the stamp duty payable by the stamp laws in force in G.B., and not with any further or other stamp duty; but the payment of any rent or annuity shall be deemed to be the payment of money within this act, id. s.2.

106. Nothing herein shall affect the stamp duties on bills of exchange or promissory notes, or charge with any stamp duty any cheques, drafts or orders not now liable to such duty, id. s.3.

107. Every deed, bond, covenant, agreement or other instrument stamped according to this act may, as far as may respect the stamp duty, be given in evidence in any court of law or equity in G.B. or Ire., id. s.4.

V. Penalties.

108. THE MOIETY OF ALL PENALTIES IN THIS ACT MENTIONED, shall go to H.M., and the other with full costs to the party suing in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., 1 A. St. 2. c.22. s.6. [See 44 G.3. c.98. s.27. pl. 124.]

109. All penalties hereby imposed relating to stamped, vellum, &c. shall go one moiety to H.M. and the other with full costs to the party suing in the courts at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., Wa. or Ber., and in the exchequer in Scot., for offences done there, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 9 A. c.23. s.37. [See 44 G.3. c.98. s.27. pl. 124.]

110. ALL PECUNIARY PENALTIES HEREBY IMPOSED relating to the duties on stamped vellum, &c. or upon cards, &c. (except such, touching which other directions are given) shall be divided, one moiety to H.M., and the other with costs, to such as shall sue for the same in any of H.M.'s courts at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., and in the courts of session, justiciary, or exchequer, in Scot., by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 10 A. c.19. s.119.

111. Two justices residing near the place where any pecuniary penalties not exceeding 20*l.*, upon this or any act relating to the stamp duties, shall be incurred, or any offence against such acts committed, by which any sum only may be forfeited, may determine the same; which justices upon information or complaint made within one year after the seizure made, or offence committed, may summon the party accused, and witnesses on either side; and on the appearance or contempt of the party accused, shall be convicted of the offence alleged against him, and may award warrants under their hands and seals, for levying such penalties on the goods of the offender, and make sale thereof within 6 days, if not before redeemed; and party aggrieved by such judgment of such justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions, and the justices there shall finally determine the same, and summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and in case of conviction, may issue warrants for levying such penalties, 10 A. c.19. s.172.

112. Such justices may mitigate such penalties, the reasonable costs of the officers and informers being allowed over such mitigation, so as such mitigation does not reduce the penalties to less than double the duties, besides such costs, id. s.173.

113. No certiorari shall supersede execution or other proceedings on any order made by such justices under this act, id. s.174.

114. ALL PENALTIES HEREBY INFLICTED SHALL GO one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party suing for the same in any court of record, with his full costs, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 5 G.3. c.46. s.41.

115. WHEREVER ANY PERSON SHALL BE CONVICTED BEFORE a justice or justices of peace, of any offence against any act now in force, or hereafter to be made, touching the duties of stamps, by which any pecuniary penalty is forfeited; such justice or justices before whom the party is convicted, shall levy such penalty in such manner as in such acts is contained, and apply the same to such uses, and in such proportions as is therein directed, in case such acts shall expressly direct the application thereof, and in default of such direction, they shall apply the same as here directed, 26 G.3. c.82. s.1.

116. One moiety of all such penalties (except where otherwise directed) shall go to the informer prosecuting for the same, within 6 calendar months after such offence committed, and the other moiety, the expences of recovery being first deducted, shall go to H.M., id. s.2.

117. The division of any such penalty directed by this or any other stamp act, on conviction before a justice, shall be restricted to prosecuting for it within such time as in s.2. pl. 116., and in default of such prosecution within 6 calendar months, no part of it shall go to the informer before a justice, but the whole shall go to H.M., and be recoverable by any ways, as may be in any such stamp acts directed, id. s.3.

118. All such penalties and shares thereof which shall be due to H.M. under this or any other stamp act now or hereafter to be made, shall be paid to the receiver-general of stamp duties, or some person authorized by such commissioners to receive the same, who shall keep a distinct account thereof, and pay the same (the charges of paying and accounting being deducted) into the exchequer by the 1st Aug. yearly, and the auditor of the receipt of the exchequer, shall enter in a book all monies arising from such penalties due to H.M. apart from all others, and the same shall be applied to the use of H.M., to such purposes as such penalties were or ought to have been applied before this act made, id. s.4.

119. Where any penalty for any offence against the stamp laws now in force, or hereafter to be made, is incurred, the convicting justice or justices shall make out the conviction in the form following, or to the like effect, mutatis mutandis, and such conviction shall be good, viz.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — A. B. of — was duly convicted before me C. D. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — [or, before us C. D. and E. F. two of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — as the case shall happen to be] in pursuance of an act, passed in the — year of the reign of — for that the said A. B. on the — day of — now last past, did [here state the offence against the act, as the case shall be] contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided; and I [or we, as the case may be] do declare and adjudge that he the said A. B. hath forfeited for his said offence, the sum of — of lawful money of G. B. which sum of — I [or we, as the case may be] do hereby mitigate to the sum of — [here state the mitigated penalty, if necessary] to be distributed as the law directs. This is the first, [second, or other offence, as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals, as the case may require] this — day of —.'

Which conviction such justice shall cause to be written on parchment, and returned to the next quarter sessions for the county, city, or place, &c. where conviction was made, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and there to remain among the records of the county, &c.; and no such conviction shall be removed by certiorari; but shall be subject to appeal before the quarter sessions, as in the stamp acts may be directed, id. s.5.

120. If upon the trial of any information, indictment, or other prosecution for any offence against this or any other act, touching the stamp duties, whereby any person is deemed guilty of felony, any question shall arise whether any person be an officer of H.M. for any of such duties, or whether any person has been employed by the commissioners of stamps to make or provide any deeds of stamps to denote such duties, or to repair, renew, or alter the same; in any of such cases proof may be made, that such person was reputed to be, and had in fact exercised such office or employment at the times when the matter of such trials happened to be done, without producing or proving the particular commission, deputation or other authority, whereby such officer or person was appointed, and in such case such proof shall be deemed good evidence, unless other evidence appear to the contrary, 26 G.3. c.82. s.6.

121. All laws and statutes now in force touching such duties, and all articles therein, and not hereby altered or repealed, shall be duly executed, and under the penalties therein contained, to be raised and disposed of as thereby directed, id. s.8.

122. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if the plaintiff has a verdict against him, or is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.12.

123. No person shall commence or prosecute, &c. any action, information, &c. in H. M.'s courts, or before any justice or other magistrate, against any person for the recovery of any fine or penalty incurred by virtue of this or any other stamp act, unless the same be commenced, prosecuted, &c. in the name of H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or H. M.'s advocate in Scot., or in the name of the solicitor, or some other officer of the stamps; and if any action or information is commenced in the name of any other person than as before-mentioned, the same, and every proceeding thereon had shall be null, 44 G.3. c.98. s.10. [But see as to post-horse duty, 57 G.3. c.59. s.26.]

124. All penalties hereby imposed, except where otherwise directed, shall be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such means as any penalty may be by any laws in force, on or before 10th Oct. 1804, relating to the stamp duties, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, or in the exchequer in Scot., and all fines heretofore imposed by any stamp act, shall go to H. M. only; provided that the commissioners of stamps may in cases where any such fine was by any such act given to the informer, give any part thereof, as they deem proper, to any person who may inform or discover any such offence, id. s.27.

125. IN ALL ACTIONS, INFORMATIONS, PROCEEDINGS, &c. hereafter to be commenced, &c. in the name of H. M., or in the name of any person on his behalf, for the recovery of any duties, debts or penalties granted or imposed by any stamp act now in force, or this act, such duties, &c. shall be recovered with full costs, 53 G.3. c.108. s.23.

126. The commissioners of stamps may stay proceedings in any prosecution commenced by their direction, for the recovering any penalty on payment of part only of such penalty, with or without costs, or on payment of the costs only or part thereof, and such commissioners judge fit, and they may give such sums as shall be so paid, by way of penalty to the persons informing them of the offences for which had, id. s.24.

127. All criminal offences against any of the stamp acts shall be tried in the county or city, or town and county, where committed, or where the offenders are apprehended, id. s.28.

VI. Forgery.

128. FORGING STAMPS, OR FRAUDULENTLY USING LEGAL ONES, felony without clergy, 5 & 6 W. & M. c.21. s.11., 9 & 10 W.3. c.25. s.60., 8 A. c.9. s.41. [see the section at length, STAMPS (Apprentice), pl. 231.] 9 A. c.23. s.34., 10 A. c.19. ss.115—163., 10 A. c.26. s.72., 6 G.1. c.21. s.60., 29 G.2. c.13. s.5., 30 G.2. c.19. s.27., 32 G.2. c.35. s.8., 2 G.3. c.36. s.8., 5 G.3. c.55. s.6., 5 G.3. c.46. s.40., 5 G.3. c.47. s.8., 7 G.3. c.44. s.5., 16 G.3. c.54. s.15., 17 G.3. c.50. s.25., 19 G.3. c.66. s.8., 20 G.3. c.28. s.6., 21 G.3. c.56. s.9., 23 G.3. c.58. s.11., 25 G.3. c.58. s.10., 25 G.3. c.80., s.30., 29 G.3. c.50. s.13., 29 G.3. c.51. s.8., 31 G.3. c.25. s.29., 34 G.3. c.14. s.14., 35 G.3. c.50. s.4., 35 G.3. c.55. s.17., 35 G.3. c.63. s.23., 36 G.3. c.52. s.40., 37 G.3. c.90. s.5., 37 G.3. c.111. s.5., 39 G.3. c.107. s.25., 41 G.3. U.K. c.10. s.8., 41 G.3. U.K. c.86. s.16., 42 G.3. c.56. s.20., 43 G.3. c.126. s.11., 43 G.3. c.127. s.8., 44 G.3. c.98. s.9., 45 G.3. c.28. s.8., 46 G.3. c.43. s.3., 48 G.3. c.149. s.7., and 50 G.3. c.35. s.6.

129. Any person causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited any stamp or mark to resemble any stamp, &c. provided or used under any stamp act, or causing or procuring any vellum, &c. to be stamped with such counterfeit stamp, shall be adjudged to have actually committed the same himself, and suffer death without clergy, 6 G.1. c.21. s.60.

130. If any person shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any seal, stamp or mark to resemble any seal, &c. directed to be used under this or any other act, to denote duties by this or any other act granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the impression thereof, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter or vend any vellum, &c. or any cards, dice, newspapers, liable to any stamp duty, with such counterfeit stamp, &c. thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately and fraudulently use any such seal, &c. with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall, on conviction, be adjudged a felon, and suffer death without clergy, 16 G.3. c.54. s.13.

131. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged, &c. any mark, stamp or die, provided, made, or used under this act, or shall counterfeit or resemble, or cause &c. the impression of the same on any vellum, &c. or other material, or the impression of the stamp or die on any vellum, allowed to be issued or applied under this act, thereby to defraud H. M.; or if any person shall alter or vend any vellum, &c., or other material with such forged, &c. stamp or impression thereon, knowing the same to be forged, &c. such person shall, on conviction, be judged a felon and suffer death without clergy, 44 G.3. c.98. s.9.

132. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged, &c. any stamp or die, or any part thereof, provided, made, or used, in pursuance of this or any former stamp act, or shall forge, counterfeit, or resemble, or cause or procure to be forged, &c. the impression or any part thereof, of any such stamp, &c. on any vellum, parchment, or paper, or shall stamp or mark, or cause or procure to be stamped, &c. any vellum, &c. with any such forged stamp, or part thereof, with intent to defraud H. M. of any of the duties by this act granted; or if any person shall utter or sell, or expose to sale any vellum, &c. having thereon the impression of any such forged stamp or die, or part thereof, or any such forged, &c. impression or part thereof, knowing the same respectively to be forged, &c. or if any person shall privately and secretly use any stamp or die, so provided, &c. with intent to defraud H. M. of any of such duties, or shall fraudulently cut, tear, or get off, or cause or procure to be cut, &c. the impression of any stamp or die, so provided, &c. in pursuance of this or any former stamp act, from any vellum, &c. with intent to use the same for or upon any other vellum, &c. or any instrument or writing chargeable with any of such duties; every person so offending, or knowingly and wilfully aiding or assisting any person in committing any such offence, being thereof convicted, shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, 55 G.3. c.184. s.7. [But all offences against the revenue laws heretofore declared felony without the benefit of clergy, made clergyable except as herein excepted, 52 G.3. c.143. s.7. and see also 12 G.3. c.48. STAMPS, pl. 91.]

133. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. any plate, stamp, or die, or any part of any plate, &c. provided or used in pursuance of this or any former act, for denoting the duties on almanacks, newspapers, and licences to keep stage coaches, or shall forge, &c. or cause to be forged, &c. any newspaper, or part thereof, of any such plate, &c. on any paper, or shall stamp or cause to be stamped, any paper with any such forged, &c. plate, &c. with intent to defraud H. M. of such duties; or if any person shall sell or expose to sale any paper having the impression of any such forged, &c. plate, &c. or any such forged impression as aforesaid, knowing the same to be forged, &c., or if any person shall privately use any plate, &c. so provided, with intent to defraud H. M., such person, and all others abetting him shall on conviction, suffer death as felons, without clergy, 55 G.3. c.185. s.6. [See 5 & 6 W. & M. c.21. s.11. pl. 163.]

VII. General Issue.

134. GENERAL ISSUE, AND SINGLE, DOUBLE, OR TREBLE COSTS, under 8 A. c.9. (by virtue of 10 A. c.26. s.76.), 10 A. c.19. s.123., 10 A. c.26. s.76., 6 G.1. c.21. s.66., 30 G.2. c.19. s.74., 32 G.2. c.35. s.14., 2 G.3. c.36. s.10., 5 G.3. c.35. s.12., 5 G.3. c.46. s.44., 5 G.3. c.47. s.12., 7 G.3. c.44. s.22., 8 G.3. c.25. s.11., 16 G.3. c.34. s.56., 17 G.3. c.50. s.28., 19 G.3. c.66. s.14., 20 G.3. c.28. s.10., 21 G.3. c.56. s.12., 22 G.3. c.48. s.27., 23 G.3. c.58. s.20., 25 G.3. c.58. s.14., 25 G.3. c.80. s.36., 26 G.3. c.82. s.12., 29 G.3. c.50. s.16., 29 G.3. c.51. s.11., 31 G.3. c.25. s.35., 34 G.3. c.14. s.18., 35 G.3. c.30. s.8., 36 G.3. c.52. s.47., 37 G.3. c.90. s.38., 41 G.3. U.K. c.10. s.13., 42 G.3. c.56. s.30., and 43 G.3. c.126. s.15.

135. Actions brought against any person for any thing done in pursuance thereof, shall be laid in the county where the fact was done, and the defendant therein may plead the general issue, and give this and any other act, and the special matter in evidence; and in case a verdict or judgment shall pass against the plaintiff, or he shall become nonsuit, or discontinue, the defendant shall have treble costs, 5 G.3. c.46. s.44.

136. Actions brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact done, and be laid in the county where they arose, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appear, or if the action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant, and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs with usual remedy to recover the same, 41 G.3. U.K. c.10. s.13.

VIII. Altering Stamps [Dies] by H. M.

137. AS OFTEN AS H. M. SHALL THINK FIT TO ALTER OR RENEW the stamps, all persons who shall have any vellum, &c. marked with the stamp which shall be altered or renewed, and upon which none of the things hereby charged shall be written, may within 60 days after such intention published by proclamation, send such vellum, &c. to the head office, or to such officers as shall be appointed; and such commissioners or officers shall deliver to the persons bringing any vellum, &c. the like quantity, and as good, stamp with such new stamp, without taking any money, under the penalty of 100*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 10. pl. 71., to be divided as the other penalties; and in case any person shall neglect within such time to bring such vellum, &c. the same shall be of no other use than if it had never been stamped, and persons using it shall forfeit as in case of using unstamped vellum, &c., 5*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* 3*d.* 21*d.* s. 16., 9*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.* 25*d.* s. 65., 9*l.* 3*s.* 23*d.* s. 32., 10*l.* 3*s.* 19*d.* s. 109.

138. Stamps provided under this act may be altered, renewed, &c. as stamps under any other stamp act may be, 30*l.* 2*s.* 19*d.* s. 22., 16*l.* 3*s.* 34*d.* s. 14., 17*l.* 3*s.* 50*d.* s. 23., 19*l.* 3*s.* 66*d.* s. 7., 20*l.* 3*s.* 28*d.* s. 5., 21*l.* 3*s.* 56*d.* s. 4., 23*l.* 3*s.* 58*d.* s. 10., 25*l.* 3*s.* 48*d.* s. 9., 29*l.* 3*s.* 50*d.* s. 6., 29*l.* 3*s.* 51*d.* s. 7., and 34*l.* 3*s.* 14*d.* s. 13.

139. When H. M. shall think fit to alter such stamps, the proclamation intended to be made, for giving notice thereof, shall within 20 days after date be sent to the mayor or other head officer of every city, corporation, borough, and market town throughout G. B., who shall cause the same to be published on the next market day, or next Sunday in church, on pain to forfeit 200*l.*, [to be sued for in any of the courts at Westminster, one moiety to H. M., and the other to such person who will sue for the same, 5*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* 3*d.* 21*d.* s. 23. only.] 5*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* 3*d.* 21*d.* s. 23., 9*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.* 25*d.* s. 67., 9*l.* 3*s.* 23*d.* s. 33., 10*l.* 3*s.* 19*d.* s. 110.

140. All courts and judges, without any proof or allegation in that behalf, shall judiciously take notice of the proclamation issued by king William and queen Mary, in pursuance of the 5*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* 3*d.* 21*d.* s. 21., and all types and stamps thereby published, and hereafter to be published by proclamation of H. M., in pursuance of any stamp act, as the lawful types and stamps provided in pursuance of such stamp act, 10*l.* 3*s.* 19*d.* s. 180.

141. "Whereas a proclamation was issued for publishing the devices and types used in stamping vellum, &c. in pursuance of 5*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* 3*d.* 21*d.* s. 21., which has since been continued by subsequent acts, but no proclamation issued under such subsequent acts;" it is ENACTED, that such devices and types shall, notwithstanding, be deemed the lawful devices, &c. 12*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.* s. 30.

IX. Calculation of Stamps.

142. THE NUMBER OF STAMPS REQUIRED TO BE PUT ON EVERY SKIN or piece of vellum, &c. or sheet or piece of paper, upon which any indenture, lease, bond, or other deed is engrossed, &c. shall be calculated according to the number of common law sheets engrossed, &c. thereon, each such sheet containing 72 words as follows, (viz.) where the quantity of words expressed thereon shall not exceed 15 such sheets, one stamp, and where they shall amount unto 30 such common law sheets, 2 stamps, and so on, one stamp more for every 15 sheets above the 30 sheets contained thereon; but if the quantity or number of words engrossed, &c. thereon, shall after such calculation of 15 common law sheets, exceed the number of such common law sheets so calculated by a less quantity of words than other 15 such common law sheets, no further stamp shall be required for such excess; and in such case the stamps required to be put upon such skin, &c. on which any indenture, &c. is engrossed, shall be of the same value or denomination, and shall be such stamps which have been provided to denote the duties payable, or such indenture, &c. according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force, 37*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* s. 1. [See further, 37*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* s. 90. ss. 7—8., pl. 144, 145.]

143. Every schedule or other instrument annexed unto any indenture, lease, bond, or other deed, and indorsement thereon, shall in estimating the number of stamps hereby required to be put thereon, be deemed part thereof; and the number of words contained thereon shall be calculated as if the same were contained in such indenture, &c. id. s. 2.

144. The number of stamps required to put on any skin or sheet, or piece of vellum, parchment, or paper on which any indenture, lease, bond, or other deed hereby charged with a duty of 3*s.* or any agreement hereby charged with any duty is engrossed, shall be calculated according to the number of common law sheets (each such sheet containing 72 words) of which such indenture, &c. together with every schedule or instrument annexed unto or indorsement made on the same, shall consist, as follows, viz. where the quantity of words of which any indenture, &c. with such schedule, &c. shall consist, shall not exceed 15 such common law sheets, one or more stamps to denote value of the duties charged thereon; and where the number shall exceed 15 such sheets, then progressively one or more further stamps of the like value for every further entire quantity of 15 common law sheets, of which such indenture, &c. together with such schedule, &c. shall consist; but if after calculating the words, there shall remain any number of words less in quantity than 15 other such sheets, no further stamp shall be required for such excess, 37*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* s. 7. [See 37*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* s. 19. s. 1. pl. 142.]

145. The number of stamps required to be put on any skin or piece, or sheet of vellum, &c. on which any copy attested to be true copy of any indenture, &c. hereby charged with duty, shall be engrossed, &c. shall be calculated as follows, (viz.) where the quantity of words, of which such copy shall consist, shall not exceed 10 such common law sheets, one stamp; and where the quantity shall exceed such 10 sheets, then progressively one further stamp for every entire further quantity than 10 other such sheets, of which such copy consists; but if after such calculation made, there remain any number of words less in quantity than 10 other common law sheets, no further stamp shall be required for such excess, id. s. 8.

146. The number of stamps to be put on every copy, purporting to be a true copy, or attested to be true copy of any indenture, lease, or other deed, hereby liable to stamp duty, shall be calculated according to the rules, &c. in 37*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* s. 8. pl. 145. contained, and all the charges, rules, penalties, &c. of such act, with respect to any such attested copies, shall be applied to every such copy hereby charged with duty, 39*l.* 40*s.* 6*d.* s. 72. s. 6.

X. Spoiled Stamps.

147. TO ENABLE THE COMMISSIONERS OF STAMPS TO GIVE new stamps in lieu of such stamps as may be spoiled and rendered unfit for use, 5*l.* 3*s.* 46*d.* s. 39. (This title is framed from these sections.) [AMD. 44*l.* 3*s.* 98*d.* s. 17., 50*l.* 3*s.* 35*d.* s. 13—15., 53*l.* 3*s.* 108*d.* ss. 11—18.]

148. All persons who shall have in their possession any stamped vellum, &c., written or engrossed upon, and inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the same is executed, and which shall not have been used for any other purpose, or in any other manner, nor any money or other consideration paid to the attorney, solicitor, or other person employed to transact the business, or to the writer thereof, for the duty, may bring or send such stamped vellum, &c. unto the head stamp-office in London or Westminster; and upon oath (which the commissioners may administer) that such stamped vellum, &c. hath not been executed by any party, used for any other purpose, or in any other manner, and that no money or other consideration had been paid or given for the duty (except the money first paid for such duty) the commissioners shall stamp the like quantity of vellum, &c. with the respective duties stamped on the vellum, &c. so written upon, spoiled, obliterated, or rendered unfit for use, without taking any money or other consideration, 5*l.* 3*s.* 46*d.* s. 39.

149. The commissioners of stamp duties may exchange in the manner directed by 5*l.* 3*s.* 46*d.* s. 46., any stamps which have been spoiled, whether the instrument on which the stamp is impressed has been executed or not, upon such proof on oath or affirmation as such commissioners shall require; and they may make rules and orders to regulate the methods and limiting the times for cancelling or allowing other stamps on vellum, &c., in lieu of such as have been spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and which have not been actually made use of for the purposes intended, as they shall deem necessary to secure the stamp duties, 44*l.* 3*s.* 98*d.* s. 17.

150. Where any person shall have inadvertently used, upon any instrument liable under 48*l.* 3*s.* 149*d.* to stamp duty, a stamp of a greater value than the instrument required, by 50*s.* or more; and where any person shall have inadvertently used, on any instrument not liable to duty, a stamp of 50*s.* or more; and also where any person shall have inadvertently used, upon any instrument so liable to stamp duty, any stamp of the value of 50*s.* or more, exclusive of any progressive duty, but which is of less value than the instrument required, the commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled, and cancel the stamps so misused, and give others of the like description and value, or otherwise at their discretion, stamps of another description, and of equal value, in lieu thereof, and cause such instrument to be stamped with the proper stamp (if liable to be stamped), on payment of such duty, without demanding the penalty; or if another like instrument of the same tenor and effect is produced, duly stamped and executed, and the instrument bearing the misused stamp is delivered up to be cancelled, such commissioners may allow as spoiled, and cancel the stamps thereon, and give such stamps as aforesaid in lieu thereof, provided application for such relief is made 2 calendar months after the date of the instrument bearing the stamp misused, and provided it is proved to such commissioners in cases where the stamps misused are of less value than the instrument required, that the same were used by mistake, and without intention to delay the payment of the full duty, 50*l.* 3*s.* 35*d.* s. 13.

151. The commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled, and cancel, as in s. 13. pl. 151., and give other stamps, in lieu of all such stamps as have been used upon any instrument which has been executed, but which, by some mistake, is found unfit for the purpose, or which, by the death of any party thereto, cannot be executed, and which shall in consequence be cancelled, and delivered to such commissioners as use- less, provided application for such relief is made within 2 calendar months after the date of the instrument in question, and provided such fact be proved by affidavit or otherwise, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 14.

152. The time for giving relief under 50 G. 3. c. 35. ss. 13—15., where stamps have been used of greater or less value than the instruments re- quired, and where stamps have been used for instruments not liable to any stamp duty, shall be extended to 6 calendar months after the date of the instruments bearing the stamps misused, 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 13.

153. (a) Where the commissioners have power to allow and cancel spoiled stamps, and of give others of the same description and value in lieu thereof, they may also give stamps of any other description, and of equal value with the stamps cancelled, in lieu thereof, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 15.

155. The commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled, and cancel and give other stamps, in lieu of all such stamps as have been used for or upon presentations to ecclesiastical benefices not followed by insti- tution; or for any instruments which have been signed by any party, but afterwards found to be absolutely void in law from the beginning; or which by error therein shall be found unfit for the purpose intended; or which by the death of any person whose signature shall be necessary thereto, without having signed the same, or by the refusal of any such person to sign the same, cannot be completed so as to effect the trans- action in the form proposed; or which, for want of the signature of some material party, shall be insufficient for the purpose; or which, by the refusal of any person to act under the same, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, shall fail of their intended purpose; or which, for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, shall be null and void; or which shall become useless in consequence of the transaction therein mentioned being effected by some other instrument duly stamped, so that the instrument for which such allowance is claimed in the several cases aforesaid, is de- livered up to such commissioners to be cancelled; and provided appli- cation for such relief is made within 6 calendar months from the date of the instrument in question, except where the same shall become void for want of enrolment within 6 calendar months from the date, and in such case within 6 calendar months next after the same shall be- come void; and except where the same shall be sent abroad, and in those cases within such time after its receipt back; provided no action has been brought or suit commenced, in which such instrument could or would be given in evidence, and provided all such grounds of relief are fully proved by oath or affirmation, 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 11.

154. Nothing herein respecting spoiled stamps shall extend to po- licies of insurance for which special provision is made by other acts re- lating thereto, id. s. 12. [See 54 G. 3. c. 133. STAMPS (Insurance, Sea), pl. 486.]

155. The commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled, and cancel and give other stamps in lieu of all such as have been used for bills of ex- change or promissory notes, which have been signed by or on the behalf of the drawers, but which have not been delivered out of their hands to the payees therein named, or any person on their behalf, or have been deposited with any person as a security, or have been any way negotiated, and which bills of exchange have not been accepted or tendered for acceptance, provided such bills and notes are brought for allowance, and delivered up to such commissioners, to be cancelled within 6 calendar months after the date of such bills and notes, or after the signing the same, if they bear no date, and provided all such grounds of relief are fully proved on oath or affirmation, id. s. 14.

156. In all cases where any person bound to serve as a clerk, in order to his admission as an attorney or solicitor in the courts at Westminster, or of great sessions in Wa., or the 3 counties palatine, or any other court of record in Eng., by articles of clerkship duly stamped, shall by the death of his master or other cause, find it necessary to enter into new articles of clerkship for a new term, and shall inadvertently use for such articles stamps of the like value as for the original articles, whereby the high duty is paid twice, contrary to 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 10., in all such cases the commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled, and cancel, and give other stamps in lieu of those used in such articles first entered into; provided the same is delivered up to be cancelled within 6 calendar months after the execution of such new articles, and pro- vided such party shall pay the 1*l.* 10*s.* by that act imposed on such articles, and which shall be thereupon stamped, without payment of any penalty, id. s. 15.

157. Where the commissioners of stamps are already authorized to allow as spoiled, and to exchange any stamps used for instruments not fully written, or not signed by any party, such commissioners shall not make any allowance unless the same be brought for that purpose to them, at their head office, or their officers at Edinburgh in case of spoiled stamps in Scot., within 6 calendar months after the same have been spoiled, if they belong to persons resident in London or West- minster, or in Edinburgh, or within 10 miles thereof; or within 12 ca- lendar months after spoiled, if belonging to persons resident elsewhere, 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 16.

158. The commissioners of stamps may make such rules, &c., and require affidavits or affirmations of all such facts in regard to the allow- ance on spoiled or useless stamps, in the cases provided for by this or any other stamp act, as they think fit, for preventing frauds; such affidavits, &c. to be made before one of such commissioners, or a master in chancery in Eng., or before any person commissioned to take affidavits by the courts of exchequer or session in Scot., who may administer such oath or affirmation, id. s. 17.

159. Every person making such affidavit or affirmation who shall knowingly make a false oath or affirmation concerning any of such mat- ters, shall be subject to such penalties as may be inflicted on persons guilty of perjury, id. s. 18.

XI. Stamping instruments before or after ingrossed, &c.

160. FOR DIRECTING THE COMMISSIONERS OF STAMPS to stamp vellum, &c. brought to them for that purpose before any thing is in- grossed thereon; for imposing penalties on persons ingrossing any in- struments on unstamped vellum, &c., and for allowing certain instru- ments to be stamped after ingrossment, [This title is framed from these sections.] 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. ss. 9, 11. 9 A. c. 23. ss. 2, 5, 27., 10 A. c. 91. s. 105., 37 G. 3. c. 19. ss. 3—10., 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 9., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 84. s. 2. [See as to stamping bills, &c. after made, STAMPS (Bills and Notes), pl. 311, 312.]

161. All vellum, &c. hereby charged with duty shall, before any thing is engrossed or written on it, be brought to the head office, or some sub-commissioner or officer appointed by such commissioners, to be stamped, and such commissioners and officers shall, on demand, stamp such vellum, &c. in any quantities, on payment of the duty im- posed hereby, without fee, which stamp shall be a good discharge for such duties, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 9., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 58., 10 A. c. 19. s. 104., 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 19., 16 G. 3. c. 34. s. 10., 17 G. 3. c. 50. s. 20., 19 G. 3. c. 64. s. 5., 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 8., 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 4., 29 G. 3. c. 56. s. 5., 34 G. 3. c. 14. s. 10.

162. All vellum, &c. upon which any certificate, indenture, bill or note of lading, almanack, or licence is written, &c. shall, before such writing, be brought to the head stamp office to be stamped; and the same shall be stamped in any quantity, on payment of the duties, with- out any other fee; and such stamp shall be a good discharge for such duties, 9 A. c. 23. s. 25.

163. If any person shall engross or write, or cause to be engrossed, &c., upon any vellum, &c., any thing for which it would be liable to duty, before the same is stamped, or on which there is not some stamp resembling the same; or shall ingross, &c. any thing on any vellum, &c. that is stamped with a lower duty than that hereby made payable for what shall be so ingrossed, &c., he shall forfeit 50*l.* [*This penalty changed into 5*l.*, and the same shall be recovered with full costs of suit, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 12. s. 7.] [Raised to 10*l.*, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 60.], one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing as in s. 10. pl. 71. (viz. by bill, &c. in the courts of record); and if any clerk, officer, or per- son, who in respect of any public office is entitled or intrusted to make, ingross, or write, any records, deeds, instruments, or writings, hereby charged with duty, is guilty of any fraud to deceive H. M. of any of such duties, by making, &c. the same on any vellum not properly stamped, or on which there is not a stamp resembling the same, or which is stamped with a stamp which he knows to be counterfeited, or which is for a lower duty than as aforesaid, then such clerk, &c. shall, on conviction, besides such penalty, forfeit his office, and be disabled to enjoy the same in future; and if any attorney of any court is guilty of any such fraud, he shall, on conviction, be disabled for the future to practise as an attorney; and if any instrument or writing hereby made liable to duty shall, contrary hereto, be ingrossed or written by any person (not being such known clerk or officer) upon any vellum, &c. not properly stamped, or stamped with a lower duty than that payable, then there shall be paid, besides such duties for such instruments, &c. 5*l.*; and no such record, deed, instrument, or writing, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good in law or equity, until such duty and such 5*l.* is first paid to H. M., and a receipt for the same produced under the hand and seal of the proper officer, and until such vellum, &c. on which such instrument, &c. is written is stamped; and the proper officer shall, on payment or tender of such 5*l.* and such duty, give a receipt for it, and properly stamp such vellum, &c.; and if any person shall forge or counterfeit any stamp, to resemble any stamp provided under this act, or shall counterfeit or forge the impression of the same, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter or sell any such counterfeit stamp or impression, knowing the same to be counterfeited, such person shall be deemed a felon, and suffer death without clergy, *5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 11., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 60. [See as to the latter part, 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7., Div. VI. pl. 132.]

164. If any officer of customs shall sign any certificate or debenture for a drawback, the same not appearing to be stamped; or if any person shall write, ingross, or print any such certificate, debenture, bill of lading, licence, or almanack, or shall sign any bill of lading, or sell or expose to sale any such almanack, before the same is duly stamped, every person so offending shall forfeit 10*l.* with full costs; and such officer of customs shall, on conviction, besides such penalty, forfeit his office and be incapable to hold the same; and if such certificate, debenture, bill of lading or licence, shall be written contrary to this act, the same not having been duly stamped, then there shall be paid to H. M., besides such duties, 5*l.*, and such certificate, &c. shall not be given in evidence, or admitted in any court, unless such duty and such 5*l.* are first paid, and a receipt for the same under the hand of the receiver-general of stamp duties, and until the same is stamped; and such receipt shall be given and such instrument stamped, on payment or tender of such 5*l.* and the duty, 9*A. c. 23. s. 27.*

165. Every person or corporation who shall write, ingross, or print, or cause to be written, &c., any thing hereby charged with duty, [viz. surrenders of, or admittances to, any copyhold premises, and pamphlets, and newspapers] or utter or expose to sale any newspaper or pamphlet (pamphlets exceeding one sheet in length only excepted) before the vellum, &c. on which it is printed is duly stamped, shall forfeit 10*l.* with costs; and every steward or other officer offending herein shall, on conviction, besides the penalty, forfeit his office, and be incapable to hold the same; and if any such matters are written or printed contrary hereto, upon vellum, &c. not stamped, then there shall be answered to H. M. besides the duties, 5*l.*, and no such matter shall be available in law or equity until such 5*l.* and duty is paid, and a receipt for the same produced under the hand of the receiver-general, and until such vellum, &c. is stamped; and such receiver shall, on payment or tender of such duty and 5*l.*, give a receipt for the same, and stamp the instrument required, 10*A. c. 19. s. 105.*

166. If any matter is written, &c. on any vellum not duly stamped, then there shall be paid, besides such duties, 5*l.*, and no such matter shall be available in law or equity, or given in evidence, or admitted in any court, unless such duty and such 5*l.* is first paid to the receiver-general or his deputy, and until such vellum is stamped, and such receiver or his deputy shall, on payment or tender of such duties and 5*l.*, give a receipt for the same; and the proper officer shall duly stamp the matter required, 12*A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 25., 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 8., 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 4. 2 G. 3. c. 36. s. 4., 5 G. 3. c. 47. s. 4.*

167. If any attorney, solicitor, clerk, officer, or other person, shall ingross, &c., or cause to be ingrossed, &c., any indenture, lease, bond, or other deed on vellum, &c., not duly stamped according to this act, and shall neglect to bring the same to be stamped within the time in s. 4. pl. 168. allowed for stamping the same, such attorney, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.*, and no such indenture, &c. shall be given in evidence, or be available unless stamped as hereby required, 37*G. 3. c. 19. s. 3.* [See 37*G. 3. c. 90. s. 9. pl. 176.*]

168. Every indenture, &c. which has been stamped with one stamp on every skin or piece of vellum, &c., or on every sheet or piece of paper, before any thing was ingrossed thereon, and shall not be stamped as hereby directed, which shall be brought before its execution, or within one calendar month after its date, to the head stamp office, may be stamped as hereby required, on payment of the duty; and the stamp officer shall calculate the duty thereon, and the number of stamps required, and shall write in words at length, in the margin, the number of common law sheets contained therein, and the day on which such payment shall be made, and subscribe his name thereto; and if the duty is so paid at the head office, such indenture, &c. shall be stamped; and if paid at any other office, such indenture, &c. whereon the number of words contained therein have been calculated and written, shall be transmitted within 21 days from the day of payment of such duty to the head office, to be there stamped; and if the person paying such duty shall desire that such indenture, &c. shall be transmitted to such head office by the officer to whom the duty is paid, and shall leave the same with him for that purpose, such officer shall sign and deliver an acknowledgment that such indenture, &c. was left with him, and transmit the same accordingly; and the same shall be returned to such officer after being stamped, who shall deliver the same to party entitled to it, on the re-delivery of such acknowledgment, id. s. 4.

169. Any such indenture, &c. may be carried within 6 calendar after the date thereof, to such head office to be stamped, paying the duty for the same, and 10*l.* by way of penalty, and after the expiration of such 6 months, such indentures may be stamped on payment of the duty, and 10*l.* for every skin, &c. whereon the same is ingrossed, by way of penalty, id. s. 5. [See now 37*G. 3. c. 136. s. 2. pl. 181.*]

170. Where any action is commenced against any person for ingrossing, &c. any indenture, &c. contrary to this act, which shall not be brought to the head office to be stamped within one calendar month from the date thereof, and such action is prosecuted with effect, the same shall not be prejudiced by any payment of the duty and penalty on stamping the same, after the commencement of such action, but the plaintiff shall nevertheless recover, 37*G. 3. c. 19. s. 6.*

171. Every person who shall add any word in any such indenture, lease, &c. after the duty payable thereon has been calculated, and before the same is duly stamped according to this act, or who shall alter any word or letter in any writing by s. 4. pl. 168. required to be made by the stamp officer on the margin, after such officer has signed the same, or shall knowingly utter or publish as true any such indenture, &c. with such word added thereto, or any such altered writing, with intention to defraud H. M., shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 7.

172. Former acts now in force shall be applied to the regulations of this act, id. s. 8.

173. The moiety of all pecuniary penalties hereby imposed shall, if sued within 4 calendar months from the time when incurred, go to H. M., and the other to the informer, with full costs, and they may be sued for in the court of exchequer at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., and the court of exchequer in Scot. for offences committed there, by action of debt, &c., wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed; but H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or advocate in Scot., if it appear to them that such penalty was incurred without any intention of fraud, may stay all further proceedings by entering a noli prosequi or otherwise, as well with regard to the informer's share of the penalty, as that of H. M. id. s. 9. [But see now pl. 123.]

174. In default of prosecution within such 4 months, no such penalty shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the name of H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng. and advocate in Scot., by information in either of the courts of exchequer, and in such case the whole penalty shall go to H. M. and all penalties and shares thereof belonging to H. M. shall be paid to the receiver-general of stamp duties; and such commissioners may cause such reward as they think fit, not exceeding one-half of any penalty so recovered, after deducting all charges of recovery to be paid thereout, to such persons as may be entitled thereto as informers, in respect of such penalty, id. s. 10.

175. All the provisions, rules, &c. of 37*G. 3. c. 19. ss. 4—10.* not hereby altered, for securing the duties on indentures, &c. shall be applied to the stamping indentures, &c. and copies thereof under this act; and if any attorney, solicitor, clerk, officer, or other person shall ingross, &c. any agreement, or any copy attested to be a true copy of any indenture, &c. not duly stamped under this act, and shall neglect to bring the same to be duly stamped within the time allowed for stamping indentures, &c. by 37*G. 3. c. 19. s. 4. pl. 168.* such attorney, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered and applied as any penalty imposed by the 37*G. 3. c. 19. s. 9. pl. 173.* may be; and no such agreement or copy shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or be available, unless the same is stamped as hereby required, 37*G. 3. c. 90. s. 9.*

176. Limitation of action, venue, general issue, and treble costs, 37*G. 3. c. 90. s. 38.* [See the section more at length, STAMPS (Attorneys' Certificates), pl. 297.]

177. In case any copy, attested to be a true copy of any indenture, lease, or other deed, and liable to either of the duties granted by 37*G. 3. c. 90.* or 39 & 40*G. 3. c. 72.* shall, within 60 days after the date of the attestation of such copy, be brought to the head stamp office of such commissioners, to be stamped with either of such duties, according to the nature and description of such copy, then such commissioners may duly stamp the same on payment of the duty only, without the penalty, 39 & 40*G. 3. c. 84. s. 2.*

178. TO ENABLE THE COMMISSIONERS OF STAMPS TO STAMP deeds, and other instruments, bills of exchange, promissory and other notes, in the cases therein mentioned, 37*G. 3. c. 136.* [Amended, 43*G. 3. c. 127. s. 5. 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 24., 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 20. See 37 G. 3. c. 136. ss. 5, 6. STAMPS (Bills and Notes), pl. 311, 312.]*

179. If any vellum, &c., whereon any instrument or thing, (except bills of exchange, promissory or other notes, drafts or orders,) are ingrossed, &c. liable in respect thereof to be stamped with a stamp of a particular denomination or value, and whereon there shall be impressed any stamp of a different denomination, but of equal or greater value with the stamp required, shall be produced to the commissioners of stamps, at their head office, or their proper officer; such commissioners or officer in such case, and on payment of the duty due in respect of the instrument, &c. engrossed, &c. thereon, and one penalty of 5*l.* shall properly stamp the same without making any allowance for the stamps before put thereon; and such instrument so stamped shall be deemed of like force, as if the same had been duly stamped before it was ingrossed, &c., 37*G. 3. c. 136. s. 1.*

180. The commissioners of stamps may stamp any vellum, &c. whereon any instrument (except bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other notes, drafts, or orders) shall be ingrossed, liable in respect thereof, to be stamped with a stamp of a particular denomination or value, and whereon any stamp of a different denomination, but of an equal or greater value is impressed, without payment of the 5*l.* penalty as by 37 G.3. c.136. s.1. required, and instruments so stamped shall be valid, 43 G.3. c.127. s.5.

181. Where any skin, or piece, or sheet of vellum, &c. on which any matter, (except bills, &c. as in pl. 179.) shall have been ingrossed, &c. shall be brought to the commissioners of stamps, to be stamped after the same are executed, the same not having been stamped with any stamp, or stamped with one of less value than by law required, and it is desired to have the same duly stamped, but the same cannot by law be stamped without payment of the accumulated penalties exceeding 10*l.* besides the duty, then such commissioners may direct the proper officer to, and he shall accordingly stamp the same, on payment of the duty for such vellum, &c. and one penalty of 10*l.* for every such skin, &c. although the duty was imposed by more than one act, and the penalties may have accumulated to a larger sum than 10*l.*, and every instrument so stamped shall be of the like force as if the same had been duly stamped, before such instrument, &c. was ingrossed, 37 G.3. c.136. s.2.

182. If it appear to such commissioners of stamps, upon oath or affirmation made before one of them, (which oath, &c. he may administer,) or otherwise, that any instrument, [except bills of exchange, promissory, or other notes, drafts, orders, or receipts, 44 G.3. c.98. s.24.] required by law to be ingrossed, &c. on stamped vellum, &c. hath been ingrossed on vellum, &c. not duly stamped, either by accident or necessity, and without intention to defraud H. M., and such instrument is brought to such commissioners to be stamped within [60 days, 37 G.3. c.136. s.3.] [12 months, 44 G.3. c.98. s.24.] after its execution, such commissioners may remit the penalty, or part of it; and every person concerned in the ingrossing, &c. thereof, shall be discharged from all further penalties, &c. than such as shall not be so remitted, 37 G.3. c.136. s.3., 44 G.3. c.98. s.24.

183. But nothing herein shall prevent such commissioners from stamping receipts allowed to be stamped, after the same shall be written, or signed, under such circumstances as such receipts may now be stamped; and such commissioners may make all such payments and allowances as are by any stamp act directed to be made, and are not hereby altered or repealed, 44 G.3. c.98. s.24.

184. Any grants or appointments to offices or employments signed by H. M., or the commissioners of the treasury hereafter omitted to be stamped within the time allowed by law, may be stamped by the commissioners of stamps, on payment of the duty only, without any penalty, and such grants, &c. shall be valid, and all persons shall be indemnified from the penalties incurred on account thereof, 53 G.3. c.108. s.20.

ADVERTISEMENTS. (See NEWSPAPERS, post.)

185. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON advertisements, 10*A.* c.19. s.118., 5 G.3. c.46. s.8., 29 G.3. c.50. ss.10—12, [This title is framed from these sections. For the duties, see 55 G.3. c.185. Sch. tit. Advertisement.]

186. Every person who shall print or publish any advertisement, shall, within 30 days after the publication, pay the duty to the receiver-general, or his deputy, for all advertisements printed or published within the limits of the weekly bills, and to the next adjacent head officer of the stamp duties, for all advertisements printed or published in any place out of those limits; and such commissioners and officers shall upon payment of such duties, without fee, stamp one copy of such advertisements, or to give a receipt for the duty; and in default of such payment, the printer or publisher shall be liable to pay treble the duties with costs, 10*A.* c.19. s.118.

187. Neither the commissioners of stamps, or any of their officers for distributing stamped vellum, &c. shall sell or deliver any stamped paper for printing any pamphlet, or any public news, intelligence, or occurrences to be contained in any one sheet or lesser piece of paper, unless the person applying for the same shall first give security to H. M. for the payment of the duties for advertisements printed therein, 5 G.3. c.46. s.8.

188. No printer or publisher of any newspaper in which any advertisements liable to the duties by this or any other act imposed, shall be inserted, shall receive from such commissioners any stamped paper for printing any public intelligence or occurrence thereon, until the proprietors interested in such paper, or so many of them as the commissioners think fit, shall join in the security directed to be given by the 5 G.3. c.46. s.8. pl. 187. for the punctual payment of the duties payable on such advertisements at the times therein appointed; and in case any printer or publisher shall print or publish any advertisement in any such newspaper before he shall deliver in the name of such proprietors, and such proprietors shall have given security to H. M. for the payment of such duties, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, 29 G.3. c.50. s.10.

189. The commissioners of stamps shall, as often as the duties on advertisements are in arrear, for 30 days after the publication thereof, deliver to the printer or publisher of such newspapers, or leave at the printing-house thereof, an account of the money claimed in respect of such advertisements, distinguishing the times of publication; and such proprietors, printers, and publishers, shall forthwith pay to the proper officer all such duties; provided that if any thing in such newspaper has been charged with duty, which was not chargeable, such commissioners may allow the same to such proprietors, &c. and strike out such surcharge, 29 G.3. c.50. s.11.

190. All arrears of such duty remaining unsettled for 10 days after such account delivered, may be sued for in the court of exchequer at Westminster, by action of debt or information, in the name of the attorney or solicitor-general, in which no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance is allowed; and in such action or information, a capias in the first process may issue, specifying the amount of duties sued for; and such proprietors, &c. against whom such action, &c. is brought, shall be compelled to give bail for the duties sued for, (an affidavit thereof being first filed in such court) by natural born subjects, persons naturalized, or made denizens, to the persons to whom such capias is directed, to appear in such court, at the return of the writ, and answer such suit or prosecution, and then give bail to answer and pay the condemnation money in respect of such duties, or yield their bodies to prison, id. s.12.

AGREEMENTS.

191. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON agreements, 23 G.3. c.58. s.3—5. [Amended, 48 G.3. c.149. s.9., 55 G.3. c.184. s.9. This title is also framed. For the duties, see 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Agreement.]

192. Nothing herein shall make liable any label, slip, or memorandum containing the heads of any insurance to be made by the corporations of the Royal Exchange Assurance or London Assurance, or the Royal Exchange Assurance or London Assurance of Houses and Goods from Fire, to the stamp duties hereby charged on any contracts or agreement, 23 G.3. c.58. s.3.

193. This act shall not charge with the duty hereby imposed on agreements, any memorandum or agreement for any lease at rack rent of any messuage under the yearly value of 5*l.* or any memorandum or agreement for the hire of any labourer, artificer, manufacturer, or menial servant, or any memorandum, letter, or agreement made for or relating to the sale of any goods, &c. or to charge any memorandum or agreement, where the matter thereof shall not exceed 20*l.*, or any memorandum or agreement made in Scot. that shall be stamped with the duty required on deeds in Scot., id. s.4. [See the exemptions in 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Agreement.]

194. No memorandum or agreement not stamped shall be deemed void, in case the same is stamped at the head office, or the duty paid, and a receipt given thereon by the proper officer within 21 days from the time the same was entered into, id. s.5.

195. All the provisions of former acts relating to agreements, shall be applied only to such agreements as are hereby charged with a duty of 1*l.*, and agreements hereby charged with 1*l.* 15*s.* shall be subject to the same regulations, &c. as deeds hereby charged with a like duty, 48 G.3. c.149. s.9., 55 G.3. c.184. s.9.

196. And all agreements for leases or tacks which have been duly stamped with the duty for the time being, payable in respect of such leases, &c. shall be as valid as if stamped with the proper agreement stamp, and all agreements hereby charged with a duty of 16*s.* shall be valid, if stamped with one of 1*l.* 10*s.*, 48 G.3. c.149. s.9.

197. TO EXEMPT CERTAIN LETTERS passing between merchants or other persons carrying on trade and commerce in this kingdom, containing agreements with respect to merchandize, notes, or bills of exchange, from the stamp duty on written agreements, 32 G.3. c.51.

198. The duties imposed by 23 G.3. c.58. s.1. on written agreements, shall not extend to make liable thereto any letter passing by the post between merchants or persons carrying on trade or commerce within this kingdom, and residing 50 miles from each other, by reason of such letters containing an agreement in respect of any merchandize, notes, or bills of exchange, or evidence of such an agreement; but such letters may be received in evidence, although not stamped, 32 G.3. c.51. s.1.

199. This act shall not extend to any letters passing between persons who are residents of the same town or place, nor to any letter or correspondence written or so passing between persons not at the time of writing it 50 miles from each other, s.2. [See also the exceptions at end of the title Agreement, Sch. Part I. of 55 G.3. c.184.]

ALE AND BEER LICENCES.

200. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON ale and beer licences, 6 G.1. c.21. s.56., 29 G.2. c.12. ss.1—9. & 20. 25. 27., 24 G.3. S.2. c.30. [No reference, except as above, is made to these acts, because the duties have been repealed, and those now payable on such licences are under the commissioners of excise, by force of the 48 G.3. c.143. See ALEHOUSE, pl. 107.]

ALMANACS.

201. FOR REGULATING THE METHOD OF COLLECTING the duty on almanacs, 9 A. c. 23. ss. 26. 38. 52, 53. [Amo. 10 A. c. 19. s. 175., 30 G. 2. s. 19. s. 26., 21 G. 3. c. 56. ss. 5—7. 10., 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 8. This title is also framed; and for the duty see 55 G. 3. c. 185. tit. Almanac, ante, pa. 1415.]

202. Where any almanac contains more than one sheet of paper, it shall be sufficient to stamp only one sheet or piece of paper, on which such almanac is printed, and to pay the duty accordingly, 9 A. c. 23. s. 26.

203. The commissioners of stamps shall deliver to the persons or corporations by or for whom any almanac is printed or published, paper duly stamped for printing such almanacs upon, on their giving security to pay the duties within 3 months after such delivery; and such commissioners, on bringing to them any number of such almanacs, within such 3 months, and on request made, shall cancel all stamps thereon, and abate so much of the money due on such securities, id. s. 38.

204. Nothing in this act shall extend to prejudice any right the two universities, or the company of stationers, or any persons have, or claim to have, to the printing of any almanac or calendar, subject to such duties, id. s. 52. [See pl. 211.]

205. This act shall not charge any calendar, or perpetual almanac [in any Bible or common prayer book, 9 A. c. 23. s. 52.] or any other calendar or almanac, with more than the duty that would be payable for such other calendar, &c. in case it were made for 3 years only, 9 A. c. 23. s. 53., 21 G. 3. c. 56. s. 7.

206. All books and pamphlets, serving chiefly to the purpose of an almanac, by whatever name entitled, shall be charged with duty by virtue of the 9 A. c. 23., but not with any of the duties charged by this act on pamphlets, or other printed papers, 10 A. c. 19. s. 175.

207. Every person who shall sell, utter, or expose to sale any almanac liable to any stamp duty, not being duly stamped, shall be liable to the same punishment as is by 16 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5. inflicted on any hawkers of unstamped newspapers; and every justice of peace shall have like power to convict as by such act is granted; and persons apprehending such offenders shall be entitled to the like reward as by that act granted, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 26. [See 16 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5. STAMPS (Newspaper, pl. 626.)]

208. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead general issue. Treble costs, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 74.

209. Every almanac or calendar shall be printed in such manner that some part of the printing shall be upon the stamp under this act impressed thereon; and every person who shall print, or cause to be printed, any almanac or calendar otherwise than aforesaid, or shall sell, or expose to sale, any such almanac, before the same is duly stamped, and on which the stamp is visible, shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be levied and applied as by the stamp laws now in force is directed, 21 G. 3. c. 56. s. 5.

210. If any almanac or calendar is sold, or exposed to sale, with the stamp affixed thereto in any other manner than as the same was impressed at the stamp-office, then such almanac shall be deemed unstamped, and the person selling or exposing it to sale shall be liable to the penalty for selling or exposing an unstamped almanac, id. s. 6.

211. "Whereas 1000*l.* was paid to the two universities by the company of stationers, for the power to exercise a supposed right belonging to them of an exclusive privilege of printing almanacs, heretofore granted by the crown; and whereas it has lately been determined that no such exclusive privilege exists," 500*l.* shall be paid to Oxford and 500*l.* to Cambridge yearly, in lieu thereof, out of the duties hereby granted, id. s. 10. [See 2 Hla. Rep. 1004.]

212. If any apprentice, journeyman, or servant of any printer, shall, without his knowledge, print at his press any almanac or calendar, or any book or pamphlet serving as such, liable to any duty imposed hereby, upon any paper not duly stamped, any person may apprehend such apprentice, &c., and carry him before any justice for the county, city, or place where the offence was committed; and such justice on convicting such apprentice, &c., by confession or the oath of one witness, may commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 calendar months, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 8.

APPRAISERS.

213. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. CERTAIN STAMP DUTIES ON appraisements, and on licences in G. B. [and for better collecting the same,] 46 G. 3. c. 43. [For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Licence.]

214. Former stamp acts extended to this act, id. s. 3.

215. Every person who shall value or appraise any estate or property, real or personal, or any interest in possession or reversion, remainder or contingency, in any estate or property, real or personal, or any goods or effects, for hire or fee, shall be deemed an appraiser within this act, id. s. 4.

216. No person shall exercise the calling of an appraiser without taking out a licence as herein mentioned, and such licence shall state the name and abode of the person taking out the same; and 2 commissioners of stamps, or any person authorized by them, may grant such licences; and such licences, issued between 5th July or 5th Aug. shall be dated 6th July, and when issued at any other time on the day granted; and such licences shall be in force till 5th July following, 46 G. 3. c. 43. s. 5.

217. No person shall appraise any estate, property, or effects, or any interest in possession, &c. as in s. 4. pl. 215. for hire, without being so licensed, on pain to forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 6.

218. But auctioneers duly licensed may act as appraisers, without taking out any licence under this act, id. s. 7.

219. Every appraiser shall write in words or figures every appraisement made by him, or any person for him, and the full amount thereof; and within 14 days after making it, deliver the same to his employers, so written on duly stamped paper, &c., on pain to forfeit for neglect herein, 50*l.*, id. s. 8.

220. No person who shall employ any appraiser to make any appraisement, shall receive or pay any compensation for the same unless the same is written on duly stamped paper, &c. on pain to forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

221. Provided nothing herein shall require any stamp on any piece of paper, &c. whereon shall be written any appraisement extending to more than one sheet, except on the sheet containing the aggregate amount of the articles valued, id. s. 10.

222. Nothing herein shall charge with stamp duty any vellum, &c. upon which any appraisement made under the order of any court of admiralty, vice-admiralty, or appeal from any sentence, &c., shall be written, id. s. 11. [See similar exception, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. tit. Appraisement.]

223. Duties to be paid into the exchequer, and carried to the consolidated fund, id. s. 12. Accounts to be kept separate, and annually laid before parliament, id. s. 13.

APPRENTICE.

224. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE DUTIES ON INDENTURES of apprenticeship, 8 A. c. 9. ss. 35—41. 43. 45. [MADE PERF. 9 A. c. 21. s. 7. AMO. 9 A. c. 21. s. 66., 10 A. c. 19. s. 76, 20 G. 2. c. 45. s. 4—8., 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 18, 19. This title is framed from the general purport of these sections, and for the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Apprenticeship.]

225. The full sum agreed to be paid with every clerk, apprentice, and servant, which in G. B. shall be placed to any master or mistress to learn any profession, trade, or employment, shall be truly inserted in words at length, in some indenture or other writing that contains the covenants, articles, contracts, or agreements relating to the service of such clerk, &c.; and shall be dated the same day as signed, sealed, or executed; on pain that every master or mistress offending herein shall forfeit double the sum so paid, to go one moiety to H. M. and the other with full costs, to the person suing by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, or of the exchequer in Scot., at any time after such execution, or within one year after the time limited for the service of such clerk, &c., 8 A. c. 9. s. 35.

226. The commissioners of stamps shall provide new stamps for the purpose of this act, and all indentures or other writings, containing the sums so paid, which shall be executed within London, Westminster, or the bills of mortality, shall be brought to the head office to be stamped, and the duties thereon paid to the receiver-general, within one month after the date thereof, id. s. 36.

227. All such indentures or other writings executed without such limits, in any other part of G. B., shall, at the option of the party, be sent to such head office, or to some of the collectors appointed for such duties, residing without such limits, as in s. 36. pl. 226. in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or to some such officers for such duties in Scot., within 2 months after the date thereof; and on production of such indentures, &c., and the payment of the duties, the same shall be stamped, if the same are sent to the head office; and if to such officers, such officers shall indorse, in words at length, a receipt for the money so paid, bearing date the day of payment, and subscribe their names thereto, and redeliver the same to the bringer, id. s. 37.

228. All such indentures, &c. so indorsed, if executed within 50 miles from the weekly bills of mortality, shall, within 3 months from the date, or if at a greater distance within 6 months from the date thereof, be brought or sent to the head-office, where being produced, with receipt indorsed, the same shall be stamped, id. s. 38.

229. All such indentures, &c. wherein shall not be truly inserted the sum so paid, or wherein the said duties shall not be paid or tendered, or which shall not be lawfully stamped within the times hereby limited, shall not be available in any court; and the clerk, &c. whom it may concern, shall be incapable of being free of any city, town, corporation, or company, or of following the intended profession, &c., id. s. 39.

230. This act shall not charge any master or mistress with the payment of any duty in respect of any money received with any appren-lice or servant placed out by any parish or township, or by any public charity, or require their indentures to be stamped, 8 A. c. 9. s. 40. [See similar exception, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Apprenticeship.]

231. Persons forging any stamps provided under this act, or any impression thereof, or any receipt for money payable under this act, shall, on conviction, suffer as a felon without clergy, id. s. 41. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. pl. 132. Div. VI. qnte. page 1421.]

232. No indenture, &c. hereby required to be stamped shall be admitted in evidence in any suit by any party thereto, unless the party producing the same do first make oath that the sum therein inserted was all that was given or contracted for, on behalf or in respect of such clerk, &c., for the benefit of his master or mistress, id. s. 43.

233. Where any thing not being the lawful money of G. B. is given, assigned, or contracted for, to or for the use of any master or mistress, in respect to any such clerk, &c., for whom a duty is hereby chargeable, such duty shall be answered to the full value of such thing, in the same manner and under like pain as if the same was money, id. s. 45.

234. Persons sued for any thing done under 8 A. c. 9., or this act, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict passes against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, 10 A. c. 26. s. 76.

235. If any master or mistress shall neglect to pay the duties on indentures of apprenticeship within the times limited, he or she shall forfeit 50*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other, with full costs, to the party suing in any of the courts at Westminster, or the exchequer in Scot., by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, 9 A. c. 21. s. 66.

236. Time given till 29th Sept. 1747, for the payment of duties omitted to be paid for indentures of clerks and apprenticeships, on payment of double duties, 20 G. 2. c. 45. s. 4.

237. If any master or mistress who shall become liable to forfeit double the stamp duties shall pay the same to the person to whom the same ought to be paid under any former stamp act, and also tender the indentures to be stamped within 2 years after the determination of the apprenticeship or service, and before any prosecution is commenced, for the recovery of any penalty inflicted by such former stamp acts, then the indentures of such clerk, apprentice, or servant, shall be available in law and equity, and may be given in evidence; and such clerk, &c., may follow their intended trades, &c., as if the duties had been duly paid at the proper time; and all persons paying the duties within such times, shall be discharged from penalties incurred by reason thereof, id. s. 5.

238. If any master or mistress, having so become liable to pay double the duties, and any such clerk, &c. shall and do, when the forfeiture is incurred, either in the presence of one witness, or by writing under his hand signed by him in the presence of one witness, require such master or mistress to pay such double duties, and such master, &c. shall not, within 3 months after such request, pay the same, and such clerk, &c. shall, within 2 years after the expiration of his clerkship, &c., pay such double duties, then such clerk, &c. may, within 3 months after such payment, demand of his master or mistress, or his or her executors or administrators, double the sum or other consideration given in respect of such clerkship, &c.; and if the same is not paid within 3 months after such demand, such clerk, &c. may recover the same, with full costs, against such master, &c., his or her executors, &c., by action of debt, &c., or information in the courts at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed; and such clerk, so paying such double duties, and immediately after paying them, upon signifying, by writing under his hand, that he desires to be discharged from his clerkship, &c., shall be accordingly discharged from the same, and from all actions, &c. for not serving his time, id. s. 6.

239. Every such clerk, &c. shall avail himself, and have the benefit of the time he served such master or mistress, as in the case of any assignment over to another master, &c., id. s. 7.

240. In case where any prosecution is commenced against any master or mistress for recovering any penalty, inflicted by any former stamp act, the clerk, &c., of such master, &c., shall pay such double duties within 2 years after his time is out, such clerk, &c., shall be qualified to follow his trade, &c., and his indentures shall be valid, and may be given in evidence, id. s. 8.

241. Every chamberlain and other proper officer of every city, corporate town, and company, within G. B., where any clerk, apprentice, or servant, obtains his freedom by servitude, shall enter in a book the names of all persons placed out within the jurisdiction of such city or town corporate, and also the names and residences of the masters or mistresses, and sums given, or contracted to be given, with or in relation to such clerks, &c., and the professions, &c., which they are to learn, and the dates of the indentures, covenants, articles, or contracts, by which such clerks, &c., are placed out; and if any such chamberlain or officer shall neglect to make such entry, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 13.

242. All printed indentures, covenants, articles, or contracts, for binding clerks or apprentices in G. B., shall have the following memorandum printed under the same, viz.

'The indenture, article, or contract, must bear date the day it is executed, and what money or other thing is given or contracted for with the clerk or apprentice, must be inserted in words at length, and the duty paid to the stamp office if in London, or the weekly bills of mortality, within one month after the execution; and if in the country, and out of the bills of mortality, within 2 months, to a distributor of stamps or his substitute, otherwise the indenture will be void, the master or mistress forfeit 50*l.*, and another penalty, and the apprentice be disabled to follow his trade, or be made free.' And every person selling such indentures, &c., without such notice, shall forfeit 10*l.*, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 19.

243. Penalties how to be recovered, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 41. [See STAMPS (Penalties), pl. 114.]

ARTICLED CLERKS.

244. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. CERTAIN STAMP DUTIES on indentures of clerkships, to solicitors and attorneys in any of the courts in Eng. therein mentioned, 34 G. 3. c. 14. [AMD. (37 G. 3. c. 60., 39 G. 3. c. 39. both EXP.), 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 10.] [For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Articles of Clerkship.]

245. Duties imposed on contracts made by any person, whereby he becomes bound to serve as a clerk in order to his admission as a solicitor or attorney, in any of the courts at Westminster, of great sessions in Wa., or in the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in any court of record in Eng., holding pleas where the debt or damages amount to 40*s.*, 34 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

246. No person who shall be so bound to serve as such clerk, shall be admitted to be a solicitor or attorney in any of such courts, unless the indenture or other writing containing the contract duly stamped, shall be registered with the proper officer, to be appointed in the court where he is to be so admitted, by virtue of his service, together with an affidavit of the time of executing such contract by such clerk; and in case such indenture, &c. and affidavit shall not be registered within 6 months after the execution thereof, the service of such clerk shall commence from the time of registry, and not from the time of execution, id. s. 2.

247. Every person to be admitted a solicitor or attorney in any of such courts, under any such contract and service under the same, before he shall be permitted to practise as a solicitor or attorney in any such court, or be inrolled or registered therein, shall make an affidavit of the due payment of the duty hereby imposed, and shall insert therein the sum paid for such duty, and specify the name and residence of the person with whom such contract of service was entered into, the time of its execution and inrolment; and in case such person has been previously admitted a solicitor or attorney in some other court, shall also specify such court, and the time of his admission therein; and the same shall be duly filed in the court where he is to be admitted, with the proper officer to be appointed by the court; and such affidavit shall be openly read in such court before such person is inrolled or registered therein, id. s. 3.

248. In case any person other than such who have been admitted attorneys in one of the courts of great sessions in Wa., or of the said 3 counties palatine, or in some other court of record in Eng., where attorneys have been customarily admitted and sworn, by virtue of a contract made within the bills of mortality before the 5th, and in any other part of Eng., and in Wa. before 10th Feb. 1794, and a service in pursuance thereof, or who have been admitted as solicitors in one of such courts of great sessions, or of the said counties palatine, or some other inferior court of equity in Eng. by virtue of a like contract and services, and according to the directions of the several acts now in force for the regulation of attorneys and solicitors, shall, in his own name or in the name of another, sue out any writ or process, or prosecute or defend any action or suit, or any proceedings in any of the courts at Westminster as an attorney or solicitor in expectation of fee, without being an inrolled attorney or solicitor in one of the said courts at Westminster, according to the acts in force for the regulation of attorneys and solicitors, such person shall forfeit 100*l.*; to go one moiety to H. M., and the other, with full costs, to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no protection, &c. nor more than one imparlance allowed; and such person shall be incapable to maintain any suit in any court for any fee, disbursement, &c. made in carrying on any such action, id. s. 4.

249. All persons admitted to be solicitors or attorneys in any of the courts at Westminster by virtue of such contracts and service, and who have duly paid the duty of 100*l.* hereby imposed, may be admitted a solicitor, &c. in any of the courts in s. 1., pl. 245. mentioned, without payment of any further duty, but subject nevertheless to all the provisions of law heretofore prescribed for their admission, id. s. 5.

250. Any person admitted a solicitor, &c. of the courts of great sessions in Wa., or in any court of the 3 counties palatine, or in any such inferior court as in s. 4. pl. 248. under any such contract and service, and who has paid the duty of 50*l.* hereby imposed, may be admitted a solicitor of any other of such courts as in s. 1. pl. 245. except the courts at Westminster, without the payment of any further duty, but subject to the like provisions of former laws in relation to such admissions, 54 G. 3. c. 14. s. 6.

251. Any person admitted a solicitor or attorney in any of such courts under any contract bonâ fide made and service under the same, actually commenced before 5th and 10th Feb. 1794, may be admitted a solicitor, &c. in all or any other of such courts without payment of any duty hereby imposed, in such manner and subject to such regulations as he might have been before this act, id. s. 7.

252. If any person having been articulated to any attorney or solicitor for 5 years, and having duly paid the duty hereby imposed, (in case such articles were entered into, after 5th and 10th Feb. 1794,) shall in the event of such attorney, &c. dying or leaving off practice, or of such articles being cancelled, or on any other event before the expiration of such 5 years, enter into any subsequent contract with any other attorney, &c. to serve for the residue of his term, such last-mentioned contract shall not be subject to any duty hereby imposed, id. s. 8.

253. Where any person shall become bound to serve as a clerk, in order to his admission as an attorney or solicitor in any of the courts at Westminster, or in the courts of great sessions in Wa., or in the counties palatine, or in any other court of record in Eng., by articles of clerkship, duly stamped according to the laws in force when the same was executed, and shall, in consequence of the death of his master or from other cause, be necessitated to enter into new articles for a new term for the same purpose, such new articles shall be chargeable only with 1*l.* 10*s.*, — the duplicate thereof with the like sum, 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 10. [See as to allowing the stamps on second articles where the high duty has been paid twice contrary to this clause, 53 G. 3. c. 108. s. 15. pl. 156. STAMPS, Div. X.]

254. All vellum, &c. liable to the duties hereby imposed, shall be brought to the stamp-office, to be stamped before any thing is engrossed, &c. thereon; and the commissioners of stamps shall stamp the same in any quantities, on payment of the duties to the receiver-general, 34 G. 3. c. 14. s. 10.

255. Where any such contract is made by indentures of different parts, or duplicates thereof are executed, it shall be sufficient to stamp one part only with the stamp denoting the duties hereby payable; and the commissioners of stamps shall provide a stamp to put on such other part or duplicate which shall not be so stamped, and stamp such other part therewith, on proof of the due payment of the duties hereby imposed, at any time after the execution thereof; and such part or duplicate so stamped shall be as available as if it had been duly stamped before the engrossing thereof, id. s. 11.

256. Allowance on prompt payment, s. 12. [but see 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. C. ante, pa. 1416.] Stamps provided under this act may be altered or renewed as any other stamps under the commissioners of stamps may be; and persons having vellum, &c. stamped with altered stamps, may have it exchanged in the same way, id. s. 13. [See 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 65. Div. VII. pl. 137.]

257. Counterfeiting stamps, &c. felony. Former acts in force. Duties to be paid to the receiver-general. Duties applied, id. s. 14—17.

258. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and on verdict against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 18.

ATTORNEYS, &c. CERTIFICATES.

259. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. CERTAIN DUTIES on certificates to be taken out by solicitors, attorneys, and others, practising in certain courts of justice in G. B. and certain other duties, with respect to warrants, mandates, and authorities, to be entered or filed of record as therein mentioned, [and for better collecting the same,] 25 G. 3. c. 80. [AMD. 37 G. 3. c. 90. ss. 26—32., 44 G. 3. c. 59., 54 G. 3. c. 144. ss. 13, 14. [See as to notaries, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 7., post, NOTARY. For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Certificate.]

260. Every solicitor, attorney, notary, proctor, agent, or procurator admitted, enrolled, or registered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or in any ecclesiastical court, or in any of the courts of admiralty or cinque ports, or in any of H. M.'s courts in Scot., the great sessions in Wa., or in the counties palatine, or in any other court in G. B. holding pleas, where the debt or damages amounts to 40*s.* or more, shall, before he commences or defends any suit, &c., take out annually a certificate of such his admission, &c., 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1.

261. Every person admitted, sworn, enrolled, or registered a solicitor, attorney, notary, proctor, agent, or procurator in any of such courts as in s. 1., who shall carry on or defend any action or prosecution therein, shall annually, during the time he shall practise, deliver into some one of such courts in which he has been so admitted, &c., in such manner as hereinafter mentioned, a note in his proper handwriting, containing his name and residence, on paper duly stamped with the duty certificates, according to his residence, which shall entitle him to have a certificate — in s. 5. pl. 268. directed, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 3.

262. Every person admitted, &c. a solicitor, &c. in the courts, in 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1. mentioned, shall annually, between 1st Nov. and the end of Michaelmas term, [see 44 G. 3. c. 59. s. 3. post, pl. 265., 54 G. 3. c. 144. ss. 13, 14. pl. 263, 64.] during the time he shall practise, or before he shall commence or carry on, or defend any action or proceedings, deliver in to the commissioners of stamps at their head office a note in writing, containing his name and usual place of residence; and thereupon and upon payment of the duties by 25 G. 3. c. 80. imposed, such person shall be entitled to a certificate duly stamped, which such commissioners shall forthwith issue under the hand of the proper officer, in such form as they may devise, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 26.

263. All attorneys, solicitors, proctors, notaries public, and others, who by the laws in force, would be bound to take out stamped certificates, and pay the duty thereon, at the head stamp office in Middlesex annually, between the 1st Nov. and the end of Michaelmas term following, shall in future take out such certificates and pay the duty thereon, and do all other acts necessary for that purpose annually, between the 15th Nov. and 16th Dec.; and in default thereof shall be subject to the same penalties and disqualifications as they would be under such laws for not taking out such certificate within the period first mentioned, 54 G. 3. c. 144. s. 13.

264. All certificates taken out between 15th Nov. and 16th Dec. by attorneys, &c. shall be dated on the 16th Nov.; and all such certificates taken out at any other time shall be dated on the day granted; and all such certificates shall be in force from the day of date until 15th Nov. following, id. s. 14.

265. Every certificate so obtained shall be entered in one of the courts in which the person described therein is admitted, &c. with the officers by 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 4. pl. 267. appointed to grant such certificates, within the time in s. 26. pl. 262 prescribed, [R.E.P. and any time before the commencement of Hilary term substituted, 44 G. 3. c. 59. s. 3. and see pl. 265.] and such officers shall, on payment of 1*s.* fee, enter in alphabetical order the names of all persons described in such certificates, and their residences, and the date of such certificates, in a book or roll, to which all persons shall have free access without fee, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 27.

266. Every certificate issued under this act, between 1st Nov. and the end of Michaelmas term, shall bear date on the 2d Nov., and when issued at any other time on the day issued, and all such certificates shall cease on the 2d Nov. following, id. s. 28. [But see pl. 264.]

267. The chief clerk of K. B., the clerk of the warrants in C. P., the clerk of the pleas in the exchequer office of pleas, the prothonotaries of the respective counties palatine, and of great sessions and their respective deputies, and such officers of the inferior courts of law as the judges thereof shall appoint to enrol the names of persons admitted attorneys thereof, the senior clerk of the petty bag office, H. M.'s remembrancer, the chief clerk of the court of the duchy chamber of Lancaster, the register of the courts of equity in the 3 counties palatine and of great sessions in Wales, and such officers of the inferior courts of equity as the judges thereof shall appoint to enrol such names, or their respective deputies, shall, on payment of 1*s.*, enter in an alphabetical order the name and residence of every attorney or solicitor enrolled in such courts (and who have delivered in such note, as in s. 3. pl. 261, and required a certificate of enrolment), in rolls or books to be kept in their offices; and the registers of all ecclesiastical courts, courts of admiralty or cinque ports, or their deputies, shall likewise so enter the names and residences of every notary proctor or procurator admitted in such courts, (and who have delivered in such note, as in s. 3., and required a certificate of admission) in rolls or books to be kept in their offices; and also all such officers of the Scotch courts as the judges thereof shall appoint to register any certificate of the oaths appointed by law, to be taken and subscribed in such courts by persons officiating therein as procurators, agents or solicitors, shall enter in like manner the names and residences of such procurators, &c. delivering in such note as in s. 3., and requiring a certificate, in rolls or books; and all such officers shall subscribe to every such note a certificate signed by them according to the form in the schedule, which rolls shall be open to public inspection without fee, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 4.

268. All such officers as in s. 4. pl. 267. or their deputies, after they have signed, shall forthwith issue such certificates to the persons requiring the same, and such certificate shall bear date on the day issued, and be in force for one year, to commence from the date; and certificates issued for the first time shall be dated on the day issued, which certificates shall be renewed 10 days before it expires, and so yearly; and if any of such officers or their deputies shall neglect to issue within a convenient time such certificate, or shall issue the same otherwise than as before directed, they shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 29. pl. 294, and also satisfy to the party grieved all damages sustained by such neglect, id. s. 5. [Such officers only to register them, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 27. ante, pl. 265.]

269. If any solicitor, &c. as in s. 3. pl. 261. liable to the duties hereby imposed on certificates, shall reside in any of the inns of court, or in London, Westminster or Southwark, the parish of St. Pancras or St. Mary-le-bone, or within the bills of mortality, or within the city of Edinburgh, for forty days or more in any one year, such solicitor, &c. shall be deemed to be resident within such limits, and shall be liable to the higher duties imposed on certificates during such time as he shall continue so to reside for 40 days or more in each year, and notwithstanding he may at other times reside elsewhere without such limits, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 6.

270. Every person who shall, in his own name or that of another, sue out any writ or process, or carry on or defend any proceeding as a solicitor, attorney, notary, proctor, &c. in any of the courts in s. 1. pl. 260. in expectation of fee, without having obtained such certificates, or who shall deliver to any such officers any false or fictitious residence with intent to evade the higher stamp duties, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered, &c. as in s. 29. pl. 294., and shall be incapable to maintain or prosecute any suit in any court for the recovery of his fees or disbursements in carrying on or defending any such action or proceeding, id. s. 7.

271. Every person who shall, in his own name or that of another, sue out any process, or carry on or defend any action or proceeding in the courts, in 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1. pl. 260., mentioned, in expectation of gain, or shall do any act therein as an attorney, solicitor, notary, proctor, agent or procurator without obtaining a certificate, as in s. 26. pl. 262. directed, or without entering the same in one of the courts where he is admitted, &c. as such, or shall deliver at the stamp office any account containing a place of residence as his residence, contrary to 25 G. 3. c. 80., with intent to evade the higher duties, shall forfeit 50*l.*, and be incapable to maintain or prosecute any action, &c. in any court for the recovering any fee, &c. for having prosecuted or defended any action, &c. without such certificate, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 30. [See 34 G. 3. c. 14. s. 4. pl. 248.]

272. Every person admitted, &c. in any of the courts in 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1. pl. 260. mentioned, who shall neglect to take out such certificate, as in s. 26. pl. 262. directed, for one whole year, shall be incapable of practising either in his own name or that of another in any such court by virtue of such admission, &c. and the admission, &c. of such person in such courts shall be void; but any of such courts may re-admit such persons on payment of the duty accrued since his last certificate, and such sum by way of penalty as such court may deem proper; provided nothing herein shall include within this act any person exempted by 25 G. 3. c. 80. from the duty thereby imposed, id. s. 31.

273. Any person having obtained such certificate may sue out any writ or process, or prosecute or defend any proceeding in any court in the name and with the consent of any other solicitor, &c. as in s. 3. pl. 261. of such court, in writing first had and signed by him, as he might before this act; provided such other solicitor, &c. has also duly obtained his certificate out of his court, or in default thereof every such solicitor, &c. shall be liable to the like pains and incapacities as any other solicitor, &c. by this act is liable to, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 8.

274. Any person duly sworn, &c. as in s. 3. pl. 261. a solicitor, &c. in any two or more of such courts may, under one proper certificate from either, carry on or defend any proceedings in any other court in which he is so sworn, &c. although such certificate may not have issued from such other court, id. s. 9.

275. The 6 clerks of the court of chancery, the sworn clerks in their office, the waiting clerks of such 6 clerks, the cursitors of such court, the clerks of the petty bag office, the clerks of the king's coroner and attorney in K. B. the filazers of the same court, and of the court of C. P. at Westminster, the attornies of the courts of the duchy chamber of Lancaster, of exchequer at Chester, or of the lord mayor and sheriffs of London, the attornies or clerks of the offices of the king's remembrancer, treasurer's remembrancer, pipe, or office of pleas in the court of exchequer at Westminster, the solicitors of the treasury, customs, excise, post-office, salt and stamp duties, or any other branches of the revenue, the solicitors of the city of London, the assistant to the counsel for the affairs of the admiralty and navy, shall not be permitted in their own names, or that of another, to sue out any writ or process, or carry on or defend any proceedings in any of the courts in s. 1. pl. 260. in expectation of fee, as solicitors or attornies (except as hereinafter mentioned, s. 12. pl. 277.), unless they shall, for the purposes of this act, cause their names to be enrolled in the court to which their offices belong, or in which they carry on such proceedings as such solicitors or attornies with the proper officer, and shall annually obtain a certificate stamped according to his place of residence, in like manner as in s. 4. pl. 267. directed, on pain to be subject to the like pains and incapacities as in s. 7. pl. 270. mentioned, id. s. 10.

276. No officer or clerk of any of the courts in s. 1. pl. 260. mentioned (except as hereinafter excepted, s. 12. pl. 277.) shall, in his own name, or in the name of another, sue out any writ or process, or commence, prosecute, carry on, agent, manage, solicit or defend any suit or other proceedings in any of such courts in expectation of reward as a solicitor, &c. unless he shall cause his name to be enrolled or registered in the court in which he is such officer, or in which he shall so commence, &c. such suit, &c. with the proper officer therein; and shall annually, during such time as he shall act in manner aforesaid, obtain a certificate stamped according to his residence, as in s. 4. pl. 267. directed with respect to attornies and solicitors, under the like penalties and incapacities as in s. 7. pl. 270. directed, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 11. [And see pl. 270, 271.]

277. Nothing in this act shall subject to the duty hereby imposed any officer or clerk of any of the courts, in s. 1., who is or shall be charged with land tax in respect of his office in such court, by reason of his being employed in the management of any suit or other proceeding therein relating to the business of his office only, and wherein such officer shall not be also employed by the party to such suit, &c. or by any solicitor, &c. in expectation of reward, over the fee payable to such officer, in respect of his office, id. s. 12.

278. No solicitor, attorney, notary, proctor, agent or procurator, shall sue out any writ or process, or commence, prosecute or carry on any suit, action or any prosecution, or other proceedings whatsoever in any of the courts in s. 1. pl. 260., or defend or appear for any defendant, for or in expectation of reward, unless such solicitor, &c. shall have delivered to the proper officer, or his deputy, hereby appointed for the receipt and entry thereof, a memorandum duly stamped in pursuance of this act of his warrant, mandate or authority containing the names of the parties prosecuting and defending, and of the court in which the same shall be commenced, and also the name of the solicitor, &c. immediately retained to prosecute or defend, to be filed of record, as after directed; which memorandum may be made out according to the form of the schedule annexed, id. s. 13.

279. Where any præcipe (except a præcipe for any original writ out of the court of chancery) is required, by the practice of such courts, to be filed with the proper officer previous to the signing or issuing any writ, precept, citation or monition, or other first process, for any plaintiff upon the commencement of any suit, such solicitor, &c. may deliver in to such officer the memorandum hereby required to be stamped, and insert therein the nature of the process and return thereof in such manner as hath been heretofore used with respect to such præcipes; and such memorandum, so stamped and delivered in, shall be as valid, for the signing or issuing any such writ, &c. as if the præcipe heretofore used had been delivered in to the proper officer, id. s. 14.

280. The officers, or their deputies, who shall be appointed to sign or issue any writ, &c. upon the commencement of any suit, &c. or to enter or file of record any bail, appearance, admission or other act to be first done in the defending or appearing for the defendant in any such suit, shall receive and file every such memorandum which shall be delivered to them by any solicitor, &c. stamped pursuant to this act, and shall sign thereon the day of the month and year on which such memorandum was delivered, to which entries all persons shall have free access without fee; and such officer, or deputy, neglecting the due performance of his office in the premises, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 29. pl. 294. directed, id. s. 15.

281. Every person who shall sue out any writ or process, or commence, carry on, agent or defend any suit, or other proceedings, except as after mentioned, s. 18. pl. 283. without having delivered to the proper officer the memorandum of his warrant, &c. stamped as directed, shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 16.

282. No suit or proceedings shall be staid, nor any judgment, sentence or decree thereon reversed for any omission or defect in the filing such memorandum, but the courts shall proceed, as far as concerns the parties, as if such memorandum was filed, id. s. 17.

283. This act shall not rescind, change or alter any of the rules, or the practice of any of the courts, as in s. 1. pl. 260., relative to the filing warrants of attorney, appearances or proxies, or any admissions to sue or defend either for the plaintiffs or defendants; but the rules and practice of the respective courts relating thereto shall continue to be used as heretofore, unless the judges shall think it necessary to rescind or amend the same; and such judges may make such rules and orders, and do such other things, for the securing such duties as shall be lawful and reasonable, id. s. 18.

284. Where any defendant shall, before appearance, confess any action, or execute any warrant of attorney to acknowledge judgment, the attorney who shall enter up judgment thereupon, shall previously deliver to the proper officer a memorandum of such cognovit actionem, or warrant of attorney, stamped as before directed, according to the form prescribed in schedule (No. 4.), under pain of 5*l.*, id. s. 19.

285. No solicitor, &c. liable to these duties, who shall be retained by any person to prosecute, carry on, manage, solicit, agent or defend any suit or other proceedings in any of the courts in s. 1. pl. 260. aforesaid, shall, directly or indirectly, demand or receive from the parties, or under any pretence whatsoever insert in any bill any sum in respect of the payment of such duties; but it shall be lawful, upon application of the party charged therewith, unto any of the courts in which such suit shall have been transacted, to refer such bill to be taxed, by the proper officer, as practised in such court for the taxation of such bills; and if, upon the taxation, it shall be found that such solicitor, &c. shall have charged, or received from the party any money contrary to this act, then such charge shall be disallowed and struck out of such bill; or if paid, such solicitor, &c. shall refund and pay unto the party all such money as such officer shall certify to have been so overcharged or paid; and in such case shall also be liable to the costs of the taxation, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 20.

286. But if the person by whom any memorandum shall have been delivered to be filed, and by whom the duty shall have been paid, shall not be immediately employed by the parties prosecuting or defending, but shall act therein for the solicitor, &c. immediately employed, such person may charge and place to the account of the solicitor, &c. so immediately employed, the duty hereby imposed on such memorandum, id. s. 21.

287. Any solicitor, &c. employed to prosecute any suit for the plaintiff, may file any common appearance or common bail for the defendant, according to the statute, without filing any memorandum for the defendant, and freed from the duties hereby imposed thereon, in such manner as might have been done before this act, id. s. 22.

288. But no solicitor, &c. for such defendant shall, where an appearance hath been entered according to the statute, plead or carry on any further proceedings for such defendant, until the memorandum, stamped as aforesaid, of a warrant to defend, shall have been delivered to the proper officer to be filed according to the directions of the act, upon pain to forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 23.

289. In every suit where any person shall, under any rule or order of court, be added as a defendant, it shall be lawful for any solicitor, &c. for the plaintiff to sue out the usual process against such person so added, without delivering any further memorandum by specifying in the præcipe to the officer, that the defendant named therein hath been added thereto by rule or order, id. s. 24.

290. Every attorney of the court of K. B. who shall put in any special bail before any judge of such court, at the time of putting in thereof, may deliver to the judge's clerk, before whom such bail shall be put in, the memorandum of his warrant stamped according to this act, which such clerk shall receive gratis, and shall, within 6 days after the end of each term, deliver the same to the officer appointed to file special bails in such court, to be filed of record; and such officer shall, out of the monies paid to such officer by the receiver-general of the stamp-duties, according to this act (s. 28. pl. 293.), pay to such clerk two-pence for every pound sterling which the duties upon such memorandums shall amount unto; and in case such judge's clerk neglect to deliver to the officer all the memorandums deposited in his hands, or shall wilfully deface the same, or the stamp, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 25.

291. Nothing in this act shall charge with the duties hereby imposed any warrant to sue or defend, or any memorandum thereof, filed in any inferior court wherein the debt or damages claimed shall not amount to 40*s.*, but in such case the attorney, writer, agent or procurator employed to carry on or defend such suit, may deliver in a memorandum of his warrant, in manner hereinafter directed, not stamped, and may insert therein the amount of the debt or damages, under 40*s.*, claimed; and no plaintiff in such suit shall sue for or recover more than shall be expressed in such memorandum not stamped, id. s. 26.

292. Nothing in this act shall subject to the payment of the duties any person for any proceedings prosecuted or defended upon any indictment, or upon any information, suit, writ or process in the name of H. M., or at the instance of the attorney-general, the advocate of Scot., or any other officer authorised to prosecute in H. M.'s name, or to sue for H. M.'s interest, except informations in the nature of quo warranto, filed by the coroner and attorney in the court of K. B., informations in courts of equity at the relation of private persons, informations wherein any person, other than H. M., shall be entitled to any penalty or part thereof; in all which last cases such duties shall be paid, id. s. 27.

293. The receiver-general of the duties on stamped vellum, &c. or some person employed by the commissioners, shall take an account of the number of memorandums filed, and of the amount of the duties paid thereon, and shall pay to the clerks and officers aforesaid, sixpence for every pound which the duties upon such memorandums filed and produced shall amount unto, id. s. 28.

294. All penalties may be recovered in any of the courts of record at Westminster for offences in Eng., Wa. or Ber., and in the court of session, court of justiciary, or court of exchequer in Scot., for offences in Scot., by action of debt, &c. wherein no essoin, &c.; and if the plaintiff recover he shall have full costs, id. s. 29.

295. Forgery of stamps felony without clergy, id. s. 30. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. Div. VI. pl. 132.] Former acts extended to the duties hereby imposed, id. s. 31. Application of duties, id. ss. 32—35.

296. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict is given for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 36.

297. All actions against any person for any thing done under this act shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where they arise, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it appears to have been so done, or if the action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant; and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or if a verdict or judgment on demurrer passes against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 38.

BILLS AND NOTES.

298. FOR REPEALING THE DUTIES NOW CHARGED on bills of exchange and promissory notes, and other notes, drafts and orders, and on receipts, and for granting other duties in lieu thereof, [and for better collecting the same], 31 G. 3. c. 25. [REP. as to receipts, viz. ss. 12—17. 20. 22. by 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4. Amend. 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 15., 37 G. 3. c. 136. ss. 5, 6., 39 G. 3. c. 107. ss. 2—7., 48 G. 3. c. 149. ss. 12—15. 21., 55 G. 3. c. 184. ss. 11—22. 29. For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part 1. tit. Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes.]

299. All the duties by 23 G. 3. c. 49. imposed on bills and notes, and all the regulations of that or any other act [viz. 24 G. 3. s. 1. c. 7.] in relation thereto shall be REP., except as to arrears, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 1.

300. All rates and duties hereby imposed on bills of exchange, promissory and other notes, drafts or orders, shall be paid by the drawer, id. s. 2.

301. This act shall not charge any foreign bills of exchange drawn in sets, according to the custom of merchants, with any higher duty than the sums here set down, id. s. 3. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part 1.]

302. This act shall not charge any draft or order for the payment of money to bearer on demand, bearing date on or before the day issued, and at the place where issued, and drawn on any banker residing or transacting his business within 10 miles of the place where issued, id. s. 4. [See 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 12., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 13. pl. 324.]

303. Bank composition, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 5., 39 G. 3. c. 107. s. 3., 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. (A.), 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 15., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 21. pl. 332.

304. If any bill of exchange, promissory or other note, draft or order for the payment of money amounting to 40*s.* or more, hereby intended to be stamped, shall, contrary thereto be written, &c. on vellum, &c. not stamped, or on vellum stamped with a lower duty than that payable, then there shall be paid to H. M. the full duty, and which shall be paid by each person who shall draw, utter and negotiate the same, his and their executors, administrators and assigns, id. s. 6.

305. Regulations respecting notes re-issuable only at the place where first issued, id. s. 7. In what case notes not exceeding 5*l.* 5*s.*, or 30*l.*, legally stamped, may be re-issued, id. s. 8. [See 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 15. REP. 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 14. pl. 325.]

306. Such promissory or other note for the payment of money to bearer on demand, issued after such payment in pursuance of this act, shall be construed by virtue thereof to be payable to, and the property of the holder, notwithstanding such payment, and such person shall be possessed thereof in such manner as he would have been upon its first issuing, and may maintain an action thereon in such manner as he might do, and have all the remedies as he might have had upon the first issuing thereof, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 9., 39 G. 3. c. 107. s. 7.

307. Every person shall write or sign, or accept or pay any bill of exchange, promissory or other note, draft or order hereby liable to duty, without the same being first duly stamped, or upon which there shall not be some stamp resembling the same, shall, for such offence, forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 24. pl. 312. directed, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 10.

308. No person shall, under this act, make any bills of exchange, promissory or other notes, drafts or orders for the payment of any sum, otherwise than they might have done before this act, id. s. 11.

309. All vellum, &c. liable to any stamp duty by this act, shall be brought to the head stamp office to be stamped before written on, and the commissioners of stamps shall stamp the same in any quantities on payment of the duties, and no bill of exchange, promissory or other note, draft or order [nor any receipt, &c. REP. 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4. STAMPS (Receipts)], nor any note, memorandum or writing liable to the duties hereby imposed, shall be pleaded or given in evidence in any court, or admitted to be available in law or equity, unless the same is properly stamped, or stamped with any higher duty; and such commissioners, and their officers, shall not, under any pretence, stamp any vellum, &c. after such bill, &c. is written, &c. except as provided in s. 20. [which relates to receipts only, and which is repealed as above], 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 19.

310. Any person being the holder of any bill of exchange, promissory or other note, draft or order, and liable to stamp duty under 31 G. 3. c. 25., which shall be stamped with a stamp of a different denomination than that required by such act, if the same shall be of an equal or superior value to the stamp required, may produce the same, within the times hereinafter mentioned, to the commissioners of stamps at the head office, or to their proper officer; and such commissioners shall direct such officer, and he shall, upon payment of the duty and the penalty hereinafter mentioned, besides the duty, stamp such bills, &c. and give a receipt for the duty and penalty on the back of such bill, &c. and such bill, &c. so stamped, shall be of the like force as if it had been duly stamped; and every person procuring such bill, &c. to be so stamped, shall be indemnified from all penalties incurred by reason of such bill, &c. not having been stamped, 37 G. 3. c. 136. s. 5.

311. If any such bill, &c. shall be produced to such commissioners before it is payable, the same shall be stamped on payment of the duty, and 40s.; but in case such bill, &c. shall be payable before it is so produced, then the same shall not be stamped, unless on payment of the duty, and 10s., id. s. 6.

312. One moiety of all pecuniary penalties hereby imposed shall (if sued within 3 calendar months from the time when incurred) go to H. M., and the other, with full costs, to the person suing for the same within such time in the courts at Westminster for offences committed in Eng., and in the court of exchequer at Edinburgh for offences committed in Scot. by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, and only one imparlance allowed, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 24. [Ext. to receipts, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 12. See STAMPS, Receipts.]

313. Any justice of peace residing near the place where the offence was committed may determine any offence against this act for which a pecuniary penalty is inflicted, and he shall, on information or complaint made within 3 calendar months after the offence committed, summon the party and witnesses on either side, and on proof made, either by confession or on oath of one witness, give judgment for the penalty as hereby is directed to be divided, in moieties to H. M. and the informer, and shall award his warrant under hand and seal to levy such penalty on the goods of the offender, and cause sale to be made thereof if not redeemed within 6 days; and where sufficient goods cannot be found, he may commit the offender to prison for 3 calendar months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and persons aggrieved by such judgment may, on giving security to the value of the penalty, together with the costs to be awarded in case such judgment is affirmed, appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, &c. which shall happen 14 days after such conviction made, and of which appeal reasonable notice shall be given; and the justices there may summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the same, and if the judgment of such justice is affirmed, may award such costs to the appellant as they think fit, id. s. 25. [Ext. to receipts, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 15. But see Div. V., 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10., pl. 123.]

314. Any justice may, if he thinks fit, mitigate such penalties (the reasonable costs of the officers and informers being always allowed over such mitigation), so as they be not lessened more than one moiety, id. s. 26. [Ext. to receipts, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 14.]

315. If any person summoned as a witness before such justice or justices touching any such matters, shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without some excuse, to be allowed by such justice or justices, or appearing, shall refuse to be examined on oath, then such person shall forfeit 40s., to be levied and paid as other penalties under this act may be, id. s. 27. [Ext. to receipts, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 15.]

316. In default of any prosecution within the time limited, no such penalty shall be recoverable, except in the name of the attorney-general in Eng., or advocate in Scot., by information in any of such courts as in s. 24. pl. 312. in which case the whole penalty shall go to H. M. and all penalties, &c. and shares thereof so incurred belonging to H. M., shall be paid to the receiver-general of stamp duties; and where the whole of such pecuniary penalties shall go to H. M., the commissioners may thereout reward as they think fit, not exceeding one moiety of such penalties, after deducting the charges of recovery, any person appearing entitled thereto as informers, id. s. 28. [Ext. to receipts, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 16.]

317. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and on verdict against plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, such defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 35.

318. Nothing herein contained, shall charge any draft or order for the payment of money on demand, upon any banker or person, acting as such, and residing or transacting the business of a banker, within 10 miles of the place where draft, &c. was drawn, 39 G. 3. c. 107. s. 2.; [See similar exception, 35 G. 3. c. 184., Sch. Part I. tit. Bills of Exchange.]

319. No bill of exchange hereby required to be stamped, shall be issued on any pretence whatever, 39 G. 3. c. 107. s. 5.

320. Certain regulations as to re-issuing notes, 31 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 7, 8., 39 G. 3. c. 107. ss. 5, 6., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 10. s. 6. No note payable to bearer on demand for more than 20l., shall be re-issued in Scot., with an exception in favour of the 2 banks of Scot., and the British linen company, 44 G. 3. c. 98. ss. 20, 21. Further regulations as to re-issuing notes for 2l. 2s., or less, and notes re-issuable under 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 20., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 13. Further regulations as to re-issuing notes, for not exceeding 100l., and for 2l. 2s., 53 G. 3. c. 108. ss. 1, 2. [all virtually Rerp., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 14. pl. 323.]

321. All notes allowed to be re-issued by the 44 G. 3. c. 98., or by this act, for 3 years from the date thereof, shall, on payment thereof, at the end of such 3 years, and all promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for money, not allowed to be re-issued, shall, on payment thereof, be deemed to be wholly discharged, and no longer available, but shall be forthwith cancelled; and if any person shall re-issue or cause or permit to be re-issued, any promissory note so allowed to be re-issued, at any time after the expiration of the term allowed for that purpose, or shall re-issue, or cause or permit to be re-issued any promissory note, bill, &c. not allowed to be re-issued, or shall neglect to cancel the same on payment, they shall forfeit 50l.; and in case of any note, bill, &c. being re-issued contrary to this act, the person re-issuing the same, shall answer to H. M. a further duty in respect thereof of the same amount as would have been chargeable thereon, in case the same then been first issued, which further duty may be sued for, and recovered as a debt to H. M.; and if any person shall take such note, bill, &c. in payment, or as a security, knowing the same to be re-issued contrary hereto, he shall forfeit 20l., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 14.

322. Every person who shall make, sign, or issue, or cause to be made, &c., or shall accept or pay, or permit so to be, any bill of exchange, draft, order, or promissory note, for the payment of money liable to the duties hereby imposed, without the same being stamped, shall forfeit 50l., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 11., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 11.

323. Any person who shall make and issue, or cause to be made, &c., any such bill, &c., at any time after date or sight, which shall bear date subsequent to the day on which issued, so that it shall not in fact become payable in 2 months, if made payable after date, or in 60 days, if after sight, next after the day on which issued, unless stamped for the duty hereby imposed on a bill or note payable at any time exceeding 2 months after date, or 60 days after sight, shall, for every such bill, &c., forfeit 100l., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 12.

324. Every person who shall make and issue, or cause to be made, &c., any bill, draft, or order, payable to bearer on demand, on any banker or person acting as such, which shall be dated on any day subsequent to that on which issued, or which shall not truly specify the place where issued, or fall as strictly within the exception in the schedule, Part I., unless duly stamped as a bill of exchange under this act, shall for every such bill, &c., forfeit 100l.; and any person knowingly receiving such bill, &c., in payment of or as security for the sum therein mentioned, shall for every such bill, &c. forfeit 20l.; and any banker, on whom any such bill, &c. shall be drawn, who shall pay, or cause or permit to be paid, the sum therein expressed, or any part thereof, knowing it to be post-dated, or that the place where issued is not truly set forth therein, or knowing it does not in any other respect fall within such exemption, shall, for every such bill, &c., forfeit 100l.; and shall not be allowed the money so paid, in account against the person, by or for whom such bill, &c. shall be drawn, or his executors, &c., assignees or creditors, in case of insolvency or bankruptcy, or other person claiming under them, 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 12., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 13.

325. Any banker or person, who shall make and issue any promissory note payable to bearer on demand, for any sum not exceeding 100l. each, duly stamped under this act, may reissue the same from time to time, as often as he thinks necessary, without paying any further duty; and all notes so re-issued, shall be good in law, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 14.; [In whom the property of such notes shall vest, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 9., 39 G. 3. c. 107. s. 7. pl. 306.]

326. Notes payable to bearer on demand for any sum not exceeding 100l., made and issued by any bankers or other persons, and once duly stamped under this act, shall not be liable to any further duty, although re-issued by and as the note of some only of the persons who originally made it, or by and as the note of any one or more of such original makers, and any other person in partnership with him or them jointly; nor although such note, if payable at any other than the place where drawn, is re-issued with any alteration therein, only of the house or place at which first made payable, id. s. 15.

327. All notes payable to bearer on demand, in bonâ fide circulation, on 31st Aug. 1815, duly stamped and re-issuable under 48 G. 3. c. 149. and 53 G. 3. c. 108. ss. 1, 2., shall continue re-issuable from their respective dates for 3 years, but not afterwards, without further duty paid; and persons, who after 31st Aug. 1815, issue such notes, shall forfeit 50l. per note, id. s. 16.

328. Notes issued by bankers in Scot. for not exceeding 2l. s. each, payable to bearer on demand, with the dates printed therein, and in bonâ fide circulation, before 31st Aug. 1815, duly stamped, and which shall bear date prior to 31st Aug. 1813, shall be re-issuable until 31st Aug. 1816; and if any banker or other person shall, after 31st Aug.

1815, issue or cause to be issued, any such note, bearing a printed date prior to 31st Aug. 1813, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, 55 G.3. c.184. s.17.

329. No banker or other person shall issue any promissory note payable to bearer on demand, liable to the duties hereby imposed, with the date printed therein; and if any banker or other person shall issue any such note, with the date printed therein, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s.18.

330. All notes hereby allowed to continue re-issuable for a limited period shall, on payment thereof, after the expiration of such period, and all notes, bills of exchange, drafts or orders, for money not allowed to be re-issuable hereby, shall, on payment thereof, be deemed to be wholly discharged, and shall be immediately cancelled; and if any person shall re-issue, or cause or permit to be re-issued, any such note hereby allowed to be re-issued for a limited time after that time is elapsed, or shall issue, &c. any such other notes, bills, &c. after the payment thereof as aforesaid, or shall neglect to cancel the same according to this act, such persons shall forfeit for each note, &c. 50*l.*; and in case such note, &c. is re-issued, the party re-issuing the same shall be accountable to H. M. for a further duty in respect thereof of the like amount, as if the same had then been issued for the first time, which further duty may be sued for as a debt to H. M.; and if any person shall take any such note, &c. in payment or as security, knowing it to be re-issued contrary to this act, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s.19.

331. All promissory notes and bank post bills issued by the bank of Eng. shall be freed from the duties hereby granted, and may be re-issued at pleasure, id. s.20.

332. The composition payable by the bank of Eng. for stamp duties on their notes, and bank post bills under 48 G.3. c.149. s.15. shall cease, and such bank shall annually, in the 1st May, deliver to the commissioners of stamps, a just account verified on the oath of their chief accountant of the value of all their notes and bills in circulation, in some given day in each week, for the 3 years preceding the 6th April, in the year in which the account is given, together with the average value thereof, according to such account; and the bank shall pay to the receiver-general as a composition for such duties 3,500*l.* for every million, and after that rate for every half million, but for no less sum, one half thereof to be paid on the 1st Oct., and the other on the 1st April, next after such account given, id. s.21.

333. When the bank of Eng. shall resume cash payments, a new composition for stamp duties shall be submitted to parliament, id. s.22.

334. Promissory notes payable to bearer on demand, made or purporting to be made, out of G. B., by or on the behalf of any person, resident out of G. B., shall not be negotiated or paid in G. B., whether made payable there or not, unless duly stamped as hereby required, for notes of the like tenor and value made in G. B.; and any person who shall negotiate, or offer or receive in payment any such note, or shall demand or receive the whole or part of the sum therein mentioned, from or on account of the drawer thereof in G. B., the same not being duly stamped; and any person in G. B. who shall pay such sum or any part thereof, either as drawer or in pursuance of any appointment therein contained, shall forfeit for each such note, 20*l.*; provided this clause shall not extend to notes made and payable only in Ire., 48 G.3. c.149. s.21, 55 G.3. c.184. s.29.

335. FOR REGULATING THE ISSUING OF SMALL NOTES, by the 2 banks of Scot. and the British linen company, and the granting of licences to issue re-issuable notes, 48 G.3. c.149. ss. 16—20. [AMD. 55 G.3. c.184. ss. 23—28. This title is framed from the purport of these sections.]

336. The bank and royal bank of Scot., and the British linen company in Scot., may issue their promissory notes for 1*l.*, 1*l.* 1*s.*, 2*l.*, and 2*l.* 2*s.*, payable to bearer on demand, on unstamped paper, in the manner hitherto practised, with regard to 1*l.* and 1*l.* 1*s.* notes of the said banks of Scot., under 39 G.3. c.107. s.9; such banks and company respectively, giving such like security and keeping and producing such accounts of the notes issued by them, and paying the duties in the manner prescribed by the said act, in regard to such notes of such banks thereby allowed to be issued on unstamped paper; and may re-issue such notes as often as they think fit; and such banks and company, instead of taking out the licence after mentioned, shall pay 20*l.* per ann. to the head stamp collector at Edinburgh, 48 G.3. c.149. s.16, [And see 55 G.3. c.184. s.23. pl. 337.]

337. The bank of Scot. and royal bank of Scot., and British linen company, may issue their notes for 1*l.* and 1*l.* 1*s.*, and 2*l.* and 2*l.* 2*s.*, on unstamped paper, as they are authorized to do by 48 G.3. c.149. s.16, giving such security and producing accounts of all notes issued by them, and paying the duties in the manner by that act prescribed, and may re-issue such notes at pleasure, 55 G.3. c.184. s.23.

338. No banker or other person, (except the bank of Eng., the 2 banks of Scot. and the British linen company, see ss.16. 19.), shall issue any promissory notes for money payable to bearer on demand hereby charged with duty, and allowed to be re-issued without taking out a licence yearly for that purpose, which shall be granted by 2 commissioners of stamps, or some person authorized by them, on payment of the duty payable thereon; and a separate and distinct licence shall be taken out for every town or place where such notes be issued, by such bankers or persons, or their agents, [except that one licence shall be sufficient for all towns or places where such banker or person shall have established a branch bank, or employed an agent to issue notes before this act was passed, so that all such towns, &c. shall be notified to the stamp office, and be specified in the first licence granted under this act, and that an affidavit of the fact be transmitted to the stamp office at the time of applying for such licence, 48 G.3. c.149. s.17.; and such licence shall specify the name and residence of the person to whom granted, and also the name of the town or place where, and the name of the firm, or title under which such notes are issued, and where any such licence is granted to persons in partnership, it shall set forth the names and residences of all the partners, whether all their names appear on their notes or not, and in default thereof, such licence shall be void; and such licences, which shall be granted between the 10th Oct. and 11th Nov. yearly, and shall be dated on the 11th Oct., and licences granted on other days shall be dated on day granted, and be in force from that day till the 10th Oct. following, both inclusive, 48 G.3. c.149. s.17., 55 G.3. c.184. s.24.

339. The exception herein contained (s.17. pl. 338.) in favour of the 2 banks of Scot. and the British linen company, shall only extend to exempt them from taking out such licences in respect of their several present establishments and branches; viz. those of the bank of Scot. at Edinburgh, Glasgow, Perth, Aberdeen, Dumfries, Cupar, St. Andrews, Kirkcaldy, Dumfermline, Kelso, Inverness, Ayr, Stirling, Banff, Tain, Dundee, Montrose, Haddington, Greenock, Wigton, and Kircudbright; those of the royal bank of Scot. at Edinburgh and Glasgow, and those of the British linen company, at Edinburgh, Leith, Cupar, Dumfermline, Montrose, Inverness, Forres, Elgin, Glasgow, Dumfries, Hawick, Jedburgh, Dunse, Dunbar, Newton Stewart, and Perth; but that if they set up a branch bank, or employ any agent to issue such notes at any other town than those herein mentioned, they shall take out such licence for the same as other bankers, &c. do, and in default thereof, shall be liable to the same penalties as such bankers, &c. in that behalf, 48 G.3. c.149. s.19.; [See s.18., post, pl. 343.]

340. When any such licence shall be granted to any persons in partnership, the same shall continue in force for the issuing of promissory notes duly stamped under the firm or title herein specified, until 10th Oct. following the date thereof, notwithstanding any alteration in the partnership, 48 G.3. c.149. s.20., 55 G.3. c.184. s.28.

341. No hanker or person shall be obliged to take out more than 4 licences in all, for any number of towns in Scot.; and in case any banker or person shall issue such promissory notes by themselves or their agents, at more than 4 different towns or places in Scot., then after taking out 3 distinct licences for 3 of such towns or places, such banker, &c. may have the rest included in a fourth, 55 G.3. c.184. s.25.

342. In cases where under 48 G.3. c.149. s.17. pl. 338. several places in Eng. may be included in one licence; the same may be done under this act, id. s.26.

343. Persons applying for such licences, shall produce to, and leave with the proper officer a specimen of their notes, that the licence may be framed accordingly; and any person (except the bank of Eng.) who shall issue reissuable notes without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other firm than specified in the licence, shall forfeit 100*l.*, 48 G.3. c.149. s.18., 55 G.3. c.184. s.27.

CARDS AND DICE.

344. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON cards and dice, 9 A. c.23. ss. 40—43. [AMD. 10 A. c.19. ss. 162, 163, 166—170., 6 G.1. c.21. ss. 55. 57. 59, 60., 29 G.2. c.13., 5 G.3. c.46. ss. 9—17. 41., 16 G.3. c.54. s.17., 41 G.3. U.K. c.86. ss. 4—11.; This title is framed from the general purport of these sections: for the duties, see 44 G.3. c.98., Schedule B. ante, pa. 1401.]

345. The duties on cards and dice imported, shall be levied and brought into the exchequer in such manner, and under such penalties, as H. M.'s customs on subsidy goods in wards are by the laws now in force, 9 A. c.23. s.40.

346. The makers of playing cards or dice in G. B., shall, before they make any new cards or dice, give notice in writing of the house or place where they make them, to the commissioners of stamps, or to their officers, next to the place where such cards or dice are made, and such notice shall be given as often as such places are changed; and every person in G. B., who shall exercise the employment of making cards or dice in G. B., shall likewise give such notice, upon pain to forfeit 50*l.*; and all persons making cards or dice, in any place not so notified, shall forfeit 50*l.*; and such persons shall permit the proper officers to enter such places, and take account of the cards or dice made, under the penalty of 10*l.* for each refusal; and no maker of cards or dice, chargeable with such duties, shall remove or suffer the same to be removed from such place of making, until such mark upon such dice, and such seal upon the paper, and thread inclosing every pack of cards shall be put thereon, as the commissioners of stamps shall appoint in writing under their hands, upon pain to forfeit all such cards and dice, and treble the value thereof, 9 A. c. 23. s. 41. [May be removed for exportation without sealing, &c. and before duty paid, 10 A. c. 19. s. 170. pl. 355.]

347. Every person who shall make any cards or dice, in any house or place, before he has given notice of his intention to make cards or dice there according to 9 A. c. 23. s. 41. pl. 346. shall, besides the penalties thereby inflicted, forfeit all cards and dice, and all materials and utensils for making the same found in such house, &c. or manufactured there before such notice given; and no material begun to be wrought, shall be removed from the place where so begun, until completely made into cards or dice, or the duties for the same paid, or secured, on pain that every person removing, or permitting to be removed any such materials, contrary hereto, shall forfeit double the duty on the cards or dice such materials would make, with full costs, 10 A. c. 19. s. 166.

348. The 3 E. 4. c. 4. against the importation of cards and dice, confirmed, id. s. 167.

349. Such makers of cards and dice shall once in 28 days make entry on oath, with the commissioners of stamps, or with their officer next adjacent to their place of making, (which oath such commissioners, or 3 of them, or such officer may administer,) of all cards or dice by them made, within the time of such entry, and shall once in 6 weeks clear all such duties by them owing, by paying the same to the receiver general, upon pain of forfeiting 20*l.* for not making such entry, or double duty for nonpayment thereof, 9 A. c. 23. s. 42.

350. Makers of cards or dice endeavouring to defraud H. M. by any concealment, shall forfeit 20*l.*; and all penalties hereby imposed in relation to cards and dice, shall go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, and may be recovered, as hereby directed, with reference to other stamp duties, [see s. 37. Div. V. pl. 109.] and monies arising by such duties shall be paid into the exchequer, id. s. 43. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. Div. V. pl. 123.]

351. No playing cards or dice shall be sold, or exposed to sale, or used in any public gaming house, unless the paper and thread inclosing the same was sealed and stamped according to the 9 A. c. 23. s. 41. pl. 346. and unless one of the cards of each pack shall be also marked on the painted side, with such mark as the commissioners of stamps shall appoint, on pain that every person offending against this act, or the 9 A. c. 23. shall forfeit for each pack, and every one of such dice, 5*l.*, with full costs, to be recovered and distributed, as the penalties, in the said former act are to be, 10 A. c. 19. s. 162. [See 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 10. pl. 384.]

352. If any person shall counterfeit, or forge, any seal or stamp, to resemble any seal or stamp, in pursuance of this or of such former act, provided to denote the payment of the duties on cards and dice, or shall counterfeit, or resemble the impression of the same, on any card or dice, or any thread or paper, inclosing any cards, or shall utter, or vend any cards or dice with such counterfeited seal or stamp, knowing the same to be counterfeited, or shall privately and fraudulently use any seal or stamp used under this or the former act, relating to such duties on cards and dice, so as thereby to defraud H. M. such person so offending shall on conviction suffer death without clergy, id. s. 163. [See 29 G. 2. c. 13. s. 5. pl. 360., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 16. pl. 385.]

353. All pieces of ivory, bone, or other matter, made or used in any game, or play, with any letters, figures, spots, or other marks thereon, to denote any chance, shall be deemed dice, and chargeable with duty, and if there are more than 6 chances signified on one of such pieces, then such piece shall be charged with the full duty payable for a pair of dice; and if there shall be more than the number of chances usual in a pair of dice, then such one piece shall be charged with a further duty, proportionate to the number of chances exceeding one pair of dice, id. s. 168.

354. Any officer appointed by the commissioners of stamps, may enter any house where cards or dice are made, sold, or exposed to sale, or suspected to be privately made, or into any public gaming house or place, and there search and see what cards or dice shall be making, and whether such cards or dice so sold, or exposed to sale, or so used in play, be duly sealed and stamped; and if the owner or occupier of any house or place, where cards or dice are made, sold, or exposed to sale, or of any such gaming house shall refuse entrance, or search to such officer, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, with full costs, to be recovered and divided as in s. 119. [which see ante, Div. V. pl. 110.] id. s. 169.

355. Any cards or dice may be removed from the place where made, without sealing, stamping, or paying any duties for the same, provided that within one month after made, and before so removed, a bond is entered into to H. M., with sufficient surety in a penal sum, of double the duties on such cards or dice, with a condition to export such cards or dice, within a time limited within such bond, and that the same shall not be relanded in G. B.; and such bond shall be left with the commissioners of stamps, and a certificate given by such commissioners or their officer, that such bond is entered into, 10 A. c. 19. s. 170. [See 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 6. pl. 380.]

356. Justices may determine pecuniary forfeitures, not exceeding 20*l.*, 10 A. c. 19. s. 172—173. [See the sections more at length in Div. V. pl. 111, 112.]

357. Every person who shall fraudulently cut, tear, or get off any stamp, in respect whereof or whereby any duties are payable to, or are denoted to be paid or payable to H. M. on playing cards, [see further 12 G. 3. c. 48. pl. 90. General Regulations,] or shall file, square, or new spot any dice, which have been sold, or played with, or shall fraudulently inclose any new pack of playing cards, in any outside paper duly sealed, the same having been once used, and every person who shall sell, or expose to sale any playing cards, the same not being then duly stamped, and inclosed in paper and thread, as by 10 A. c. 19. s. 162. pl. 351. directed, shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, and shall go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, who shall have his costs allowed him, 6 G. 1. c. 21. s. 55. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. Div. V. pl. 123.]

358. All card makers at the time of entering any parcel of playing cards, shall enter into a bond to H. M., with sufficient surety, in a penal sum of treble the duties on such cards, with condition for the payment of such duties within 6 weeks after the date of such bond, 6 G. 1. c. 21. s. 57.

359. If the commissioners of stamps suspect that any person makes playing cards or dice, in any house or place in G. B., without sending notice in writing to them, and affidavit being made thereof by the person giving the information before one justice, declaring the grounds of his suspicion, then any of the stamp officers in the day time, and in the presence of a constable, or other peace officer, (who shall assist therein,) by warrant from such justice, may direct to such officers, to break open the door or any part of such house or place so suspected, and enter therein, and seize all such cards, dice, tools, or materials there found, and detain the same in such house or place, as such commissioners shall appoint; and in case the same shall not within 5 days after such seizure be claimed and replevied, then they shall be absolutely forfeited, and may be sold; one moiety of the produce (all charges being first deducted) shall go to H. M., and the other to the party discovering the same, id. s. 59. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 27. Div. V. pl. 124.]

360. If any person shall counterfeit, or forge any seal, stamp, or mark, to resemble the seal, &c. used for denoting the duties on cards and dice, or shall counterfeit, or resemble the impression of the same on any cards or dice, or any thread, or paper inclosing any pack of cards, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter or vend any cards or dice with such counterfeit seal, &c. knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately and fraudulently use any seal, &c. hereby directed to be used, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall cause, or procure to be forged, &c. any seal, &c. to resemble any such seal, &c. as aforesaid, or shall cause, &c. any card or dice, or any thread or paper, inclosing any pack of cards, to be sealed, &c. with any such counterfeit seal, &c. or shall in like manner forge, or counterfeit, or cause, or procure to be forged, &c. any seal, &c. to resemble any seal, &c. by 10 A. c. 19. s. 163. pl. 352. directed to be impressed on the painted side of one card of each pack, or shall utter, vend, or expose to sale any card, with such counterfeit seal, &c. knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately and fraudulently use any seal, &c. used for sealing, &c. the painted side of any card, with intent to defraud H. M. shall on conviction be adjudged a felon, and suffer death without clergy, 29 G. 2. c. 13. s. 5. [See 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 16. pl. 385., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. Div. VI. pl. 132.]

361. All playing cards in G. B. intended for exportation, shall before they are packed up, be inclosed in paper and thread in packs as the commissioners of stamps shall direct, and one card of each pack intended for exportation, or so many cards as the commissioners think fit, shall also be stamped on the painted side as such commissioners direct; and every person who shall utter, vend or expose to sale to be used in G. B., or shall permit to be used in any public gaming house any playing cards so stamped as for exportation shall forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered and distributed as any other penalty, under any act relating to cards and dice may be, id. s. 6.

362. No bond entered into for exporting cards and dice under 10 A. c. 19. s. 170. pl. 355. shall be vacated unless and until proof is made that such cards or dice have been entered and shipped as such, and not as stationary, and unless and until a certificate thereof signed by the proper custom officer is produced, which certificate shall be given without fee, the 5 G. 1. c. 19. s. 48. [which see REP. 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 8.] notwithstanding, id. s. 7.

363. Every person who shall buy or sell any covers or labels which have been before used to denote the duties on cards, in order to be used for inclosing any cards, such person shall forfeit 20*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing for the same, id. s. 8. [But see as to the penalty, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. 27. Div. V. pl. 123, 124.]

354. If either the buyer or seller of any such cover shall inform against the other, the party informing shall be admitted evidence, and be indemnified against the penalties by him incurred, 29 G. 2. c. 13. s. 9.

355. If any maker of playing cards or other persons, shall sell or dispose of any cards, commonly called waste cards, unless he shall before such sale mark each painted card in such manner as to prevent their being used in play, such person shall forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered and distributed as in s. 8. pl. 363., id. s. 10.

356. If any person shall sell or dispose of any cards by way of second-hand cards in packs or parcels after the wrapper or cover has been broke open, unless he shall before such sale, mark the back or plain side of every painted or pictured card, so as to render them unfit for play, such person shall forfeit 5*l.* for each pack so sold, to be recovered as by 29 G. 2. c. 13. s. 8., pl. 363. directed, 16 G. 3. c. 34. s. 17.

357. In all actions for any thing done under this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if the plaintiff shall discontinue, or is nonsuited, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, 29 G. 2. c. 13. s. 11.

358. Makers of playing cards in G. B. shall send to the commissioners of stamps or their officers, a sufficient quantity of paper to have aces of spades impressed thereon; and no pack of playing cards made for play in G. B. or for exportation shall be used in play or exported, without one of such aces impressed as herein directed; and such commissioners shall instead of that now used, prepare a new stamp with such device as they think proper to denote such ace, as well in each pack of cards made for play in G. B. as for exportation, so as in such device there shall be some distinguishing mark between cards for home, and cards for foreign consumption, and such commissioners may alter and renew such device as they think fit, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 9.

359. All card makers shall send to the commissioners of stamps or their officers, jews or wrappers made for inclosing cards used for play in G. B. with his name, and any other thing directed by such commissioners printed thereon in order to be stamped and redelivered as the maker requires; and such commissioners shall denote one of the 6*d.* duties charged on playing cards on such wrapper, id. s. 10.

370. Distinct accounts shall be kept by the proper officer of stamps, with all card makers of cards made for use in G. B. and of those for exportation, and the charges thereof shall be made out against him from the number of aces of spades, labels and wrappers delivered; and such card makers shall once in 28 days attend at the stamp office or on the distributor nearest to them and settle and sign the same, and in case of dispute the commissioners shall on application made within one week, or in cases when the distance shall exceed 10 miles from London, within 20 days, finally settle the same, and if such card makers shall neglect so to apply, then such accounts whether signed or not, shall be deemed conclusive, and be admitted evidence against them, id. s. 11.

371. In case any pack of playing cards or part thereof is damaged, defaced or spoiled in making the same, then on oath made thereof by the maker (which oath 3 of such commissioners may administer) he shall be allowed another ace of spades instead of that so damaged on delivering to such commissioners such damaged, &c. ace, id. s. 12.

372. If any card maker shall use in making up any cards any ace of spades jew or wrapper that has been used before, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 13.

373. If any person shall sell or buy any such ace of spades, jew or wrapper, in order to use the same in, about or for inclosing any pack of cards, such person shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 14.

374. If either the buyer or seller of such ace, jew or wrapper, will inform against the other party concerned, he shall be admitted evidence, and be indemnified for all penalties so by him incurred, id. s. 15.

375. If any person shall fraudulently reland any parcel of cards after the same have been entered and shipped for exportation, in any place other than the port of consignment, such person shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 16.

376. If any person concerned in such relanding, shall inform against any other party concerned therein, he shall be admitted evidence, and be indemnified against all penalties so by him incurred, id. s. 17.

377. All penalties hereby imposed, and not hereinbefore disposed of, shall go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing in any court of record, with costs, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 41.

378. The commissioners of stamps shall cause all dice brought to the head stamp office to be stamped, to be wrapped and inclosed after being stamped in a paper wrapper duly stamped and fastened with a thread or seal; and they shall when required by the maker of any dice provide an additional stamp containing the name of such maker, or other mark to distinguish such maker, and cause the same to be printed on or affixed to the wrapper of such dice, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 4.

379. No playing cards or dice shall be exported to parts beyond the seas out of G. B. without being duly stamped until 10 days after notice shall be given at the head stamp office by the makers thereof, of the quantity to be exported, and of the port or place from whence they are to be exported, and of the port, &c., where they are to be carried, nor unless a certificate under the hand of the proper officer appointed by the commissioners of stamps, expressing the matters required in such notice, and also certifying that bond has been given according to this act for the exportation thereof, be delivered to the custom officer, which certificate shall be given without fee; nor shall any cards or dice be laden or put on board of any ship but in the presence of the proper custom officer according to the laws in force for exporting non-enumerated goods from G. B., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 86. s. 5.

380. Any maker of cards or dice may remove the same from the place where made without payment of duties, provided the same be duly stamped for exportation, and provided that a bond has been previously entered into to H. M. with sufficient surety to be approved by the commissioners of stamps or their officer, in treble the amount of duty payable on such cards or dice respectively, if the same had been made for use in G. B., with condition to export such cards or dice beyond seas within a time limited in such bond, and to land the same (the dangers of the seas excepted) in some foreign port mentioned in such bond, and which shall be the same port mentioned in the certificate of the stamp officer, as in s. 5. pl. 379. and not to land or put any of the same on board any other vessel, either in any port in G. B. or elsewhere, or at open sea, and that the same shall not be relanded in any part of G. B.; which bond shall be lodged with the commissioners of stamps or their officers, and may be prosecuted for any breach according to any stamp law now in force, id. s. 6. [See 10 A. c. 19. s. 170. pl. 355.]

381. Such bond so given as in s. 6. pl. 380. shall be discharged as follows; viz. for such cards or dice as shall be entered to be landed in Ire. the condition of the bond shall be to bring a certificate in discharge thereof within 6 months from the date of the bond; and 12 months for such cards or dice as shall be entered for or landed in any other place in Europe; 18 months for H. M.'s plantations in America or Africa or the United States of America; and 24 months for places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, and such certificate shall be signed by the proper officer of H. M.'s customs at the port where landed; and if no such officer, then by the British consul or other person acting as such there, importing that such cards and dice were there landed, and testifying the landing thereof, and if no such officer, consul or other such person, such certificate shall be under the common seal of the chief magistrate of the place or under the hands and seals of two known British merchants being at such port, or such bond shall be discharged by proof in either of such cases, that such cards were taken by enemies or perished in the sea or by fire, such proof being left to the discretion of the commissioners of stamps, id. s. 7.

382. The 5 G. 1. c. 19. s. 48., for limiting the time for putting in suit of such exportation bonds shall be Rep., id. s. 8.

383. All playing cards and dice made for sale in G. B. exported contrary to this act, or which shall be relanded after entry for exportation, or which after such entry shall be found in any place, not being an entered place for making the same, or which shall be found removing from place to place in G. B. without being duly stamped, except for exportation under this act, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any excise or custom officer, and be proceeded on to condemnation as any non-enumerated goods forfeited and seized may be by the excise or custom laws, id. s. 9.

384. No playing cards or dice shall be sold or exposed to sale in G. B. unless duly stamped, and unless one of the cards in each pack shall be actually stamped on the spotted or printed side with the stamp provided for such purpose by the commissioners of stamps, and unless the thread or paper or wrapper inclosing such cards or dice shall be sealed, stamped or fastened according to law; upon pain that every person who shall sell or expose to sale any such cards or dice which have not been so stamped, wrapped, inclosed or fastened, shall forfeit for each pack and every one of such dice 10*l.* with full costs, to be recovered and distributed as any other penalty relating to the duties on cards and dice may be, id. s. 10. [See 10 A. c. 19. s. 162. pl. 351., 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 9. pl. 368.]

385. Every person who shall counterfeit or forge, or cause, &c. to be forged, &c. any stamp directed to be used under this act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the impression of the same, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter, vend or sell any vellum, &c. liable to any stamp duty hereby imposed, with such counterfeit stamp thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately use any stamp directed to be used under this act with intent to defraud H. M., or shall counterfeit, or forge, or cause, &c. to be forged, &c. any mark or name provided by the commissioners under this act for inclosing any dice, or making any part of or being affixed to any such wrapper, such person shall on conviction suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 16. [See 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7., and 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. Div. VI. pl. 132.]

386. Actions under this act limited to 6 months, shall be laid in the proper county, general issue, and treble costs, id. s. 20. [See the section at length STAMPS, Div. VII. pl. 136.]

CHARTER-PARTY.

387. The duties imposed by 12 A. St. 2. c. 9. and 30 G. 2. c. 19. shall extend to policies of insurance or charter-parties made in G. B., 5 G. 3. c. 35. s. 10. [For the present duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Charter-party.]

388. Every deed, instrument, note, memorandum, letter, or other muniment or writing, between the captain or master or owner of any vessel, and any merchant, trader, or other person in respect of the freight or conveyance of any money, goods, or effects laden on board of any vessel, shall be deemed a charter-party, id. s. 11.

CONVEYANCERS AND PLEADERS.

389. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL, FOR ANY FEE OR gain, draw or prepare, any conveyance of, or deed relating to, any real or personal estate, or any proceedings in law or equity, other than and except serjeants at law, barristers, solicitors, attorneys, notaries, proctors, agents, or procurators, having obtained regular certificates and special pleaders, draftsmen in equity, and conveyancers, being members of the 4 inns of court, and having taken out the certificates mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, at the head stamp-office in London, and other than and except persons solely employed to engross any deed or instrument or other proceedings not drawn or purchased by themselves, and except public officers preparing official instruments in the course of their duty, shall forfeit 50*l.*; but nothing herein, shall prevent any person drawing or preparing any will or other testamentary papers, or any agreement not under seal, or any letter of attorney, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 14. [For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Certificate.]

CONVEYANCES, DEEDS, &c.

390. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE ad valorem duties on conveyances, deeds, &c., 48 G. 3. c. 149. ss. 22—28. [AMD. as to the exemptions of certain leases and tacks, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 17. further AMD. 55 G. 3. c. 108. ss. 5—10., 55 G. 3. c. 184. ss. 30, 31.] [This title is framed. For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Conveyance, and the rules, &c. there set forth.]

391. In all cases of the sale of lands, tenements, rents, annuities, or other property real or personal, heretable or moveable, or of any right, title, interest, or claim in, to, or out of, or upon any lands, &c. or other property where an ad valorem duty is imposed on the conveyance thereof the full consideration paid or agreed to be paid for the same, shall be truly expressed in words at length in the principal deed or instrument, whereby the land or thing sold, is conveyed to, &c. or vested in the purchaser, or any other person by his direction; and also where, on the sale of any annuity, easement, servitude, or other right not before in existence, the same shall not be created by actual grant or conveyance, but shall only be secured by bond, warrant of attorney, covenant, contract, or other security, the full consideration paid or agreed to be paid for the same shall be truly set forth in words at length, in the instrument by which the same is secured, and if in any of such cases the same is not truly set forth as hereby directed, the purchaser and seller shall forfeit 50*l.* and be charged with 5 times the amount of the excess of duty due beyond what was actually paid, which quintuple duty shall be a debt to H. M., and be recovered accordingly, 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 22.

392. If either of the parties hereby made liable to the payment of such penalty and quintuple duty, shall give information to the commissioners of stamps, whereby such penalty or quintuple duty, or part thereof, shall be recovered from any other party liable thereto, he shall not only be indemnified from his liability, but shall also be rewarded by such commissioners, out of such penalty or quintuple duty so recovered at their discretion, but not exceeding one half of what shall be so recovered; and where any other person shall give such information, he shall be rewarded in like manner, id. s. 23.

393. Where the full consideration is not truly expressed, the purchaser or his executor or administrator, may recover back from the seller, or his executors or administrators, so much of the consideration as is not expressed as aforesaid, or the whole thereof, if no part of the same is so expressed, either by action for money had and received for the use of the party suing, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, or by ordinary action or summary complaint in the court of session, or in the sheriff or steward court of the shire, &c. when the person sued shall reside in Scotland, together with double costs of suit, id. s. 24.

394. If any attorney, solicitor, writer to the signet, or other person who is employed in preparing any such deed, bond, or instrument in which the full consideration is hereby required to be truly expressed, or who is employed for any of the parties thereto, in anywise about or relating to the transaction therein mentioned, shall knowingly insert in any such deed, &c. any other than the full consideration paid or agreed to be paid, or shall in anywise assist therein, such attorneys, &c. and persons so offending, shall forfeit 500*l.*, and such attorneys, solicitors, and writer to the signet, so offending, shall, on conviction, be disabled to practice as such, and any other person being entitled or entrusted to prepare any such deed, in virtue of his office, and being guilty of such offence, shall, on conviction, lose his office, and be incapable henceforward to hold the same, 42 G. 3. c. 149. s. 257.

395. No party, attorney, solicitor, writer to the signet, or other person, shall be liable to any penalty, by reason of the full consideration not being truly expressed in any deed, bond, &c. unless the duty actually paid for the same is less than would have been payable, in case the full consideration had been truly expressed according to this act, id. s. 26.

396. Where, on the sale of any estate of inheritance or freehold in any lands or hereditaments in Eng., the same are conveyed by bargain and sale inrolled, and also by lease and release, or feoffment, the commissioners of stamps shall, on production of both conveyances, and on proof that the full consideration money is truly expressed therein, as hereby directed, and on its appearing that the release or feoffment is stamped with the ad valorem duty, and that the bargain and sale as stamped with the ordinary duty, may cause the deed of bargain and sale to be also stamped with some particular stamp for testifying the payment of the said ad valorem duty on the release or feoffment; and also where, on the sale of any such estate of inheritance or freehold, the same is conveyed by lease and release, and also by feoffment, the commissioners of stamps shall, on production of both conveyances, and a proof that the consideration has been truly expressed therein, in manner aforesaid, and on its appearing that the release is stamped with the ad valorem duty, and the feoffment, with the ordinary duty, may cause such feoffment to be also stamped, so as to testify the payment of the ad valorem duty on the release, and thereupon the bargain and sale in the former case, and the feoffment in the latter, shall be as available in law, as if the same had been stamped with the ad valorem duty itself; but until the same is so stamped, it shall not be given in evidence, or be in any way available, id. s. 27.

397. If any officer of the courts at Westminster, or any clerk of the peace or other person entrusted to enrol deeds of bargain and sale of estates of freehold in Eng., shall enrol any deed of bargain and sale, whereby any freehold lands or hereditaments is conveyed to any purchaser or other person by his direction, unless such deed of bargain and sale is stamped with the proper ad valorem duty on conveyances upon the sale of lands or other property, according to the amount of the purchase-money therein expressed, or some particular stamp, as in s. 27., pl. 396., to testify the payment of the ad valorem duty on a deed of release or feoffment of the same lands or hereditaments, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 28.

398. Where any instrument operating as a conveyance on the sale of any property, shall also operate as a conveyance of any other than the property sold, by way of settlement, or for any other purpose, or shall also contain any matter, besides what shall be incident to the conveyance of the property sold, such instrument, in addition to the duty it shall be liable to, as a conveyance on the sale of property, and to any progressive duty to which it may also be liable [shall be charged, omitted in the act], with such further duty as any separate deed containing the other matters would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty; but all instruments of this description, made before this act passed, shall be deemed duly stamped, although such further duty has not been paid, 55 G. 3. c. 108. s. 5.

399. Where any lands or other property, separately contracted to be purchased of different persons, shall be conveyed to the purchaser, or according to the purchaser's direction, by one instrument, such instrument shall be charged with the ad valorem duties imposed by 48 G. 3. c. 149. [now 55 G. 3. c. 184.], on conveyances on the sale of property, for and in respect of the separate prices paid or agreed to be paid for such lands or property, and not in respect of the aggregate amount thereof; but all instruments of this description, made before this act passed, shall be deemed duly stamped and valid, whether the duty has been paid according to the separate prices, or the aggregate amount of the purchase-moneys, id. s. 6.

400. Where the equity of redemption, or reversion of any lands or other property in mortgage or wadset, or standing pledged, or charged with the payment of any money, shall be conveyed to the benefit of, or according to the direction of the persons entitled to the money charged thereon, either in consideration of the money due, or in consideration of that and of any further sum paid or agreed to be paid, the conveyance thereof shall be deemed a conveyance on the sale of property, and the money due shall be deemed the purchase-money, or part thereof, as the case may be, for the same, and the conveyance liable to the ad valorem duty accordingly; but all conveyances of this kind, made before the passing of this act, shall be deemed duly stamped, though such ad valorem duty has not been paid thereon, id. s. 7.

401. Where there shall be duplicates or triplicates made, of any instrument, by 48 G. 3. c. 149. [now 55 G. 3. c. 184.] charged with the ad valorem duty thereby imposed on mortgages or on conveyances on the sale of lands or other property, one of such duplicates or triplicates only shall be charged with such ad valorem duty, and the others shall be exempted therefrom, but shall nevertheless be charged with the ordinary duty on conveyances and deeds in general; and the commissioners of stamps, upon the whole being produced to them duly stamped, shall cause the latter to be also stamped so as to testify the payment of such ad valorem duty, 53 G.3. c.108. s.8.

403. Where there are several deeds or instruments for effecting the conveyance of any property upon the sale thereof, and a doubt shall arise which is the principal instrument chargeable with the ad valorem duties in cases not expressly provided for by the 48 G.3. c.149., [now 55 G.3. c.184.] the parties concerned, may determine for themselves, which shall be the principal instrument, and upon all such instruments being produced, and appearing to be duly stamped, the commissioners of stamps may stamp those not stamped with the ad valorem duty, with some other stamp to testify the payment of the ad valorem duty, id. s.9.

405. In cases where instruments by the 48 G.3. c.149. [now 55 G.3. c.184.] are exempted from the ad valorem duty on mortgages, on the ground of being made in pursuance of any agreement, contract, or bond thereby charged with, and which has actually paid such ad valorem duty, the commissioners of stamps, where it is necessary for the sake of evidence, may cause such exempted instruments to be also stamped, so as to testify the payment of such ad valorem duty, provided such instruments have paid the other duties to which they are liable, and be produced duly stamped accordingly, id. s.10.

404. Any conveyances to be made after 31st Aug. 1815, of lands or other property contracted to be sold prior to the 12th April 1808, which, under the regulations of the 48 G.3. c.149., would have been exempt from the ad valorem duty thereby granted, shall be exempt from the ad valorem duty hereby granted, and be charged with the ordinary duty of 1*l.* 1*s.* in lieu thereof, together with the progressive duty of 1*l.* 5*s.* if any such duty is chargeable, but subject to the regulations of the said act, 55 G.3. c.184. s.30.

405. The releases and other conveyances of annuities and rent-charges made in the original grant thereof, subject to be redeemed or repurchased, shall, on the re-purchase thereof, be exempted from the ad valorem duty hereby imposed on conveyances on the sale of property, and shall be charged only with the ordinary duty on instruments of the like kind not on sale, id. s.31.

406. All leases and tacks of lands, hereditaments, and heritable subjects, not exceeding the term or interest specified in the exemption in 48 G.3. c.149. Sch. [Qu. now in 53 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Lease.] contained, granted in pursuance of a previous contract, to any other than the person with whom such contract was made, or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall be deemed within scope of such exemption, if made prior to 1st Aug. 1810, and after time, shall not 50 G.3. c.35. s.17.

COPYHOLDS.

407. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE DUTIES ON surrenders of and admittances to copyhold tenements and grants, and leases by copy of court roll, 12 A. St.1. c.2. s.48. [AMD. 5 G.3. c.46. s.7., 6 G.3. c.40. s.34., 37 G.3. c.90. ss.11—13., 38 G.3. c.85. s.1. (These last two REP. 44 G.3. c.98. s.25.) 48 G.3. c.149. s.30—32., 53 G.3. c.108. s.4. This title is also framed. For the duties, see 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Copyhold; and see the rules, &c. there.]

407.(a) No copies of any surrender, or admittances to any custom right or tenant right estate, not being copyholds, ought to be stamped, 12 A. St.1. c.2. s.48. [But now charged, 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Copyhold.]

408. If any steward or other officer of any copyhold court shall demand or take any fee for any surrender of or admittance to any copyhold land or tenement within Eng., Wa., or Ber., or for any grant or lease by copy of court roll, or any other copy of any court roll, without taking the stamp duty due, on delivering the surrender, &c. to the person entitled, he shall forfeit 1*l.*, 5 G.3. c.46. s.7.

409. The intention of 5 G.3. c.46. s.7. and the time thereby meant for delivering the copy of such surrender, admittance, grant, or lease, was, as soon as it could be properly prepared, after receiving the fees and duty thereon, and not at the time, or immediately on receiving the same, 6 G.3. c.40. s.3.

410. Every such steward or other officer of any copyhold court, shall deliver the copy of such surrender, &c. to the person entitled thereto, or the person authorized to receive the same, and if no such person, then to the bailiff of the manor, for the use of such person within one year from holding such court; and shall not incur the penalty by 5 G.3. c.46. s.7. inflicted till the expiration of one year from the day of holding such court, id. s.4. [But see 48 G.3. c.149. s.33., pl.415.]

411. Distinct stamp duties for surrender of copyhold tenements required. Penalty on steward of the manor and officer receiving duties, 37 G.3. c.90. ss.11—13. Distinct duties not to be so required, except in certain cases, 38 G.3. c.85. s.1. [REP. 44 G.3. c.98. s.25.]

render proposed is upon a sale or not; and in the former case, specifying the amount of the consideration, to the intent that the same may be set forth in words at length, in or on the copy of the court roll to be afterwards made out of such surrender pursuant to this act, and until such note is delivered, the lord or lady, or steward of the manor or honour, shall not accept the proposed surrender, on pain to forfeit 5*l.*; and if in such former case, such steward shall neglect to insert such consideration in the copy of court roll to be afterwards made out of such surrender in words at length, he shall forfeit 5*l.*; and if upon the sale of such lands, &c. any person shall, in such note, state the proposed surrender to be not on sale, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, 48 G.3. c.149. s.30.

413. Where any copyhold or customary lands or hereditaments are intended to be conveyed to any person (either upon sale or mortgage thereof or otherwise,) by a surrender made out of court, or by a deed of bargain and sale, or other deed by commissioners named in a commission of bankrupt, or by executors or others, by virtue of a power given by will or act of parliament; the lord or lady, or steward of the manor or honour, whereof such lands or hereditaments are parcel or holden, shall not inrol any such surrender or deed, or accept any presentment thereof, or admit any person to be tenant of such lands or hereditaments under the same, unless such deed or surrender, or the memorandum thereof, is duly stamped with the duty hereby charged thereon respectively, on pain to forfeit 5*l.*, id. s.31.

414. If any lord or lady, or steward of any manor or honour, shall accept any surrender, or admit any person tenant of any copyhold or customary lands or hereditaments out of court, or make any voluntary grant of such lands, &c. out of court, or grant any licence to demise any such lands, &c. out of court, without causing some memorandum thereof to be put in writing on duly stamped vellum, &c. he shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s.32.

415. In all cases of surrenders, admittances, and voluntary grants, of or to any copyhold or customary lands or hereditaments; and in all cases of licences to demise such lands, &c. which shall be taken in court, the steward of the manor or honour shall make out a copy of court roll of every such surrender, &c. on stamped vellum, &c. within 4 calendar months after such surrender, &c. is made, and shall deliver the same to the party entitled thereto, when the same is called for after such 4 months; and if the same is not called for, the steward shall deliver it to the bailiff of the honour or manor, or to the crier of the court, or some copyhold or customary tenant of the manor, &c. to the use of the party entitled to it at the next general court holden for such manor or honour, and if such steward shall neglect to make and deliver such copies of court roll in the manner and within the time aforesaid, he shall forfeit 5*l.* for each surrender, &c. in which such neglect takes place; and the stamp duty payable for such copy of court roll shall be a debt to H. M., of the steward so neglecting, whether he has received the duty or not; and if he has not received the duty, the same shall be also a debt to H. M. from the party entitled to such copy of court roll; and such steward shall make out and deliver such copy, without fee, and if any fees have been previously paid, the same shall be deemed to be paid without consideration, and the party who paid them, or his executors or administrators, may recover them back by action for money had and received with full costs, id. s.33. [See ante, 6 G.3. c.40. s.4. pl.410.]

416. The steward of any manor or honour, previously to accepting any surrender, or granting or making any admittance, voluntary grant, or licence to demise in court, may demand the payment of his lawful fees for the same, and for the copy of court roll to be made out thereof, together with the stamp duty payable on such copy; and in case of nonpayment of such fees and duty, the lord or lady, or steward of the manor may refuse to accept such surrender, or grant such admittance or licence, or make such voluntary grant, until they are paid, id. s.34.

417. Copies of court roll made subsequent to 10th Oct. 1808, of surrenders made in court prior to that day, upon mortgage or sale of copyhold or customary estates, shall not be deemed to be charged with the ad valorem duties imposed by 48 G.3. c.149. under the head of mortgage or of conveyance upon sale of lands, 53 G.3. c.108. s.4.

INSURANCES, SEA AND FIRE.

418. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE DUTIES ON SEA AND FIRE policies, 10 A. c.26. ss.68—75., 23 G.3. c.58. s.3. [This title is also framed.]

419. All deeds, instruments, and writings for the payment of any sum upon the loss of any ship or goods, or any loss by fire, or for any other purpose for which any writing called a policy of assurance or insurance is usually made, shall be deemed policies of assurance within this act, 10 A. c.26. s.68.

420. All vellum, &c. upon which any policy shall be written, shall, before any name, or any particular day, time, or sum is inserted therein, be brought to the head stamp office to be stamped; and the commissioners, or their officers shall stamp any quantities on payment of the duties, without any fee; and the stamp put thereon shall be a good discharge for the duty, id. s.70.

421. Every person who shall write, or cause to be written the name of any person, or any day, time, or sum in or upon any policy, deed, instrument, or writing, as in s. 68. pl. 419. or sign, seal, execute or subscribe the same before the same is stamped, shall forfeit 5l., one moiety to H. M., and the other to the person suing, by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c.; and if any such policy is signed, &c. upon vellum, &c. not stamped, then there shall be paid to H. M. besides such duties 5l. for each policy; and no such policy shall be available in law or equity, or given in evidence, or admitted in any court until such duty and such 5l. is first paid, and a receipt produced for the same under the hand of the receiver-general of stamp duties, or his deputy, and until the same is stamped; and such receiver, or his deputy shall, on payment or tender of such duty and 5l. give such receipt, and the proper officer shall stamp the policy, 10 A. c. 26. s. 71. [See commissioners prohibited stamping sea insurances after written, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14. pl. 474. and see as to spoiled stamps, 54 G. 3. c. 133. pl. 486.]

422. Nothing herein shall make liable any label, slip, or memorandums, containing the heads of any insurance to be made by the corporations of the Royal Exchange Assurance, or London Assurance, or of the Royal Exchange Assurance of Houses and Goods from Fire, and London Assurance of Houses, &c. to the payment of any duty hereby charged on contracts or agreements, 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 3. [See 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 15. post, pl. 475. s. 18. pl. 478.]

INSURANCE, FIRE.

423. FOR CHARGING A DUTY ON PERSONS WHOSE PROPERTY IS insured from loss by fire, and for better collecting the same, 17 G. 3. c. 50. s. 24. 22 G. 3. c. 48. [AMD. as to insurances in West Indies, 50 G. 3. c. 35. ss. 1—10. The law further AMD., 38 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 10. s. 2., 55 G. 3. c. 184. ss. 32—36. For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. sched., Part I. tit. Policy.]

424. Every person who shall sign, seal, execute, or subscribe any policy of insurance, or other deed or instrument in writing, whereby houses and goods shall be insured from loss by fire to the amount of 1000l. before the same shall appear to be stamped, shall forfeit 10l., one moiety to H. M., and the other with full costs to the person suing for the same, in any court of record; and if such policy shall be so signed, &c. upon vellum, &c. not duly stamped, then there shall be paid, besides such duties, 5l.; and such policy shall not be available in law or equity, or given in evidence, unless such duty and such 5l. is first paid, and a receipt produced for the same under the hand of the receiver-general, and until such policy is stamped; and such receiver shall, upon payment or tender of such duty and such 5l., give a receipt for the same, and the proper officer shall stamp the matter required, 17 G. 3. c. 50. s. 24.

425. Nothing herein contained shall extend to charge any public hospital to the payment of the duty laid on by this act, 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 2. [See similar exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch., Part I. tit. Policy.]

426. No person shall publicly or privately insure, or keep any office for insuring houses, or any property from fire in G. B. without first taking out a licence from the commissioners for the stamp duties, 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 4.

427. Any person in G. B. may insure houses, goods, or other property in the West Indies, or elsewhere, beyond seas, in any place under the dominion of H. M. against fire, without taking out a licence under 22 G. 3. c. 48. and without being liable to the yearly duty by 44 G. 3. c. 98. imposed under the regulations hereby imposed, 50 G. 3. c. 35. s. 1.

427. (a) A duty imposed instead of such yearly duty, id. s. 2. [REPE. 55 G. 3. c. 184. and a new duty granted.] No such insurance shall be made by any person not so licensed for a longer period than 12 calendar months, either absolutely or conditionally, in any one policy, and any policy made or attempted to be made for a longer period, shall be void, and the party making it shall forfeit 50l., id. s. 3.

428. If any such policy of insurance, (viz. of houses and goods in the West Indies from fire), shall be underwritten by any person for part only of the sum thereby insured, and for which the same was stamped, so that a greater duty is paid than is hereby required, or if it is underwritten inadvertently for a greater sum than that for which stamped, whereby it is in law unavailable; and if in either case the insured shall procure another policy duly stamped to be underwritten for the same risk and sum, and shall produce the same to the commissioners of stamps within one calendar month after the last subscription on the first policy, and if in the latter case it is proved that such underwriting for a greater sum was made through mistake, such commissioners may allow as spoiled and cancel the stamps on the first policy, and give other stamps of the same description and value, or otherwise at their discretion, and where expedient stamps of any other description, and of equal value in lieu, id. s. 8.

429. Nothing herein shall exclude the Royal Exchange and London Assurance from assuring houses, or other property from fire, as they now do, without taking out any licence, 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 5.

430. The commissioners for stamp duties shall, under their hands and seals, grant a licence for insuring houses, &c. to all persons applying for the same; which licence shall set forth the names and other description of the persons, and also the principal place where such business of insuring houses, &c. shall be principally carried on, id. s. 6.

431. All persons who shall insure, or keep any office for insuring houses, &c. from fire, without such licence, or in any place, except the place named in the licence, or such other places as shall be subordinate thereto, and be kept by some agents to persons having such licence, or in any other manner contrary to such licence, or this act, shall forfeit for every day in which such offence shall be committed, 50l. and also double the amount of the premiums of insurance which such persons shall receive on any such day, 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 7.

432. All persons to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, at receiving such licence, give security with sureties, to be approved of by the commissioners of stamps, by bond to H. M. in such sum as the commissioners think reasonable, so as the same do not exceed the probable amount of the duty payable by such persons for half a year; with condition, that if such persons make out, sign, and deliver an account of all money received for the duty, and make payment of all money payable in pursuance of this act; and also observe all directions herein, such bond shall be void, but otherwise to be in force, id. s. 8.

433. Every licence taken out under this act shall have force only for one year; but if a licence be granted to 2 or more, and any of them die, it shall continue until expiration in favour of the survivors, id. s. 9.

434. Where such business of insuring is carried on by companies not incorporate, or by a greater number of partners than 4, the licence granted by the commissioners shall be granted to two of such company for the whole; and in such case the licence shall continue in force until the end of one year, notwithstanding the deaths of all the persons to whom such licence shall be granted, id. s. 10.

435. All persons so to be licensed who shall grant any policy for insuring property from fire, or shall continue to insure, shall by themselves, or persons employed by them, previously to the granting or continuing such policy, receive from the person whose property is insured, and give a receipt for the same the duty payable for one year on such policy, from the date thereof; and in default of receiving such year's duty, such person so granting such policy shall be accountable to H. M. for such year's duty, as if the same had been received, id. s. 11.

436. The persons entitled to the benefit of such policy, shall, at the end of the year for which such policy shall be granted, or within 15 days thereafter, and so at the end of every subsequent year, pay to the insurer one year's duty; and such insurer shall, on such payment, give a receipt for the duty to the person paying the same; and in case of default of payment of such duty, the policy shall, as to the insured, be void, id. s. 12.

437. In case of insurance for less than a year, the insured shall pay only so much of the yearly duty as shall bear a proportion to the part of the year for which such policy is given, id. s. 14.

438. In case of any policy for one or more years, and part of a year, the insured shall, as to such part of a year, only be liable to so much of the duty as shall bear a proportion to such part of a year; if the insured shall, on the first payment of the duty, pay as well the proportion of the duty for such part of a year, as the whole of the first year's duty; except a fraction less than a penny, which shall not be accounted for, id. s. 15.

439. In case of taking out a new policy before the expiration of an old one, for insuring a greater or different sum, the same proportionable abatement which shall accrue on the new policy, shall be made, as the insurer shall make in respect of the premium, id. s. 16.

440. All insurers against fire, may take by one payment the duty hereby imposed for the whole of the term for which the policy is granted, if the person insured shall so desire; and in consideration of such prompt payment of the duty as by this act would not be payable till a future time, and in such case, such insurer may make the same abatement of the duty as the insurer shall make, in consideration of receiving the premium for the whole term of insurance by one payment, id. s. 18. [The per centage duties to be paid at once, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 32. pl. 451.]

441. Where the property of a person insured for a term shall cease before the expiration of the term, the commissioners of stamps shall, upon proof of the truth of the fact, pay back to the person appointed to receive the tax, so much of the duty as shall appear to have been paid for the unexpired term of the insurance, id. s. 19.

442. All persons who shall obtain a licence for any office of insurance under this act, shall keep a true account in writing, in which shall be inserted the number of the policy, the name of the person insuring, with his abode, the sum insured, and the time for which the same is insured; and also the day of the month and year in which such policy shall be issued; which account shall be open for the inspection of any person authorized under the hands and seals of the commissioners for stamps, id. s. 20.

443. All persons who shall have any licence for an insurance office within London or Westminster, or within 5 miles of either of them, whether the licence shall or shall not extend to any office out of such limits, shall, some time within 2 months after the 25th Dec., 25th March, 24th June, and 29th Sept. in every year, or at such other time after the expiration of the 2 months, as may be appointed by the commissioners, giving a previous public notice of 14 days in the London Gazette, deliver to such commissioners true copies of the accounts by s. 20. pl. 442, directed to be kept by them for the quarter completed, before such day of delivery or notice; and shall at the same time pay such sum as shall appear due on such accounts to the receiver-general of stamp duties, for the use of H. M. at the head office, upon pain to forfeit for not delivering such accounts 500*l.*, and for each default in paying the same double the amount due, 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 21. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 33. pl. 452.]

444. All insurance offices, bodies corporate, and persons who shall obtain any such licence as in s. 6. pl. 430, without such limits as in s. 21. pl. 443, without having any office within the same, shall within the like times, or at such other times as may be directed by the distributor or person authorized to receive the same duties, giving a previous notice of 14 days by advertisement in the London Gazette, or a newspaper circulated in his county, deliver to such distributor or person true copies of such accounts so directed to be kept for the quarter completed before such day of delivery or notice, and to pay to him all sums due on such accounts; on pain to forfeit for each default in not delivering such account, 200*l.* and in not paying the money due, double the amount thereof, id. s. 22. [See pl. 452.]

445. Such receiver-general and such head distributor or persons authorized by such commissioners to receive such stamp-duties, may make an allowance to the persons so to be licensed at the rate of 1*s.* in the pound out of the money to be by them regularly accounted for, id. s. 23. [See new allowances, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 36. pl. 455.]

446. Receivers of such duties shall not on that account be thereby disqualified from voting at any election for members to serve in parliament, id. s. 24.

447. All pecuniary penalties hereby imposed shall go one moiety to H. M. and the other, with full costs, to the person suing in the courts at Westminster for offences done in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or in the courts of session or exchequer in Scot. for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 25. [But see 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 123.]

448. Persons and corporations sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, the defendants shall have treble costs, id. s. 27.

449. Every policy made for insuring houses, furniture, goods, &c. or other property from loss by fire shall be exempt from the duties by 37 G. 3. c. 111. granted, 38 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3.

450. Duties hereby imposed shall not charge fire policies chargeable under the 22 G. 3. c. 48., nor any insurance made for insuring any events or contingencies relative to a life whereon the duty by the laws now in force imposed has been duly paid, 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 10. s. 2. [But see now 55 G. 3. c. 184. sch. Part I. tit. Policy.]

451. The per-centage duty on insurances against loss by fire granted by this act, shall be collected and received from the persons whose property is insured, for the use of H. M., by the public companies or other persons licensed, by the commissioners of stamps, pursuant to 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 6. pl. 430, and by the Royal Exchange and London Assurance corporations at the time of receiving the premium for the insurances in respect of which the duty is payable, and for the whole period for which the insurances is made; and such duty shall be accounted for and paid over as directed by 22 G. 3. c. 48.; and the Royal Exchange and London Assurance Corporations shall be subject to all the provisions, &c. of this and that act, as any other public companies, except only as to the taking out of a licence from such commissioners of stamps, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 32.

452. Every quarterly account to be delivered to the commissioners of stamps, or their officers, by the corporations or companies, or others insuring against fire, pursuant to the 22 G. 3. c. 48., shall contain a true account of all the policies and insurances issued and made or renewed or continued by them, whether for a year or for more or less than a year, from the first to the last day of the quarter (both inclusive) for which such account shall be rendered; together with the numbers and dates of the policies, the names and places of abode of the persons whose property is insured, the amount of the sums insured by each policy, the time for which each insurance made or renewed or continued, and the duty received for the same; and there shall be annexed to such account an affidavit or affirmation, made by the secretary, or if no secretary, by the chief clerk of the corporation or company, by whom delivered, stating that he has examined and checked the same with the books of such corporation or company, and that to the best of his knowledge it does contain a true and faithful account of the matters hereby required, and also of any allowances or returns of duty in respect of time unexpired on policies surrendered, which may be stated therein to be made under 22 G. 3. c. 48.; and corporations or companies or persons making any default in the delivery of such account with such affidavit, shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 33.

453. Any public company who shall use any other quarter-days than those mentioned in the 22 G. 3. c. 48. as the time of commencing or terminating their insurances, may make up their quarterly accounts to the quarter days used by them, and deliver the same to the commissioners of stamps or their officers within 2 calendar months after the expiration of the quarter for which made up, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 34.

454. All companies or persons having offices or carrying on the business of fire-insurance more than 5 miles from London or Westminster shall, if required by the commissioners of stamps, transmit their quarterly accounts, with such affidavits and affirmations thereto annexed, immediately to them at their head office, and pay the duties due thereon to the receiver-general of stamp duties, or in default thereof, shall be subject to the penalties imposed by 22 G. 3. c. 48. for non-delivery of accounts or non-payment of the duties due, id. s. 35.

455. An allowance shall be made to the corporations or companies, and others, collecting such duties on insurances against loss by fire, and accounting for, and paying over the same, as by 22 G. 3. c. 48. s. 23. pl. 445, required, viz. to those having their head office in London or Westminster, an allowance at the rate of 4*l.* per cent., and at the rate of 5*l.* per cent. on the amount of duties collected by their agents out of London or Westminster, and to those not having their head office in London or Westminster 5*l.* per cent.; provided they deliver their quarterly accounts, and make payment of such duties within the time in s. 33. pl. 452, of this act prescribed, id. s. 36.

INSURANCE, SEA.

456. WHEN ANY VESSEL, GOODS, &c. shall be insured, a policy duly stamped shall be issued within three days at furthest, and the insurer neglecting to make out such policy within such time shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be sued for, recovered, and divided as other stamp-forfeitures may be; and all promissory notes for insurances of ships or goods at, or going to sea, shall be void, 11 G. 1. c. 30. s. 44. [For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184., sch. Part I. tit. Policy.]

457. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON sea insurances in cases where more than one person's property is insured by the same policy, 5 G. 3. c. 46. ss. 3, 4. [AMD. 7 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 1, 2, 7., 8 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 4—6.]

458. If the properties of more than one person in any ship, cargo, or both, or of more than a particular number of persons in general partnership, or of more than one body politic or corporate to a greater amount in the whole than 100*l.* in any ship or cargo, or both, be assured on the same policy, such policy shall be void, and the premium, the property of the assurer, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3.

459. The properties of any number of persons in any ship or cargo, or both, to the amount of 1000*l.* in the whole, may be insured in any one policy duly stamped, and to any amount by one policy stamped with two stamps, and such policy shall be valid, the 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3. notwithstanding, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

460. If any risque or adventure distinct from that mentioned in the original policy, and upon which any further premium is given, shall be by any writing, not stamped, added to such original policy, such additional assurance shall be void, and the premium paid thereon remain the property of the assurer, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3., 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 2., 8 G. 3. c. 25. s. 6.

461. But the properties of any number of persons in any ship or cargo, or both, may be assured in one policy if stamped for each person, 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 4.

462. If any person is sued under this act for assuring the properties of any number of persons [or of one person, or any number of persons in partnership, or of one corporate body, 8 G. 3. c. 25. s. 5.] in any ship or cargo, or both, to a greater amount than 1000*l.* by a policy stamped with one stamp only, then the proof of the value so assured shall lie on party prosecuted, and not on the party prosecuting, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 7., 8 G. 3. c. 25. s. 5.

463. All policies of assurance by which the property of one person or of any particular number of persons in partnership, or of one body politic or corporate in any ship or cargo, or both, is assured to the amount of more than 1000*l.*, shall be stamped with two stamps, and such policies not so stamped shall be void, and the premium remain the property of the assurer, 8 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 2, 4.

464. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. certain stamp-duties on sea-insurances [and for better collecting the same], 35 G. 3. c. 63. [R&P. as to s. 2. and ss. 8. 10. by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. ss. 9, 10., 54 G. 3. c. 133. s. 1. AMD. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. ss. 8—12. which is R&P. as to ss. 9—11. by 54 G. 3. c. 133. s. 1. further AMD. 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 10. ss. 2—7., 42 G. 3. c. 99. ss. 7, 8.]

465. Nothing herein shall extend to charge with any stamp-duty by this act imposed any policy of insurance made for insuring houses, furniture, goods, &c. or other property, from loss by fire whereon the duty imposed by 22 G. 3. c. 48. has been duly paid, nor any insurance made for insuring any events or contingencies relative to a life or lives whereon the duty imposed by the laws in force when this act was passed has been paid, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 2., 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 10. s. 2.

466. Upon every insurance upon any ship or goods, or other property on which insurances may be lawfully made, where the premium or consideration in nature thereof is actually and bonâ fide paid shall not exceed 10s. per cent. on the sum insured, and where the sum insured shall amount to 200*l.* or more, stamps of 2s. 6*d.* for every 200*l.* of the sum insured may be used instead of stamps of 1s. 3*d.* for every 100*l.* of the like sums so insured, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 4. [See the new duties, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1. Sch. Part I. tit. Policy.]

467. The commissioners of stamps shall provide sufficient quantities of stamped vellum, &c. adapted for policies of insurance, and cause to be printed thereon the several forms for blank policies hereto annexed; and the same, so printed, to be duly stamped, in order that all persons may buy such forms so stamped of the officers of such commissioners at the price of such duty marked thereon, without any charge for the vellum, &c. or for printing; or, at their election, may bring their own vellum, &c. to the head stamp-office to be so stamped on the payment of such duty; and such officers shall mark thereon the day, month, and year when any such printed vellum, &c. so stamped shall be delivered by them to be used; and if any such officer shall wilfully neglect his duty herein, he shall forfeit 100*l.* and be dismissed his office: [provided such commissioners shall not be obliged to provide at the public charge any vellum, &c. so stamped where the sum to be insured shall not amount to 10,000*l.* or more, RER. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 8.], id. s. 5.

468. So much of 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 5. as enacts that the commissioners of stamps or their officers should not provide at the public charge any parchment stamped for blank policies of insurances where the sum to be insured thereon shall not amount to 10,000*l.* or more, shall be RER., and such commissioners shall provide sufficient quantities of parchment or paper only, and not of vellum adapted for policies of insurance, with the several forms for blank policies of insurance thereon, and stamped according to such act for the respective sums of 5000*l.*, 6000*l.*, 7000*l.*, 8000*l.*, and 9000*l.* respectively, to be insured thereon, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 8.

469. The commissioners of stamps shall establish offices in the city of London at some place near the Royal Exchange, and appoint a proper officer there to distribute policies of insurance printed on vellum, &c. according to the forms hereto annexed, and stamped according to this act, to any person carrying on the business of insurance within such city, on prompt payment of the duty, subject to the usual allowance made on stamps; provided the officer so appointed, with the consent of such commissioners, may open an account in books to be provided by such commissioners with any persons or bodies corporate carrying on the business of such insurance-offices within such city, who shall give to such commissioners security by bond to H. M. for the payment of the duties at the times and in the manners prescribed by such commissioners as after mentioned, and may supply them with such vellum, &c. printed and stamped as aforesaid, on the credit of such persons or bodies so having given such security, in such quantities as such commissioners shall authorize, making the like allowance on payment of the duties within the times by them prescribed, as may be made on prompt payment of such duties; and such officers shall progressively number all such policies as shall be issued to the credit of any such person or body, beginning such enumeration at the commencement of each account, and so on to the close of each account, or at such stated periods as such commissioners shall direct; and shall in such books set down the numbers of such policies, with the sums payable thereon for such duties, to the distinct account of the persons or bodies applying for the same, and also the date and time of delivering the same; and if any such officer shall knowingly make any false entry to the damage of any such person or body, he shall be liable by action of debt or on the case to pay treble damages and costs to the party grieved, and be dismissed his office, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 6.

470. All persons or bodies corporate to whose credit any stamped vellum, &c. shall be delivered under this act, shall previously give bond to H. M. on such sum as such commissioners deem reasonable, so as it does not exceed the probable amount of the duty payable by such person or body, for any time not exceeding 3 calendar months, nor less than 6 weeks, with condition that if such person shall truly make payment of all such sums which shall be due to H. M. according to the intent of this act, such bond shall be void, but otherwise to be in full force; and such commissioners, or the major part of them, may fix the times of making such payments, and specify the same in such bond; and which shall not be by less than 8 payments in the year, at equal intervals; and such bond shall be renewed at the discretion of such commissioners, as often as forfeited, or the party shall die or become bankrupt or insolvent, or reside beyond the seas; and such bond shall, at the request of the obligor or his executors, administrators, or assigns, be delivered up to be cancelled; or otherwise, if detained, shall be put in suit for some breach thereof before the end of the second term from such request, or in default thereof shall be void, id. s. 7.

471. Every contract or agreement made or entered into for any insurance in respect whereof any duty is hereby made payable, shall be engrossed, printed or written, and be deemed and called "A Policy of Insurance," and the premium, or consideration in the nature of a premium, given, and the particular risk or adventure insured against, and the names of the subscribers and underwriters, and the sums insured, shall be expressed therein; and in default thereof, such insurance shall be void, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 11.

472. No policy of insurance upon any ship, or any share or interest therein, shall be made for any longer period than 12 calendar months, and every policy made for a longer period shall be void, id. s. 12.

473. Nothing herein shall prevent the making of any alteration which may lawfully be made in the terms or conditions of any policy duly stamped after the same has been underwritten, or require any additional stamp-duty by reason thereof, so that such alteration be made before notice of the determination of the risk originally insured, and the premium originally paid shall exceed the rate of 10s. per cent. on the sum insured, and so that the thing insured shall remain the property of the same persons, and so that such alteration shall not prolong the term insured beyond the period hereby allowed, and so that no additional sum be insured by such alteration, id. s. 13.

474. No insurance entered into in G. B. in respect whereof any duty is payable, nor any contract or agreement for such insurance, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted in any court to be available in law or equity, unless the same is lawfully and duly stamped; and the commissioners of stamps shall not stamp any vellum, &c. with any stamp provided under this act after any such insurance or contract or agreement for the same has been engrossed, &c. thereon, id. s. 14. [See 10 A. c. 26. s. 71. pl. 421.]

475. Every person who shall effect or knowingly procure to be effected any insurance hereby made liable to duty, or shall give or pay or agree to give or pay, or render himself liable to pay any sum, premium, or consideration in the nature of a premium, upon any such insurance, or shall enter into any contract, &c. for any such insurance, unless the same insurance and contract, &c. is engrossed, &c. on vellum, &c. first duly stamped, or stamped with some stamp of an higher denomination or value than hereby directed, shall, for such offence, forfeit 500*l.*; and every broker, agent, or other person negotiating any such insurance contrary to this act, or engrossing, &c. any such agreement for insurance before the same is duly stamped, shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 15. [See 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 3. ante, pl. 422.]

476. No broker, agent, scrivener, or other person negotiating any such insurance, shall charge his employer any sum for brokerage or agency in negotiating such insurance, or engrossing, &c. the same, or for money expended by way of premium for such insurance, unless the same is engrossed, &c. on vellum, &c. duly stamped, or is stamped with a stamp of higher denomination or value than hereby required; and all sums paid by such employer on any such account, to any such broker, &c. contrary to this act, shall be deemed paid without consideration, and remain the property of such employer or his executors, &c., id. s. 16.

477. If any person shall become an assurer upon any such insurance, or shall underwrite the same, or receive or contract for any premium or consideration for the same, or pay or allow, in account or otherwise, any sum upon any loss, peril, or contingency relative to any such insurance, unless such insurance is engrossed, &c. in vellum, &c. duly stamped; or if any person shall be concerned in any fraudulent contrivance to evade the duties hereby granted, such person shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 17.

478. Nothing herein shall extend to subject any of the members, officers, or servants of the London and Royal Exchange Assurances to any of the penalties of this act by reason of their making agreement to insure by any label, slip, or memorandum, in writing, containing the heads of any insurance about to be made on vellum, &c. unstamped, provided the day on which such agreement is made shall be truly expressed in words at length on such label, &c., and a policy according to the agreement expressed in such label shall be made out according to one of the forms in the schedule of this act, and be duly executed and stamped within 3 office days after such agreement made, id. s. 18. [See as to these and memorandums, 54 G. 3. c. 144. post, pl. 500.]

479. One moiety of all pecuniary penalties hereby imposed, except where other provisions are made, shall, if sued for within 6 calendar months from the time when incurred, go to H. M., and the other, with full costs, to the informer; and may be sued for within such time in the courts of exchequer in Eng. for offences committed there, and in the like court in Edinburgh for offences committed in Scot. by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparance allowed, id. s. 19. [But see 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. Dio. V. pl. 123. s. 27. pl. 124.]

480. In default of prosecution within such time no such penalty shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the name of the attorney-general in Eng. or advocate in Scot. by information in either of such courts, in which case the whole penalty shall go to H. M.; and all such penalties or shares thereof belonging to H. M. shall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of stamp-duties; and in such case the commissioners of stamps may cause such reward as they think fit, not exceeding one moiety after all charges deducted, to be paid thereout amongst the discoverers or informers in respect of such penalties, 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 20.

481. In case any prosecution is commenced against any person for the recovery of any penalty incurred under this act, H. M.'s attorney-general or advocate, if it appear to them that such penalty was incurred without intention of fraud, may stop all further proceedings on such prosecution, as well in respect of all shares of such penalties as belong to any person as to those that belong to H. M., upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as they think fit, id. s. 21.

482. Former acts extended to this act, id. s. 22. If any person shall counterfeit or forge or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any stamp directed to be used under this act, or shall counterfeit or resemble any impression of the same with intent to defraud H. M. of such duties, or shall utter, vend, or expose to sale any vellum, &c. with such counterfeit mark or impression thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, or shall privately or fraudulently use any stamp directed to be used by this act with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall be adjudged a felon, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 23. [See 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. Div. VI. pl. 133.]

483. On all policies on which any duty is hereby imposed, and which are duly stamped under this act, all the former duties shall cease, id. s. 24.

484. Nothing herein shall charge with the additional duty hereby granted, any insurance on ships, goods, &c. or other property or interest for any voyage to or from any port of G. B. or Ire., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark or Man, from or to any port in the same kingdom or islands, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 10. s. 7.

485. Stamp-duties on sea policies reduced, 42 G. 3. c. 99. s. 7. On all insurances where the premium shall not exceed 20s. per cent., and the sum insured shall be 200*l.* or more, a stamp of 5*s.* shall be used for every 200*l.* insured, id. s. 8. [QU. if not REP. as new duties have been imposed by 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1. ?]

INSURANCE SPOILED STAMPS.

486. FOR BETTER ENABLING THE COMMISSIONERS OF STAMPS TO make allowances for spoiled stamps on policies of insurance in G. B., and for preventing frauds relating thereto, 54 G. 3. c. 133.

487. All the provisions in 35 G. 3. c. 63. (ss. 8. & 10.) and all other provisions in any other act [viz. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. ss. 9. & 11.] for the allowance and exchange of stamps on policies of insurance in G. B. as being spoiled shall be REP., and the commissioners of stamps may allow as spoiled and cancel stamps on policies or insurance in G. B. in the following cases, and on the following terms only: viz.

First, Where a policy shall be inadvertently filled up in an incorrect or improper manner, or be obliterated or otherwise spoiled and rendered unfit for use, or shall be filled up for some insurance which shall not be proceeded in, and the same shall not be signed by any underwriter, provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or after such policy shall be spoiled or become useless. [See s. 6. pl. 492.]

Secondly, Where a policy shall be underwritten, but not to the full amount of the sum which the stamp duty thereon will cover, and another policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof, by the same persons, to the same amount, on the same property or interest, and for the same risk in all respects, provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or 3 calendar months after the date of the last subscription on the first policy. [See s. 6. pl. 492.]

Thirdly, Where a policy shall be underwritten, and there shall afterwards be found any error or mistake therein, so that the insurance intended shall not be thereby effected, and another policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof by the same persons, in which the error or mistake shall be rectified, provided the underwriters shall sign a declaration that the insurance made by the first policy is cancelled, and the premium returned on that ground only, and provided satisfactory proof shall be given of the error or mistake, and that the new policy shall be underwritten before notice of the termination of the risk first insured, and provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or 3 calendar months after the date of the last subscription on the first policy. [See s. 4. pl. 490. and s. 6. pl. 492.]

Fourthly, Where a policy shall be underwritten, and the terms and conditions of the insurance shall afterwards be agreed to be altered and another policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof, by the same persons, to the same amount, on the same property or interest, and with such alteration in the terms and conditions of the insurance as may have been agreed upon; provided the underwriters shall sign a declaration that the insurance made by the first policy is cancelled, and the premium returned on that ground only, and provided the new policy shall be underwritten before notice of the termination of the risk originally insured, and the thing insured shall remain the property of the same person or persons, and provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or 3 calendar months after the date of the last subscription on the first policy. [See s. 6. pl. 492.]

Fifthly, Where a policy shall be underwritten, and the insurance shall be made subject to the approbation of the insured, and such condition shall be expressed in the policy, and the insured shall signify his or their disapprobation thereof within the time to be prescribed for that purpose in and by the policy, provided all the underwriters on such policy (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the realm) shall sign a declaration that the insurance is cancelled and the premium returned on that ground only, and provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or 3 calendar months after the time so prescribed for disapprobation. [See s. 4. pl. 490. s. 6. pl. 492.]

Sixthly, Where insurance shall be made upon any ship or ships, or upon any goods or other property on board any ship or ships, or upon the freight of any ship or ships, or upon any other interest in or relating to any ship or ships, for a particular voyage, and the ship or ships shall not proceed at all upon the voyage specified, or shall not proceed thereon at or within the time specified, if any, and also where insurance shall be made upon goods or other property on board any ship or ships, or upon any interest in or relating to any ship or ships, for or upon a particular voyage, and the goods or property intended to be insured shall not be shipped at all, or not within the time specified, or not on board the ship or ships named or described, or it shall turn out that the insured had not the interest intended to be insured; provided in all these cases, that all the underwriters (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the realm) shall sign a declaration that the insurance is cancelled, and the premium returned for some or one of the reasons here specified, and provided application shall be made for the allowance within 6 calendar months after the passing of this act, or 3 calendar months after the insured, if in G. B., or his or their broker or agent, if the insured be out of G. B., shall know the facts upon which the allowance is hereby authorized to be made; but no allowance of the duty shall be made in any of these cases, if the underwriters shall have run any risk whatever under the policy brought for allowance, unless another policy shall be produced, whereby the same property or interest shall be insured to the same amount for or upon some other voyage, or for or upon the same voyage to be performed at some other time. [See s. 4. pl. 490. s. 6. pl. 492.]

And upon the allowance of any stamps or policies of insurance as spoiled or misused in the several cases aforesaid, the commissioners of stamps shall give the party delivering up such policies to be cancelled, other policy stamps of the same amount or value in lieu thereof, 54 G. 3. c. 133. s. 1.

488. Provided that if in 2d, 3d, and 4th cases some only of the underwriters on the policy brought for allowance shall have underwritten another policy in lieu thereof, such commissioners may nevertheless make such allowance for the stamp-duty on the first policy, except so much thereof as is due for the sums not transferred to the second policy, and if it appear to them that any legal proceedings which require the production of the first policy are to be instituted by the insured in respect of any sums underwritten in the first and not transferred to the second policy, such commissioners may cancel the stamp thereon and substitute another for denoting only the duty payable for the sum not so transferred, and deliver the same to the insured or his agent, id. s. 2.

489. If where any policy being underwritten, but not to the full amount which the stamp will cover, it is found inconvenient to get another policy underwritten in lieu thereof, and the same is brought to the commissioners within 3 calendar months after the date of the last superscription, such commissioners may cancel the stamp thereon and substitute another to denote only the duty payable on the amount actually underwritten, and deliver another policy-stamp equal to the difference, id. s. 3.

490. Where any insurance is made on any ship or goods or other property on board of any ship, or on the freight of or other interest in or relating to any ship, and the sum insured on the account of one person, or on the joint account of 2 or more, shall exceed the value of his or their property or interest by 1000*l.* where the duty is at the rate 1*s.* 3*d.* per cent., or by 500*l.* when at the rate 2*s.* 6*d.* per cent. or above, such commissioners may allow so much duty on the policy whereby such insurance is made as shall exceed the duty payable in respect of the value of the property or interest on which the risk attached, on the policy being delivered up to be cancelled, and proof made to them of the value of such property or interest, and provided all the underwriters (those who are deceased, have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed the realm, excepted) shall sign a declaration [see post, ss. 7, 8. pl. 493, 494.] that the premium is returned on account of short interest; and provided that the application is made for the allowance within 3 calendar months after the value of such property or interest is known to the insured if in G. B., or to his broker or agent if out of G. B.; and such commissioners shall deliver other policy-stamps for the duty so allowed; but no such allowance shall be made for short interest in case where the property or interest insured is expressly valued at the sum insured in and by the policy whereby the insurance is made, id. s. 4.

491. But no such allowance shall be made in any case in s. 1. pl. 487, mentioned, if the policy brought for allowance shall be underwritten to a greater amount than the stamp thereon will cover, id. s. 5. [But see s. 6.]

492. Such commissioners may make such allowance as aforesaid where a policy is underwritten to a greater amount than stamp thereon will cover, after the expiration of 6 calendar months from the passing of this act, provided it is proved to have been done inadvertently, and provided another policy duly stamped is underwritten in lieu thereof, by the same persons, to the same amount, on the same property or interest, and for the same risk, within 3 days afterwards, and application is made for the allowance within 7 office days after the date of the last subscription on the policy on which too much was underwritten, and in case some only of the underwriters will underwrite another policy in lieu thereof within the time hereby limited, such commissioners may allow the duty on the first policy, except so much as shall be due for the sum not transferred to the second policy, provided application is made within such 7 days, and may cancel the stamp thereon, and substitute another to denote only the duty payable on the sums not transferred, and re-deliver the same to the insured or his broker or agent; and if it is inconvenient to get another policy underwritten in lieu of any policy underwritten beyond what the stamp will cover, and the same is brought to the commissioners within 3 office days after the last subscription thereon, and the proper duty paid for the excess so underwritten, such commissioners may put a proper additional stamp thereon, which shall render the same valid, 54 G. 3. c. 133. s. 6.

493. No such allowance of duty shall be made in any case where it is to depend on the condition of the underwriters signing a declaration of return of premium [see s. 4. pl. 490.] unless the underwriters shall sign such declaration with their surnames at length, and not their initials only; and if any underwriter shall agree to return premium and refuse to sign such declaration, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to be paid to H. M. and recovered as any other penalty under the stamp-laws may be, id. s. 7. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 123.]

494. Where the allowance of stamp-duty in such cases shall depend on such declaration being signed, it shall be sufficient if the declaration certify the return of the same all but 1*s.* in the pound or guinea for the broker's commission, and of any further sum not exceeding one-half per cent. on the sum insured, which may be agreed to be retained in consideration only of the trouble given to the underwriters, and not of any risk incurred by them, id. s. 8.

495. If any underwriter shall knowingly sign any false declaration of the grounds on which any premium on a policy is returned, or of the quantity returned in any of such cases, he shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M., to be recovered as other penalties under the stamp-laws may be, id. s. 9. [See note to s. 7. pl. 493.]

496. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c., or shall willingly aid in forging, &c. the name or handwriting of any underwriter on any policy to any declaration of any return of premium, or shall fraudulently alter or cause to be altered, or aid in altering any such declaration after the same is signed by any underwriter, or shall utter any such declaration knowing the same to have been fraudulently altered, or such name or handwriting thereon to have been forged in order to obtain any such allowance, and with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall forfeit 500*l.* to H. M. for the first offence, to be recovered as other stamp penalties may be, and for the second and every other offence shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for 7 years, id. s. 10.

497. The commissioners of stamps may make such rules, &c. and require such affidavits and affirmations of all such facts in regard to the allowance of spoiled or disused stamps in the cases hereby provided for as they deem necessary, the same to be sworn or affirmed before such commissioners, or any person authorized by them, or before a master in chancery, ordinary or extraordinary, in Eng., or before any person duly commissioned to take affidavits by the court of session or exchequer in Scot., and such commissioners of stamps may call for such written documents and other evidence in respect of such allowances as they see fit, id. s. 11.

498. Such commissioners of stamps, or the major part of them, may authorize their officers to receive and examine the claims for such allowances, and take such affidavits or affirmations relating thereto, and administer the proper oaths, &c. for that purpose, and to do all other acts respecting such claims as the commissioners themselves may do, id. s. 12.

499. All persons knowingly making any false oaths or affirmations of the matters to be set forth in any such affidavit or affirmation, shall be subject, on conviction, to the penalty inflicted on persons guilty of perjury, id. s. 13.

INSURANCE, CONTRACTS OF.

500. FOR BETTER SECURING THE STAMP DUTIES on sea insurances made in London, and for altering the period for taking out stamp office certificates by attornies and others, in Eng., 54 G. 3. c. 144.

501. The commissioners of stamps may supply brokers and others carrying on the business of insurance in London with blank paper duly stamped as by law required for policies of insurance, for the purpose of effecting contracts of insurance thereon, to such amount as the duty denoted by the stamp will cover; and such blank stamped paper shall be supplied free of charge for paper, either for ready money, for the duty, or on credit, as by 35 G. 3. c. 63. s. 6. pl. 469. directed; and if supplied on credit, the duty shall be secured and paid as the duties on printed policies are by such act secured and paid; and all other regulations of that act for the supply and delivery of printed policies shall be observed with regard to such blank stamped paper, 54 G. 3. c. 144. s. 1.

502. All bonds heretofore given by brokers or others, for securing the duties on printed policies supplied on credit under 35 G. 3. c. 63. shall stand as security for the duties on such blank stamped paper supplied on credit, id. s. 2.

503. Every contract of insurance to be made on such blank stamped paper shall be dated on the day when signed by the underwriters, and if the same shall be signed on different days, by different underwriters, it shall be dated so as to shew what underwriters signed on each day, and in default thereof the broker or person effecting the insurance, and all underwriters signing such contract, shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M. to be recovered, &c. as other stamp penalties may be, id. s. 3. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 123.]

504. Every contract of insurance made on such blank stamped paper shall specify (besides such dates) the name of the ship to be insured (unless it is upon 'ship or ships'), the voyage or risk insured against, the premium given, and the name and style of dealing of one or more of the persons interested in the insurance, or in lieu thereof the name and style of the consignors or consignees of the property to be insured, or of the persons residing in G. B., who shall receive the order to effect the insurance, or of the person who shall give the order to the agent immediately employed to effect such insurance, and in default thereof, the same shall be void, id. s. 4.

505. Every such contract, being duly stamped, and containing such particulars, shall not only be obligatory on the underwriter to subscribe a regular stamped policy in lieu thereof to the same amount on the same property, and for the same voyage or risk when required, and to date their subscriptions on the same day as the contract before signed by them, but shall also be available as a competent instrument of insurance in case a regular policy is not underwritten, id. s. 5.

506. Whenever any broker or other person, having effected a contract of insurance on such blank stamped paper, shall deliver up the same to the commissioners of stamps to be cancelled within one calendar month after the date of the last subscription thereon, and shall also at the same time produce a regular stamped policy to the like effect and purport underwritten by the same persons; such commissioners may allow such broker the duty thereon in stamps for contracts or policies, id. s. 6.

507. Such allowance shall be made, notwithstanding the policy underwritten in lieu of any such contract shall contain matter explanatory thereof, or shall vary therefrom in consequence of any error in the contract, whereby the insurance really intended shall not have been effected, or in consequence of the terms of the insurance having been afterwards agreed to be altered, provided that in case of error proof is given thereof, and of the nature of the same, and provided in case of alteration in the terms of the insurance that the policy was underwritten before notice of the termination of the risk specified in the contract, and that the thing insured remains the property of the same persons, id. s. 7.

508. If a regular stamped policy shall be underwritten in lieu of any such contract by some only of those who underwrite the contract by reason of the refusal, death, bankruptcy, insanity, or absence of the others of them, then upon the contract being delivered up as in s. 6. pl. 506., and on production of the policy underwritten in lieu thereof within one calendar month, such commissioners may make an allowance for the stamp duty on the contract, except so much thereof as shall be due for sums underwritten in the contract, and not transferred to the policy; and if it appears to such commissioners, that any legal proceedings are about to be instituted by the insured for the sums underwritten on the contract, and not transferred to the policy which may require the production of the contract, such commissioners may cancel the stamps thereon, and substitute another, denoting the duty payable for the sums not transferred, and re-deliver the contract to the insured, or his agent, id. s. 8.

509. No such allowance shall be made on any contract of insurance underwritten beyond the amount that the stamp thereon will cover, unless the same is proved to have been done inadvertently, and a regular stamped policy is underwritten in full, or in part in lieu thereof, within three days afterwards, and application is made for the allowance within seven office days after the date of the last subscription in the contract, id. s. 9.

510. The commissioners of stamps may make an allowance for the stamp duty on such blank paper where the same shall be spoiled, without being underwritten, and also where regular stamped policies shall not be underwritten in lieu thereof, in the cases of greater or less sums being underwritten thereon than the stamp duty will cover; in the cases of insurances being made conditionally subject to the approbation of the insured; and in cases of no risk, no interest or short interest, as the commissioners, by 54 G. 3. c. 133. s. 1. pl. 487., are authorized to make for the stamp duty in regular policies, in the like cases, and on the like terms, id. s. 10.

511. All the powers, regulations, penalties, &c. of the 54 G. 3. c. 153. for facilitating the allowance of stamp duty on policies in the cases therein mentioned, and for examining, and substantiating the claims thereto, and for preventing frauds, and punishing offences relating thereto, shall be applied to such contracts of insurance, and to the allowance of the stamp duty thereon in the cases herein specified, 54 G. 3. c. 144. s. 11.

512. If any person to whom any allowance of stamp duty in contracts or policies of insurance shall be to be made, either as principal agent or broker under this or any other act, shall stand indebted to H. M. for stamps supplied in credit under 55 G. 3. c. 63. the commissioners may write off the amount of such allowance from the sum so due, instead of delivering stamps for the same, id. s. 12.

LAW PROCEEDINGS.

513. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE STAMP DUTIES ON writs, appearances, admissions, &c. and on other things connected with the process of the law, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 4. 1 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 42. [EXTD. to warrants issued on writs, 6 G. 1. c. 21. s. 54. AMD. 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. ss. 1—3. 6. (which is also AMD. 5 & 6 A. c. 19. s. 29.) 4 & 5 A. c. 12. s. 9. 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 15. (This title is framed from the general purport of the foregoing sections.) For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part II.]

514. Every officer, or clerk belonging to the court of K. B., C. P. or exchequer, who shall sign any writ or process before judgment, to arrest any person thereon, shall, at the signing thereof, set down on the same the day and year of signing the same, which shall be entered upon the remembrance, or in the book where the abstract of such writ or process is entered, upon pain, in case of neglect, to forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered by any person suing by action of debt, &c., or information wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 21. s. 4. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. s. 42. [EXTD. to warrants issued on such writs, 4 G. 1. c. 21. s. 54.]

515. If any clerk, officer, attorney, solicitor, or other person entrusted to enter or file any action, plaint, bail, appearance, admission, or other thing, in respect whereof any stamp duty is payable, shall neglect to enter, file, or record the same within four months after he has received any money for the entry, &c. of such action, &c., or shall have undertaken to enter, &c. the same, or shall neglect to enter, &c. any such action, &c. before any further proceeding relating to the same is had, or if any clerk, &c. shall transact, enter, record, or file any such further proceeding relating to such action, &c., before the same shall have been duly entered, &c. such clerk, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.* with costs; and no such record or entry shall (in any suit against such clerk, &c. for any offence against this act) be of itself concluding evidence of the time that the same was written, entered or filed; but proof shall be admitted of the time that the same was actually entered or filed; provided, that nothing in this act shall oblige any clerk, &c. to enter any appearance, where judgment is entered by confession, 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 1.

516. No person shall incur any penalty mentioned 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 1. pl. 515. by reason of transacting, entering, recording or filing any farther proceedings, subsequent or relating to any action, plaint, bail or appearance, which by any other person ought to be first entered, &c. in any of the courts at Westminster, before the same shall be duly entered or filed, or recorded, 5 & 6 A. c. 19. s. 29.

517. If any person shall write or cause to be written part of any writ, mandate, bond, affidavit, or other writing, in respect whereof any duty is payable, on any piece of vellum, &c. whereon there shall have been before written any other writ, &c. in respect whereof any duty is payable, before such vellum, &c. shall be again stamped, or shall fraudulently erase the name of any person, or any sum, date, or other thing, written on such writ, &c., or cut off any stamp from any piece of vellum, &c. with intent to use such stamp for any other writing, in respect whereof any duty is payable; every person so offending shall forfeit 20*l.* with costs, 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 2.

518. Every person who shall (in any suit brought upon this act) be convicted of any the neglects or offences before mentioned, shall likewise incur all other forfeitures and disabilities in the stamp acts mentioned for writing on unstamped vellum, &c., id. s. 3. [See 5 & 6 W. 3. c. 21. s. 11. and 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. pl. 132.]

519. One moiety of all penalties hereinbefore mentioned, shall be to H. M., and the other with full costs to any person who will sue for the same in any court of record by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. 1 A. St. 2. c. 22. s. 6.

520. The duties on stamp vellum, &c. in respect of appearances, shall extend to appearances in such actions wherein no bail is filed or put in, and not otherwise, 4 & 5 A. c. 12. s. 9.

521. Nothing in 25 G. 3. c. 80. STAMPS (Attorneys' Certificates), shall prevent any solicitor, attorney, notary, proctor, agent or procurator, charging in his bill of fees or disbursements the amount of duty of &c. by this act granted on warrants, mandates, authorities, minutes or memorandums given to carry on or defend any suit or prosecution, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 15.

LEGACY.

522. ALL VELLUM, &c. ON WHICH ANY RECEIPT OR DISCHARGE FOR any legacy left by any will or other testamentary instrument, or any part thereof, or for any share of a personal estate divided by force of the statute of distributions, or the custom of any province or written, omitted in the act, shall, before the same is engrossed, &c. brought to the head stamp-office to be stamped, and the commissioners or their officers shall stamp, as hereby directed, any quantities of vellum, &c. on payment of the duty, such duty to be paid by the party giving such receipt; and if any such receipt, &c. is stamped with a lower duty than that payable, it shall not be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted in any court to be good in law or equity, 20 G. 3. c. 28. s. 3.

523. Exception in favour of any legacies or shares of personal estate given by will, or coming by force of the statute of distributions to the wife, children, or grandchildren, of the testator or intestate, 23 G. 3. c. 58. s. 2., 29 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2. [But see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part III.]

524. FOR REPEALING CERTAIN DUTIES ON LEGACIES AND SHARES of personal estates, and for granting other duties thereon in certain cases, 36 G. 3. c. 52. [EXPL. and AMD. as to s. 32., 37 G. 3. c. 135., further AMD. 42 G. 3. c. 99. ss. 2, 4., 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 44. For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part III.]

525. The several duties by 20 G. 3. c. 28., 23 G. 3. c. 58., and 29 G. 3. c. 51., imposed on all receipts and discharges for legacies, and for shares or parts of residue of personal estate upon which any duty shall be imposed by this act, shall cease; and so much of such acts as relate to such duties so repealed, and the payment thereof, shall be also repealed, 36 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.

526. Nothing herein shall charge any legacy or residue of any personal estate, which is given or passes to the benefit of the husband or wife of the deceased, or of the royal family, id. s. 2. [See similar exception, 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part III.]

527. Duties to be under the management of the commissioners for stamps, who shall employ the necessary officers, and provide a new stamps to denote the several duties hereby imposed, id. s. 3.

528. Such commissioners shall, by writing under their hands and seals, appoint proper persons in the several counties, shires, stewardries, and divisions in G. B., to collect the duties hereby imposed, and to keep proper accounts thereof, to be transmitted to the head stamp-office; and upon payment of any such duty, if paid at the head office, such commissioners shall cause the same to be entered in their books, and set down therein to the account of the personal estate in respect whereof the duty shall be paid, and shall make like entries in their books, upon transmission of the proper accounts for that purpose from the several officers to be appointed by such commissioners in the different counties, &c. aforesaid, to whom they shall give proper orders for such purpose; and the accounts of such payments shall be kept, with proper references, in alphabetical order, according to the surname of the testator, testatrix, or intestate, in respect of whose personal estate such payments shall be made, so that it may appear upon the books of the commissioners what payments have been made in respect of the personal estate of any testator, &c., id. s. 4.

529. The commissioners of stamps shall provide sufficient quantities of paper adapted for such receipts or discharges of any legacy or residue of any personal estate, and cause to be printed thereon the form of words in the schedule hereunto annexed; and any of H. M.'s subjects, requiring such receipts or discharges, may cause the same to be duly filled up with sums, names, and date, according to such provisions, and also upon any vellum or parchment, or upon any other paper not provided by the commissioners, to use the like form whenever there shall be occasion, id. s. 5.

530. These duties shall, in all cases not hereby otherwise provided, be accounted for and paid by the persons taking the burthen of the execution of the will or other testamentary instrument, or the administration of the personal estate of any person deceased, upon retaining for their own benefit, or for the benefit of any other persons, of any legacy, or of the residue of any personal estate, or any part of such residue, which they shall be entitled so to retain, either in their own, or in the right of any other; and also upon delivery, payment, or discharge of any legacy, or any part of any legacy, or of the residue of any personal estate, or any part of such residue, to which any other person shall be entitled; and in case any persons taking the burthen of such execution or administration, shall retain for their own benefit, or for the benefit of any other, any legacy, or any part of any legacy, or the residue of any personal estate, or any part of such residue, which such persons shall be entitled so to retain, either in their own, or in the right of or for the benefit of any other, and upon which any shall be chargeable by this act, not having first paid such duty, or deliver, pay, or otherwise discharge any legacy, or the residue of any personal estate, or any part thereof, to which any other person shall be entitled, and upon which any duty shall be chargeable by this act, having received or deducted the duty so chargeable, then the duty payable upon every such legacy, and residua, and part thereof respectively which shall not have been duly paid to H. M., according to this act, shall be a debt of such persons so taking such execution or administration, to H. M.; and in case any such persons so taking such execution or administration, shall deliver, or otherwise discharge any such legacy or residue, or any part thereof, to or for the benefit of any person entitled thereto, without having received or deducted the duty chargeable thereon, (such duty not having been first paid to H. M., according to this act,) then such duty shall be a debt to H. M., both of the person who shall make such delivery, payment, or discharge, and of the person to whom the same shall be made, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 6.

531. Any gift by any will or testamentary instrument of any person dying, which shall, by virtue of such will or instrument, have effect, or be satisfied out of the personal estate of such person so dying, or out of any personal estate which he shall have power to dispose of as he thinks fit, shall be deemed to be a legacy within this act, whether the same shall be given by way of annuity or in any other form, and whether charged only on such personal estate, or also on real estate of the testator or testatrix who shall give the same; except so far as the same shall be paid out of such real estate, in a due execution of the will or instrument by which the same shall be given; and every gift which shall have effect as a donation mortis causa, shall also be deemed a legacy within this act, id. s. 7.

532. The value of any legacy given by way of annuity, whether payable annually or otherwise, for lives, or for years determinable on any life or lives, or for years or other period of time, shall be calculated, and the duty chargeable thereon charged, according to the tables in the schedule hereunto annexed; and the duty chargeable on such annuity shall be paid by 4 equal payments, the first of which shall be made before, or on completing the payment of the first year's annuity, and the 3 others successively, before or on completing the respective payments of the 3 succeeding years' annuity; and the value of any such annuity, if determinable upon any contingency besides the death of any person, shall be calculated without regard to such contingency: provided that if any such annuity shall determine by the death of any person, before 4 years' payment of such annuity shall become due, then the duty shall be payable in proportion only to so many of the payments of the annuity as actually accrued and became payable; and in case any such annuity shall at any time determine upon any other contingency than the death of any person, then not only all payments of duty which would otherwise become due after the happening of such contingency, shall cease, but the persons who shall have paid any duties which shall have previously become due, may apply for and obtain a return of so much of such duty as will reduce the same to the like duty as would have been payable by such person for such annuity, calculated according to the term for which the same endured; which abatement the commissioners of stamps shall settle and determine according to such tables, and shall cause the amount of such abatement to be paid to the person entitled to the same, out of any monies in their hands arising from such duties imposed by this act, id. s. 8.

533. The value of any legacy given by way of annuity for life or lives, or for years determinable on any life or lives, or for years or other period of time, and charged on any other legacy or legacies, shall be calculated, and the duty charged thereon, in the same manner as in s. 8. directed with respect to other annuities; and the duty on the legacy charged with such annuity, if any shall be payable, shall be calculated on the value of such legacy, after deducting the value of such annuity; and the duty for such annuity shall be paid by the persons entitled to the legacy charged with such annuity, by 4 equal payments, in the same manner as the same would be payable according to s. 8. of this act, if such annuity had been a direct gift to the annuitant, and subject to the like proviso in case such annuity shall determine before 4 years' payment shall be due; and the payment which shall be made for such duty, shall be retained by the person paying the same, out of the first 4 years' payments of such annuity, or out of so many of such payments as shall become due, by equal portions, id. s. 9.

534. The duty payable upon any legacy given by direction to purchase with any personal estate of the testator or testatrix, an annuity of a certain amount for the life or lives of any person, or any other term, shall be calculated upon the sum necessary to purchase such annuity according to such tables as in s. 8., and shall be deducted from such sum, and paid as other pecuniary legacies; and the persons paying such legacy, and the person for whose benefit the same shall be paid, shall be discharged, by payment of such duty so calculated, from all other demands in respect of the duty payable on such legacy; and the annuity to be purchased for the person entitled to the benefit of such legacy, shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of duty so payable thereon, such reduction to be calculated in the same manner as the duty so payable is in s. 8. directed to be calculated; and the purchase of such reduced annuity, together with the payment of such duty, shall discharge such legacy as fully as if an annuity had been purchased to the annuity so directed to be purchased, id. s. 10.

535. If any benefit shall be given by any will or testamentary instrument in such terms that the value of such benefit can only be ascertained by the actual application for that purpose of the fund allotted for such purpose, or made chargeable therewith; or if the value of any benefit given by any will or testamentary instrument, cannot, by reason of the form and manner of the gift, be so ascertained that the duty can be charged thereon under any other of the directions herein contained; then such duty shall be charged upon the several sums or effects which shall be applied for the purposes directed by such will or instrument, as distinct legacies, and shall be paid out of a fund applicable for such purposes, or charged with answering the same, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 11.

536. The duty payable on a legacy, or residue, or part of residue, of any personal estate, given to or for the benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different persons in succession, who shall be chargeable with such duties at one and the same rate, shall be charged upon and paid out of the legacy or residue, or part of residue, so given, as in the case of a legacy to one person; and where any legacy or residue, or part of residue, shall be given to or for the benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different persons in succession, some or one of whom shall be chargeable with no duty, or some of whom shall be chargeable with different rates of duty, so that one rate of duty cannot be immediately charged thereon, all persons who, under any such bequest, shall be entitled for life only, or any other temporary interest, shall be chargeable with the duty in respect of such bequest, in the same manner as if the annual produce thereof had been given by way of annuity; and such persons respectively shall be so chargeable with such duty, and the same shall be payable when they shall respectively become entitled to and begin to receive such produce, and shall be paid by equal portions during the term of 4 years, if they shall so long continue to receive such produce; and where any other partial interest shall be given, or shall arise out of such property so to be enjoyed in succession, the duty on such partial interest shall be paid in the same manner as the duty is in s. 9. pl. 533. directed to be charged and paid in like cases of partial interests, charged on any property given, otherwise than to different persons in succession; and every person who shall become absolutely entitled to any such legacy or residue, or part of residue, so to be enjoyed in succession, shall, when such person shall receive the same, or begin to enjoy the benefit thereof, pay the duty for the same, or such part thereof as shall be so received, or of which the benefit shall be so enjoyed, in the same manner as if the same had come to such person immediately on the death of the person by whom such property was given to be enjoyed, or in such manner that the same shall be enjoyed in succession, id. s. 12.

537. The duty payable on any legacy or residue, or part of residue, so given to, or so to be enjoyed by different persons in succession, upon whom the duty shall be chargeable at one and the same rate, shall be deducted and paid by the person taking the burthen of the execution of the will or testamentary instrument under which the title thereto shall arise, upon payment or discharge of every or any part of such legacy or residue, or part of residue, to any trustees, or other persons to whom the same shall be payable or paid in trust or for the benefit of the persons so entitled thereto in succession; and if the same shall not be so paid to any such trustees, then such duty shall be deducted out of the capital of the property so given, upon receipt, by any of the persons so entitled in succession, of any produce of such capital, according to the amount of the capital of which such produce shall be so received; and where the duty chargeable upon any such bequest for the benefit of or to be enjoyed by different persons in succession, shall be chargeable at different rates, so that the same cannot be paid at once, but must be paid in succession, then every person taking the execution of the will or testamentary instrument in which such bequest shall be contained, shall be chargeable with such duties in succession, in the same manner as such persons would be chargeable in case of immediate bequest; unless the property bequeathed shall have been paid to, or vested in any trustees as aforesaid, in which case such trustees, or their representatives, shall be chargeable with the duties in respect of such property so vested in them, in such manner as if they had taken the execution of such will or instrument, by which such bequest was made; and in like manner, where any partial interest shall be given, or shall arise out of any such property so to be enjoyed in succession, and such partial interest shall be satisfied by the persons so enjoying such property, such persons shall be chargeable with the duties in respect of such partial interest, and shall retain and pay the same accordingly, in such manner as if they had taken the execution of such will or instrument, by which such partial interest was created; and in all such cases the persons so chargeable with duty, shall be debtors to H. M., in like manner, and shall be subject to the like penalties, as the persons taking the burthen of the execution of such will or instrument, are hereby (s. 6. pl. 350.) made chargeable and subject to, id. s. 13.

538. No duty shall be paid on any articles of plate, furniture, or other things, not yielding any income, and given to or for the benefit of, or so as that the same be enjoyed by, different persons in succession, whilst the same shall be so enjoyed in kind only by any person not having any power of disposing thereof, so as to convert the same into property yielding an income; but if the same shall be actually disposed of, or shall come to any person having power to dispose thereof, or having an absolute interest therein, then the same duty shall be chargeable thereon as if the same had been originally given absolutely, and with full power to dispose thereof, and shall be paid by the person for whose benefit the same shall be sold, or who shall have power to dispose thereof, or an absolute interest therein, and shall become the debt of such person; but shall not be a charge on any person by reason of his having assented to such bequest, as the persons taking the execution of the will or testamentary instrument by which such bequest shall have been made, 36 G.3. c.14. s.14.

539. Provided where any legacy, or any residue or part of residue, shall be so given by any will or testamentary instrument, that different persons shall become entitled thereto in succession, the duty shall be charged thereon as given to be enjoyed in succession, whether the persons entitled thereto shall take the same under such will or instrument, and the dispositions therein contained, or in default of such dispositions, and as entitled by intestacy, id. s.15.

540. Where any legacy, or residue, or part of residue, shall be given to or for the benefit of any persons in joint-tenancy, some or one of whom shall be so chargeable, the person chargeable shall pay such duty in proportion to his interest in such bequest; and every person chargeable with duty, and so entitled in joint-tenancy, who shall become entitled by survivorship, or by severance of the joint-tenancy, to any larger interest in the property bequeathed, than that in respect of which such duty has been paid, shall be charged with the same duty as if the property to which such joint-tenant shall so become entitled had been originally given to or for the benefit of such person only, id. s.16.

541. When any legacy, or any residue, or part of residue, shall be given, subject to any contingency which may defeat such gift, and the same may go to some other persons, such bequest (unless chargeable as an annuity under the provisions herein) shall be charged with duty as an absolute bequest, to the persons who shall take the same subject to such contingency, and such duty shall be paid out of the capital of such legacy, or residue, or part of residue, notwithstanding the same may, upon such contingency, go to some person not chargeable with the same, or with any duty; and if such contingency shall afterwards happen, and the property so bequeathed shall thereupon go in such manner that the same, if taken immediately after the death of the testator or testatrix, under the same title would have been chargeable with a higher rate of duty than the duty so paid, the person becoming entitled thereto shall be charged with and shall pay the difference between the duty so paid and such higher rate of duty, id. s.17.

542. Where any legacy, or the residue or any part of the residue of any personal estate, shall be subjected to any power of appointment to or for the benefit of any persons specially described as objects of such power, such property shall be charged with duty as property given to different persons in succession; and in so charging such duty, not only the persons who shall take previous or subject to such power of appointment, but also any person who shall take under or in default of any such appointment, when and as they shall so take, shall, in respect of their several interests, whether previous or subject to, or under, or in default of such appointment, be charged with the same duty, and in the same manner, as if the same interests had been given to him or them respectively, by the will or testamentary disposition containing such power, in the same order of succession as shall take place under such power of appointment, or in default of execution thereof, as the case may happen to be; and where any property shall be given for any limited interest, and a general and absolute power of appointment shall also be given to any person to whom the property would not belong in default of such appointment, such property, upon the execution of such power, shall be charged with the same duty, and in the same manner, as if the same property had been immediately given to the person executing such power, after allowing any duty before paid in respect thereof; and where any property shall be given with any such general power of appointment, which property in default of appointment will belong to the person to whom such power shall also be given, such property shall be charged with, and shall pay the duty by this act imposed, in the same manner as if such property had been given to such person absolutely in the first instance, without such power of appointment, id. s.18.

543. Any sum or personal estate, directed to be applied in the purchase of real estate, shall pay duty as personal estate, unless the same shall be so given as to be enjoyed by different persons in succession, and then each person entitled thereto in succession shall pay such duty as if the same had not been directed to be applied in the purchase of real estate, unless the same shall have been actually so applied before such duty accrued; but no duty shall accrue in respect thereof, after the same shall have been actually so applied, for so much thereof as shall have been so applied; provided that in case before the same or some part thereof shall be actually so applied, any person shall become entitled to an estate of inheritance in possession in the real estate to be purchased therewith, or with so much thereof as shall not have been applied in the purchase of real estate, the same duty which ought to be paid by such person, if absolutely entitled thereto as personal estate by virtue of any bequest thereof as such, shall be charged on such person, and raised and paid out of the fund remaining to be applied in such purchase, 36 G.3. c.52. s.19.

544. Estates pur autre vie, applicable by law in the same manner as personal estate, shall be charged with the duties hereby imposed as personal estate, id. s.20.

545. Provided that if any direction shall be given, by any will or testamentary instrument, for payment of the duty chargeable upon any legacy or bequest out of some other fund, so that such legacy or bequest may pass to the person to whom the same shall be given, free of duty, no duty shall be chargeable upon the money to be applied for the payment of such duty, notwithstanding the same may be deemed a legacy to the person who would otherwise pay such duty, id. s.21.

546. In cases of specific legacies, and where the residue of any personal estate shall consist of property not reduced into money, the persons taking the burthen of the administration of such effects, or the persons by whom the duty thereon ought to be paid, shall set a value thereon, and offer to pay the duty according to such value; or require the commissioners of stamps to appoint a person to set such value, at the expence of the person by whom such duty ought to be paid; and such commissioners may accept the duty offered to be paid, upon the value set by the persons taking the administration of such effects, or by whom the duty for the same shall be payable, without such appraisement, if they think fit; but if such commissioners shall not be satisfied with the value so set, they, notwithstanding such offer, may appoint a person to appraise such effects, and to set the value thereon, on which value so set they shall assess the duty, and require the same to be paid; but if the person by whom such duty shall be payable shall not be satisfied with the valuation so made under the commissioners, and pay the duty accordingly, such persons may cause the valuation so made under the commissioners, to be reviewed by the commissioners of the land tax of the district or place where such effects shall be, at their next meeting, after the commissioners of stamps have assessed and required payment of such duty as aforesaid, if 14 days shall have elapsed between such time and the meeting of the commissioners of land-tax, and if not, then at their next succeeding meeting, of which appeal 6 days' notice shall be given to the commissioners of stamp duties; and the commissioners of the land-tax shall (if they think fit) appoint a person to appraise such effects, and set a value thereon, and shall and may hear and determine such appeal, in the same manner as in any other cases of appeal to them, and with the like authorities, and their judgment shall be final; and if the valuation made under the commissioners of stamps shall not be duly appealed from within such time, or shall be affirmed upon appeal, the duty shall be paid according to such valuation; and if any variation shall be made on such appeal, the duty shall be paid according to such variation; and if the duty so assessed shall exceed the duty offered to and refused by the commissioners of stamps, the expence of such appraisement and other proceedings shall be borne by the persons by whom such duty shall be payable; and if any dispute shall arise between any persons entitled to any such legacy, or residue, or part of residue, and any persons taking the administration of such effects, with respect to the value thereof, or with respect to the duty to be paid thereon, the duty shall be assessed by the commissioners of stamps on reference to them by either party for that purpose; and if the value of any property on which such duty ought to be paid shall be in dispute, the commissioners of stamps shall cause an appraisement to be made thereof at the expence of the persons by whom such duty ought to be paid, as hereinbefore directed in other cases, and assess the duty thereon accordingly; and if such persons by whom such duty ought to be paid, shall be dissatisfied with such valuation, or with the assessment of duty made upon such valuation, the same shall be reviewed and finally determined by the commissioners of the land-tax, upon appeal to them within the time, and under the restrictions, and in the manner before directed; but if such valuation or assessment shall not be duly appealed from within the time limited for that purpose, or shall be affirmed upon appeal, the duty shall be paid according thereto; and if any variation shall be made therein on such appeal, the duty shall be paid according to such variation; and in case the effects whereon any such duty shall be payable shall be at the distance of 10 miles from London, then it shall be lawful to make the like application to such person as shall be deputed for that purpose by the commissioners to act in their stead in such cases, within the district in which such effects shall be; and such person so deputed shall act in such cases, in all respects, as the commissioners are authorized to act, subject nevertheless to their instructions and control, id. s.22.

547. Where any legacy, or part of any legacy, or residue, or part of residue, whereon any duty shall be chargeable by this act, shall be satisfied otherwise than by payment of money or application of specific effects for that purpose, or shall be released for consideration, or compounded for less than the value thereof, then the duty shall be charged and paid in respect of such legacy, &c., according to the value of the property taken in satisfaction thereof, or as the consideration for release thereof, or composition for the same: provided, that if any legacy or bequest shall be made in satisfaction of any other legacy or bequest, or title to any residue, or part of residue, of any personal estate remaining unpaid, the duty shall not be paid on both subjects, although both may be chargeable with duty, but shall be paid on the subject yielding the largest duty, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 23.

547. (a) If any persons taking the burthen of the execution of the will or other testamentary instrument, or the administration of the personal estate of any person deceased, or any other person hereby made chargeable with duty, shall declare himself or themselves ready and willing, and shall accordingly offer to pay any pecuniary legacy, or residue, or part of residue, deducting the duty payable thereon, or shall in like manner offer to deliver or otherwise dispose of any specific legacy or any specific property, part of any residue of any personal estate, to or for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto, or to any trustees for such persons, upon payment of the duty, and the persons entitled to such legacy, &c., or the trustees for such persons, shall refuse to accept such offer, and to give a proper discharge for such legacy or residue, or so much thereof as shall be offered to be paid or otherwise disposed of, then, although no actual tender shall be made, if any suit shall be afterwards instituted for such legacy or effects, respecting which, such offer has been made, the court in which such suit shall be instituted, shall order all costs, charges, and expences attending the same, to be paid by the persons who so refused to accept such offer, and to give or join in such discharge, or shall order such costs, &c. to be deducted and retained out of such legacy or effects, together with the duty payable thereon, as the court shall see fit; and in case any suit shall be instituted for payment of any legacy or residue, or part of residue, of any personal estate, and the persons sued shall be desirous of staying proceedings on payment of the money due, or otherwise disposing of the specific effects demanded, after deducting or receiving the duty payable thereon, the court in which such suit shall be instituted, if it shall see fit, on application in a summary way, may make such order for payment of such legacy, &c. or for disposing of such effects, and for payment of the duty payable thereon, and all costs attending such suit as shall be just, id. s. 24.

548. If any suit shall be instituted concerning the administration of the personal estate of any person dying testate or intestate, or any part of such estate in which any direction shall be given touching the payment of any legacies of such person, or the residue of his or her personal estate, or any part thereof, the court, in giving directions concerning the same, shall provide for the due payment of the duties hereby imposed; and in taking any account of any personal estate, or otherwise acting concerning the same, such court shall take care that no allowance be made in respect of any legacy or part of legacy, or of any residue or part of residue, without due proof of the payment of such duties, id. s. 25.

549. Any persons taking the execution of any will or other testamentary instrument, or the administration of the personal estate of any person deceased, may deliver or otherwise dispose of any legacy, or any part of any legacy, or make distribution of any part of the residue of any personal estate, on payment of such proportions of such duty as shall accrue in respect of such part of such personal estate as shall be so administered, id. s. 26.

550. No person taking the execution of any will or testamentary instrument, or the administration of the personal estate of any person deceased, nor any trustee or other person hereby directed to account for any duty, shall pay or otherwise dispose of, or satisfy, discharge, or compound for, any legacy or any part thereof, or the residue of any personal estate or any part thereof, in respect whereof any duty is hereby imposed, without taking a receipt or discharge in writing for the same, expressing the date of such receipt or discharge, and the names of the testator, testatrix, or intestate, under whose will or testamentary disposition, or upon whose intestacy the title to such legacy or part of legacy, or to such residue or part of residue, shall accrue, and of the person to whom such receipt or discharge shall be given, and to whom such legacy or residue, or part of residue, shall have been given or belonged in consequence of intestacy, and the value of the legacy or part of legacy, or residue or part of residue, for which such receipt or discharge shall be given, and also the amount and rate of the duty payable thereon; and no written receipt or discharge for any legacy, &c. in respect whereof any duty is hereby imposed, shall be received in evidence, or be available in any manner unless the same shall be stamped, as required (see s. 29., pl. 552.) by this act; and no evidence shall be given of any payment or discharge, or of any release or composition of such legacy, &c. without producing such receipt or discharge, duly stamped, unless the actual payment of the duty hereby imposed shall be first given in evidence: provided that a copy of the entry in the books of the commissioners of the stamps, of the payment of such duty, shall be admitted as evidence thereof: provided also, that payment of any annuity shall not be deemed a payment for which such stamped receipt shall be required under this act, except the several payments which shall complete the payments for each of the first 4 years during which such annuity shall be payable; and in like manner any payment in respect of any legacy or bequest, hereby directed to be charged with the duty in the same manner as annuities, shall not be deemed a payment for which such stamped receipt shall be required, except the several payments which shall complete the payments for each of the first 4 years, in respect of which such legacy or bequest shall be chargeable with duty as an annuity, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 27.

551. Any person having the execution of any will or testamentary instrument, or the administration of the personal estate of any person deceased, and any trustee or other person hereby required to account for any duty, who shall pay or otherwise dispose of, or in any manner satisfy or discharge, or compound for any legacy given by such will or instrument, or the residue or any part of the residue of such personal estate, to or for the benefit of any person entitled to such legacy or any part thereof, or to such residue or any part thereof, without taking such receipt or discharge in writing, and causing the same to be stamped within the time hereby allowed, shall forfeit 10*l.* per cent. on the sum, or the value of the property if not money, for which such receipt or discharge ought to have been given in pursuance of this act; and every person taking the benefit of any such money or other property, without giving a written receipt or discharge for the same, in which the duty payable in respect thereof shall be expressed to have been allowed to the person to whom such receipt or discharge shall be given, and which shall bear date on the day of signing the same, shall forfeit the 10*l.* per cent. on the sum, or on the value of the property so taken, id. s. 28.

552. Every such receipt or discharge shall be brought within 21 days after the date thereof, to the head office of the commissioners or to some other office appointed by them for such purpose, to be stamped, paying the duty for the same, and upon such payment the receiver-general or other proper officer appointed for that purpose by the commissioners, shall write upon such receipt or discharge an acknowledgment of the payment of the duty in words at length, and bearing date the day on which such payment was made, and shall subscribe his name thereto, and enter an account thereof in a book, that he may be thereby charged with the sum so paid; and in case the duty shall be so paid at such head office, then the receipt or discharge so brought to be stamped, shall be forthwith stamped with one of the said 4 stamps (see s. 3. pl. 527.), as the case shall require; and in case the duty shall be so paid at any other office as aforesaid, the receipt or discharge whereon such acknowledgement shall be so written and subscribed shall be transmitted within 21 days from the day of payment to such head office to be stamped, and the same shall be stamped accordingly with one of such 4 stamps; and in case the person paying such duty at any such office to be so appointed, shall be desirous that the same should be transmitted to such head office, by the officer to whom such duty shall be paid, and shall leave the same with them for such purpose, such officer shall thereupon sign and deliver an acknowledgment that such receipt has been left with him, and shall transmit such receipt or discharge to such head office to be stamped, and the same shall be sent again to such officer after the stamping thereof; and such officer shall deliver back the same to the person entitled thereto, upon re-delivery of such acknowledgement: provided that if any such receipt or discharge shall not be so brought to any such office within such 21 days, it shall nevertheless be lawful to carry such receipt or discharge to such head office to be so stamped, within 3 calendar months after the date thereof, paying the duty for the same, and also 10*l.* per cent. on such duty, by way of penalty for not having before paid such duty, on payment of which duty and penalty the commissioners shall stamp such receipt, &c. as if the same had been brought to the office within such 21 days; but the commissioners, or any of their officers, shall not on any pretence, except as hereinafter (s. 2.) directed, stamp any vellum, &c. upon which any such receipt, &c. shall be written or signed with such new stamps, unless the duty for the same shall be paid, and such receipt, &c. shall be produced to be so stamped as aforesaid, within the times and in the manner hereinbefore (s. 29.) respectively limited, id. s. 29.

553. Where any receipt or discharge given for any legacy, or for residue or share of the residue of any personal estate, which shall have been given by will or other testamentary instrument, or have devolved to any person upon intestacy, is brought to the head stamp office to be stamped after the expiration of 3 calendar months from the date thereof, the commissioners of stamps may cause the same to be duly stamped for making if available, on payment of the duty, together with the penalty incurred in consequence of the same not having been brought to be stamped before the expiration of such 3 months; and where any such receipt shall be signed out of G. B., if the same is brought to be stamped within 21 days after its arrival in G. B., such commissioners may remit the penalty, and stamp the same on payment of the duty only, 46 G. 3. c. 149. s. 44.

554. If it appear to the commissioners of stamps, upon oath or affirmation to be administered by a justice of the peace, or master extraordinary in chancery, which oath or affirmation such persons may administer, that less duty has been paid for any legacy, or residue or part of residue, than ought to have been paid, by mistake, without any intention to defraud; and if application shall be made to such commissioners to rectify such mistake, and accept the duty really due before any suit shall be instituted concerning the same, and within 3 calendar months after payment of the money actually paid instead of the just duty, such commissioners may accept such difference, together with the 10l. per cent. on such difference by way of penalty, in full for the just duty, and which shall be in discharge of all penalties incurred by non-payment of such duty, and cause an acknowledgment of the payment of the just duty to be written on the receipt or discharge given for such legacy, &c., and to be subscribed by the proper officer, and also to cause such receipt or discharge to be properly stamped, in the same manner as if the just duty had been originally paid, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 30.

555. The party paying or satisfying any legacy, or any residue of any personal estate, or any part of such residue, or receiving the same contrary to this act, who shall within 12 calendar months after the offence committed, discover the other party offending therein, so that such party so discovered be thereupon convicted, such person so discovering shall be indemnified from all penalties incurred for any offence against this act, id. s. 31.

556. Where, by reason of the infancy, or absence beyond the seas, of any person entitled to any legacy, or to the residue of any personal estate or any part thereof, chargeable with duty under this act, the person having or taking the burthen of any will or testamentary instrument, or the administration of such personal estate, cannot pay such legacy or some part thereof, although he, she, or they may have effects for that purpose, or cannot pay such residue or some part thereof, although he, she, or they may have the same or some part thereof in hand, such person may pay such legacy, &c. respectively, or any sum on account thereof, after deducting the duty into the bank of Eng., with the privity of the accountant-general of the court of chancery, to be placed to the account of the person for whose benefit the same shall be so paid; for payment of which such accountant shall give his certificate as usual in such cases, on production of the certificate of the commissioners of stamps, that the duty thereon has been duly paid; and such payment into the bank shall be a sufficient discharge for the money so paid in, provided the duty be also paid thereon; and such money when paid in shall be laid out by the accountant-general, without any formal request for that purpose, in the purchase of 3 per cent. consols, which, with the dividends thereon, shall be transferred and paid to the person entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his benefit, on application to the court of chancery by petition or motion, in a summary way: provided, that if it shall afterwards appear that such money, or any part thereof, has been improperly paid into the bank, the court of chancery, upon petition, in a summary way may dispose thereof, and of the annuities purchased therewith, and the dividends received thereon, in such manner as justice shall require: provided that if it appear that the duty paid in respect of any such sum was more than ought to have been paid, the person or persons who paid such duty may apply to the said commissioners of stamps to repay such excess of duty; and such commissioners shall, upon such application, repay such excess to the person who shall appear to them entitled to receive the same, or pay such excess into the bank, with the privity of such accountant-general, for the benefit of the person entitled, there to be placed to the same account, and to be applied in the same manner as if paid together with the remainder of the legacy, or sum in respect of which the same shall have been paid; and such commissioners shall make such payments out of the monies in their hands, arising from duties imposed by this act; and if the duty paid to the commissioners appears to be less than the duty which ought to have been paid, the person who paid such money into the bank, upon payment of the full duty to the commissioners, as the same ought to be paid, with such penalties, if any, as ought to be paid in respect thereof, may apply to the court of chancery in a summary way, for the repayment of the further sum so paid to such commissioners, out of the money in the bank so paid in by such person, or the produce thereof, which payment such court shall order, id. s. 32.

557. Whenever any sum is paid into the bank of Eng. with the privity of the accountant-general of the court of chancery, in pursuance of 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 32, pl. 556. the accountant's certificate of such payment shall be filed with the register of the said court in "The Report Office," in the same way as certificates of payment of money paid into the bank with the privity of such accountant, in pursuance of an order of such court, are usually filed; and when such accountant has drawn any draft on the bank for the payment of such money in the usual form, for the purpose of applying the same in the purchase of 3 per cent. consols, in pursuance of 36 G. 3. c. 52. such draft shall be carried to the report office, and entered and signed by the register or one of his deputies, as drafts drawn by such accountant under an order of the court, are usually entered and signed; and such draft shall be a warrant to the bank to pay the money specified therein in the same way as the drafts of such accountant drawn, entered, and signed under an order of the court, are warrants to the bank to pay money in other cases; and such court shall make such orders as may be necessary to carry into execution the 36 G. 3. c. 52. and this act; and such orders may be made either in any particular matter or for general purposes, and shall be sufficient warrant to such accountant and to such register, and his deputies and officers, and to the bank and all other persons for all things to be done in pursuance thereof, 37 G. 3. c. 135.

558. If at the end of 2 years after the death of any person deceased, it shall appear to the commissioners of stamps that it will require time to collect the debts or effects of such person then outstanding, or that from circumstances it will be difficult to ascertain or adjust the amount of the clear residue of the personal estate of such person liable to duty, and the parties interested therein shall be desirous of compounding for the duty thereon, such parties respectively, with the consent of such commissioners, may make application to the court of exchequer at Westminster, if the deceased person resided in Eng. or elsewhere, except in Scot., and to the court of exchequer in Scot. if the deceased resided in Scot., for leave to compound such duty, stating upon oath the particulars of the personal estate for which such composition shall be proposed to be made, by affidavit filed in such court, and declaring at the same time upon oath, whether any other property of the deceased then outstanding, besides the property for which such composition shall be proposed to be made, hath come to the knowledge of such parties, and the nature thereof, and the circumstances attending the same; and in such case the court of exchequer in Eng. or Scot. shall appoint a proper person to set a value on the personal estate, or such part thereof for which no duty has been charged, and which shall be specified in such affidavit as the property for which such composition shall be desired, and to adjust and settle the duty which, equitably under all circumstances, ought to be paid in respect of such personal estate so specified; and thereupon such commissioners shall, if the court of exchequer to which such application shall be made, shall confirm such adjustment and settlement, and order the duty to be accepted accordingly, and by authority of such order accept payment of the sum so adjusted and settled, in full discharge of the duty on so much of such personal estate as shall be so specified, and according to such order, and enter the same in their books accordingly, and grant certificates thereof, expressing the receipt of such duty by way of composition under such order; and every such person to whom such certificate shall be granted, and every future representative of the same estate, and all persons entitled to the benefit of the property for which such composition shall be so paid, shall be discharged from any further duty on the same; and in all future payments of such property, the persons taking the burthen of the execution of any will or testamentary instrument disposing such property, or the administration thereof, may pay, apply, and dispose of the same, and all persons entitled to the benefit thereof receive the same, without having the receipts and discharges in writing, hereby required to be given and taken for the same, stamped as hereinbefore directed; provided such receipts or discharges shall express the same to be given under the authority of such composition, and not liable to duty: provided nevertheless, that the duty shall be charged and paid upon every part of the personal estate of such person deceased, other than that which shall be specified in such affidavit, and included in the valuation in which such composition shall have been made, and for which the court of exchequer shall allow and order such composition to be taken, as if no such composition had been made; and every person shall be liable to all the like penalties for not duly paying the duty for such personal estate not compounded for, and subject to the like rules, &c. for charging such duty as such person would be liable to if such composition had not been made, 36 G. 3. c. 52. s. 33.

559. If after payment of duty on any legacy, or residue, or part of residue, of the personal estate of any person deceased, any debt shall be recovered against the estate of such deceased person, or any loss shall happen, by reason whereof, or for any other just cause, any legatee or other person, by whom any legacy or part of legacy, or any residue of any personal estate hath been received or retained, shall be obliged to refund the same, or any part thereof, then the commissioners of stamps shall, on due proof made on oath, as in s. 30, pl. 554. aforesaid, of the amount of such funds refunded, and that by reason thereof there hath been an overpayment of duty, settle and adjust the amount of such over-payment, and repay the same out of the money in their hands, arising from the duties by this act imposed, or to allow the in future payments, as the case may require, 56 G. 3. c. 52. s. 34.

560. Whenever any person taking the burthen of the execution of any will or testamentary instrument, or the administration of any personal estate, shall be entitled to any legacy, or the residue, or any part of the residue, of the personal estate of any testator, testatrix, or intestate, such person shall be chargeable whenever he shall be entitled, in the due course of administration, to retain to his own use any part of such estate, in satisfaction of such legacy, &c. and every such person, before any such retainer, shall transmit to the commissioners of stamps, or their officers, a note containing the particulars of such legacy, &c. intended to be retained, and the value thereof, and the duty which such person shall offer to pay thereon; and the commissioners shall assess the duty thereon, in such manner as the duty shall be chargeable thereon by virtue of the provisions in this act, (s. 22. pl. 546.) and such duty shall be paid accordingly; and on payment of the duty, the receiver-general of such duty, or officer receiving the same, shall, at the foot of a duplicate of the said assessment duly stamped, in such manner as the commissioners shall direct, give a receipt for such duty in such form as the commissioners shall direct, which receipt shall be a discharge for the duty expressed therein; and in case any such person shall neglect to pay such duty within 14 days after the same ought to have been paid, such person shall forfeit treble the value of the duty which ought to have been paid, id. s. 35.

561. All receipts and discharges whatsoever for legacies specific and pecuniary, and of any nature, and for all personal estate whatsoever, given or disposed of by will or testamentary instrument, whether by way of annuity or other particular bequest, or by way of residue, or share of residue, or otherwise howsoever, as well as on personal estate, distributable upon intestacy, (except such dispositions as shall be made by any will or testamentary instrument, with respect to which the duties imposed by 20 G. 3. c. 28., 23 G. 3. c. 58., 29 G. 3. c. 57., are hereby repealed), shall be deemed to be receipts and discharges for legacies within such former acts respectively; and every person to whom any such legacy, or any part of any such legacy, shall be due at the passing of this act, or who at the passing of this act shall be entitled to any residue, or any share or part of any residue, of any personal estate, under any such will or instrument, or upon intestacy, and also every person who shall become entitled to any legacy, &c. after the passing of this act, upon which no duty is imposed by this act, and upon which the duties imposed by such former acts remain in force and unrepealed, shall, upon receipt or other satisfaction or discharge of any such legacy, &c., sign and give a receipt or discharge in writing, duly stamped, as required by such former acts; and the person taking the burthen of the execution of any will or other testamentary instrument, or the administration of any personal estate, shall have the like powers to require such receipt, &c. in writing, and to retain the duty payable in respect thereof, and the person paying, or otherwise discharging, and the person receiving, or otherwise satisfied for such legacy, &c. shall be in like manner debtors for the duty imposed on such receipt or discharge in case of non-payment of such duty, and to the like penalties for enforcing due payment thereof, as by this act are provided with respect to the duties hereby imposed on legacies, &c. of persons dying after the passing of this act, id. s. 36.

562. If the authority under or by colour of which any person shall have administered the estate or effects of any person deceased, or any part thereof, shall be void, or be repealed, or declared void, and such person shall, before such avoidance, &c. have paid any duty hereby imposed, or any duty imposed by any of such former acts, which shall not be allowed to such person out of the estate or effects of such deceased person, by reason that the same was not really due, the money paid for such duty shall, on proof thereof to the commissioners of stamps, be repaid to the person who paid the same, or his representatives, by them, out of any monies in their hands arising from the duties imposed by this act, or such former acts; but in case such duty ought to have been paid by the rightful executors or administrators of such deceased person, then the payment of such duty shall be valid, notwithstanding such avoidance, &c. as aforesaid; and no such person shall, by reason of the avoidance, &c. of such authority, be sued or troubled in respect of such payment; but all such payments, in respect of the duty, shall be allowed in account with such rightful executors, or administrators, and the same shall be deemed payments in the due course of administration, as fully as if such payments had been made by rightful executors or administrators, id. s. 37.

563. Every person who upon any oath or affirmation before the commissioners of stamps, or commissioners of land-tax, or any person authorized by this act to administer any such oath or affirmation, shall wilfully and corruptly swear, affirm, or alledge any thing which shall be false, with intent to defraud H. M. of any of such duties, or to charge any person with any greater or other duty than such person ought to be charged with, shall (being convicted) be liable to such pains and penalties as, by any law now in being, any person convicted of wilful perjury is liable to, 56 G. 3. c. 52. s. 58.

564. Every person who shall alter any word, letter, figure, or number, in any assessment or receipt to be made or given under this act, for any of such duties, after the same has been signed by the proper officer, according to this act, or shall utter or publish as true any such altered assessment or receipt, with intent to defraud H. M., or any other person, shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 59.

565. Every person who shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any stamp directed or allowed to be used or provided under this act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the impression of the same upon any vellum, &c. with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter, vend, sell, or expose to sale, any vellum, &c. liable to such duty, with such counterfeit impression thereupon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, or shall privately or fraudulently use any stamp directed or allowed to be used by this act, with like intent, shall, on being thereof convicted, be adjudged a felon, and shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 40. [See now, 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7., pl. 132.]

566. Every receipt or discharge for any legacy, or any part of any legacy, or for any residue, or part of residue, of any personal estate, which shall be duly stamped as required by this act, shall be free from all stamp duties imposed by such recited (in s. 1.) acts, or by any other act, upon receipts for money; and every such receipt, &c. which shall be duly stamped, as required by such recited acts, and upon which no new duty is imposed by this act, shall be also free from any stamp duty imposed by any other act, id. s. 41.

567. Powers of former acts relating to stamps to extend to this act, id. s. 42.

568. One moiety of all pecuniary penalties hereby imposed, where no other mode of prosecution is specially prescribed by this act, shall, if sued for within 3 calendar months from the time of any such penalty being incurred, be to H. M., and the other moiety, with full costs, to the person who shall sue for the same, and which shall be sued for in H. M.'s court of exchequer at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., or in the court of exchequer in Scot., for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt, or information, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed; but nevertheless H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or advocate in Scot., in case it shall appear to his satisfaction that such penalty was incurred without any intention of fraud, may stop all further proceedings, by entering a noli prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the share of such penalty claimed by such informer, as to the share belonging to H. M., id. s. 43. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 123.]

569. In default of prosecution within the time in s. 43. limited, no such penalty shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the name of H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., and advocate in Scot., by information in the court of exchequer in Eng., or Scot. respectively, in which case the whole of such penalty shall belong to H. M.; and all penalties and shares of penalties incurred as aforesaid, belonging to H. M. shall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of stamp duties; and in all cases where the whole of such pecuniary penalties shall be recovered to the use of H. M., such commissioners may cause such reward as they think fit, not exceeding one moiety of such penalty so recovered, after deducting all charges incurred in recovering the same, to be paid thereout amongst any persons who appear to them entitled thereto as informers, in respect of such penalties, id. s. 44.

570. Duties to be paid to the receiver-general of stamp duties, and by him paid into the exchequer, id. s. 45. [See now 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14.]

571. Exchequer to set apart a proportion of the duties for 10 years, and the remainder to be applied in defraying any increased charge occasioned by any loan of this session, and kept with other duties granted for the same purpose separate from other monies, id. s. 46. [See now 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14.]

572. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be brought in the county or place where the cause of action shall arise, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance of this act, and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such action shall be brought after the time limited, or in any other county, &c. than as aforesaid, then the jury shall find for the defendant; and if upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his action, or if a verdict or judgment upon demurrer shall be given against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 47.

573. Where any executor or administrator have not paid the duty payable on legacies, or any personal estate, or any share thereof, of any person dying intestate, in pursuance of 56 G. 3. c. 58., or any other legacy duty act, within a proper or reasonable time, the court of exchequer may, on application of the commissioners of stamps, on such affidavit as such court shall think sufficient, grant a rule to shew cause why he or she should not deliver to such commissioners an account on oath of all legacies, or of the personal property, paid or to be paid or administered by him, her, or them, and why the duties on any such legacies or shares, or residue of any such personal estate, have not been, or should not be forthwith paid; and such court may make such rule absolute where it may appear proper so to do, 42 G. 3. c. 99. s. 2.

574. The legacies of A. Morris Storer, Esq. of books, &c. to Eton College, and of S. Whitbread, Esq. of 8000*l.* for a public hospital at Bedford, exempted from duty, id. s. 4.

575. FOR EXEMPTING CERTAIN SPECIFIC LEGACIES WHICH shall be given to bodies corporate, or other public bodies, from the payment of the duty, and also the legacy of books, and other articles given by the will of the late Rev. Clayton, M. Cracherode to the trustees of the British Museum, 39 G. 3. c. 75. [See 42 G. 3. c. 99. s. 4. ante, pl. 574. and 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part III. tit. Legacy.]

576. No legacy consisting of books, prints, pictures, statues, gems, coins, medals, specimens of natural history, or other specific articles which shall be given or bequeathed to or in trust for any body corporate, whether aggregate or sole, or to the society of Sergeants' Inn, or to any of the inns of courts or chancery, or any endowed schools, in order to be kept and preserved by such corporate society or school, and not for the purposes of sale, shall be liable to any duty imposed on legacies by any law now in force, id. s. 1.

577. Legacy of Mr. Cracherode to the British Museum, exempted from such duty, id. s. 2.

578. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE DUTIES on legacies arising from real or heritable property, 45 G. 3. c. 28. [This title is framed from the purport of this act.]

579. Duties imposed on legacies to children, and also on legacies out of real estates, id. s. 1. [See the present duties, 55 G. 3. c. 84. Sch. Part III.] Saving for legacies paid out of the estates of persons dying before 5th April 1805., id. s. 2. Exp. Nothing herein shall charge with any of the duties hereby granted any legacy or residue or share of residue given or passed to or for the benefit of the husband or wife of the deceased, or to or for the benefit of any of the royal family, 45 G. 3. c. 28. s. 3.

580. Every gift by any will or testamentary instrument which by virtue of such instrument, shall have effect, or be satisfied out of the personal estate of the person dying, or out of any personal estate which he has power to dispose of as he thinks fit, or which shall have been charged on any real estate, or directed to be satisfied out of any monies to arise by the sale of any real estate of the person so dying, or which he may have power to dispose, whether the same is given by way of annuity, or in any other form, shall be deemed a legacy within this act, provided nothing herein shall charge with any duty any specific sum, or any share thereof, charged by any marriage settlement or deed on any real estate, in any case in which such specific sum is appointed to be apportioned by any will or testamentary instrument under any power given for that purpose, by such settlement or deed, id. s. 4.

581. The duties hereby granted upon legacies, or made payable out of any real estate, or out of any monies to arise by the sale of any real estate, or upon residues or shares of residues of any such monies, shall be accounted for and paid by the trustees, to whom the real estate shall be devised, out of which the legacy or share of any money arising out of the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of such real estate shall be paid; or if no trustees, then by the persons entitled to real estates, subject to such legacy, or by the persons required to pay such legacy; and such duties shall be retained by the person paying such legacy, in like manner and according to such rules, &c., and subject to such penalties where applicable, as in 36 G. 3. c. 52. contained, id. s. 5.

582. Duties to be under the commissioners of stamps, id. s. 6.

583. The duties on legacies granted by 44 G. 3. c. 98., and this act, shall be raised and paid under the provisions of the 36 G. 3. c. 52., and all the provisions, penalties and things in such act contained, in relation to legacies out of personal estates, or to the collecting any duties thereon, or valuation of any annuities or periods of paying the duties by instalments or otherwise, shall in all cases not expressly provided for by this act, extend to legacies, annuities, and shares of money arising out of any real estate, and all directions, penalties, &c. in such act, as to executors and administrators shall be applied to all trustees and owners of real estates chargeable with legacies, &c. or out of which, or any money to arise therefrom, against any such legacies, &c. shall be to be satisfied, id. s. 7.

584. If any person shall counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited, &c. any stamp directed to be used under this act, for the denoting the duties hereby granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the impression of the same, with intent to defraud H. M., or shall utter, vend or sell any vellum, &c. liable to any duty by this act imposed, with such counterfeit stamp thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately or fraudulently use any stamp directed to be used by this act, with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 45 G. 3. c. 28. s. 8. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. pl. 152.]

585. The powers of 36 G. 3. c. 52., and any other stamp act, not hereby altered, shall be applied to this act, id. s. 9. Duties to be paid to receiver-general, and go to the consolidated fund, id. s. 10. Separate accounts to be kept, 45 G. 3. c. 28. s. 11.

586. Actions brought for any thing done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and be laid in the county where the cause arose, and the defendant thereon may plead the general issue, and give this act and special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it shall so appear, or if it is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment or demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 12.

RULES FOR INFERRING the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, held on the longest of 2 lives:

Also, the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, held on the joint continuance of 3 lives:

Also, the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, held on the longest of 3 lives.

RULE for determining the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, payable yearly, and held on the longest of 2 lives.

The values of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, held on each of the single lives, to be added together (from Table I.), and from this sum the value of an annuity held on the joint continuance of the 2 lives (from Table II.), to be subtracted; the result is the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, held on the longest of the 2 lives.

RULE for determining the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum*, payable yearly, and held on the joint continuance of 3 lives.

The value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the joint continuance of the 2 elder lives is to be found from Table II. The age of a single life of the same (or nearest) value, with the annuity on the said joint lives, to be found from Table I. The value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the joint continuance of this life, and the younger life from Table II., 5*l.* being deducted from the said sum, is the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* held on the joint continuance of the 3 lives.

RULE for determining the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* payable yearly and held on the longest of 3 lives.

The values of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* for each of the 3 single lives to be extracted from Table I., and to be added together. The value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the joint continuance of the 2 youngest lives, also the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the joint continuance of the 2 eldest lives, also the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the joint continuance of the oldest life and the youngest life, (all found by Table II.) to be subtracted from the sum or addition of the annuities on the 3 single lives. To the result is to be added the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* held on the joint continuance of the 3 lives; the amount is the value of an annuity of 100*l. per annum* on the longest of the 3 lives.

587. TO REPEAL THE 25 G. 3. c. 79. AND FOR CHARGING OTHER DUTIES in lieu thereof, and for making effectual provision for the better collection of the said duties, 42 G. 3. c. 56. [AMD. 43 G. 3. c. 75., 52 G. 3. c. 150., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 54.,] [For the DUTIES, see 44 G. 3. c. 98., sched. A. ante, pa. 1400.]

588. The duties imposed by 25 G. 3. c. 79. shall cease, except as to arrears, and all the powers given by the said act, or any subsequent act, for the levying of such duties, shall be REPEALED, 42 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1., and instead thereof other duties imposed, 42 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2. [These duties REPEALED, and new ones granted, 44 G. 3. c. 98.]

589. The duties hereby granted shall be payable by the owners and proprietors, or makers and compounders, or original and present vendors of such drugs, herbs, oils, [pills in s. 2. omitting oils.] waters, essences, tinctures, powders, or other preparations or compositions whatsoever used or applied, or to be used or applied externally or internally, as medicines or medicaments for the prevention, cure or relief of any disorder or complaint incident to, or in any wise affecting the human body, and shall be charged upon and payable in respect of the same, and of every packet, box, bottle, pot, phial, or other measure, with any such contents, before the same are first sold or delivered out of the custody of the owners, proprietors, &c. thereof for sale, either wholesale or retail, either for foreign or home consumption or otherwise, and before the same are in any way uttered or vended for foreign or home consumption, or exposed to sale, or offered or kept ready for sale, and not in bulk in any shop, house, or other place, by any such owner, &c. id. s. 3.

590. Nothing herein shall charge with the duties hereby imposed, any drugs named in either of the books of rates, (viz.) the book of rates signed by Sir Harbottle Grimston, bart., and referred to in the 12 C. 2. c. 4., and in the other book of rates signed by the Hon. Spencer Compton, and referred to in the 11 G. 1. c. 7., nor to any medicinal drug which shall be so vended entire, without any mixture or composition, by any surgeon, apothecary, chemist, or druggist who has served a regular apprenticeship, or by any person who has served as surgeon in the navy or army, under any commission duly entered at the navy or war office, or by any other person licensed under this act; but all such drugs shall be vended by all such surgeons, &c. freed from such duties as before this act, id. s. 4.

591. Nothing herein shall charge with such duties any mixtures, compositions or preparations mixed or compounded with, or prepared from medicinal drugs medicated, or chemical preparations or compositions, or other ingredients, bearing different denominations, or having different properties, qualities, virtues, or efficacies, which shall be vended by any such surgeon, &c. as in s. 4., last pl., or any such navy or army surgeon, the different denominations, properties, &c. of which mixtures, &c. are known and approved of in the prevention, cure, or relief of any disorder or complaint incident to the human body, or wherein the person mixing, &c. the same, hath not any claims to any occult, secret, or unknown art, for mixing, &c. the same, or to any exclusive right to mixing, &c. or vending the same, and which mixtures, &c. have not, are not, or shall not be prepared, vended, or exposed to sale under any letters patent under the great seal, nor shall at any time be by any public advertisement, or hand bills, or by any labels or words affixed to or delivered with any such packet, &c. recommended to the public by the owners, proprietors, &c. thereof, as nostrums or proprietary medicines, or as specifics, or as beneficial for the prevention, cure, or relief of any such distemper or complaint, 42 G.3. c. 56. s. 5.

592. Every owner, proprietor, maker, and compounder of, and every person in G. B. vending or exposing to sale, or keeping ready for sale any such drugs, herbs, pills, &c. as in s. 3. pl. 589., to be used or applied externally or internally as medicines or medicaments for the prevention, cure, or relief of any disorder or complaint incident to the human body, or any packets, boxes, &c. as in s. 3. with any such contents as aforesaid, subject to the duties hereby granted, shall annually take out a licence, and pay for such licence, if he reside within the cities of London or Westminster, the borough of Southwark, or the limits of the two-penny post, or within the city of Edinburgh, a stamp duty of 40s., and for every licence so taken by any such person who shall reside in any city, borough, or town corporate, or in the towns of Manchester, Birmingham or Sheffield, there shall be charged a stamp duty of 10s. and in any other part of G. B. 5s., id. s. 6.

593. Persons resident in Edinburgh shall take out a licence annually, which shall be charged with a duty of 2l. as fully as if inserted in the Sch. A. of 43 G.3. c. 98., from which it was omitted by mistake, 52 G.3. c. 150. s. 3.

594. Any 2 commissioners of stamps, or some person authorized by them, shall grant licences under this act, and such licences shall continue in force until 1st Sept. in each year, to commence from the date thereof, and every owner, proprietor, &c. or person who shall vend, expose to sale, or keep ready for sale, any such drugs, herbs, &c. packets, boxes, &c. with any such contents, shall in like manner renew such licence from year to year, paying the stamp duty thereon, 42 G.3. c. 56. s. 8.

595. No person shall take any profit or emolument as the owner, or proprietor of, or make, or compound, or utter, vend, expose to, or keep ready for sale, any drugs, herbs, &c. or any packets, boxes, &c. with any such contents, subject to the duties hereby granted, unless he has obtained such licence, upon pain to forfeit 20l., to be recovered, and applied as s. 23. pl. 611. directed, id. s. 9.

596. Every person preparing, vending, exposing to, or keeping ready for sale any such drugs, herbs, &c. or any packets, boxes, &c. with any such contents, which are subject to the duties hereby granted, shall apply to the commissioners of stamps, or their officers for paper covers, wrappers, or labels, to be pasted or affixed to such packets, boxes, &c. and the person so applying shall at the same time deliver in to such officers a note in writing, containing his name and place of abode, and the place where the drug, &c. in respect whereof such application is made, is first sold, and such note shall be filed by the officer to whom it is delivered, id. s. 10.

597. Such commissioners, or the major part of them, shall print or impress on such paper covers, wrappers, or labels, some device or particular word to denote such duties, and the rate thereof, and shall also deliver from time to time to such licensed owner, proprietor, &c. sufficient covers, &c. for such purposes, on payment of the stamp duties due thereon; and all packets, boxes, &c. with any such contents, when ready for sale, and kept for sale, and before the same are vended or exposed to sale by any person, either wholesale or retail, shall have well affixed thereto, such covers, wrappers, &c. so stamped, and such commissioners shall likewise decree and direct how such covers, &c. shall be affixed to such articles, or to the papers, thread, or other thing inclosing, or which shall be directed by such commissioners to inclose the same, and shall make such rules, &c. in that behalf as they think fit, to prevent such covers, &c. being used, after having been once disposed of, which rules, &c. shall be delivered to every such owner, proprietor, &c. and vendor at the time of taking out his first licence under this act, and so with every future licence, if any alteration is made therein, id. s. 11.

598. No person shall utter, vend, or expose to or offer or keep ready for sale, whether for foreign or home consumption, or pay or receive or keep for the purpose of selling by retail, either on his own behalf, or that of another, any packet, box, &c. or other inclosure containing any drugs, herbs, medicines, or medicament, or other preparations subject to the duties hereby imposed, unless the cover, &c. in s. 11. last pl. directed to be affixed to the same, shall be well affixed thereto in the manner by such commissioners directed, and stamped as hereby directed, previous to such sale, &c. or exposing, &c. to sale, or that shall have any cover, &c. affixed thereto, stamped with a stamp of less value than hereby directed, upon pain that persons so offending shall forfeit for each packet, box, &c. containing any such drug, &c. so uttered, vended or exposed, &c. to sale, 10l. to be recovered and applied, as in ss. 22, 23. pl. 611., directed, 42 G.3. c. 56. s. 12.

599. If any person, whether licensed or not, shall utter, vend, or expose to sale, or offer, or keep ready for sale, whether for foreign or home consumption, or pay or receive, or keep for the purpose of selling by retail, either on his own behalf, or that of another, any packet, box, bottle, pot, phial, or other inclosure containing any of the drugs, herbs, oils, waters, essences, tinctures, pills, powders, preparation or compositions set forth in the schedule hereto annexed without a paper cover, wrapper or label supplied by the commissioners of stamps, pursuant to the 44 G.3. c. 98., or the 42 G.3. c. 56., and duly stamped to denote the duty payable on such packet, &c. being properly affixed thereto, so that the same cannot be opened, and the contents poured or taken out without tearing such stamped cover, &c. so as to prevent its being used again, then such person shall forfeit 10l., to be recovered and applied, as by the said acts directed with regard to penalties by them imposed, 52 G.3. c. 150. s. 2.

600. If any person shall fraudulently cut, tear, or take off any stamp in respect whereof, or whereby any duties are hereby payable, or denoted to be paid to H. M., on any packet, box, &c. containing any drugs, herbs, medicine or medicament or other preparation aforesaid, subject to the duties hereby imposed after the same have been sold, or shall fraudulently paste, stick, fasten, or affix to any such packet, box, &c. any cover, &c. so stamped, the same having been once used for such purpose, or shall utter, vend, or expose to sale any packet, box, &c. containing any such drug, &c. with such cover, &c. so fraudulently cut, torn or taken off, and pasted, &c. thereto, such persons so offending, shall forfeit 20l. to be recovered, &c. as in ss. 22, 23. pl. 611. directed, 42 G.3. c. 56. s. 13.

601. If any person shall sell, or buy any such cover, &c. which has been before used for inclosing any packet, box, &c. of any drugs, &c. or other preparation liable to the duty hereby imposed, in order to be again used for the like purpose, or shall sell any packet, box, &c. with such cover, &c. which has been before used affixed thereto, such person shall forfeit 20l. to be recovered, &c. as by ss. 22, 23. pl. 611. directed, id. s. 14.

602. If either the buyer or seller of any such drug, herb, &c. or other preparation, or of any such cover, &c. or any such packet, box, &c. shall inform against the other party, the party so informing shall be admitted to give evidence against the party informed against, and shall be indemnified from all penalties by him incurred, and shall receive the same advantage as any other informer, id. s. 15.

603. The commissioners of stamps shall allow to every person supplied with paper covers, &c. under this act, the duty whereof shall amount to 5l. or more, after the rate of 5 per cent. per ann., and if such duty shall amount to 50l., then at the rate of 10 per cent. per ann., and if to 100l. or more, at the rate of 12 per cent. per ann. upon prompt payment of such duties, [QU. REF. ? see 44 G.3. s. 98. s. 1. Sch. (C.), ante page 1416.], id. s. 16.

604. Every person who shall prepare, or keep ready for sale, or utter, vend, or expose to sale any such drugs, &c. or preparations, or any packets, boxes, &c. with any such contents liable to the duties hereby granted, shall before they obtain any licence under this act, give notice in writing of the usual shop, house, or place where they prepare, keep for sale, make or vend, or expose to sale the same, or intend so to do, which notice shall be sent to such commissioners, or their officer next to the place where the same are prepared, kept ready for sale, &c. or intended so to be, and the like notice shall be sent whenever they change such place, which notice shall contain the particular shop or house wherein the same are so prepared, kept ready for sale, &c. or intended so to be, on pain that every person making default herein, or giving false notice, shall forfeit 10l., to be recovered &c. as by ss. 22, 23. pl. 611. directed, id. s. 17.

605. In case any covers, &c. shall be damaged in affixing the same upon such articles or otherwise, so as to be rendered unfit for use, such persons as are licensed under this act may bring them, together with such articles, to the commissioners of stamps, or to their head officer, and on oath or affirmation made by such licensed person, to the satisfaction of such commissioners or their officer (who shall administer such oath or affirmation, and examine into all circumstances relating to the damaging of the same) that such covers, &c. so damaged and rendered unfit for use, have not been used for any purpose, or in any other manner, and that none of them have been fraudulently re-bought or returned, and that no money or other consideration has been given for the same, except that first paid at the stamp office, or other place appointed for the distribution thereof, then such commissioners may, after destroying such damaged covers, &c. deliver to such licensed person other covers, &c. of the same denomination or value, instead of those so damaged, without taking any sum or other consideration for the same, id. s. 18.

606. The duties hereby imposed on drugs, herbs, oils, &c. and other preparations to be used or applied as medicines or medicaments, for the prevention, cure, or relief of any distemper or complaint incident to the human body, and upon persons uttering or vending the same; and all the powers, penalties, &c. by this act appointed for raising, levying, &c. such duties, shall extend to charge every article mentioned in the schedule [that schedule R.E.P. and a new one given, 43 G.3. c.73., and that R.E.P. and a new one given, 44 G.3. c.98., and that R.E.P. and a new one given, 52 G.3. c.150. s.1.] hereto annexed, by the names therein mentioned, or by whatever other names they may be known; and all pills, powders, lozenges, tinctures, potions, cordials, electuaries, plaisters, unguents, salves, ointments, drops, lotions, oils, spirits, medicated herbs and waters, chemical and officinal preparations of the same, or the like properties, virtues, and efficacies with those therein mentioned, prepared, or vended by any persons, wherein the person making, vending, &c. the same claims any occult secret for making the same, or any exclusive right or title to the making of the same, or which now are or shall be hereafter vended or exposed to sale under any letters patent under the great seal, or which now are or hereafter may be by any public advertisement, notice, papers, or hand bills, or by labels or words affixed to or delivered with any such packet, box, &c. recommended to the public use by the makers, &c. thereof, as nostrums or proprietary medicines, or as specifics, or as beneficial for the prevention, cure, or relief of any distemper or complaint incident to the human body; and shall also extend to charge with the duties hereby imposed on licences all persons who shall vend or expose to sale any such medicines as aforesaid, 42 G.3. c.56. s.19.

607. The schedule, and so much of the act 42 G.3. c.56. s.19. as relates thereto is R.E.P., and the schedules hereto annexed shall be deemed part of the said act, and all the powers, &c. of such act shall be applied to this act, 43 G.3. c.70. s.1. [again R.E.P., 44 G.3. c.98. s.1.]

609. Nothing in this or any other act shall charge with any stamp duty ginger and peppermint lozenges, or any other article of confectionary, unless the same are vended as medicines, or as beneficial for the prevention, cure, or relief of any distemper or disorder affecting the human body, nor to compel any person to take out a licence for vending the same, as required of vendors of medicines, 52 G.3. c.184. s.54.

610. If any person shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any seal, stamp, or mark directed to be used under this act, for denoting the duties hereby granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble any impression of the same on any vellum, &c. with intent to defraud H. M. of any of such duties, or shall utter, vend, or sell any vellum, &c. directed to be stamped with any stamp provided under this act, or any other act, with a counterfeit stamp thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or if any person shall fraudulently and privately use any stamp, &c. directed to be used by this act, with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 42 G.3. c.56. s.20. [See 52 G.3. c.143. s.7., 55 G.3. c.184. s.7. pl.132.] Powers of former stamp acts extended to this act, id. s.21.

611. All pecuniary penalties hereby imposed for offences committed against this act, may be sued for and recovered in any of the courts at Westminster for offences committed in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and in the courts of sessions, justiciary, or of exchequer in Scot. for the like offences committed there, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s.22.; and such penalties shall go, if sued for within 6 calendar months, [see pl.614.] from the time when incurred, one moiety to H. M., and the other, with full costs of suit, to the informer, id. s.22. [But see 44 G.3. c.98. s.10. pl.123.]

612. Such division of the penalty is hereby confined to prosecutions within such time, and in default thereof no informer shall have any share thereof, but the whole shall go to H. M., and shall be recoverable as in s.23. directed, id. s.24.

613. Any justice of peace residing near the place where the offence is committed may determine any offence against this act, punishable by a pecuniary penalty, at any time within 6 months after the offence committed, and on information or complaint made may summon the accused, and the witnesses on either side, and examine into the fact, and on due proof made, either by confession or on oath of one witness, may give judgment for the penalty, and award his warrant under hand and seal, to levy the same on the goods of the offender, and make sale thereof if not redeemed within 6 days, and where sufficient goods of the offender cannot be found, he may commit him to prison for 3 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and persons aggrieved by such judgment may, on giving security to the accountant of the penalty, and the costs to be awarded in case the judgment is affirmed, appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, shire, &c., and the justices there shall summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and fully determine the same, and in case the judgment is affirmed such justices may award the person to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as they think fit, 42 G.3. c.56. s.25.

614. No person shall commence any action or information in H. M.'s courts against any person, or proceed before any justice or magistrate in a summary way, for the recovery of any penalty, &c. incurred under the 42 G.3. c.56., unless the same be commenced in the name of H. M.'s attorney-general, and by his authority, or in the name of some stamp officer; and if any action or information, &c. or prosecution is commenced or prosecuted by or in the name of any other person, or under any other authority than that before mentioned, the same, and all proceedings thereon had shall be void, and such courts, justice, or magistrate wherein or before whom such action or information, &c. or prosecution is commenced, shall not permit any proceeding to be had thereupon, 43 G.3. c.73. s.4. [See a similar general provision, 44 G.3. c.98. s.10. pl.123.]

615. Every action or information, &c. brought before any court, or any justice or magistrate for any pecuniary penalty under the 42 G.3. c.56. or this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the penalty is incurred, id. s.5.

616. If any person who is summoned as a witness before such justice or justices, touching such matters on either side, and shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without excuse, to be allowed by such justice or justices, such person shall forfeit 40s.; to be levied and paid as hereinbefore (s.25. pl.613.) directed as to other penalties, 42 G.3. c.56. s.26.

617. Such justice or justices convicting any such offenders shall make out the conviction in the form following, or to that effect, mutatis mutandis, viz.:—

'Be it remembered, that on — day of — in the year of our Lord — in the county of — A. B. of — was convicted before me C. D., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, residing near the place where the offence was committed, for that the said A. B. on the — day of — now last past did, contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, [here state the offence against the act] and I do declare and adjudge that the said A. B. hath forfeited the sum of — of lawful money of G. B. for the offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the law directs. Given under my hand and seal the — day of —'

Such justice, where he sees fit, may mitigate any such penalties (reasonable costs of officers and informers in prosecuting being always allowed over the mitigation,) so as such mitigation do not reduce the penalties to less than one moiety besides such costs, id. s.27.; and no such conviction shall be removed by certiorari, id. s.28.

618. Penalties hereby or by 42 G.3. c.56. imposed, may be mitigated by any justice or magistrate, the reasonable costs of officers and the informer being always allowed if demanded, over such mitigation, so as such mitigation does not reduce such penalty to less than one-fourth part, 43 G.3. c.73. s.5.

619. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, 42 G.3. c.56. s.30.

620. Every person who shall receive from any proprietor or compounder, or original or first vendor, or any of their agents, any articles subject to the duty by 42 G.3. c.56. granted, for the purpose of selling the same again, without the labels denoting the duty being affixed thereto, and shall not within 10 days return the same to the person from whom it was received, or give information thereof at the head stamp office, and deposit such articles with the nearest distributor of stamps, shall forfeit 20l., to be recovered, &c. as penalties under the said act may be, 43 G.3. c.73. s.2. [see 42 G.3. c.56. s.22—25. pl.611—613. and see pl.614.]

621. On the outside of all parcels, boxes, trunks, or packages containing one dozen or more of packets, boxes, bottles, pots, phials, or other enclosure containing any articles in the 42 G.3. c.56. mentioned, and subject to the duty thereby imposed, and sent by any proprietor, compounder or original vendor thereof, or any agent employed by him, to any retail vendor, by any public conveyance, or which shall be about to be exported, the word "medicines" shall be written with the name of such original vendor, and of the person sending or exporting the same if not such proprietor, &c.; and the officers of customs and excise, and persons authorized by the commissioners of stamps, by authority in writing from a magistrate or justice, (which authority he may grant on information given and proved before him on oath, that there is reason to suspect that any such parcel, &c. contains such articles subject to such duties, not properly labelled according to the said act,) may open such parcels, &c., and examine if the proper labels be duly affixed to the articles contained therein; and in case such labels are not duly affixed thereto, they may seize, and send and deliver the same at the head stamp office; and the commissioners of stamps may reward the seizing officers as they see fit, 43 G.3. c.73. s.3.

622. No victualler, confectioner, pastry-cook, fruiterer, or other shop-keeper in G. B., who shall only sell any of the artificial or other waters mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, to be drank in his house or shop, and which shall be actually drank therein, shall take out a licence for that purpose under 44 G. 3. c. 98., or 42 G. 3. c. 56.; provided such waters be sold by him in bottles with paper covers, wrappers, or labels duly stamped, properly affixed to the same, as in s. 2. pl. 599. mentioned, 52 G. 3. c. 150. s. 4.

And also all other pills, powders, lozenges, tinctures, potions, cordials, electuaries, plaisters, unguents, salves, ointments, drops, lotions, oils, spirits, medicated herbs and waters, chemical and officinal preparations whatsoever, to be used or applied externally or internally, as medicines or medicaments for the prevention, cure, or relief of any disorder or complaint incident to or in anywise affecting the human body, made, prepared, uttered, vended, or exposed to sale by any person or persons whatsoever, wherein the person making, preparing, uttering, vending, or exposing to sale the same, hath or claims to have any occult secret, or art for the making or preparing the same, or hath or claims to have any exclusive right or title to the making or preparing the same, or which have at any time heretofore been, now are, or shall hereafter be prepared, uttered, vended, or exposed to sale under the authority of any letters patent under the great seal, or which have at any time heretofore been, now are, or shall hereafter be by any public notice or advertisement, or by any written or printed papers or hand bills, or by any label or words written or printed, affixed to, or delivered with any packet, box, bottle, phial, or other inclosure, containing the same, held out or recommended to the public by the makers, venders, or proprietors thereof as nostrums or proprietary medicines, or as specifics, or as beneficial to the prevention, cure, or relief of any distemper, malady, ailment, disorder or complaint incident to or in anywise affecting the human body.

SPECIAL EXEMPTIONS.

All drugs named or contained in the book of rates subscribed with the name of Sir Harbottle Grimstone, Baronet, and mentioned and referred to by the act of tonnage and poundage made in the 12th year of the reign of king Charles the Second, and in another book of rates, intituled "An additional book of rates of goods and merchandizes, usually imported, and not particularly rated in the book of rates referred to in the act of tonnage and poundage made in the 12th year of the reign of king Charles the Second, with rules, orders, and regulations, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Speaker of the honourable house of commons, and mentioned and referred to by an act made in the 11th year of the reign of H. M. king George the First."

All medicinal drugs whatsoever, which shall be uttered or vended entire, without any mixture or composition with any other drug or ingredient whatsoever, by any surgeon, apothecary, chemist, or druggist, who hath served a regular apprenticeship, or by any person who hath served as a surgeon in the navy or army, under any commission or appointment, duly entered at the war office or navy office, or by any other person whatsoever, licensed to sell any of the medicines chargeable with a stamp duty.

And also all mixtures, compositions, or preparations whatsoever, mixed or compounded with, or prepared from medicinal drugs, medicated or chemical preparations or compositions, or other ingredients, bearing different denominations, or having different properties, qualities, virtues, or efficacies, which shall be uttered or vended by any such surgeon, apothecary, chemist, or druggist as aforesaid, or by any such person who hath served as a surgeon in the navy or army, under any such commission or appointment as aforesaid, the different denomination, properties, qualities, virtues, and efficacies of which mixtures, compositions, and preparations, as aforesaid, are known, admitted, and approved of in the preservation, cure, or relief of any disorder, malady, ailment, or complaint incident to or in anywise affecting the human body, and wherein the person mixing, compounding, preparing, uttering, or vending the same, hath not nor claims to have any occult secret or art for the mixing, compounding, or preparing the same, nor hath nor claims to have any exclusive right or title to the mixing, compounding, or preparing, or to the vending of the same, and which mixtures, compositions, or preparations, have not been, are not, nor shall hereafter be prepared, uttered, vended, or exposed to sale under the authority of any letters patent under the great seal, nor at any time heretofore have been, now are, or shall hereafter be by any public notice, advertisement, or by any written or printed papers or hand bills, or by any labels or words, written or printed, and affixed to or delivered with any such packet, box, bottle, pot, phial, or other inclosure aforesaid, held out or recommended to the public by the owners, proprietors, makers, compounders, original or first vendors thereof, as nostrums or proprietary medicines, or as specifics, or as beneficial for the prevention, cure, or relief of any such distemper, malady, ailment, or complaint, as aforesaid.

NEWSPAPERS.

623. FOR EXPLAINING 10 A. c. 19. s. 101., IN RELATION to the stamp duty on newspapers [and for the better collection of such duties], 11 G. 1. c. 8. s. 13. [EXPL. 15 G. 5. c. 65. AMD. 16 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5., 29 G. 3. c. 50. ss. 7—9., 34 G. 3. c. 72., 37 G. 3. c. 90. ss. 33—38., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 10. s. 10., 42 G. 3. c. 99. ss. 7, 8., 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. C. (see ante, page 1416.) such discount shall be allowed, notwithstanding the proprietors of newspapers advance the price of newspapers one halfpenny, 49 G. 3. c. 50. [QU. all this superseded by 55 G. 3. c. 185. ss. 9, 10.]

624. Journals, mercuries, and newspapers, printed on one sheet and half-sheet of paper, shall not be deemed pamphlets, nor pay as such, 11 G. 1. c. 8. s. 13.

625. The duties by 11 G. 1. c. 8. s. 14., and 30 G. 2. c. 19. granted on newspapers, &c. do and shall extend to charge every sheet, and every half sheet of paper on which any journal, &c. or paper, containing public news, shall be printed, whether the same be contained in a greater or less number of sheets or half sheets, 15 G. 3. c. 65.

626. If any person shall sell, hawk, or expose to sale, any newspapers, or any book, pamphlet, or paper, deemed a newspaper, within the meaning of any stamp act now in force not being duly stamped, any justice of peace may commit the offender on conviction, by confession, or on oath of one witness, to the house of correction for 3 months, and any person may apprehend and carry before a justice, any such offender; and such person so seizing shall, on the conviction of such offender, and producing a certificate of such conviction, under the hand of such justice, (which certificate, such justice shall give without fee,) be entitled to a reward of 20s., to be paid by the receiver-general of stamp-duties, 16 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5. [EXT. to almanacks, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 26. See STAMPS, Almanacks. pl. 207.]

627. No commissioner of stamps, nor any of their officers, shall cancel any stamps upon any copies or impressions of newspapers, under the pretence of their remaining unsold [see 10 A. c. 19. s. 114. STAMPS (Pamphlets), pl. 672.] in the hands of the printers, publishers, or proprietors thereof, nor shall they make any allowance on account of the same, or of present payment of the duties, other than as hereinafter mentioned, 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 7.

628. Such commissioners may allow to any person who shall bring, at one time, to the head stamp-office to be stamped, or shall buy of such commissioners or their agents, at such head office, paper duly stamped with newspaper duties, which duties shall amount to 10*l.* at the rate of 4 per cent. on prompt payment, which shall be in lieu of all other allowances, 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 8. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. C. ante, page 1416.; 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 9., post, pl. 634.]

629. If any hawk of any newspaper, or other person, shall let out any newspaper for hire, to any person, or different persons, or from house to house, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be recovered and applied as any other penalty may be, by the stamp acts, 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 9.

630. The commissioners of stamps and their officers, may stamp any quantity of single demy paper in sheets, which shall be brought to them for that purpose, on payment of the duties to the receiver-general, instead of stamping every half sheet of double demy paper as heretofore, 34 G. 3. c. 72. s. 1.

631. Nothing herein shall limit the price of any paper whereon the allowance by this act granted has not been demanded and paid, nor to prevent any person on prompt payment of the duties imposed by any act now in force, from receiving the allowance of 4*l. per cent.* thereon, in any case where the allowance hereby granted, is not demanded and paid, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 37. [See 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. (C.), ante, page 1416.]

632. General issue, treble costs, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 38. [See the section at length, STAMPS (Attorney's Certificate), pl. 297.]

633. Discount on prompt payment of the stamp duties on newspapers, 37 G. 3. c. 90. ss. 33—36., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 10. s. 10., 42 G. 3. c. 99. ss. 7, 8., 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. C. (see ante, page 1416.) such discount shall be allowed, notwithstanding the proprietors of newspapers advance the price of newspapers one halfpenny, 49 G. 3. c. 50. [QU. all this superseded by 55 G. 3. c. 185. ss. 9, 10.]

634. A discount at the rate of 20*l. per cent.* on the prompt payment of any sum of 10*l.* or more, for the duties on newspapers, shall be made to all proprietors of newspapers who sell their papers at not exceeding 7*d.* each, or at a price not exceeding 2*d.* each above the price they were sold at, for 3 calendar months before 22*d.* June 1797; and a discount at the rate of 4*l. per cent.* shall be made on prompt payment of the duties on newspapers of 10*l.* or more, to all proprietors who sell their paper at a higher price than as aforesaid, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 9.

635. The commissioners of stamps shall provide two sets of stamps for denoting the duties on newspapers, one of which shall express the allowance of 20*l. per cent.*, and the other not, and they shall stamp newspapers with one of these sets, according as 20 or 4 per cent. is allowed; and if any person shall print, or cause to be printed, any newspaper, &c. without printing thereon the price at which sold, or shall sell or expose to sale, the same at any higher price than shall be printed thereon; or shall print, or cause to be printed on any newspaper, with the larger discount, any price exceeding that in respect of which the larger discount is allowed, or shall sell or expose to sale, the same at any such higher price, such person so offending shall forfeit for each paper so printed, sold, or exposed to sale, contrary thereto, 20*l. id.* s. 10.

636. Size of sheets of paper for printing newspapers, 34 G. 3. c. 72. s. 2. ENLARGED, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 19.

637. No newspaper or paper containing public intelligence, shall be printed in G. B. on paper exceeding 32 inches in length, and 21 in breadth, and the commissioners of stamps shall not stamp with the newspaper duty, paper of a larger size than as aforesaid, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 22.

638. TO SUBJECT CERTAIN PUBLICATIONS TO THE DUTIES of stamps upon newspapers, and to make other regulations for restraining the abuses arising from the publication of blasphemous and seditious libels, 60 G. 3. c. 9.

639. All pamphlets and papers containing any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations thereon, or upon any matter in church or state, printed in any part of the U. K. for sale, and published periodically, or in parts or numbers, at intervals not exceeding 26 days between the publication of any 2 such pamphlets or papers, parts or numbers, where any of them respectively shall not exceed 2 sheets, or shall be published for sale for less than 6*d.* exclusive of the duty by this act imposed, shall be deemed to be newspapers within the 38 G. 3. c. 78., 55 G. 3. (Ir.) c. 80., 55 G. 3. c. 185., and 56 G. 3. (Ir.) c. 56. and all other acts in force relating to newspapers, and be subject to the same duties of stamps, with the same allowances and discounts, as newspapers printed in G. B. and Ire. now are subject to under the said acts, and shall be printed, published, and distributed under the like regulations, provisions, penalties, &c. as are contained in the said acts, or in any other act now in force in G. B. or Ire., relating to newspapers; and such acts, and all other acts now in force in G. B. or Ire. relating to the printing, publishing, or dispersing, in G. B. or Ire., any newspapers, or containing any regulations relating thereto, and all the provisions and penalties therein, shall (except where altered by this act) be applied to all such pamphlets and printed papers, as fully as if re-enacted in and made part of this act; and such recited acts, and all other such acts as aforesaid, and this act, shall be construed as one act, id. s. 1.

640. No quantity of paper less than a quantity equal to 21 inches in length and 17 in breadth, in whatever way the same may be made, or divided into leaves, or in whatever way the same may be printed, shall be deemed to be a sheet of paper within this act, id. s. 2.

641. No cover or blank leaf, upon which any advertisement or other notice is printed, shall, for this act, be deemed a part of any such pamphlet, &c. aforesaid, id. s. 3.

642. All pamphlets and papers containing any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any such remarks or observations as in s. 1. aforesaid, printed for sale, and published periodically, or in parts or numbers, at intervals exceeding 26 days between any 2 such pamphlets, &c. and which said pamphlets, &c. shall not exceed 2 sheets, or which shall be published for sale at a less price than 6*d.*, shall be first published on the first day of every calendar month, or within 2 days before or after that day, and at no other time; and every person who shall first publish any such pamphlet, &c. on any other day, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 4.

643. Upon every such pamphlet or paper, as in s. 1., and upon every part or number thereof, shall be printed the full price at which the same shall be published for sale, and also the day on which first published; and every person who shall publish any such pamphlet, &c. without such price and day being printed thereon; or every person who shall, within 2 months after the day of publication printed thereon as aforesaid, sell or expose to sale any such pamphlet, &c. or any portion or part thereof, upon which the price so printed as aforesaid shall be 6d., or above that sum, for a less price than 6d., shall forfeit 20l., 60 G.3. c.9. s. 5.

644. Nothing in this act shall extend to subject any person publishing any pamphlet or paper to any penalty for any allowance in price made by the person for whom and on whose behalf, and for whose profit the same was first published, to any bookseller or distributor, or other person to whom the same shall be sold for the purpose of retailing the same, id. s. 6.

645. All pamphlets and papers by this act declared subject to the stamp duties upon newspapers, shall be freed from all the stamp duties and regulations contained in any act relating to pamphlets, id. s. 7.

646. No person shall print or publish for sale, any newspaper, or any pamphlet or other paper containing any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations thereon, or upon any matter in church or state, which shall not exceed 2 sheets, or which shall be published for sale at a less price than 6d., until he or she shall have entered into a recognizance before a baron of the exchequer, in Eng., Scot., or Ire., as the case may be, if such newspaper or pamphlet, or other paper, shall be printed in London or Westminster, or in Edinburgh or Dublin, or shall have executed in the presence of, and delivered to some justice of the peace for the county, city, or place where such newspaper, &c. shall be printed, if printed elsewhere, a bond to H. M., together with 2 or 3 sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of such baron taking such recognizance, or of the justice taking such bond, every person printing or publishing any such newspaper, &c. aforesaid, in 300l. if such newspaper, &c. shall be printed in London or within 20 miles thereof, and in 200l. if printed elsewhere in the U. K., and his or her sureties in a like sum in the whole; conditioned that such printer or publisher shall pay to H. M., every such fine or penalty as may be imposed upon or adjudged against him or her, by reason of any conviction for printing or publishing any blasphemous or seditious libel, at any time after the entering into such recognizance or executing such bond; and that every person who shall print or first publish any such newspaper, &c. without having entered into such recognizance, or executed and delivered such bond with such sureties, shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 8.

647. In every case in which any surety or sureties in any such recognizance or bond, shall be required to pay and shall have paid the whole or any part of the sum for which he shall have become surety; or in case any such sureties shall become bankrupt, or be discharged under any insolvent act; then the person for whom such sureties shall have been bound, shall not print or publish any newspaper, &c. until he or she shall, upon being required so to do by the commissioners of stamps for G. B. and Ire. respectively, have entered into a new recognizance, or executed a new bond, with sufficient sureties, in the manner and to the amount in s. 8. pl. 646. aforesaid; and in case he or she shall print or publish any such newspaper, &c. without having entered into such new recognizance, or executed such new bond, having been so required so to do, he or she shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 9.

648. Provided that if any surety or sureties shall be desirous of withdrawing from such recognizance or bond, he, she, or they, may so do, upon giving 20 days previous notice in writing to the commissioners of stamps respectively, or to the distributor of stamps for the district where the printer or publisher for whom he or they is or are surety or sureties shall reside, and also to such printer or publisher; and that in any such case, every such surety or sureties, after the expiration of such notice, shall not be liable upon such bond or recognizance, other than and except for any penalty before that time imposed; and that then the person for whom such surety or sureties shall have been bound, shall not print or publish any newspaper, &c. aforesaid, until he or she shall have entered into a new recognizance, or executed a new bond, with sufficient sureties, in the manner and to the amount in s. 8. aforesaid; and in case he or she shall print or publish any such newspaper, &c. aforesaid, without having entered into such new recognizance or bond, he or she shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 10.

649. No such bond shall be subject to any stamp duty, id. s. 11.

650. Lists of all the recognizances entered into in the respective courts of exchequer in Eng., Scot., or Ire., shall, 4 times in each year, be transmitted to the commissioners of stamps in G. B. and Ire. respectively, as the case may be, by the respective officers recording such recognizances; and all bonds executed under this act shall, within 10 days at the furthest after the execution thereof, be transmitted to such commissioners respectively, by the justices to whom the same shall have been delivered, id. s. 12.

651. The printer or publisher of any pamphlet or other paper for sale, containing any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations thereon, or on any matter in church or state, shall, upon every day upon which the same shall be published, or within 6 days after, deliver to the commissioners of stamps for G. B. and Ire. respectively, at their head offices, or to some distributor or officer to be appointed by them to receive the same, and whom they are hereby required to appoint, one of the pamphlets or papers so published upon each such day, signed by the printer or publisher thereof, in his handwriting, with his name and abode; and the same shall be kept by such commissioners, or such distributor or officer, in such manner as the commissioners shall direct; and such printer or publisher shall be entitled to receive from the commissioners, or such distributor or officer, the amount of the retail price of such pamphlet or paper so delivered; and in every case in which the printer and publisher of such pamphlet or paper shall neglect to deliver one such pamphlet or paper as hereinbefore directed, they shall respectively forfeit 100l., 60 G.3. c.9. s. 13.

652. Provided that in case the commissioners, or such distributor or officer shall refuse to receive or pay for any copy of such pamphlet or paper offered to be delivered as aforesaid, on account of the same not being within this act, such commissioners, distributor, or officer shall, if required so to do, deliver to such printer or publisher a certificate in writing that a copy of such pamphlet or paper had been by him duly offered to be delivered; and such printer or publisher shall thereupon be discharged from any penalty for not having delivered such copy, id. s. 14.

653. Every person who shall sell or expose to sale, any pamphlet or other paper not being duly stamped, if required to be stamped, shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 15.

654. It shall be lawful for any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or of great session in Wa., or any judge thereof respectively, or for any court of quarter or general sessions, or for any justice of peace before whom any person charged with having printed or published any blasphemous, seditious, or malicious libel, shall be brought for the purpose of giving bail upon such charge, to make it a part of the condition of the recognizance to be entered into by such person and his or her bail, that the person so charged shall be of good behaviour during the continuance of such recognizance, id. s. 16.

655. All fines and penalties by this act imposed shall be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or the courts of great session in Wa., or the courts of the counties palatine, or in the court of session or court of exchequer in Scot. (as the case shall require), wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed; or before any 2 justices of peace of the county, city, or place where the offence shall be committed; provided that no larger amount in the whole than 100l., shall be recoverable before any justices of peace for any such penalties incurred in any one day, id. s. 17.

656. Any 2 or more justices of peace, in all cases in which they are authorized to hear and determine any offence which shall be committed against this act, or any other act which are by this act required to be construed therewith as part thereof (see s. 1. pl. 639.), upon information exhibited or complaint made, within 3 months after any such offence committed, may summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side; and upon the appearance, or contempt of the party accused, may proceed to the examination of the witnesses upon oath (which oath they shall administer), and give judgment for the penalty incurred; and in case the party shall not immediately pay the penalty, may commit the offender to prison, for not exceeding six months, unless such penalty shall be sooner paid; and if any party is aggrieved by the judgment of any such justices, then he, she, or they may, upon giving security to the amount of the penalty adjudged, together with such costs as may be awarded in case such judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the justices at the next quarter or general sessions for the county, division, or place wherein such offence was committed, who shall summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the judgment shall be affirmed, such justices may order the appellant to pay such costs, as to them shall seem meet; provided, that such justices, where they see cause, may mitigate any such penalty, in such manner as they think fit; the reasonable costs and charges of the officers or informers being always allowed over such mitigation; and so as such mitigation does not reduce the penalty to less than one-fourth over such costs, id. s. 18.

657. If any person shall be summoned as a witness to give evidence before such justices touching any such offence, either on the part of the prosecutor or of the accused, and shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without a reasonable excuse, to be allowed of by the justices before whom the prosecution shall be depending, or appearing shall refuse to give evidence, then such person shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20l., to be levied and paid in such manner and by such means as is in this act, s. 18. pl. 656. directed as to other penalties, id. s. 19.

658. The justices before whom any offender shall be so convicted, shall cause the conviction to be made out in the form following, or in any other form to the like effect, mutatis mutandis; viz.

County of — } Be it remembered, that on — at — A. B. of — was duly to wit. } convicted before us, — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for — in pursuance of an act passed in the 60th year of the reign His present Majesty, intituled, An Act (title of this act); for that the said A. B. on the — day of — now last past, did [here state the offence, as the case may happen to be] contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided; for which offence we do adjudge that the said A. B. hath forfeited the sum of —; and [if the justices mitigate the penalty] which sum of — we do hereby mitigate to the sum of —. Given under our hands and seals, this — day of —. 60 G. 3. c. 9. s. 20.

659. No order or conviction made under this act by any justices of peace, shall be removed by certiorari, advocacy, or suspension into any court; and no writ of certiorari, &c. shall supersede execution or other proceedings upon any such order or conviction, but execution and other proceedings shall be had thereupon notwithstanding, id. s. 21.

660.* No person may commence, prosecute, enter, or file, any action, &c. or information in any of H. M.'s courts, or before any justice or justices of peace, against any person for the recovery of any penalty incurred under this act, unless the same be commenced, &c. in the name of H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or in Ire., or H. M.'s advocate for Scot., or in the name of the solicitor or some other officer of H. M.'s stamp duties in Eng., or in Scot., or Ire. respectively; and if any action &c. shall be commenced, in the name of any other person, the same and every proceeding thereupon had, shall be void, id. s. 22.

661. Such duties shall be under the commissioners of stamps in G. B. and Ire.; who, or the major part of them, in G. B. and Ire. respectively, shall do all other things necessary for putting this act into execution, with relation to the said duties, id. s. 23.

662. The said duties shall be payable to H. M.; and such duties, and the several allowances, discounts, and sums, in respect of the same, shall be respectively levied, collected, paid, recovered, adjudged, accounted for, and applied, mitigated and allowed, in the like manner, and by any or either of the general or special methods, by which the duties upon newspapers, and discounts and allowances in respect thereof, under the commissioners of stamps, are or may be; and the several persons, and also all such pamphlets and papers, of what nature or kind soever, by this act made liable to the duty, or entitled to any discount or allowance, shall be liable to all the conditions, regulations, &c. to which such persons and newspapers are generally or specially liable by any act in force before the passing of this act; and every penalty, or forfeiture for any offence committed against any act now in force for securing the duties under the commissioners' stamps, upon newspapers, or for the regulation or improvement of such duties, and the several provisions therein contained, shall (except where by this act altered or repealed) extend to, and be respectively applied, and put in execution in respect of the several duties charged, imposed, and allowed, as fully as if such provisions, pains or penalties, and things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this act, id. s. 24.

663. The monies arising from the duties hereby granted shall be paid into the receipt of the exchequer at Westminster and Dublin respectively, and be carried to the consolidated fund of the U. K., id. s. 25. [see 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14.]

664. Nothing in this act shall extend to acts of parliament, proclamations, orders of council, forms of prayer and thanksgiving, and acts of state, ordered to be printed by H. M., or his authorized officer; or to any printed votes or other matters by order of either house of parliament; or to books commonly used in schools, or books or papers containing only matters of devotion, piety, or charity, or daily accounts; or bills of goods imported and exported; or warrants or certificates for the delivery of goods; and the weekly bills of mortality; or to papers containing any lists of prices current, or of the state of the markets, or any account of the arrival, sailing, or other circumstances relating to merchant vessels; or of any other matter wholly of a commercial nature; provided such bills, lists, or accounts do not contain any other matter than what hath been usually comprised therein; or to the printers or publishers of the foregoing matters, id. s. 26.

665. Nothing in this act shall extend to charge with stamp duties any work reprinted and republished in parts or numbers, whether such work shall be wholly reprinted or shall be republished in an abridged form; provided that such work shall have been first printed and published 2 years previous to such reprinting and republication, and provided such work was not first published in parts or numbers, id. s. 27.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

666. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL USE OR EXERCISE THE OFFICE of a notary public, or do any notarial act, without being duly admitted in the court wherein notaries are usually admitted, and without having delivered in his name and residence, and taken out the certificate required by 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1., and 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 26., or one of them, shall forfeit 50*l.*, and be incapable to do any act or thing as a notary public, or recover any fee on account thereof; and such penalty shall be recoverable and applied as any penalty of like value by such acts imposed may be, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 7., [See STAMPS (Attorney's Certificates); for the duty see 55 G. 3. c. 184., Sch. Part I. tit. Certificate.]

PAMPHLETS.

667. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON pamphlets, 10 A. c. 19. ss. 104. 111—114. 120., [RE. as to s. 112., by 55 G. 3.

c. 185. s. 5.]; [This title is also framed. For the duties, see 55 G. 3. c. 185. Sch. Pamphlets; and further as to pamphlets, ante, Newspapers.]

668. All vellum, &c. on which any thing hereby charged with duty is written, (the paper to be used in printing pamphlets, exceeding one sheet only excepted), shall, before such writing, be brought to the head office to be stamped, 10 A. c. 19. s. 104.

669. One printed copy of every such pamphlet, printed or published within London or Westminster, or the weekly bills of mortality, shall, within 6 days after the printing, be brought to the head office for stamping of vellum, &c. and the title thereof, with the number of sheets, and the duty hereby charged, shall be entered; which duty shall be paid to the receiver-general of the stamp duties, who shall give a receipt for the same, on such printed copy, or the same shall be stamped to denote the payment of the duty; and one printed copy of every such pamphlet, printed or published in any part of G. B., not within such limits, shall, within 14 days after the printing, be brought to some head collector of the stamp duties, who shall enter the title thereof, with the number of sheets, and the duty hereby charged, which duty shall be thereupon paid to such collector, who shall give a receipt for the same on such copy, 10 A. c. 19. s. 111.

670. [If the duty is not paid, the author shall lose all property therein, RE. 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 5.]; and the printer and publisher, and all persons concerned therein shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 112.

671. No person shall sell, or expose to sale, any such pamphlet without the name and place of abode of some known person, by or for whom the same was really printed or published, printed thereupon, on pain that persons offending herein shall forfeit 20*l.* with costs, id. s. 113.

672. The commissioners of stamps, or head officers by them appointed, may cancel all stamps upon such copies of such newspapers, [RE. as to newspapers, 29 G. 3. c. 50. s. 7.] or pamphlets, contained in one sheet or less, as shall remain unsold in the hands of the person by or for whom the same were printed or published; and on oath made before such commissioners, or the major part of them, or such head officer, (who shall administer the same, and examine into all circumstances relating to the selling of such newspapers or pamphlets,) that all such copies so cancelled shall be really and truly remaining unsold, and that none of them have been fraudulently returned or rebought, and cause the like number of sheets, half sheets, or less pieces, to be stamped gratis, and without paying any duties; and such commissioners may make such rules, &c. for regulating such allowances, and cancelling, as they think fit, id. s. 114.

673. Provided that 2 justices of peace may hear and determine any offence against this act, in printing, selling, or exposing to sale, any pamphlets or newspapers not stamped; which justices shall, on information exhibited, or complaint made within 3 months after any such offence, summon the party accused, and also the witnesses, and upon the appearance or contempt of the party (upon proof of notice) proceed to the examination of witnesses on oath, and give judgment; and where the party shall be convicted, either by view of the justices, or either of them, or upon such information, may issue warrants for levying any pecuniary penalty on the goods of the offender, and make sale thereof within 6 days if not redeemed; and if no goods, may imprison the party till penalty paid; and persons aggrieved by the judgment of such justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, and the justices there may summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the same, and in case of conviction, shall issue warrants to levy such penalty; but such justices may mitigate such penalty, the reasonable costs of the officers and informers being always allowed, so as the penalty is not reduced to less than 1-4th, id. s. 120.

PAWNBROKER.

674. FOR BETTER COLLECTING THE STAMP DUTIES ON licences to be taken out by pawnbrokers, 25 G. 3. c. 48. [This title is framed from the purport of these sections. For the duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Licence.]

675. Duties imposed, and placed under the commissioners of stamps, id. ss. 1, 2. No person exercising the business of a pawnbroker, shall, unless he is licensed as after provided, receive by way of pawn, pledge, or exchange from any person, any goods or chattels for the repayment of money lent thereon in G. B. on pain to forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 12., id. s. 3.

676. Two commissioners of stamps, or some person authorized by them, shall grant licences to persons applying for the same, to use or exercise the trade or business of pawnbrokers in any city, town, or place in G. B., for one year, to commence from the date of the licence; and such pawnbrokers shall take out another licence for another year, 10 days before the expiration of the old one, and so renew the same from year to year, paying the stamp duties due thereon, id. s. 4.

677. All persons who shall take by way of pawn, or pledge, or exchange, any goods, &c. for the repayment of the money lent thereon, shall be deemed pawnbrokers within this act, and take out a licence accordingly, id. s. 5.

678. Nothing in this act shall extend to any person who shall lend money upon pawn or pledge, at or under 5l. per cent. per ann. interest, without taking further profit for the loan or forbearance of such money lent, 25 G. 3. c. 48. s. 6.

679. No pawnbroker or person, receiving by way of pawn, &c. any goods, &c. licensed under this act, shall by virtue of one licence, keep more than one house or shop for taking goods in pawn, but shall have a distinct licence for each such house or shop, id. s. 7.

680. Persons in partnership, carrying on the trade, &c. of a pawnbroker in one house, shop, or tenement only, need have but one such licence in one year, id. s. 8. Commissioners may alter the stamps, id. s. 9. Forgery of such stamps felony, id. s. 10. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. pl. 132.] Former stamp acts extended to this act, id. s. 11.

681. All pecuniary penalties imposed for offences against this act, shall be sued for in the courts at Westminster for offences committed in Eng., Wa., or Ber.; and the courts of session, judiciary, or exchequer, in Scot., for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, and wherein the plaintiff, if he recovers, shall recover to his own use with double costs, id. s. 12. [But see 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 123.]

682. Duties paid into exchequer, id. s. 13. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff has a verdict against him, or is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 14.

PLATE.

683. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL FORGE OR COUNTERFEIT, OR cause to be forged, &c., any mark, stamp or die, provided under this or any former act, relating to the duties on gold or silver plate wrought in G. B., for the purpose of stamping any such gold or silver plate, as by any act relating thereto directed, or shall forge, &c. or cause to be forged, &c., the impression of any such stamp, &c., with intent to defraud H. M.; or if any person shall stamp, &c. or cause to be stamped, &c., any such gold or silver plate, or any vessel or ware of base metal, with any such forged stamp, or shall transpose or remove or cause to be transposed, &c., from one piece of such plate to another, or to any ware of base metal, any impression made with any such stamp so provided; and every person who shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale, or export out of G. B. any such plate or ware of base metal, having thereon the impression of any forged, &c. stamp or any forged, &c. impression, or any impression which has been so transposed, knowing the same to be forged or transposed; and every person, who, without lawful excuse, (the proof whereof shall lie on the person accused), shall have in his possession any such forged stamp, &c., or shall privately use any such stamp, &c. so provided, with intent to defraud H. M., such person, and all others knowingly aiding him, shall, on conviction, suffer death as felons without clergy, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 7. [See 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53., and 37 G. 3. c. 90. ss. 16, 17., and the notes, tit. GOLD AND SILVER, pl. 91, 92. And for the duty see 55 G. 3. c. 185. Sch. tit. Plate.]

POST HORSES.

684. FOR REPEALING THE DUTIES ON LICENCES taken out by persons letting horses for the purpose of travelling post, and on horses let to hire for travelling post and by time, and on stage coaches, and for granting other duties in lieu thereof, and also additional duties on horses let to hire for travelling post and by time, 25 G. 3. c. 51. [AMD. and EXT. to horses let to hire for any less period than 28 successive days, 57 G. 3. c. 59. ss. 9—28., 1 G. 4. c. 88. ss. 3—6. For the duty, see 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. B. ante, page 1400.]

685. The duties on post horses, by 20 G. 3. c. 51. and 23 G. 3. c. 63. granted, shall cease, s. 1.; and bonds given, s. 2., and licences issued in pursuance of the said acts shall stand in force for the times herein limited, 25 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 1—3.

686. Further duties on licences issued for letting horses to hire, and on horses so let to hire, id. s. 4. [REP. and new ones given, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1. Sch. B., which duties are still in force.] Duties under the commissioners of stamps, id. s. 6.

687. No person required to be licensed shall, unless he be authorized in manner in s. 7. pl. 688. prescribed, let out any horse for hire, either by the mile or stage, or to draw any coach with 4 wheels, or any calash with 2 wheels, or any other carriage used in travelling post, or otherwise for a day, or less period of time, upon pain to forfeit 10l., 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 6.

688. Two commissioners of stamps, or some person authorized by them, shall grant licences to such persons who shall apply for the same, to let out horses for hire, as aforesaid, within G. B., for one year, to commence from the day of the date of such licence; and every person who shall take out such licence, shall take out a fresh licence for another year, 10 days before the expiration of that year for which he shall be licensed, if he continue to let out horses; and shall, in like manner, renew such licence from year to year, paying down the sums due for such licences, as long as he continue to let out horses for hire, id. s. 7. [See as to dates of such licences, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 7. pl. 797.]

689. No postmaster, innkeeper, or other person whatsoever, shall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one inn for letting horses; but for each inn, a separate licence shall be taken out and paid for by such postmaster, upon pain to forfeit for every inn so kept by him not licensed, 50l., 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 8.

690. Every postmaster so licensed, shall cause "Licensed to let Post Horses," to be written either on a sign hung out, or in some visible place in the front of his house, stables, or out-offices, at the places at which he lets out horses to hire, to denote that such postmaster is a letter of horses, and authorized so to furnish travellers with the same; and if any postmaster so licensed shall let out horses for hire, without fixing or hanging out such token, such postmaster shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 9.

691. Every person so licensed, shall, if he furnish his own chaises or carriages, at the same time with such horses, paint on the outside pannel of each door of the chaise or carriage, his christian and surname, and the name of the place of his abode, in letters of a colour distinct from the colour of the carriage, each letter at least one inch in length, and continue the same thereupon as long as such carriage shall be so used; and if any person shall neglect to paint the same, as before directed, or shall mark any false name or abode, he shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 10.

692. Every postmaster so licensed, if he furnish his own carriages with four wheels, or any carriage with two wheels, at the same time with such horses let to hire for a day, or less period of time, for drawing on any public road, (where such carriages shall have an outside seat for the driver), shall affix upon some conspicuous part of the footboard, or other part of such seat; (and where such carriages shall not have an outside seat,) upon the pole, shaft, or splinter-bar, a brass or tin plate, upon which shall be marked the christian and surname of such owner, together with the name of the place of his abode, in large characters, and continue the same thereon, and replace the same as often as occasion shall require, during the time such carriage shall be so used; and if any person shall omit so do, or mark any false name or abode, on any such plate, he shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 11. [See such carriages to be numbered, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 14. pl. 753.]

693. The commissioners shall, at the time of issuing such licence, deliver to every person so licensed, printed papers, intituled, "Stamp office Weekly Accounts," in which shall be inserted the day of the week, and blanks left for the number of horses and miles, and name of the place to which such horses shall be hired to go; and also for the day of the month, and the names of the drivers employed, to be filled up as after directed, according to the following form, or such other as the commissioners shall judge convenient.

And shall also deliver a number of tickets, on which shall be printed the words "Stamp Office," and also the word "Horses," and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, in figures, as the tickets may be intended to denote the number; and likewise the word "Miles," except where the horses are hired for a day, or any less period of time, and then, instead of the word "miles," the words "For a day" shall be inserted, and also the amount of the duty, according to the number of horses expressed by figures on such tickets, and shall take care that all persons licensed be furnished with such accounts and tickets; and in case any officer employed in the execution of this act, in relation to such duties, shall wilfully neglect to do any matter by this act required, whereby any subjects shall sustain any damage, such officer shall be liable, in any action on this statute, to answer to the party aggrieved damages, with treble costs, 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 12.

694. Every person so licensed, shall, at the time of receiving his first licence, give security, by bond, to H. M. in 50l. with a condition that he will, whenever thereunto required, re-deliver the stamp office tickets which he may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him, or will pay the money due thereon; and that he will also deliver to the persons authorized by the commissioners to inspect the same, and to receive the money due thereon, the stamp office accounts delivered to him, faithfully made out, signed, and attested, as after (s. 27. pl. 708, &c.) directed, and make payment of all such money as shall be due; and also truly perform all the directions herein, on his behalf to be observed; and in case of the non-performance or breach of such condition, the commissioners, or persons appointed by them, may cause such bond to be prosecuted; and in case of judgment against the defendant, the commissioners may refuse such person any such licence in future, 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 13.

695. Such tickets shall be valued in account, and paid for, in case of deficiency, at the rate of 1s. 9d. for each horse, according to the number of horses expressed by figures on such tickets, and in the receipt given by such postmasters for the same, id. s. 14. [See the new duty, 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. B. ante, page 1400.]

696. Every person so licensed, who shall let horses to hire by the mile or stage, shall, by themselves or servants, previous to the using such horses, demand and receive for the use of H. M., from the persons hiring, 1½d. per mile for each mile such horse shall be hired to travel, at the rate of miles which he shall charge such traveller for the stage such horse may be hired to go; and shall, at the time he receives the duty, deliver to the persons hiring such horse, the stamp office tickets, and to which such postmaster shall add, if an innkeeper, the name of his sign or house; if not an innkeeper, his name; and he shall also insert the name of the place where such licensed person resides, and of the place to which such horses may be hired to go; and if to London, the name of the street, square, or place in London; and in words or figures the month, and day of the month, and the number of miles for which such horses are hired: and if any postmaster, under pretence of there not being any turnpike upon the road through which he may be hired to go, or under any other pretence whatsoever, shall neglect to demand and receive the duty of 1½d. per mile, or to deliver the ticket so filled up, such postmaster shall forfeit 10*l.*; and moreover, in case of not receiving the duty, be chargeable therewith, in the same manner as if he had actually received the same, id. s. 15.

697. Every traveller to whom such tickets, whereon shall be expressed the miles, shall be delivered, if they pass through any turnpike, shall, at the first at which any toll shall be collected, through which he shall pass, deliver to the toll-gate keeper there the ticket given to him, which the toll-gate keeper shall demand, receive and file; and if any traveller going post, shall neglect to take such ticket, or shall not deliver the same, properly filled up, he shall, before such horses pass through such turnpike, pay for every horse 1s. 9d., which the gate-keeper is to demand, and not permit such horses to pass till he shall have paid the same, or produced such ticket, id. s. 16.

698. No traveller shall be compelled to pay for a greater number of miles than shall be expressed upon the ticket; and if any postmaster shall insert in such ticket the name of any other place than the place to which the horses shall be hired to go, or shall fill up a less number of miles than the number charged to such traveller, every person so offending, shall forfeit 10*l.*; and such commissioners shall, if they think fit, after conviction, refuse such offender any licence in future, id. s. 17.

699. Where any ticket shall be issued, with the number of miles expressed thereon, and the person so issuing the same shall charge the traveller a specific sum by the stage, and not at per mile, in such case, such postmaster shall be accountable for 1-4th part of the money received by him, as and for the duty by this act directed to be paid; and shall, in that case, express on the ticket the money charged to such traveller, and enter in the weekly account 1-4th part of the money received, and pay the same to the collector; and if any postmaster shall act contrary hereto, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 18. [See also 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 16. pl. 755.]

700. Every person so licensed, who shall let to hire any horse by the day, or less period of time, shall, by themselves or servants, previous to such horse being used, demand, and receive, from the persons hiring the same, 1½d. for each mile such horse shall be hired to go, where the distance shall be ascertained, and where not, then 1s. 9d. for each horse hired, previous to such horse's being used; and shall then deliver to the persons hiring such horses, the stamp office tickets, with the words "for a day" inserted therein, as occasion shall require; and to which every postmaster shall add, if an innkeeper, the name of his sign or house; if not an innkeeper his name; and he shall also insert the name of the place where such licensed person resides, and, in words or figures, the month, and day of the month; and if any postmaster shall neglect to demand and receive the 1½d. per mile, or 1s. 9d. for each horse, as the case shall be, from such persons hiring the same, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver the tickets so filled up, such postmaster shall forfeit 10*l.*; and moreover, in case of not receiving the duty, be chargeable therewith as if he had actually received the same, id. s. 19.

701. Every person to whom such day-ticket shall be delivered, if he, in the day for which such ticket shall be given, pass through any turnpike, shall, at the first turnpike, deliver to the toll gatherer there the day ticket given to him at the place where he hired such horses, which the toll gatherer shall demand, receive and file; and in return for such day ticket, such person shall receive from the toll gatherer a ticket called "an exchange ticket," to be supplied from the stamp office, which shall contain the name of the county in which the turnpike shall be, and the words "Received day ticket;" and also the number of horses according to the figures expressed in such day ticket, together with the name of the place at which such day ticket was given, and some mark, denoting the particular day in which such exchange ticket was issued, in printed letters or figures; which exchange tickets the toll gatherer shall deliver to such person gratis, in return for such day ticket left with him; and which shall be shewn by such person at every turnpike through which he shall afterwards on that day pass with such horses: and if any person, to whom such day ticket shall be delivered, shall neglect to leave the same at such first turnpike, or shall refuse to shew the ticket given to him in exchange, at every turnpike through which he shall on that day pass, he shall pay for every horse used by him, 1s. 9d. before such such turnpike, and the gatekeeper there is to demand, and retain the same to his own use; and where the name of the owner of the carriage shall be marked on the foot-board or seat, or pole, shaft, or splinter-bar, when the carriage is let out with the horses, then such gatekeeper shall not permit such horses to pass through until such traveller shall have paid the same, or left such day ticket, or shall have produced such exchange ticket, 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 20. [See further as to these tickets, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 10. pl. 749. s. 13. pl. 752.]

702. Every person who shall take off such brass or tin plate, with an intent to evade the duty, or the 1s. 9d. to be paid at the turnpike, as before directed, shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 21.

703. In case any carriage, upon which any brass or tin plate is directed to be affixed, [see s. 11. pl. 692.] shall pass through any turnpike, without having such plate thereon, as in s. 11. directed, the driver shall forfeit 40*s.*, id. s. 22.

704. Where any postmaster shall let to hire any horse to return in less than 2 days, and the number of miles, instead of the words "for a day," shall be inserted in such ticket, he shall fill up the name of the place to which the horses are hired to go, and the true number of miles, ascertaining the distance both going to, and returning from the place expressed in such ticket; and in default of not filling up the ticket, as before in s. 12. pl. 693. directed, such postmaster shall forfeit 10*l.*; and moreover be chargeable with the duty as if he had actually received the same, id. s. 23.

705. Every postmaster, when he shall let to hire for 2 days, or longer, any horses for drawing any carriage on any public road, shall deliver to the person travelling in such carriage, or to the driver thereof, a note or certificate, to be supplied from the stamp office, on which shall be printed "Hired for two or more days," and to which such postmaster shall add the day of the month, the name of the abode and the number of days for which the horses shall be hired, and the abode of the person hiring the same; and the person travelling in such carriage, or the driver thereof, shall, at the first turnpike, if he pass through any, deliver to the toll-gate keeper there the note so given to him, which the toll-gate keeper shall demand, receive, and file; and in return for such note, the toll-gate keeper shall deliver a ticket, called "The check ticket," to be supplied from the stamp office, which shall contain the name of the county in which the turnpike shall be, and the words "Certificate delivered," and also the name of the place whence such note issued, together with some mark, denoting the day on which such check ticket was issued, in printed letters or figures; which check ticket the toll-gate keeper shall deliver to such person gratis, in return for such note left with him, and which check ticket delivered, shall be shown by the driver, or some person therein, to the toll gatherer at every turnpike through which the horses pass; and if any person so hiring such horses, shall have neglected to take such note, or shall neglect to leave the same at such first turnpike, or shall refuse to show, at the turnpikes through which he shall pass, the check ticket given by the toll-gate keeper, such traveller shall pay for every horse used 1s. 9d. before such horses pass such turnpike, which the toll-gate keeper shall demand, and receive to his own use, and not permit such horses to pass till such travellers have paid the same, or produced such note or check ticket; and if any postmaster shall, in such note, insert any false name or abode, or shall wilfully insert therein any fictitious name or abode of the person hiring such horses, or shall, in letting out such horses, by any collusion, pretend to let out his horses for longer time than for which the same were actually hired, with intent to evade the duty, such postmaster shall forfeit 20*l.*; and the commissioners shall, if they think fit, after conviction, refuse any licence in future to such postmaster, id. s. 24. [See further as to these tickets, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 10. pl. 749.]

706. Every horse hired for drawing any carriage for less than 2 successive complete days, shall be deemed to be hired for a day, and shall be subject to all the regulations as horses hired for a day or less time are, id. s. 25. [See 57 G. 3. c. 59. ss. 9, 10. pl. 748, 749.]

707. Every toll-gate keeper who shall have received any of the day tickets or notes for two or more days, and shall refuse to give any traveller, gratis, the tickets directed to be given in exchange, or who shall deliver the exchange or check ticket without having received in lieu thereof the stamp office day-ticket or note for 2 or more days; or who shall make any alteration in any of the tickets hereby directed to be filed by him, after such tickets shall have come to his custody, or shall deliver any of the tickets directed to be received and filed by him, to any person other than the person authorized as after mentioned to receive the same, he shall forfeit 40s., 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 26.

708. Every person so licensed to let horses shall insert, in the account before, (s. 12. pl. 693.) specified, so delivered to him from the stamp office, the number of horses used in travelling post, and the number of miles for which such horses shall have been used, and the name of the place to which such horses were hired to go; also the number of horses let to hire for a day, or less time; and also the note issued by them, and the day of the month on which the day tickets were used, or such note issued, together with the names of the drivers; which account shall be signed by such postmaster, and witnessed by the hostler, or servant employed in preparing such horses, and shall be open, when required, to the inspection of any person authorized under the hands and seals of such commissioners to inspect the same; and such postmaster so licensed, residing in the city of London, or liberty of Westminster, shall, the first Tuesday or Wednesday in every month, and such other person licensed, residing within 5 miles of the head office for stamps, or within the bills of mortality, shall, the first Thursday or Friday in every month, or at such other times as may be appointed by the commissioners, on public notice given in the Gazette, bring in and deliver to the commissioners, or to the persons appointed by them for the purpose of receiving the same, at the head office, the accounts before in s. 12. pl. 693. directed for the 4 weeks ending on the Saturday preceding such day of delivery, and shall, at the same time, pay such money which shall be due thereon to the receiver-general, or to the officer for collecting such duties, at the head office, upon pain of 10l. for every default in not delivering in such account, and double the amount of the money payable from such postmaster, for such duties, for the nonpayment thereof, id. s. 27. [See now 57 G. 3. c. 59. ss. 15—20. pl. 754—759., 27 G. 3. c. 26. s. 14. pl. 786.]

709. Every person so licensed, not residing within London or Westminster, or within 5 miles of the same, or within the bills of mortality, shall, at such times and places to be appointed as after mentioned, produce and deliver the accounts before (s. 27.) directed for the weeks ending on the Saturday preceding such delivery, and then unaccounted for, to the person authorized under the hands and seals of 3 of the commissioners of stamps, &c. to receive such accounts, and the money due thereon; and at the same time pay to such person all money due upon such accounts, under the penalty of 10l. for every default in not delivering such accounts, and double the amount of the money due for the duties, for nonpayment thereof, id. s. 28.

710. Every person so licensed shall enter in his weekly account, the tickets, notes, or certificates, so issued by him, on the day in which issued; and if any postmaster shall date any of the posting or day tickets, or any note by him delivered, in any other manner than as the same shall at delivery be entered in his weekly account, he shall forfeit 40s., id. s. 29.

711. Every postmaster, who shall be guilty of any wilful concealment, or making false accounts, or any other fraudulent contrivance, with an intent to defraud H. M. of the duties, shall forfeit 50l.; and such commissioners may, after judgment, refuse any licence in future, id. s. 30.

712. Every postmaster who shall take the hire for horses that have paid the duty, under pretence that they are on the return home, by the mile, or from stage to stage, shall be considered as the person to whom the duties shall be paid, and shall be chargeable with the same, as if he was the proprietor of such horses, although the same belong to any other postmaster, id. s. 31.

713. In order to prevent evasion of the duties on horses hired by the mile or stage, by letting such horses for a day or less time, no postmaster, at whose inn any traveller shall change horses, shall let to hire; any horse to such traveller, in any other manner than by the mile or stage; and if any postmaster shall act contrary hereto, he shall forfeit 10l., id. s. 32.

714. Where any postmaster cannot furnish horses to convey travellers on their journey, when applied to for that purpose, such postmaster shall issue to any traveller requiring the same, a fresh ticket filled up, and receive the duty, and charge himself therewith, in the same manner as if the horses had been hired from such postmaster, id. s. 33.

715. Every toll-gate keeper is authorized to demand and receive from the collector appointed to get in the same, to whom he shall deliver the day and posting tickets as after directed, 3d. for every pound which the duties upon such tickets amount unto; and such collector shall pay the same accordingly; and such allowance shall be over the allowance hereby given to such toll-gate keeper, of retaining the money by him collected from such travellers, who shall not have delivered the tickets to such toll-gate keeper, id. s. 34.

716. Every toll-gate keeper shall, for such compensation, bring the tickets by him received, if within 5 miles of the head office for stamps, to such head office, or to such other place, within the bills of mortalities, as the commissioners shall appoint; and if beyond the 5 miles, then to such places, and at such times, as the collector appointed to collect such tickets shall require, and deliver up such tickets to the collector, 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 35.

717. Every toll-gate keeper who shall have received such stamp office tickets, who shall not bring such tickets, at the times and places in s. 35. aforesaid, shall, upon demand at the gate of such turnpike, deliver such tickets to the collector; and if any toll-gate keeper shall refuse to deliver up all such tickets received by him, he shall for each ticket he shall refuse to deliver up, forfeit 5s., id. s. 36.

718. If any toll-gate keeper shall wilfully neglect to demand, or shall refuse to receive from any person, any ticket directed to be delivered to him, or shall neglect to file the same when delivered, such toll-gate keeper shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 37.

719. In case any toll-gate keeper shall demand or receive, or agree to take any less money than he is authorized to receive, and retain to his own use, such toll-gate keeper shall forfeit 20s., id. s. 38.

720. The commissioners of stamps may erect bars across any public road, for the receipt of the tickets, and place a person thereat, who shall have the same power to collect such tickets issued, and demand the money from travellers not showing the same, as the turnpike men may, and be subject to the same penalties for any thing done contrary to this act, as the turnpike men are, id. s. 39.

721. Every postmaster, not residing within 5 miles of the head office for stamps, nor within the bills of mortality, shall, at the times, and at the places to be mentioned at the foot of the first licence granted to him, when the same shall be delivered, and afterwards at the foot of every receipt given by the collector for the money paid in by him on account of the duties, attend and there deliver in and pass his account, and pay the duty received to the collector; provided no such person be compelled to travel for the payment of the duties, or other cause whatsoever, touching the same, if he live in a market town, out of the said town, or if he live out of a market town, then to no other place than to the market town nearest to his habitation, id. s. 40. [See 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 20. pl. 759.]

722. Nothing herein shall extend to any horses used in hackney coaches, where the horses shall be employed to go no greater distance than 10 miles from the cities of London, or Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, id. s. 41. [See 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 23. pl. 762.]

723. Every horse hired by the mile shall be deemed to be hired to travel post within this act, although the hirer do not go several stages upon a post road, or change horses; and although, at the stage at which such horses be hired, there shall not be any post-house; and although there shall not be any post settled on the road, id. s. 42.

724. If any postmaster shall die, his executors, administrators, or other persons succeeding to such inn, may let horses to hire in manner aforesaid, until such person shall procure such licence, and give such security as in s. 12. pl. 693. directed, without being liable to the penalty inflicted on the persons letting horses to hire without being licensed; provided such licence be taken out within 30 days after the death of such postmaster; and such person shall be subject to the same rules as such postmaster was subject, id. s. 43.

725. Every postmaster shall, at delivering his accounts to the commissioners or person appointed to receive the same, at the head office, or to the collector authorized to receive the same, and the money due thereon, make oath, or subscribe a solemn affirmation before such commissioners, or other person so appointed, or collector, (who shall administer such oath, &c.) to the truth of the accounts then delivered, in the form here given [See new form, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 18. pl. 757.]; and if any person taking such oath or affirmation, shall thereby commit wilful perjury, he shall be subject to such pains as persons convicted of wilful perjury are; and if any postmaster shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation, the collector may refuse to receive the money due on such accounts; and such postmaster shall be liable to the penalty of 20l., as if they had not delivered in their accounts, and paid the money due thereon, id. s. 44.

726. If any person who shall keep any coach, or other carriage with four wheels, or any calash, or other carriage with two wheels, to be employed as public stage coaches, for conveying passengers for hire to and from different places within G. B., shall let out the same without having first obtained a licence under the hands of 2 of such commissioners, or some person authorized by them, he shall forfeit for every time such carriage shall be used 10l., id. s. 45. [See further as to stages, STAMPS (Stage Coaches).]

727. Two commissioners, or some person authorized by them, shall grant licences, under their hands and seals, to any person who shall apply for the same to let out for hire any such carriage, directed to be licensed by this act, for one year, to commence from the day of the date of such licences; which licence shall be renewed 10 days previous to the expiration of the year for which it was granted; and if the person licensed shall continue to let out for hire such carriage, he shall renew such licence from year to year, paying down the sums due for such licence, and so yearly as long as he shall continue to let out such carriage for such purpose, 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 46.

728. No person so licensed shall, by virtue of one licence, keep more than one coach, diligence, or other carriage, for such purposes, id. s. 47.

729. Every person so licensed to use any carriages, to be employed as public stage coaches, shall pay 1*d.* for every mile, id. s. 48. [R*ep.* 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1. Sch. B. tit. Carriage.]

730. Every person so licensed to use such carriages, to be employed as public stage coaches, shall, at the time of receiving such licence, declare from and to what place such coach is intended to be used, distinguishing the number of miles between the two extreme places such coach is intended to go, and the number of journeys each coach is to be used, either in the day or in the week, as the case may happen to be, that the same may be inserted in such licence; and every person so licensed shall give security, by bond, to H. M., in 20*l.*, or in treble the sum to which the duty for the journeys inserted in such licences for one month would amount unto, in the option of the commissioners, with a condition for the faithful accounting for and paying such sums as may be due for the journeys expressed in such licences, id. s. 49.

731. All coaches directed to be licensed, that shall go from London or Westminster to any place in the country, or that shall come from the country to any place in London or Westminster, shall be licensed at the head stamp office, id. s. 50.

732. The commissioners, or such officers as they appoint, shall make such allowances as appear just to any person licensed to use any such coach, upon oath made by the owner before the commissioners, or such officers, as to the number of journeys actually made in a day by such coach, where the same shall differ from the number expressed in such licences; which oath the commissioners, or the collector, shall administer, and to examine into all the circumstances relative to the number of journeys made by such coach; and the commissioners shall make such regulations with respect to such coaches, where such allowances are applied for, as they find necessary, as well for securing the duties, as doing justice to the owners thereof, id. s. 51.

733. Every person so licensed to use such coach shall paint on the outside of each door, before he use the same, his christian and surname, together with the name of the place from whence they set out, and to which they are going, in large characters, in letters of a colour distinct from the colour of the carriage, each letter one inch in length, under the penalty of 10*l.*; and every proprietor of such coach, licensed to go from London to any other place, or from any other place to London, shall, on the first Monday in every month, between 8 in the morning and 2 in the afternoon, unless an holiday, and then on the next day, clear the duties due by paying the same to the receiver-general, or to the officer for collecting the duties at the head office; and if such proprietor shall be licensed from any town in the country to any other town than London, then such proprietor shall clear the said duties, by paying the same to the person authorized, by commission under the hands and seals of three commissioners, to receive the same, under the penalty of 5*l.*, id. s. 52.

734. Every licensed proprietor of any coach, who shall discontinue the use of the same, shall give notice in writing, 7 days before he discontinue, and shall have such notice indorsed upon the back of his licence, or upon the bond so given as in s. 49. pl. 730. aforesaid, and from thenceforth, on payment of all arrears, shall be no longer chargeable for the same, id. s. 53.

735. The receiver-general, and the other collectors appointed to receive the duties, shall make an allowance to the persons licensed to let horses to hire, for all monies by them paid on account of the duties; and they may deduct, for their own use, 3*d.* in the pound, out of the monies by them accounted for and paid to such receiver-general or collector, id. s. 54.

736. If any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made, &c. or wilfully aid in the false making, &c. any ticket, note, or certificate by this act directed to be used; or shall utter as true, any false ticket, &c. with an intent to defraud H. M. of such duties, such person shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 55.

737. All penalties hereby imposed shall be divided (if prosecution be commenced within six calendar months), one moiety to H. M., and the other moiety, with full costs, to the person who shall inform and sue for the same, id. s. 56. [See 27 G. 3. c. 26. s. 11. pl. 783. 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 26. pl. 765.]

738. All penalties which shall amount to 50*l.* shall be sued for in any court at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng. and Wa. or Ber., and in the courts of sessions, justiciary, or exchequer in Scot. for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt, &c. wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 57.

739. Such division of the penalties shall be confined to the prosecuting for the same within the time before limited; and in default of such prosecution within such time, no informer shall have any part of such penalties, but the whole thereof shall belong to H. M., and shall be recoverable by information, at the instance of the attorney-general, or lord advocate of Scot., 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 58.

740. Any justice near the place where the offence be committed may determine any offence against this act which subjects the offender to any penalty, not amounting to 50*l.*, id. s. 59. [See this section enlarged, 1 G. 4. c. 88. s. 24. pl. 770.]

741. If any person summoned as a witness to give evidence before such justice, either on the part of the prosecutor, or person accused, shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without a reasonable excuse for such neglect, to be allowed of by such justice, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on oath and give evidence, such person shall forfeit 40*s.* to be levied by such means as in s. 59. directed, id. s. 60.

742. All summonses, issued by any justice under this act, against the owners of any coaches required to be licensed, that shall be left at the inn where the carriage or diligence shall put up, with the book-keeper, shall be good service on the owners, although such owners shall not have a residence in such inn, id. s. 61.

743. A conviction in the form here given (mutatis mutandis), shall be good, without stating the facts or evidence in any more particular manner, id. s. 62. [See the new form, 1 G. 4. c. 88. s. 6. pl. 771.]

744. Any justice may mitigate such penalties, reasonable costs of the officers and informers in making the discovery, and in the prosecution being always allowed above such mitigation, and so as such mitigation do not reduce the penalties to less than a moiety of the penalties incurred, over such costs, id. s. 63. [See 1 G. 4. c. 88. s. 6. pl. 771.]

745. Receiver-general of stamp duties to pay the duties granted by this act into the exchequer. Auditor to keep separate account thereof, id. s. 64. [But see 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 14. ante.]

746. So much of 9 A. c. 10. s. 5. as restrains any person other than the post-master-general or his deputies, from preparing or providing, or from letting to hire, or furnishing any horses or furniture for riding post, shall be R*ep.*, id. s. 66.

747. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, s. 67.

748. All the provisions, penalties, &c. of 25 G. 3. c. 51., for securing the duties thereby granted for horses hired for a day, or less period of time, for drawing on any public road any carriage used in travelling post or otherwise, both where the distance to be travelled should be ascertained, and where not, (except the provision which declares that every horse hired for any less period than two successive complete days shall be deemed to be hired for a day,) shall, so far as consistent with this act, be put in execution for the securing the duties granted by 44 G. 3. c. 98., for horses hired for a less period than 28 successive days, for the purposes and in the cases aforesaid, both where the distance shall be ascertained and where not, as fully as if the same had been inserted in this act; and all the provisions and penalties in 25 G. 3. c. 51. imposed, with respect to horses hired for 2 or more days, for drawing any such carriage used in travelling as aforesaid, shall as far as consistent with this act, be applied to horses hired for 28 successive days or above, for the purposes and in the cases aforesaid, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 9.

749. The commissioners of stamps shall supply all persons licensed to let post horses with proper tickets, and the toll-gate keepers with proper exchange tickets, for denoting hirings for any less period than 28 successive days, both where the distance to be travelled shall be ascertained and where not, all which tickets shall specify the number of horses to be let to hire as heretofore; and the original tickets shall have blanks, to be filled up with the day or number of days for which such hiring is made, the name of the person letting to hire if not an innkeeper, or the name of his sign or house if an innkeeper, the name of the place of his residence, and the day of the month and year when the hiring commenced; and also in cases of hiring to go to any certain place and back, and the name of such place, and the full number of miles thither and back; and also in cases of hiring for any 2 or more days the name and residence of the hirer; and the exchange tickets shall have blanks, to be filled up with the number of days for which the hiring shall be made, the name of the place where the original ticket was issued, and the date thereof, and the name of the toll-gate and county where the exchange ticket was given; and also in cases of hirings to go to any certain place and back the name of such place, and the number of miles there and back, as expressed in the original ticket, and also the name of the hirer if expressed in the original ticket; and all such original and exchange tickets shall be filled up accordingly, and delivered and shewn, and used by all persons concerned, in such manner as by 25 G. 3. c. 37. s. 20. pl. 701., concerning the original and exchange tickets thereby required to be provided, and subject to the like penalties in cases of omission, id. s. 10.

750. The commissioners of stamps shall also supply all persons licensed to let horses to hire with proper certificates, and the toll-gate keepers with proper check tickets, for denoting hirings for 28 successive days as above, not liable to the before-mentioned duties, which certificates shall have blanks, to be filled up with the number of horses let to hire, the number of days for which hired, the name and residence of the person hiring and letting to hire, and the month and year and day of the month when the hiring shall commence; and the check tickets shall have blanks, to be filled up with the same particulars, and with the name of the toll-gate and county where the check tickets shall be given; and such certificates and check tickets shall be filled up accordingly, and delivered, shewn, and used by the persons concerned in such manner as by 25G.3. c. 51. s. 24. pl. 705. directed, concerning certificates and check tickets thereby required, to be delivered, &c. in cases of, and for denoting hirings for 2 days or more, and subject to the like penalties in case of omission, 57G.3. c. 59. s. 11.

751. Where any person so licensed, shall let to hire any horse, &c. for drawing any carriage to be used in travelling, either for 2 or more days, under 28 or for 28 successive days or above, and the horses shall be returned before the expiration of the time, the person letting the same shall receive of the person returning such horses the exchange ticket or check ticket received for the original ticket or certificate, and shall deliver up such exchange ticket or check ticket to the farmer or collector of the duties, to whom he shall be bound to deliver his stamp-office weekly accounts; and if any person so licensed shall neglect so to do, he shall forfeit 10*l.*; and if he shall use such exchange ticket or check ticket, or give out the same to any person for the purpose of being used to cover any other hiring from the duty, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 12.

752. If the hirer of horses shall not deliver or shew at any turnpike, toll-bar, or bridge, the proper ticket, exchange ticket, certificate, or check ticket, which he ought to do, pursuant to 44G.3. c. 98. and 25G.3. c. 51. and this act, and shall falsely allege the horses to be his own or not hired, in order to avoid being stopped, or to avoid the payment of the sum which the toll-gatherer shall be entitled to demand in default of such ticket being delivered or shewn, every person so offending shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 13.

753. Where any person so licensed to let horses, in pursuance of such acts, shall keep carriages used in travelling, to be furnished at the same time with horses let to hire, by the mile or stage (except hearses and mourning coaches, which shall remain subject to the same regulations as heretofore), he shall, before any such carriage shall be so furnished, cause every carriage kept to be numbered with a different number, beginning with number one, and proceeding upwards to the highest number of carriages which he shall so keep; and shall also paint in one or more straight lines, on the outside panel of each door of every carriage which shall have a door thereto, and on some conspicuous part of each of the outsides of every such carriage, which shall not have a door thereto, his christian and surname, and the name of the city, town, or place, where he shall keep such carriages; and the number, in large and legible characters and figures, of black or white, whichever shall most differ from the colour of the carriage, each letter at least one inch in length, and each figure at least one inch and a half in length, and both letters and figures to be of a proper breadth in proportion to the length, and shall continue the same on every such carriage as long as such carriage shall be kept for the purpose aforesaid, varying the numbers from time to time as occasion shall require; and if any person so licensed shall neglect to number, mark, or paint any such carriage in manner aforesaid, or shall mark or paint any false name or place, or any higher number than the greatest, or shall keep two or more carriages with the same number, or shall continue any number upon any carriage after he shall cease to keep a number of carriages corresponding therewith, he shall forfeit 10*l.* id. s. 14. [See also 25G.3. c. 51. s. 11. pl. 692.]

754. All persons so licensed shall, instead of the particulars required by the act of the 25G.3. c. 57. s. 27. pl. 708., to be inserted in their stamp-office weekly account, insert therein the particulars following; (that is to say,) whenever they shall let to hire by the mile or stage, the number of horses so let to hire, the number of miles which the same shall be hired to go, the names of the places, from and to which the same shall be hired to go, the month and day of the month and week when hired, the sort of carriage, if any, which they shall furnish, together with such horses, and the number of such carriage, and the christian and surname of every driver employed therewith, and amount of duty payable upon every such hiring; and whenever they shall let to hire, for any period less than 28 successive days, any horses for drawing any carriage used in travelling, the number of horses, the month and day of the month and week when hired, the sort of carriage, if any, furnished therewith, and the number of such carriage, the christian and surname of every driver employed with such horses, the time for which the same shall be hired, and the number of miles which the same shall be hired to go, and the names of the places from and to which the same shall be hired to go, where the distance shall be ascertained, and also the amount of the duty payable for such hiring; and whenever they shall let to hire, for 28 successive days or more, any horses for drawing any carriage used in travelling, the number of horses so let, the month and day of the month and week when hired, the sort of carriage, if any, furnished therewith, and the number of such carriage, the christian and surname of every driver employed, the time for which the same shall be hired, and the name and abode of the person hiring; and they shall also insert in every such account a notice of all horses let to hire for drawing any carriage used in travelling, either for two or more days under 28, or for 28 successive days or above, and which since the date of their last account shall have been returned by the hirer, before the expiration of the time agreed for; and in case of any neglect to insert such several particulars, they shall forfeit 20*l.*, 57G.3. c. 59. s. 15.

755. Where any person so licensed shall let any horse by the mile or stage, and shall charge the person a specific sum for the whole stage, and not after the usual rate per mile, the person letting such horses shall be accountable for one fourth of the sum so charged by him, for the duty, and shall deliver to the person hiring such horses the like stamp-office ticket as if the same had been charged for per mile, and shall add thereto the specific sum charged; and the person letting such horses shall also enter in his stamp-office weekly account one fourth part of the sum so charged, as and for the duty, and shall pay the same accordingly to the collector; and if such licensed person shall neglect so to do, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 16. [See also 25G.3. c. 51. s. 18. pl. 699.]

756. Every person so licensed shall enter in his stamp-office weekly account the several particulars required, on the same day on which such horses shall be let to hire; and, in default, shall forfeit 40*l.*, id. s. 17.

757. Instead of the oath or affirmation required by 25G.3. c. 51. s. 44., to be made by persons licensed as to the truth of their stamp-office weekly accounts, the following oath or affirmation shall be made and subscribed before the collector: viz.

‘I A. B. do swear, [or affirm, as the case may require] that the several weekly accounts, now by me delivered, of the duties arising upon horses, which I have let for the purpose of travelling post, or otherwise, from the — day of — to the — day of — as far as the same have been entered and kept by me, are fair, just, and true accounts; and that I have charged therein the duty for the true number of miles, received for the use of his majesty, from the travellers who have hired horses from me; and that I have inserted therein an account of all the day-tickets, notes, and certificates issued by me; and as far as such accounts have been entered and kept by any other person or persons, I verily believe the same to be true.’
So help me GOD.

And if any person shall wilfully make a false oath or affirmation, every person so offending, and being convicted, shall be subject to the pains and penalties of perjury, id. s. 18.

758. All the provisions, penalties, &c. of 25G.3. c. 51. ss. 12. 44. relating to the stamp-office weekly accounts, so far as unvaried, shall apply to such accounts, with such variations as before directed, id. s. 19.

759. Every person so licensed, residing in the city of London or Westminster, or within 5 miles of the head office, or within the bills of mortality, shall deliver his weekly accounts, and pay the duties unto the collector for stamps at such place, in London or Westminster, and at such time as shall be appointed for that purpose by a notice to be printed upon the blank forms of the stamp-office weekly accounts; and every such person not residing within 5 miles of the head office, or within the bills of mortality, shall deliver his weekly accounts and pay the duties unto the collector in the market-town in which he shall reside, or the nearest market-town to his residence, and at such time as shall be appointed by notice printed upon the blank forms of the weekly accounts, under the penalty of 10*l.* for every default in not delivering such account, and double the amount of the duties due, id. s. 20. [See also 25G.3. c. 51. ss. 27. 28. 40. pl. 708, 709. and pl. 721. 27G.3. c. 26. s. 14. pl. 786.]

760. If any person not licensed shall let to hire by the mile or stage any horse to be used in travelling, or shall let to hire for any period less than 28 successive days any horse for drawing any carriage as aforesaid, he shall be chargeable with the duties in the same manner as if he had obtained such licence, and had received such duties from the person hiring, and shall, from time to time, upon a week's notice in writing given by any collector for the district, deliver to such collector, whenever requested, after the expiration of such notice, a true account in writing, signed by him, of every horse so let to hire and not accounted for, and of the mode in which every such horse shall have been let to hire, and of the duty payable in respect thereof, in the same manner as is required to be done by persons licensed, and shall also verify such account by oath or affirmation, to be administered by such collector, and shall thereupon pay to such collector the amount of such duties; and, in case of neglect, he shall forfeit 20*l.* for every default in not delivering such account so verified, and double the amount of the duties for non-payment thereof: but where any such notice shall have been given, then, upon delivery of such account, and payment of the duty, and upon taking out a licence, the person so delivering such account shall be indemnified from any penalty he may be liable to for having let to hire without such licence, id. s. 21.

761. Where any person liable to account for and pay any duty shall neglect so to do, according to the directions of such acts, to the collector appointed to receive such duties, and such duty shall not exceed 10*l.*, such collector, first obtaining a warrant under the hand and seal of one justice (which justice, on complaint, shall summon the party complained of and the witnesses on either side, and examine into the matter of fact, and grant such warrant, on due proof being made of the sum due from such duty, either by confession or on oath of one witness), may distrain such person by his goods for the amount, and the distress detain for 4 days, at the costs of such person; and if he shall not within that time pay the amount of duty with the costs of distress, then such goods shall be sold by such collector, who shall render the overplus, if any, after deducting the amount of such duty, and the costs of taking and selling such distress, to the person distrained; and such collector, for the purpose of taking such distress, may break open in the day-time, any house or place, where any goods of such person shall be, being authorized by such warrant, and calling to his assistance the constable or peace officer of the county, &c., where any refusal or resistance shall be made; and the leaving of the summons to appear before such justice, at the dwelling or usual abode of the party, shall be a good service thereof, 57 G.3. c.59. s.22.

762. The said duties shall not attach upon horses hired for drawing any carts or carriages usually employed for the conveyance of fish, or for any horses used in chariots or other carriages licensed by the commissioners of hackney coaches, where the same shall be hired to go no greater distance than 10 miles from London or Westminster, or the suburbs thereof; but the said duties shall attach upon horses hired for drawing hearses, in the same manner as those hired for drawing mourning coaches, id. s.23. [See 25 G.3. c.51. s.41. pl. 722.]

763. Two justices of peace for any division in G. B., may cause the distances between any places in their division and the neighbourhood, to be measured by some proper persons, who shall be paid for such measurement such sum as shall appear reasonable to the justices out of the county stock, upon the warrant of such justices; and the measurement being verified before such justices by the oath of the persons making the same, they shall publish such measurement under the hand of the clerk of such division, twice, in some newspaper of the county for which such justices shall act; and after such publication, if any person letting horses to hire, shall charge for a greater number of miles than specified in the table, if the distance for which any horse shall be hired shall exceed 7 miles, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s.24.

764. All pecuniary penalties amounting to 10*l.* and not amounting to 50*l.*, imposed by this act or by the said act of 25 G.3. c.51. may be recovered and levied, either in the manner prescribed by that act, with regard to penalties amounting to 50*l.*, or in the manner thereby prescribed with regard to penalties not amounting to 50*l.*; and all penalties not amounting to 10*l.* imposed by this act, shall be recovered and levied in the manner prescribed by the said act, with regard to penalties of the same amount, id. s.25. [See 25 G.3. c.51. s.56. &c. pl. 737, &c.]

765. All pecuniary penalties imposed by this or any other act herein recited, which shall be sued for within 6 calendar months shall be divided, one moiety to H. M., and the other moiety, together with full costs, to the person who shall inform; and any person whomsoever may sue for the same within the time aforesaid, notwithstanding the provisions to the contrary in 44 G.3. c.98. s.10. pl. 123., or in any other act or acts; and all penalties not sued for within the time belong wholly to H. M., id. s.26.

766. But no farmer of such duties, or any other person, shall prosecute for any such penalty in any of the courts at Westminster or in Scot., without having first obtained the consent in writing of the commissioners of stamps, nor unless the prosecution shall be carried on by the solicitor of stamps, or some other solicitor or attorney approved of by the commissioners; and the said commissioners, if they think fit, may order such proceedings to be stayed on payment of part only of the penalty incurred with or without costs, or on payment of costs only, or any part thereof, as they shall judge fit, id. s.27.

767. No person shall commence any action or suit, for the recovery of any penalty incurred on this or any act relating to the post-horse duties, until after 14 days notice has been delivered to the persons incurring such penalty, or left at his last place of abode, (which notice shall be in writing) of the intention of such person to apply to the commissioners of stamps, for leave to commence such action, &c.; and which notice shall state the offence committed, and the day when, and the amount of the penalty to be recovered; and such person at the trial, shall not give in evidence any thing relating to any offence not specified in such notice, 1 G.4. c.88. s.5.

768. It shall not henceforth be necessary, upon the trial or hearing of any action or prosecution, for the recovery of any of the duties on horses, &c. hired as aforesaid, which shall be let to farm, pursuant to any future act or this act, or for the recovery of any penalty imposed by such acts in anywise relating to such duties, to produce the instrument, whereby the commissioners of stamps were authorised by the treasury to let to farm such duties, or to produce the commission, under which such commissioners of stamps were appointed such commissioners, or to prove the execution of any contract or agreement, whereby such duties were let to farm, or of any assignment of such contract or agreement, or of any commission or deputation, whereby any person is appointed a collector of the same duties by such commissioners of stamps, or to prove the signatures of any such commissioners to any consent to prosecute for such penalties; provided that such contract, agreement, assignment, commission, or deputation, and consent to prosecute, shall be produced on such trial or hearing; and it shall appear, that the person claiming under such contract, &c. had in fact acted as farmer or collector of the duties therein described; and that in every such case, such proof shall be deemed by the judges or justices before whom such trial or hearing is had, to be good evidence of such person being the farmer or collector of the duties mentioned in such contract, &c. unless the contrary be shewn by other evidence, 57 G.3. c.59. s.28.

769. The duty of 1*s.* 9*d.* per day, imposed by 44 G.3. c.98. upon every horse, hired for drawing any carriage on any public road, shall be deemed to be payable for every horse hired in G. B., in all cases where the distance shall not, at the time of hiring, be ascertained; and when it is ascertained, the duty of 1½*d.* per mile shall be charged, 1 G.4. c.88. s.3.

770. Any justice of peace residing near the place where any offence against this act, or the 25 G.3. c.51., 27 G.3. c.26., 44 G.3. c.98., and 57 G.3. c.59. relating to the duties on post-horses, which is punishable by pecuniary penalty under 50*l.*, shall on information given, summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side, and examine into the fact; and on due proof thereof, made either by confession or on oath of one witness, give judgment or sentence of dismissal, or for the penalty, according as by 25 G.3. c.51. directed, as to penalties; and shall award his warrant, under his hand and seal, for levying any pecuniary penalties so adjudged on the goods of the offender, and cause sale to be made thereof, if not redeemed within 6 days, rendering overplus to the owner; and if no such goods can be found to answer the penalty, such justice shall commit the offender to prison for 6 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and every person, who shall deem himself aggrieved by such judgment or sentence, may, (on giving security to the amount of the penalty and costs as awarded by such justice, in case such judgment or sentence is affirmed) appeal to the next quarter-sessions for the county or place; and the justices there shall summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally hear and determine the same; and in case such judgment or sentence is affirmed, such justices may award the appellant to pay such costs as they deem meet: provided, that if such sessions shall fall within 6 days after such judgment or sentence, the intended appellant may, on giving such security, appeal to the next subsequent sessions; and no such proceedings so to be had shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise, into any court of record at Westminster, id. s.4.

771. A conviction or judgment, or sentence of dismissal, in the form following, mutatis mutandis, shall be good, viz.:

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the county of — A. B. came before me C. D. one of H. M.’s justice of the peace for the said — residing near the place where the offence was committed, and informed me that E. F. of — on the — day of — at — in the said — did (here set forth the fact for which the information is laid) whereupon the said E. F. after being duly summoned to answer the said charge, appeared before me on the — day of — at — in the said —, and having heard the charge contained in the said information, declared he was guilty of the said offence [or, as the case may happen to be, did not appear before me pursuant to the said summons, or did neglect and refuse to make any defence against the said charge]; but the same being fully proved upon the oath of G. H. a credible witness, [or, as the case may happen to be, acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true] and it manifestly appearing to me that he the said E. F. is guilty of the offence charged upon him in the said information, I do hereby convict him of the offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he the said E. F. hath forfeited the sum of — of lawful money of G. B. for the offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the law directs, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided: [or, after stating the summons and nonappearance of the said defendant, or, the appearance of the defendant, and that he was not guilty of the said offence, as the case may be, and it manifestly appearing to me that he the said E. F. is not guilty of the said offence charged upon him by the said information, I do therefore dismiss the said complaint or information.] Given under my hand and seal the — day of —

Provided, that such justice may mitigate such penalties as he shall think fit, reasonable costs of the officers and informers, in making the discovery and in prosecuting for the same, being always allowed over such mitigation, provided that such penalties shall not thereby be lessened more than one half, besides such costs, id. s.6.

772. TO ENABLE THE TREASURY to let to farm the duties granted by 25 G.3. c.51. on horses let to hire, for travelling post and by time, to such persons as are willing to contract for the same, 27 G.3. c.26. [Cov. 30 G.3. c.33., 33 G.3. c.71., 36 G.3. c.84., 39 G.3. c.74., 42 G.3. c.52.,

45 G. 3. c. 56. The act seems to be in force. See 1 G. 4. c. 88. s. 2. pl. 792.]

773. The commissioners of the treasury, or 3 of them, either by themselves, or the commissioners of stamps, duly authorized for that purpose, under the hands and seals of the commissioners of the treasury, or 3 of them, may let to farm the duties of 1*d.* per mile, and 1*s.* 9*d.* per horse, by 25 G. 3. c. 51. granted to such persons as shall be willing to farm the same, according to the regulations after prescribed, 27 G. 3. c. 26. s. 1.

774. The commissioners of the treasury, or 3 of them, may fix such particular districts as shall appear to them most proper, for the purposes of farming out such duties separately in each district to the best advantage, id. s. 2.

775. One month's notice at least shall be given by the treasury, or commissioners of stamps in the London Gazette, of the time and place of letting such duties, specifying the districts, and the sum at which it is proposed to put up the same, and also the place into which proposals for farming the same shall be delivered, id. s. 3.

776. No such proposals shall be proceeded on, unless the same are delivered in at least 3 days previous to the day appointed in the Gazette, signed with the names of the parties, stating the places of their abode, who intend to become bidders, and specifying the district for which they bid, id. s. 4.

777. The treasury, or 3 of them, or the commissioners of stamps, shall let such duties arising within any such district, for not exceeding 3 years, and the same shall be put up at a rent not less than the gross amount which they shall appear to have produced within the year ending 1st August, 1786, and the bidding for the same shall be conducted under such regulations as shall be established by the treasury, or by the commissioners of stamps; and the person who shall be the highest bidder shall be the farmer of such duties for 3 years, or such other shorter term as may be determined on, and as shall be inserted in the Gazette, and shall forthwith execute a contract, to be prepared in pursuance of this act, and give security by bond to H. M., with 3 sureties, for payment to H. M., of the money or yearly rent contracted for; such rent to be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of stamp-duties, at the head office, in equal portions, by 8 payments in the year, viz. on 15th Sept., 1st Nov., 16th Dec., 1st Feb., 16th March, 1st May, 16th June, and 1st Aug. in every year, unless any of the days shall be on a Sunday, and then the next day thereafter; the first payment to be made on executing the contract, and continue to be made on every succeeding day of payment in each year, during the continuance of the contract, and before the expiration of the term for which such duties shall have been let to farm, id. s. 5.

778. In every contract entered into in pursuance of this act, there shall be inserted a clause, declaring that the same shall be made void on any resolution made by the house of commons, upon 6 months notice being given by the treasury, to any person entering into such contract, id. s. 6.

779. In case any of the districts fixed on shall not be let to farm at the time fixed by such advertisement, for want of offers, the treasury, or the commissioners of stamps, may fix a future day for letting such districts in manner, and upon the notice before provided, id. s. 7.

780. The treasury, or the commissioners of stamps, upon any contract being entered into, and bond given, shall deliver to the person farming such duties, and executing such contract, a deputation or authority, under the hands and seals of 3 of them, appointing such persons to be the collectors of the duties let to them, and authorizing such person farming the duties to take securities by bonds from the persons licensed, in the name of H. M., with such conditions as are required by 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 13., and to execute all powers, touching the collecting, managing, or accounting for the duties farmed to them, within their district, as fully as the collectors appointed by the commissioners under such act are empowered to do, id. s. 8.

781. The person farming the duties, with the consent of the commissioners of stamps, may vary the mode of keeping the weekly account, directed by 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 27. pl. 708., to be kept by the persons who let out horses to hire for travelling post, or by time, in such manner as they shall judge most convenient for keeping such accounts; and they may, by any indorsement, or on the face of the tickets or certificates to be delivered by them to the licensed persons, add the name or number of the district which they farm; and any person forging such tickets, or aiding therein, or uttering as true any false ticket, note, or certificate, with an intent to defraud the farmers, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as other penalties are by such act directed to be recovered and applied, id. s. 9.

782. All powers, forfeitures, and directions, prescribed by the 25 G. 3. c. 51., with relation to such duties, or to the persons appointed to collect the same, and not hereby altered, shall be in full force, and carried into execution by the persons farming the same, and appointed collectors thereof by the commissioners of stamps, as fully as if the same had been re-enacted; and such persons so farming the duties shall have all remedies for recovery of the money payable for such duties within their respective districts, as the collectors appointed by the commissioners of stamps now are entitled to have, 27 G. 3. c. 26. s. 10.

783. All securities, bonds, or obligations, taken by the persons farming such duties from such licensed persons under this or the said act, shall be taken in the name of H. M., and shall be prosecuted in the name of H. M., with the consent of the attorney-general in Eng., or advocate-general in Scot.; and all actions, or informations, prosecuted for any penalty forfeited by this or the said act, shall be prosecuted in the name of H. M., or in the name of the attorney-general or advocate-general, or by any person who shall prosecute in the manner in the said act directed: provided, all actions, &c. prosecuted in the name of any farmer, shall be deemed to be popular actions, id. s. 11. [But see as to prosecuting for penalties, 57 G. 3. c. 59. ss. 26, 27. pl. 767, 768.]

784. Any person farming such duties may use the like remedies for recovery thereof, against the persons appointed to receive the same, by extent or otherwise, which may be used for any duties payable directly to the king, id. s. 12.

785. The duties shall belong, and the tickets issued thereupon shall be returned and accounted for to the persons who shall be the farmers of the duties arising within the district where such tickets issued, and where the licensed persons issuing the same shall reside; and the gatekeepers at whose gate such tickets shall be delivered, shall return the same to the farmer from whose district such tickets shall have issued, at the time, and in the manner the same are by 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 36. pl. 717. directed to be returned to the collectors, id. s. 13.

786. Every person so licensed, residing in London or Westminster, or within 5 miles of the head office for stamps, or within the bills of mortality, shall bring in and deliver to the farmer so appointed collector of such duties, the accounts directed by 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 27. pl. 708. the said act to be delivered, and shall pay at such place in London or Westminster, and at such times as shall be appointed by public notice in the London Gazette, by order of the commissioners of stamps, the money due on such accounts; and every licensed person, not residing within 5 miles of the head office, nor within the bills of mortality, shall, at the times, and at the places mentioned at the foot of the post licence, and afterwards at the foot of every receipt given by the collector, attend, and there deliver in and pass his accounts, and pay the duty received by him, to the person so appointed collector thereof under the penalty in the said act (s. 28. pl. 709.) directed; provided, no such licensed person shall be compelled to travel, for the payment of the duties, farther than to the market town nearest to his habitation, id. s. 14. [See 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 23. pl. 759.]

787. No person farming such duties, and appointed collector thereof, shall, by such appointment, be disqualified from voting at any election of members to serve in parliament, id. s. 15.

788. No contract for letting such duties to farm shall be made with any person licensed to let horses for travelling post, nor to any one for his use, or so as he shall have any interest therein, but the same (if made) shall be utterly void; and if such contract shall be assigned to any person as aforesaid, or to any other person for his use, so that he shall have any interest therein, or benefit therefrom, such assignment shall also be utterly void, id. s. 16.

789. Persons sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act, may plead the general issue, and if a verdict pass for the defendant, &c. such defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 17.

790. FOR LETTING TO FARM THE POST HORSE DUTIES, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of such duties, 57 G. 3. c. 59. [Con. (until 31st Jan. 1824), and Amd. 1 G. 4. c. 88.]

791. The commissioners of the treasury may either by themselves or the commissioners of stamps, or 3 of them, let to farm the post-horse duties by 44 G. 3. c. 98. granted to such person, as may be willing to farm them, in such separate districts, and for such terms as shall be deemed convenient, and subject to the regulations of 27 G. 3. c. 26., so far as they are applicable and are not altered by 57 G. 3. c. 59.; provided such duties shall not be let to farm for any longer period than 31st Jan. 1824, 1 G. 4. c. 88. s. 1.

792. All the provisions, &c. of 27 G. 3. c. 26., 44 G. 3. c. 98., and 57 G. 3. c. 59., shall be deemed in full force as to such duties as shall be so let to farm, so far as they are not hereby expressly altered, id. s. 2. [Similar provisions, 57 G. 3. c. 59. ss. 1, 2. now Exp.]

793. The treasury or the commissioners of stamps shall prescribe the time for making a deposit of money, and the amount thereof on account of the rent to be paid by the person declared to be the farmer of the said duties; and in case such person shall fail to make such deposit at the time prescribed, or to execute such contracts, and give such security for the payment of the rent, and due performance of such contract, as by 27 G. 3. c. 26., directed within the time so appointed, the bidding and contract of such person shall be void, and his deposit, if any made, forfeited, and the duties put up again, 57 G. 3. c. 59. s. 5.

794. If such duties arising in any district shall not be let to farm at the time fixed by public advertisement, pursuant to this act and the

27 G.3. c.26., the treasury, or such commissioners, may let the same by private contract for the like term as aforesaid, 57 G.3. c.59. s.4. [See now 1 G.4. c.88. s.1. pl. 791.]

795. The commissioners of stamps shall depute not only the farmers and lessees of such duties, and their executors, administrators, and assigns, but also any other persons at the request of such farmers, &c. to be collectors of such duties within their respective districts, with full powers to grant the necessary licence for letting out horses to hire, and to take security by bond in the name of H. M. with such conditions as are required by the acts relating to such duties, and to receive the stamp office weekly accounts by such acts directed to be delivered by persons letting to hire horses within their respective districts, and the money due thereon, and may administer the oath or affirmation in s. 18. pl. 757. required, as to the truth of such accounts, and generally to do all things touching the payment of such duties, which by the several acts relating to such duties are authorized to be done by collectors, id. s.5.

796. No deputation for the collection of such duties shall be charged with any higher stamp-duty than 1*l.* 15*s.*, id. s.6.

797. After the said 31*st* Jan. 1818, all licences for letting horses to hire between the 31*st* Jan. and the 16*th* Mar., in any year, shall be dated on the 1*st* Feb., and all licenses granted at any other time shall be dated on the day on which the same shall be granted, and all such licences shall continue in force from the day of the date thereof, until the 31*st* Jan. following, id. s.7.

798. All the provisions of 42 G.3. c.100., 48 G.3. c.98., 51 G.3. c.76., and 54 G.3. c.174. shall CEASE, id. s.8.

PROBATES AND LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

799. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE STAMP DUTIES ON the probate of wills or letters of administration, issued in G. B., 37 G.3. c.90. s.10., 39 & 40 G.3. c.72. s.16., 41 G.3. (U. K.) c.86. s.3., 42 G.3. c.99. s.5., 48 G.3. c.149. ss.35—37., 55 G.3. c.184. ss.37—53. [This title is also framed, and for the duty see 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part III.]

800. Every person who shall administer the personal estate of any person dying, or any part thereof, without proving the will of the deceased, or taking out letters of administration of such estate within 6 calendar months after the death of the person dying, shall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered in the court of exchequer at Westminster for offences committed in Eng., or the court of exchequer in Scot., for offences committed there, by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, and one moiety of such penalty shall, if sued for within 6 calendar months, go to H. M., and the other to the party suing, 37 G.3. c.90. s.10. [See the penalty increased, 55 G.3. c.184. s.37. pl. 807.]

801. Where due proof on oath is made to the commissioners of stamps, (which oath one of such commissioners may administer,) that any will has, through inadvertence, been proved, or that any letters of administration have been taken out on the same property, in more than one ecclesiastical or prerogative court, or more than once in any such ecclesiastical court, and by reason thereof more than one stamp duty has been paid, such commissioners may, on delivery to them of the useless probate or letters to be cancelled, or on production of the valid probate or letters granted on any such will or property, cancel the useless probate, &c. and stamp any vellum, &c. with stamps of the like denomination and value as those cancelled, without taking any money for the same, 39 & 40 G.3. c.72. s.16.

802. The commissioners of stamps shall provide a stamp, distinguishable from all others, in order to stamp probates of wills, or letters of administration, in relation to estates, in respect whereof any probates or letters have been before taken out, and the full duty paid, according to the value of such estate; and where any probates or letters which have been so before stamped, and the full duty paid on the estate, and a further probate or letters are required for the same estate, such further probate, &c. shall be stamped with the stamp provided under this act; and such further probate or letters shall be available in law, and of as good effect as if the same had been at first duly stamped with the full duties, 41 G.3. (U. K.) c.86. s.3.

803. The commissioners of stamps may require of the register or other officer of every ecclesiastical court having the custody of any wills proved in such court, or account or register of any administrations granted, an account of all such wills or letters of administration, together with the particulars thereof, and extracts of any such wills as seem necessary to such commissioners, on payment of the fees agreed on for the same, or as may be settled by the ecclesiastical court, and such officer shall within one month after such requisition made, make out and deliver such account, on pain, in case of neglect, or in case of wilfully and knowingly delivering a false account, to forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered by the attorney-general to H. M.'s use, 42 G.3. c.99. s.3.

804. The probate of the will, or the letters of administration of the effects of any deceased person, shall be deemed valid and available by the executors or administrators of the deceased, for recovering, transferring, or assigning any debts or other personal estate or effects, whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed, or entitled either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value thereof, or so much thereof as was trust property in the deceased, as the case may be, shall not be included in the value of the estate for which the stamp duty on such probate or letters was paid, 48 G.3. c.149. s.35.

805. Where the executors or administrators of any person deceased are desirous of transferring, or of receiving the dividends of any share standing in the name of the deceased, of and in any government or parliamentary stocks or funds, transferable at the bank of Eng., or of the stocks or funds of the bank of Eng., or of any other corporation or company, and passing by transfer in the books of such corporation, &c. under any such probate or letters of administration, and allege that the deceased was possessed thereof, or entitled thereto, either wholly or partially, as a trustee; the bank and any other corporation, &c. or their officers may for their indemnity require an affidavit or affirmation of the fact, as in s.37. pl. 806. mentioned, if it shall not otherwise appear, and thereupon may permit such executors or administrators to transfer the stock or fund in question, and receive the dividends thereof, without regard to the stamp duty on the probate or letters. And where the executors or administrators of any person deceased shall have occasion to recover any debt or other personal estate due to the deceased, and shall allege that he was possessed thereof or entitled thereto, either wholly or partially, as a trustee; the person liable to pay such debt may require a like affidavit as aforesaid, and thereupon make over such debt or effects to such executors, &c., regardless of such stamp duty as aforesaid; and where the executors, &c. of any person deceased, shall have occasion to assign or transfer any debts due to the deceased, or any chattels real, or other personal estate, whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, and shall allege that the same were due to, or vested in him, either wholly or partially, as a trustee, the persons to whom or for whose use such debts, chattels, real, &c. shall be proposed to be assigned, may require such affidavit as aforesaid, and thereupon accept such assignment or transfer, regardless of such stamp duty as aforesaid, id. s.36.

806. Upon any such requisition as in s.36. such executors or administrators, or some person to whom the fact shall be known, shall make a special affidavit or affirmation of the facts, stating the property in question, and that the deceased had not any beneficial interest in the same, or no other than shall be therein set forth, but was possessed of or entitled thereto wholly or in part, in trust for some person, whose name or other description shall be specified, or for such purposes as shall be therein specified, and that the beneficial interest of the deceased, if any, in the property in question, does not exceed a certain value also therein specified, according to the best estimate that can be made thereof, if reversionary or contingent; and that the value of the estate for which the stamp duty was paid on the probate or letters, is sufficient to cover all such beneficial interest, as well as the rest of such personal estate of the deceased, and for which such probate or letters have been granted, as far as the same has come to the knowledge of such executors or administrators; and where such affidavit or affirmation is made by any other person than the executors or administrators of the deceased, they also shall make an affidavit or affirmation that the same is true to the best of their knowledge, and that the property in question is intended to be applied accordingly; which affidavits or affirmations shall be sworn before a master in chancery, and shall be delivered to the party requiring the same, and be sufficient indemnity to them; and if any person making such affidavit or affirmation shall knowingly and wilfully make a false oath or affirmation of the matters therein contained, such persons shall, on conviction, be liable to the pains inflicted on persons guilty of perjury, id. s.37. [See as to the parties before whom these affidavits may be sworn, 55 G.3. c.184. s.50. pl. 820.]

807. If any person shall take possession of, and in any manner administer, any part of the personal estate and effects of any person deceased, without obtaining probate of the will or letters of administration, within 6 calendar months after his or her decease, or within 2 calendar months after the termination of any dispute respecting the will or the right to letters of administration, if there shall be any such, which shall not be ended within 4 calendar months after the death of the deceased; every person so offending shall forfeit 100*l.*, and also a further sum, after the rate of 10*l.* per cent. on the amount of the stamp duty payable on the probate of the will or letters of administration, 55 G.3. c.184. s.37. [See 37 G.3. c.90. s.10., pl. 800.]

808. No ecclesiastical court or person shall grant probate of the will or letters of administration of the estate and effects of any person deceased, without first receiving from the person applying for the same, or from some other competent person, an affidavit, or affirmation, that the estate and effects of the deceased, for which the probate or administration is to be granted, exclusive of what the deceased was pos-seemed of or entitled to as a trustee for any other person, and not beneficially, but including the leasehold estates for years of the deceased, whether absolute or determinable on lives, if any, and without deducting any thing on account of the debts owing from the deceased, are under the value of a certain sum to be therein specified, to the best of the deponent's or affirmant's knowledge and belief, in order that the full stamp duty may be paid on such probate or administration; which affidavit or affirmation shall be made before the surrogate or other person who shall administer the usual oath for the due administration of the estate and effects of the deceased, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 38.

809. Every such affidavit or affirmation shall be exempt from the stamp duty, and be transmitted to the commissioners of stamps, together with the copy of the will, or extract or account of the letters of administration to which it relates, by the registrar or other officer of the court, whose duty it is to transmit copies of wills, and extracts or accounts of letters of administration, [see 42 G. 3. c. 99. s. 3. pl. 802.] to such commissioners, for the better collection of the duties on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy; and if any registrar or other such officer shall neglect to transmit such affidavit or affirmation to such commissioners, as hereby directed, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 39.

810. Where any person, on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration, has estimated the estate and effects of the deceased at a GREATER value than they shall afterwards prove to be, and shall in consequence pay too high a stamp duty thereon, if such person shall produce such probate or letters to such commissioners of stamps, within 6 calendar months after the true value has been ascertained, and deliver to them a particular inventory, account, and valuation of such estate and effects, verified by an affidavit or affirmation; and if it thereupon appear to such commissioners, that a greater stamp duty was paid than the law required, such commissioners may cancel and expunge the stamp on such probate or letters and substitute another, denoting the duty which ought to have been paid thereon, and make an allowance for the difference, as in the cases of spoiled stamps, [viz. by giving other stamps in lieu, see Div. X. Page 1422.] or, if the difference be considerable, to repay the same in money, at their discretion, id. s. 40.

811. Where any person, on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration, has estimated the estate and effects of the deceased at a LESS value than they shall prove to be, and shall in consequence pay too little stamp duty thereon, such commissioners, on delivery to them of an affidavit or affirmation of the value of the estate and effects of the deceased, may cause such probate or letters to be duly stamped, on payment of the full duty due thereon in respect of such value, and of the penalty payable by law for stamping deeds after the execution thereof, [see ante, Div. XI. and STAMPS (Conveyances)] without any deduction or allowance of the stamp duty originally paid on such probate or letters; provided that if the application is made within 6 calendar months after such true value is ascertained, and if it appear by affidavit or affirmation, to such commissioners, that such duty was paid in consequence of mistake, or of its not being known that some particular part of the estate and effects belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or delay of payment, such commissioners may remit the penalty, and cause such probate or letters to be duly stamped, on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the duty at first due thereon, id. s. 41.

812. In cases of letters of administration on which too little stamp duty has been paid at first, such commissioners shall not cause the same to be so duly stamped, until the administrator has given such security to the ecclesiastical court or ordinary by whom the letters were granted, as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof, in case the full value of the estate and effects of the deceased had been then ascertained; and such commissioners shall also yearly or oftener transmit an account of the probates and letters of administration, upon which the stamps have been rectified under this act, to the several ecclesiastical courts by which the same have been granted, together with the value of the estate and effects of the deceased, upon which such rectification has proceeded, id. s. 42.

813. Where too little duty has been paid on any probate or letters of administration, in consequence of mistake or misapprehension, or of its not being known that some particular part of the estate and effects belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters shall not, within 6 calendar months after the discovery of the mistake or misapprehension, or of any estate or effects not known to have belonged to the deceased, apply to such commissioners, and pay what shall be wanting to make up the duty which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, and also a further sum, at the rate of 10*l.* per cent. on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper duty, id. s. 43.

814. No ecclesiastical court or person shall call in and revoke, or accept the surrender of any probate or letters of administration, on the ground only of too high or too low a stamp duty having been paid thereon; and if any ecclesiastical court or person shall do so, the commissioners of stamps shall not make any allowance whatever for the stamp duty on the probate or letters which shall be so annulled, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 44.

815. "Whereas it may happen in the case of letters of administration on which the proper stamp duty hath not been paid at first, that certain debts, chattels real, or other effects, due to the deceased, have been found to be of such great value, that the administrator hath not money sufficient to pay the requisite stamp duty, in order to render such letters available for the recovery thereof by law; and it may also happen that executors or persons entitled to take out letters of administration may, before obtaining probate of the will or letters of administration, find some considerable part of the estate and effects of the deceased so circumstanced as not to be immediately got possession of, and may not have money sufficient to pay the stamp duty on such probate or letters;" BE IT ENACTED, That such commissioners of stamps, on satisfactory proof of such facts by affidavit or affirmation, in any such case which may appear to require relief, may cause such probate or letters to be duly stamped, for denoting the duty payable, and may give credit for the duty, either upon payment of the penalty, or without, in cases of probates or letters already obtained, and upon which too little duty has been paid, and either with or without allowance of the stamp duty already paid thereon, as the case may require, under this act; provided in all such cases of credit that security be first given by the executors or administrators, together with 2 sureties to be approved by such commissioners, by a bond to H. M., in double the amount of the duty, for full payment of the sum for which credit is given, within 6 calendar months, or any less period, and of the interest for the same, at the rate of 10*l.* per cent. per ann., from the expiration of such period until payment thereof, in case of any default of payment at the time appointed; and such probate or letters being so duly stamped, shall be as available as if the proper duty had been at first paid thereon, and stamped accordingly, id. s. 45.

816. If at the expiration of the time so allowed for the payment of such duty on such probate or letters, it appear to such commissioners, that the executor or administrator to whom such credit was given, has not recovered effects of the deceased to an amount sufficient for the payment of such duty, they may give such further time for the payment thereof, and upon such terms as they think expedient, id. s. 46.

817. The probate or letters of administration so to be stamped on credit, shall be deposited with such commissioners, and not be delivered up until payment of the duty, together with such interest, if any due; but the same may be produced in evidence by some officer of such commissioners, at the expense of the executor or administrator, id. s. 47.

818. The duty for which credit shall be so given, shall be a debt to H. M., from the personal estate of the deceased, and shall be paid in preference to any other debt due from the same estate; and if any executor or administrator shall pay any other debt in preference thereto, he shall not only be liable to pay the duty out of his own estate, but shall also forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 48.

819. If before payment of the duty for which credit is so given, it is necessary to take out letters of administration de bonis non, such commissioners may cause such letters de bonis non, to be duly stamped with the particular stamp provided for letters of that kind, for denoting the payment of the duty in respect of the effects of the deceased, on some prior probate or letters of administration of the same effects, in the same manner as if the duty had been actually paid, upon having the letters de bonis non deposited with such commissioners, and upon having such further security for the payment of the duty as they think expedient; and such letters of administration shall be as available as if the duty for which credit is given, had been paid, id. s. 49.

820. Where any part of the personal estate which the deceased was possessed of or entitled to, is alleged to have been trust property, if the person who is required to make any affidavit or affirmation relating thereto, conformably to the 48 G. 3. c. 149. s. 37. pl. 806. resides out of Eng., such affidavit or affirmation may be made before any person commissioned to take affidavits by the court of session or of exchequer in Scot., or before a justice of peace in Scot., or a master in chancery ordinary or extraordinary in Ire., or before any judge or civil magistrate of any other country or place where the party happens to reside; and every such affidavit or affirmation shall be as effectual as if made before a master in chancery in Eng., pursuant to such act, id. s. 50.

821. Where it shall be proved by oath or proper vouchers to the satisfaction of such commissioners, that an executor or administrator hath paid debts due from the deceased, and payable by law out of his personal or moveable estate, to such an amount as being deducted from the value of the estate and effects of the deceased, for which a probate or letters of administration, or a compensation of a testament, testamentary or dative, shall have been granted after 31st Aug. 1815, or which shall be included in any inventory exhibited and recorded in a commissary court in Scot., as the law requires, after that day, shall reduce the same to a sum, which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of such estate and effects would have occasioned a less stamp duty to be paid on such probate or letters of administration, or confirmation or inventory, than shall have been actually paid thereon under and by virtue of this act, such commissioners may return the difference, provided the same is claimed within 3 years after the date of such probate, or letters, or confirmation, or the recording of such confirmation; but where by reason of any proceeding at law or in equity, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or the effects of the deceased shall not have been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming such return of duty within such term of 3 years, the commissioners of the treasury may allow any further reasonable time for making the claim, 55 G.3. c.185. s.51.

822. All affidavits and affirmations required by this or any former or future act, or which shall be required by such commissioners of stamps, to be made for their satisfaction, concerning any circumstances upon which they are to execute the powers vested in them by this act, or for the verification of any accounts concerning the duties under their management, or for any other purpose relating to such duties, shall, in all cases not otherwise expressly provided for, be made before such commissioners or any one of them, or before a master in chancery, ordinary or extraordinary in Eng., or before any person duly commissioned to take affidavits by the court of session or the court of exchequer in Scot., or before a justice of peace in Scot., id. s.52.

823. All persons before whom any affidavit or affirmation is directed to be made by this or any former or future stamp act, shall be authorized to take the same and administer the proper oath or affirmation for that purpose; and if any person making any such affidavit or affirmation shall knowingly and wilfully make a false oath or affirmation concerning any of the matters therein specified, he shall, on being convicted, be liable to such penalties as persons convicted of corrupt perjury are liable to, id. s.53.

824. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE STAMP DUTIES ON the probate of wills or letters of administration issued in Scot., 44 G.3. c.98. ss.23, 27., 48 G.3. c.149. ss.38—42., 53 G.3. c.108. s.19., 56 G.5. c.107. [And see as to swearing affidavits, &c., and as to return of duty on paying the debts of the deceased in Scot., 55 G.3. c.184. ss.50—53. pl. 820—825.; This title is framed from the purport of these sections. For the duty, see 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part III.]

825. All executors, administrators, nearest kin, creditors, and others, who intromit with, or enter upon the possession or management of all or any personal or moveable estate or effects of any deceased person in Scot., shall, on or before disposing of or distributing any such estates, uplifting any debts due to the deceased, and at all events within 6 calendar months next after having assumed such possession, &c. and before any person shall be confirmed executors, testamentary or dative, exhibit on oath in the proper consistorial court called the Commissary Court, a full inventory of such estate and effects, either already recovered or known to be existing, distinguishing whether situated in Scot., or elsewhere, likewise any will or other writing relative to the disposal of such estate, which the persons exhibiting such inventory may have access to; and such inventory, together with the will or other writing, shall be recorded in the books of such court, without any other expence than the ordinary fees of registration, and without prejudice to the laws of Scot. in other respects regarding the total or partial confirmations, or the rules of succession there established, and without prejudice to the increase of fees payable on confirmations, which shall remain as they are at present; and in case a discovery is made of other effects of the deceased, which because unknown were omitted in such inventory, an additional inventory shall be exhibited on oath, and recorded by the person intromitting or assuming the management thereof; and in case such persons shall neglect to exhibit such original or additional inventory, or knowingly omit any part of such estate, he shall forfeit not exceeding double stamp duty payable on the amount of such estate and effects, or on the sum so omitted, and not less than 100*l.* for each such neglect, to be recovered and applied as other penalties by this act may be, 44 G.3. c.98. s.23. [See 48 G.3. c.149. s.38. pl. 827.]

826. Penalties may be recovered as any other penalty under the stamp acts may be, and shall go to H. M., 44 G.3. c.98. s.27. [See the section at length, STAMPS, Div. V. pl. 124.]

827. All persons who as executors, nearest kin, or creditors, or otherwise, shall intromit with or enter upon the possession or management of any personal or moveable estate or effects in Scot., shall on or before disposing of or distributing any part of such estate or effects, or uplifting any debt due to the deceased, and at all events within 6 calendar months after having assumed such possession or management, in whole or part, and before they be confirmed executors, testamentary, or dative, exhibit on oath or affirmation in the proper commissary court in Scot., (which oath, &c. any judge, or any other commissioner appointed by such court may administer, and which shall not be liable to stamp duty,) a full and true inventory duly stamped as hereby required of all personal or moveable estates and effects of the deceased already recovered or known, distinguishing what shall be situated in Scot. and what elsewhere, together with any testament or other writing relating to the disposal thereof, or part thereof which such exhibitors shall have in their custody; and which inventory, together with such writing (if any), shall be recorded in the books of such court, without any other expence to the party than the ordinary fees of registration; and if at any subsequent period a discovery is made of any other effects of the deceased, an additional inventory of the same shall, within 2 calendar months after, in like manner be exhibited or recorded as aforesaid by such persons &c. as aforesaid; and in case any person hereby required to exhibit such inventory shall neglect so to do within the times limited, or in case of any wilful omission of any part of the estate and effects of the deceased, the party so neglecting, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered by ordinary action, or summary complaint in the sheriff, steward, or borough court, or before a justice of peace of the shire, &c. where the party sued resides, which court or justice may mitigate such penalty, so as the same is not reduced below one-half, besides costs; and the persons so offending, shall be charged with double the stamp duty which would have been payable on such inventories so neglected to be exhibited, according to the value of the estate, &c. which ought to have been specified therein, or double the increased stamp duty, which would have been payable on such inventory exhibited in respect of the estate, &c. omitted, as the case may require, and such double duty shall be a debt to H. M., and be sued for accordingly, 48 G.3. c.149. s.38.

828. Every inventory so exhibited and recorded as in s.38. pl. 827. shall be retained by the clerk of the commissary court, and be transmitted by him, together with such oath or affirmation to the stamp duty solicitor at Edinburgh, who shall file the same in the stamp office there; and in case such clerk shall fail to record, retain, or transmit such inventory, &c. or shall receive or record any such inventory, not duly stamped, he shall forfeit 50*l.* id. s.39.

829. Where such additional inventory shall be exhibited to be so recorded, the same shall also specify the value of the estate, &c. of the same person comprised in the former one, and the duty on such additional inventory shall be the ad valorem on the whole amount of the estate specified in both, and on such additional inventory duly stamped being so recorded and transmitted, the solicitor of stamp duties, on the application of the person who exhibited the same, shall deliver the former inventory to him with a certificate thereon signed by him, bearing that an additional inventory of the effects of the deceased duly stamped, had been transmitted to him and filed; and such certificate shall entitle the party exhibiting such additional inventory to demand the amount of stamp duty on such former inventory from the head distributor at Edinburgh, who shall pay the same, on a proper receipt being given, and the former inventory and certificate being delivered to him to be produced with the receipt as a voucher for such payment, id. s.40.

830. The duty hereby charged on any such inventory, shall be deemed to be payable only on the value of such part of the estate and effects therein mentioned as shall be situated in Scot., id. s.41.

831. The commissary court in Scot. shall not grant confirmation of any testament, testamentary, or dative, or cik thereto, unless the same is mentioned in some such inventory exhibited and recorded as in s.38. pl. 827.; and no executor or other person shall recover any debt or effects of any person dying in Scot. unless the same have been previously included in such inventory, except the same were vested in the deceased as a trustee, and not beneficially, but these provisions shall not in other respects prejudice the law of Scot. regarding total or partial confirmations, or the rules of succession there established, id. s.42.

832. Where any additional inventory of the personal or moveable estate and effects of any person deceased, which shall be exhibited to be recorded in the commissary court of Scot. pursuant to 48 G.3. c.149. s.40. pl. 829. would not under that act be liable to a greater stamp duty than that already paid on any former inventory of the same person's estates, &c. such additional inventory shall be exempted from all stamp duty, 53 G.3. c.108. s.19.

833. Where inventories of the personal estate of persons deceased, have been exhibited in any commissary court in Scot. prior to 1st Sept. 1815, and duly stamped under 48 G.3. c.149. and in consequence of the subsequent discovery of other effects an additional inventory so exhibited; such additional inventory shall be exempted from the ad valorem duties, by 55 G.3. c.184. granted, and shall be liable only to the duties by 48 G.3. c.149. granted, 56 G.3. c.107.

RECEIPTS.

834. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL STAMP duties in receipts, [and for better collecting the same], 31 G.3. c.25. ss.13, 14, 21, 22., 35 G.3. c.55., 45 G.3. c.126., 50 G.3. c.34. s.12. [As to receipts for legacies, see ante, Legacy, and see STAMPS (Bills, and Notes); and for the duty, 55 G.3. c.184. Sch. Part I. tit. Receipts.]

835. This act shall not extend to any receipt or other discharge given for any legacy or share of a personal estate, divided by force of the statute of distributions, or the custom of any province or place duly stamped, or to any receipt given by the treasurer of the navy for any money imprested to or received by him for the service of the navy, or to the receipt of any agent for money imprested by or to him, on account of the pay of the army or ordnance, or to any receipt to be given by any officer, seaman, or soldier, or their representatives for any wages, pay, or pensions due to them from the navy, army, or ordnance, nor to any receipt to be given for the consideration of the purchase of any share in any public stock or fund, or the stocks of the corporations of the bank of Eng., East India, or South Sea companies, or for the dividends payable on such shares of such stocks, nor to any receipt given for money deposited in the banks of Eng. or Scot. or in the house of any banker, nor to any receipt, &c. written on the back of any bill of exchange, promissory, or other note duly stamped, or on the back of any foreign bill of exchange payable in G. B., nor to any release or acquittance deed duly stamped, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 13.

836. This act shall not extend to any receipt, &c. given on any bill or note of the bank of Eng., or to any letter acknowledging the safe arrival of any bills or securities for money, or to any receipt, &c. indorsed on, or contained in any deed, bond, mortgage, or other instrument acknowledging the payment or re-payment of any part of any principal sum, or any interest thereon, lent, paid, or secured by or upon such deed, &c. duly stamped, nor to any receipt, &c. given for any money payable by the law of merchants for drawbacks or bounties upon exportation from this kingdom, nor to any certificate of over-entry of any custom duties, id. s. 14. [See the exemptions, 55 G. 3. Sch. Part I. tit. Receipt, ante.]

837. Receipts exempted from duty under 31 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 13, & 14. [and all former acts, 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 10.] shall be exempted from the duty hereby imposed, 35 G. 3. c. 25. s. 2., 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 10.

838. Nothing herein shall subject any person to any penalty in respect of any receipt, &c. accepted by them on vellum, &c. not stamped, in case the same is brought to be stamped, as in s. 20. [this clause is verbatim with 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 11. pl. 848.] directed, and the duties and penalties hereby imposed, paid to the proper officer; nor subject any such person to any such penalties in respect of such receipts, until the expiration of one calendar month after such receipt, &c. was given, or bore date, 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 21.

839. No officer or person shall be subject to any penalties, disabilities, &c. in this or any former act contained, for writing or accepting receipts, &c. hereby made liable to duty given to them in respect of any public employment, on any book belonging to any public office, or the office of any corporation or company, or in any court of law or equity in G. B. without any stamps thereon which have been first shewn to, and signed by the commissioners of stamps, or 3 of them, or some officers by them for that purpose authorized to signify his consent, (and which they may refuse or allow, as they think fit,) that the receipts, &c. written in such book may be there written without any stamp thereon; so as the person having the custody of such book do when required, permit such commissioners, or their officers to inspect the same, and do also when required pay to the receiver-general all sums which ought under this act to be paid for such receipts, &c. written in such books, id. s. 22. [QU. are the 31 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 13, 14, 21, 22. REF. by 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4. pl. 841. See the particular wording of that clause.]

840. All rules, regulations, penalties, &c. in the 31 G. 3. c. 25. contained, viz. ss. 12—17, 20—22. in relation to the duties on receipts, discharges, and acquittances for which other provisions are hereby made, shall cease, except as to arrears, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4.

841. The full and just sum for which any receipt, &c. is given, and the true date thereof shall be inserted therein; and all notes, memorandums, or writings given on the payment of money amounting to 40s. or more, whereby any sum is acknowledged to have been paid, released, or discharged, or which shall in any ways denote such acknowledgment, and whether signed or not by the name of the party on whose behalf given, shall be deemed receipts within this act, and be liable to the duties imposed thereon; and shall be paid by the person by whom or on whose behalf such receipts, &c. are required, (except such receipts, &c. as shall be given upon the payment of money in respect of any salary, pension, debt, or other sum payable from H. M.; in which case the duty shall be paid by the person giving such receipt, &c.) and which duties in default of payment according to this act, may be levied against the person by whom they are hereby made payable, their executors, administrators, and assigns, id. s. 5.

842. Every receipt, &c. note, memorandum, or writing given by any person upon the payment of money, which shall express, or in any way denote any general acknowledgement of any debt, claim, account, or demand, or all or any debts, &c. being paid, discharged, or released, or whereby any sum therein mentioned is acknowledged to be in full of all such debts, &c. and whether the same is or is not signed by or with the name of the person on whose behalf the same is given, shall be deemed a receipt for 500l. and more, [QU. now 1000l. see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sch. Part I. tit. Receipt.] within this act, and be liable to the duty accordingly; and no such receipt, &c. note, &c. shall be pleaded or given in evidence in any court, or be available in law or equity as an acknowledgement of any debts, &c. being paid, &c. whether generally or otherwise, or for any other, or greater sum than that therein expressed, unless the same is stamped with the proper 5s. stamp, [10s., 55 *G. 3. c. 184. Sch.] 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 6., 43 *G. 3. c. 126. s. 3.

843. Every note, memorandum, or writing given to any person upon the payment of money, which shall express, or in any way denote any acknowledgement of any part of any debt, &c. being paid, &c. whether signed or not by the party on whose behalf given, shall be deemed a receipt within this act, 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 7.

844. Every person who shall write or sign, or cause to be written, &c. any receipt, &c. given on the payment of money liable to any stamp duty on vellum, &c. without the same being first duly stamped, or stamped with a stamp of a lower denomination than that which ought to be charged, shall forfeit 10l. if the sum mentioned therein, shall not amount to 100l. and 20l. if it shall amount to 100l. or upwards, id. s. 8.

845. Every person giving any receipt, &c. or any note, &c. acknowledging the payment of any money in which a less sum is expressed, than actually paid, or who shall separate the sum actually paid into divers sums, with intent to evade the duty, or who shall with like intent write off part of any debt, &c. or who shall be guilty of or concerned in any fraudulent contrivance, with intent to defraud H. M. of these duties, shall forfeit 50l. to be recovered as in s. 12. pl. 849. directed, id. s. 9.

846. All vellum, &c. liable to any stamp duty, shall before any thing is written thereon, be brought to the head stamp office, to be stamped, and the commissioners of stamps, or their officers shall stamp the same in any quantities on payment of the duty; and no receipt, &c. note, &c. liable to such duties shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be available in any court of law or equity, unless the same is stamped with the proper stamp, denoting the payment of the duty, or some higher duty, and neither such commissioners, or their officers shall stamp any vellum, &c. at any time after such receipts, &c. is ingrossed, &c. thereon, except as herein provided, id. s. 10.

847. Every receipt, &c. given on the payment of money, and written on vellum, &c. not stamped, which shall be brought to the commissioners of stamps, or their officers, to be stamped within 14 days after the same was given, or shall bear date, shall be stamped on payment of 5l. besides the duty, and any such receipt, &c. so brought to be stamped after the expiration of such 14 days, and within one calendar month after it was given or shall bear date, shall be stamped on payment of 10l. besides the duty, and the proper officer shall, on such receipts, &c. being brought within such times, and on payment of the duty and such penalty, stamp the same with the proper stamp, id. s. 11.

848. The penalties hereby inflicted are to be recovered, levied, applied, and mitigated, as hereby directed, 35 G. 3. c. 55. ss. 12—16. [These sections are verbatim with 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 24—28. (see STAMPS, Bills and Notes, pl. 312—316.) with the exceptions, that in cases where under 31 G. 3. c. 25. s. 28., and 35 G. 3. c. 55. s. 16. the attorney-general of Eng. or the advocate of Scot. is directed to prosecute; the prosecution in Eng. under the former act may be in any court at Westminster, and that under the latter act is confined to the court of exchequer.]

849. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any stamp directed to be used in pursuance of 31 G. 3. c. 25. or this act, to denote the duties thereby granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the impression of the same on any vellum, &c. with intention to defraud H. M., or shall utter, vend, or expose to sale any vellum, &c. liable to such duties, with such counterfeit mark or impression thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, or shall privately or fraudulently use any stamp directed to be used by this act or the 31 G. 3. c. 25. with intent to defraud H. M., such person shall, on conviction be adjudged a felon, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 17. and 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 11. [See 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 7. pl. 182.]

850. Former acts extended to this act, id. s. 18., 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 12. [No general issue clause is attached to this act. QU. Does the general issue clause of 31 G. 3. c. 25. viz. s. 35., see STAMPS, (Bills and Notes, pl. 317.) extend to this act?]

851. If any receipt, acquittance, or discharge, for any sum amounting to 40s., shall, contrary to this act be engrossed, &c. on unstamped vellum, &c. or vellum, &c. stamped with a stamp of a lower denomination or value than hereby directed, then there shall be due to H. M. the full duty chargeable thereon; and which duty shall be payable by the persons hereby required to give such receipts, his, her, or their executors, administrators, and assigns, 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 4.

852. Any person, or agents of persons, from whom any sum is due, and who have paid such sums, may provide a piece of vellum, &c. stamped with the proper or a higher stamp duty, and may demand of the persons entitled to such sums, or their agents, a receipt, &c. for the same, and also the amount of duty thereon; and if any such person shall refuse to give such receipt or pay such amount, such person shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered as any other penalty under the 51 G. 3. c. 25. or 55 G. 3. c. 55. may be, 43 G. 3. c. 126. s. 5.

853. No receipt, discharge, or acquittance, liable to the duties hereby granted, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, or available in any court of law or equity, unless the same is duly stamped, id. s. 6.

854. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff has a verdict against him, or is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 15.

855. All receipts or unstamped paper taken by the paymasters of exchequer bills for either principal or interest paid by them in discharge of such bills before this act passed, shall be valid; and all persons are hereby indemnified for penalties thereby incurred, and all such receipts and discharges shall in future be exempted from stamp duty, 50 G. 3. c. 55. s. 12.

STAGE-COACHES.

856. FOR THE BETTER COLLECTION OF THE DUTIES ON STAGE-COACHES, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 33., 55 G. 3. c. 108. ss. 21, 22., 55 G. 3. c. 185. ss. 11, 12. (This title is also framed.) [For the duties see 55 G. 3. c. 185. Sch., tit. Stage-Coaches, which are to be levied as the duties under 25 G. 3. c. 51. by 37 G. 3. c. 16. s. 2. see STAMPS (Post-Horses).]

857. All persons duly licensed [See as to such licences, 25 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 45, 46. pl. 726, 727.] to keep any coach, berlin, landau, chariot, diligence, calash, chaise-marine, chaise, chair, or other carriage with 2 or more wheels, to be employed as a public stage-coach, or carriage for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to and from different places in G. B., shall paint on the outside of each door of such carriage, or some other conspicuous part thereof, in legible letters of 2 inches in length, and in a different colour from the ground on which the same was painted, the words "Licensed to carry not exceeding 4, 6, 8, 10," or more passengers, as the licence obtained for such carriages shall specify; and if any person shall make use of any such carriages for so carrying passengers for hire without having such words painted on such carriage in the manner before directed, or shall at any time carry more inside passengers (children in lap excepted) than is specified in the licence for using such carriages, and the words so painted on the outside of such doors of such carriage, every person so offending shall forfeit 20*l.*, 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 13.

858. Every person who shall keep and employ, or let out any coach, berlin, landau, chariot, diligence, calash, chaise-marine, chaise, chair, or other carriage, with 2 or more wheels, as a public stage-coach or carriages for conveying passengers for hire from different places in G. B., without having a licence from the commissioners of stamps, shall answer to H. M. such duties as he would be liable to in respect of such carriage under the 44 G. 3. c. 98. in case he had made the declaration concerning the same by 25 G. 3. c. 51. s. 49. pl. 730. [see STAMPS (Post-Horses).] required, and had obtained a proper licence for employing such carriage for the particular journey, distance, or number of miles, and for the number of journeys in the day or week, and for the number of passengers which he shall have advertised to the public, that such carriage was to go and carry, or which such coach shall actually have gone and carried, at any one period after the same was set up as a public stage-coach at the election of such commissioners; and the person so letting out, &c. such coach, shall be chargeable with such duty for the same, from the time such coach was so set up as a stage-coach without such licence, until such licence is obtained, or such coach is discontinued, and also with the duty which would have been payable for the proper licence for such coach during the same period, 55 G. 3. c. 108. s. 21.

859. All licences for keeping coaches to be used as public stage-coaches, which shall be granted between 31 July and 1 Sept. in any year, shall be dated on 1 Aug., and all such licences granted on any other day, shall be dated on the day granted, and all such licences shall continue in force until 31 July following both inclusive; provided nothing herein shall extend to any stage-coaches licensed by the commissioners of hackney coaches, id. s. 22. [See 25 G. 3. c. 21. s. 45. pl. 726.]

860. All such parts of any acts of parliament [44 G. 3. c. 88, 98. Sch. B.] as authorize the commissioners of hackney-coaches to licence any hackney-coach to be used as stage-coaches, and as exempt the owners of hackney-coaches already so licensed from taking out licences from the commissioners of stamps, and from the payment of mileage duties on stage-coaches, and from the provisions of acts relating to stage-coaches, shall be REP.; and the owners of hackney-coaches now employed as stage-coaches, shall be liable to take out licences from the commissioners of stamps, and be subject to the same duties and regulations as the owners of any other stage-coaches, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 11.

861. None of the provisions of any act relating to hackney-coaches shall be construed to prevent the owners or drivers of stage-coaches duly licensed, and paying the mileage duties, from taking up passengers within the bills of mortality out of the paved streets of London, West- minster or Southwark, and any continuation thereof, so that they do not deviate from their regular road for that purpose, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 12.

STAPLE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. CONCERNING THE STAPLE AT CALAIS, 12 R. 2. c. 16., 14 R. 2. c. 1., 21 R. 2. c. 7. [REP. 1 H. 4. c. 3.] and 2 H. 6. c. 4., 8 H. 6. cc. 17—21., 10 H. 6. c. 1., 11 H. 6. c. 13., 14 H. 6. c. 2., 15 H. 6. c. 8., 27 H. 6. c. 2. [ALL EXP.]

2. NO PROTECTION ALLOWED BEFORE THE MAYOR OF THE STAPLE at Calais, 1 H. 7. c. 3. [EXP.]

3. FOR REGULATING EXPORTATION OF STAPLE MERCHANDIZES, 11 H. 6. c. 14., 14 H. 6. c. 5. [EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

4. NONE OF H. M.'s JUSTICES SHALL TAKE COGNIZANCE OF THINGS belonging to the staple, 27 E. 3. S. 2. c. 5.

5. In case that K. B. or C. P. or justices in eyre or of assize, the court of the Marshalsea, or any other justices do come to the places where the staples be, neither they nor the steward or marshal, or others of such court, shall have cognizance of things which pertain to the mayors and ministers of the staple, id. ibid.

6. NO MARSHAL OR OTHER OFFICER OF H. M.'s HOUSE SHALL make livery, or meddle in the staples with the houses where the merchants of the staple or wool, or other merchandize thereof be lodged, nor enter to execute their office there, nor take any thing to spare any therein, on pain to make quatreble satisfaction to the party at whose suit he is attained, with further grievous punishment by H. M., 27 E. 3. S. 2. c. 6.

7. OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE MAYOR AND CONSTABLES of the staple, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 8., and 36 E. 3. c. 7. [VIRTUALLY AMD. 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 23., and 14 R. 2. c. 3.]

8. The mayors and constables of the staples shall have jurisdiction and cognizance within the staple towns, [viz. for Eng., Newcastle on Tyne, York, Lincoln, Norwich, Westminster, Canterbury, Chichester, Winchester, Exeter, and Bristol: for Wales, Caermurthen: for Ireland, Dublin, Waterford, Cork, and Drogheda, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 1.], of the people, and all things touching the staple; and all merchants coming to the staple, their servants and meiny [family] in the staple, shall be ruled by the law merchant of all things touching the staple, and not by common law or usage of cities, boroughs, or other towns, and shall not implead or be impleaded before the justices of those places, in debt, covenant, and trespass, touching the staple; but shall implead all persons of whom they will complain, whether of the staple or not, but being there found, and shall be impleaded only before the mayor and justices of the staple thereto deputed of all pleas, the cognizance whereof belongs to the ministers of the staple, and of all contracts between merchants or others, whereof one party is merchant or minister of the staple, whether contract be made within or without the staple; and of trespass done by or to the latter, the plaintiff shall chuse whether to sue by the law of the staple or at common law, so that in pleas touching any of H. M.'s house, the steward or his lieutenant, and the marshal, shall be with the mayor of the staple, to see that right be done to the parties, but pleas of land and freehold shall be at common law, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 8. s. 1.

9. In trials before the mayor of the staple, between the merchants and ministers of the same, by inquest taken therein, if both parties be aliens, it shall be tried by them; if both be denizens, then by denizens; or if one party be denizen and the other alien, one half of the jury shall be of denizens and the other half of aliens, id. s. 2. [See 28 E. 3. c. 13. s. 2. JURY, pl. 18.]

10. The mayors and constables of the staples shall have cognizance only of debts, covenants, and contracts, and of other pleas touching merchandize and surety thereof, betwixt known merchants; and process of felonies and all other pleas, as well within as without staple, shall be at common law, saving that merchants aliens (whether plaintiffs or defendants) may sue their plaints, as well of trespass as other, before the mayor of the staple by the law thereof, or at common law, and H. M. and other lords shall enjoy their franchises so that the mayor of the staple has power to take recognizances of debts [of every person, be he merchant or other, as in 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 8., but QU. since 23 H. 8. c. 6.] 36 E. 3. c. 7.

11. Correctors and officers of the staple, except the constables and mayor, who shall be so sworn in chancery, shall be sworn before the mayor of the staple lawfully to execute their office, and all merchants coming to staples for merchandize shall be sworn to, and shall maintain the staple laws, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 23.

12. The mayors constables, brokers, and all other officers of the staple shall be sworn, first to H. M. and after to the staple, 14 R. 2. c. 3.

13. HOUSES IN STAPLE TOWNS LET TO MERCHANTS FOR putting their wools and merchandizes in, shall be set at reasonable rent, according to the ordinance of the mayor and constables of the staple, and 4 good men of the best of the town where the staple is, who shall be sworn in presence of such mayor and constables to make a lawful rate, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 16.

14. A MAYOR AND TWO CONSTABLES SHALL BE CHOSEN TO GOVERN every staple town, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 21.

15. In every staple town a mayor, having knowledge of the law merchant, shall be established to govern the staple, and do right to all, after the laws thereof, without favour; as well as 2 constables first appointed by H. M., and afterwards, on vacancy, by the commonalty of merchants there; no such mayor shall hold the office over one year, unless chosen anew by commonalty of merchants, as well aliens as denizens; such mayor and constables shall keep the peace, and arrest offenders in the staples for trespass, debt, or other contract, and imprison and punish them according to the staple, and a prison shall be ordained for safe keeping of those imprisoned, and the mayors, sheriffs, and bailiffs of staple towns, or adjoining thereto, shall be attending on the staple ministers to execute their commands when required, under grievous forfeiture; and one lord or other sufficient person in the county where the staple is, shall be assigned to be aidant to the mayor and ministers of the staple, to try disobedient persons who cannot be tried by the latter, and to council them for their good governance, and to redress every man's complaint which is mistaken by them; if any merchant will complain of the mayor or constables that they have failed of right, or favoured any party against reason, it shall be speedily redressed by the chancellor and others of our council, without delay; and such mayor and constables shall not act contrary hereto, or make interpretation therein other than the words purport, but any thing doubtful shall be shewn to our council, and there declared by good advice, id. ibid.

16. IN ALL STAPLE TOWNS THERE SHALL BE A CERTAIN NUMBER of correctors, as well strangers as natives, good men, sufficient, and having knowledge of the several trades, to make and record the bargains between buyers and sellers; they shall find sufficient main-pennors before the mayor and constables of the staple to perform their office, and if found in default shall pay the amount of damage, but shall not meddle with merchandize while in office; no man shall be obliged to have a corrector, or pay him any thing, except he meddle of his bargain at his request, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 22.

17. ALIEN MERCHANTS SHALL CHOOSE TWO ALIEN MERCHANTS, of whom one for the north and one for the south, shall be assigned to sit with the mayors and constables of the staples, where any are so chosen shall come, to hear the complaints concerning merchants, aliens, moved before the latter, and to see full right done; but such process shall not discontinue in case such persons do not come thither; and if debate arise on discussing any plea or complaint, the tenor thereof shall be sent before the chancellor and council for determination, and 6 persons shall be chosen, 2 Germans, 2 Lombards, and 2 English, good men, who will swear duly to execute their office, who, or 4 of whom, may by their oath determine any debate among merchants of unreasonable wool or undue packing, according to the contract made, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 24.

18. CONSPIRACY BY ANY MERCHANT OR OTHER, TO THE disturbance or decay of the staple, shall be felony, on attain before mayor and minister of the staple, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 25. [See c. 3.]

19. GENERAL CONFIRMATION OF THE LIBERTIES OF THE STAPLE, notwithstanding any franchise, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 28.

20. The liberties of staple shall be firmly kept, notwithstanding any franchise, custom, &c. made to cities, boroughs, &c., saving to the prelates, earls, &c., their fairs, markets, and hundreds, wapentakes, &c. id. ibid.

21. THE ORDINANCE OF THE SEVERAL FEES OF THE MAYORS and constables of the staple, in staple cities and towns, and by what means it shall be levied, 27 E. 3. Stat. at Lar. 8vo. ed. 640.

22. Only 4d. per sack of wool shall be paid in any staple, to be put in a box, and sealed with the seals of the mayor and constables, that the latter may be thereof paid their fees, and any surplus found in the box at the year's end shall be safely kept for the above fees, in other staples where the 4d. does not suffice; and any further surplus shall be saved to the common profit of the merchants of the staple for the year to come, to pay for the new weights or other necessary things touching the staple, 27 E. 3. s. 1.

23. The above fees shall be thus limited. The mayor of the staple at Westminster shall take 100l., and each constable there 20 marks; the mayor of Lincoln 40, and every constable 10 marks; the mayors of York, Kingston on Hull, Norwich, and Winchester, 20l. each, and every constable there 100 shillings; the mayors of Newcastle, Chichester, and Exeter 40l., and every constable there 5 marks; if any mayor or constable elected by the merchants refuses his office, he shall pay to the company the amount of his fee for a year, id. s. 2.

24. THE ORDINANCES OF THE STAPLE 27 E. 3. St. 2. are confirmed with these alterations; the warranty of packing wools in c. 3. s. 2. is repealed, [and see 1 H. 4. c. 16.] and none other than merchants shall be bound by the laws of the staple till they are declared in parliament, 28 E. 3. c. 13., and 38 E. 3. St. 1. c. 7.

STAR CHAMBER.

(STATUTE repealed.)

1. FOR GIVING THE COURT OF STAR CHAMBER AUTHORITY TO punish divers misdemeanors, 5 H. 7. c. 1. s. 1. [see s. 2. and s. 6. JUSTICE OF PEACE, pl. 17, 18.; s. 3—5. CORONER, pl. 16—18.]

2. The lords chancellor, treasurer, privy seal, and president of the council, with a bishop and temporal lord of H. M.'s honourable council, and the 2 C. J.s, or 2 other justices of K. B. and C. P., were empowered to examine misdoers for riots and felonies, id. ibid. [REP. 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 3.]

4. THE PARLIAMENT HOLDEN 11 R. 2., AND ITS PROCEEDINGS, confirmed, 1 H. 4. c. 4.

5. THE PARLIAMENT HELD AT COVENTRY, AND THE STATUTES there passed in 38 H. 6. are repealed, 39 H. 6. c. 1.

6. THE PARLIAMENT AND STATUTES PASSED IN 9 E. 4. (alias 10 E. 4. or 49 H. 6., see 2 Stat. at Lar. 8vo. ed. 632.) are repealed, 17 E. 4. c. 6.

7. IN ALL CASES WHERE THE KINGDOM OF Eng., OR THAT PART OF G. B. called Eng., hath been or shall be mentioned in any act of parliament, the same hath been and shall be taken to comprehend the dominion of Wa., and Ber. on Tweed, 20 G. 2. c. 42. s. 3.

8. THE STATUTES OF Eng. AND OF G. B., SINCE THE UNION WITH Scot., and of Ire. prior to the union with G. B., as printed and published by H. M.'s printer, duly authorized to print, &c. the same respectively, shall be received in all courts of justice in G. B. and Ire. respectively, as conclusive evidence of all such statutes passed prior to the union of G. B. and Ire., 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 90. s. 9.

9. TO PREVENT ACTS OF PARLIAMENT FROM TAKING EFFECT from a time prior to the passing thereof, viz. the first day of the session in which they are passed, 33 G. 3. c. 13.

10. The clerk of the parliament shall indorse in English on every act, immediately after its title, the day, month, and year when the same shall have passed, and shall have received the royal assent, which endorsement shall be taken to be a part of such act, and to be the date of its commencement where no other commencement is therein provided, 35 G. 3. c. 13.

11. TO REMEDY THE INCONVENIENCE WHICH HAS ARISEN and may arise from the expiration of acts before the passing of acts to continue the same, 48 G. 3. c. 106.

12. When bills for continuing expiring acts, shall not receive the royal assent before they expire, the latter shall be taken to have effect from their expiration, as fully and effectually as if such continuing acts had actually passed before their expiration, (except it be otherwise especially provided); provided, that nothing herein shall affect any persons with any penalty soever, by reason of any thing done, or omitted to be done by them, contrary to the acts so continued, between its expiration and the date at which the continuing act shall receive the royal assent, id. ibid.

STEAM ENGINE.

1. FOR GIVING GREATER FACILITY IN THE PROSECUTION and abatement of nuisances arising from furnaces used in the working of steam engines, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 41. [Took effect 1st Sept. 1821, id. s. 4.]

2. The court by which judgment ought to be pronounced in case of conviction on any indictment for abating any such nuisance, may, either before or at the time of pronouncing final judgment, as to them seems fit, award any costs to the prosecutor which may be deemed reasonable, to be paid by the party convicted, id. s. 1.

3. If it appears to such court, that the grievance may be remedied by altering the construction of any such furnace, the court, without prosecutor's consent, may make such order in the premises as they think expedient, for preventing the nuisance in future, before passing final sentence on the convicted person, id. s. 2.

4. The provisions of this act, as far as they relate to payment of costs, and alteration of furnaces, shall not extend to the owners or occupiers of furnaces of steam engines, erected solely for working mines of different descriptions, or employed solely in smelting ores and minerals, or in manufacturing their produce on or immediately adjoining the premises where they are raised, id. s. 3.

STOCK AND STOCK-JOBGING.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO RESTRAIN THE NUMBER AND ILL PRACTICE of brokers and stock jobbers, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 32., [Con. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. s. 7. for 7 years; but Exp.]

2. FOR REVIVING AND CONTINUING A PROVISION formerly made against requiring special bail in actions or suits on contracts for stock or subscription, 10 G. 1. c. 14. [Exp.]

1. TO PREVENT MISCHIEFS BY FORGING POWERS to transfer stocks, or to receive annuities or dividends, or by fraudulently personating the true owners thereof, 8 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1., [Ext. to this act for building a new gaol for Surrey, 31 G. 2. c. 22. s. 77., and see 4 G. 3. c. 25. s. 15. pl. 14.]

2. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c., or who shall wilfully assist in forging or counterfeiting any letter of attorney, or other authority or instrument, to transfer any share in any capital stock of any body politic or corporate, established by statute, or to receive any dividend attending any share, or any part of any share therein; or to receive any annuity, in respect of which the proprietors have any transferable shares in any capital stock now or hereafter established by statute, or who shall forge, &c. the name of any such proprietor of such share, or person entitled to any such annuity or dividend to any such instrument; or, who shall knowingly or fraudulently demand or endeavour to have such shares or parts thereof transferred, or such annuities or dividends received by virtue of such forged authority, or shall deceitfully personate any real proprietor of the above shares, thereby transferring or endeavouring to transfer the stock, or receiving or endeavouring to receive the money of such lawful proprietor, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, 8 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1.

3. TO PREVENT THE INFAMOUS PRACTICE OF STOCK JOBBING, 7 G. 2. c. 8., [MADE PERP. 10 G. 2. c. 8.]

4. All contracts, on which any premium shall be given for liberty to put upon, or to deliver, accept or refuse, any public or joint-stock or securities soever, and all wagers, puts and refusals, and contracts in the nature of either, relating to the present or future price of stock or securities, shall be void; and all premiums on such contracts or wagers shall be restored to the person who shall pay the same, within 6 months from making such contract, or laying such wager, who may recover the same, with double costs, by action of debt, founded on this act, to be prosecuted in any courts of record, wherein no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed; and it shall be sufficient therein for plaintiff to allege that defendant is indebted to plaintiff, or has received to plaintiff's use, the money or premium so paid, whereby the plaintiff's action accrued according to the form of this statute, without setting forth the special matter, 7 G. 2. c. 8. s. 1.

5. Persons, who by this act are liable to be sued, shall also be obliged to answer upon oath such bill as shall be preferred in equity, for discovering any such contract or wager, and the premium given, id. s. 2.

6. Provided that the plaintiffs, relators or informers in such bill, give security to answer costs, id. s. 3.

7. Every person who shall make any such contract, on which any premium shall be given for liberty to put upon, deliver, accept, or refuse any public stock, or securities, or any contract in the nature of puts and refusals, or shall lay any such wager (except those who shall bonâ fide sue, and with effect prosecute, for recovery of the premium paid by them; and except those who shall voluntarily before suit commenced repay or tender such premium as they shall have received, and also except such who shall discover such transactions in any court of equity) shall forfeit 500*l.*, and all persons negotiating or writing such contract shall likewise forfeit 500*l.*; which penalties may be recovered by action of debt or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, in which no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him who shall sue, id. s. 4.

8. No money or other consideration shall be voluntarily given or received for compounding any difference for not delivering or receiving any public stock or securities; but all such contracts shall be specifically executed; and all persons who shall voluntarily compound such difference shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be sued for as in s. 1. pl. 3., one moiety to H. M., and the other to him who shall sue for the same, id. s. 5.

9. No person who shall sell stock to be delivered and paid for on a certain day, and which shall be refused or neglected to be paid for, shall be obliged to transfer the same; but such persons may sell such stock to any other, and receive or recover from the person who first contracted for the same, the damage sustained, id. s. 6.

10. Any person who shall buy stock to be accepted and paid for on a future day, and which is refused or neglected to be transferred, may buy the like quantity of such stock of any other person at the current market price, and recover from the person who first contracted to deliver the same the damage sustained, id. s. 7.

11. All contracts made for buying or transferring stock, whereof the person, on whose behalf the contract is made to transfer the same, shall not at the time of making such contract be actually possessed in his own right, or in the name of trustees, shall be void; and every person on whose behalf, and with whose consent, any contract is made to sell stock, whereof such person is not actually possessed in his own name, or in that of trustees, shall forfeit 500*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to them who shall sue. And every broker or agent, who shall negotiate any such contract, and shall know that the person, on whose behalf such contract shall be made, is not possessed of stock, shall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to H. M., and the other to them who shall sue id. s. 8.

12. Every person receiving brokerage in the buying or disposing of stocks shall keep a broker's book, in which he shall enter all contracts that he shall make, on the day of the making such contract, with the names of the principal parties; and such broker, who shall not keep such book, or shall wilfully omit to enter any such contract, shall forfeit 50*l.* one moiety to H. M., and the other to them who shall sue, id. s. 9.

13. Nothing in this act shall extend to any contracts for the purchase or sale of stock, to be made with the privy of the accountant-general of the court of chancery, in pursuance of any decree or order of the said court, id. s. 10.; or shall hinder any person from lending money on stock, so as no premium be paid more than legal interest, id. s. 11.

14. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE FORGING POWERS to transfer such stock, or receive such dividends or annuities as are there mentioned, and the fraudulent personating the owners thereof, 4 G. 3. c. 25. s. 15. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 16. See 8 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1. pl. 1.]

15. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c., or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging, &c. any letter of attorney, or other authority or instrument to transfer, sell, assign, or convey any share, or part of any share in any capital stock of any body, politic or corporate, established by statute, or in any annuities, in respect whereof the proprietors thereof have transferable shares in any capital stock established by statute, or to receive any such annuity, or any dividend attending such shares, or part thereof, or who shall forge, &c. or procure, &c. or knowingly assist in forging, &c. any name of any proprietors of any such share in stock, or of any person entitled to any such annuity or dividend, in or to any such pretended letter of attorney, &c. or who shall knowingly and fraudulently demand, or endeavour to have any such share in stock or annuities, or part thereof, transferred, &c. or such annuity or dividend, or part thereof, to be received by virtue of any such counterfeit or forged letter of attorney, &c., or who shall falsely and deceitfully personate any real proprietor of such shares in stock, annuities, and dividends, or part thereof, and thereby transferring, or endeavouring to transfer the stock or annuities, or receiving or endeavouring to receive the money of such real proprietor, as if he was the real owner, shall, on conviction, suffer as in cases of felony, without benefit of clergy, 4 G. 3. c. 25. s. 15.

16. FOR BETTER PREVENTING FORGERIES AND FRAUDS IN the transfers of the several funds transferable at the bank of Eng., 33 G. 3. c. 30.

17. Every person who shall wilfully make, or assist in making any transfer of any interest, or share of any stocks, annuities, or funds, transferable at the bank of Eng., in any of the books of the governor and company, in which transfers of stock, &c. are made, in the name of any person not the proprietor thereof, with intent to defraud the bank, or any other body, politic, or corporate, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 1.

18. Every person who shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be made, &c., or shall willingly act or assist in the falsely making, &c. of any transfer of any interest or share in any such stock, &c. now or ever hereafter transferable at the bank, as in last pl., or in bank stock; or shall utter or publish as true, any such forged, &c. transfer, with intent to defraud, shall be punished as in last pl., id. s. 2.

19. Every person who shall wilfully make, or assist in making any false entry, or who shall wilfully alter, or assist in altering any word or figure in any entry in the bank books, wherein the several accounts of the proprietors of stock transferable at the bank are entered or kept, or shall in any manner wilfully falsify such accounts in the said books, with intent to defraud, shall be punished as in s. 1. pl. 17., id. s. 3.

20. "Recital, that to cover forgeries in transfers, dividend warrants have been made out for other sums than those really due;" every clerk, or other person employed by the bank, who shall knowingly make out, or deliver, or cause, &c. to be made out, &c., or willingly act or assist in making out, &c. any dividend warrant, for greater or less amount than the person on whose behalf, real or pretended, such warrant is made out is entitled to, with intent to defraud, shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 4.

21. FOR RELIEF OF PERSONS EQUITABLY AND BENEFICIALLY ENTITLED to or interested in the several stocks and annuities, transferable at the bank of Eng., 36 G. 3. c. 90., [PUBLIC clause, s. 4.]

22. FOR RELIEF OF INFANT SUITORS IN COURTS ENTITLED TO STOCK or annuities transferable at the bank of Eng., 52 G. 3. c. 32., PUBLIC clause, s. 1. [EXT. to all other transferable stocks and funds, 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1.; and to matters of charity, and friendly societies, 57 G. 3. c. 39.]

23. Where the person in whose name any part of the stocks or annuities, transferable at the bank of Eng., [or of South Sea stock, East India stock, and all other stocks soever, transferable, or to be made transferable in the books of the South Sea company, East India company, or other company or society, created or to be created, and to the dividends payable thereon respectively, 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1.] shall be standing as a trustee, or his legal representative if deceased, shall be absent from the jurisdiction, or not amenable to the process of chancery or exchequer, or is a bankrupt, or lunatic, or refuses to transfer such stocks so legally vested in him, or to receive or pay over the dividends thereof to the person beneficially entitled thereto; or if it is uncertain whether such trustee or his representative are living or dead, the courts of chancery and exchequer may, in any cause pending therein, order the accountant-general of the former court, or the secretary of the bank of Eng., to transfer in the company's books, the stocks in both acts mentioned, either into the name of the accountant-general, or of the deputy-remembrancer of exchequer in trust to, and into the name of the person beneficially interested, or make other order at discretion; and may also order that such accountant-general and secretary of the bank, shall receive and pay over the dividends as they shall direct, 5 G. 3. c. 90. s. 1., 52 G. 3. c. 158. ss. 1, 2.

24. Where one or more only, and not all or both such trustees, or their representatives are absent, not amenable to process or disabled by incapacity, &c. the above courts may direct that the forthcoming and qualified trustees and representatives do transfer such respective stocks as in last pl. into the names of such persons as aforesaid, 36 G. 3. c. 90. s. 1.

25. Acts of the South Sea and East India companies, and all other companies, and their officers and servants, done under this act, shall not be impeached to their prejudice, 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 3.

26. The courts of chancery or exchequer, in any cause depending in those courts respectively, may order any dividends due, or hereafter to become due, to any infant being party to any such cause, on any of the public stocks, funds or annuities soever, transferable in the books of the bank of Eng. [seem. all stocks soever since 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1. ante, pl. 23.], standing in the name of such infant, or to which he is beneficially entitled, to be paid to his guardian or to any other person, at discretion of the court, for the maintenance and education, or for other the use and benefit of the infant; such guardian,

&c. being named in the order of payment, and his receipts being as effectual as if actually signed by such infant after coming of age, &c. and the bank, and their officers are fully indemnified for all acts by them done in pursuance hereof, 52 G. 3. c. 32.

27. When bankrupts have any stocks or annuities transferable at the bank of Eng. [seem. any other stocks, see 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1. pl. 23.], standing in their own names in their own right, the lord chancellor, on petition of the assignees under the commission, may order the accountant-general or secretary, &c. of the bank, to transfer same into the assignees names, and also to receive and pay over the dividends thereof as the chancellor, keeper or commissioner for custody of great seal in G. B. shall direct, all which transfers shall be valid, 36 G. 3. c. 90. s. 2.

28. Where any stocks or annuities transferable at the bank of Eng. [seem. all other stocks, see 52 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1. pl. 23.] are standing in the name of any lunatic in his own right, or in the name of his committee in trust for him, or as part of his property, the chancellor may order the same persons to transfer such stock, &c. into the name of any new committee, or otherwise, and to pay over the dividends as the chancellor shall direct, all which transfers and payments shall be valid, id. s. 3.

29. The bank, and their officers, shall be fully indemnified for all acts by them done in pursuance hereof, and the latter shall not be impeached to their prejudice, id. s. 4.

30. The provisions of 36 G. 3. c. 90. and 52 G. 3. c. 158. shall extend to cases of petitions on which the court of chancery, or the chancellor, or the master of the rolls, or the vice-chancellor or the court of exchequer [see 52 G. 3. c. 102. s. 5., 59 G. 3. c. 91. s. 1. ante, CHARITIES, pl. 62.] are by law empowered to grant relief, and make summary orders without suit, either in matters of charity, or relative to the better security or application, &c. or transfer of charitable funds, or in matters relating to benefit or friendly societies, or to the better security, application, receipt, payment or transfer of any of their funds, 57 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1.

31. TO ENABLE COURTS OF EQUITY TO COMPEL a transfer of stock in suits without making the bank of Eng., or East India company, or South Sea company parties thereto, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 36.

32. Any court of equity, before or on hearing any cause pending therein, may order the bank to suffer a transfer of stock standing in their books to be made, or to pay any accrued or accruing dividends thereon belonging to or standing in the names of any party to a suit, as they may deem just, or may issue an injunction to restrain them from suffering any transfer of such stock, or from paying any dividends or interest thereon, though the bank are not parties to the suit in which such decree or order is made; such courts being satisfied by the certificate of the accountant of the bank, duly signed by him as in s. 2., that the stock required to be transferred is standing in their books in the name of the persons required to transfer the same, or of the persons to whom he is legal representative, and that after due service of a short order on the bank, or their proper officer, containing no other matter than the title of the cause, and the ordering part of such decree or order which respects the bank, and for which 18s. only shall be paid, like process shall issue to enforce such order or decree as against any party to a suit pending in such court, id. s. 1.

33. On request in writing signed by the clerk in court or other officer answering thereto, and the solicitor for the applicant, which shall state the cause, and for what parties they are concerned, the bank shall deliver to such clerk in court, or other officer and solicitor, or one of them, a certificate signed by their accountant, stating the amount of such stock or dividends, and in whose name such stock is standing in their books; and, if particularly required, but not otherwise, when and by whom any part was transferred; for signing which request 6s. 8d. only shall be paid to such clerk in court or other officer; 13s. 4d. to such solicitor for drawing, copying and delivering at the bank; and 2s. 6d. to the officer making out and delivering such certificate; but nothing herein shall extend to any case where any further discovery is wanted than is hereinbefore expressly mentioned, nor to any case where the bank claim any interest in or lien on the said fund, in which cases they must be parties to the suit; and if any special matter shall arise which, in their opinion, affects their interest, or which might be objected against, suffering such transfer or payment of dividends, they may state such matter by motion or petition in such suit, and execution of process to compel such transfer shall be suspended till final order is made thereon, id. s. 2.

34. All the above regulations and provisions shall extend mutatis mutandis to every case where the East India company or South Sea company have any stock standing in the books of their corporations which may become the subject of any suit in equity, saving them the like right of being made a party, or applying by motion or petition, in such suits as in s. 2. reserved, to the bank of Eng., id. s. 4.

35. TO AUTHORIZE TRANSFERRING STOCK on which dividends remain unclaimed for the space of at least 10 years at the bank of Eng., and also all lottery prizes or benefits, and balances of sums issued for paying the principals of stocks and annuities which shall not have been demanded for the same period, to the Commissioners for the reduction of the National Debt, 55 G. 3. c. 80.

36. After 5th July, 1816, all capital stock, in respect of which any annuities constituting a part of the national debt are payable at the bank of Eng., the annuities for years, called long annuities, and other terminable annuities on which no dividends have been demanded for 10 years, or more, preceding the last day on which any dividend thereon has become due (except where payment of any such dividends is restrained by the order or injunction of a court of equity), shall be transferred as hereinafter mentioned in the bank books to a new and separate account, to be raised in the name of the above commissioners, after which transfer the name in which such stock stood immediately previous, with the residence and description of the parties, the amount transferred, and the dates of such transfers shall be entered on a list to be kept at the bank, which shall be open for inspection at the usual hours of transfer, id. s. 1.

37. All transfers in pursuance of this act shall be made and signed by the accountant-general, or secretary of the bank, and shall be as valid as if signed by the parties, and the bank, accountant-general and secretary shall be indemnified, and not responsible to the persons interested therein, id. s. 2.

38. A duplicate register of the list so kept at the bank of all such transfers, shall be kept in the office of the commissioners for reduction of national debt, id. s. 3.

39. All the dividends on the stock so transferred shall, from the times of transfer, and all lottery prizes which have remained unclaimed 10 years, and all balances issued for paying the principals of stocks which shall not have been demanded for the same period, shall be paid to the account of the commissioners, and invested in purchase of like capital stock, to be placed to a separate account, called 'the account of unclaimed dividends,' and so from time to time as they become due: and all such dividends, and the capital stock arising from the investment, shall be held by the commissioners for the public, subject to any claims thereafter made by the parties entitled, id. s. 4.

40. The bank of Eng. shall direct the accountant-general or secretary to re-transfer any such stock to any persons who shall shew their right thereto, and to pay the dividends; and also any such lottery prizes and principals of stock and annuities, as if they had not been transferred to the above commissioners, but if not satisfied of the justice or legality of any claim, then the claimants shall, by petition in a summary way, state and verify their claim to chancery or exchequer, and a copy of such petition shall be served on the attorney-general, and on the said commissioners, and the court shall make such order thereon, and as to the costs of application, as appears just; and all costs incurred by the attorney-general or the said commissioners on such petition (if not ordered by the court to be paid out of the stock claimed), shall be paid by the said commissioners out of the dividends to be received by them under this act, and which shall not be claimed; and where any transfer or payment is made to any such claimant, either with or without authority of those courts, the bank shall cause notice to be given to the commissioners at their office, of every such transfer or payment, within three days, id. s. 5.

41. The governor, deputy-governor and secretary of the bank, and the accountant-general, shall be indemnified in respect of any transfer made from the account of the said commissioners to any persons claiming; and in case any such stock shall, after transfer or payment, be claimed by any other persons, the said governor and company, secretary or accountant-general, shall not be responsible to any such new claimants, but the latter shall have recourse against the persons to whom such transfers were made, and dividends, lottery prizes and principals of stock, &c. paid, id. s. 6.

42. But where such new claimant has established his title to any stock, &c. so transferred, but is unable to obtain transfer and payment thereof from such first claimant, the courts in s. 40. pl. 40. (on application by petition verified as by them directed) may order the said commissioners to transfer to such new claimant such sum in stock, and to pay him such sums in money for the dividends, as to such court seems just, which transfers shall be made from stock transferred into the names of the commissioners under this act, and payment of such dividends, &c. or stock shall be made from dividends received by them on stock transferred into their names as above, or from accumulations thereof, or from sale of stock purchased with either, or from any other monies at the commissioners' disposal, id. s. 7.

STORES (PUBLIC).

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. FOR AVOIDING DECEIT USED IN MAKING and selling of twice laid cordage, and for better preserving the navy of this realm, 55 El. c. 8. [Rer. 25 G. 3. c. 36. s. 1.]

2. TO PROHIBIT THE EXPORTATION OF FIG AND BAR IRON, and certain naval stores, unless the pre-emption thereof be offered to the commissioners of H. M.'s navy, 9 G. 3. c. 35. s. 3. [Rer. during the continuance of peace, 57 G. 3. c. 17.]

3. TO EXTEND THE PROVISIONS of 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. for preventing the embezzlement of stores of war, to all public stores, 55 G. 3. c. 126. [Rer. by 55 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. but a more comprehensive provision to the same effect will be found, id. s. 2.]

1. AGAINST EMBEZZLING H. M.'s ARMOUR, HABILIMENTS OF WAR, and victual, 31 El. c. 4. [Enforced, 22 C. 2. c. 5. CONF. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 25. s. 11.]

2. Every person having charge or custody of any armour, ordnance, munition, shot, powder or habiliments of war of H. M., her heirs or successors, or of any victuals provided for victualling any soldiers, gunners, mariners or pioneers, who shall for gain, wittingly and of purpose, to hinder or impeach H. M.'s service, embezzle, purloin or convey away any such armour, &c. to 20s. value, at one or several times, is guilty of felony [without clergy, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. infra, pl. 4.], and shall be tried and suffer as for that crime, 31 El. c. 4. s. 1.

3. None shall be impeached for any offence against this statute, unless the impeachment be prosecuted within the year after the offence, and nothing herein shall make the offender forfeit any lands or hereditaments any longer than during life, or work corruption of blood, or loss of dower; and persons impeached for any offence made felony by this statute, may make lawful proof by witness, or otherwise, for their defence, id. s. 2.

4. NO PERSONS INDICTED FOR ANY OFFENCE against 31 El. c. 4. s. 2. last pl. or who shall feloniously steal or embezzle H. M.'s sails, cordage or other naval stores to the value of 20s., and are thereupon found guilty by verdict, or shall confess the same, or will not answer, or shall stand obstinately mute [and see 12 G. 3. c. 20.], or challenge peremptorily above 20 [10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 1. which gives a right of challenging 23, seems only to apply to the offence in the other part of this section, which see, WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES], or shall be outlawed, shall have his benefit of clergy, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. [RECITED 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1. and see id. s. 7. infra, pl. 54. as to mitigation hereof, but semb. that section only applies to the offences subjected to transportation by s. 1. 4, 5. of that act.]

5. The judges before whom such offender shall be condemned may grant a reprieve, and cause him to be transported to H. M.'s plantations for 7 years from his time of transportation, and there to be kept to hard labour; and if such offender refuses to be transported, or shall return into Eng., Wa., or Ber., such person shall be put to execution on the judgment, id. s. 4.

6. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THE EMBEZZLEMENT OF H. M.'s stores of war, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. ss. 1, 2, 4, 5. and 8. [declared a PUBLIC act, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 25. s. 14. MADE PERP. 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 3. AMD. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 25. ss. 3—10. 12—16. See ss. 1, 2. tit. SEAMEN, pl. 20—23., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89., 55 G. 3. c. 127.]

7. All the acts recited in last pl., so far as they severally relate to H. M.'s naval ordnance and victualling stores therein respectively mentioned, shall extend to all public stores under the care or control of any officer in H. M.'s service, or employed in any public department or office, either marked with the marks or with any of them in those acts, or any of them specified, or with the broad arrow and letters B. O., or with a crown and the broad arrow, or with H. M.'s arms, or with the letters G. R. to denote the property of H. M. his heirs or successors therein, and to every person not authorized by the proper officer in H. M.'s service in that behalf so to do, using any such marks, or making any goods marked with such marks, or any of them, and to every person in whose custody any such public stores so marked shall be found, of who shall knowingly receive, or have in his custody, or conceal any such public stores so marked, unless such person shall, on his trial, produce a certificate under the hand of the proper officer in H. M.'s service authorized to grant the same, of the like nature as the certificate in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 2. infra, pl. 9., and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 25. infra, pl. 72. [and see pl. 14.] and to every person who shall wilfully and fraudulently destroy, beat, take or cut out, deface, obliterate or erase, wholly or in part, any of the said marks, or cause, procure, employ or direct any other person so to do for the purpose of concealing the property of H. M., his heirs, &c. therein, 55 G. 3. c. 127. s. 2.

8. No person other than those authorized by contracting with H. M.'s principal officers or commissioners of the navy, victualling or ordnance office for H. M.'s use, may make any stores of war, or naval stores, with the marks used on H. M.'s stores, viz. cordage of 3 inches and upwards, 9 C wrought with a white thread laid the contrary way, or smaller cordage from 3 inches downwards, with a twine in lieu of a white thread laid the contrary way, or any wrought or unwrought canvas with a blue streak in the middle, or any other stores with the broad arrow, on pain that every such person shall forfeit such goods, and 200*l.* with costs, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, by action of debt or information in any court at Westminster, without essoin, or more than one imparlance allowed, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. [And see the further punishment, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. infra, pl. 47. &c.]

9. Such person in whose custody such stores so marked are found, or who shall conceal such stores, on indictment and conviction of either offence shall forfeit such goods, and 200*l.* with costs in moieties to H. M. and the informer, and shall be imprisoned till payment of the forfeiture, unless he shall, on the trial, produce a certificate of 3 principal officers or commissioners of navy, ordnance or victuallers, expressing the numbers, quantities and weights of such goods, and the reason of their coming into his hands, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 2. [And see 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 25. pl. 79.]

10. Every person lawfully convicted of having in his custody any timber, thick stuff, or plank marked with the broad arrow, or of concealing timber, &c. so marked, shall suffer as for concealing other stores contrary to 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41., 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 3.

11. The convicting judge, justice or justices, may mitigate the penalties in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 2. pl. 9., and 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25., and in this act, s. 3. last pl., and commit the offender to gaol till payment, or may punish him corporally by public whipping or hard labour in some public work-house for 6 months or less, in their discretion, 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 4. [And see further clauses of mitigation, 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10. pl. 13., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. ss. 2. 7. pl. 49. & 54.]

12. Disputes between informers as to their rights to the penalties of the acts mentioned in last pl. shall be settled by the convicting justice, &c. 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 5.

13. Any judge at the assizes, or justices of peace in quarter sessions of any county, city, borough or town corporate, may hear and determine the offences relating to stores mentioned in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. [and com. semb. 9 G. 1. c. 8. ss. 2—5.] by indictment or otherwise, and on conviction may impose a fine, not exceeding 200*l.* on such offender, in moieties to H. M. and the informer, and may mitigate the penalties inflicted by either of the above acts, and may commit him to gaol till payment is made of the whole, or the mitigated penalties imposed by this or the recited acts, or in lieu thereof may punish him by whipping and hard labour in some house of correction, or public work-house, for 3 months or less, at their discretion, 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10. [And see 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1. infra, pl. 48.]

14. The principal officers or commissioners of the navy, ordnance or victualling office, may sell any stores marked as in s. 1. pl. 8. and purchasers may freely keep the same without incurring a penalty, on producing a certificate under hand and seal of 3 or more such commissioners, (who shall give it to buyers in 30 days after such sale and delivery) that they bought the same from them, or from the person who bought the same from the commissioners, at any time before such stores were found in their custody; and such certificate shall express the quantities of such stores, and the time when and where bought of the commissioners, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 4.

15. Persons sued or prosecuted for seizures under these acts, may plead the general issue, giving the same and the special matter in evidence; and if on trial of the issue, defendant proves that the goods or stores seized were marked as in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8. but plaintiff does not prove his employment by contract to make them as in that pl. mentioned, or his certificate (as in s. 4. last pl.) had before seizure, and that he shewed the latter to such defendant before such action brought, defendant shall be acquitted thereon, unless he on sight of such certificate did not re-deliver the same to plaintiff in as good condition as they were at the time of such certificate shewn; and if plaintiff discontinues or is nonsuit, or if defendant is acquitted, or judgment is afterwards passed for him, he shall have [treble, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 5., or double, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25. s. 16.] costs, same acts.

16. Nothing herein shall hinder any of the principal officers, or commissioners of the navy, or chief commander of any H. M.'s ships at sea, to lend H. M.'s stores to any merchant ship in distress, provided same be restored with all possible convenience, and provided the borrowers have the certificate mentioned in s. 4. pl. 14., which shall be given them by the said principal officers, &c., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 8.

17. Any one or more of the commissioners of admiralty, (s. 12.) or of the treasurer, comptroller, surveyor, clerk of the acts, or commissioners of the navy, as in s. 1. SEAMEN, pl. 21., may issue search warrants as in cases of felony for stores so embezzled, but not exceeding 20*s.* value, and may punish the offender by fine and imprisonment as above, and cause the goods to be brought in again; and if the offence requires higher or severer punishment, he shall be committed to the next gaol, or to custody of the navy messenger, till the offender enter into recognizance to appear and answer to process in the court of exchequer, or other court, where H. M. shall question him for the same, within one year following on process duly served, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25. s. 3. & 12. [PUBLIC act, s. 14. MADE PERP. 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 5.]

18. Any one or more of the officers mentioned in last pl., where the value of goods embezzled from H. M.'s yards, wharfs, storehouses, or other places is under 20*s.* shall have power on oath of one or more witnesses, administered by the officer, or on confession of the offender, to convict the party, and impose a fine at discretion, so that it does not exceed the value of the stores embezzled, which fines shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of such officer or officers; and for want of distress, the party shall be committed to the next gaol, for any time not exceeding 3 months, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25. s. 4.

19. Such officers or officer as in pl. 17., on oath of one witness, that H. M.'s stores are conveyed into any ship being at anchor, and not ready to sail at that tide, within any of the roads, harbours, &c. in any of H. M.'s dominions, may authorize any person by warrant (in which the quantity and quality of such goods shall be specified) in the day time, to go on board such ship; and in case of resistance or refusal on demand, may break open the hatches, &c. thereof, and search for such goods, &c. seizing them for H. M.'s use, unless, on hearing the matter, they find them to have been unduly seized, and thereupon they may restore them to the claimant, id. s. 5.

20. Every person counterfeiting the hand, or any one or more of the officers mentioned in pl. 17., or of the signing or vouching officers of H. M.'s navy, ships, or yards, to any bill, ticket, or other papers, by means of which the naval treasure is paid, or who shall knowingly produce such counterfeit, shall be committed to prison by any one or more of these officers, till he finds surety to appear at next assizes or quarter sessions for the county or place where such offender is imprisoned, to be there proceeded against according to law, id. s. 6.

21. The penalties inflicted by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. may be mitigated by the convicting judge, justice or justices, or commuted for corporal punishment by public whipping, and hard labour in workhouse for 3 months or less, at discretion of latter, id. s. 8. [And see further clauses of mitigation of the penalties of this act, in 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 4. pl. 11., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10. pl. 13., and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 2. pl. 49. s. 7. pl. 54.]

22. Any one or more of the commissioners of the admiralty, or their secretaries, or of the officers enumerated in pl. 17., may administer on oath, in any case relating to the receiving, keeping, issuing, and accounting for any part of H. M.'s treasure, victuals, or naval stores, or for preservation of due order therein, or in any other matter relating to H. M.'s navy, or its affairs, id. s. 9.

23. Any one or more of the officers named in pl. 17., may execute all the powers by this or any other law given them, or any of them, on all the above offenders in all places, as well within as without liberties, id. s. 10.

24. All powers hereby given to any officer or commissioner of navy, are participated by the admiralty, id. s. 12.

25. No person punished under this act, shall suffer for the same offence by any other law, id. s. 13.; but convictions under it are final, and not subject to appeal or certiorari, or to removal or suspension thereby, id. s. 15.

26. FOR BETTER SECURING AND PRESERVING H. M.'s DOCK YARDS, magazines, shops, ammunition and stores, 12 G. 3. c. 24.

27. If any person either within this realm, or in any islands, countries, forts, or places belonging thereto, wilfully and maliciously set on fire, or burn, or otherwise destroy, or cause to be set on fire, &c. or aid, procure, abet or assist in setting on fire any H. M.'s ships of war, whether afloat or building, or begun to be built in any of H. M.'s dock yards, or building or repairing by contract in any private yards, for use of H. M., or any of his arsenals, magazines, docks, or rope yards, victualling offices, or any of the buildings erected thereon, or belonging thereto, or any timber or materials placed there for building, repairing or fitting out ships or vessels, or any of H. M.'s military, naval, or victualling stores, or other ammunition of war, or any place where any such stores or ammunition are placed or deposited, then persons guilty of any such offence, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 1.

28. Persons so offending in any place out of this realm may be indicted and tried for the same in any county within this realm, as if such offence had taken place there, or in such place where the offence was actually committed, as H. M. shall deem fit, id. s. 2.

29. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRAUDS IN manufacturing cordage for shipping, and to prevent illicit importation of foreign cordage, 25 G. 3. c. 56. [PUBLIC act, s. 14.]

30. [The 35 El. c. 8. is REP. by s. 1.] No person shall use or cause to be used in manufacturing cables, hawsers, or other ropes, for the use of shipping, or shall knowingly sell any cables, hawsers, or other ropes for that use, in the manufacturing whereof shall be used any hemp, usually known by the names of short chucking, half clean, whale line, or other toppings, codilla, damaged hemp bought at public or other sales, or any hemp soever, from which the staple part has been taken away by the manufacturer, on pain that every such manufacturer of such cable, &c. shall forfeit the same, and also treble the value thereof; and every person who shall knowingly sell such cable, &c. not being the manufacturer thereof, shall forfeit treble its value, 25 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2.

31. Whenever any cable, hawser or rope as aforesaid, shall be manufactured in all or in part, of any hemp, the use whereof is not prohibited by this act, and the staple and quality whereof is inferior to clean Petersburgh hemp, such cable, &c. shall be deemed inferior cordage, and the manufacturer shall distinguish such cable, &c. by running into the same, from end to end thereof, 3 tarred-mark yarns spun with turn contrary to that of rope yarn, and also one like tarred yarn in every other rope, for the use of shipping, and by marking or writing on the tally thereof the word "staple" or "inferior," as the case shall be; and every manufacturer making default herein shall forfeit 10s. for every cwt. of such cable, &c. id. s. 3.

32. Whenever any new cable, hawser, or other rope for use of shipping is sold by the manufacturer, there shall be affixed thereon a tally, containing his name, with that of the place where it has been manufactured; and if he or any other person soever, shall sell any such cable, &c. without such tally thereon, he shall forfeit 10s. for every cwt. thereof, id. s. 4.

33. If any rope-maker shall put, or wilfully permit to be put, his name on the tally of any cable, &c. for the use of shipping, not being his own proper manufacturing; or if the vendor or proprietor of such cable, &c. or other person soever, shall wilfully put upon the tally the name of any person, not being the manufacturer thereof, every such offender shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 5.

34. If any person shall make any cables of any old or worn stuff, which shall contain above 7 inches in compass, he shall forfeit four times the value of every cable so made, id. s. 6.

35. All pecuniary penalties by this act imposed, which exceed 5l., shall be recovered by action, &c. or information in any courts of record at Westminster, and all which shall not exceed 5l., shall be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under hand and seal of a justice, which warrant he is to grant, on information or testimony of 2 witnesses on oath; and the overplus of such distress and sale, shall be rendered on demand to the owner, after deducting the expences thereof, and in case sufficient goods cannot be found, and such penalty is not forthwith paid, such justice shall cause such offender to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than 7 days, or until such penalty and all costs be paid; all which penalties, and all cordage forfeited, shall be paid and delivered to the person who shall sue; who may sell such cordage (after being cut into lengths, not exceeding 12 feet) for his own use, id. s. 7.

36. Whenever any vessel belonging to any subjects resident in G. B. or any British colony, having on board any foreign-made cordage, shall be navigated into any port within this kingdom, the master of such vessel shall, at making entry or report of such vessel at the custom-house, also make an entry or report, on oath, of all the foreign-made cordage on board of such vessel, for which the duties shall not have been before paid (standing and running rigging in use excepted); and shall, before such vessel is cleared by the officers of customs inwards, where any discharge shall be made of her lading, pay the like duties for such foreign-made cordage as are specified in the entry; and if the master make default herein, such foreign-made cordage as shall be on board such vessel shall be forfeited to H. M., and such master shall also forfeit 20s. for every cwt. thereof, id. s. 8.

37. Nothing herein shall charge any captain or master of any vessel coming from E. Indies, with any duty for having any foreign-made cordage on board, such cordage having been actually brought from the E. Indies, id. s. 9. or shall extend to the materials at present in the use of any vessels built abroad before this act, the property of subjects of G. B., id. s. 10.

38. Any person aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of this act, and for which no particular relief is appointed, may, within 4 months, appeal to the quarter sessions, first giving 14 days' notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the respondent, and, within 4 days after giving notice, entering into a recognizance before some justice, with two sureties, conditioned to try such appeal at, abide by the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by, the sessions; which sessions, on proof of such notice, and entering into such recognizance, shall finally determine the appeal in a summary way, and award costs to the party appealing or appealed against, as they think proper; and such determination shall be conclusive, id. s. 11.

39. No order or other proceeding shall be quashed for want of form only, or removed by certiorari into any court of record at Westminster: and the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the distrainer a trespasser, on account of any defect of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto; nor shall distrainer be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by him; but the person aggrieved may recover satisfaction in an action on the case; but no plaintiff shall recover for such irregularity, if sufficient tender of amends is made to him before such action is brought, 25 G. 3. c. 56. s. 12.

40. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 months, and laid and tried in the county or place where the same shall arise, and defendant may plead the general issue; if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 13.

41. TO RESTRAIN THE EXPORTATION OF NAVAL STORES, 33 G. 3. c. 2. s. 1, 2. and s. 5.

42. H. M. may, by proclamation or order in council, prohibit the export of pig and bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, ochre, sheet copper, and other naval stores, 33 G. 3. c. 2. s. 1. [Like power of prohibition to export copper to any part within Europe given by 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 68. s. 2. is Exp.]

43. All such articles so exported, carried, or laid on board ship for that purpose, contrary to such proclamation, &c. shall be forfeited, with treble value thereof, as well as the ship, guns, tackle, &c. which may be seized by the officers of customs, id. s. 2.

43. (a) All saltpetre, gunpowder, arms or ammunition prohibited by proclamation or order in council to be carried coastwise, which shall be shipped or laden on board any vessel or boat in order to be carried coastwise, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, &c. as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

43. (b) Every vessel or boat in or on board which any saltpetre, gunpowder, arms or ammunition shall be exported or conveyed out of this kingdom, or carried coastwise, or on board which such articles shall respectively be laden, or laid for any of the above purposes when prohibited as above to be so exported or carried coastwise, shall be forfeited with all her guns, furniture, ammunition, tackle, and apparel, and may be seized as in s. 2., id. s. 4.

44. Nothing herein shall prevent any vessel from taking on board naval stores necessary for use in the course of her voyage, id. s. 5.

45. THE LORD-LIEUTENANT AND COUNCIL OF Ire. may by proclamation or order prohibit the export from Ire., carrying coastwise, or attempting to export or carry coastwise, any gunpowder, salt-petre, arms, or ammunition, pig or bar iron, &c. and other naval stores as in 12 C. 2. c. 4. s. 12. (GUNPOWDER, pl. 6.) 29 G. 2. c. 16. and 33 G. 3. c. 2. s. 1. ante, pl. 43., 49 G. 3. c. 76. s. 1.

46. All the regulations, penalties, &c. imposed by those acts respectively, in case of prohibition to export from G. B. or carry coastwise those articles, shall extend to any proclamation, &c. made by such lord-lieut., &c. under this act, 49 G. 3. c. 76. s. 2.

47. FOR BETTER PREVENTING EMBEZZLEMENT OF H. M.'s naval, ordnance, and victualling stores, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. [Ext. to Scot. s. 29. to Ire. 52 G. 3. c. 12. s. 1. pl. 84.]

48. [Recital of 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. pl. 4., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 2. pl. 9., 9 G. 1. c. 8. ss. 3, 4. pl. 10—11., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10. pl. 13., and that the embezzlement of warlike stores has increased.] Every person (not being a contractor or employed as in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8.) knowingly or willingly selling, or causing to be sold, or knowingly, &c. receiving or having in his custody, possession, or keeping, any stores of war, or naval, ordnance, or victualling stores, or any goods whatever marked as in the recited acts, or any canvas marked either with a blue streak in the middle, or with a blue streak in a serpentine form, or any bawper or buntin wrought with one or more streaks of raised tape, the said stores, &c. being in a raw state, or new, or not more than 1-3d worn; and persons concealing stores, &c. so marked, shall be deemed receivers of stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, and shall, on conviction, be transported for 14 years, unless a certificate of the navy, ordnance, or victualling commissioners and principal officers be produced on the trial, expressing the numbers, quantities, or weights of such stores, &c. as are laid in the indictment, and the reason of defendant's possession thereof, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.

49. Every person not being a contractor, or employed as in s. 1. last pl., in whose custody any stores called canvas marked with a blue streak in a serpentine form, or bawper otherwise called buntin (wrought as in s. 1., not being charged to be new or not more than 1-3d worn), and all persons convicted under 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. ss. 1, 2. pl. 8—9. of making, having in possession, or concealing any warlike, &c. stores marked as in that act specified, shall, besides forfeiture thereof, and of 200l. with costs, be corporally punished by [pillory, QU. F. sec. 56 G. 3. c. 138.] whipping, and imprisonment, or either of them, in such manner, and for so long as to the convicting judge or justices shall seem fit, notwithstanding 9 G. 1. c. 8. ss. 3, 4. pl. 10—11., and 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 10. pl. 13.; but the court may, if they see fit, mitigate the penalty of 200l., id. s. 2.

50. No contractor or person employed as in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. contained, is exempted from operation of either this or that act, except only so far as concerns stores so marked, which shall be bond fide provided, made up, or manufactured by such persons, or by their order, and has not been before delivered to H. M.'s store, unless having been so delivered they have been sold or returned to them by the commissioners of navy, ordnance, or victualling, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 3.

51. Defacing, &c. or causing to be defaced, wholly or in part, any of the marks in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8., or s. 1. of this act, pl. 48. mentioned, or any other mark denoting H. M.'s property in any warlike or naval, ordnance or victualling stores, for the purpose of concealment, is felony, and offenders shall, on conviction, be transported for 14 years, id. s. 4.

52. Persons once convicted under this act, but not transported, or under 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41., and being guilty of a second offence, contrary to either act, which would not otherwise as a first offence, subject them to transportation, shall, on conviction, be transported for 14 years, by judgment of the court wherein they are convicted, id. s. 5.

53. Persons returning from transportation in pursuance hereof before their term expired, shall suffer death without clergy, as attainted of felony, id. s. 6.

54. The court wherein the offender is convicted of the offences herein before mentioned to be punishable with transportation may, at discretion, mitigate the punishment by sentencing to pillory, public whipping, fine, or imprisonment, or either of them; which fine, if imposed, shall go half to H. M. and half to the informer, with imprisonment till paid, id. s. 7.

55. Every person who shall discover to such principal officers of navy, ordnance, or victualling, or apprehend, or first inform against any offender guilty of stealing or embezzling H. M.'s stores of war, &c. naval, ordnance, or victualling stores, or of any offences mentioned in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. or this act, and not prosecuted summarily as in ss. 12, 13, &c. hereof, so as to obtain conviction, shall receive for such discovery, or for so apprehending or first informing, the sum of 20*l.* for every such offence so discovered, besides his share of fines as informer: so as such share do not exceed 20*l.*, or if exceeding that sum shall fail to be paid in 3 months after conviction: or after expiration of sentence of imprisonment, if the offender is detained in pursuance of any such sentence, id. s. 8.

56. Disputes respecting such rewards shall be finally determined by some commissioner of navy, ordnance, or victualling, as the offence may have related to their respective departments, on the oaths of the claimants, to be taken in writing either before such commissioner or a justice of peace, whose decision shall be final, id. s. 9.

57. The principal officers, &c. as in s. 8. pl. 55. shall cause the reward of 20*l.* to be paid by their respective treasurers of navy or ordnance, out of public money in their hands, on producing a certificate under hand of clerk of assize or his deputy, or other proper officer of the court before which the offender is tried, certifying the conviction, and the informer's share of the fine does not amount to more than 20*l.*, or if to more, hath failed to be paid by offender for 3 months next after conviction, or if he is then detained in pursuance of any sentence of imprisonment, then for 3 months after expiration of such sentence; which certificate the clerk of assize, or other proper officer, is hereby required to give, for which 5*s.*, and no more, shall be charged; and the money paid by such treasurer on account of such rewards shall be allowed in his accounts, id. s. 10.

58. Any commissioner of navy, ordnance, or victualling, who may act for the purposes hereinafter mentioned as a justice for the county, city, or other place in which he is resident, or into which his warrant issues, or any justice of peace may, on oath of one or more credible persons that there is cause to suspect the concealment of any of H. M.'s navy, &c. stores in any dwelling-house, &c. or place, &c. or on board any vessel, &c. by warrant under his hand and seal, cause every such dwelling-house, place, or vessel, in any county or place soever, to be searched in the day-time by any peace or police officer soever of the county or place where the premises or vessel are, or in which the commissioner granting such warrant (if granted by a commissioner) then resides; and if stores marked as in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8. or s. 1. of this act, pl. 48. shall on such search be found, shall cause the same and the offenders to be brought before such commissioner or justice of peace, who shall bind over or otherwise deal with them according to law: and if on any such search, or on any seizure soever of stores or goods so marked, any naval, ordnance, or victualling stores not so marked as aforesaid shall be found, which may reasonably be suspected to belong to H. M., the party in whose possession they are found shall be required to give an account to the satisfaction of such commissioner or justice that the same were not embezzled or stolen from any H. M.'s ships, yards, storehouses, or other places, or that if the same were embezzled or stolen, that the parties came by them honestly, and without suspicion that the same has been embezzled, in failure whereof, by a reasonable time, to be fixed by such justice or commissioner, the said stores shall thereupon be forfeited, and such parties shall be guilty of misdemeanor, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 11.

59. All persons deputed by any 3 or more of the principal officers or commissioners of navy, ordnance, or victualling, may stop, search, and detain in some place of safety, any barge or other craft which is suspected to contain any naval, ordnance, or victualling stores, ropes, tackle, arms, ammunition, materials, and things embezzled from H. M.'s ships, yards, storehouses, or other places, and may apprehend persons reasonably suspected of conveying them therein; and such person so apprehended shall be conveyed before any such commissioner, or one or more justices for the county or place, with the stores, &c. found in such craft, and may be committed or bound over or otherwise dealt with as to such stores if marked; or if stores suspected to belong to H. M. are found unmarked, shall give account thereof as in s. 11., on failure whereof, as in s. 11., the same shall be forfeited, and the person so apprehended shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor; and if such persons are convicted of stealing, embezzling, or having unlawfully in possession, any of the said stores so marked, or are adjudged guilty of misdemeanor in not satisfactorily accounting for unmarked stores, such barge or craft in which any such stores are found, with all its tackle, &c. shall, on such conviction by such commissioner or justice, be adjudged forfeited, and shall be applied as in s. 15., id. s. 12.

60. Any person so appointed as in last pl., or any police or peace officer, beadle or watchman on duty, may apprehend all persons reasonably suspected of conveying any naval, ordnance, or victualling stores, unlawfully procured from H. M.'s ships, yards, storehouses, or other places, and may seize and detain the same in some place of safety; and shall convey the offender before any such commissioner, or before any one or more justice or justices of the county or place in or near the place of seizure, together with the said stores and other things; and like proceedings shall be had thereon as in ss. 11, 12, &c., id. s. 13.

61. All stores hereinbefore declared to be forfeited on the party not giving to the commissioner or justice a satisfactory account that they were not embezzled or stolen as above, shall be forthwith returned into H. M.'s store, and applied for use of H. M. unless proof is made within 3 calendar months next following such seizure, to satisfaction of such commissioner or justice that the same are the property of any other person, in which case the same shall be forthwith delivered up to such person on his giving a proper receipt for the same, and paying the reasonable costs, to be set by such commissioner, &c., attending their conveyance to and from H. M.'s store, and their warehousing or safe custody from the time of seizure, id. s. 14.

62. Where such commissioner or justice adjudge any boat or craft to be forfeited under s. 12. pl. 59. they shall issue warrant to collector or other chief officer of customs at the port at or nearest to the place where the seizure was made, for sale thereof; and he shall within one month then next cause such craft to be publicly sold to the best bidder, notice being given in some public paper of the place where the sale is made, the proceeds whereof (expences of sale and securing such craft from the time of seizure being deducted) shall be paid to such commissioner, &c. who shall pay it within one calendar month in moieties to the seizers of the craft or their representatives, if dead, and to the navy treasurer if the stores seized are navy or victualling stores, for application by them as if from sale of "old stores;" or to the ordnance treasurer if ordnance stores, for disposal of the master-general, id. s. 15.

63. Persons adjudged guilty of misdemeanors (under ss. 11, 12.) shall forfeit 40*s.* for the 1st, 5*l.* for 2d, and 10*l.* for 3d and subsequent offence, to be levied by distress and sale under warrant of convicting commissioner or justice directed to any peace officer of the county or place; and to be disposed of in moieties to the persons apprehending or informing against the offenders, and to treasurers of navy or ordnance, as case may be, for application as in s. 15.; and if return is made by the constable, &c. of nulla bona in his county, &c. (which shall be made in reasonable time fixed by such commissioner, and during which offenders shall be imprisoned) they shall be committed to gaol for 3 months unless sooner paid, id. s. 16.

64. Every adjudication in any such misdemeanors shall be certified by the commissioner or justice making the same to the next general or quarter sessions of the county or place in which such seizures were made, to be recorded there; and convictions shall not be set aside for want of form, or removed into other courts by certiorari, advocacy, or suspension, but shall be final, id. s. 17.

65. Any principal officer or commissioner of navy, ordnance, or victualling, and any justice of peace out of sessions, may hear and determine any complaint against persons (other than contractors or persons employed under 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8.) for unlawfully selling or delivering, or causing to be sold, &c., or for receiving or having in possession, or for concealing any stores soever so marked as in s. 1. pl. 48. the whole not exceeding 20*s.* value; and at any time within 3 months next after such offence committed, shall cause the accused to be apprehended and brought before him, or if they have absconded or cannot be found, then to be summoned to appear before him by summons left at their last or usual abode: and shall summon witnesses on either side, and give judgment accordingly on due proof by oath of one or more such witnesses administered by such commissioner, or by confession; and if the offender is convicted, shall inflict 10*l.* penalty, to be divided one moiety to the informer, and the other (deducting charges of recovery) to the treasurer of navy or ordnance, as the case is, and applied as in s. 15. pl. 62. and may issue distress warrant for such penalty, and levy same, with costs of distress, by sale of goods seized, if not redeemed in 6 days, or in default of distress, shall commit to gaol for 3 calendar months, unless sooner paid; or in lieu of such fine, may, at discretion, imprison the offender, with hard labour, in house of correction for 3 calendar months, as he thinks fit; and shall cause the moieties of such fines, as well as those of every sum arising from sale of any boat or craft paid into his hands as in s. 15., to be paid to the treasurers of navy or ordnance in 30 days after expiration of the year in which such fines are received by him, on penalty of 50*l.*, to be recovered, with double costs, by any informer suing for same in debt or by information in any court at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot., without essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed; to go in moieties to H. M. and the informer, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 18.

66. Such commissioner or justice before whom any person is convicted in a summary way may, if he sees cause, mitigate the 10*l.* fine to not less than 5*l.*, the reasonable costs of the officers and informers, as well in making as prosecuting the discovery, being always allowed above such mitigation, and so as the same do not reduce the fine to less than one moiety of such 10*l.* above the said costs, id. s. 19.

67. If in lieu of fine the offender is imprisoned and kept to hard labour as in s. 18. pl. 65., the informer shall have reward of 5*l.* for every offence discovered, to be paid by navy or ordnance treasurer (and allowed in his accounts) on production of certificate by such commissioner or justice of offender's conviction and punishment, to be given by them gratis, and the name or names of the person or persons entitled to and in what proportions to such reward; but no such summary proceeding shall be had before any justice under s. 18. of this act without consent in writing of the principal officers or commissioners of navy, ordnance, or victualling, and all adjudication without it is void, id. s. 20.

68. Every party aggrieved by the judgment of any such commissioner or justice respecting such stores under 20*s.* value shall, on entering into a recognizance to H. M. with one or more sureties to the satisfaction of the former to the amount of treble the value of such fine, appeal to the quarter sessions of the county or place where the offence was committed, whose judgment therein shall be final, and who, in case of affirming such conviction, may give costs of appeal to the defendant thereon, and enforce payment thereof according to course of the court, id. s. 21.

69. The conviction of such commissioner or justice shall be written fair on paper, &c. and returned by him to the next quarter sessions to be filed by clerk of peace, and there remain among the records of the county, &c. or place without removal to any other court by certiorari, advocacy, or suspension, id. s. 22. Form as follows:

Be it remembered that on the — day of — A. D. — A. B. — in the — of — was convicted before me C. D. one of the Commissioners of H. M.'s — [or one of H. M.'s justices of peace for the — of — as the case is] for that the said A. B. on the — day of — now last past, at the — of — in the said — of — did [here state the offence against the act] contrary to the statute in such case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal the — day of — A. D. —

70. Witness summoned on either side to give evidence before such commissioner, justice or justices, touching matters relative to this act, and neglecting to appear at the appointed time and place without a reasonable excuse allowed by the latter, shall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered and applied as in s. 18. pl. 66., id. s. 23.

71. Parties accused of selling, receiving, or having in possession stores under value of 20*s.* may be punished summarily as in s. 18. pl. 66. or prosecuted as receivers of stolen goods, or for unlawfully having them in custody or concealing the same under the acts in s. 1. pl. 48. recited in any court of record, oyer and terminer, or otherwise, as if no such summary jurisdiction had been given; with a saving of all jurisdictions over such offences, as if no such summary authority had been given, so as that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence, id. s. 24.

72. The commissioners of navy ordnance, and victualling may sell any stores so marked as in s. 1. pl. 48., and the purchasers shall enjoy the same on producing a certificate under hand and seal of 3 or more such commissioners that they bought such goods of them, or a certificate from the person who appears to have bought the stores from the commissioners, that the stores in their custody were part of the stores so bought, expressing the quantity of stores, the time when used, where bought of the commissioners, who or any 3 of whom are hereby bound to give such certificate to the purchasers of any such stores in 30 days after sale and delivery thereof, id. s. 25.

73. Every person who shall make, sign or give, or utter, or publish any false certificate, bill of parcels, or other instrument, purporting the identity, or sale or disposal of any goods or stores as such, so purchased of the said commissioners, shall on conviction forfeit 200*l.* and be further corporally punished as in s. 2. pl. 49.; one half of the fine shall go to H. M., and the other to the informer, recoverable as in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. and other acts in force, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 26.

74. Where any person is sued for seizing any such stores, or any boat or craft in which deposited, and shall prove on trial of the issue, that such stores were so marked as above, or if not so marked might be reasonably suspected to belong to H. M.; or if plaintiff do not at such trial prove his employment, as in 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 41. s. 1. pl. 8., or having such certificate as in s. 25. pl. 72., and that he shewed it to the defendant before action brought, who did not offer to redeliver the goods to plaintiff at his request, and the craft, if any seized, in as good condition as at the time of seizure thereof, defendant shall be acquitted, id. s. 27.

75. Every commissioner of navy, ordnance, or victualling acting under this act, and all persons acting under their warrant, shall have the protection given to justices of peace by 7 J. 1. c. 5., 21 J. 1. c. 12., and 24 G. 2. c. 44., id. s. 28.

76. Offenders in Scot. shall be tried according to the forms of Scotch law in trials for theft, or reset of theft, id. s. 30.

77. The summary prosecution in s. 18. pl. 65., shall take place under same circumstances in Scot., before judge ordinary of the bounds, or 2 or more justices of peace out of sessions, and on conviction on oath of one witness at least or by confession, offenders shall be punished as in Eng., id. s. 31.

78. Such summary prosecutions in Scot. shall proceed either at instance of procurators fiscal, or H. M.'s naval storekeeper at Leith with his consent, id. s. 32.

79. All fines imposed by virtue hereof in Scot. shall be applied as similar fines are in Eng., id. s. 33.

80. Where it is necessary or lawful by this act to institute any action, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., the party in all similar cases occurring in Scot. may bring his action in Scotch exchequer within the time limited for that purpose in Eng., id. s. 34.

81. In all questions arising in Scot. on offences against this act, Scotch laws shall be observed, id. s. 35.

82. Every person corruptly giving false evidence upon examination on oath or affirmation before any such commissioner respectively, or before any justice in G. B. in any matter relating to the execution hereof, or wilfully swearing falsely on any deposition or affirmation taken in writing before him, shall be liable to punishment of wilful perjury, id. s. 36.

83. FOR EXTENDING THE LAWS FOR PREVENTING THE embezzlement of H. M.'s naval ordnance and victualling stores to Ireland, 52 G. 3. c. 12.

84. So much of 22 C. 2. c. 5., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. (ss. 1, 2, 4, 5, 8.), 9 G. 1. c. 8. (ss. 3, 4.), 17 G. 2. c. 40. (s. 10.), and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. contained as relates to H. M.'s naval, ordnance, and victualling stores, shall apply to Ireland, 52 G. 3. c. 12. s. 1.

85. Persons accused in Ireland of any offence against 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. s. 29., for which, when committed in Eng., a summary mode of trial conviction is, by that act, s. 18. established, may be tried in the same summary way before any justice of peace for any county, city or place in Ireland in which such offence is committed, but not without consent in writing of H. M.'s naval storekeeper at any port in Ireland, id. s. 2.

86. FOR BETTER PREVENTING EMBEZZLEMENT of H. M.'s cordage, 54 G. 3. c. 60.

87. The provisions of 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. in respect to the making, selling, delivering, receiving, having in possession, and concealing any cordage, wrought either with a white thread or with a twine laid the contrary way, shall extend to the making, &c. any cordage wrought with one or more worsted threads; but this act shall not repeal the former provisions respecting cordage wrought either with a white thread, or with a twine laid the contrary way, but they shall be continued to be used to denote H. M.'s property in such cordage as if this act had not been passed, id. ibid.

88. TO EXTEND THE SEVERAL ACTS RELATING TO H. M.'s naval, ordnance, and victualling stores, to all other public stores, 55 G. 3. c. 127. [53 G. 3. c. 126. is Repealed. s. 1.]

89. The 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. (viz. ss. 1, 2, 4, 5, 8.), 9 G. 1. c. 8. (viz. ss. 3, 4.), 17 G. 3. c. 40. (viz. s. 10.), and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 89. with every thing therein contained relating to H. M.'s stores therein mentioned, shall extend to all public stores soever under the care, superintendence or controul of any officer or person in H. M.'s service, or employed in any public department or office, either marked with the marks or any of them in the said recited acts, or any of them specified, [QU. if this extends to 54 G. 3. c. 60. in which the above acts are also recited and extended to cordage marked with a new and different mark from the above ?], or with the broad arrow, and the letter B. O., or with a crown and the broad arrow, or with H. M.'s arms, or the letters G.R. to denote H. M.'s property therein, and to every person (not authorized by the proper king's officer so to do) using any such marks, or making any goods marked with such marks, or any of them; and to all persons in whose possession public stores so marked are found, or who shall knowingly receive, or have in possession, or conceal any such public stores so marked as aforesaid, unless such person shall on his trial produce a certificate under the hand of the proper officer as above, of the nature of the certificate in 9 & 10 W.3. c. 41. (s. 2. pl. 9.), and 39 & 40 G.3. c. 89. (s. 25. pl. 72., and see pl. 14.) mentioned and to all persons who shall wilfully destroy, beat, take or cut out, deface, obliterate or erase, wholly or in part, any such marks, or cause or procure any other person so to do, for the purpose of concealing H. M.'s property therein, 55 G.3. c. 127. s. 2.

90 To enable certain officers of the navy resident on foreign stations to grant certificates of H. M.'s naval stores or goods sold by them there, 56 G.3. c. 80.

91 Every principal officer and commissioner of H. M.'s navy resident on any foreign station may grant certificates under his hand for any such stores or goods hereafter sold by him, or by his order, which shall be in all places of the same effect as certificates under the hands of 3 or more such officers in Eng. [see 9 & 10 W.3. c. 41. s. 2. ante, pl. 9.] for any such stores sold there by the latter, id. ibid.

SWEARING.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. AGAINST SWEARING AND CURSING, 21 J.1. c. 20., 6 & 7 W & M. c. 11. [BOTH REP. 19 G.2. c. 21. s. 15.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. MORE EFFECTUALLY TO PREVENT PROFANE CURSING AND SWEARING, 19 G.2. c. 21.

2. Every person who shall profanely curse or swear, and is convicted on oath of one witness before any justice of peace, or before the mayor, justice, bailiff or other chief magistrate of any city or town corporate, or by confession, shall forfeit as herein after mentioned; viz. Every day labourer, common soldier, common sailor and common seaman, 1s. Every other person under the degree of a gentleman, 2s. And every person of or above that degree, 5s. And in case any such person after conviction offends a second time, he shall forfeit double; and for every other offence, after a second conviction, treble the sum first forfeited, id. s. 1.

3. In case any person profanely swear or curse, in the hearing of any justice of peace, or of any mayor, &c. every such justice, mayor, &c. shall convict every such offender in the manner hereinafter set forth, without other proof, id. s. 2.

4. In case any person profanely swear or curse, in the hearing of any constable, petty constable, tythingman or other peace officer, every such peace officer shall, in case the person be unknown, seize and detain him, and carry him before the next justice, or mayor, &c. of the place wherein such offence was committed; who shall, on oath of such peace officer, convict the offender as in s. 4. and in case such offender is known to such peace officer, he shall make information before some justice, mayor or chief magistrate, in order to conviction and punishment, id. s. 3.

5. Every such justice, mayor or other chief magistrate, shall, on information on oath of any such peace officer, or other person, cause the offender to appear before him; and on such information hereby proved, shall convict such offender as hereby prescribed; and in case such offender pay not immediately the sum forfeited, or give security to the satisfaction of such justice or magistrate, he may commit him to the house of correction for the county, city, &c. where such offence is committed, to be kept to hard labour for 10 days, id. s. 4.

6. In case any common soldier in H. M.'s service, or any common sailor or seaman be convicted of profane cursing or swearing, and pay not immediately the penalty, or give security for the same, and the costs of the information summons and conviction, instead of being committed to the house of correction, he shall be publicly set in the stocks for one hour, for every single offence; and for any number of offences, whereof he is convicted at the same time, two hours, id. s. 5.

7. Every justice, mayor, or other chief magistrate of any town corporate, who shall wilfully omit performance of his duty in execution of this act, shall forfeit 5l. one moiety to the use of the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish wherein he resides; to be recovered by action in any court of record at Westminster; wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 19 G.2. c. 21. s. 6. *

8. Every constable, petty constable, tythingman, or other peace officer, wilfully omitting the performance of his duty in the execution of this act, and convicted by oath of one witness, before any justice, mayor or other chief magistrate of any town corporate shall forfeit 40s. to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by a warrant of such justice or chief magistrate; and to be disposed of, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where such offence is committed; and in case such offender have not sufficient goods whereon to levy the penalty, such justice, &c. may commit the offender to the house of correction for the county or place, to hard labour for one month, 19 G.2. c. 21. s. 7.

9. Justices, mayors, or other chief magistrates before whom any persons are convicted of profane swearing or cursing, shall cause the conviction to be drawn up as follows.

'Middlesex } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — year of his to wit. } Majesty's reign, A. B. was convicted before me one of his Majesty's justices of the peace for the county, riding, division, or liberty aforesaid; or before me mayor, justice, or bailiff, or other chief magistrate of the city or town of — within the county of —, [as the case shall be] of swearing one or more profane oath or oaths, or of cursing one or more profane curse or curses, [as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid.'

Which form and conviction shall not be removed by certiorari, into K. B., but shall be final; and the justice, &c. before whom it is made, shall cause it to be wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and be kept amongst the records thereof, id. s. 8.

10. All justices, and every mayor or other chief magistrate of any town corporate, shall put this act in execution within their several jurisdictions, although such justice or magistrate is rated, and pays to the relief of the poor of any parish or place where any offence is committed, id. s. 9.

11. All penalties inflicted by this act for profane cursing and swearing, shall be disposed of for the benefit of the poor of the parish wherein such offence was committed; and all charges of information and conviction shall be paid by the offender, if able, over and above the penalties, which charges shall be ascertained by the justice, &c. before whom such conviction is made; and in case such party be not able, or shall not immediately pay the said charges or give security for the same, such justice, &c. may commit the offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for 6 days over and above such time for which he may be committed in default of payment of the penalties; and in such case no charges of information and conviction shall be paid by any person, id. s. 10.

12. If any action is commenced against any justice, constable, or other person, for doing any thing in pursuance of this act concerning the said offences, defendant may plead the general issue; and if a verdict be given for defendant, or if plaintiff discontinues or is nonsuit, &c. defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 11.

13. No person shall be prosecuted or troubled for any offence against this statute, unless it is proved or prosecuted within 8 days after the offence committed, id. s. 12.

14. This act shall be publicly read 4 times in the year, in all parish churches and public chapels, by the parson, vicar, or curate, immediately after morning or evening prayer, on 4 Sundays, viz. the Sunday next after 25th Mar., 24th June, 29th Sept., and 25th Dec.; or in case divine service be not performed in any such church or chapel on any of the Sundays before-mentioned, then on the first Sunday after any of the said quarterly days on which divine service is performed, on pain of forfeiting 5l. for every neglect, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under hand and seal of any one justice or other chief magistrate, id. s. 13.

15. The clerk of the justice, mayor, bailiff, or other chief officer, before whom proceedings upon this act shall be had, may take for the information, summons, and conviction of every offender, 1s. and no more, id. s. 14.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE MANAGEMENT OF THE ASSESSED TAXES is transferred to the commissioners for affairs of taxes, 38 G.3. c.40. s.41.

2. FOR CONSOLIDATING CERTAIN OF THE PROVISIONS contained in any act or acts relating to the duties under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, and for amending the same, 43 G.3. c.99. (see Sched. A.) CONF. 43 G.3. c.161. s.5. AMD. generally by 45 G.3. c.5.: and by 45 G.3. c.71. ss.1—2., and as to s.21. by 48 G.3. c.141. No. IV. Rule 1., as to s.24. by 48 G.3. c.141. No. III. Rule 6. and No. IV. Rule 2., as to s.38. by 59 G.3. c.118. s.1., and as to s.46. by 50 G.3. c.105. s.5., as to s.28. semb. REP. 48 G.3. c.141. No. III. Rule 6., and No. IV. Rule 2. [See 43 G.3. c.99. s.24. post, pl. 35.]

3. The duties on windows or lights inhabited, houses, servants, carriages, horses, mules, and dogs, and other the duties transferred to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, except the monies granted to H.M. by land-tax, by 38 G.3. c.5., as far as they relate to Eng. Wa. and Ber. shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid under the regulations of this act, 43 G.3. c.99. s.1. [Commencing 5th April, 1804, id. s.2., but with respect to any new duties taking effect from the time appointed by the acts granting the same, id. s.3.]

4. No person shall act as a commissioner in execution of any act relating to the affairs of taxes, unless he is duly qualified as required by 38 G.3. c.48. tit. LAND TAX, but no qualification shall be required for any commissioner acting for the before mentioned duties in any other county in Wa. than is required for the commissioners acting in the counties of Wa. mentioned in 38 G.3. c.48., and every person acting as commissioner, without having taken the oaths hereby prescribed, in the manner required by this act, or without being qualified as before mentioned, shall forfeit 200*l.*, id. s.4.

5. No person shall act as such commissioner before taking the oaths appointed by 1 G.1. c.13., id. s.5.

6. Every such commissioner, before executing his office as such, except in administering the oath hereinafter mentioned to any other commissioners, shall take and subscribe the oath in Sched. A. which oath any one person so appointed commissioner may administer, though he has not himself previously taken it; and the names of all persons so subscribing, shall be transmitted to the office of commissioners of taxes at Somerset House, by the clerks of the commissioners wherever such oaths are administered; but where any one or more commissioners acting for any district who have been qualified to act by taking the oaths mentioned in this act, shall be present at any meeting of such commissioners in the same district, then the oath shall not be administered to any other commissioner in the same district, but by him or them, id. s.6.

7. No person shall be capable of acting as such commissioner within the city of London and liberty of St. Martin-le-Grand, and within the city and liberty of Westminster, nor in or for any other parish or place, any part whereof is within the bills of mortality, or the parishes of St. Mary-le-Bone or St. Pancras in Middlesex, unless such commissioner is possessed of lands, tenements, or personal estate, or of both together, to the amount of 5000*l.* at least after payment of all debts, which qualification they shall swear to previous to their acting as above, according to the form following;

‘ I A. B. do swear [or, affirm, as the case may require,] that truly and bona fide I have such an estate, consisting of [specifying the same], of the clear value of 5000*l.*, over and above what will satisfy and discharge all my debts. So help me God.'

Nor unless he is an inhabitant of the district for which he acts as commissioner; and no person shall presume to act as a commissioner in execution of this act, or any of the powers herein contained, within the city of London and liberty of St. Martin-le-Grand, or within the city and liberty of Westminster, or in or for any parish or place, any part whereof is situate within any other part of the bills of mortality, or in or for the parishes of St. Mary-le-Bone, or St. Pancras, before taking the oath herein directed, or without being qualified as herein required, or without being an inhabitant in the same district for which he shall act as a commissioner, on pain in each case of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of 20*l.*; which oath shall be subscribed by the party and their names transmitted to the tax office, 43 G. 3. c. 99. s. 7.

8. Any commissioner may act as such in any part of the county, riding, division, or place for which he is appointed, and all their warrants and precepts shall be executed by the persons to whom the same are directed in any part of such county, &c. id. s. 34.

9. These restrictions as to qualification and residence shall not restrain any benchman of any of the inns of court, from acting as such commissioner for such inn of court, and inns belonging thereto, nor any of the officers who by virtue of their office have heretofore acted under the land-tax act, from acting as such commissioners in the liberties of the palaces of Whitehall and St. James's, 45 G. 3. c. 5. s. 1.

10. Persons residing in either of the parishes of St. Clement Danes, St. Mary le Strand, or St. John the Baptist in the liberty of the Savoy, parts thereof being situate in the county of Middlesex, and other parts in the city and liberty of Westminster, being specially appointed commissioners for Middlesex or for Westminster, and being fully qualified under 43 G. 3. c. 99. s. 7. pl. 7., may act as such for any or all of the divisions or districts within those parishes or any of them, id. s. 2.

11. In case controversy shall arise between such commissioners, in any thing touching the execution of any act in which any commissioner shall be interested or concerned in his own right, or in right of any person for whom he shall act as steward, agent, attorney, or solicitor, such commissioner shall have no voice, but shall withdraw during the debate of such controversy, until determined by the other commissioners; on pain of forfeiting 50*l.*, 45 G. 3. c. 99. s. 8.

12. The commissioners duly qualified as above shall, in the respective hundreds, or other districts, cities, and places, in the several counties and divisions, for which they shall be appointed commissioners, meet yearly and every year, at the most usual place of meeting within such districts and places respectively, on or before 10th April, and any 2 or more shall hold such or any other meeting, and may do any thing required to be done by the commissioners, [but see 48 G. 3. c. 141. No. 1. Rule I. post.] and as many as shall be present at the first meeting in every year, or the majority of them, having qualified themselves as hereinbefore directed, shall elect one fit person to be their clerk, and one other fit person, if they deem it necessary, to be his assistant, for all the assessments to be made of the several duties with which the commissioners shall be charged within their respective limits, for one year, which person, by virtue of such election, shall be their sole clerk for all the assessments for such year, and shall not be removable from his office during that year, without just cause, and at a meeting of the commissioners for that purpose duly summoned by notice in writing, signed by 2 or more, and by the majority then present, and left at the usual place of abode of every qualified commissioner for such district, city, &c. or place; and such commissioners shall also, at their first meeting, direct their several and joint precepts to such a number of inhabitants of each parish, ward, or place, as they think most convenient, to be presenters and assessors for the same, requiring them to appear before them at a place and time appointed not exceeding 10 days after date of their precepts, at which their appearances the commissioners shall appoint such inhabitants as they think proper to be assessors for such parish, &c. for one year; and at the same time shall openly read unto them the several duties for which they are to be appointed assessors, and openly declare the effect of their charge unto them, and in what manner they ought to make their certificates and assessments; and shall appoint another day, within the time herein after limited for them to appear before the said commissioners, and bring in their certificates of assessments in writing under their hands, which shall be verified on their oaths or solemn affirmations, which said assessors shall charge and assess themselves, and all other persons chargeable with the duties so given to them in charge, and make their assessments according to the laws in force, on pain of forfeiture of not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, and at the time and place so prefixed for their appearance, such assessors shall return the names of 2 or more able and sufficient persons, within the bounds of their respective parishes or places to the said commissioners, to be by them appointed collectors of the said duties, id. s. 9.

13. And in all extra-parochial or privileged places, and not within the constablewicks or precincts of the several assessors, and also in all parishes or other places, where 2 sufficient inhabitants cannot be found, the commissioners may nominate and appoint 2 fit persons residing in or near such respective places to be assessors, and in like manner and cases to appoint one or more collectors, who shall discharge their offices as hereby directed, 43 G. 3. c. 99. s. 17.

14. If in consequence of any failure of appointment no assessors or collectors are appointed, 2 justices in any county, or the chief magistrate and justices in any city or place, being a county of itself, shall, on notice of such default from the surveyor, appoint such assessors or collectors; and the appointees refusing to act or take the oath required, shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 32.

15. Every such assessor, before taking on him the execution of his employment, shall take the oath of allegiance and supremacy, or, if a quaker, may make and subscribe the declaration of fidelity prescribed by 1 W. & M. c. 18. which oaths or affirmations any one or more commissioners duly qualified, by whom such assessors shall be appointed, are required to administer, as also every other oath or affirmation required by this or any other act relating to duties to be assessed under regulations of this act to be taken before such commissioners by any person whatever in any matter touching execution of this or any other such act as above, id. s. 10.

16. Every assessor shall take the oath, or if a quaker shall make and subscribe the solemn affirmation in Sched. B., before the commissioners for executing this act, on pain of forfeiting 50*l.* for every offence in acting without taking such oath, &c. id. s. 11.

17. The assessors so appointed shall annually make and deliver in writing their certificates of assessments of all the duties, given to them in charge as above, unto any 2 or more commissioners, on or before 5th June yearly, or as soon after as convenient, and the said commissioners shall forthwith sign the same, testifying their allowance thereof, and shall sign and seal 3 duplicates of the assessments, to be prepared by their clerk, and forthwith shall nominate and appoint 2 of the persons named or presented in each assessment to be collectors, or any other 2 such persons as they are hereby authorized to appoint, for the respective divisions and places for which collectors shall be so presented, and shall deliver one of the said duplicates so allowed, together with warrants under the hands and seals of 2 or more of them for collecting the same, unto the respective collectors, and one other duplicate to the surveyor of the district for the time being; and the third duplicate to be kept by such clerk for the use of the commissioners, 45 G. 3. c. 99. s. 12. [See rest of section, post. pl. 26.]

18. And if any assessments and duplicates are not signed and allowed in due time for want of a sufficient number of commissioners attending at the proper time and place, the commissioners living in any parish or place within the same county or division shall allow and sign such as may be wanting for any such parishes, &c., id. s. 30.

19. But if there has not been a meeting of 2 or more commissioners, and any of the powers created hereby, or by the above acts [viz. 38 G. 3. c. 5. & c. 48. pl. 3. 4. comm. semb.], have not been duly executed at the time or in manner therein prescribed, any 2 or more commissioners for the respective places where such default happens, may and shall forthwith meet and execute the said powers at any other time, so that the duties be duly charged, collected, and paid to H. M., id. s. 31.

20. And in case such commissioners shall fail to appoint assessors conformably to this act, or if the latter shall neglect their duty, the surveyors shall perform their services until such assessors are appointed, or act with effect, id. s. 18.

21. Every assessor or collector appointed as above, who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to take on him the office, or to perform his duty therein, may be fined by any 2 or more commissioners, not exceeding 20*l.* for each offence; but inhabitants of cities, boroughs, or towns corporate, shall not be compelled to be assessors or collectors out of the limits of such places, id. s. 16.

22. The commissioners shall cause 2 duplicates of every assessment to be made out on parchment by their clerk, [within one month after Feb. 10th, yearly; further time given, 50 G. 3. c. 105. s. 5. see next pl.] one to be delivered to the respective receivers-general, and the other to H. M.'s remembrancer's office in exchequer, and the proper officer shall give acquittances for them gratis, and the duplicates shall be made for the same hundreds, &c. for which distinct duplicates are directed to be made out by 38 G. 3. c. 48. [REPEALED] and shall contain the names and surnames of the several assessors and collectors for every hundred, parish, place, or other division, and the full amount of the sum given in charge to the collectors throughout the year, and every commissioner's clerk who shall not make out such duplicates in the above time (see next pl.) and manner, or who shall make any false entry, or omit any sum in the duplicates, shall forfeit 100*l.*, and on conviction be discharged from his office, id. s. 46.

23. In respect of assessed taxes, the commissioners shall cause the duplicates to be made out after the time appointed by 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 46. for making the supplementary assessments of the said duties yearly; and within one month at farthest after all appeals from such supplementary assessments have been heard; so that the same may be delivered to the receiver-general and commissioners for taxes respectively on or before the day appointed for receipt of the last instalment of the said duties next after 5th April yearly; and no commissioner's clerk who shall make out and deliver the respective duplicates within such time, shall be liable to the penalty in that section, 50 G.3. c. 105. s. 5.

24. And in case of failure of assessing the duties in any parish or place, or of returning the duplicates of assessments made for the same, the receiver-general shall certify to the barons of exchequer the particular parish or place, and division in which it happens, and the cause thereof to the best of his knowledge, together with the names of the commissioners, assessors, collectors, and persons charged with such duties who have made such failure, in case an assessment has been made, and they shall be respectively liable to process of distringas, from time to time, by order of the barons, on application of the commissioners of taxes, unless the latter shall certify to the court, if during term, or to a baron in vacation, that the persons against whom the writ issued, have complied with this act, in which case such court or baron may respite process till a future day, and so from time to time, or finally discharge the same, 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 47. [see as to allowances to receivers-general, collectors, and clerks, 48 G.3. c. 55. s. 7. pl. 157., partially altering 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 79. pl. 158.]

25. The above-mentioned duplicates shall hereafter be sent by the respective commissioners to and delivered at the tax-office, for previous inspection of the commissioners for taxes, who may cause copies thereof or of any part thereof to be taken, and shall afterwards transmit such duplicates to H. M.'s remembrancer on pain of forfeiture of 50*l.* by the commissioner's clerk who shall wilfully offend herein, 45 G.3. c. 71. s. 2.

26. The commissioners shall appoint 2 of the persons presented in each assessment, or such 2 other persons as they may appoint, to be collectors, and shall demand the several sums contained in the said duplicates from the parties charged, at their last abodes, or on the premises charged with the assessments, as the case may require, within 10 days after the duties shall be respectively payable next after such assessments delivered to them, and on payment thereof shall give acquittances under their hands (gratis except stamp duty), in full discharge against H. M. of the persons making such payments, 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 12. [see rest of sect. ante pl. 17.]

27. The collectors so presented to the commissioners shall, if required, give sufficient security to any two or more commissioners, equal to the whole duty assessed and to be collected in each district or place by them respectively, for their duly paying such monies assessed as above, as shall come to their hands, and for duly demanding the sums assessed of the persons from whom they are payable, and in case of non-payment, for their duly enforcing the powers of this act against defaulters; which security any 2 or more commissioners may take, by a joint and several bond, with 2 (2 B. & A. 431.) sureties at least, to and in the names of any 2 or more of them, in the penal sum and with a condition to the aforesaid effect; and on failure of the persons so first appointed such collectors to give security, if required, any 2 or more such commissioners may appoint any other sufficient persons, who can give such security, residing within the limit of the same district or place, to be such collectors; and every bond so given shall be prosecuted by such commissioners on any default of the collector, but shall not be put in suit against any sureties for any deficiency other than what remains unsatisfied after sale of the lands, tenements, goods, and chattels of such collector, in pursuance of the powers hereby given to the respective commissioners, nor shall be subject to stamp duty; but if no persons within the said limits are willing or able to give such security, then the persons first presented, as in s. 9., shall be collectors therein, id. s. 13.

28. If any 2 or more inhabitants of the district or place for which a collector may be named as aforesaid, being respectively charged to any of the said duties, or if any 2 churchwardens or overseers, or guardians of the poor of any description, or any of the select vestry, where a select vestry is authorized to act, shall require security to be taken of the collectors to be appointed for the parish or place on behalf of which such application is made, and shall name proper persons to be collectors willing to give such security, collectors shall not be appointed till such security is given; and if the persons returned to be collectors shall not give such security, then they may appoint no other persons than those named to them by the persons respectively before-mentioned, as fit persons to be collectors, and who will give the security required, id. s. 14.

29. And within the bills of mortality, the parishes of Mary-le-Bone and Pancras, the appointment of collectors shall belong wholly to the resident commissioners, if 2 or more be resident, in which case no other commissioner shall interfere; and such resident commissioners may appoint 2 or more collectors, who have given the above security, whether presented by the assessors, or named by the inhabitants or church-wardens, overseers or guardians of the poor, or 2 or more of them, or by any 7 or more of a select vestry, where the latter is authorized to act, and whom the commissioners think of ability to execute the collector's office; and where 2 are not resident, the commissioners of the adjacent parish or place may appoint or concur with one resident commissioner in the appointment; and every collector appointed under this act shall also, by virtue of such appointment, act as assessor for the same parish or place, 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 15.

30. No commissioner, assessor, or collector executing this act, or other acts herein mentioned, shall be liable, for such execution, to any other penalties than those contained therein, id. s. 19.

31. The present inspectors or surveyors shall act in execution of this act, and H. M., or any 3 or more lords of treasury, or lord high treasurer, may from time to time appoint such persons as he or they think proper, to be officers for survey and inspection of the duties under management of the commissioners for affairs of taxes, and for executing all things belonging to their offices, id. s. 20.

32. Every surveyor or inspector shall [on or before 15th Dec. in each year of assessment, 48 G.3. c. 141. No. IV. Rule 1. post.] certify in writing to 2 or more of the said commissioners all such surcharges as they may lawfully make, and shall give to every person so surcharged, or leave at his last or usual abode in the district where such surcharge is made, notice in writing thereof, and of the amount for which he has been charged by virtue of such certificate, id. s. 21.

33. If any surveyor or inspector shall omit to make a surcharge on or before the 1st Aug. in any year, he may make such surcharge on or before 1st Jan. following, for the whole year, id. s. 22.

34. If any surveyor or inspector wilfully, through favour, under-rate or omit to charge any person, or is guilty of any corrupt, vexatious, and illegal practices in execution of his office, he shall, for every offence, forfeit 100*l.*, and on conviction be discharged from his employment, id. s. 23.

35. Persons overcharged by any assessment or surcharge, may appeal to the commissioners [to be heard and determined by them between 20th Aug. and 10th Sept. as against the first assessments, 48 G.3. c. 141. No. III. Rule 6., and between 20th Jan. and 20th Feb. as against surcharges, id. No. IV. Rule 2. post.] on giving ten days' notice thereof to the surveyor, inspector, or assessor, which appeals, any 2 or more of the commissioners shall hear and determine, except it appear to them that such notice has not been given, in which case they shall dismiss the appeal, and confirm the assessment or surcharge, id. s. 24. (and see pl. 133.)

36. But no assessment delivered to any 2 or more commissioners by any assessor, shall be altered by them, before the time for hearing and determining appeals, and then only on a surcharge not appealed against, and according thereto; nor on the commissioners hearing the matter of appeal particularly relating thereto, on a general appeal day duly appointed, except in such cases only where such commissioners are specially authorized to alter or rectify any such assessment by the act or acts before mentioned; and if any clerk to such commissioners, or any other person, shall alter or procure, or suffer to be altered, any assessment, after allowance by the commissioners, except as aforesaid, or in cases of appeal, and by order of any 2 or more such commissioners, made after such appeal, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 25.

37. None of the commissioners shall on hearing any appeal, make abatement in the charge made by assessment, or by surcharge of any assessor, surveyor, or inspector, but the same charge shall remain part of the annual assessment, unless on hearing such appeal it appear to the majority of the commissioners then present, by examination of the appellant on oath or affirmation, or by other lawful evidence produced by him, that he is over-rated by any such assessment or surcharge, and unless he produce before them a true and complete list, account, declaration, or return, as required by the acts before mentioned, and verify the same on oath or affirmation, and such surveyor, &c. may attend to give his reasons in support of the assessment or surcharge, and produce any lawful evidence in support thereof, and may be present during all the time of hearing such respective appeals, and of the said commissioners determining the same; but if on such appeal it appear that the persons so assessed or surcharged, ought to be charged to any amount beyond that contained in such assessment, &c. they may charge such person to the amount of the sum omitted, in like manner and at like rate as if a true and perfect assessment had been made in the first instance; and no barrister, attorney, or person practising the law shall be allowed to plead before the commissioners on such appeal, either vivâ voce or by writing, id. s. 26.

38. Any 2 or more commissioners shall give such collectors notice at what time within the periods herein limited, and at what place the said appeals may be heard and determined; and every collector shall also within 10 days after such notice, cause public notice to be given in every church or chapel of ease belonging to a parish within his district or division, immediately after divine service on the Lord's day,

(if divine service is performed in the parish within that time), or otherwise in the church of the next adjoining parish, of the time and place so by them appointed for hearing and determining such appeals, and shall also cause the like notice to be fixed in writing upon the door of every such parish church or chapel of ease, that all persons aggrieved may know when and where to appeal to the said commissioners, 45 G.3. c. 99. s. 27.

39. The times of hearing such appeals are fixed by 48 G.3. c. 141. No. III. Rule 8., infra, pa. 1515. and No. IV. Rule 2., pa. 1516, (and see s. 24. hereof, infra, pl. 35.) [which seem virtually to repeal 45 G.3. c. 99. s. 28.]

40. The determination of any 2 or more, or of the majority of the commissioners on appeals shall be final, and neither the determination nor assessment made thereon can be altered at any subsequent meeting, except where cases are required for the judges' opinion, according to the provisions of any act concerning the same, 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 29.

41. On payment of the duties being refused, then on demand made by the collector, according to the precept or estreat to him delivered by such commissioners, he may and shall distrain on the lands, tenements, and premises so charged, or may distrain the person so charged by goods and chattels, and of such other goods, &c. as they are hereby authorized to distrain without further authority from the commissioners than the warrant to such collector delivered at the time of his appointment; and the distress so taken shall be kept 4 days, at the costs of the party refusing; when if the duties be not paid, the same is to be appraised by 2 sufficient persons, and there sold, and the overplus, after deducting costs of taking, keeping, and selling distress, shall be restored to the owner, and moreover collectors in the day time may break open houses, having a warrant under hands and seals of 2 or more commissioners for that purpose, and taking a constable with them, where any refusal, neglect, or resistance shall be made, who shall assist them, at his peril if he do contrary; and where any person charged shall refuse to pay within 10 days after demand, and no sufficient distress can be found, any 2 commissioners, by warrant under their hands and seals, may commit him to the common gaol till payment; and in case any difference arises on taking such distress, the same shall be determined by 2 such commissioners, id. s. 33.

42. The commissioners, or any of them, may act, and their warrants and precepts may be executed in any part of a county, riding, division, or place, for which they are appointed, id. s. 34.

43. When any persons remove to other parishes without paying the duties, the commissioners of the place where the duties are first charged shall certify the same to the commissioners of the parish or place where the party may reside, any 2 or more of whom shall cause the amount thereof to be levied, and to be paid to the collector of the parish from which the parties removed, id. s. 35.

44. Where parishes or places are in two counties, the duties charged thereon shall be assessed in the county where the church is situate; and where houses are situate in two parishes, the whole of the duties shall be charged in one; and the party so charged shall be relieved from any second assessment thereon, as in other cases of double assessments, id. s. 36.

45. No goods or chattels belonging to any person at the time the said duties became in arrear, shall be liable to be taken by execution or other process, or by any assignment, on any pretence, (except at the suit of the landlord for rent), unless the party at whose suit such seizure is made, or to whom such assignment is made, shall, before sale or removal of such goods, &c. pay or cause to be paid to the collector all arrears of duties due at the time of such seizure thereof, or payable for the year in which it is made, provided the year not claimed for more than one year; and in case they be not claimed for more than one year, the party seizing on paying the collector the duties due for one whole year, may proceed in his seizure as if no duties had been so claimed; but in case of refusal to pay the same, the collectors shall distrain and sell the goods and chattels notwithstanding such seizure or assignment, in order to obtain payment of the duties assessed, together with the costs of distress and sale; and all such collectors so doing are hereby indemnified, id. s. 37.

46. All remedies and powers which by any act concerning bankrupts, or concerning recovering rent in arrear are given to creditors or landlords, and all the powers of 27 G.2. c. 20., and of 33 G.3. c. 55., as far as they relate to the execution of justices' distress warrants, shall be used and practised by the respective commissioners, and by any collector, surveyor, or inspector, acting under their authority, for recovering arrears of duties, besides the remedies and powers hereby provided, id. s. 38.

47. TO GIVE RELIEF IN CERTAIN CASES OF ASSESSMENT OF TAXES, in G.B., 59 G.3. c. 118.

48. No person becoming, or who has become bankrupt or insolvent, shall be liable to be assessed to the duties of assessed taxes after 5th April next after the time of such bankruptcy or insolvency, in respect of any article kept and used for the purposes of trade at or before the time of such bankruptcy, &c., which article has been seized or surrendered, and bond fide sold under such bankruptcy, &c., and not kept or used by him after such 5th April; but this shall not affect the payment thereof by his assignees, who shall pay the duties assessed on the latter at the time of such bankruptcy, &c. up to 5th April next after it happens, as if this act had not been made, 59 G.3. c. 118. s. 1.

49. The commissioners, or any 2 or more of them within their district, at the end of every quarter appointed for the payment of the sums assessed, or any part thereof, or within one calendar month after, or at such other times as they think fit, being at least twice a year, on or before 1st Nov. and 1st May, and so from time to time as necessary, shall call before them and examine on oath all the collectors as to the sums collected by them, and paid to the receiver-general, and shall make order for payment to him if necessary, and shall assure themselves of the amount of arrears, and the cause thereof, and shall also examine the collectors as to the due payment over of any sum collected in any preceding part of the same year, and make such order thereon as above: and shall exercise the same powers as to the collector of any former year, as long as any arrear of duty charged on any person within such division is in arrears, and the receivers-general, inspectors, and surveyors, when required, shall assist the commissioners in such inquiry in all matters relating to their respective offices, 43 G.3. c. 99. s. 39.

50. Collectors neglecting their duty shall be dismissed by the commissioners, who may from time to time appoint others, either by indorsement on the appointment, or otherwise by precepts in like manner, on the same security being given, and with the same powers as such first collectors were appointed; and the collectors dismissed shall deliver to them, on demand of the commissioners, or in their presence, to the new collector, the certificates of assessments which they were charged to collect, and all accounts of receipts and vouchers of payment as aforesaid, and shall pay to the receiver-general all sums then in hand, on pain of 50*l.*, to be charged in any assessment of such duties for such parish, ward, or place, and recovered as such assessment may be recovered; and shall also remain liable to such other forfeitures and disabilities as may be incurred by this act, for detaining such money in his hands after demand made of the same, id. s. 40.

51. Every collector who being duly summoned, shall refuse to attend, or shall not answer all lawful questions demanded of him by such commissioners, touching the execution of his office, or who shall refuse or neglect to produce to them the certificates of assessments, accounts, or vouchers, as in last pl., or shall not obey the order of such commissioners, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be charged as in s. 40., and recovered as such assessment may be recovered, over and above any forfeiture or disability incurred by this act; and whenever any money is detained in the hands of any collectors, or any penalty imposed on them remains unpaid, and cannot be recovered under the warrant or authority of the respective commissioners, or if such commissioners neglect to issue such warrant, then the part arising from the duties shall be recoverable as a debt on record to H. M., with costs; and such part thereof as arises from any penalty as aforesaid, may be recovered by action or information, like other penalties under this act, with full costs; and the sum so recovered shall be paid to the receiver-general, in aid of the parish or place answerable for the same, id. s. 41.

52. The collectors of any parish or place, when required by any 2 or more churchwardens and overseers, or guardians of the poor, or by the select vestry, or any 7 of them, shall, within 14 days after such demand, deliver to them respectively an account in writing of the sums received by them, and of the respective sums in arrear remaining in hand, and paid to the receiver-general, on pain of forfeiting 20*l.* to the poor of the parish, &c. where the collector shall reside, id. s. 42.

53. If any collectors do not demand payment of the duties of the parties charged, or do not leave a demand in writing at their last respective abodes or on the premises charged with assessment, within the time herein limited, or in case of default of payment, do not execute the commissioners' warrant or precept for recovering the same, within 2 calendar months after the duties are payable, the names of such persons shall not be inserted in the schedule to be returned by the receiver-general into exchequer, but the parish, ward, or place shall be answerable for the same, id. s. 43.

54. No collector shall be allowed to insert in any schedule the name of any person to be returned into exchequer as a defaulter, unless his oath, or if a quaker, on affirmation before 2 commissioners, (who respectively shall certify the same), that the sum is due and wholly unpaid, either to the collector, or to any other person for him, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that such person became insolvent or bankrupt before the day on which the duties became payable, and had not goods and chattels sufficient whereon to levy the same within the parish or place for which such collector shall have been appointed at any time since such duties became payable, or that such person removed therefrom before the day on which such duties became payable, without leaving therein sufficient goods and chattels whereon such duties then payable could be levied, and that there were not nor are any goods; &c.

of any person liable to the payment of such duties in arrear, or any part thereof, whereby the same could be levied, which oath or affirmation shall be indorsed on such schedule, 43 G.3. c.99. s.44.

55. The collectors shall make a due return, fairly written on paper under their hands to the commissioners, containing the names, surnames, and abodes of every person within their respective collections, from whom they have not been able to collect or receive such duties for any of the above causes, and which have been duly verified on oath of the former, with the particular reason for returning such defaulter, and the sums charged on every such person; and such commissioners, after due examination thereof on such oath or affirmation, shall ascertain the sums which according to the above acts have been discharged from assessment for any cause therein specially allowed, and shall also make out schedules of the sums so discharged, and of those with which the defaulter ought to be charged, and of those which have not been collected by the collector's neglect, and which ought to be re-assessed on the parish, &c. and shall cause the several particulars to be inserted in a schedule fairly written on parchment, under hands and seals of any 2 or more such commissioners, containing the names and surnames of collectors; and the same to be delivered to the receiver-general, to be by him returned into exchequer, that process may issue for recovery thereof; in default of which schedule the receiver-general shall return the parish, &c. insuper for all sums not paid to him, and contained in the duplicate of assessment delivered to him, all which sums so returned shall in such case be re-assessed on such parish, &c. and every proper officer therein concerned shall take care from time to time that such process be duly issued and made effectual, so that all sums so in arrear and unpaid may be speedily recovered and paid into exchequer, and any collector who shall not make such return shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.45.

56. All monies arising from the duties assessed under this act, shall be paid by the particular collectors to the receiver-general or his deputy, appointed under his hand and seal, (whom he is hereby authorized to appoint, and shall be answerable for) at the times appointed for payment thereof, whereof notice is given by the receiver-general to any 2 of the commissioners within their respective districts, within 20 days after their first meeting yearly, and so in like manner after the death or removal of any deputy, and the receipts given by such receiver, (which shall be gratis) shall be a discharge to every collector, id. s.48.

57. The receivers-general and their deputies may call on and hasten the collectors to make payments of all sums received by them of the duties, and in default thereof, may cause the same to be levied by warrant under hands and seals of any 2 or more of the commissioners on the collectors, by distress and sale of goods for such sum as they ought to have paid, id. s.49.

58. But the particular collectors shall not be obliged to travel above 10 miles from their habitations for such payments to the receiver-general, id. s.50.

59. A like penalty of 100*l.* is incurred by collectors who gather by a false book, or receive more than is charged in the rate, or who fraudulently alter any rate after the book has been signed or allowed, id. s.51.

60. If any collectors refuse to pay the duties received by them, or to deliver their accounts, any 2 or more commissioners in their respective jurisdictions may imprison them, and seize and secure their estate and effects, (whether in their hands, or coming into those of their heirs or executors, &c.) wheresoever found; and the commissioners so levying, &c. shall appoint a meeting of the commissioners, of which they shall give at least 10 days' notice, and in case the collector's accounts are not delivered, or the money detained by him is not paid, the majority of the commissioners present shall sell his estates and effects to satisfy the debt due from him, together with all costs and charges; rendering the overplus, if any, to the person who owned the estate before its sale, id. s.52.

61. The receiver-general or his deputy, under his hand, shall deliver a certificate fairly written, to such person as any 2 or more commissioners of the district, or any 3 commissioners for taxes, shall under their hands appoint to attend for that purpose, containing the respective sums paid by the respective collectors for each parish or place in that district; and if such receiver-general or his deputy do not deliver such lists or certificates, he shall forfeit any sum not above 20*l.*, id. s.53.

62. The receiver-general shall pay the money so received, as soon after its receipt as convenient, [but see 13 G.3. c.161. s.81. pl. 144.] and at such times and in such manner as directed by this act; and if he or his deputy shall pay any part of the monies paid to him by any collector, to any person soever other than into exchequer, and within the times limited by this act, (except the necessary charges of receiving, managing, &c. the same, as hereinafter directed, and except payments made by statute, he shall then for every such offence of himself or deputy forfeit 800*l.*, id. s.54.

63. No receiver-general or his representative, (unless his accounts are passed within 2 years) shall return any county or place insuper for monies in arrear; but shall be answerable for the same, id. s.55. [As to passing Land-tax accounts by receivers-general, see 45 G.3. c.72. s.4.]

64. Every receiver-general who shall return or certify to exchequer any sums of money to be in arrear or unpaid, after the same have been received either by him or his deputies, or who shall cause any person to be set insuper in the said court, for any sum of money so received, shall forfeit to every person molested or damaged by such unjust certificate, return, or setting insuper, double the damages thereby occasioned, the same to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, &c., nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed, and shall also forfeit to H. M. double the sum so unjustly certified or returned, or set insuper, to be recovered as other penalties under this act in s.62., pl. 71. 43 G.3. c.99. s.56.

65. Commissioners of taxes shall give notice of the death or removal of any receiver-general to 2 or more acting commissioners of the districts before the time for the next quarterly payment, id. s.57.

66. No receiver-general or his agent or servant shall maintain any action against the hundred on account of being robbed on H. M.'s highway of any of the said monies, unless the persons carrying or accompanying the same are 3 at least, to attest the truth of such robbery, id. s.58.

67. Every account of the monies of any of the said duties received and paid by any receiver-general, or by his deputy in Eng., which shall be transmitted to the tax-office according to its usage, shall be verified on oath of one of them to the best of his knowledge, which may be administered by any commissioner acting in execution of any of the acts relating to assessed taxes in the district where he shall so act, saving always to the barons and officers of exchequer in Eng. and the commissioners of taxes, their power respectively to administer such oaths according to ancient usage, 45 G.3. c.71. s.1.

68. All constables, &c. and other H. M.'s officers, shall respectively assist in execution of this act, and of every act for assessed taxes, and shall obey and execute precepts and warrants to them in that behalf directed by any two or more commissioners, 43 G.3. c.99. s.59.

69. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any assessor, collector, surveyor or inspector, in due execution of his office or duty, shall for every such offence forfeit 50*l.*, id. s.60.

70. The receivers-general, their deputies, surveyors, inspectors, and all other persons employed in executing any acts for granting duties to be assessed under the regulations hereof, shall follow the orders received from any 3 or more commissioners of the treasury, id. s.61.

71. One moiety of all pecuniary penalties and forfeitures hereby, or by any of the acts in last pl. mentioned, shall, if sued for within 12 calendar months from the time of their being incurred, and in manner herein next mentioned, be to H. M., and the other moiety, with costs, to the informer or person suing within the time aforesaid, except where any penalty shall be directed to be paid to the poor of any parish; and all such penalties may be sued for in the exchequer at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng. or Ber., or in the courts of great sessions in Wa., for offences in Wa., by action of debt or information, wherein no essoin, &c., nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed; but the attorney general, in case it appears to his satisfaction that any penalty was incurred without intention of fraud, may stay all further proceedings in such suits, by entering a non prosequi, or otherwise, as well with respect to the informer's as H. M.'s shares, id. s.62.

72. But any such penalty shall be recoverable in the name of the attorney-general on the part of H. M. by information in exchequer at Westminster; and in default of prosecution within the time limited, no such penalty shall be afterwards recoverable in any other manner; in all which cases, (except where it is directed to be paid to the use of the poor of a parish or place), the whole penalty shall belong to H. M.; and all penalties, and shares of penalties incurred as aforesaid, belonging to H. M., shall be paid into the hands of the proper receiver-general or his deputy, to H. M.'s use, and in all cases where the whole of such pecuniary penalty is recovered for H. M.'s use, the commissioners of taxes may cause such reward as they think fit, not exceeding one moiety, after deducting all charges of recovering the same, to be paid thereout to any informer being entitled thereto, id. s.63.

73. Pecuniary penalties not exceeding 20*l.* imposed by any assessed taxes acts, are recoverable before 2 or more commissioners for executing this act; and also the penalties exceeding 20*l.* if directed to be added to the assessments; and such commissioners shall take cognizance of such offences on information or complaint in writing made to them, and on a summons to the accused to appear before them at such time and place as they shall fix, or without such summons, in case the party has been surcharged before them, and has appealed against the same, and shall appear on such appeal before the commissioners, who shall examine into the fact, and determine the same in a summary way, and on proof made thereof, either by confession of the accused, or by oath or affirmation of one or more credible witnesses, or otherwise as the case requires, shall give judgment for the penalty, or for such part thereof to which the same shall be mitigated, it not being in any case less than one moiety, and shall assess the same on the party, and charge it in the assessment to which the penalty adjudged shall particularly relate, and in addition to the duty, in case the party is charged therewith: and which penalties so adjudged shall be levied in like manner as the said duties, and the informer shall in all such cases, (except where the penalty is to be paid to the poor of any parish or place, in which case the receiver-general shall pay the same either to the churchwardens or overseers, or one of them), be entitled to receive from the receiver-general one moiety of the amount of such penalties, in such shares, where 2 or more of them are concerned, as the commissioners for executing this act shall certify to the commissioners of taxes that they are respectively entitled unto, and the adjudication of the commissioners shall be final, without power of appeal, 43 G. 3. c. 99. s. 64.

74. The proceedings of the commissioners shall not be removeable by any process whatever into any court of law or equity, or be subject to revision, except where a surcharge is made, and a case demanded and stated for the opinion of one of the justices or barons of the superior courts, conformably to any act or acts granting the duties to which such surcharges relate, id. ibid.

75. Persons giving false evidence before commissioners, are all liable to the punishments of perjury, id. s. 65.

76. Indictments for perjury committed on examination before them, shall be tried in the courts where the deposition shall be exhibited, id. s. 66.

77. All duplicates of books of assessments and all other books and papers relative to the duties are declared to be the property of the commissioners of the districts for the time being, and in succession, and shall be deposited in their custody, or that of their clerks, as they at their meetings shall appoint, id. s. 67.

78. All persons having in possession any such books or papers relating to the above duties, shall, in one calendar month next after notice in writing, signed by 3 or more commissioners for taxes (a true copy being given to or left at the usual abodes), deliver up all such books and papers, unto such person as the said commissioners shall appoint (whose receipt shall be a good discharge), to be delivered by the latter to the commissioner for executing this act, on penalty of 50*l.* for neglect or refusal to deliver the same to the persons so appointed, id. s. 68.

79. Commissioners employed in execution of this or any other assessed tax act, are not liable to the penalties in 25 C. 2. c. 2. by reason of such execution, id. s. 69.

80. Every action brought for any thing done in pursuance of any act for granting duties to be assessed under the regulations hereof, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months next after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where the complaint arose, and no process shall be sued out for commencement of such action, till one calendar month next after notice in writing delivered to, or left at the usual abode of such person, by the attorney or agent for plaintiff; in which notice shall be clearly contained, the cause of action, the name and abode of the plaintiff, and of his attorney, and no evidence shall be given on trial of such action of any cause of action not contained in such notice; and the defendant to whom such notice is delivered, may at any time before expiration of such calendar month, tender amends to the plaintiff or his attorney, and in case they are not accepted, may plead such tender in bar to any action to be brought against him, grounded on such notice, writ, or process; and deft. may plead the general issue, and such tender, and any other plea with leave of the court in bar of such action, giving this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial thereupon; and if the jury shall find for deft. in such action, or if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues after appearance, and if on demurrer judgment is given against him, deft. has treble costs, with like remedy for the same as any deft. hath in any other case to recover costs by law; and every such action brought against any collector appointed under this act, shall be defended by the commissioners acting for the division or place where he is appointed; and the costs attending the same, as also any other action to be brought by or against commissioners or collectors in pursuance hereof, or for any thing done in pursuance of this act, or of any act for granting duties to be assessed hereinafter, shall be defrayed by assessment made on the parish or place for which such collectors have been appointed, in a just proportion to the amount of the duties payable under this act, on the respective persons charged to the same in the assessment to be made next after the time when the said costs shall have been incurred, id. s. 70. [in Schedule (A.) is given the form of oath required to be taken by commissioners before acting in their office; in Schedule (B.) that of assessors: they seem unnecessary here.]

81. FOR REPEALING THE SEVERAL DUTIES UNDER THE MANAGEMENT OF THE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE AFFAIRS OF TAXES, 43 G. 3. c. 161. [commencing 5th April 1804, id. s. 87. AMD. 48 G. 3. c. 55. CONF. id. s. 3. BOTH acts AMD. as to Scot., 52 G. 3. c. 95. See the title.] [ss. 18—22. of 43 G. 3. c. 161. are placed at the end of 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (A.) after 57 G. 3. c. 25. s. 5. as adopted thereby, and ss. 10—15. and s. 17. are for the like reason placed at the end of Sch. (B.) after 57 G. 3. c. 25. s. 4.; that part of s. 79. which is in force is placed with 48 G. 3. c. 55. s. 7.]

The duties in the schedules hereof are REP., 48 G. 3. c. 55. s. 2. and the Schedules with the rules and exemptions therein by 48 G. 3. c. 55. s. 5., 52 G. 3. c. 95. s. 3.]

82. The duties by this act granted in Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be assessed and collected under the regulations of 43 G. 3. c. 99. and those so granted in Scot. under those of 43 G. 3. c. 150. and every thing in those acts shall be duly observed and put in execution throughout the respective parts of G. B. and Scot. as effectually as if herein repeated, and shall be consolidated herewith, 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 5.

83. For better execution of this act, and for ordering, levying, and paying the several sums thereby made payable, all the commissioners for executing the land-tax act, 38 G. 3. c. 5. who are respectively qualified to act, and have taken the oaths as directed by 43 G. 3. c. 99. shall be commissioners for this act, in all places soever within Eng., Wa., and Ber. and in all the shires, stewartries, cities, and boroughs in Scot., and the several sums so levied shall be under management of the commissioners for taxes, id. s. 6.

84. The sheriffs depute and substitute in Scot. shall by virtue of their offices without other qualification, execute this act, and 43 G. 3. c. 99. as commissioners in their respective shires or stewartries, id. s. 7.

85. The assessors and collectors appointed by such commissioners for any parish or place, in pursuance of 43 G. 3. c. 99. shall be the assessors and collectors of the several duties hereby granted, and the latter shall cause notice of their appointments to be given to such persons; and the several commissioners, inspectors, surveyors, assessors, and collectors, are hereby empowered to do all things in relation to the duties hereby granted, which they may respectively do and execute in relation to the duties mentioned in 43 G. 3. c. 99. and shall severally be liable to like penalties for neglect or omission, fraud, or abuse in executing the same, as are thereby inflicted on such officers for the like offences, id. s. 8.

86. The inspectors or surveyors authorized to execute 43 G. 3. c. 99. shall respectively have survey and inspection of the duties hereby payable within G. B. as aforesaid, and shall take accounts of the several dwelling houses therein, and of the servants, carriages, horses, mules, and dogs, kept by any person whatever, and of the several persons liable to the other duties in this act, and of the duties chargeable in respect thereof, and shall examine the assessments or certificates thereof made, and execute all things belonging thereto, according to 43 G. 3. c. 99. but no inspector or surveyor shall act as commissioner under this act, id. s. 9.

87. Any two or more such commissioners, and any one or more of such surveyors, inspectors, and assessors, or any person authorized by them, or any of them, shall have liberty at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies or extracts from any books of poor rates kept by any parish officers, or of any other public taxes, assessments or contributions under management of the kirk sessions in the respective parts of G. B. in any place within their respective limits; and every person who shall refuse or neglect to permit such inspection or copies to be made or taken, shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, id. s. 16.

88. Every assessment of the said duties made in Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be in force for one whole year, commencing from 5th April, in the year in which it is made, and ending on 5th April then next, and the said duties shall be paid by quarterly instalments on 20th June for the quarter commencing from the 5th April, and ending 5th July; on the 20th Sept. for the quarter commencing from the 5th July, and ending 10th Oct.; and on the 20th Dec., for the quarter commencing from the 10th Oct. and ending on the 10th Jan.; and on the 20th March, for the quarter commencing 5th Jan. and ending 5th April in every year, the first payment thereof to be made on the 20th June 1804; and 2 or more commissioners shall as soon as the assessment is made issue out and deliver to the respective collectors their warrants for levying and collecting the said duties, as they shall become payable, by quarterly instalments as aforesaid; and such part as cannot be so levied and collected may be recoverable as a debt upon record to H. M. with full costs of suit, and all charges, and when so recovered shall be paid to the receiver-general in aid of the parish or place answerable for the same, id. s. 23.

89. Every assessment of the said duties in Scot. shall be in force for one whole year, commencing from 24th May in the year in which it is made, and ending on the 24th May next following; and the said duties shall be paid by half-yearly instalments on the days hereinafter mentioned, on or before the 29th Sept. and 25th March in every year; the first payment thereof to be made on or before 29th Sept. 1804; and such payments shall be made by the person charged with duty, his executors or administrators, to the collector of the duties personally, or at his office, who shall, on payment give acquittances, (without taking any thing for such receipt, the stamp duty for the same excepted) [QU. if in force?] unto the several payers, which shall be a full discharge to them against H. M. his heirs and successors; and every person so charged shall, in case of not paying the same on the day on which they are hereby appointed to pay the same, or within 5 days thereafter, forfeit treble the value and extent of the duty with which they stand charged, to be recovered as such duties may be recovered by 43 G. 3. c. 99., 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 24.

90. The assessors for every year, within 21 days after the commencement of the respective duties for each year, shall cause general notices to be affixed on the doors of the church or chapel, or market house or cross (if any) of the city, parish, or place for which they shall act; and if there be none, then on the nearest church or chapel door of any adjoining parish, requiring all residents in the said city, &c. who are hereby required so to do, to make out and deliver to their assessors, within 14 days after the date of such notice, such lists or declarations as are herein required; and such general notice so affixed, shall be sufficient notice of the time within which such returns shall be required to be made in each year, to all such residents, &c. and such affixing shall be deemed good service of such notice to all persons within the limits of such city, &c. and the assessors shall replace the notices from time to time (if necessary) during 14 days previous to the time required for delivery of such lists or declarations; and every person wilfully tearing or defacing any such notice so affixed, shall forfeit for every offence not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 5*l.* id. s. 25.

91. Besides such general notices, the respective assessors shall within the periods before mentioned, in every year, give or leave at every dwelling house, where any person liable or supposed to be liable to the several duties, or any of them, shall usually reside within the limits of the places for which such assessors act, one notice for the occupier thereof; and where such dwelling house is let in different apartments, and occupied distinctly by different persons or families, a like notice for the occupier of each distinct story or apartment, provided any person liable or supposed to be liable shall reside there, and also a like notice for every person so liable, then residing in such dwelling house as a lodger or inmate, within the knowledge of such assessor or assessors, requiring them to produce, within 21 days next ensuing the date of such notice, a list or declaration in writing in the form and manner hereinafter required, id. s. 26.

92. Every person liable to the said duties shall, in every year subsequent to the respective days appointed for commencement of them, within 6 weeks thereafter, whether any previous notice for that purpose has been delivered or not, cause to be prepared and delivered to the respective assessors, lists of the greatest number of servants or other male persons retained or employed, and of carriages, horses, mules, and dogs kept by such person, or of his having used or exercised the business of an horse-dealer, coachmaker, maker, or seller of carriages by auction, or on commission; or of having worn or used hair powder, or any armorial bearings or ensigns, at any one time in the course of the preceding year ending on the preceding 5th April, which lists shall be prepared as hereby prescribed, and such person shall renew the same in the same manner in every year so long as he shall be liable to any such duties; and such persons shall annually be chargeable to the duties according to such lists, [sed vide s. 31. pl. 94.] and the assessment shall be for the year in which the returns shall or ought to have been made, 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 28. [Hackney-coach keepers excused from making such returns, 56 G. 3. c. 66. s. 10. infra.]

93. If any person shall neglect or refuse to make out, sign, and deliver any such lists within the times herein mentioned, then the assessors shall, from the best information they can obtain, make an assessment upon such person in respect of any of the duties, according to the rates specified in the schedules, and shall include the same in the certificate of the assessment to be delivered to the commissioners as herein directed; and every such assessment made on any such neglect, &c. shall be final on the person thereby charged, without liberty of appeal, unless he shall prove that he was not at his abode at the delivery of such notice, nor between that day and the time limited for delivering such list to the assessor, or unless he prove such other excuse for his default as the commissioners shall think sufficient, id. s. 30. [See also, 48 G. 3. c. 141. s. 1. No. 3. RULE 2.]

94. Such assessors shall not be bound by the lists delivered in pursuance of s. 28. but if on due examination they find any omission, may make a true assessment on the party of the real charge which ought to be imposed on him, id. s. 31.

95. Every occupier in whose dwelling-house or apartment any person liable to the duties by this act made payable, shall reside as a lodger or inmate, shall, for the purpose of making accurate returns, cause the contents of the notice left at his dwelling-house to be read over and made known to each lodger or inmate not having received a like notice, requiring them respectively to declare to such occupier, and attest the return to be made, whether he be liable to, or exempted from either or all of the said duties, or whether he have another place of ordinary residence where he intends to be charged; and every such resident, being thereunto required shall make such declaration, and attest such return to be made on penalty of 50*l.* for refusal: with a like penalty on occupiers of dwelling-houses neglecting to require such declaration, or to insert it in their respective returns to the assessors, id. s. 32.

96. Every occupier of any dwelling house or separate apartment who shall not return such list of lodgers or inmates, or shall omit any who ought to be returned thereon, and who to his knowledge has worn hair powder, or used any armorial bearings within the period for which the return should be made, shall be liable to prosecution for the above penalty, and deemed guilty thereupon, whether it appears that the person in question hath or hath not made a return for himself at any other place, or hath or hath not been, or is liable to prosecution for any offence against this act; and the conviction of any such offender shall not exempt the persons omitted or not returned from paying the duty imposed or from prosecution or punishment for any offence against this act; provided that any lodger or inmate residing in any dwelling-house at the time of making such return, who shall have an ordinary place of residence elsewhere, shall be returned as ordinarily residing in such other place, 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 52.

97. The assessors shall, on receipt of any list containing the name of any lodger or inmate returned liable, give or leave the like notice for every such person to prepare and produce, within the like period, a list or declaration signed as aforesaid; who shall, within 21 days after such notice left, make out and sign a list or declaration as in s. 28. pl. 92. directed on penalty of 50*l.* for neglecting to deliver any such list or declaration, id. s. 33.

98. Every person having divers places of residence within G. B. or keeping any servants or other male persons herein described, carriages, horses, mules, or dogs, at divers places in G. B., and every person being an inmate or lodger at the time of such notices being given as aforesaid, and having an ordinary residence at some other place, whereat, or at one of which places he ought to be charged, shall be obliged to deliver all such lists at each such place, and shall insert in every such list the name or description of each person, article, and thing for which such person is liable, or which ought to be returned according to the directions of this act; and shall also in every such list specify the particular persons, and number of each description of articles respectively intended to be paid for within the limits of the district, &c. where such list is delivered, and shall also at the same time make his declaration, to be inserted in such list, and signed by him, specifying the particular counties or county, and parish, &c. wherein each such other place of his or her residence is situate, and also the particular counties, &c. or parishes, &c. wherein the said duties, or any part thereof are intended to be paid, id. s. 34.

99. If any person having delivered his declaration to pay the said duties in any parish, &c. other than in that where such list is delivered, shall not return a list in such other parish, &c. according to such declaration, in order to his being regularly brought into charge by the assessors for such other parish, &c. he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 35.

100. Every person claiming exemption allowed by this act, by any schedules hereunto annexed, (C. D. E. F. G. H. I. or K.) [This applies to the corresponding schedules in 48 G. 3. c. 55. see note to pl. 81.] except the royal family, where they are specially exempt, shall make a due return thereof, and declare the cause of such exemptions, such declarations to be specified in or annexed to the lists by him delivered; and if any dispute arises relative to such exemption, the proof thereof shall lie on the person claiming, who, on any charge or surcharge before such commissioners, or on any suit or prosecution, may allege the same on oath or affirmation, or prove the same by lawful evidence to be produced by him; but no such exemption shall be allowed, unless the same, and the cause thereof, has been so duly returned to the assessor, id. s. 36.

101. Every person liable to any of the said duties, in respect whereof a list or declaration ought to be delivered, or coming within any of the exemptions herein contained, who shall neglect to deliver a list or declaration according to this act, in every place where it ought to be delivered, or who shall omit any person, description, or thing which ought to be contained therein, or who shall make an untrue return of any particular therein, shall forfeit 50*l.* above any duty chargeable as aforesaid, id. s. 37.

102. The penalty hereby last imposed shall not be sued for in any case where defendant before commencement of suit has been surcharged for the same, and assessed in double the duty, or any proportion thereof, id. s. 38.

103. Where any persons shall employ servants, or keep carriages, horses, mules, or dogs, at places where they have no places of residence, and where persons liable to the duties come into or reside in places after the time hereby appointed for returning the above lists, not having been charged therein, or having no fixed residence, the assessors, surveyors, or inspectors for such places in every case within their knowledge respectively, shall deliver or leave the above notices at the house where such persons reside or are, or where such servants, carriages, &c. are kept; and all such persons, and every person having care of such servants, carriages, &c. shall deliver such lists so signed by them respectively, conformably to the above directions, to the assessors, &c. within the respective districts or limits where any such servants, carriages, &c. are kept, or where such persons shall then reside or be, within 21 days after delivery of such notices; and shall also deliver to them respectively a declaration where they, or the persons to whom such servants, carriages, &c. do belong, have been assessed for that year to the above duties, together with the usual abode of themselves, or of the persons to whom the servants or carriages, &c. under their care belong, and the names of such persons; or if no such assessment, or no sufficient one has then been made, then where they or the persons to whom such servants, carriages, &c. do belong have delivered their lists, in order to their being so assessed, under penalty of 50*l.* as in s. 32. pl. 95.; and every person appearing by such return, or otherwise, not to have been assessed in the full sum to which he is liable, or not to have returned the lists hereby required in order to his being so assessed in some other place in G. B., or who shall not make any such return, may be chargeable to all the duties by this act payable, and for which returns ought to be made, either in the parish or place where such last-mentioned notice is delivered, as if such person actually resided therein, or in the parish, &c. where they ordinarily reside; and every person on whom such notice is served, and who shall remove from such place, without having delivered such list or declaration, shall forfeit 50*l.* 43 G. S. c. 161. s. 39.

104. Every person letting to hire any horses so as not to be chargeable to the stamp office duty on horses let to hire, or letting any servants or carriages, shall annually return a list of the greatest number of such servants, carriages, and horses kept by him at any time in the prior year, in like manner, within and for the like period, and under like penalties, as returns of other servants, &c. subject to duties by this act, are directed to be made; which list shall specify the name and abode of the person for whose use or service such servants, &c. have been or are employed, and the number of each let to hire to every such person, and the period of each letting, according to the number of servants, &c. contained in such list; and the duties by this act payable shall be charged on the person letting or hiring such servants, &c. as the case may require, id. s. 40.

105. Where any person shall hire any horses, so that the stamp office duty on horses let to hire, shall not be chargeable on such letting; or shall hire or have hired any servants or carriages, then such hirer shall annually return a list of the greatest number of such servants, &c. to the assessors of the parish, &c. where such hirer shall reside or be at the time such return ought to be made, as the case requires in like manner, within and for the like period, and under like penalties as returns of other servants, &c. exempted from the said annual duties by this act are directed to be made; and shall specify the name and abode of the person by whom such servants, &c. are let to hire, and the period of each letting, id. s. 41.

106. Where any horses are let to hire so as not to render the person letting the same liable to stamp office duty, or where any servants or carriages are let to hire, and the hirer thereof does not make such return as by this act required, then the duties chargeable in respect thereof for one year may be charged on and paid by the person hiring, by surcharge of the assessor, &c. above the penalty incurred for any neglect or omission as aforesaid, unless the person letting the same has been charged for the same servants, &c. respectively; and if any dispute arises whether the person so letting to hire any servants, &c. has been charged for the same, the proof thereof shall be on the hirer of such servants, &c. so surcharged, who, on such surcharge, may allege the same on oath, or solemn affirmation, or prove it by lawful evidence to be produced by him; provided that the hirer shall not be exempted, unless the exemption, and its cause, have been duly returned to the assessors as aforesaid; and where the duties are chargeable on the hirer of such servants, &c. so defaulting as above, the progressive duties made payable thereon, by Sched. (C. D. and E.) respectively, shall be charged, id. s. 42. [This applies to the corresponding schedules in 48 G. S. c. 55. see pl. 81.]

107. Every inhabitant householder of any lodging house, in which any lodger shall reside, liable to any of the above duties, of which lists are hereby required to be delivered, shall enter in a book an account of every person so liable; and every livery-stable keeper, or other person receiving any horses or carriages to stand at livery, or delivered to him to be kept, shall also enter in a book an account of every carriage or horse so standing at livery, or delivered to be kept by him; and every person letting horses to hire so as not to be chargeable to any duty thereon, or letting any servants or carriages, shall also enter in a book an account of such horses, servants, &c. the number thereof, and periods of each letting, the names of such servants, and descriptions of such carriages; and every horse-dealer shall also enter in a book the number of horses kept by him, whether for sale or use, distinguishing the number kept for sale, and that for use, and to what duty the same are liable; and every such coachmaker or maker of carriages, shall also enter in a book the number and kinds of carriages by him constructed for sale, distinguishing the number of wheels of each, the number sold, the names, abodes of the purchasers, and the days on which each carriage was sent out of his shop, and every seller of carriages by auction or on commission as aforesaid, shall also enter in a book the number and kinds of carriages sold by him, distinguishing the number of wheels of each, and the days on which they were sold; all which books shall, at all reasonable times in the daytime, be open to inspection by the assessor, &c. of the place where such person resides, and every person hereby required to keep such accounts, shall, if in Eng. Ws. and Ber., within 20 days after 5th July and 10th Oct. 1804, and within 20 days after 5th Jan. and 5th April, 5th July, and 10th Oct. in every subsequent year, and if in Scot. within 20 days after 29th Sept. and 25th March yearly, deliver a true copy in writing of every entry made in such books within the preceding quarter, containing the several things before directed, to the assessors of the parish or place where he resides, for use of the surveyor, or inspector; or to such surveyor, &c. and when required so to do by such surveyor, &c. every such person, or his chief servant, workman, or manager, shall make oath, (or, being a quaker,) affirmation of the truth of such account, to the best of his belief, and every such copy shall express the Christian and surname of every person required to be entered therein, and the place of his usual residence; and any such person neglecting to keep such account, or to deliver such copy thereof, or wilfully omitting any description which ought to be contained therein, shall forfeit 50*l.* 43 G. S. c. 161. s. 43.

108. The commissioners for taxes shall cause to be prepared and issued to every person applying for the same, and leaving his name and abode in writing at the tax-office, or with any surveyor of the duties for the district where the applicant resides, proper forms for entering the accounts by s. 43. required to be kept; and every such account shall, at the end of each year (all such entries as aforesaid being required to be first duly made) be signed by the party with his own proper name, in his usual manner of writing or signing the same, and returned to the assessor of the place where the party resides, for use of the surveyor or inspector as above, or to such surveyor, &c. as the commissioners direct, at the times in last pl. required; and in default of such application, the party shall be obliged to provide proper forms for the purpose, and shall cause such entries to be duly made therein, the same to be signed and delivered to the assessor, surveyor, &c. in like manner as above directed, and every person neglecting to deliver such accounts duly filled up and signed, within the times so limited for making such returns, shall forfeit 50*l.* 43 G. S. c. 141 s. 44.

109. The assessor, surveyor, &c. to whom such account is delivered by any maker, or seller of carriages as above, shall forthwith return to the respective commissioners a certificate of the number of carriages constructed or sold within the period of such account, and the duty chargeable on them, which commissioners shall cause an assessment to be made on the amount contained in each certificate, and added to the assessment of the other duties charged in the same parish or place, causing the same to be inserted in the collector's duplicate, who shall demand, receive, and collect the same, at the same times and under same warrant as the other duties are paid to such collector, id. s. 45.

110. Every gatekeeper of or on any turnpike road, by whom any certificate is filed of any horses let to hire, so as not to subject the hirer thereof to any stamp office duty payable by the laws then in force, and every farmer of the latter duty, to whom such certificate is delivered by such gatekeeper, according to the laws then in force, shall at all reasonable times permit the surveyors, &c. of the duties hereby made payable, to inspect such certificates gratis, and to take such copies or extracts thereof, as they think necessary for securing payment of the duties; and every person wilfully refusing to permit such inspection, or copy to be taken, shall forfeit 100*l.* id. s. 46.

111. The name and abode of every person licensed to let post horses by the commissioners of stamps, shall annually be transmitted by them to the tax office, whenever the duties are not let to farm, or otherwise by the farmers and collectors thereof, id. s. 47.

112. Every person having divers places in G. B., whereat he shall exercise the business of a horse-dealer, and being desirous of paying the said duties at one of such places, such places not being within different limits, as in schedule (H), subjecting him to different duties, shall be obliged to deliver a declaration at each place, declaring therein the particular county, parish or place, where he intends or ought to be charged for the said duty, to enable the assessor at such place to charge the same accordingly, on pain that every offender in any of the above particulars shall be chargeable at either place, and for neglect in making such return, shall forfeit 20*l.*; provided that every person exercising the said trade in London, Westminster, their liberties, or in St. Mary-le-Bone and St. Pancras, in Middlesex, the weekly bills of mortality or Southwark, shall pay the duties in respect thereof in each place where such business is carried on within the last-mentioned limits, and not elsewhere, id. s. 48. [see as to Schedule (H.) the note to pl. 81.]

113. The commissioners of taxes may cause such lists of names and abodes of persons having made returns in pursuance of this act, or of persons charged to the duties by this act payable, to be made out for inspection by any persons who shall make application to inspect the same, as to them seems necessary for better execution of this act, and may authorize copies of such lists to be made out, in such manner by the several inspectors, surveyors, and officers employed under them, and at such times as to the commissioners seem fit, all which lists and copies, signed by any inspector, &c. authorized by the commissioners, shall be evidence in all courts, and before all persons acting in execution of this act, and for which copies 1s. only, may be taken for the return of each person contained therein, 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 49.

114. The commissioners of taxes, under direction of treasury, may, from time to time, publish in the several counties, divisions, &c. and places, lists containing the names of persons charged to the duties, in such manner as they shall direct; and every person wilfully tearing, defacing or removing any such list from any church or chapel door, or market cross, whereon it is affixed, shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 50.

115. Every person assessed under this act, who shall remove out of the limits of the collectors charged to collect the duties, without first paying all those then due, and without leaving within such limits sufficient goods whereon the arrears may be levied, shall forfeit besides the said duties, the sum of 20*l.*, id. s. 51.

116. Every person chargeable as above, who, by changing residence, or other fraud, shall escape taxation, and not be charged, which is proved before any 2 or more commissioners acting in execution of this act, where such person resides, within one year next after such charge ought to have been made, shall be charged in his assessment at treble the duties he should have been charged; the same, on non-payment, to be levied on his goods, lands, and hereditaments, id. s. 53.

117. Where any person, chargeable with the above duties, is under 21, or shall die, the parents and guardians of such infants, and the executors and administrators of the persons so dying shall be liable to and charged with the payments due from such infants, and persons so dying; and if such parents, &c. or executors, &c., shall not so pay as above, they may be proceeded against in like manner as other defaulters; and all parents, &c. making such payment as aforesaid, shall be allowed all sums paid for such infants, in their accounts; and all executors, &c. may deduct such payments out of the assets and effects of deceased, id. s. 54.

118. Where, in the assessment of any parish, ward, or place, under the rules in Sch. (A), or (B), (see note to p. 8.) the said duties shall be charged on the landlord, or owner of any dwelling-house let in different apartments, stories, tenements, lodgings, lands, or landings, and not on the respective occupiers thereof, and the landlord shall not reside in such parish or place, or shall not have sufficient goods therein whereon the duties may be levied, and shall not have paid the same, the collector may then demand the same of the tenant, or occupier thereof, and on non-payment may levy the same on his goods, &c. by distress and sale as if the same were charged on such tenant, &c.; and the latter shall pay the sums so assessed, and deduct out of the rent of such apartments, &c. such payments as the landlord has been charged with; and the latter, both mediate and immediate, shall allow such payments on receipt of the residue of the rent, and shall be acquitted of so much money as the said assessments shall amount to, as if the same had actually been paid unto such landlord, id. s. 55.

119. In Eng., Wa., or Ber., the ward, parish, or place in which any such assessment is made, shall be answerable for the amount of the duties charged in such ward, &c., and for the same being duly demanded of the respective persons charged therewith, within 10 days after the same are payable by this act by the collector of such ward, &c., and also for such collector or his executors, &c., duly paying the sums received by such collector to the receiver-general according to this act, and to 43 G. 3. c. 99: and every arrear of such duties arising from the above default, or by failure of any collector for which any ward, &c. is answerable, shall be re-assessed upon such ward, &c. as soon after such default is discovered as convenient, and shall respectively be charged on the amount of the assessment made for the same duties in the year commencing from 5*th* April preceding such re-assessment, by duly apportioning such arrear among the several persons assessed in that year to the same duties respectively on which such arrear has accrued, according to each person's assessment, as nearly as the case admits, and by the like rules and powers of levying the same, by which the original assessment of the same duties was made, id. s. 56.

120. In case the duties assessed in Scot. are not paid to the receiver-general by any failure of the collector, either in performance of his duty, or in not paying over the monies received by him according to the said acts, and if any deficiency remains after diligence used against such collector, or his sureties, or in case of death, against his executors or administrators, then the commissioners for executing this act for the shire, stewartry, city, or borough in Scot., where such failure has happened, shall cause the deficient sum to be re-assessed on the persons subjected to payment of the like duties in the year when the re-assessment is made, by duly apportioning the amount amongst them according to each person's assessment as near as the case will admit, and by the like rules and powers of levying the same by which the original assessments were made, 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 57.

121. No person shall be assessed to rate or contribution to the poor, or to the highway duty, or commutation of statute labour, in respect of any duties payable by this act, but such owners and occupiers shall continue rateable to the said rates, &c. as before this act, id. s. 58.

122. The payment of any of the above duties by any person, in any parish or place, shall not entitle the payer to a settlement therein, id. s. 59.

123. Every assessor, inspector, and surveyor, may, at seasonable times, taking to his assistance when necessary, a constable, headborough, tythingman, or other parish peace officer, may examine each dwelling-house, to ascertain the number of windows or lights therein, and their dimensions, and the annual rent at which it ought to be charged; and for so doing may pass through any house, and go into any court, or premises thereto belonging, and externally inspect the windows, &c. therein, and measure such windows externally, that cannot be conveniently seen, numbered, or measured, without passing through such house; and may also make like inspection twice a year; and in case of dispute touching the dimensions of any window, &c., the proof shall lie on the occupier, who shall cause the same to be duly admeasured at his proper costs, and verified before 2 or more such commissioners, on the oath or affirmation of the person admeasuring the same, id. s. 60.

124. Where any dwelling-house is divided into distinct tenements, requiring each to be separately assessed, every assessor, &c. shall take an account of the number of windows in each tenement, and for that purpose may enter the same, and view, number, and measure such windows therein, as well internally as externally, id. s. 61.

125. The respective assessors under this act, shall bring in their certificates of assessments in writing under their hands, within the time limited by 43 G. 3. c. 99., to be verified as therein directed, of every dwelling-house, inhabited or uninhabited, within the limits of those places for which they are to act, and of the number of windows or lights in each house, and the full and just yearly rent which every such house, with the offices and premises hereby charged, is really worth, estimated according to this act, together with the names and surnames of the several occupiers or inhabitants of each house, and also the greatest number of male servants, or carriages, horses, mules, and dogs, kept or used, within the preceding year, for which the persons retaining, keeping, or using the same, ought to be assessed to any of the duties hereby made payable for the current year, within the limits of those places for which they act, and the names and surnames of such several persons, and of all persons within such limits liable to the duties, in respect of their trades of horse-dealers, or makers or sellers of carriages by auction, or on commission, or of hair powder, or any armorial bearings or ensigns worn or used by them, and of the several sums they respectively ought to pay by virtue hereof, in each case respectively, without concealment or favour; and also the names and surnames of those who have claimed exemptions, and the causes thereof, under the penalty in 43 G. 3. c. 99. observing the regulations of that act as to the time of bringing in such certificates, id. s. 62.

126. The surveyors or inspectors appointed as herein mentioned, shall inspect and examine all the returns made by any persons according to this act, and also all the assessments made for any parish or place, as well before as after the commissioners have signed and allowed the said assessments, and before such allowance, may correct and amend the same, if they shall see fit; and every person in whose custody any such lists or assessments are, shall, on request of any such surveyor or inspector, deliver the same into his custody for the purposes of this act, taking his receipt for the same; and he shall produce the same on request of such surveyor, &c., who shall take charge of the same, till he has taken such copies of or extracts therefrom, as may be necessary for his and their better information; and if any surveyor or inspector shall, after any such lists or assessments are so respectively made out, signed, and allowed, find that any person who ought to be charged with any of the said duties, hath been omitted to be charged, or hath been under-rated, or that any person liable to the said duties, in respect of which such lists or declarations ought to have been delivered, hath not made the return by this act required, or hath omitted any person or thing, which ought to have been returned, so that he shall not have been charged to the amount which ought to be paid by him, or that any exemption has been claimed which is not hereby allowed, then the said surveyor, &c. shall certify the same in writing under his hand, with an account of every default and omission, with the name or description of the person or thing not returned or omitted, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and the full amount of the duty which ought to be paid by way of surcharge to any 2 or more commissioners for this act, in order to have the same rectified in the said assessment; and such commissioners, on delivery of any such certificate, and on oath being first made that the notice hereinafter directed was given to, or left in writing at the dwelling-house or other abode of the person so surcharged, shall sign and allow the surcharges, and cause the assessments to be rectified, and the duties to be levied accordingly; and the inspectors, &c. shall give to every person so surcharged, or leave at his last or usual abode, notice in writing of such surcharge, and of the amount charged by virtue of such certificate; which surcharges the said inspectors, &c. may make from time to time, and at such times as directed by 43 G.3. c.99.; and such surcharges shall be made in the full amount of duty which ought to be charged by virtue of such certificate, in respect of the duties in sch. (A) and (B), and in double the duty which ought to be charged by virtue of such certificate, in respect of any of the duties contained in the other schedules hereto annexed, 43 G.3. c.161. s.63.

127. No assessment or surcharge made by any assessor, &c. by virtue of this act, shall be impeached by reason of any mistake or variance in the christian or surname of any person liable to any of the duties, or of any servant or other male person herein described, or in the description of their employments, of any carriage, horse, mule, or dog, as hereby required, or of the amount of the duty surcharged, whether such mistake or variance appears in the notice and certificate to be delivered or made in such case, or in either of them; but all such assessments, &c. shall be valid, notwithstanding such mistake, &c.; provided the notice of surcharge is delivered to, or left at the abode of the person intended to be so surcharged, according to this act; and the person intended to be described is liable to the said duties, or is a servant of or otherwise employed by the person so surcharged, or the carriage, &c. intended to be described, shall belong to, or the duty intended to be described, shall be chargeable on such person, id. s.64.

128. Any person to whom such notice of surcharge is given, on occasion of his neglect to make the return required at any time previous to that appointed for hearing appeals next after delivery of such notice, shall make out and deliver to the surveyor or inspector who has delivered the notice of surcharge, a true and complete list or declaration in the forms hereby directed, and as the case requires, so that he may from such last-mentioned lists or declarations so delivered, be charged to the said duties the full sum at which he ought to be hereby charged; but to every such list or declaration, shall be annexed an affidavit in writing, as in s.66. next pl., and if the surveyor or inspector is satisfied therewith, he shall certify such return and affidavit to 2 or more commissioners, with the amount of the duty to be charged, who shall cause the assessment to be made according to such certificate, and the same rate of duty, as in the schedules [the single duty see s.67.] to be charged on the person making such return without further delay; but if on examination of such list, declaration, or affidavit, the surveyor, &c. shall see just cause to object thereto, he shall thereupon certify such return and affidavit, with the cause of his objection, to 2 or more commissioners, who shall thereupon cause the assessment to be made according to such last-mentioned certificate, in double the amount of the duty at which such person is surcharged; and from which no abatement shall be made, unless on appeal as hereinafter directed, of which certificate, notice shall be given by the surveyor to the person to be charged thereby, id. s.65.

That the deponent was not at his or her dwelling-house or other abode, at the time appointed for the fixing or delivery of general or other notice, for making a return as required by this act, nor between that day and the time limited for making such return to the assessor, and that he or she had not any such notice; or, that he or she was disabled by sickness from making such return; or that the non-delivery of such return was occasioned by the following unavoidable mistake or accident, without any intention to defraud the revenue; viz. [here set forth the cause of such default] and that the return annexed to this affidavit is a full, perfect, and complete return of all matters and things required of the said deponent by this act, to the best of his or her judgment. Which affidavit may be taken before any commissioner acting for the place where the surcharge is made, or the party surcharged resides, and shall be signed by the party making it, id. s.66.

130. Any person to whom such notice of surcharge shall be given on occasion of his having omitted in the return made any person or description, or any article or thing contained therein, or of having claimed any exemption not allowed by this act, may amend such return, by delivering a new return according to the directions before given, annexing an affidavit to the effect hereinafter mentioned; and the surveyor, &c. may certify his satisfaction therewith, or objection thereto, as in s.65. pl. 128., according to which certificate the party surcharged shall be assessed in the single duty to the full amount, or in the double duty on the amount of the duty so surcharged, as the case requires, subject to like power of appeal from the double duty, and to the like proceedings, before given and directed, id. s.67.

131. Every such affidavit shall declare the cause of each omission, or claim of exemption, as well to matter of law as fact, whether the deponent persists in such omission or claim, or not, and also, that the return annexed to this affidavit is a full and complete return of all things required of the said deponent by this act, to the best of his judgment and belief, and that such omission or claim was not made with intention to defraud the revenue, which last-mentioned affidavit shall be made and signed as before directed, 43 G.3. c.161. s.68.

132. But an appeal may be made from any such assessment or surcharge, and heard and determined under the regulations of 43 G.3. c.99. and may be made as therein mentioned, and also in the case in s.70. of this act mentioned, id. s.69.

133. Every person who thinks himself overcharged or over-rated by any certificate of any inspector or surveyor, or by any assessment made in pursuance thereof, may appeal to the commissioners as they may appeal from any original assessment or surcharge by 43 G.3. c.99. [see pl. 35—40.] and on the hearing of such appeal, or the appeal against any original assessment or surcharge, the appellant shall in all cases where a list or declaration shall or ought to have been delivered by him to the assessor, produce before the commissioners a complete list and declaration, as the case requires, and verify the same on oath or affirmation, id. s.70.

134. On every surcharge confirmed by the commissioners on appeal, according to 43 G.3. c.99., and on every surcharge allowed by them on certificate of the surveyor or inspector, as hereby directed (except where sufficient returns, on affidavit, have been supplied as aforesaid) the assessments shall be made in the double duty prescribed in the schedules by this act provided, [R&R. see pl. 81, but see note to that pl.] to be added to the assessment, and inserted in the duplicates of the collectors, and collected and levied therewith, and paid to the receiver-general; but on every such appeal, if the commissioners are of opinion that there was any just cause of controversy on the part of the appellant, and that the alleged default or claim was not wilfully made, and with intention to defraud the revenue, they, (although they have confirmed or allowed the surcharge,) at the same time may remit and strike off any part of the double duty, not exceeding one moiety of the charge above the rates of duty prescribed by the schedules; and the assessor, &c. so making such surcharge, shall receive for his own use, from the receiver-general to whom the duties shall be paid, the overplus of the sum so charged above the said rates of duty, which overplus any 2 commissioners for this act, who have confirmed such surcharge, shall, at the same meeting, certify under their hands to the commissioners of taxes, whose certificate shall be a warrant to the receiver-general to pay the same, id. s.71.

135. If any inspector or surveyor wilfully makes any false or vexatious surcharge, or wilfully delivers to the commissioners for executing this act any false and vexatious certificate of charge, he shall forfeit to the party grieved, not exceeding 50*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt or information, in any court of record at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng. and in great sessions for offences in Wa., and in courts of session or exchequer for offences in Scot., with full costs; but nothing hereinbefore contained, nor any suit by the party grieved, in pursuance hereof, shall affect or defeat any action or information brought against any surveyor or inspector, in pursuance of 43 G.3. c.99., for any corrupt, vexatious, or illegal practices in execution of his office; and the judge before whom such inspector or surveyor have been convicted of such offence, by indorsement on the postea, or the court before whom such person is convicted, may mitigate the penalty at discretion, id. s.72.

136. All assessors, surveyors, inspectors, or appellants, dissatisfied with the determination of the commissioners, may require them to state specially, and to sign the case on which the question arose, together with the determination thereon, which case they, or the major part of them then present, shall state, and sign accordingly, and shall cause the same to be delivered to the party making such request as aforesaid, to be by him transmitted, if in Eng. Wa., or Ber. to one of the justices of K. B. or C. P., or to a baron of exchequer, and if in Scot. to one of the lords of session or barons of exchequer in Scot.; and if his opinion is in support of any surcharge, the assessment is made in the double duty, or is mitigated as determined on the appeal; but the instalment on the assessments, as allowed by the commissioners, shall become due precedent to the opinion of the judge being certified by him, and shall be collected and levied as if no such case had been transmitted, id. s.73.

137. On proof given to the commissioners of taxes, of the payment of any assessment which shall or ought to be reversed according to such opinion of a judge so obtained and certified, they shall direct the proper receiver-general to repay out of any money in his hands the amount overpaid, 45 G.3. c.72. s.3.

138. If, according to the opinion of any such judge to whom any case shall, at request of the appellant, be transmitted in pursuance of this act, the charge or surcharge shall be confirmed, the person so charged or surcharged shall, for the costs attending the same, pay to H. M. 40*s.*, in addition to the assessment or surcharge so confirmed, which costs shall be added to, and levied and collected with such assessment, and as part of the duties so assessed, 45 G.3. c.161. s.74.

139. Whenever any case so to be transmitted to any judge for his opinion thereon, in the manner hereby directed, has been obtained by any inspector, surveyor, or assessor, by reason of any surcharge, or any certificate not being allowed by the commissioners for executing this act, and the same is not returned within the time hereby limited for delivering the duplicates to the receivers-general, and H.M.'s remembrancer, whereby the passing the accounts of the receivers-general may be impeded, the commissioners may cause to be made out the duplicates of the several assessments required to be delivered to the receivers-general, and to H.M.'s remembrancer, exclusive of the sums so depending, that there may be no delay in paying into exchequer, the sums assessed and fully charged; and on the return of such opinion, whenever it happens, they shall cause separate assessments to be made out, including therein the names of the party in the case so transmitted, and the amount of the sums wherewith he ought to be charged, according to such opinion; and the sums so assessed shall be levied as any assessments may be levied, and paid to the respective receivers-general; and shall also cause true supplemental duplicates of all such separate assessments to be made out as soon as convenient, and delivered to the receivers-general, and also transmitted to H.M.'s remembrancer's office, for which supplemental duplicates, the proper officers shall give acquittances gratis, so as every of them may be duly charged to answer all their respective collections and receipts, 43 G.3. c.161. s.75.

140. If any person assessed under this act in one parish or district to any of the said duties, shall be again assessed in another on the same account, the commissioners for this act within such latter parish, &c. or the majority present, on any application for the purpose, shall alter any assessment of such person so assessed twice, on proof thereof before them, by oath or affirmation of the party, or some credible witness, that the several assessments are for the same cause, and on the same account, and by production of either a copy or certificate of the first assessment, signed by 2 or more commissioners of the district for which such first assessment has been made, to be verified on oath or affirmation as aforesaid, which copy or certificate the clerk of the commissioners shall deliver gratis to the party requiring it: or in default of such copy or certificate, proof thereof shall be made by other evidence on oath or affirmation, to satisfaction of the commissioners present, or their majority; and every person who shall, by any fraudulent contrivance whatever, procure any assessment to be altered, with intent to defraud H.M. of the duties, or any part thereof, shall, for every offence, forfeit 50*l.*, id. s.76.

141. No letters patent, exemptions from taxes, assessments, or aids, shall exempt any person or corporation from the duties; and all non-obstante's in such letters patent made in bar hereof are void, id. s.77.

142. Out of the monies arising from the duties, any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, or the high treasurer, may settle and appoint such salaries for the service of the surveyors, inspectors, and other officers employed in executing this act, and otherwise in relation thereto, and may discharge such incidental charges and expenses as shall necessarily attend the execution thereof, as they shall respectively think reasonable, id. s.78.

143. All pecuniary penalties and forfeitures imposed by this act, shall and may be recovered and applied as in 43 G.3. c.99. directed, in regard to the penalties thereby imposed, id. s.80.

144. The collectors in Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall pay the whole sums received by them under this act [quarterly, scnb. altered by 48 G.3. c.141. No. V. Rule 1st. post, 1520. to] half-yearly, to the respective receivers-general or their deputies, within [20, scnb. altered to] 3 days after the days appointed for payment thereof, at the places appointed by such receivers-general; who shall cause the same to be paid into exchequer at Westminster, before the end of the quarter in which it is received, according to 43 G.3. c.99. s.54. pl.62.; and in Scot. the same shall be paid half-yearly to the receiver-general at Edinburgh, viz. on or before the 25th Dec., for the first half-year's instalment of the said duties, and on or before the 24th June for the last half-year's instalment of the said duties in every year; and the receiver-general shall, within 40 days after the respective days, pay the same into exchequer, according to that act, id. s.81. [and see 1516, No. III. Rule 3d.]

145. All the above duties shall be carried to the consolidated fund, and entered in a book separate from all other monies payable to H.M., id. s.82.

146. The monies arising from the duties contained in the same schedule shall be paid into exchequer in one sum, and the account thereof there kept in one sum; and the monies arising from each schedule, marked (A., B., C., D., E., F., G., H., I., and K.), shall be so paid, separate and distinct from each other; and separate accounts shall be there kept of the same, id. s.83.

147. Every action brought against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, or any act for granting duties to be assessed under the regulations of this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months next after the fact committed and laid in the county or place where the cause of complaint arose, and not elsewhere; and no process shall be sued out for commencement of such action or suit, till one calendar month next after notice in writing delivered to or left at the usual abode of such person, by the attorney, for the intended plaintiffs, in which notice shall be explicitly contained the cause of action, the name and abode of the intended plaintiffs, and of his attorney, and no evidence shall be given on trial of such action or suit of any cause of action, but that contained in such notice; and the intended defendants to whom such notice has been delivered, may at any time before expiration of such calendar month tender amends to the intended plaintiff or his attorney; and in case they are not accepted, may plead such tender in bar to any action to be brought against them, grounded on such notice, &c.; and the defendants in every such action, may plead the general issue, and also such tender, and any other plea, with leave of the court in bar of such action; and may give this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial thereon; and if the jury find for defendant in any such action, or if plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues his action after appearance; and if, on demurrer, judgment is given against him, defendant shall have treble costs; and every such action brought against any collector appointed under this act, shall be defended by the commissioners acting for the division or place where he has been appointed, and the costs attending that, as also every other action brought by or against commissioners or collectors in pursuance hereof, or for any thing done in pursuance of the above acts, for granting duties to be assessed under the regulations hereof, shall be defrayed by an assessment made on the parish or place for which such collector has been appointed, in a just proportion to the amount of the duties payable on the respective persons charged to the same in the assessment to be made next after the time when the said costs shall have been incurred, id. s.86.

148. FOR REPEALING THE DUTIES OF ASSESSED TAXES, and granting new duties in lieu thereof, and certain additional duties to be consolidated therewith; and also for repealing the stamp duties on game certificates, and granting new duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, 48 G.3. c.55., [AMD., &c. by 50 G.3. c.104., 51 G.3. c.72., (both which acts are AMD. as to Scot. by 52 G.3. c.95.), also by 52 G.3. c.95. (see that act s.2.) 54 G.3. c.141., 56 G.3. c.66., 57 G.3. cc.25. 128., 58 G.3. cc.16. 17., 59 G.3. c.13. [s.2. of which is CONF. 1 & 2 G.4. c.113. s.37.] and id. c.118.; REGULATED as to s.7., (in part) by 43 G.3. c.161. s.79.; as to Sched. (A.) by id. ss.18—22.; Sched. (B.) by same act, ss.10—15. and s.17., (see ante, pl.81.) and scmb. as to exemptions from game certificate duties in Sched. (L.); by 44 G.3. c.98. Sched. (A.); REP. as to duties on husbandry horses by 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.1.]

149. From 5th April 1808, in Eng., Wa., and Ber., and after Whitsun-tern 1808, in Scot. instead of the duties in 43 G.3. c.161., 45 G.3. c.13. and 46 G.3. c.78. contained, and in s.2. hereof repealed, and for making such permanent increase as aforesaid, there shall be assessed, levied, and paid to and for the use of H.M., his heirs and successors, on houses, windows, and lights, as in sched. (A.); on inhabited houses as in sched. (B.); on all male servants and other male persons employed by any person in any of the several capacities mentioned in sched. (C.); on all carriages of any of the descriptions mentioned in sched. (D.); on all horses, mares, and geldings, kept for any of the purposes in sched. (E.); and on all other horses, &c. not before charged, and on mules, as in sched. (F.); on all dogs of any of the descriptions mentioned in sched. (G.); on all horse-dealers residing within the respective limits described in sched. (H.); and on all persons in respect of wearing or using hair powder, or any armorial bearings or ensigns, as in sched. (I.) and (K.), the several new and consolidated duties respectively set forth in the several schedules respectively marked as above; which several schedules, and duties, and rules therein respectively mentioned, shall be deemed and construed a part of this act, as if incorporated therewith, and under a special enactment, 48 G.3. c.55. s.1. [Additional duties in schedules (C., D., E., F., G., H., and L.), granted by 52 G.3. c.95. s.1.]

150. The duties contained in the several schedules annexed to 43 G.3. c.161., 45 G.3. c.13. and 46 G.3. c.78., shall, at the respective periods appointed by s.1. for commencement of the duties granted by this act, severally cease; except the several powers, penalties, and things contained in 43 G.3. c.161., for ascertaining, assessing, levying, paying, and accounting for the said duties, which powers, &c. are hereby respectively continued in full force for ascertaining, &c. the duties granted by this act; and also except all arrears of the former duties, 48 G.3. c.55. s.2.

151. The duties granted by 48 G.3. c.55. and 50 G.3. c.104., shall be consolidated with those granted by this act on the same articles respectively; and after the respective periods mentioned in this act, or in the said several schedules, for commencement of the said duties respectively, the several duties granted by those acts, and this act, shall be assessed, levied, and paid in one sum, as described in the several schedules hereto annexed, and the rules therein mentioned; which several schedules, duties, and rules, shall be construed as part of this act, 52 G.3. c. 93. s. 2.

152. From 30th June 1808, the duties granted by 44 G.3. c. 39. shall cease, except in cases of arrears of duties by that act granted, and on that day remaining unpaid, 48 G.3. c. 55. s. 3.

153. In lieu of the duties hereby repealed, there shall be annually assessed and paid, to and for the use of H. M., his heirs and successors, on every person who shall, after 30th June 1808, use any dog, gun or net, or other engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in Sched. (L.), the respective duties therein respectively mentioned, id. s. 4.

154. The said consolidated and new duties shall be assessed, paid, and accounted for under the regulations of 43 G.3. c. 99., 43 G.3. cc. 150. 161., 45 G.3. cc. 5. 71. 95., 46 G.3. c. 84. [which last is now REP. by 56 G.3. c. 66. s. 11.]; and shall be construed in such manner and to the like effect, in all respects, as if the duties hereby granted in the respective schedules were expressly granted under the several provisions, allowances, and penalties in these acts contained, and as if the latter were expressly enacted in this act; and that from the respective periods herein before prescribed for commencement of the said duties, the schedules to this act annexed shall be used, in ascertaining and charging the several rates of duty, in lieu of those for the like purposes contained in any of the above acts, which last-mentioned schedules, and the rules and exemptions therein, shall from thenceforth respectively cease; and all the powers, rules, penalties, &c. contained in such acts respectively, so far as they are respectively applicable to the duties granted by this act, except where other provisions are made herein, shall severally and respectively, in execution hereof, be duly put in execution throughout the respective parts of G. B., as fully as if they were re-enacted in this act, id. s. 5.

155. The said new and consolidated duties shall be assessed, paid, and accounted for under the regulations of this act and of the several acts in force at and immediately before its passing in relation to the duties granted by 48 G.3. c. 55. and 50 G.3. c. 104. or of any act passed in the present session; and this act shall be construed to the like effect, in all respects, as if the duties hereby granted and mentioned in the respective schedules hereto annexed were expressly granted, subject to the several provisions, allowances, and penalties in the said several acts contained; and from the respective periods in the said schedules prescribed for commencement of the said duties, the schedules to this act annexed shall be used in ascertaining and charging the several rates of duty, in lieu of the several schedules for the like purposes contained in any of the said acts before mentioned, which last mentioned schedules, and the rules and exemptions therein contained, shall from thenceforth respectively cease; and all the powers, rules, penalties, and things contained in such acts respectively, so far as they are respectively applicable to the duties granted by this act, except where other provisions are made herein, shall severally and respectively, in execution hereof, be duly observed, practised, and put in execution throughout the respective parts of G. B., as fully and effectually, as if the same were respectively repeated in this act; and shall severally be deemed to belong to this act, as if the same had been enacted therein, and expressly applied to the duties hereby granted, (except as aforesaid,) 52 G.3. c. 93. s. 3.

156. Every receiver-general shall have 1*½*d. in the pound for all monies by him received and paid into the exchequer, or duly accounted for according to the course thereof; and every collector shall have 3*d*. in the pound for money paid by him to the receiver-general or his deputy, within the time limited by the several acts herein mentioned, for all duties hereby granted, except those in sched. (L.), for which other compensation is hereby directed to be paid to the collector, [48 G.3. c. 55. sched. (L.) Rule II., 52 G.3. c. 93., id. ibid.]; and also for what money he shall pay out of such duties, except as above, to any person in pursuance of any other statute, and shall only account to such receiver-general or his deputy for such payments; and for the careful writing and transcribing all the assessments, duplicates, warrants, and estreats, in due time, and for due and speedy executing all things directed to be done by or under the commissioners acting in execution of acts for assessed taxes, the clerk of the latter who shall perform the same within the times limited by the acts, shall, by warrant under the hands of 2 or more commissioners of their district, receive from the receivers-general or their deputies, the following sums for every pound of the duties received by them, under the assessments of the commissioners, who shall pay the same accordingly, provided they are carried into execution in due time; and commissioners and other officers appointed for the assessed tax acts, shall put in execution these acts in G. B., and the monies levied shall be under the care of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, 48 G.3. c. 55. s. 6., 52 G.3. c. 93. s. 8.

157. Every receiver-general shall have an allowance of 1*½*d. in the pound for all monies by him received and paid into exchequer, or duly accounted for according to the course of exchequer; and every collector shall have 3*d*. in the pound for what money he shall pay to the receiver-

general or deputy, within the time limited by the several acts herein mentioned, for all the duties granted by this act, except those in sched. (L.), for which other compensation is hereby directed to be made to such collector, 48 G.3. c. 55. sched. (L.) Rule II., and 52 G.3. c. 93., id. ibid.; and also for what money he shall pay out of such duties, except as aforesaid, to any person in pursuance of any other acts of parliament, and shall duly account to such receiver-general or his deputy for such payments, and for the careful writing and transcribing all and every the assessments, duplicates, warrants, and estreats, in due time; and for the due and speedy executing all things directed to be done by or under the commissioners of the assessed tax acts, the clerk of the commissioners who shall perform the same within the times limited by the acts, shall, by warrant under the hands of 2 or more of the commissioners of each district respectively, receive from the respective receivers-general, or their deputies, the respective sums hereinafter limited for every pound of all such monies of the said duties received by them by virtue of assessments of the said commissioners, who shall pay the same accordingly; provided the said acts be carried into execution in due time, in an effectual manner, in the division for which he is such clerk, and all warrants, assessments, estreats, and certificates, be made out and delivered according to the directions of the acts, and the duplicates be delivered to the said receiver-general, and into the office of the commissioners for taxes, within the times limited by these acts, but not otherwise; i. e., if the total amount of such allowance for one year, calculated at 1*½*d. in the pound, on the monies assessed in that year, and paid to the receiver-general or his deputy as aforesaid, shall amount to 100*l*. or upwards, such clerk shall not receive any greater allowance than at the rate of 1*½*d. in the pound of the monies so paid; and if the total amount of the monies of the said duties received by such receiver-general or his deputy for one year, in any district of commissioners, exceeds 96,000*l*., then the clerk of such district shall have 1*½*d. per pound of the said 96,000*l*. part thereof, and a further allowance at the rate of one half of 1*½*d. for every pound of the said monies exceeding 96,000*l*.; and if the total amount of such allowance, calculated at the rate of 1*½*d. in the pound on the said monies, shall not amount to 100*l*., then such clerk shall be entitled to receive an allowance at the rate of 1*½*d. in the pound of the monies so paid, so as that the allowance, calculated as last aforesaid, shall in no case be granted to any greater amount than 100*l*. per ann., 48 G.3. c. 55. s. 7. [altering 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 79. as to the allowances, &c.]

158. No other person except the clerk's assistant appointed as in 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 79. Exp., shall be entitled to receive any part of the clerk's reward: nor shall either of them take fee or gratuity from any person, except the receiver-general or his deputy as above, 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 79.

158. (a) These duties are to be paid into the exchequer, and carried to the consolidated fund, 48 G.3. c. 55. s. 8., 52 G.3. c. 93. s. 9.

159. Any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, or the lord high treasurer shall, for 10 years from the commencement of these acts respectively, cause distinct accounts of the produce of the duties payable by virtue thereof to be prepared at the office for taxes, to be annually laid before parliament, pursuant to 42 G.3. c. 70.; and the monies arising from them shall be deemed a permanent increase to the public revenue of G. B., for the defraying any increased charge occasioned by any loan made or stock created, by authority of any act passed in either of the following sessions, 48 G.3. c. 55. c. 9., 52 G.3. c. 93. s. 10. [See enactments to like effect, 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 83., &c. now Exp.]

RULES for charging Windows or Lights.

I. The said several duties to be charged annually in respect of the windows or lights in every dwelling-house, with the household and other offices herein enumerated.

II. All skylights, and all windows or lights however constructed, in staircases, garrets, cellars, passages, and all other parts of dwelling houses, to what use or purpose soever applied, and whether in the exterior or interior parts of such dwelling houses, to be charged to the said duties.

III. Every window or light in any kitchen, collar, scullery, buttery, pantry, larder, washhouse, laundry, bakehouse, brewhouse, and lodging room, belonging to or occupied with any dwelling house, whether within, contiguous to, or disjoined from the body of such dwelling house, shall be charged to the said duties.

IV. The same to be charged yearly on the occupier or occupiers of the houses, cottages, or tenements, in respect whereof they are charged, and in force for one whole year, from 5th April in the year in which the same shall be charged, to be levied on such occupier, &c., or the executor, &c., except as herein-after provided.

48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (A.) RULE V. Where any change in the occupation of any house, &c. takes place after the assessment made, then the duties hereby directed to be charged on the occupier of houses, &c. for one year, shall be levied on and paid by the occupier or occupiers, landlord, or landlords, owner, or owners, for the time being, or on both or all of them, according to their times of possession thereof, without any new assessment, notwithstanding such change in the occupation of such house, &c. for the year that such house has been assessed: provided that where a tenant of any house, &c. quits the same, on the determination of the lease or demise thereof, after an assessment made, and has given notice thereof to the assessor for the place, the duty thereon shall be discharged by the commissioner for executing this act for the remainder of that year, in case it appears to them at the end of such year, that such house, &c. has continued wholly unoccupied for the remainder of such year.

VI. Where any dwelling-house is let in different apartments, tenements, lodgings, or landings, and is inhabited by 2 or more persons or families, the same shall nevertheless be charged as if such house was inhabited by one person or family only; and the landlord or owner, landlords, &c. shall be deemed occupiers of such house, and shall be charged with the said duties: provided, that where he shall not reside within the limits of the collector, or the same remains unpaid by such landlord for 20 days after due, the duties so charged may be levied on the occupier or occupiers respectively, and such payment shall be deducted and allowed out of the next payment on account of rent.

VII. Every house, whereof the keeping is left to the care of any person or servant, shall be subject to like duties as if inhabited by the owner or a tenant; and, if such person or servant shall not pay rates to the church and poor, the said duties shall be paid by the respective owners or tenants of the said house.

VIII. Every distinct chamber or apartment in any of the inns of court, or chancery, or in any college or hall in either of the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or any public hospital, being severally in the tenure or occupation of any person or persons, shall be subject to the same duties as if it was an entire house, which duties shall be paid by the occupier thereof respectively; provided, that every such chamber or apartment, which shall not contain more than 7 windows or lights, shall be charged at the rate of 3s. 6d. for every such window, &c.

IX. All dwelling rooms in any hall or office, belonging to any person, or to any bodies politic or corporate, or to any company, that may be lawfully charged with payment of any other taxes or parish rates, shall be subject to the duties hereby made payable, and shall be respectively charged as dwelling houses; and the person or persons, body politic or corporate, or company, to whom the same shall belong, shall be charged as the occupier or occupiers thereof.

X. When a partition or division between 2 or more windows or lights, fixed in one frame, is of the breadth or space of 12 inches, the window or light on each side of such partition or division shall be charged as a distinct window or light.

XI. Every window extending so far as to give light into more rooms, landings, or stories than one, shall be reckoned and charged as so many separate windows as there are rooms, landings, or stories enlightened thereby.

XII. Every window or light, including the frame, partitions, and divisions thereof, which by due admeasurement of the whole space on the aperture of the wall of the house or building, on the outside of such window or light, shall exceed in height 12 feet, or in breadth 4 feet 9 inches, not being less than 5 feet 6 inches in height, shall be reckoned and charged as 2 windows or lights, except such windows or lights as shall have been made of greater dimensions at any time prior to the 5th April, 1785; except also the windows or lights in such parts of dwelling houses as are used for shops, workshops, and warehouses, and except the windows or lights in the public room of any house licensed to sell wine, ale, or other liquors by retail, which shall be used for the entertainment of guests; and the windows or lights in farm houses especially exempted from the duties in the following schedule marked (B.), or in any dwelling house not chargeable to the duties mentioned in the said schedule.

XIII. Where any dwelling-house is divided into different tenements, being distinct properties, every such tenement shall be subject to the same duties as if it were an entire house, which duties shall be paid by the occupiers thereof respectively; provided, that every such tenement in Eng., Wa., or Ber. which shall not contain more than 7 windows or lights, shall be charged at the rate of 3s. 6d. for every such window or light; and every such tenement in Scot. which shall not contain more than 7 windows or lights, shall be charged at the rate of 3s. for every such window or light.

EXEMPTIONS from the said DUTIES.

Case I. Any house belonging to H. M. or any of the royal family, and every public office, for which the duties heretofore payable have been paid by H. M. or out of the public revenue.
9 E 2

48 G.3. c. 55. Sch. (A.) Exemptions, Case II. Any hospital, charity school, or house provided for the reception and relief of poor persons, except such apartments therein as are or may be occupied by the officers or servants thereof, which shall severally be assessed, and be subject to the said duties as entire dwelling houses.

Case III. The windows in any room of a dwelling house licensed according to law as a chapel for the purposes of divine worship, and used for no other purpose soever:

Provided that every such hospital, charity school, house for the reception and relief of poor persons, or room licensed as a chapel as aforesaid, shall be brought into charge by the assessor or assessors, or in their default, by the surveyor or inspector, and shall be stated on the certificate of assessments as such; and on due proof of the fact before the commissioners by the assessors, the commissioners for executing that act may discharge such hospital, charity school, house for the reception and relief of poor persons, and room licensed as a chapel, from the said duties, or such part thereof as is hereby intended to be exempted, in like manner as they are authorized to discharge the assessment on poor persons by this act, [semb. this power to discharge assessments on poor persons is given by 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 12—15. pl. 173. (a)—173. (d) which regulations are adopted by 48 G.3. c. 55. (see s. 2. pl. 150.)] but not otherwise, [see 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 17. pl. 173. (c) as to claiming this exemption.]

Case IV. The windows or lights, in any dairy or cheese-room belonging to and occupied with any dwelling house chargeable with the said duties, though the same is part thereof, which shall be used by such occupier or occupiers for keeping butter or cheese, being their own produce, for sale or private use; [provided that they be made with splines, or wooden laths, or iron bars, or wires, and wholly without glass, but see next pl.] and that the occupiers of the dwelling houses, to which such dairies and cheese-rooms belong shall paint, or cause to be painted on the outer door thereof, or on the outside of the windows thereof, or one of them, in large roman letters, the words, "Dairy, or cheese room," as the case requires, and shall keep, and from time to time restore such words so painted distinctly legible, during all such time as such exemption is claimed; and provided that such dairies or cheese rooms shall not be at any time used to dwell or to sleep in by any person or persons, but shall be wholly kept and used for the several purposes above mentioned: and provided also, that an assessment of all such windows or lights shall be duly made, and the fact truly returned in the manner hereby directed in other cases of exemption from the said duties, so that the number of windows so to be exempted may be ascertained, and the exemption allowed by the commissioners for executing this act.

160. But from 5th April, 1817, one window or light in any dairy or cheese room, or room used as a dairy and cheese-room, in any farm house, occupied by a tenant, and bonâ fide used for the purposes of husbandry only, which room such tenant shall use for keeping butter or cheese, or both, being the actual produce of such farm for sale or private use, although the same be made with glass, shall be exempted, as those made with splines, &c. as in 48 G.3. c. 55. sch. (A.) Windows, Exemptions, Case IV.: but the regulations of this act, ss. 1—3. respecting warehouses and other places used for the purposes of trade, in order to obtain the exemptions thereof, with all the powers of surveyors, (s. 2.) to inspect the same, shall be observed and applied to such cheese-room or dairy windows or lights, 57 G.3. c. 25. s. 5.

161. PROVISIONS REGULATING THE WINDOW TAX, 43 G.3. c. 161. ss. 18—22.

162. No window or light shall be exempted from duty by being stopped up, unless stopped up effectually with stone, brick, or the same materials as that whereof that part of the outside wall in which it hath been, doth chiefly consist, id. s. 18.

163. Windows in roofs stopped up with the same materials as the roof, and windows stopped before commencement of this act, according to the laws in force, are not chargeable, id. s. 19.

164. No window or light shall be newly made in any dwelling house or office belonging thereto; nor (if stopped up at the time of assessment for the current year) shall be restored, nor if charged in that year, be stopped up without 6 days notice in writing by the occupier to the surveyor or inspector of assessed taxes, describing the particular situation of such window, &c. with the number, if more than one, under penalty of 10*l.* for every window so newly made, &c. to be paid over and above any duty payable in respect of such dwelling house, id. s. 20. [See as to recovery of this penalty, 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 80. pl. 143.]

165. Every surveyor, &c. receiving such notice, or otherwise discovering that any window, &c. in any such dwelling house liable to the duties hath been newly made or restored, and not charged in that year's assessment, shall certify the same in writing, under his hand, by way of charge, to any two or more commissioners under this act, stating in such certificate the amount in which such person hath been under-rated; which commissioners shall cause such assessment to be amended according to the certificate, and the duties so charged shall be levied from commencement of the year in which such window, &c. is so made or restored, and if it appear to the commissioners that windows restored at the time when such assessment was made, have been then fraudulently stopped in order to evade the duty, they may charge the party with double the sum increased on his assessment by such certificate: provided that such amended assessment may be appealed against as if originally so made, 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 21.

166. No assessment shall be subject to appeal, nor any abatement of the duties allowed in any year, by reason of any windows, &c. being stopped up, unless it is proved to the commissioners that they were stopped up previous to commencement of the year of assessment, id. s. 22.

48 G.3. c. 55. Schedule (B.)

DUTIES payable on all INHABITED DWELLING HOUSES throughout G. B., according to the value thereof, and of the offices and lands to be charged therewith.

For every such inhabited house which, with the household and other offices, yards, and gardens therewith occupied and charged, are or shall be worth the rent herein-after mentioned by the year, there shall be charged the yearly sums following, viz.	Value in the pound.
5 l. and under 20 l. rent by the year	-	-	0 1 6
20 l. and under 40 l. rent by the year	-	-	0 2 3
40 l. rent by the year, and upwards	-	-	0 2 10

RULES for charging the said last-mentioned DUTIES.

I. They shall be charged annually on the occupier or occupiers for the time being of every such dwelling house, being of the annual rent of 5*l.* or upwards, at the respective rates before mentioned, and to be levied on him, her, or them, or on his, &c. respective executors, &c. and in like manner in case of a change in the occupation thereof as before directed in respect of the duties on windows or lights, and in addition to the duties contained in sch. (A.)

II. Every coachhouse, stable, brew or wash house, laundry, wood or bakehouse, dairy, and all other offices, and all yards, courts, and curtilages, and gardens and pleasure-grounds, belonging to and occupied with any dwelling house, shall, in charging the said duties, be valued together with such dwelling house; provided no more than one acre of such gardens and pleasure-grounds shall in any case be so valued.

III. All shops and warehouses attached to the dwelling house, or communicating therewith, shall in charging the duties be valued together with the dwelling house and the household and other offices aforesaid thereunto belonging (except such warehouses and buildings on or near adjoining to wharfs occupied by persons carrying on the business of wharfingers, and having dwelling-houses on the said wharfs for the residence of themselves or servants employed thereon).

And also except such warehouses as are distinct and separate buildings, and not parts or parcels of such dwelling houses, or the shops attached thereto, but employed solely for the purpose of lodging goods, wares, and merchandize, or for carrying on some manufacture (notwithstanding the same adjoins to or has communication with the dwelling house or shop).

IV. Every chamber or apartment in any inn of court or chancery, or in any college or hall in any of the universities of G. B., being severally in the tenure or occupation of any person or persons, shall be charged thereto as an entire house, and on the respective occupiers thereof.

V. Every hall or office whatever belonging to any person or persons, or to any body or bodies politic or corporate, or to any company, that are or may be lawfully charged with payment of any other taxes or parish rates, shall be subject to the duties hereby made payable as inhabited houses; and the person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, or company, to whom the same shall belong, shall be charged as the occupier or occupiers thereof.

VI. Where any house is let in different stories, tenements, lodgings, or landings, and is inhabited by 2 or more persons or families, the same shall nevertheless be subject and charged to the said duties as if it was inhabited by one person or family only, and the landlord or owner shall be deemed the occupier thereof, and shall be charged to the said duties; provided, that where the landlord shall not reside within the limits of the collector, or the same shall remain unpaid by him for 20 days after due, the duties so charged may be levied on the occupier or occupiers respectively; and such payments shall be deducted and allowed out of the next payment on account of rent.

VII. No dwelling house, or other such premises as aforesaid, shall be estimated or rated at any less annual value than the rent or value at which they stand charged in the last poor rate.

48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (B.) RULE VIII. In case the said poor rate has been made throughout by a pound rate on the full annual value of all the dwelling-houses in the same parish or place, then such assessment shall be made according thereto; and the assessors appointed or to be appointed for the said duties, shall, in making their assessments on different dwelling-houses in the same parish or place, in all such cases as aforesaid, observe the same rule of proportion between the assessment of the duties granted by this act thereon, as has been observed in making such poor rate as to all the premises aforesaid rated therein.

IX. In case the poor rate shall have been made on any proportionate part of such value, then such assessors shall assess the same at the same sums respectively as they would have been assessed at by virtue of this act, if they had been respectively estimated in such poor rate at the full value thereof respectively.

X. In case the poor rate in any parish or place is not made on the full annual value of the different dwelling houses charged, nor according to any proportionate part of such annual value, but nevertheless the said dwelling houses shall be rated in a due proportion to each other, the assessors, by all lawful ways and means authorized by this act, may inquire into, and to the best of their information and judgment ascertain the actual rent of the several houses and other the premises aforesaid, in different occupations within their limits, which shall have been let within 3 years preceding the time for making the assessment, or so many of them as they shall be able to ascertain the rent of, and shall make an assessment on the actual rent on such of the said houses and premises therewith occupied which appear to them to have been so let at the just and full value thereof, and shall afterwards proceed to assess the several other houses with the premises aforesaid occupied therewith in sums respectively bearing the same proportion, as far as the same can be computed, to the amount of such first assessment, as the sums charged on the said poor rate on such other premises respectively bear to the sum charged in the said poor rate on the said house and premises so first assessed: provided always, that the aforesaid rule shall extend only to such houses and premises chargeable under this act as shall be rated in such poor rate distinctly and unmixed with other property not chargeable to the duties hereby granted.

XI. In case any house with the premises aforesaid therewith occupied, is not rated in such poor rate, or is rated therein together with other property not chargeable to the duties hereby granted, or if there is no poor rate in the parish or place where such house is situate, and in every case where the rules before mentioned are not applicable, the said assessors shall make their assessment from the best information they can obtain of the annual value thereof, which in all cases shall be the actual amount of the rent at which the said houses and premises aforesaid respectively are let, or if not let, the rent which they respectively are worth to be let by the year.

XII. In case any house, with the premises aforesaid, shall, on occasion of the assessor or assessors having pursued the proportions observed in the poor rate on which such assessment was made, have been assessed at a sum exceeding the just rate on the annual value thereof, the commissioners may abate and deduct from such assessment so much as in their judgment will reduce the same to a just rate on such annual value, but in no case to a less annual value than the same stands rated at in the poor rate.

XIII. In case any house, with the premises aforesaid, shall on occasion of the assessor or assessors having pursued the proportions observed in such poor rate, have been assessed at a sum less than the actual rent at which the same shall be let, or if not let, at less than the rent at which the same might be let, the commissioners may enlarge and increase such assessment to such sum as a like rent would amount to.

XIV. Where any dwelling house is divided into different tenements being distinct properties, every such tenement shall be subject to the same duties as if it was an entire house; which duty shall be paid by the occupiers thereof respectively.

EXEMPTIONS.

Case I. Any house belonging to H. M. or any of the royal family, and every public office for which the duties heretofore payable have been paid by H. M., or out of the public revenue.

Case II. Every dwelling house, being a farm house, occupied by a tenant, and bonâ fide used for the purposes of husbandry only.

Case III. Every dwelling house, being a farm house, occupied by the owner thereof, and bonâ fide used for husbandry only, which, together with the household and other offices aforesaid, shall be valued under this act at 10*l.* per ann. or less.

Case IV. Any hospital, charity school, or house provided for reception or relief of poor persons.

Case V. Every house whereof the keeping is left to the care or charge of any person or servant, who doth not pay rates to the church and poor, and who resides therein for the purpose only of taking care thereof: provided, that an assessment is duly made in every such case, and the fact be truly returned in manner directed by this act in other cases of exemption from the said duties, and the exemption be allowed by the commissioners for executing this act.

167. TO EXEMPT DWELLING HOUSES EMPLOYED for the sole purpose of trade, or of lodging goods, wares, or merchandize from the duties charged by 48 G. 3. c. 55., 57 G. 3. c. 25.

168. From 5th April, 1817, on due proof made as herein directed to the satisfaction of the commissioners acting in execution of 48 G. 3. c. 55. that any person or number of persons in partnership together respectively occupy a tenement or building, or part thereof which shall have been previously occupied for residence, wholly as a house for the purposes of trade only, or as a warehouse for the sole purpose of lodging goods therein, or as a shop or counting house, no person dwelling or abiding therein, except in the day time only for the purpose of such trade, such person or each of such persons in partnership respectively residing in a separate and distinct dwelling house, or part of a dwelling house, charged to the duties under that act, the commissioners may, according to their provisions of this act, discharge that year's assessment in respect of such tenement or building, so used for the purposes of trade, or so employed as a warehouse for the sole purpose of lodging goods there, or as a shop or counting house, id. s. 1.

169. All such tenements or buildings, whether wholly employed for the purposes of trade, or as warehouses for the sole purpose of lodging goods therein, or as a shop or counting-house, may be brought into assessment as dwelling houses, in manner by 48 G. 3. c. 55. directed; and every person intending to be relieved from the assessment made in respect of his or her tenement or building used for the purposes of trade, or as a warehouse for the sole purpose of lodging goods, &c. therein, or as a shop or counting house, by virtue of this act shall give notice thereof to the assessor or surveyor of the parish or place where such dwelling house, or part thereof used for the residence of him or his family are respectively situate, and every assessor or surveyor to whom such notice and declaration shall be delivered, and every district surveyor acting for such parish or place, whether he has received such notice and declaration or not, who shall have information of such claim being made, or to be made, shall on request, from time to time and at all times in the day time, be admitted to inspect such tenement or building, as well internally as externally, and shall inquire into the purposes for which it has been employed; and if after such claim made, or other allowance thereof, it is discovered and proved before the commissioners, that such building has been employed for any other use than for the purposes of trade, or as a warehouse for lodging goods, or as a shop or counting house, or that any person dwells therein except as in last pl., then the commissioners shall assess and charge such building as a dwelling house to the duties granted by the act, notwithstanding such claim, but nothing in this act before contained shall affect any exemption from the duties expressly contained in 48 G. 3. c. 55., id. s. 2.

170. The occupier of any mill, or place of manufacture, or warehouse, not being part or parcel of, nor attached or adjoining to any dwelling house, nor having any internal communication therewith, may by licence in writing of and signed by the commissioners of the district, or by any 3 of them at any meeting, after due notice given by such occupier, appoint any one of his servants named in such licence, to watch and guard the same mill, &c. in the night time, and the abiding of such licensed servant therein for watching the same, shall not render the occupier thereof liable to any of the duties granted by 48 G. 3. c. 55., 57 G. 3. c. 25. s. 4. [s. 5. is placed after 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sched. A. Case IV. pl. 160.]

171. PROVISIONS REGULATING THE HOUSE TAX, 43 G. 3. c. 161. ss. 10—15. and s. 17. AMD. as to Scot. by 57 G. 3. c. 128. ss. 1, 2. [see pl. 18.]

172. Every dwelling house, cottage, or tenement, occupied at the making the assessment, shall be charged with the window duties in Sch. (A.) by the respective assessors, and in their default, by the respective surveyors and inspectors, according to the number of windows therein, subject to the after-mentioned powers of discharge; and in respect to the inhabited house duty in Sch. (B.) (for houses of 5*l.* or more annual rent) every dwelling-house, &c. shall be charged in like manner, according to the full and just yearly rent at which it is really worth to be let, in respect of the duties in Sch. (B.) and any assessor omitting to charge either the above window or house taxes, shall for every neglect forfeit not more than 20*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, and houses or premises therewith occupied, being situate in more parishes than one, shall be charged in either parish as the surveyor shall think expedient, (to be notified by certificate to the commissioners,) 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 10.

173. Every person inhabiting a house, cottage, or tenement, in Eng., Wa., or Ber. containing not more than 6 windows in all, shall be exempted from the duties in Sch. (A.) in case of being on the parish books as receiving parochial relief, 43 G.3. c.161. s.11. [rest of the section as to Scot. seems virtually Rep. by 57 G.3. c.128. s.2.]

173. (a) Where any such house, &c. as is described in s.11. is brought into charge as above, and the occupier is entitled to the above exemption by reason of poverty, the assessor shall, on the certificate of assessment, set opposite the sum charged on the occupier, the fact of his or her being poor, and shall return the same, together with the assessment and certificate, as in s.13. mentioned, to the commissioners for the district, who, before allowance of such assessment or making any order thereon, shall examine the assessor or assessors, who shall respectively attend them for that purpose, at such time as they shall appoint, touching the return so made; and if the commissioners shall, from such examination and certificate, as in s.13. mentioned, be satisfied that such occupier is entitled to exemption, they may, after such proof, strike out the charge against such occupier, leaving his name and the number of windows and rent of such house in the assessment; and he shall be exempted accordingly from the said duties, 43 G.3. c.161. s.12.

173. (b) Before any such exemption or abatement is allowed, the assessors shall produce to the commissioners a certificate, under the hands of 5 or more substantial householders of such parish or place, in vestry or kirk-session assembled, of whom the resident minister in such parish, &c. shall be one; but in case there is no resident minister in such parish, &c. then the churchwardens and overseers of the poor thereof, or 2 of them at least, or 2 or more of the elders thereof shall concur with such householders in such certificate, certifying thereby that they have carefully examined the assessment and allegations of the assessors therein, touching the persons therein stated to be poor, and that, in their judgment, the latter are entitled to exemption for their poverty, and are wholly unable to pay the duties assessed on them; provided that if in any parish, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber. there are not 5 substantial householders, then such certificate may be made by the resident substantial householders; or if there be no churchwardens or overseers for such place, such certificate may be granted by the resident minister, or by any 2 churchwardens or overseers of the poor of any adjoining parish or place who can certify the truth of such allegations, in manner aforesaid, concurring therein with the substantial householders residing in the parish, &c. where the assessment is made, id. s.13.

173. (c) Where the occupier of any house, &c. containing more than 6 windows, (see s.11.) is brought into charge, and shall, at the commencement of the year for which the assessment is made, be poor and indigent, or shall become so during that year, he may give notice thereof in writing, stating the causes to the assessor or surveyor of the district, annexing thereto a certificate under the hands of such persons as in s.13., certifying that, in their judgment, such person is justly entitled to relief on account of poverty, for the causes mentioned in such notice; and every assessor shall deliver the notices by him received to such surveyor, who, if satisfied of the truth thereof, after due examination of the circumstances, and that such person is unable to pay the duties charged on him or her, and has no probable means of bettering his or her condition within that year, shall certify the same to the said commissioners; and if the surveyor is not so satisfied, then, on notice thereof to such occupier, &c. he may appeal from such charge to the commissioners, giving 10 days' previous notice thereof to the surveyor; and where the surveyor shall certify to the commissioners that he is satisfied of the truth of the claim made by the occupier, and that he is and will be unable to pay the duties charged on him within that year; or if on appeal as above, it appear to satisfaction of the commissioners or the majority of them present, on oath of appellant, or other lawful evidence on oath, produced by him that he is entitled to maintain such appeal, and is wholly unable to pay the duties charged on him or her, the commissioners may give such relief, either by striking off the whole duty charged, or diminishing the same as seems fit to them. Which appeals for the causes in this clause mentioned, may be heard and determined, either on the days mentioned in this act for hearing appeals in other cases, [viz. s.69. *pl.*132. which adopts the regulations of 43 G.3. c.99. as to appeals, viz. in s.28. *pl.*39. which seem altered by 48 G.3. c.141. No.III. Rule 6. and No.IV. Rule 2. *pl.*245. pages 1516, 1517.] or at the end of the year, or any day or days to be appointed by the commissioners, id. s.14.

173. (d) Every house unoccupied at the time of making the assessment, shall be inserted as such therein, with its number of windows, and the annual rent at which it might be let, if it amounts to 5*l.* or upwards; and the assessors, and in their default the surveyors and inspectors, shall cause the same to be certified to the commissioners, from the time of such house coming into occupation of any person or persons; and the latter shall give notice thereof to such assessor, surveyor, or inspector, within 20 days after so coming into occupation thereof, but on giving such notice shall be chargeable only from the time of coming into such occupation, according to the rates in Scheds. (A.) and (B.) [Semb. this applies to the corresponding schedules in 48 G.3. c.55. See pl. 81.] estimated on the remainder of such year, beginning from the end of the preceding quarter; and every house charged to the said duties, though it shall within the year become unoccupied as in Sch. (A.) of this act, [Semb. this applies to 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (A.) Rule V. ante page 1499.] shall be charged to the said duties for the whole year on the former occupier, or occupier for the time being as the case requires, unless notice in writing is given to the assessor for the place of such house becoming unoccupied; and the commissioners may at discretion discharge such assessment, or direct the duties to be levied according to this act, as seems most just, 43 G.3. c.161. s.15.

173. (e) [As to this pl. see ante, 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (A.) page 1499. Exemptions, Cases II. and III.] Where any house, cottage, or tenement, or any windows therein, or any hospital, charity school, poor house, or licensed chapel, ought to be exempted from the duties payable under Schs. (A.) and (B.) of this act, [Semb. now applying to the corresponding schedules in 48 G.3. c.55.] the occupier of such house, &c., and the person having the conduct or management of such hospital, &c., shall give notice thereof to the assessor, which notice shall contain the number of windows in such house, &c., distinguishing the number chargeable by this act, and the number claimed to be exempted as above, and the assessor shall make diligent inquiry into the same, and shall state on the assessment, to the best of his knowledge, the number of windows entitled to such exemption, and shall return such statement, with the assessment to the commissioners, who shall examine into the truth of such statements, by examination of the assessor, as in s.12.; and on due proof thereof shall discharge such number of windows from the assessment as in their judgment shall be within the exemptions allowed by this act, 43 G.3. c.161. s.17.

48 G.3. c.55. Schedule (C.) No. 1.; and 52 G.3. c.93. Schedule (C.) No. 1.

RULES for charging the said last-mentioned Duties.

I. To be paid by the master or mistress of such servants respectively, and to extend to and be payable for every male servant retained or employed in any of the following capacities; that is to say, maitre d'hotel, house steward, master of the horse, groom of the chamber, valet de chambre, butler, under butler, clerk of the kitchen, confectioner, cook, house porter, footman, running footman, coachman, groom, postillion, stable boy or helper in the stables of the master or mistress, gardener, park-keeper, game-keeper, huntsman, whipper-in, or by whatever name or names male servants really acting in any of the said capacities shall be called, or whether such male servants shall have been retained or employed in one or more of the said capacities, [or in any other business jointly with, omitted in 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 1., which is thus—except where other duties are imposed by this act on male servants occasionally employed in one or more of the said capacities,] and to every such servant let to hire with any carriage or horses for one year, or any longer period, [and shall be charged on the greatest number of such servants which the same person shall have kept at one time in the course of the preceding year, in any of the before-mentioned capacities, 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 1.] 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (C.) No. 1. Rule I., and 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 1. Rule I.

II. The duties shall extend to all servants of the capacities before-mentioned employed in taverns, coffee-houses, inns, alehouses, or any other houses licensed to sell wine, ale, or other liquors by retail, and in eating or victualling houses, and in hotels or lodging houses being eating and victualling houses, of whatever description, although not licensed, except hostlers and helpers in stables (of such licensed persons, 52 G.3. c.93. Sched. C. No. 1. Rule II.) and drivers employed to drive carriages let out to hire, [in such manner that the stamp office duty payable by law on horses let to hire shall have been duly paid and satis- fixed, omitted in 52 G.3.] and except waiters, 48 G.3. c.55. Sched. (C.) No. 1. Rule II. and 52 G.3. c.93., No. 1. Rule II.

III. The said duties on gardeners shall extend to every gardener who shall have contracted for the keeping of any garden or gardens, [wherein the constant labour of a person shall be necessary, 52 G.3. c.93. Sched. (C.) No. 1. Rule III.] and to every person hired to work in any garden, wherein the constant labour of one person shall be necessary, or where a person has been constantly employed to be paid by the person or persons for whose use, and in whose garden such gardener or persons have been employed, except as hereinafter mentioned, id. ibid. Rule III. in both acts.

IV. The said duties shall extend to all apprentices employed in any of the capacities aforesaid, except apprentices imposed upon any master or mistress by the powers given to magistrates and parish-officers by any act of parliament, so as the number of apprentices for whom this exemption shall be claimed by the same person shall not exceed 2 [being generally employed in affairs of husbandry or trade, and only occasionally in any of the above capacities, 52 G.3. c.93., &c. Rule IV.] not wearing livery, [nor being employed as livery servants, 48 G.3. c.55., &c. Rule IV. only.] id. ibid. Rule IV. in both acts.

V. The said duties on gamekeepers shall extend to every person employed to kill or preserve game for the use of any other person or persons, whether lawfully appointed to kill or preserve game or not, to be paid by the person or persons retaining, or employing, [or appointing, 48 G.3. c.55. only.] such persons respectively; except gamekeepers, being the servants of other qualified persons duly returned by and charged to the said duties as servants of such other persons, id. ibid. Rule V. in both acts.

174. Every person chiefly retained and employed for preserving game as an underkeeper under any gamekeeper duly appointed by any lord or lady of a manor, being an assessed servant, shall not be liable to be assessed as an additional servant, but after 10s. per ann. and no more, unless also employed in some other capacity, in which he is liable to be assessed as a servant under 52 G.3. c.93., 59 G.3. c.118. s.5.

VI. The said duties shall extend to every person employed in the capacity of a coachman, postillion, groom, or helper in the stables, though retained for the purposes of husbandry, or any manufacture or trade, where the master or mistress of such person is chargeable with duty for any carriage (other than a taxed cart), or for 2 or more horses chargeable with the duty on horses kept for riding or drawing carriages as herein-mentioned, 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (C.) Rule VI., 52 G.3. c.93. id. ibid.

VII. And shall extend to every person employed as a groom, stable-boy, or helper in the stables of the master or mistress, to take care of any horse, mare, or gelding, the property of such master or mistress, kept for the purpose of racing or running for any plate, prize, sum of money, or other thing, or in training for any of the said purposes, id. ibid. Rule VII. in both acts.

48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (C.) No. 2., 50 G.3. c.104. Sch. No. 1., 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 2.

DUTIES payable annually for MALE SERVANTS retained or employed in the several capacities herein mentioned.

For every [under, 59 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 2.] gardener, or person employed to work in any garden, under any person chargeable to the duties mentioned in Sch. (C.) No. 1.; and for every gardener employed in any garden, [or who shall have contracted for the keeping of any garden, 50 G.3. c.104. Sch. No. 1. and 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (C.) No. 2.] wherein the constant labour of one person shall not be necessary, the sum of

To be paid by each person in whose garden such person shall be employed, [and charged on the greatest number of such servants, which the same person shall at one time have employed in the same capacity, in the course of the preceding year, 52 G.3. c.93. Sched. (C.) No. 2.] 48 G.3. c.55. Sched. (C.) No. 2., 50 G.3. c.104. Sched. No. 1. & 52 G.3. c.93. Sched. (C.) No. 2.

EXEMPTIONS from the Duties in Sch. (C.) Nos. 1, 2.

And if so employed for a lesser period,	0	0	0	1 0 0

And for every male person not being a servant employed as an occasional waiter in any private house not less than 6 times in a year, the sum of

	£.	s.	d.	Additional 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. C. No. 3.
For every male person employed by any stable keeper [for or in expectation of profit, 52 G.3. c.93., id. ibid.] to take care of any horse, mare or gelding, [of any other person, 48 G.3. c.55., id. ibid.] kept for the purpose of racing or running for any plate, prize, sum of money, or other thing, or any horse,	0	0	0	1 0 0

183. From 5th April, 1818, the duties imposed on four-wheeled carriages of the following description, and not drawn by any horses, mares, geldings, or mules, shall cease, and the rates following shall be substituted, 58 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1.—viz.

For every carriage having four wheels of less diameter than 30 inches each, which in every respect shall be built, constructed, marked, and described as a taxed cart, according to the regulations prescribed by the law for taxed carts, except as to the number of wheels as before mentioned, and which shall be drawn by any one pony or mule not exceeding 12 hands in height, or by an ox or ass, and of which carriage the original price shall not have exceeded, or the value shall not at any time exceed the sum of 15*l.* sterling, and which shall not be constructed with a spring or springs of any materials whatever, there shall be charged the annual sum of 1*l.* 9*s.*; and if such carriage shall be constructed with a spring or springs of any materials whatever, except of iron, steel, or any other metallic substance, either wholly or in part, there shall be charged the annual sum of 2*l.* 15*s.*

For every carriage having four wheels of less diameter than 30 inches each, constructed, marked, or described in any manner different from a taxed cart, or contrary to the regulations prescribed by the law for taxed carts, except as to the number of wheels as aforesaid, or constructed with a spring or springs of iron, steel, or any other metallic substance, or which shall be drawn by any 2 or more ponies or mules not exceeding 12 hands high, or oxen or asses as aforesaid, of which carriage the original price shall have exceeded, or the value thereof shall at any time exceed, the sum of 15*l.* sterling, there shall be charged the respective sums payable by law on carriages with less than four wheels, and according to the number of beasts used in drawing the said carriages with four such wheels as aforesaid, and the additional body or bodies successively used on the same carriage or number of wheels.

Provided that for every such carriage with 4 wheels, not constructed according to the directions of this act, or constructed according to the said directions, but drawn in any manner contrary to the said directions, there shall be charged the respective sums payable by law on carriages with 4 wheels, 58 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1.

184. These duties shall be assessed, levied, paid, and accounted for under the regulations of the assessed taxes acts: and this act shall be construed in all respects as if the said duties were expressly directed to be charged, subject to the several provisions and penalties in those acts, and as if the same were expressly enacted in this act; and all the powers and penalties, &c. of those acts applicable to the duties on carriages mentioned herein shall be put in execution throughout G. B.; and shall severally be taken to belong to this act as if herein re-enacted, id. s. 2. Duties to be carried to the consolidated fund, id. s. 3.

And for every such carriage where the duty granted by the said acts shall not be chargeable, the annual sum of	0	0	0	6	10	0
And for every such carriage, drawn by two or more horses, mares, or geldings	8	5	0	0	15	0
And for every additional body, of the description hereinafter mentioned, successively used on the same carriage or number of wheels, the further sum of	2	16	0	0	7	0
[See 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sched. No. 3. additional duties.]

RULES for charging the said Duties in the two foregoing Schedules.

1. The said duties to be respectively charged for every coach, berlin, landau, chariot, calash, chaise marine, chaise, sociable, or caravan, with 4 wheels [or more, 52 G. 3. c. 93.]; and for every calash, chaise marine, chaise, curricule, chair, or car, with less than four wheels, or any number thereof respectively; and for every other carriage with 4 wheels, or with less than 4 wheels, respectively used or to be used for the like purposes, by whatever name or names the same shall be called or known, kept by any person or persons for his, her, or their own use, or hired by the year or any longer period; and upon all such carriages kept to be let out, or to carry passengers for hire (except such carriages for which other duties are hereinafter made payable), and which duties shall be respectively paid by the person or persons keeping such carriages, and shall be chargeable on the body, or if more than one, on the bodies of such carriages respectively, according to the number thereof successively used on the same carriage or number of wheels in the manner before directed, and not in respect of the wheels thereof, or any other parts of such carriages to which the wheels shall be attached.

DUTIES payable on CARRIAGES with less than four wheels, according to 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sch. No. 3.

For every carriage with less than four wheels chargeable by 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. D. No. 2. with the duty of 5*l.* 18*s.* if drawn by one horse, mare, or gelding, and no more, there shall be charged the like amount of duty for every such carriage drawn by one horse, mare, gelding, or mule, and no more - 5 18 0
For every such carriage chargeable by the said act with the duty of 8*l.* 5*s.* if drawn by two or more horses, mares, or geldings, shall be charged the like duty for every such carriage drawn by more than one horse, mare, gelding, or mule - 8 5 0
And for any additional body successively used on the same carriage or number of wheels chargeable by the said act, with the further duty of 2*l.* 16*s.* shall be charged the like further duty for every such additional body, &c. if drawn in the manner herein mentioned, the further annual sum of - 2 16 0

185. The said several duties on carriages with less than four wheels to be charged according to the rule in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (D.) No. 2., and to extend to all carriages with less than four wheels described in that act, and not constructed or used according to the regulations prescribed by that or this act for taxed carts, 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sch. No. III.

48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (D.) No. 3. 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (D.) No. 3.

For carriages hired for any period of time less than one year, or kept to be let to hire, or to carry passengers: 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. D. No. 3. Additional
For every such carriage kept for the purpose of being let to hire, with horses to be used therewith [by any post-master, innkeeper, or other person duly licensed to let post-horses by the commissioners of stamps, 52 G. 3. c. 93., &c. as above] for any period of time not exceeding 28 days [48 G. 3. c. 55. only] so that the stamp office duty payable by law on horses let to hire shall be duly paid and satisfied on every such letting by any post-master, innkeeper, or other person duly licensed to let post-horses by the commissioners of stamps [and shall be duly accounted for by delivery of a ticket according to those acts, 52 G. 3. c. 93.,] and whereon the name or names and place of abode of the person or persons so licensed shall be marked or painted, according to the directions of the acts in that case made and provided; if such carriage shall have four wheels, the sum of - 9 9 0 1 1 0

And if such carriage shall have less than four wheels, the respective sums mentioned in Sched. (D.) No. 2. of 48 G. 3. c. 55. according to the number of horses used therewith, as therein mentioned.

And if such carriage shall have less than four wheels, the respective sums mentioned in Sched. (D.) No. 2. of 55 G. 3. c. 93. in addition to the duties respectively granted thereon by 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 50 G. 3. c. 104.

And for every coach, diligence, caravan, or chaise with four wheels or more, or other carriage with four wheels or more, by whatever name the same shall be called or known, kept and employed as a public stage coach or carriage for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to and from different places, and which shall be duly entered as such with the said commissioners of stamp duties, the like sum of - 9 9 0 1 1 0

For every carriage kept for the purpose of being let to hire for any period of time less than one year, and in such manner that the said stamp office duty shall not by law be payable on such letting by any person so licensed as aforesaid, or by any coach-maker or maker of such carriages, or other person, if such carriage shall have four wheels, the annual sum of - 11 5 0

For every carriage kept for the purpose of being let to hire without horses to be used therewith, by any coach-maker or maker of such carriages, where such carriage shall have four wheels, the annual sum of - 11 5 0 0 15 0

And where such carriage shall have less than four wheels, the like sums mentioned in 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (D.) No. 2.

All the said duties to be paid by the person or persons keeping the same for the purposes aforesaid.

Provided, if a due return thereof shall not be made by the hirer or hirers according to the directions of the acts herein mentioned, the progressive duty as set forth in 48 G. 3. c. 55., Sch. (D.) No. 1., and 52 G. 3. c. 93. id. ibid. shall be chargeable in respect of every such carriage on the person or persons hiring the same, and making such default as aforesaid, subject to the provisions contained in the said acts concerning the same.

And if such carriage shall have less than four wheels, the respective sums mentioned in those schedules (D.) No. 2. according to the number of horses to be used therewith, shall be paid by the person or persons keeping the same for the purposes aforesaid, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained concerning the same.

For every such carriage called a "taxed cart," built and constructed with a spring or springs of any materials (except iron, steel, or other metallic substance or composition thereof, either wholly, or in part, whereof the original price or value at any time shall not exceed 21*l.* sterling, or which shall be used with a stuffed seat or cushion, covered footboard, or apron thereto fixed or not - 2 10 0

(See additional duty of 3*s.*, 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (D.) No. 4. post.)

Except all carriages constructed as above, and of the respective values herein, and used as before mentioned, belonging to any person liable to assessment for duties on a four-wheeled carriage, or to the duties on two male servants, which persons shall be charged for such carriages, though constructed, &c. as above, at the rate prescribed in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (D.) No. 2., or according to this act, Sch. No. 3. as the case may require, 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sch. No. 2.

192. The said several duties on taxed carts shall be charged under the same RULES, and subject to the same EXEMPTIONS as the duties contained in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (D.) No. 4. directed to be charged, id. ibid.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES for TAXED CARTS payable by 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (D.) No. 4.

For every carriage with less than 4 wheels, to be drawn by one horse, mare, gelding, and not otherwise, which shall be built and constructed wholly of wood and iron, without any covering other than a tilted covering, and without any lining, and with a fixed seat without slings or braces, and without any ornament whatever other than paint of a dark colour for the preservation of the wood or iron only, and which shall have the words, "a Taxed Cart," and the owner's christian and surname and place of abode, and also the name and place of abode of the maker thereof, and the full value thereof, or the actual price or consideration paid or given for the same, marked or painted on a black ground in white letters, or on a white ground in black letters, on the outside of the back pannel or back part of such £. s. d.

carriage in words at full length, and in Roman characters, each of the letters thereof being at least one inch in length, and of a breadth in proportion, and which shall be kept by any person or persons for his, her, or their own use, and not for hire, there shall be charged the respective duties hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

For every carriage called a taxed cart, built and constructed according to the regulations before mentioned, and which shall be constructed without any spring or springs of any materials whatever, and the price of which (repairs excepted) shall not have exceeded, or the value thereof shall not at any time exceed, the sum of 15*l.* sterling, and which shall not at any time be used with a covered or stuffed seat or cushion, fixed or not fixed thereto, the annual sum of - 0 2 6

In addition to the duty of 1*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.* granted by 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sch. No. 1. supra.

And for every carriage called a taxed cart, built and constructed according to the said regulations, with a spring or springs of any materials whatever, except of iron, steel, or other metallic substance, or any composition of iron or steel, or other metallic substance, either wholly or in part, the original price of which carriage shall not have exceeded, or the value whereof shall not at any time exceed the sum of 21*l.* sterling, or which shall be used with a covered or stuffed seat or cushion fixed or not fixed thereto, or with a covered footboard or apron thereto, fixed or not fixed, the annual sum of - 0 5 0

In addition to the duty of 2*l.* 10*s.* granted by 50 G. 3. c. 104. Sch. No. 2.

And for every carriage with less than four wheels, constructed with a spring or springs of iron, steel, or other metallic substance, or any composition of iron, steel, or other metallic substance, the respective sums mentioned in 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (D.) No. 2. in addition to the respective duties granted by 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 50 G. 3. c. 104., on carriages with less than four wheels.

All which duties in respect of carriages herein mentioned, shall be charged upon and paid by the person or persons keeping the same respectively.

Except always all carriages constructed as aforesaid, belonging to any person liable to be assessed to the before mentioned duties in respect of a four-wheeled carriage, or on male servants, contained in Sch. (C.) No. 1. in respect of two such male servants, which persons respectively shall be charged for such carriages, though constructed as aforesaid, at the rate prescribed in Sch. marked (D.) No. 2. of the said act of 48 G. 3. c. 55. and this act, (viz. 52 G. 3. c. 93.), for carriages with less than four wheels.

EXEMPTIONS from the several DUTIES in 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. Schedules (D.) Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

Case I. Any carriages belonging to H. M. or any of the royal family.

Case II. Any coach or coaches licensed by the commissioners for hackney coaches within London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, to be used as hackney coaches there, and numbered according to law.

193. All owners of hackney coaches used as stage coaches, who have taken out licenses for same, from the commissioners of stamps, whereby they are now liable to mileage duties, shall be freed from the obligation imposed by the assessed taxes of delivering to the assessors lists of such coaches, 56 G. 3. c. 66. s. 10.

Case III. Any carriage kept by any coachmaker or maker of carriages, bona fide for the purpose of sale, or of being lent to any person whose carriage being of the same denomination or description shall be then making, mending, or repairing by such coachmaker or maker of carriages, and during the time the same shall be necessarily under repair; provided such carriage shall not at any time, whilst in the possession of such coachmaker or maker of carriages, be employed for his or her own use, or let to hire, or otherwise lent than as aforesaid.

Case IV. Any [common stage, 52 G. 3. c. 93. id. ibid.] cart kept truly and without fraud to be used wholly in the affairs of husbandry, or in the carriage of goods in the course of trade, and whereon the name and place of residence of the owner, and the words "common stage cart," shall be legibly painted, although the owner, or his servant or servants, shall or may, [for the purpose of driving or conducting the same only, 52 G. 3. c. 93. id. ibid.] occasionally ride therein or thereon when laden, or when returning from any place to which, or when going to any place from which any load shall have been or shall be to be carried in such carriage in the course of husbandry or trade; or for conveying the owners thereof, or their families, to or from any place of divine worship on Sunday, or on Christmas day, or on Good Friday, or on any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, or for carrying persons going to or returning from the elections of members to serve in parliament, in case such carriage shall not have been or be used for any other purpose of riding thereon or therein, save as aforesaid, or let to hire for any such purposes of riding therein.

PROVISIONS applying to Taxed Carts.

186. Certain other duties are granted as in the schedule to the act annexed, 50 G. 3. c. 104. s. 1., and the produce carried to consolidated fund, id. s. 9.

187. To be levied under 48 G. 3. c. 55., and the schedules relative to the same things added to the corresponding schedules in 48 G. 3. c. 55., 50 G. 3. c. 104. s. 2. The persons acting as commissioners under that are also commissioners for this act, id. s. 3.

188. Every maker of any carriage called a taxed cart, built according to the regulations of 48 G. 3. c. 55. or of this act, for sale, shall cause his name and abode, and places where such business shall be carried on, to be returned to the commissioners, as required to be done by makers of other carriages for sale chargeable with duty, and under like penalty; and shall from time to time enter in a book the number of such carriages built for sale as taxed carts, the names and abodes of the vendors, and the full value thereof, with the full price or other consideration for the same, and the day on which such carriage was delivered or sent out of his shop or warehouse; all which books shall, at all reasonable times in the day time, be open to inspection of the assessor, collector, surveyor, or inspector for the place where the maker shall reside: and every such person shall, within 21 days after every 10th Oct. and 5th April, deliver a true copy in writing for every entry in such book within the preceding half year, to the assessors or collectors of the place, &c. or one of them, where such maker resides, who, or his chief servant, &c. shall, when required by such surveyor, &c., make oath or affirmation of the truth of such account to the best of his knowledge; and any maker who shall neglect to keep an account, or deliver such copy thereof, or shall wilfully omit any thing which ought to be contained therein, or shall make false entry of any particular, shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, to be recovered or levied under any act relating to assessed taxes, id. s. 4.

189. Every maker of taxed carts for sale shall, before delivery out of his shop, &c. to the purchaser, cause his own name and place of abode, and that of the purchaser, and the words, "a taxed cart," and the full value or actual consideration paid, to be painted in a conspicuous part of the outside of the back part of such carriage in words at length, and in Roman characters, in black letters on a white ground, or white letters on a black ground, of at least one inch long, and proportionate breadth: and if he shall deliver the same, or suffer its delivery from his shop, &c., to the purchaser, without having first caused the several particulars to be so painted, or if any person shall use such carriage so built or purchased after passing this act, without such particulars so painted thereon, every such person shall forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered as in last pl., 50 G. 3. c. 104. s. 5.

190. Every cart having the name and residence of the owner, and the words, "Common Stage Cart," legibly painted thereon, which shall be kept bonâ fide to be used wholly in husbandry or carriage of goods in course of trade, though the owner or his servants occasionally ride therein when laden, or when returning from any place to which, or when going to any place from which, any load shall have been, or shall be to be carried in such cart, in the course of husbandry or trade, and though used for riding therein as herein mentioned, viz. for procuring medical assistance for the owner or his family, or for carrying goods to, or bringing them back from market, or carrying the owner or any of his family to or from any place of public worship, or election of members of parliament, courts of justice, or meeting of commissioners of taxes, shall be exempted from the duties granted by 48 G. 3. c. 55. or this act, on carriages (provided it shall not have been let to hire for any such purposes, id. s. 6).

191. On questions arising how carriages with less than four wheels have been constructed, or shall be used; or from the omission of painting thereon any particulars, by 48 G. 3. c. 55. or by this act required; or from painting the same contrary to such regulations, the commissioners shall give notice to the proprietor or person having possession, to produce the same before them at a day and place named; and on production after inspection thereof, shall adjudge the rate of duty at which it shall be charged, according to the best of their judgments (subject to a case to be stated pursuant to 43 G. 3. c. 161. s. 75., &c. if the same is lawfully demanded: and if, after inspection, any doubt remain with such commissioners as to which of one or other of the rates of duty such carriage ought to be charged with, they may charge same with the lower duty, if they think that the doubtful particulars were not wilfully continued to evade the higher duty (subject to the above case), and under like circumstances may remit and strike off the whole of the double duty which might have arisen, or any increase of duty chargeable in such case, 50 G. 3. c. 104. s. 7.

RULES for charging the said Duties.

192—4. The said duties to be payable annually for every horse, mare, or gelding, used [kept, 52 G.3. c. 93.] on any occasion for the purpose of riding, or of drawing any carriage for which any duty is payable by this act, or hired by the year or any longer period, and to be paid by the person or persons using the same, except as after mentioned, [according to the greatest number kept by the same person at one time in the course of the preceding year, 52 G.3. c. 93.]

195. The progressive duties chargeable on horses, mares, and geldings under 48 G.3. c. 55., and 52 G.3. c. 93. shall, in the cases hereinafter mentioned, be discontinued from 5th April, 1819; and from that day there shall be charged and paid for every horse, &c. wholly used by any butcher or his servant in his trade, the annual sum of 2l. 17s. 6d., provided that for any second horse and no more so used by such butcher there shall be charged 1l. 1s. annually, 59 G.3. c. 13. s. 2. [CONF. 1 & 2 G.4. c. 113. s. 37.]

196. From 5th April, 1819, the duties chargeable on horses, mares, and geldings, not exceeding 13 hands, used for riding or drawing carriages shall cease, and from that day there shall be paid for every horse, &c. not exceeding that height, and used for either of those purposes the annual sum of 2l. 2s.; but nothing herein shall take away the exemption or relief to which any person keeping the same is entitled, 59 G.3. c. 13. s. 3.

197. From 5th April, 1819, the duties payable under 48 G.3. c. 55. Sched. (E.) No. 1. and 52 G.3. c. 93. id. ibid. in respect of one horse, mare, or gelding, bonâ fide kept for and usually employed by any bailiff on the concerns of any farm with which he may be entrusted, shall cease during the continuance of this act, and from 5th April, 1819, 2l. 10s. annual duty shall be charged for such horse, &c., 59 G.3. c. 13. s. 5.

EXEMPTIONS from the said duties in Schedules (E.) Nos. 1. of 48 G.3. c. 55. and 52 G.3. c. 93.; and see infra, pl. 197. (a)—215.]

I. Any person or persons who shall keep any horse, mare, or gelding which shall be used truly and without fraud for the purpose of husbandry, or of drawing any carriage (except carriages liable to any duty by this act, or carrying burthens in the course of the trade or occupation of the person or persons to whom such horse, mare, or gelding shall belong, although such horse, mare, or gelding shall be used for riding on the occasions and in manner herein-after mentioned; that is to say, when returning from any place to which any load or burthen shall have by such horse, mare, or gelding been drawn or carried, or in going to any place from whence any load or burthen shall be to be brought back by any such horse, mare, or gelding, or on account of such horse, mare, or gelding having been used for the purpose of riding to procure medical assistance, or for the purpose of riding to or from market, any place of public worship, election of members to serve in parliament, courts of justice, or to or from any meeting of the commissioners of taxes, provided such horse, mare, or gelding shall not on any occasion be used for any other purpose save as aforesaid.

TAXES (ASSESSED).

48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (F.) No.2. and 52 G.3. c.93. id. ibid.

DUTIES payable on HUSBANDRY HORSES in the cases hereinafter mentioned.

Any person occupying a farm at rack-rent, the rent of which is less than 20*l.* per annum, and making a livelihood solely thereby, or occupying any estate on any other tenure, than as tenant at rack-rent solely, or such other estate, together with a farm at rack-rent, the value of which, in the whole, shall be less than equivalent to a farm at rack-rent of 20*l.* per annum (reckoning the value of every estate occupied by the owner thereof, or on any tenure, other than as tenant at rack-rent, as equivalent to double the amount of the like farm at rack-rent), and making a livelihood solely by such his own estate, or by such estate and farm jointly or principally thereby, and likewise a profit by any trade or employment, and keeping not more than 2 horses, mares, geldings or mules, bonâ fide for the purposes of such occupation, shall be charged for each of such 2 horses, &c.

Any person occupying a farm at rack-rent in W.a. or Scot., the rent of which is less than 10*l.* sterling per annum, and making a livelihood principally thereby, or occupying any estate on any other tenure than as tenant at rack-rent, or such other estate together with a farm at rack-rent, the value of which in all shall be less than equivalent to a farm at rack-rent of 10*l.* sterling per annum (reckoning the value of every estate occupied by the owner thereof, or on any tenure, other than as tenant at rack-rent, as equivalent to double the amount of the like farm at rack-rent, and making a livelihood principally thereby, and likewise a profit by any trade or employment, and keeping not more than 2 horses, mares, geldings or mules, bonâ fide for the purposes of such occupation, and of such trade or employment jointly, or either of them separately, shall be charged for each of such two horses, &c.

197. (a) [QU. whether these duties are reduced by 56 G.3. c.66. as to persons making a profit by any trade or employment, besides making a livelihood principally by a farm of the above value? and QU. whether they are not entirely REP. by 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.1. pl.209. and by id. s.5. pl.213., which makes the reduced duties above alluded to perpetual?]

RULES for charging the duties as set forth in 48 G.3. c.55. (Sch. F.) Nos. 1, 2., and 52 G.3. c.93. id. ibid.

The said duties to be charged annually, and paid by the person or persons keeping or using such horses, mares, geldings or mules, and to be payable for every horse, &c. which shall not be chargeable, nor have been charged with any duty payable in that year according to 48 G.3. c.55. Schedule (F.) or 52 G.3. c.93. Schedule (E). No. 1. by virtue of the rules or exemptions therein, except as herein-after mentioned.

EXEMPTIONS from the Duties in the above Schedules (F.) Nos. 1, 2.

Any person whatever, for any horse, mare or gelding, not being by due admeasurement of the height of 15 hands, of 4 inches to each hand, or which shall not, at any time whatever, have been used for any purpose of labour, or otherwise, 48 G.3. c.55. Exemptions from duties in Schedule (F.) Nos. 1, 2.

Any person whatever for any horse, mare, or gelding, which shall not at any time whatever have been used for any purpose of labour or otherwise, 52 G.3. c.93. Exemptions from Duties in Schedule (F.) Nos. 1, 2.

197. (b) FOR REDUCING DUTIES ON HUSBANDRY HORSES, payable as in 48 G.3. c.55. and 52 G.3. c.93. Schedules (F.) Nos. 2.

198. THE DUTIES ON HUSBANDRY HORSES granted by 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (F.) No.2. and 52 G.3. c.93. Sch. (F.) No. 2. were SUSPENDED for two years by 56 G.3. c.66., and REDUCED DUTIES were imposed, id. ibid. which are CON. by 58 G.3. c.16., 59 G.3. c.13., 1 & 2 G.4. c.20. to 5th April, 1823, and are MADE PERP. 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.5. pl.213. but REP. as to duties on horses, &c. and mules kept and used solely for husbandry in G.B. by 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.1. pl.209.]

199. THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS for REDUCING the duties granted by 48 G.3. c.55. Sch. (F.) No. 1, 2. and 52 G.3. c.93. id. ibid. are here inserted, notwithstanding the partial repeal of the duties on husbandry horses by 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.1., as many cases may still arise where the reduced duties may still be claimed, and see 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.5. pl.213.

200. FOR REDUCING THE DUTIES payable on horses used for the purposes therein mentioned for 2 years, 56 G.3. c.66. [CON. to 5th April,

But nothing herein shall preclude any occupier from the benefit of such reduced assessment by reason that he may have an annual income not exceeding 10*l.* arising from any other source than as before mentioned, unless such annual income shall arise by lending or letting the horses to hire [except in agriculture, &c., 59 G.3. c.13. s.7. pl.203.], or by using the same in any trade for profit; also any tenant quitting the occupation of his farm at or after midsummer in any year, may appeal to the commissioners, and on proof that he shall have ceased to keep or use any horses used in the cultivation of the said farm from the time of his quitting, shall be discharged from one moiety of the assessment in the year subsequent to the time of his quitting the farm, 56 G.3. c.66. s.1.

202. From 5th April, 1818, where any person having or being possessed of or entitled to any farm of lands which, estimated according to 56 G.3. c.66. last pl. shall be of less annual value in the whole than 50*l.* sterling, whereof a part shall be let or underlet by him, nothing in that act shall preclude him from the benefit of the reduced assessment therein provided in respect of the lands in his occupation, by reason of his having an income from the lands let or underlet, he making his livelihood wholly from the farm or lands so occupied, let or underlet, and from no other source, and not together exceeding the value of 50*l.* per ann. estimated as above, 58 G.3. c.16. s.2.

203. Nothing in 56 G.3. c.66. or 58 G.3. c.16. shall extend to preclude any occupier of land therein described from the benefit of the reduced assessment therein mentioned, by reason of lending or letting any horse or horses, &c. in respect of which such reduced assessment shall be made, to be employed solely bonâ fide, and for no other purpose soever, except for that of agriculture, or for making or repairing roads, or for drawing coal, wood, peat or turf for consumption as fuel in any private house, and not for sale, 59 G.3. c.13. s.7.

204. Any tenant coming into occupation of his farm at or after Midsummer in any year, may appeal to the commissioners for executing this act, and on proof to their satisfaction that he hath not kept or used any horses, &c. by him used in cultivation of the farm prior to entering on its occupation, shall be released from one moiety of the annual assessment payable in respect thereof, id. s.8.

205. From 5th April, 1816, any person occupying a farm at a rack-rent of less than 50*l.* a-year, and making a livelihood principally thereby, or occupying any estate as the owner thereof, or on any other tenure than as tenant at rack-rent, or such other estate, together with a farm at rack-rent, the value of which in the whole shall be less than equivalent to a farm at the rack-rent of 50*l.* a-year, reckoning the value of every estate occupied by the owner, or on any tenure other than at rack-rent, as equivalent to double the amount of the like farm at rack-rent, and making a livelihood principally thereby, and likewise a profit by any trade or employment, [see pl.197. (a)] shall be charged for each horse, mare or gelding, the annual sum of 3*s.*, 56 G.3. c.66. s.2.

205. (a) From 5th April, 1816, the duties chargeable on horses used for riding, shall also be discontinued in respect of horses used by common carriers, their waggoners or drivers, as hereinafter mentioned; and there shall be charged for every horse, not exceeding 15 hands, used by any common carrier, or his waggoner or driver, in drawing of any waggon, or to accompany the same, although the carrier, waggoner or driver, shall ride on such horse while driving, the annual sum of 1*l.* 1*s.*, 56*G.3. c.66. s.3.*

206. Any person chargeable to the reduced duties shall also be exempted from the duties in respect of one horse, bonâ fide kept for the purposes of husbandry, although used occasionally for riding, id. s.4.

207. Every person seeking his livelihood by the carriage of coal, wood, peat or turf, for consumption as fuel in private houses, and not having any other employment, nor any estate of 10*l. per ann.*, and keeping not more than four horses, shall, from 5*th April* 1816, be wholly exempted from duty for the said four horses, provided they shall, without fraud, be wholly used for the purposes aforesaid, and no other; and provided such coal, peat or turf be loaded on the backs of such horses, or in carts each drawn singly by one horse, and no more, id. s.5.

208. From the 5*th April* 1816, every person seeking his livelihood by carriage of ore, slate, stone, coal or culm, to or from the mine or pit, and keeping any mule under 15 hands high for such purposes, shall be charged for each, 3*s.*; provided such coal, culm, ore, slate or stone be loaded on the backs of such mules, 56*G.3. c.66. s.6.* and 59*G.3. c.13. s.6.* [this duty REP. 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.5. infra, pl. 213.]; the duties thus substituted shall be assessed by the former rules, 56*G.3. c.66. s.8.* and the amount raised shall be carried to the consolidated fund, id. s.9. 46*G.3. c.84.* and 52*G.3. c.147.* are REP. id. s.10. [FOR REPEALING DUTIES ON HUSBANDRY HORSES, see pl. 197. (a), and pl. 213.]

209. FROM 5*th April*, 1822, THE DUTIES ON HORSES, mares, geldings or mules, kept and used solely for the purpose of husbandry in G.B., and all assessments thereon, shall severally determine, 1 & 2 G.4. c.110. s.1.

210. The assessments for such horses, &c. for the year ending 5*th April*, 1822, shall be in force for levying and paying the duties for one quarter of that year only, and any 2 or more district commissioners at their meeting at the end of the first quarter of 1822, and after payment of that quarter's duties, may discharge the remainder, and make and return their schedules of discharge thereof in the time and manner usual to make and return their certificates of charge on assessed taxes for that year; and they and all persons soever are exonerated from the duties assessed for such second quarter, id. s.2.

211. Any 2 or more commissioners, at their meetings in any places within G.B. where any contracts of composition for assessed taxes for 3 years from 5*th April* 1819, have been entered into for the duties on horses, &c. and mules used solely for the purpose of husbandry, at any time after payment of $\frac{1}{4}$ th of the duty chargeable for such horses, &c. or mules contained in any such contract, and thereby payable within the third year of such contract (whether payable quarterly or half yearly), may discharge the residue of the duty on such horses, &c. or mules, but without discharging any part of the additional duty thereon thereby contracted to be paid, and may make and return schedules of discharge thereof as in s.2. directed to be done in cases of assessment; with like indemnities as in s.2., id. s.3.

212. After 5*th April* 1821, the duties imposed on mules by any of the assessed tax acts, shall cease in respect of every person seeking his livelihood by carriage of ore, slate, stone, coal or culm, to or from the mine or pit, or of lime, sea-sand, or weed, or other manure, the same being loaded on the backs of such mules, and not otherwise, id. s.4.

213. The reduced duties imposed by 56*G.3. c.66. ante, pl. 200.*, on horses, mares or geldings, shall, in every case where granted during continuance of that act, be hereby made perpetual; but nothing in either act shall affect any exemption to which the use of such horses, &c. may entitle the person keeping them by any act passed prior to granting such reduced duties, id. s.5.

214. Nothing herein shall revive any duty imposed on horses by any act repealed by 48*G.3. c.55.*, or other assessed tax act, id. s.6., nor repeal any provisions or compositions relating thereto, other than the above; and those so repealed shall remain in force for levying all arrears of the duties so repealed, and for recovering penalties incurred in respect of, and for hearing appeals against, assessments of such duties for the present or former years, id. s.7.

EXEMPTIONS to the several duties in the Schedules (E.) and (F.) of 48*G.3. c.55.* and 52*G.3. c.93.*

Case I. Any horse, mare or gelding belonging to H. M., or any of the royal family.

Case II. Any postmaster, innkeeper, or other person licensed for that purpose by the commissioners of stamps, in respect of any horse, mare or gelding let to hire by him or her in any manner where the stamp office duty payable on horses let to hire shall be duly satisfied and paid on each letting, and which shall not, on any occasion, be used for any other purpose.

Case III. Any person duly licensed to keep any carriage whatever, to be employed as a public stage-coach or carriage for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire from different places in G.B., in respect of any horse, &c. actually and solely used and employed by such person in drawing such stage-coach or carriage from place to place for hire.

Case IV. Any person licensed by the commissioners for hackney coaches within the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, to keep any hackney coach or coaches, for any horses, &c. kept for the purpose of drawing such coach, in respect of the duties in Sch. (E.) No. 1., and for 2 horses, &c. and no more, kept for the purpose of drawing each coach so licensed in respect to the duties in Sch. (F.) No. 1.

Case V. Any dealer in horses, assessed to the duties made payable by this act on such dealers, for any horse, mare or gelding belonging to such dealer, and kept bonâ fide for sale, and not kept or used for any other purpose or in any other manner.

Case VI. Any person who, on account of poverty, shall be discharged from the assessment made in respect of his or her dwelling-house, in pursuance of the regulations of any of the acts herein mentioned, for any horse, &c., provided such person shall not keep more than one such horse, &c. and the same shall not be let to hire.

Case VII. Any rector, vicar or curate, actually doing duty in the church or chapel of which he is rector, vicar or curate, who shall not be possessed of an income of 60*l. per ann.*, or upwards, whether arising from ecclesiastical preferment or otherwise; and who shall not keep more than one horse, &c. for riding, which otherwise would be chargeable with duty according to this act, except such person who shall occasionally perform the duty appertaining to any rector, &c. without being the regular officiating minister of the parish or place in which such duty shall be performed. [See 1508, Exemption III. as to horses for draft.]

Case VIII. Any effective officer commanding a volunteer corps claiming and returning his exemption for such number of horses, &c. as he shall have been required to keep for H. M.'s service in such corps and no more, in the manner required by this act, Sch. (N.)

Case IX. Any field officer not being commandant, and any adjutant of any volunteer corps, and any person serving in any corps of yeomanry volunteer cavalry, or providing a horse, &c. for any other person serving in any such corps who shall be returned in the manner required by law as effective, and as having used any horse, &c. for such service on the several days of muster and exercise of such corps, provided such exemption is claimed and returned as required by this act, and a certificate is delivered of such effective service in the manner required by 46*G.3. c.54. s.11.* (Yeomanry Consolidation act.)

Case X. Any non-commissioned officer or private of any of the regiments of cavalry, or in the artillery, for any horse used in H. M.'s service.

215. From 5*th April*, 1819, all mares kept for the sole purpose of breeding, shall, whilst so kept, be wholly exempt from duty, 59*G.3. c.15. s.4.* [See rest of this section annexed to 43*G.3. c.55. Sch. (H.) duties payable by horse-dealers.*]

216. [See Regulations as to assessing the duties on horses, 43*G.3. c.161. s.27.* EXP. as to making returns of them, and s.39. pl. 103. as to assessing persons keeping them; and regulations for assessing stable keepers and others letting horses, &c. to hire, id. ss. 40—47. pl. 105—111.]

DUTIES payable by Persons in respect of HAIR POWDER used or worn by them.

	£.	s. d.
By every person who shall have used or worn any hair powder within the period limited by any of the acts herein mentioned, the annual sum of -	1	3 6

RULES for charging the said Duties.

I.—The said rate or duty to extend to every sort or composition of powder used or worn by any person as an article of, or in, or about, his or her dress, by whatever name distinguished, and to be assessed on and paid by the person having used or worn the same within the year preceding the term for which the assessment ought to be made, except as hereinafter mentioned.

II.—The unmarried daughters of any person shall not be chargeable with the said duties by this act made payable, or with the duties payable at the time of passing this act, or be required to make any return under this act or the acts in force at the time of passing this act, provided their parents have more than 2 unmarried daughters, and have given an account in any list by him or her delivered under this act, or the acts now in force, of the whole number of such daughters, and have required to be assessed and charged for the whole number by one assessment; in which case every such parent shall be assessed and charged in respect to the whole number of such daughters in twice the sum so payable on any single person for his or her having worn hair powder, which shall exempt the whole number of daughters from the said duties, and each of them; and that neither the person giving such account, or any of the persons returned in such account, in respect of whom such charge shall be made, shall in such case be liable to any of the penalties imposed by this act, or the acts now in force, by reason of the duty not being paid for the whole number of such daughters.

III.—The master or mistress of any servant who shall have declared his or her intention to pay the duty which may be charged or chargeable as aforesaid in respect of such servant, and shall in any list or lists returned by him or her have given a true account of all the servants by him or her kept, in respect of whom such duty shall be payable, setting forth the several capacities in which such servants are respectively kept, shall be charged for such servant or servants; and in every such case, every such servant shall be deemed and construed to be exempted from the said duties during his, her, or their continuance in the same service; and also every servant who shall come into the service of such master or mistress in the room of such servant named therein, to serve in the same capacity during the year in which the duty shall be so charged; and no servant named in such list or lists, or any servant serving such master or mistress in any capacity mentioned in such list or lists, shall, during the year for which such duty shall be charged, be required for himself or herself to make any such return, or to pay the said duties or either of them, nor be liable to any penalty by reason of not making any such return, or not paying the said duty.

EXEMPTIONS from the said duties.

I.—Any of the royal family, and any of the menial servants of H. M. or any of the royal family.

II.—Any officer in actual employ in H. M.'s navy under the rank of commander; or any officer holding a commission in H. M.'s navy under the said rank, who shall be employed on the establishment of the royal hospital at Greenwich; or any subaltern or non-commissioned officer or private man belonging to any regiment in the army, artillery, militia, division of marines, or corps of engineers; or any person inrolled and actually serving in any volunteer corps or body of men associated for the defence of any city, town, or place, and for maintaining public tranquillity and good order within the same, whether of infantry or cavalry, which now are or hereafter shall be raised; provided that every such person inrolled and serving as aforesaid, so claiming to be exempted, shall make such return as by this act is directed with respect to the claim of exemptions; provided that every such claim shall be proved by the certificate of the commanding officer of the corps, in the form in Sch. (N.), and according to the regulations of this act in other cases of exemption by such volunteers.

III.—Any clergymen not possessed of an annual income of 100*l.* or upwards, whether arising from ecclesiastical preferment or otherwise; or any preacher or preachers of any congregation of dissenters, or any person dissenting from the church of Eng., in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, who now is or at any time hereafter shall be entitled to the benefit of 1 H. & M. c. 8., or 19 G.3. c. 44., or 31 G.3. c. 32., and who shall not be possessed of an annual income of 100*l.* or upwards, however arising; and the income arising from any benefice or benefices shall be estimated on the average amount thereof, computed on the period of 7 years next preceding that on which such exemption shall be claimed.

48 G.3. c. 55. Sch. (K.)

DUTIES payable by Persons in respect of any ARMORIAL BEARING or ENSIGN, used or worn by them, by whatever name the same shall be called; videlicet,

	£	s. d.
By every such person chargeable with any duty made payable by this act, for any coach or other carriage, the annual sum of -	2	8 0
By every such person not chargeable for any such coach or other carriage, but chargeable to any of the duties on inhabited houses, or to the duties on houses, windows, or lights, made payable by this act, the annual sum of -	1	4 0
By every such person not chargeable for any such coach or other carriage, not being chargeable to the said duties on inhabited houses, or to the duties on houses, windows, or lights, the annual sum of -	0	12 0

The said duties to be paid by every person having used or caused to be used any armorial bearing or ensign, by whatever name the same is or shall be called, within the year preceding the term for which the assessment ought to be made, and to extend to every person who within the said period shall have been possessed of, or shall have kept or had any coach or other carriage chargeable with the duty by this act, or any seal, plate or other article, on which carriage, seal, plate, or other article, any armorial bearing or ensign is or shall have been, during the said period, painted, engraved, marked, or affixed, and whether such armorial bearing or ensign shall be registered in the college of arms or not.

EXEMPTIONS from the said Duties as set forth in Sch. (K.)

217. Any of the royal family, or any person who shall by right of office or by appointment, have worn or used any of the arms or insignia worn or used by the royal family, or used in any city, borough, or town corporate, in that part of G. B. before described. [As to making returns of hair powder or armorial bearing, see 43 G.3. c. 161. s. 27. Exp.]

EXCEPTIONS (by both acts) to the above Duties.

I.—The taking of woodcocks and snipes with nets or springs.

II.—The taking or destroying of conies in warrens, or any inclosed ground whatever, or by any person in lands in his or her occupation, either by himself, herself, or themselves, or by his, &c. direction or command.

SPECIAL EXEMPTIONS* from the above Duties, by 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. (A.) (From the First Duties.)

The royal family; so in 48 G. 3. c. 65. Sch. (L.), Exemptions, and 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (L.), id. ibid.

(From the Duty on Gamekeepers, &c.)

Persons appointed gamekeepers by any of the royal family within the forests, chases, parks, warrens, or other royalties to them respectively belonging, 44 G. 3. c. 98. Sch. (A.) only.

217. (a) The duties, provisions, and penalties contained in 53 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. (L.) relating to persons aiding or assisting, or intending to aid, &c. in taking or killing any game, woodcock, snipe, quail, land rail, or coney, as herein mentioned shall determine, provided the act of aiding, &c. as aforesaid in that act mentioned, shall be done in the company or presence, and for the use of another person, who shall have duly obtained a certificate in his own right according to that act, and who shall by virtue thereof, then and there use his dog, gun, net, or other engine, for taking or killing such game, woodcock, &c., and who shall not act therein under any deputation or appointment, 54 G. 3. c. 141. s. 1.

RULES for charging the above Duties, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (L.) Rules, &c. as amended, &c. by 52 G. 3. c. 93., id. ibid.

217. (b) Every person who intends to use, or shall use any dog, gun, net, or engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in the above schedules marked (L.), shall, before he shall so use the same in any year, [and every person who intends to take or kill, or to assist in the taking or killing, R.E.P. 54 G. 3. c. 141. s. 1. (ante, pl. 217. (a))] any game, woodcock, snipe, quail, landrail, or coney, shall, before he shall so take or kill [or assist, &c., R.E.P. as above [52 G. 3. c. 93. &c.]] the same, pay in each year to the collector of assessed taxes for the parish, ward, or place where he shall reside, if in Eng., or to the collector of the cess or deputy for the shire, county, borough, or place where he shall reside, if in Scot., or one of them respectively as aforesaid, for the time being, the duty hereby made payable, and shall obtain a certificate thereof as herein directed, to be in force until and upon 5th April next after issuing the same, and no longer, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (L.) Rule 1, 52 G. 3. c. 93. id. ibid.

218. Every collector [or his deputy or sub-collector, 52 G. 3. c. 93.] on application to him by any person residing within the limits of his collection, and on payment to him of the duty hereby made payable, shall give a receipt for the same, signed by himself, and made out conformable to such of the forms for certificates in the schedule to 48 G. 3. c. 55. annexed, as the case may require; and every such receipt shall be a charge on the parish or place for which such collector shall be appointed for the sum therein expressed, in like manner and to the like effect as if the said sum had been previously assessed and levied by such collector under the warrant of the commissioners acting in the execution of this act, for which receipt the said collector shall be entitled to demand and receive from such person the sum of 1s. over and above the said duty, and no more, which shall be deemed the compensation to such collector for his pains and care in executing this act; and the duty so received shall be paid to the receiver-general or his deputy, at his or their next receipt of duties, in full and without deduction; provided that the receipts given for the duties contained in this schedule shall not be liable to any stamp duty whatever, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (L.), Rule II., and 52 G. 3. c. 93., id. ibid.

219. Every such receipt being delivered to the clerk of the commissioners acting for the district where the person aforesaid shall reside, shall be exchanged for a certificate made out in one of the forms in Sch. (N.), corresponding with such receipt, which certificate the said clerk shall, on demand, make out and deliver gratis to such person in exchange for the said receipt, id. ibid. Rules III. [see page 1515.]

220. The receipts, so exchanged, shall severally be entered by the said clerks respectively in books to be kept for that purpose, in the manner to be directed by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; and the said books, together with the said receipts, being exhibited to the commissioners acting in the execution of this act for the district, and examined by them, shall be a sufficient authority to them from time to time to cause an assessment to be made on the several persons mentioned in such receipts in the respective sums paid by them, which assessments shall be of the like force and effect, in all respects, and shall be as binding on the several collectors and others acting in the execution of this act, and on the several parishes and places for which such collectors shall have been respectively appointed, as any assessment to be made by the said commissioners respectively under the regulations of the said acts under which they act as commissioners; and the said commissioners shall return duplicates thereof to the receiver-general, and to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, in the manner directed by the said acts, id. ibid. Rules IV.

221. The commissioners for affairs of taxes shall cause a sufficient number of receipts to be distributed amongst the several clerks, and by them to the several collectors in their respective districts, and the several collectors shall be accountable to the respective clerks for the same, and the said commissioners for the affairs of taxes shall also cause a sufficient number of forms to be used for certificates, according to the forms specified in schedule to 48 G. 3. c. 55. annexed, (N.), to be distributed to the respective clerks in like manner, for which forms of receipts the said collectors shall be liable to the clerks, and the latter to the commissioners of taxes for the certificates, id. ibid. Rules V.

222. In any district wherein no clerk shall be appointed to act in execution of the said acts, the surveyor shall execute the duty of such clerk in all matters and things herein required to be done by him, and in every such case the certificates herein required shall and may be issued by such surveyor, according to the directions of this act; and in every place for which one collector only shall be appointed, who shall be chargeable to the duty contained in this schedule, an acknowledgment in writing under the hand of such collector, that he is chargeable with the said duty, and delivered to such clerk or surveyor respectively as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient authority for such clerk or surveyor to issue a certificate to such collector, and to make an assessment of the said duty upon such collector, as in other cases under this act, id. ibid. Rule VI.

223. Every master or mistress charged or liable to be charged to the duties on servants mentioned in Sched. (C.) No. 1. in respect of any gamekeeper, whether such person shall have been deputed or appointed by such master or mistress, or by any other person or persons, and every person granting a deputation or appointment to the servant of any other person who shall be duly charged to the said duty on servants, in respect of such servant, whether as gamekeeper, or in any other capacity, with power and authority to use any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in this schedule, [to take or kill game by any of the ways mentioned in this schedule, 52 G. 3. c. 93.] may obtain a receipt and certificate on behalf of such servant on payment of the duty for the same, as before directed; which receipt and certificate shall be a sufficient authority to assess the master or mistress, or person granting such deputation or appointment, and obtaining such receipt and certificate as aforesaid, and the certificate to be issued thereupon shall be construed to exempt the servant or servants named therein, during his continuance in the same capacity and service; and also to exempt any servant or servants of the same master or mistress who shall succeed to the deputation or appointment of the same manor or royalty, or lands, within the year for which the duty shall be so assessed, for and during the remainder of such year; and no such servant in whose behalf a receipt and certificate hath been duly obtained as aforesaid, shall be required to obtain a certificate for himself, nor be liable to the duty hereby granted, nor to any penalty by reason of not obtaining a certificate in his own name, or for not paying the said duty; provided always, that every certificate granted under this act to any person acting under any deputation or appointment, shall, upon the revocation of such deputation or appointment, be from thenceforth void and of no further effect as to the person therein deputed or appointed; provided, that if any lord or lady of any manor in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or proprietor of lands in Scot., shall, on the revocation of any deputation or appointment by virtue of which a certificate hath been granted for any year, make a new deputation or appointment within the same year, to any person in his or her service, or in the service of the same master or mistress who shall have been charged, as well to the duties on servants as to the game duties granted by this act, the clerk to the commissioners of the district shall, in such case, renew the certificate for the remainder of that year, in behalf of the person so newly appointed, without duty or fee, by endorsing on such certificate the name and place of abode of the person to whom such last-mentioned deputation or appointment had been granted, and declaring the same to be a renewed certificate, free of duty or fee, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. L., 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. L. Rules VII.

224. Neither the assessment of the duty hereby imposed, nor the payment thereof, nor the certificate delivered, nor any thing herein contained or done in pursuance of these acts shall authorize or enable any person to use any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in these schedules, [or to act in manner described in Sched. L., 52 G. 3. c. 93.] at any time or times or in any manner prohibited by any law in force at and immediately before the passing of these acts, nor unless such person shall be duly qualified so to do under and by virtue of the laws in being; and all penalties and forfeitures, actions and suits, shall and may be prosecuted and maintained for such offences as if these acts had not been made, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. L. Rule VIII., and 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sched. L. Rule IX.

225. No assessment or certificate under these acts, or payment of the duty hereby imposed, by or for any person acting under a deputation or appointment, shall be received in evidence, or be available in law or equity, in any suit or prosecution under this act, where proof shall be given of using any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in this schedule, out of the precincts or limits of the manor, royalty, or lands for which such deputation or appointment was made or granted, 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sched. L. Rule IX.

226. If any person is found using any dog, gun, net, or other engine, in G. B., for any of the purposes mentioned in this schedule in respect whereof he shall be chargeable as aforesaid, [or doing any act in respect whereof such person shall be chargeable as in 52 G. 3. c. 93. sch. (L), id. ibid.], by any assessor or collector of the parish where he then is, or by any commissioner for execution of this act acting for the county, riding, division, or place in which such person then is; or by any lord or lady, or gamekeeper of the manor, royalty, or lands wherein such person then is, or by any inspector or surveyor of taxes acting in execution of this act for the district in which such person then is, or by any person duly assessed to the duties granted in this schedule, or by the owner, landlord, lessee, or occupier of the land in which such person then is, such assessor, collector, commissioner or gamekeeper, inspector or surveyor, or other person assessed as aforesaid, or such owner, landlord, lessee, or occupier of land as aforesaid, may demand and require from the person so using such dog, gun, net, or other engine, the production of a certificate issued to him for that purpose, which certificate he is hereby required to produce to the person so demanding the same, and permit him to read the same, and (if he shall think fit) to take a copy thereof or any part thereof; or in case no such certificate is produced to the person demanding the same as aforesaid, the person having made such demand may require the person so using such dog, gun, net, or other engine, forthwith to declare to him his christian and surname, and place of residence, and the parish or place (if any) in which he shall have been assessed to the duties by this act granted; and if any such person shall, after such demand made, wilfully refuse to produce and shew a certificate issued to him for that purpose, or in default thereof as aforesaid, to give in to the person so demanding the same his christian and surname, and place of residence, and the parish or place (if any) in which he has been assessed, or shall produce any false or fictitious certificate, or give any false or fictitious name, place of residence, or place of assessment, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*, [to be sued for, recovered, and applied in like manner as any penalty may be sued for, recovered, and applied by the acts herein mentioned relating to the duties under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; provided that the commissioners before whom the information for the said penalty shall be made shall also be justices of the peace of and for the same county, riding, division, or place where the said offence shall be committed, 48 G. 3. c. 55. sch. L. Rule X.] [to be sued for, &c. as in Rule XIII. directed, 52 G. 3. c. 93. sch. L. Rule X., which remedy is more expeditious, but appears cumulative to the above.]

228. The commissioners for taxes shall once or oftener in every year as soon as conveniently may be, after such certificates shall have been issued, cause the names and residences of the several persons to or for whom such certificates have been granted for that year in each county in G. B., distinguishing the persons acting under any deputations or appointments from others, and the manors, royalties, or lands for which deputations or appointments have been granted, and also distinguishing the rate or duty assessed, to be inserted in some newspaper circulated in each respective county, or in such other newspaper, and in such manner as to them shall seem proper, 48 G. 3. c. 55. sch. L. Rule XI. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. Rule VIII.

229. If any person or persons shall, after 30th June 1818, use any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for any of the purposes mentioned in this schedule, [to any act for the purposes of 52 G. 3. c. 93. sch. (L), id. ibid. Rule XII.] without having obtained such certificate as is directed by this act, in order to an assessment for the year wherein such person or persons shall so use such dog, gun, net, or other engine, every such person shall be liable to the duty of 3*l.* 3*s.* in the said schedule mentioned for that year, and also shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*, over and above the said duty; and the said duty shall be assessed by way of surcharge, according to the directions of the said acts respectively in the district where the offence shall be committed; and the said penalty shall be sued for in like form and manner as any penalty may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by the acts herein mentioned relating to the duties under the management of the commissioners of taxes, or any of the said acts; [subject to appeal whenever the latter shall appoint the time and place for hearing and determining the same, 52 G. 3. c. 93. sch. (L) Rule XII.], id. ibid.

230. Any two commissioners for executing this act, or any one justice of peace of the county, riding, or division, or the shire or stewartry, or for any city, borough, liberty, or place, wherein any offence mentioned in this schedule shall be committed, (such justice being also a commissioner for executing this act, on information or complaint to him or them made of any such offence committed within the district where he shall act as such commissioner, within 3 calendar months after the offence committed, shall summon the person or persons accused, and also the witnesses on either side, to appear before him or them; and upon the appearance of the person or persons accused, or in default of his or their appearance according to such summons, may proceed to hear and determine the matter in a summary way; and on due proof made thereof, by confession or oath of one or more witnesses, may give judgment for the penalty, or for such part thereof, to which part thereof they think proper to mitigate the same (the same never being mitigated to less than one moiety of the said penalty); and in default of payment of the same at the time of conviction, may award and issue his warrant under his hand and seal, for levying the penalty so adjudged, with the reasonable costs thereof, as herein-after directed, of the cattle, goods, and chattels of the offender; and to cause sale to be made of the said cattle, goods, and chattels so distrained, in case they are not redeemed within 4 days; and the money arising from such sale shall, in the first place, be liable for payment of the said penalty, and in the next for payment of the costs attending the information, conviction, and warrant, or informations, &c., to be settled by the said commissioners or justice, and indorsed on such warrant; and also those attending the distress and keeping the goods and chattels distrained, and maintaining the cattle, if any, during the 4 days allowed to redeem the same, and also the expense of the sale thereof, and of returning the said warrant to the commissioners of justice, and entering the same, with an indorsement thereon of what has been done therein; and where sufficient cattle, goods, &c. cannot be found, to commit such offender to the house of correction, there to remain for any time not exceeding 6 calendar months, unless the said penalty is sooner paid; and if such person finds himself aggrieved by the judgment, he shall and may, on giving security to the amount of double the penalty, appeal to the next general quarter-sessions for the county, riding, or division, or to the justice, clerk, or other officer of judiciary of the shire or place in Scot.; which courts respectively shall examine witnesses upon oath, and finally determine the same; and in case the judgment is affirmed, may award the person to pay costs occasioned by such information, conviction, and appeal, as to such courts shall seem meet, 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sched. (L) Rule XIII.

231. If any person shall be summoned as a witness to give evidence before such commissioners or justice receiving such information, or before the courts of quarter-sessions or judiciary, upon appeal touching any of the matters contained in such information, either on the part of the prosecution or of the accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place to be for that purpose appointed, without reasonable excuse allowed by the commissioners, &c. before whom the prosecution is depending, then every such person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of 10*l.*, to be recovered, levied, and paid in such manner and by such means as other penalties mentioned in this schedule may be recovered, levied, and paid, 52*G. 3. c. 95. Sched. (L.) Rule XIV.*

232. The commissioners or justice before whom any offender shall be convicted, shall cause the said conviction to be made out as follows, or in any other form of words to the like effect (mutatis mutandis); that is to say,

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the — of — *A. 48*G. 3. c. 55. SCHEDULE (M.) No. 1. and 52G. 3. c. 93. id. ib. [see pl. 243.]*

Further EXEMPTIONS from the several Duties in the several Schedules marked (C.) (D.) (E.) and (G).

All persons having ordinarily resided in Ire. before commencement of the session of parliament in the 43*G. 3.*, and being members of either house of the parliament of the U. K., whether on the part of Ire. or for any place in G. B., and all persons who shall hereafter be members of the said parliament as aforesaid, and who shall have ordinarily resided in Ire. previous to the commencement of the session of parliament in which they shall respectively serve, and all persons having ordinarily resided in Ire. as aforesaid, or who shall hereafter be ordinarily resident therein, and now holding or who shall hereafter hold offices of public employments in Ire., and are now residing in G. B., or who shall hereafter reside in G. B., with the approbation or by the order or direction of the lord-lieut. or other chief governor or chief governors of Ire. for the time being, or of his chief secretary for the time being, and which be certified under the hand of the lord-lieut., chief governor or governors, or his chief secretary, to be therein resident for the purposes of assisting in the execution of public business, shall be wholly discharged and exempted from the duties set forth in schedules (C.), (D.), (E.), and (G.); provided that this exemption shall not extend to any person ordinarily resident in Ire. as aforesaid, being such a member, who hath resided or shall reside in G. B. longer than during the session of parliament, and 40 days before and 40 days after each session, nor to any article on which a duty is by this act made payable, which shall be retained, kept, employed, or used by such person in G. B., during the residence of such person in Ire.: provided also, that this exemption shall not extend to any person ordinarily resident in Ire. as aforesaid, holding an office or public employment in Ire., unless the approbation in writing, or such order or direction of the said lord lieut. or other chief governor of Ire. for the time being, or of his or their chief secretary for the time being, and a description of the place of abode in G. B. of the persons respectively holding such offices, &c., shall have been before the passing of this act delivered into the office of the commissioners of taxes in Somerset Place, or shall be so delivered within 20 days after passing this act, with respect to persons then in G. B., or within 30 days after the arrival in G. B. of such persons respectively who shall thereafter arrive: provided also, that no person shall, for the purposes of claiming exemption, be deemed ordinarily resident in Ire., unless he reside therein during such portion of the year as is not covered by the privilege herein provided: and for better ascertaining the fact of such residence, every person claiming the benefit of this exemption shall verify the same upon oath (if required) before the commissioners acting in execution of this act in the district where such person resides.

236. FOR GRANTING EXEMPTIONS IN CERTAIN CASES from payment of the duties charged [in Sched. (C.) (D.) (E.) and (F.)] in respect of servants, carriages, horses, and dogs kept in G. B. and Ire. respectively, 51*G. 3. c. 72.*

237. Every person who shall have paid the duties payable in G. B. under 48*G. 3. c. 55.* and 50*G. 3. c. 104.* in respect of servants, carriages, horses, and dogs, for one whole year, who shall also at any time within the same year as hereinafter provided, be charged to the duties so payable in Ire. for his servants, &c. kept in Ire. (the said servants, &c. so kept in Ire. being either the same servants, &c. so charged in G. B. in such year, or servants in the same capacities, or carriages, horses, or dogs of the same description chargeable in G. B. with the like duties, and kept in lieu of such of the said servants, &c. as have been bonâ fide parted with) shall be wholly exempted from payment in Ire. for one year of the duties so charged thereon in respect of every of the said servants, &c. kept in Ire., and every person who shall have paid the said duties payable in Ire. in respect of any such servants, &c. for one year, who shall at any time within the same year as hereinafter provided be charged to the duties payable in G. B., for his servants, &c. kept in G. B., the said servants, &c. so kept in G. B. being either the same servants, &c. which are so charged in Ire. in such year, or servants in the same capacities, or carriages, horses, or dogs of the same descriptions chargeable in Ire. with like duties, and kept in lieu of such of the servants, &c. as have been bonâ fide parted with, shall be exempt from payment in G. B. for one year of so much of the duties as the duty paid in Ire. in respect of each of the same servants, &c., or of the servants, &c. kept in lieu thereof respectively shall amount unto, provided that due proof of such payments be made as in this act, id. s. 1.

238. Proof of payment in Ire. as herein directed within any year commencing on 5th Jan. in such year shall entitle the claimant to the exemption hereby granted in G. B. for the year commencing 5th April following; and proof of payment in G. B. as herein directed for one year, from 5th April in any year, shall entitle the claimant to the exemption hereby granted in Ire. within the year commencing on 5th Jan. preceding, id. s. 2.

239. Every person claiming to be exempted from any of the said duties in G. B. by virtue of this act, shall produce and deliver to the surveyor or inspector of the district where such claimant shall reside, a certificate under the hand of the proper officer of inland excise and taxes in Ire., containing a true copy of the receipt and receipts given to such claimant on all such payments for the last year wherein he was charged to the said duties in Ire., which certificate shall either contain, or there shall be annexed thereto, a return containing the number of servants, &c. paid for in Ire. by such claimant in the last year, and the names and capacities of the servants, and descriptions of the carriages, horses, and dogs, as required by 48*G. 3. c. 55.* and 50*G. 3. c. 104.*, distinguishing which of the said servants, &c. are the same with those so charged in Ire., and which of them are kept in lieu of such of the said servants, &c. which have been parted with, and every such claim being first signed by the claimant in his proper name and usual manner of writing, shall be transmitted to the commissioners for taxes in Eng., who shall examine into the truth of every such claim as they shall think necessary, and the commissioners of inland excise and taxes in Ire. shall aid them in such enquiries; and whenever such claims are duly proved to them, they shall certify the same to the commissioners of the district where such claims shall respectively be made, and shall give such directions for granting the required exemptions, either before or after assessment, as to them shall seem necessary in order to give the relief hereby granted; and the assessment on every such claimant shall be made, discharged, or amended accordingly, id. s. 3. [This enactment is repeated vice versa as to persons claiming exemptions in Ire. on account of payment of the duties in G. B., 51 G. 3. c. 72. s. 5.

240. The several amounts of duty so to be exempted in G. B. shall be retained and set down in figures in the several books and duplicates of assessments of the respective commissioners under the head "exemptions on account of Ire.," and shall respectively be deducted from the whole duty chargeable on each claimant by virtue of the recited acts; and the difference between the duty so chargeable and the amount of the sum to be exempted shall be set down as the net duty to be paid by each such claimant, and the duplicate thereof to be delivered to the collector of the parish, ward, or place, where each such claim shall have been allowed, shall be so made or amended that the net duty only shall be demanded of or paid by each such claimant, 51 G. 3. c. 72. s. 4.

241. Every person who shall make such claim in G. B. without having first paid the duties in Ire. for the same articles, or for articles of the same descriptions with those for which exemption is claimed; and every person who shall make such claim in Ire. without having first paid the duties in G. B. for the same articles, or for articles of the same descriptions with those for which exemption is claimed; and every person guilty of any fraud or contrivance with intent to evade payment of any of the said duties made payable in G. B. or Ire. by the recited acts, either in making any such claim or obtaining any such exemption, or who shall deliver any false or fraudulent certificate with intent to obtain such exemption, or who shall make a second claim for the same cause, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 6.

242. In every case where the said penalty shall be incurred in G. B. the same may be recovered and applied as any penalty for any offence committed against 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 59 G. 3. c. 104. relating to the said duties payable in G. B. may be recovered or applied, in that part of G. B. where the offence is committed; and whosoever the said penalty shall be incurred in Ire. the same may be recovered and applied as any penalty for any offence committed against 48 G. 3. c. 42. or any other act in force in Ire. respecting the same may be sued for or applied in Ire., id. s. 7.

243. Nothing herein shall affect any exemptions from the payments of the said duties allowed by statute to *M. P.*s ordinarily resident in Ire., or persons holding offices or public employments in Ire. and being resident in G. B. for the purposes of assisting in execution of public business [see 52 G. 3. c. 95. Sched. (M.) No. 1. pa. 1514.] or alter the manner of claiming exemptions allowed by those acts, id. s. 8.

48 G. 3. c. 55. Schedule (M.) No. 2. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. id. ibid.

Further EXEMPTIONS from the several Duties in the Schedules marked (C.) (D.) and (E.)

Any sheriff of any county, or any mayor or other officer in any corporation or royal burgh, serving an annual office therein, who during such year of service shall have kept or shall keep any number of servants, carriages, or horses, greater than the number he was assessed to prior to the year of such service, and who has been assessed for such greater number for one year, shall be exempt from farther assessment for such greater number for any other year, though such year of service may have run into a second year of assessment.

244. TO AMEND THE ACTS RELATING TO THE DUTIES OF ASSESSED TAXES, and to regulate the assessment and collection of the same, 48 G. 3. c. 141. [AMD. generally as to surcharges, by 50 G. 3. c. 105., pa. 1517. pl. 245, &c., and as to No. V. by s. 11. of that act, pa. 1520, 253. (a)]

245. After the period appointed for commencement of the rules contained in this clause, all appointments of assessors shall be made, and all notices required to be affixed on any place, or to be delivered to or served on any person for the purpose of returning or estimating the said duties respectively, shall be affixed, delivered, or served, and all assessments of the said duties, shall be returned, and made, and the said duties shall be collected, &c. subject to the following rules and directions, which shall be deemed a part of this act, as if they had respectively been inserted herein under a special enactment, id. s. 1.

No. I. RULES and DIRECTIONS for appointing Assessors of the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Affairs of Taxes, after Expiration of 1808.

First. The respective commissioners acting in execution of the several acts relating to the said duties respectively, shall appoint assessors for each parish, ward, and place within their respective divisions, before the commencement of each year for which such appointment shall be made, and shall do and complete all acts necessary to such appointment, so that the assessors to be appointed may enter on their office on the 6th April in each year, pursuing, in all other respects, the directions contained in the said acts respectively in relation to such appointments; which appointments shall continue for the year to commence on that day, and until other assessors shall be appointed for the same parishes, wards, and places, and for the same duties respectively.

Second. In and for every parish, ward, or place, wherein assessors shall not be appointed before 6th April in each year, to serve for the year ensuing as aforesaid, the last appointment of assessors for the same parish, ward, or place (whether it shall have been or shall be made under any of the acts in force at the passing this act, or under this act), shall continue in force until other assessors shall be appointed for the same parish, ward, or place, and for the same duties respectively, according to the directions of the said acts.

Third. In case the assessor or assessors appointed for any former year shall be dead, removed from, or otherwise unfit or incapable to act for the parish, ward, or place for which appointed, and in default of such appointment of assessors as aforesaid for the year ensuing for the same parish, &c. and for the same duties respectively, then the last appointment of a collector of the same duties for such parish, &c. shall continue in force until assessors shall be appointed for the same parish, &c. and for the same duties respectively; and every such collector shall, during such continuance in his office, execute all matters and things directed to be done, performed, or executed by assessors; and all parts of the said acts, or of this act relating to and applied to assessors, shall be construed as applicable to, and be in like manner, and to the like intent, applied to such collectors; and the powers contained therein shall be as amply exercised by such collectors, as if expressly given to them.

Fourth. All penalties imposed by any acts in force at the time of passing this act, on assessors, for refusing or neglecting to take on themselves the office of assessor, or to perform their duty therein as prescribed by those acts, shall be imposed on assessors appointed according to this act, for neglecting to take on themselves the office of assessor, or perform their duty as prescribed by this act; and every such collector on whom the duty of assessor shall have devolved in pursuance of this act, shall be subject to the like penalties for the like neglect of duty.

Fifth. In every parish, ward, or place, where assessors shall not be appointed in pursuance of this act, or being appointed shall not have taken on themselves the office on or before the commencement of the ensuing year, or where the assessors or collectors for any former year on whom the duty of assessor shall have devolved, shall not have taken upon themselves the office of assessor on or before the commencement of such ensuing year, the surveyor of the district shall execute the duty of assessor for such parish, &c. until assessors are appointed who shall duly take upon themselves the said office.

Sixth. In every notice of continuance in office of any assessor or collector, the respective commissioners who shall cause it to be given shall require the attendance of such assessor or collector on a day, and at a place within the division to be named in such appointment or notice, there to receive and take charge of all notices and papers delivered to them respectively, for due execution of the said acts, as herein-after mentioned, which day shall not be later than 7 days after 5th April in each year; and in default of such notice given by such commissioners, the inspector or surveyor of the district may give the same, and require the attendance of such assessors, &c. at a day and place within the division to be named by the said inspector or surveyor for that purpose.

NO. II. RULES and DIRECTIONS for Service of Notices to Persons liable to be charged to the said Duties, or any of them.

First. All notices relating to the said duties, or any of them, requiring to be affixed on any place, or to be delivered to or otherwise served on any person for the purpose of returning or estimating the said duties respectively, shall be delivered by the respective surveyors of the districts in which such notices are required (or by the inspectors for the same districts, or by any other inspectors or surveyors of the same duties, duly authorized to take charge of such districts respectively, by any 3 or more commissioners for the assessed taxes) to the respective assessors appointed or acting in pursuance of this act, or to the respective collectors on whom the duty of assessor shall have devolved as aforesaid, for the purpose of serving the same on the respective persons liable to the said duties, in the manner required by the said acts.

Second. All such notices shall be delivered to such assessors or collectors on or as soon after 6th April in each year as the same can be done; and the delivery of such notices by such inspectors or surveyors, or any of them, shall be as effectual as if the same had been delivered by the commissioners of the division according to the directions of the said act.

Third. The assessors and collectors shall observe the directions of the inspectors and surveyors, in all matters touching the time and manner of fixing or delivering or otherwise serving such notices, and the persons on whom the same are to be served, such directions having been previously seen and allowed by the commissioners acting for the division in which the said inspector or surveyor shall act.

NO. III. RULES and DIRECTIONS for making and returning the Certificates of Assessment, or Certificates of Estimates, by Assessors acting under the said acts, and for making and collecting the First Assessments in each Year.

First. The assessors of the said respective duties shall deliver their certificates to the respective commissioners on or before the day which such commissioners shall appoint for that purpose, yearly, which day so to be appointed for the delivery of the certificates of assessment of the duties of assessed taxes, shall not be later than 20th June in each year of assessment, on which day the assessor shall also deliver to the commissioners all the returns or statements relative to the respective duties made to the assessors before the respective days so appointed; and all the returns and statements made by the parties to be charged and delivered after that day, shall be delivered to the respective commissioners.

Second. In all cases relating to the duties of assessed taxes, where the assessors shall not have received any return from any person or persons liable to the said duties, the assessors shall make a true assessment on such person, to the best of his or their information and judgment, of the real charge which ought to be imposed, subject to alteration by appeal or surcharge, in the manner directed by the acts relating to the said duties.

Third. The first assessments to be made of the said duties or any of them, for any year, shall be made according to the estimates or returns and assessments mentioned in the preceding rule, without including therein any matters of surcharge by the inspectors or surveyors; which first assessments respectively shall be separately collected, and shall be contained in the first duplicates to be delivered to the collectors and surveyors for that year, and shall be collected and levied in moieties on the days herein-after mentioned; that is to say, one moiety of the duties of assessed taxes, if not sooner paid or satisfied according to the directions of the said acts respectively, shall be collected or levied before 10th Oct. in each year of assessment, or within 21 days thereafter, and the other moiety thereof before the 5th April following, or within 21 days thereafter; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to alter the times or proportions at which the said duties are payable, according to the directions of the said acts respectively, or in any way to affect the provisions of the said acts for recovery of the said duties at such times and proportions as therein prescribed, and the latter shall be deemed payable quarterly at the times mentioned in the said acts, by four instalments; and it shall be lawful to demand, receive, or levy the same according to the said acts; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fourth. In order that due time may be given for hearing appeals against such first assessments, the respective commissioners shall deliver in all cases relating to the duties of assessed taxes, their first duplicates thereof to the respective collectors on or before 20th July in each year, with directions to cause public notice thereof to be given in the parish, ward, or place to which such duplicates relate, to which duplicates in the hands of such collectors all persons interested shall have access, and may examine them at any reasonable time in the day-time.

Fifth. All appeals against such first assessments shall be entered, and due notice thereof given within the respective times herein-after limited; that is to say, within 28 days after delivery of the duplicates of the first assessments to the respective collectors of the parishes, wards, or places, for which such assessments shall be made.

Sixth. All appeals against such first assessments of the duties of assessed taxes, in any year, shall be heard and determined between 20th Aug. and 10th Sept. following, and on such day or days within the time herein limited, as the commissioners of the division shall appoint, whereof they shall give notice in the manner in which such notices have usually been given in the several parishes, wards, and places in their division; provided that where the party assessed shall be prevented from appealing within the time herein limited, or from attending in person at the time limited for hearing his appeal, by absence, sickness, or other sufficient cause, to be proved before the respective commissioners on his oath or solemn affirmation, the commissioners may enter such appeal after the time herein limited, or postpone the hearing thereof for such reasonable time as shall be necessary, so that no delay shall be thereby occasioned in the payment or collection of the sums contained in the said first assessment.

Seventh. The said respective commissioners shall cause to be delivered to the respective collectors their duplicates of the first assessment, including in such duplicates, as well all such matters as have been appealed against and determined by the said commissioners, as all such matters as have been assessed and not appealed against; and all such duplicates shall be delivered on or before the 20th Sept. yearly, to which duplicates warrants shall be annexed for collecting the duties therein contained within the times respectively before prescribed.

Eighth. All such assessments not made on or before 20th Sept. in respect of the duties of assessed taxes, on or against which any appeal shall be depending on those days respectively, shall, on the making or determining the same from time to time be added to such first assessments and to the respective duplicates thereof; and the duties therein, or the moiety thereof which ought to have been previously collected or paid shall be collected, levied, or paid, on or before such day or days as the respective commissioners shall order by their warrant annexed to the duplicates of such added assessments, such day not being later than 21 days after making such assessment, or determining the appeal thereon.

No. IV. RULES and DIRECTIONS for making and collecting the Supplementary Assessments in each Year.

First. If any inspector or surveyor shall have surcharged any person for any matter or thing for which a surcharge is allowed, he may deliver his certificate of surcharge, explicitly stating the particulars in respect to which such surcharge has been made to the respective commissioners of assessed taxes, at any time on or before the 15th December in each year of assessment for the whole of such year, and shall have delivered in the manner directed by the said acts, the duplicates thereof, and the same shall have been entered of record in H. M.'s exchequer, which certificates of surcharge shall be signed and allowed by two of the respective commissioners, under the restrictions, and subject to appeal under the conditions prescribed by the said acts respectively.

Second. All appeals against such surcharges relating to the duties of assessed taxes shall be heard and determined by the commissioners of the division, or any two or more of them, between 20th January and 20th February following; provided that in every case where the party surcharged shall have been prevented by absence or sickness, or other sufficient cause, to be proved before the commissioners on the oath or solemn affirmation of the said party, from appealing within the time herein limited, or from attending in person at the time limited for hearing such appeals, the respective commissioners may enter such appeal after the time herein limited, or postpone the hearing thereof for such reasonable time as may be necessary.

Third. The said certificates of surcharge, amended according to the determination of the respective commissioners, shall be sufficient authority to them, and they shall cause supplementary assessments to be made out of the said duties respectively, including therein all matters so surcharged, as well such matters as have not been appealed against, as those determined by the said commissioners, which shall be severally charged to the said duties respectively, according to the said certificates of surcharge, amended, in cases requiring amendment, according to the determination of the said commissioners, and also including therein the double duties or moiety, or parts thereof assessed, over and above the rates of duty prescribed by the said acts respectively, and also all fines and penalties imposed on any person or persons by the said respective commissioners within the year of assessment for offences committed against the said acts or this act; which double duties or moiety, or parts thereof, and penalties, shall severally and respectively be added to such supplementary assessments, and be collected therewith.

Fourth. The duties and sums of money contained in the supplementary assessments of each year, which shall be completed within the time herein limited, shall, if not sooner paid or satisfied according to the directions of the said acts respectively, be collected and levied at the respective times herein-before appointed for payment of the last instalment of the duties contained in the first assessments of the said duties respectively for that year; and each assessment thereof shall be collected, levied, or paid in one sum.

Fifth. In all cases where the said duties, or any of them, shall not have been ascertained and assessed before the respective days appointed by this act for payment of the last instalment thereof, the same respectively shall and may be assessed from time to time, until a complete assessment be made, and shall be collected, levied, or paid in one sum, within 21 days after notice of the amount contained in the assessment thereof.

Sixth. Every inspector or surveyor who shall wilfully make any false and vexatious surcharge of any of the duties contained in any of the said acts, or shall wilfully deliver to the respective commissioners for executing the said acts, or any of them, any false and vexatious certificate of surcharge of any of the said duties, shall be liable to forfeit to the party grieved any sum not exceeding 100*l.*, or treble the value of the sum claimed by such surcharge, over and above the rate of duty charged by the said acts respectively, to be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., and in the court of great sessions for offences committed in Wa., with full costs, and the party aggrieved may sue either for the said penalty of 100*l.*, or for the said treble value under this act, at his election; and the judge before whom such inspector or surveyor shall have been convicted of such offence in any such suit, or any part thereof, by indorsement on the postea; and the court before whom such inspector or surveyor shall be convicted, by entry on the record, may certify their satisfaction with such conviction; and in every such case the said certificate shall be an authority to the commissioners of taxes, who shall cause to be paid by the receiver-general of the county, riding, or division wherein such conviction was had, out of any monies of the said duties respectively in his hands, such reasonable expenses as the plaintiff shall have incurred, over and above the costs of suit, the amount thereof being certified by the proper officer as taxed between attorney and client; and every such inspector or surveyor shall, after such conviction, be discharged from his employment.

245. TO REGULATE THE MANNER OF MAKING SURCHARGES OF THE DUTIES OF ASSESSED TAXES, and for amending the acts relating to them, 50 G. 3. c. 105.

246. From the passing of this act, the several surveyors and inspectors appointed by H. M. in pursuance of the assessed tax acts, to carry into execution the powers therein given to them, in that part of G. B. called Eng., shall, in making any increase of duty either on the returns of parties or the estimates of assessors, or the assessments made by commissioners under the said acts, observe the following rules for their government, which rules, &c. shall be of like force and effect as if herein inserted under special enactment, 50 G. 3. c. 105. s. 1.

RULES and DIRECTIONS for making Objections and Charges, and for limiting the Times of making the same in certain Cases, in Eng.

First. Every surveyor and inspector appointed in pursuance of the said acts, or any of them, shall inspect and examine all and every the returns of lists, statements, declarations, accounts or estimates, made by any person chargeable to the said duties or any of them, or by any assessors of any of the said duties, according to the directions of any act before-mentioned, and also all the first assessments of the said duties or any of them, made for any parish, ward, or place for any year, as well before as after the respective commissioners acting in execution of the said acts respectively shall have signed and allowed the first assessments made for such parish, ward or place, for that year; and if he shall discover any error or wrong amount or computation of duty therein, or that any person who ought to be charged with the said duties or any of them shall have duly made a return as required by the said acts respectively, but shall have been omitted to be charged with the said duties, or shall be under-rated in the said first assessment, and that the said return doth contain matters sufficient whereby the said surveyor or inspector may rate such person in the said first assessment to the full duties chargeable on him, according to or by or from such return, they shall, before such allowance, correct and amend such assessments, and charge such person to the full amount and rate of duty at which he ought to be charged, according to his return so delivered.

Second. If any such surveyor or inspector shall, after any such assessment in respect of the duties of assessed taxes signed and allowed by the said commissioners, discover on survey or examination, or otherwise, that any person liable to the said duties or any of them, in respect of which such lists, statements, accounts, or estimates ought to have been delivered, hath not made any return as by the acts required, or hath omitted any person, or any article, matter, or thing, or any description of the same, which ought to have been returned, so that he shall not on account of such default or omission have been charged to the amount which ought to be paid by him, or that any exemption, allowance, or deduction, not allowed by the said acts, shall have been claimed in or by such return, such surveyor or inspector may certify the same in writing, with an account of every such default, omission, or claim, with the name or description of the person or thing not returned or omitted, to the best of his knowledge, and the full amount of the single duty by which the assessment should be increased, explicitly stating the particulars in respect of which such charge made, and to deliver the same to any two or more commissioners of assessed taxes, or to their clerk, in order to have such default, &c., and the under-rate occasioned thereby, rectified; and such commissioners shall, on delivery of such certificate, and on oath first made either by the inspector or surveyor, or any other credible witness who shall have served the same, that a notice to the effect herein-after mentioned was duly served, required to assign and allow the said certificate, and to cause supplementary assessments to be made according to such certificates, subject to appeal as in Rule 14th allowed.

Third. Every person in whose custody any such lists, statements, accounts or estimates shall be, shall, on request of any such surveyor or inspector as aforesaid, deliver the same into his custody for the purposes aforesaid, taking his receipt for the same; and every person in whose custody any such assessment shall be, shall, on the request of such surveyor, &c. produce the same; and the latter shall take charge thereof, until he shall have taken the copies of or extracts from the same, necessary for his and their better information.

Fourth. The inspectors and surveyors shall give to every person so charged, or leave at his or her last or usual place of abode, in the district where such charge was made, or on the premises charged with the assessment, as the case shall require, and as directed by the acts relative to assessed taxes, notice in writing of such charge, and of the amount of duty to be included in the certificate thereof, and the particulars thereof; which charges such inspectors, &c. shall make, at or before such times as directed by the said acts or this act for delivery of the certificates of such charges to the said respective commissioners.

Fifth. In default of a meeting of the said respective commissioners before the time limited by the said acts or this act, for hearing of appeals from the charges of the said surveyor or inspector, or if the latter shall not have had notice of a meeting of the commissioners, they shall, at their first meeting to be held thereafter, sign and allow the said certificates, and afterwards hear and determine all appeals therefrom.

Sixth. The certificate delivered to the commissioners containing the day or days of service of the notice delivered to the party charged shall be deemed sufficient proof of the contents thereof, unless the contrary be shown on production of such notice to the said commissioners by the party charged; and no proof of the contents of any such notice shall be required by the commissioners to be given to them, either by a copy thereof or otherwise, previous to their signing or allowing the said certificates, nor on appeal therefrom, nor other proof in any matter relating to the same, except as aforesaid; and except the oath of the persons who shall have served such notices as herein-before directed, to be in form and effect following, viz.

'I, A. B., do swear, that a notice in writing was duly served upon each person mentioned in the above certificate, containing the particulars as set forth therein respectively, on the day or days mentioned in the said certificate.'

Seventh. No assessment made by any assessor of the said duties respectively, nor any charge made by any surveyor or inspector on such assessment, shall be affected by any mistake in the christian or surname or either of them, of any person liable to duty, or of any servant or person, or of any article or thing for which the person so charged shall be so liable, nor for any mistake in the amount of duty charged, nor by any variance between the notice and certificate of charge, whether it shall appear in or shall arise from the notice and certificate, or in either of them; but all such assessments and charges shall be effectual notwithstanding such mistake, &c., provided, that in cases of charge the notice thereof be duly served on the person intended to be so charged, and such notice and certificate do severally contain in substance and effect the several particulars on which such charge was made, which shall be heard and determined on the merits, as by those acts or this act directed.

Eighth. Any person to whom such notice of charge shall be given, on occasion of neglect to make any return as required by the said act or acts, at any time previous to that appointed for hearing appeals next after delivery of such notice, may make out and deliver to the surveyor or inspector who shall have delivered the notice of charge, a true and complete list, account, or estimate of all things required to be returned; so that he may from such estimate, be charged to the said duties respectively the full sum at which he ought to be charged, but to every such list or estimate shall be annexed a declaration in writing in the form and to the effect herein-after mentioned (see Rules 9. & 11.) and if the surveyor, &c. shall be satisfied with such list, &c. and declaration, he shall certify such return and declaration to two or more of the commissioners, with the amount of duty to be charged; who shall thereupon cause the assessment to be made according to such certificate, and the rate of single duty to be charged on the person making such return, without further trouble or delay; but if, on examination of such list or return, and declaration annexed thereto, such surveyor, &c. shall see just cause to object thereto, he shall thereupon certify such return and declaration annexed thereto, together with the cause of his objection, to 2 or more of the commissioners, who shall thereupon cause the assessment to be made according to such last-mentioned certificate in double the amount of the duty at which he shall be charged, and from which charge no abatement shall be made on any pretence, unless on appeal, as in Rule 14th directed; of which objection notice shall be given by the surveyor, &c. to the person to be charged thereby, together with the cause of objection to the said return and declaration; and the said commissioners shall determine the said objections on the merits, without further notice of appeal from the party so charged.

Ninth. Every such declaration, in cases where no return hath been previously made by the person so charged for the same year, shall allege and declare in substance, as follows; i. e. 'That the exhibitant was not at his dwelling house or other place of abode at the time appointed for the fixing, or delivery of general or other notices for making a return as required by the said act or acts, nor between that day and the time limited for making such return to the assessor, and that he hath not received or had any knowledge of any such notice; or, that he was disabled by sickness from making such return; or, that the non-delivery of such return was occasioned by the following mistake or accident, without any intention to defraud the revenue; viz. [here set forth the cause of such default;] and that the return to which the declaration of the said exhibitant is annexed is a full complete return of all things required of the said exhibitant by the said act or acts, or by this act, to the best of his or her judgment and belief;—which declaration and return shall severally be signed by the party making the same, in his proper name and handwriting or sign, and attested by any one or more credible witnesses, who shall have seen the same party subscribe or sign the same, and shall attest the signature thereof in their proper names and handwriting respectively; provided every such witness shall be an inhabitant of the same ward, parish, or place where the said party shall reside, and who shall be rated in the assessment of the same duties for the same ward, &c.; or if in any place there shall be no inhabitant competent to be such witness, then the declaration shall be attested by some credible witness, rated as aforesaid, and residing in the next adjoining parish where the said party shall reside.

Tenth. Any person to whom such notice of charge shall be served on occasion of his having omitted in the return before made for the same year, any person, description, statement, account, or estimate, or any article, matter, or thing which ought to have been contained in such former return, or which shall be mentioned in such notice of charge not to be contained in such former return, or of having claimed any exemption or deduction not allowed by the said acts respectively, if he shall consent to such charge, to give notice in writing of such consent accordingly to the said surveyor, &c., who shall certify such consent, and the amount of the single duty which ought to be charged to the said commissioners; according to which certificate the party charged and consenting thereunto shall be assessed in the single duty, and such consent shall be deemed equivalent to an amended return and declaration as required by this act; or such person so charged, if he shall not so consent in manner aforesaid, may amend such former return, by delivering to the surveyor, &c. a supplementary list, account, or estimate, according to the directions of the said acts respectively, and as the case may require, to which a declaration in writing shall be annexed as herein-after mentioned; which surveyor, &c. may certify his satisfaction therewith, or objection thereto, to the respective commissioners; according to which certificate the party charged shall be assessed in the single duty if such surveyor, &c. shall be satisfied therewith, or in the double duty in the manner hereinbefore directed, where no previous return shall have been made, and as the case may require, subject to the like power of appeal, and like proceedings in all other respects as are before given.

Eleventh. Every such declaration shall allege and declare the cause of each omission made or mentioned in such notice of charge, to have been made in such former return, and also those of each claim of exemption or deduction, and also that the return is a complete return of all matters and things required of him by the said acts, to which the charge shall relate, to the best of his judgment and belief, and that such omission or claim was not made with intention to defraud the revenue; which said last-mentioned declaration and return shall respectively be signed and attested, as in Rule 9th.

Twelfth. No return or declaration shall be required of any article, matter, or thing, of which the party charged shall have made a due return for the same year, but the said party may give notice in writing to the said surveyor or inspector that he or she doth abide by such former return; or may make out and deliver a supplementary return and declaration, as before directed; which return and declaration, together with the return before made, subject nevertheless to the objection of the said surveyor or inspector in manner aforesaid, shall be deemed full and complete returns, if they shall together include all articles, &c. for which the party shall be chargeable; and no person shall be liable to the penalties contained in this act for any article, matter, or thing returned in manner aforesaid, so that he might have been fully charged to the duties chargeable thereon, but only for articles, &c. not returned by him in manner aforesaid.

Thirteenth. Any surveyor, &c. who shall wilfully make any false and vexatious charge of any of the said duties, or wilfully deliver, or cause to be delivered to the said commissioners, any false and vexatious certificate of charge of any of the said duties, or of objection to any supplementary return, or shall be guilty of any fraudulent, illegal, or unjust conduct in the prosecution of any such charge, or shall wilfully neglect the duty of his office, or in any manner offend against the laws for regulating the same, which shall be proved on certificate of the respective commissioners of the division where such offence shall be committed, or any 2 or more of them, or on the affidavit on oath or solemn affirmation, to be taken before any one such commissioner, of any credible person to the satisfaction of any 2 or more of the commissioners of taxes, or by confession: the latter, for any such offence, may suspend the payment to such surveyor, &c. of all or any reward, emolument, or advantage which he would be entitled to under the said acts, for any increase of duty or overplus above the rate of duty occasioned by his information or charge; or such part thereof as they shall deem just, and finally may withhold, and direct the same to be paid by the receiver-general into exchequer, unless the treasury shall think fit to restore the same to such surveyor, &c., or to mitigate and lessen the sum so to be withheld and paid over; but nothing herein-before contained shall affect any action or suit for recovery of any penalties imposed by any former acts, against such surveyor, &c. for any such offence as aforesaid, or for any false and vexatious charge of any such duties; but all such penalties, and powers for recovery thereof, shall remain in force notwithstanding this act, or any thing done in pursuance thereof.

Fourteenth. Where any person thinking himself overcharged or over-rated by any charge or certificate of objection by any surveyor, &c. as aforesaid, or by any assessment to be made in pursuance thereof, shall have appealed therefrom to the said commissioners according to the directions of the said acts, the appellant shall, on the hearing of such appeal, in all cases where a list or estimate in writing shall or ought to have been delivered by him to the assessor, produce or cause to be produced before the said commissioners a true and complete list, &c. or estimate, as the case may require, to the best of the judgment and belief of the appellant, with a declaration in writing thereunto annexed, to the following effect; the appellant shall declare that the list, statement, account, or estimate to which the declaration is annexed, doth contain all matters and things required of the said appellant to be returned by him, for which he is chargeable by any acts, to the best of his judgment and belief; which return and declaration shall severally and respectively be signed by the appellant in his proper name and handwriting; and in default of production of such list, statement, account, or estimate, by or on behalf of appellant, with such declaration annexed, the commissioners shall confirm the charge or objection.

Fifteenth. On every charge allowed or confirmed by the commissioners, in the whole or in part, on which any increase of duty shall be made, the assessments thereupon shall be made in double the amount of duty charged in the supplementary assessments on occasion thereof, unless otherwise provided for by this act.

Sixteenth. Where an amended return, with a declaration annexed thereto, shall not be delivered to the surveyor, &c., and where no list, &c. or estimate with such declaration annexed shall be produced to the commissioners, on the hearing of such appeal, they shall not make any abatement or remission of the double duty, but it shall remain part of the annual assessment; unless the party charged shall have given notice of his consent to the charge of the surveyor, &c., or unless the commissioners are of opinion, that the surveyor, &c. was enabled to correct the first assessments of the said duties for that year, according to this act, by reference to the original return of the party so charged, in which cases the commissioners who shall have confirmed such charge, may at the same time remit and strike off the whole of the double duty.

Seventeenth. Upon every charge confirmed upon appeal, if the commissioners shall, after examination of the appellant, or by other lawful evidence produced on his behalf, as directed by the said acts respectively, be of opinion that the alleged default, neglect, omission, or claim of exemption, allowance, &c. hath been duly accounted for, and that the causes have been truly stated in any amended return and annexed declaration, and that appellant had a reasonable cause of controverting the said charge, and that the said default, &c. was not wilfully made, and with intention to defraud the revenue, the commissioners who shall have determined the said appeal, although they shall have confirmed the charge in part or in the whole, may at the same time remit and strike off the whole of the double duty.

Eighteenth. On every charge confirmed upon appeal, though no amended return is delivered to the surveyor, &c. as allowed by this act, if the commissioners shall, after examination of the appellant, or by other lawful evidence produced on his or her behalf, as directed by the said acts, be of opinion that the alleged default, &c. was not wilfully made, and with intention to defraud the revenue, the commissioners who shall have determined the said appeal, may at the same time remit and strike off any part of the said double duty, not exceeding one moiety thereof; provided if the appellant shall prove to the satisfaction of the said commissioners, that he hath been prevented from making such amended return within the time herein limited by absence, sickness, or other sufficient cause, and that such default, &c. was not wilfully made, and with intention to defraud the revenue, the commissioners may remit and strike off the whole of the said double duty.

Nineteenth. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant the double duty, or any part thereof, on any of the said duties, if the party charged shall not by the laws in force at and immediately before passing this act, be directed to return the article or thing on which the said duties shall be chargeable, and for which the said party was so charged.

Twentieth. Every increase of duty made by occasion of such charges, whether the whole of the double duty shall be remitted or not, and also the double duty, or such part thereof which shall not be remitted, shall be certified on the supplementary assessments made for each year under the hands of the said respective commissioners, or any 2 of them, to the commissioners of taxes; and the latter may direct the receiver-general, who shall have received the said increase and double duty, to pay to the said surveyor, &c. out of the same in such proportions as they see fit, any sum of money not exceeding the rate settled by the treasury, or the high treasurer for the time being, as a reward for their labour and diligence in making such increase of duty; and the certificate of the commissioners of taxes or any three or more of them, shall be a warrant to the said receiver-general to pay the same.

Twenty-first. The determination of the commissioners of assessed taxes, upon any objection made by the surveyor or inspector of the said duties to the estimates or value delivered by the assessors of the property in any parish, ward, or place in which assessments after appeal shall be made, shall preclude the surveyor, &c. from afterwards making a further charge on the same property in the same parish, &c. in that year.

247. The several provisions in the preceding clause of this act, [Rule 8th] relating to charges in the single duty, shall be construed, so far as they respect the duties of assessed taxes in G. B. as aforesaid, as applicable to the provisions of 43 G. 3. c. 161. [and 46 G. 3. c. 65. Exp. 5th April, 1816, property tax act]; and any other acts for regulating the said duties respectively, and relating to surcharges in the double duty, and as if the said provisions relating to charges in the single duty had been expressly applied to those of the said acts respectively relating to surcharges in the double duty, and had been respectively enacted therein; and all provisions in the said acts repugnant to the provisions in the said clause, and for which other provisions are made herein, except such provisions, &c. therein as relate to surcharges in the double duty which are herein declared to be applicable to the provisions of this act, shall severally cease, 50 G. 3. c. 105. s. 2.

248. In case any commissioner or commissioners acting in execution of such acts or of this act, shall by information or other proceedings whatsoever, at suit or on behalf of H. M., his heirs, &c. be impleaded for any matter or thing they may do or determine, or may refuse or omit to do in or about the execution of any such acts, and on trial of such information or other process a verdict shall be given, or any order or rule of court made for such commissioner, or such information or other proceeding shall be discontinued or dismissed the court in which prosecuted, then such commissioner shall be entitled to full costs of suit, as between attorney and client; and the commissioners of taxes may direct the receiver-general of the county within which such commissioners shall act, and the receiver-general shall pay such taxed costs out of any money in his hands arising from the duties of assessed taxes, and allowed in the accounts of the receiver-general, id. s. 3.

249. The enactment, (viz. s. 29.) of 43 G. 3. c. 161. respecting giving notice of beginning or ceasing to keep the different subjects of taxation is Rev. id. s. 4.

250. In cases of charge by any surveyor or inspector, of any of the duties on servants, carriages, horses, mules, and dogs, and for using chair powder, or armorial ensigns, where it is proved on appeal to satisfaction of the commissioners of the division, that there was any doubt whether the article so charged was rateable within the said acts, and that the alleged default was not wilfully made and with intention to defraud the revenue, the commissioners may strike off the double duty so chargeable, id. s. 7.

251. Every person to be charged in pursuance of this act, by certificates of any surveyor or inspector, shall have full 10 days after service of notice of such charge, to deliver his amended return to such surveyor, &c. according to this act, and no certificate of such charge shall be signed or allowed by the commissioners, nor any appeal heard from such charge, before expiration of 10 days; and if the person so charged shall before expiration of the said period deliver a return and declaration as aforesaid, which the said surveyor, &c. shall object to, the latter shall be deemed a sufficient notice of appeal from such charge to the commissioners of the division, who shall hear and determine the matter thereof, according to this act; and if the person so charged shall not before expiration of such 10 days, deliver a return or declaration as aforesaid, the said commissioners, on the appearance before them of the person charged, or some person on his behalf, and the delivery to them of such list, and declaration as hereinbefore required on the day appointed for hearing appeals from the charges of such surveyor, &c., may hear and determine the matter of such charge, according to this act, notwithstanding the person so charged shall not have given previous notice of intention to appeal; provided that in default of the appearance of the party charged before the said commissioners, or some person on his behalf, on such days of appeal, or in default of production of such list or declaration as aforesaid, the certificate of such charge shall be confirmed by the said commissioners, id. s. 8.

252. Every person who in any such declaration shall wilfully and fraudulently declare any matter or thing which is false or untrue, shall, on conviction, be judged guilty of misdemeanor, and committed to the gaol of the county, riding, or shire where such offence shall be tried, for not exceeding 6 calendar months, and fined in such sum not exceeding treble the amount of duty for which he has been charged, as the court shall think fit to order, 50 G.3. c.105. s.9.

253. Any indictment for such misdemeanor in making a false declaration as aforesaid, whether such declaration shall be made within G.B. or without, shall be laid, tried, and determined in the county, riding, or shire where such declaration shall be exhibited, to the respective commissioners of the duties to which it shall relate, id. s.10.

48 G.3. c.141. No. V.

RULES and DIRECTIONS for paying to the Receiver-General, and accounting for the Duties received by the Collectors.

First. The several collectors shall pay to the receiver-general or his deputy, all monies of the said respective duties which they shall have received or levied, by virtue of any of the acts herein mentioned, on the respective days herein appointed for payment of the said duties, or any of them, next after the receipt of the same, and shall, twice in each year, account with such receiver-general or his deputy in the manner herein-after mentioned, for all such duties; that is to say, for the duties of assessed taxes, they shall pay or account for one entire moiety thereof on the day to be appointed next after 10th Oct., and the remainder thereof on the day to be appointed next after the 5th April in each year; on which day so appointed for payment, the full and entire amount of duties, penalties, and sums of money contained in the said supplementary assessments of the said respective duties, shall also be paid to the receiver-general or his deputy, or accounted for to him or them herein-after directed; for which payments the latter shall give to such collectors receipts in writing, and for which receipts no stamp duty shall be chargeable, any statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: provided, that if any collector shall not at or before the respective times herein-before limited, have received or levied the said respective duties, or shall not then account to the receiver-general or his deputy for the same, in the proportions before directed, he shall deliver to the said receiver-general or his deputy, at the respective times appointed for such payments, or to the commissioners of the division, [See 50 G.3. c.105. s.11. next pl.] within 5 days after the respective times aforesaid, a schedule in writing, signed by such collector, containing the christian and surname of, and the respective sums then in arrear from each such defaulter, with an affidavit subscribed, to be made on the oath or affirmation of the said collector, (which oath may be taken before any one commissioner of the division) that the several sums contained in the said schedule have been demanded from, and are due and wholly unpaid from the respective persons charged therewith, either to such collector, or to any other person or persons for him, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

253. (a) Whenever any schedule of arrears shall be transmitted by the commissioners of assessed taxes, in relation to any duties therein mentioned, to the receiver general, and the commissioners for affairs of taxes are of opinion that the duties so in arrear might more conveniently be collected by the respective collectors of duties in their districts, according to the direction of the statutes, than by exchequer process, the latter commissioners may direct the receiver-general to return the schedules to the commissioners from whom he received them, who shall cause the duties in arrear to be levied under any power, and by any method prescribed in the acts respectively, without delay, 50 G.3. c.105. s.11.

Second. Every such schedule, being certified under the hand of the receiver-general or his deputy of the county or division where the said arrears accrued to the court of exchequer at Westminster, shall be received and taken as sufficient evidence of a debt due to H.M., and shall be a sufficient authority to the barons of the said court, or any one of them, to cause process to be issued against such defaulter named in the said schedules, to levy the whole sum in arrear and unpaid by such defaulter; and the sheriff or other officer to whom such process shall be directed, shall, without delay, cause the whole sum in arrear to be levied by due course of law as a debt to H.M. on record, with all costs attending the same, and shall pay the money so levied, after deducting the said costs, to the receiver-general or his deputy, and shall make return of the said process to the said court, according to the due course thereof; provided that every such schedule shall remain with the commissioners of the division for 40 days before the certificate thereof shall be transmitted to such court, during which period every such collector shall give due notice of such schedule to the several defaulters named therein, in such manner as the commissioners shall direct, under like penalty as imposed on collectors by the said several acts, or any of them, in other cases of neglect of duty; and every such defaulter within the like period may pay his arrears to the said collector, whose receipt shall be a sufficient authority to the said commissioners to discharge the arrears so paid from the said schedule; and the said commissioners, if they shall see cause, may issue fresh warrants to collect the said arrears, or any of them, within the said period of 40 days and during that period to use all or any the means prescribed by the several acts relating to the said respective duties, for recovery of the said arrears, or direct them to be levied by the respective collectors under their former warrant, as shall be most expedient; and all warrants to be issued for that purpose may be directed either to the said collectors, or to the high constable, constables, or other peace officers, within the limits of their division, or any one or more of them, or to any other person whom the said commissioners shall think proper, with authority to levy by distress and sale, in the manner directed by the said acts respectively, the sums in arrear, with all costs attending the said process and execution thereof; and the sums so levied, after deducting the said costs, shall be paid to the receiver-general or his deputy, at such time and place as the latter shall appoint, and shall be discharged from the said schedule; and all high constables, constables, and other peace officers, within the said division, shall act in obedience to the directions of the said commissioners, and shall execute all such orders and process as shall be to them or any of them directed for the recovery of the said arrears: provided, that when the commissioners of the division shall certify to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes any reasonable cause for non-payment of, or for not proceeding to levy any part of the said arrears included in the said schedule, and that they have good reason to believe the same will be paid within a reasonable time, to be stated in such certificate, the commissioners of the division may retain the said schedule in their hands, for such further time as shall be necessary, and as shall be mentioned in their aforesaid certificate.

Third. In default of such schedule being delivered within the space of 3 days as aforesaid, either to the receiver-general or his deputy, or to the said commissioners, the receiver-general, to whom the payment of the said duties shall not have been made in the proportions herein prescribed, and at the times above mentioned, shall certify to the exchequer the amount of the duties remaining unpaid, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and the particular ward, parish, or place, and the division where such failure hath happened, together with the names of the collectors thereof; and such certificate under the hand of such receiver-general or his deputy, shall be a sufficient authority to the barons of the said court, or any one of them, to cause process by way of distringas to be issued out of such court against the said collector, upon which writ of distringas, the sheriff or other officer to whom the said process shall be directed, shall return such issues as such court or baron shall order, until a return of such schedule and arrears shall have been made to the said court, and immediate process shall thereupon issue for levying the said arrears out of and under the seal of such court, which levy shall not be remitted unless all the said duties in arrear shall be paid or satisfied before return of such process.

Fourth. On each half-yearly day of payment, as herein directed, the surveyor of the district shall, on notice thereof from the receiver-general or his deputy, attend with such of the duplicates of assessment as shall have been delivered to him, and as shall be required by the said receiver-general or his deputy, and shall assist him in adjusting the accounts of payments and of arrears, and shall also assist the collectors in making out their schedules of arrears to the best of his judgment.

Fifth. The duties contained in any schedule of arrears, as aforesaid, which shall be paid to such collector or collectors within 40 days before-mentioned, or within such further period as shall have been stated in the certificate of the commissioners for retention of such schedule as before-mentioned, shall be paid over to such receiver-general or his deputy, at such time and place as the said receiver-general shall appoint.

Sixth. Whenever any collector shall have advanced and paid to the receiver-general, or his deputy, any sum of money for or on account of the duties assessed on any other person, whether at his request or not, he may, in default of repayment to him or them at any time within 6 calendar months after such payment, levy the said duties by the like ways and methods as he might have levied the same before such payment thereof to such receiver-general or his deputy, and as if such duties had not been paid or satisfied.

254. This act, as to all matters contained in the rules of s.1. shall commence and take effect from 31st Dec. 1808., in respect of all assessments to be made for any year after 5th April 1809., 48 G.3. c.141. s.2.

256. In cases of surcharge under the said acts relating to assessed taxes, no list, affidavit, or oath shall be required of any article, matter, or thing, which the party surcharged shall prove to the satisfaction of the commissioners of appeal to have been duly returned before the day of the said notice, in any list delivered by the said party for the year for which such surcharge shall be made; and either the said return, or a certificate thereof, signed by 2 commissioners of the division where the return shall be made, shall be received conclusively as proof thereof; and the return or returns required by the said acts shall be deemed full, perfect, and complete returns, if the amended return, together with that return before made, shall include all articles, matters, and things for which the party so surcharged shall be chargeable; and no person shall be liable to surcharge for any article, matter, or thing before returned by him or her, according to the directions of the said recited acts, or of this act, 48 G.3. c. 141. s. 3.

256. When the commissioners of any division shall have fixed the day or days of appeal against the surcharges made by any inspector or surveyor, under the said acts or any of them, and shall have caused the due notice thereof to be given, according to the directions thereof, and the said inspector or surveyor having like notice thereof, shall wilfully neglect to attend the meeting or meetings of the said commissioners, held in pursuance of such notices, whereby the commissioners shall be prevented in proceeding to hear such appeals, they may allow to each appellant attending such meeting, a reasonable compensation for such attendance, to be settled by the said commissioners, and paid to such appellants respectively by the receiver-general of the said duties, or his deputy, on production of the certificates of any 2 or more of the said commissioners testifying such allowance, id. s. 4.

257. H. M., his heirs and successors, or the treasury, or any 3 or more commissioners thereof, or the high treasurer, may appoint, for Eng. and Wa., such person or persons, not exceeding 10 in number at any one time, as H. M. &c. shall think proper to be INSPECTORS-GENERAL for the special purposes of this act, herein-after specified; and may allow them such reasonable salaries, charges, and expences, as may be necessary for their pains in executing this act in the several particulars herein-after mentioned; and no person appointed inspector-general under this act shall be entitled to amend any assessment made under the said acts, or to surcharge any person or persons in respect thereof; nor shall any such person have, or receive, or claim any advantage or emolument from any assessment or surcharge to be made under any of the said acts, nor any other emolument than the salary and allowance authorized by H. M. &c., id. s. 5.

The Powers to be vested in the INSPECTORS-GENERAL.

First. They may visit from time to time each inspector and surveyor acting in the execution of the several acts relating to assessed taxes, within the limits of the circuit for which such inspector general shall be appointed, and examine the books, assessments, and duplicates, or certificates of assessment or surcharge in the hands or power of such inspector or surveyor; and also may enquire into his conduct in execution of his office, and into his fitness and capacity to execute the same, and report from time to time on the several matters aforesaid to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; and every such inspector, &c. shall attend such inspector-general at such time and place, within his district, as the inspector-general shall appoint, and shall have given him 3 days notice of.

Second. Every such inspector-general may administer to any such inspector or surveyor, whenever he shall see occasion to examine him or them in any matter touching the execution of the said acts, an oath that he shall truly answer make to all such questions as shall be demanded of him; and the substance of such answer or answers as such inspector, &c. shall give, shall in his presence be reduced into writing, and read to him, with liberty to alter or amend the same in any particular; and he shall sign his assent to the same in his own name, and in his usual manner of writing or signing the same.

Third. It shall be lawful for every such inspector-general as aforesaid, whenever he shall see occasion, to report to the commissioners of the division on any matter or thing touching the execution of the said acts or this act in relation to any assessment in such division, or touching the conduct of any clerk to such commissioners, or of any assessor or collector, together with the opinion of such inspector-general thereon; and he shall transmit a duplicate of such last-mentioned reports to the commissioners for affairs of taxes; and whenever any inspector-general shall have reported to the commissioners of any division, any such matter or thing which, in his opinion shall require the particular consideration of the commissioners of such division, they may hold a meeting for that purpose, and shall hold it within a reasonable time after such report, at which meeting such inspector-general may attend for the purpose of explaining the matters contained in the said report, and of suggesting for their consideration the propriety of adopting such orders as may be agreed upon by the major part of the commissioners of such division who shall be present at such meeting.

Fourth. If any inspector-general, or commissioner for the division, who shall have been present at any meeting of commissioners at which the report of such inspector-general shall have been so considered, shall apprehend the determination made by the commissioners at such meeting on the said report, or any of the matters therein contained, to be contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said acts relating to the said duties respectively, or any of the said acts, such inspector-general and any one or more of the commissioners for the division, present at the time of such determination respectively, may require a case to be prepared, and signed by the said commissioners for the division; in which case the said commissioners shall state specially the part or parts of the report of the said inspector-general, and the facts on which the question arose, together with their determination thereupon, and any other circumstances influencing them in such their determination, and which case they, or the majority then present, shall state and sign accordingly, and cause the same to be transmitted to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, who shall forthwith submit the same to the judges of the courts of record at Westminster; and such judges, or any 2 or more of them, shall, with all convenient speed, return an answer to such case so transmitted, with their opinion thereon subscribed thereto, and what ought under all circumstances to be done therein; according to which opinion and directions so certified, the determination of the commissioners which shall have been so objected to, and which shall be stated in such case, shall be confirmed, reversed, altered, or amended, as the case may require, and any assessments depending on such determination of the said commissioners shall also be altered or confirmed according to the said opinion.

257. (a) None of the provisions of this act herein-before contained shall be construed to extend to that part of G. B. called Scot. 48 G.3. c. 141. s. 6.

258. The several parishes and places, or parts of parishes or places, set down in the 1st column of the following schedule, and which have been heretofore charged to the said respective duties, in the respective divisions mentioned in the 2d column of the said schedule, and set opposite thereto respectively, shall, from and after the passing of this act, be charged to the said respective duties in the divisions, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioners, and persons acting under them, and to the inspectors and surveyors of the division mentioned in the 3d column of the said schedule, and set opposite thereto respectively [The schedule is entirely local.] Nothing herein extends to land tax or duties granted for service of any year, id. s. 13.

Compounding for Assessed Taxes.

259. TO RELIEVE PERSONS COMPOUNDING FOR THEIR assessed taxes from an annual assessment for 3 years [from 5th April, 1819, see s. 1.], 59 G.3. c. 51. [the benefit of this act is EXT. to certificates of composition, signed by the commissioners and parties compounding before 30th Nov. 1819, by 1 G.4. c. 73. s. 1.; and further EXT. as in next pl. by 1 & 2 G.4. c. 113. s. 1.; and AMD. by the rest of those acts.]

260. The assessments made, or to be made under the acts in force, at or immediately before passing of this act, (viz. 10th July 1821,) relating to the duties on windows or lights, and on inhabited houses, and the assessments made or to be made, relating to such other assessed taxes as may be comprised in any composition to be entered into under this act, for the year ending 5th April 1822, shall severally remain to the same annual amount in respect of every person compounding for annual payment of the assessment under this act for 6 years in respect of the duties on houses, windows, and lights; and for 5 years in respect of the other assessed taxes, to be respectively computed from 5th April 1822, 1 & 2 G.4. c. 113. s. 1.

261. The assessments for the year ending 5th April 1819 shall remain to the same amount, in respect of all persons who shall compound for the annual payment thereof, for 3 years, to commence from the said 5th April 1819, on the terms herein-after mentioned; and the commissioners, or any 2 in their respective divisions, may contract with any persons assessed for the said year ended on the 5th April 1819, and who shall apply for that purpose, for the composition of their assessed taxes, for the said period of 3 years; and all persons assessed shall be competent to enter into composition with the commissioners for their assessed taxes for 3 years, to commence from the said 5th April, on the same amount annually, together with an additional annual rate, for every 20s. of the amount assessed, to be ascertained in manner herein mentioned, except as herein-after provided, 59 G.3. c. 51. s. 1., [See now 1 & 3 G.4. c. 113. s. 2. as to renewal of these compositions.]

262. The duties assessed on inhabited houses and on windows or lights, in sched. (A.) or (B.), shall be compounded for separately from all other duties; [but see that both may now be done by a single contract, 1 G.4. c. 73. s. 7. infra, pl. 299.]; and where any such composition is made on the amount of the said duties, the proportion of the additional rate shall be 1s. for every 20s. of the amount assessed, and after that rate for any greater or less sum than 20s.; and where any such composition is made on the amount of any other of the duties, (except the game duties) the proportion of the additional rate shall be 1s. for every 20s. of the amount assessed, and after that rate for any greater or less sum than 20s., id. s. 2. [See note to last pl.]

263. All persons entering into any such composition, and paying the amount at the times herein specified, and doing all other acts required by this act, may make or open during the said term, free of duty, any additional number of windows or lights, and may also keep and use, free of duty, any additional articles of the same description, (though charged with progressive rates of duty, according to the number), as they were charged in the assessment on which the composition has been made; and shall be exempt from any further compliance with any of the provisions relating to assessed taxes, and from all assessments thereon, during the 3 years; except where they shall be chargeable with the duties in respect of a dwelling-house, not comprised in the said composition; or in respect of any articles of a different description, or chargeable with duty under some other schedule, than they were charged in respect of, in the assessment on which the composition shall have been made; in which excepted cases, increased charges shall be made, and the forfeitures inflicted according to the provisions of the several acts, in relation to the said taxes now in force, as if no such composition had been made, 59 G.3. c. 51. s. 3.

264. But no composition shall be entered into under this act with any persons who have become chargeable in the present year, by reason of any different or additional establishment set up within the year ending 5th day of April 1819, to a greater amount of duty than hath been charged on them, in the said last year's assessment, without including as well the amount of duty so charged in the said assessment, as the increased amount of duty so becoming chargeable by reason of such different or additional establishment, nor in any such case where a bonâ fide return of such different or increased establishment shall not be made before the 1st July 1819, id. s. 4.

265. No person shall be chargeable under the acts now in force after expiration of the 3 years, for any part of the increased establishment not included in the composition entered into under this act, who shall give 6 months previous notice of his intention to discontinue the same, and who shall actually have ceased to keep the same one calendar month prior to the expiration of the said 3 years, id. s. 5.

266. When an establishment has consisted in part, of articles whereon a less duty hath been made payable by any act in the present session, it shall be lawful to enter into compositions under this act, on the amount of duty charged on other articles on the said last assessment, together with the amount of duty so made chargeable, by the said act of the present session, id. s. 6.

267. Every composition entered into under this act, in respect of the duties charged on a dwelling house from which the persons entering into the same shall remove during the term, shall cease on 5th April next after such removal; and every composition in respect of any other of the duties, with any persons who within the said term shall die, or become bankrupt or insolvent, or shall assign their goods, shall also cease on the 1st April next after such death, bankruptcy, insolvency, or assignment, id. s. 7.

268. Every composition entered into, subject to determination thereof as aforesaid, shall bind the persons entering into the same, their chattels, goods, and effects, to the payment (at the times and in the proportions herein specified) of the full amount of the sums payable upon the said composition, id. s. 8.

269. All persons so having compounded, and removing, and the executors, administrators, or assignees of such persons dying or becoming bankrupt or insolvent, and the assigns of any such persons assigning their estate, chattels, goods or effects, shall be bound to due payment of all sums in arrear, at the times of such removal, death, bankruptcy, insolvency, or assignment, or which shall be payable upon such composition for the year ending on 5th April next after such removal, &c.; and no goods belonging to any such persons shall be removed, nor shall any goods belonging to any such persons be liable to be taken by virtue of any execution or other process, unless the persons so having compounded, or their executors, administrators, or assignees, or the party to whom any such assignment shall be made, or by whom such process shall be sued out, shall, before the removal of such goods, pay to the collector (the same not having been paid to the bank, or the receiver-general, pursuant to this act) all arrears then due, or payable for the year ending 5th April next, after such removal, &c.; and in case of refusal to pay, the collectors shall distrain such goods, and proceed to the sale thereof, under the acts, till they have obtained payment of the said composition money, together with the costs attending such distress and sale, id. s. 9.

270. The monies payable by virtue of the compositions, shall be payable without demand, quarterly, at the same times, and in the same proportions, and to the same persons as the assessed taxes are now payable; but all persons so compounding, whose annual compositions are not less than 20l., may contract with the commissioners for payment of their composition money into the bank of Eng., or to the receiver-general for the county, by half yearly instalments, all which shall be made in equal proportions on 1st Oct. and 1st April in each year; and with respect to payments to be made to the receiver-general, to require a receipt acknowledging such payments, at the cost of the persons making the same, in such form as the commissioners of taxes shall direct; and in every such case the said receiver-general shall give the said persons a receipt as above, specifying therein the names of the persons compounding and the parish; which receipts shall be delivered over to the collectors of the parish, by indorsement under the hands of the persons compounding, and shall be received by such collectors as cash, and allowed as such by every receiver-general, 59 G.3. c. 51. s. 10.

271. The bank of Eng. shall open an account with the treasury for each year, during the term limited, under the title of "The commissioners of the treasury on account of compositions of assessed taxes," and shall carry to the credit of such account all monies authorized by this act to be paid into the bank; and the cashier who shall receive any money tendered to him in payment, of not less than one moiety of the money annually payable on any composition, shall enter the same, and all such sums shall be entered under the names of the persons compounding, and the county and parish mentioned in the certificate of composition; and the said cashier shall give the person paying, a certificate of such payment, specifying the number of half-yearly instalments thereby discharged, and referring therein to the names of the persons so compounding, and the county mentioned in the certificate of composition; and any person may pay in advance any sum for one whole year, and require a certificate acknowledging such payments; and the cashier, on production of the certificate of composition, (all sums payable for any former year being first satisfied) shall make an allowance out of the sum so paid in advance, of 3 per cent. per ann.; and all such certificates made out by the cashier being indorsed and delivered by the persons compounding, to the collectors of the parish, shall be received by them as cash, and allowed to them in their accounts with the receiver-general, id. s. 11.

272. The assessors shall, as soon after the passing of this act as convenient, give such notice of this act to all persons charged to the said duties, for the year ending 5th April, 1819, as the commissioners for taxes shall direct, together with a printed form, to be used in applying to the commissioners, by all persons desirous of compounding in the form directed as above; and all persons desirous of compounding shall distinguish on such form the additional rate at which they are desirous to compound, and shall sign the same with their christian and surnames, and cause the same to be delivered, free of charge, to the clerk of the commissioners of the division, who shall number and file the same, and with all convenient speed mark the assessments on which such compositions are to be made, and shall summon the commissioners to meet at the usual place on some day, not later than 10 days after he has received notice of any such application to compound; and they shall meet within the time fixed, and so from time to time as often as such applications shall be made, and at such times as they deem necessary for execution of this act, id. s. 12.

273. The surveyors under the acts relating to assessed taxes shall, before any certificate of composition is executed by the commissioners, examine every application to compound, and also the assessments made on the persons applying for the year ended on 5th April, 1819, and also the returns of the same persons for the present year; and if on such examination he discovers that any person who applied to compound hath removed from the house charged in the last assessment, or hath returned any additional establishments as chargeable for the present year, so as to increase the amount of their assessment for the present beyond the amount in the preceding year, or hath not made any return, or hath made an undue return for the present year, the surveyor may certify the same to the commissioners, with his objections; and no composition shall be entered into in respect of the dwelling-house from which the person applying to compound, hath removed; nor with any persons who have not made due return of all articles chargeable on them for the present year; and in case such due return has been made, then no such composition shall be entered into, without adding to the amount of the last year's assessment the additional establishment chargeable in the present year, and calculating the additional rate payable under this act on such aggregate amount; and if any doubt shall arise, whether any composition may be made under this act, the commissioners may refer the matter to the commissioners of taxes, or such as H. M. shall appoint for that purpose, id. s. 13.

274. On every composition entered into, after 1st October 1819, there shall be paid one moiety of the annual amount payable on the same, within 10 days after the date of the certificate of composition; and no such composition shall be entered into after the 31st of the same month, [see vid. 1 G.4. c. 73. s. 1. and time EXTD. to compositions may be made from 5th April, 1822, for 5 and 6 years, see pl. 259.] nor after the persons applying for the same shall have received a notice of any increased charge upon their return for the present year, from the surveyor of the district, nor after any appeal from the amount of the first assessment for the present year, id. s. 14.

275. On all applications to compound, not objected to by the surveyor, the clerk to the commissioners shall compute the amount of duty charged, and shall fill up a certificate of the composition to be made thereon, on which the additional rate is to be charged; and whenever the applications to compound, which have been objected to by the surveyor, have been conceded by the commissioners, the clerks shall in like manner compute the amount of duty whereon the additional rate is to be charged, and fill up a like certificate, and shall give notice to the persons applying, to attend the commissioners to sign the said certificates; and every such certificate shall be made in 3 parts, with counter cheques, and severally signed by the commissioners, and by the persons compounding, in the presence of their clerk, who shall attest the same; and two of the said parts shall be cut off indetwined from the third, and from each other, one of which shall be delivered to the person compounding, and the other to the office of the commissioners of taxes, and the third shall remain with the commissioners executing the same, 59 G. 3. s. 51. s. 15.

276. The sums payable under any composition under this act shall be raised, levied, and accounted for under the provisions of this act, and any acts in force in relation to assessed taxes; and this act shall be construed in such manner and to like effect, as if the several provisions in the said acts were expressly enacted in this act; except where other provisions are made under this act, for paying the compositions; and all powers contained in such acts, for levying the assessed taxes, shall be observed and put in execution, as if herein respectively re-enacted, id. s. 16.

277. All persons who now are commissioners for assessed taxes shall be commissioners for putting in execution this act; and the several present assessors, collectors, and clerks, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general, shall respectively be assessors, &c. to put in execution this act, id. s. 17.

278. The treasury may allow additional salaries to the surveyors, and such incident charges and expences as shall necessarily attend the execution of this act; and every receiver-general and collector shall annually have the like poundage for what money they shall pay or account for, as under 48 G. 3. c. 55., and the clerk of the respective commissioners shall receive from the receiver-general the like poundage on the amount compounded for under this act, as he would have been entitled to under the said act, id. s. 18.

279. After the date and during the continuance of any certificate of composition under this act, all assessments under the said acts shall cease with respect to the persons so compounding, except as before excepted; and 3 abstracts of all certificates of composition shall, within 10 days after 1st Oct. in the present year, and in each subsequent year, within one calendar month after 5th July in such year, be prepared by the clerk to the commissioners, in form directed by the commissioners of taxes; and the commissioners shall yearly set their hands to the said abstracts, and deliver one, together with warrants for collecting the same, to the persons appointed to collect assessed taxes for that year, and one other to the surveyor of the district, and the third to be kept by such clerk for the use of the commissioners; and in case the collectors shall not receive the sums payable on the certificates of composition, according to the said abstract, or the receipt of the receiver-general, or certificates of the cashier of the bank, acknowledging the payment, they may distrain for the same, together with 1s. for every 20s. of the amount in arrear, to their own use, and all costs attending the same, id. s. 19.

280. Commissioners shall cause the amounts of the sums to be raised by such compositions, to be inserted in their annual duplicates of assessed taxes on parchment, in a column to be prepared thereon, under the head of "taxes to be compounded for," id. s. 20.

281. The monies arising by compositions under this act, shall be paid into exchequer, and carried to consolidated fund, id. s. 21.

282. To EXTEND THE PERIOD ALLOWED TO PERSONS COMPOUNDING for their assessed taxes, and to give further relief in certain cases, 1 G. 4. c. 73.

283. All certificates of composition entered into, and signed by the commissioners, and parties compounding at any time after 31st Oct. and before 30th Nov. 1819, shall be valid, and of the same effect as those made within the time by 59 G. 3. c. 51. limited, id. s. 1.

284. Where the commissioners have received any offer to compound after 31st Oct., and on or before 30th Nov. 1819, and have not completed the contracts of composition before passing this act, viz. 24th July 1820, they being satisfied that the party offering to compound was entitled to compound before 31st Oct. 1819, shall enter into composition with such person according to 59 G. 3. c. 51. and this act, provided the certificates of such compositions respectively are executed by 2 or more commissioners and parties compounding, on or before 31st Dec. 1820, id. s. 2.

285. Where any persons assessed in the year ending 5th April 1819, for a carriage with 4 wheels as described in Sch. (D.) No. 1. of 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93., shall have entered into a composition for the same under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, and not for a carriage with less than 4 wheels, as in Sch. (D.) No. 2.; such persons may set up, keep and use, during the 3 years limited by 59 G. 3. c. 51., [commencing from 5th April 1819, id. s. 1.] any such carriage, or carriages, with less than 4 wheels, free of duty: and persons so assessed for any male servant as described in Sch. (C.) No. 1., who have compounded for the same under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, may during the period of composition retain, keep or employ any male servant, or persons described in any other Sch. marked (C.) No. 2. or No. 3. free of duty: and persons so assessed in respect of any mare or gelding kept for riding or drawing any carriage chargeable with duty as in Sch. (E.), who shall have compounded for the same under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, may keep during their compositions, any horse, &c. not exceeding 13 hands, and used for riding or drawing any such last mentioned carriage free of duty granted by 59 G. 3. c. 13.: and persons so assessed in respect of any greyhound chargeable with the duty of 20s., or any hound, pointer, setting-dog, lurcher, terrier or other dog chargeable with like duty of 14s. by Sch. (G.), who shall have compounded for such dog under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, may keep any dog, or number of dogs of the above descriptions chargeable with the same duties, or either of them free of duty, and every such person so compounding as above, and hereby authorized to keep or use any articles herein described free of duty, shall be exonerated from all assessments under the acts relating to assessed taxes, as effectually as if such article had been of the same description, and included in the same Sch. with those on which the composition shall be made, any thing in 59 G. 3. c. 51. to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 3.

286. Every effective member of any volunteer corps of yeomanry having compounded for their assessed taxes under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or entitled to compound for the same under this act, shall, after 5th April 1819, during continuance of such composition, be entitled to like exemptions in respect of his horse used in the corps, as if no such composition had been entered into, and whether it shall include any assessed horses or not; and also during continuance of such composition shall be entitled to the like privileges in respect of any additional horse or horses kept by them, or if such composition had been entered into in respect of one or more assessed horses, as in the Sch. hereto annexed, 1 G. 4. c. 73. s. 4. [See Sch. (A.), First case, post.]

287. The yearly sum payable on any composition entered into in G. B., on removal of the person so compounding to Ire., and the yearly sum payable on composition entered into in Ire., or removal of the person so compounding to G. B., shall be deemed in Ire. and G. B. respectively as a yearly assessment to the amount of duty payable on servants, horses and carriages respectively in that part of U. K. where such compositions are entered into, and which the party might by virtue thereof keep and use, id. s. 5.

288. Every composition entered into by commissioners of districts, in which the amount of taxes compounded for have been assessed wholly, or in part out of the jurisdiction of the commissioners parties to the composition, is declared as valid as if the whole amount of taxes contained therein had been assessed by them: and all assessments out of the district included in the certificate of composition shall be discharged in the respective districts where made by the commissioners acting for the latter respectively, on certificate of the commissioners before whom the composition is entered into: and all discharges heretofore made for such cause are valid, and all persons having acted therein indemnified; but in every case of composition to be executed after passing this act, two commissioners of taxes shall, by certificate countersigned by their secretary, certify the same to the commissioners of the districts in which such composition is intended to be made, and in which the taxes shall be assessed: on which certificate being transmitted to the above commissioners, they shall enter into such composition, or discharge such assessments respectively, id. s. 6.

289. In all cases where the commissioners of districts have allowed persons to compound for all the said duties by one certificate of composition without distinguishing the respective duties, any two commissioners, acting for the division in which such certificate of composition has been entered into, shall certify by indorsement on such certificate, and also in the abstract of such compositions, the particular duties charged in respect of such dwelling-house under 59 G. 3. c. 51. Sch. (A.) and (B.), with the amount of composition thereon, and shall distinguish the same from the rest of the duties so compounded, for which the instalments payable on each description of duty as if the same had been compounded for under separate certificates, as in 59 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2. pl. 262.; and all such single certificates shall be as effectual for all purposes as such separate certificates, id. s. 7.

290. Where by absence, sickness, or other reasonable cause, persons who have given notice to compound under 59 G. 3. c. 51., have been prevented from signing their respective contracts of composition, but have paid one or more instalments due thereon, he may sign such contract himself, or by any agent for that purpose appointed by writing under his hand, duly attested and certified to the commissioners acting for the district in which such composition is made; which appointment, or authority for such agent to sign the contract shall be free of stamp-duty, and being delivered to the above district commissioners or their clerk, shall be sufficient authority for the agent so appointed to sign such certificate of contract, and all contracts on which any instalment shall be paid, though not signed by the party or his agent, shall be binding on him as if duly signed according to this act: and all certificates of composition prepared on notices by the party compounding under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, but not signed by the party or agent, and no instalment paid thereon for 8 months after 24th July 1820, shall be null and void, and the district commissioners shall restore the assessment, and cause the same to be levied as if no notice of composition had been given: and if any such composition, or a portion thereof, has been made on an assessment out of the jurisdiction of the commissioners parties to the composition, the latter shall certify the same to the commissioners of taxes, with the amount of taxes so contracted for, and the district of assessment, who shall certify the same to the commissioners of the district of assessment, who, on receipt thereof, shall cause the assessment to be restored as well for the year in which the composition was made as for the subsequent and all future years, and to be collected together with the other assessed taxes, id. s. 8.

291. In default of payment of the respective instalments on any composition entered, or to be entered into under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or this act, on the respective days of payment specified in the respective certificates of contracts for such compositions; and of neglect of the collectors to distrain under the commissioners' warrant for that purpose, every such collector immediately on default of payment of any instalment shall deliver to the commissioners of the district in which such composition shall have been made, or to the receiver-general acting for the said duties or his deputy, a schedule, in writing, containing the particulars of default, with an affidavit subscribed and verified by such collector before any commissioner acting for such duties, that the amount of such instalments to be contained in such schedule is due and unpaid to such collector or other person, to the best of his belief; and every such schedule being certified under the hand of the receiver-general, or his deputy, of the county or division where the arrears accrued to the court of exchequer at Westminster, shall be received as sufficient evidence of a debt due to H. M., and shall be a sufficient authority to the barons of such court, or any one of them, to cause process to be issued against each defaulter named in the schedule to levy the whole sum in arrear and unpaid by him; and the sheriff or other officer to whom such process is directed, shall, without delay, cause the whole sum in arrear to be levied by due course of law, as a debt to H. M. on record, with all costs attending the same, and shall pay the monies so levied after deducting the costs to the receiver-general or his deputy, and make due return of the process of the court, 1 G. 4. c. 73. s. 9.

292. The provisions and rules contained in the following schedule, shall be deemed part of the act, id. s. 10.

SCHEDULE A. Cases of relief to effective members of corps of yeomanry cavalry.

FIRST CASE. [see s. 4., pl. 286.] Every effective member of such corps, who at the time of entering into, or giving notice to enter into composition for his assessed taxes under 59 G. 3. c. 51., or 1 G. 4. c. 73. who shall not by reason of such service have been assessed for any horse, mare or gelding in the year ending 5th April, 1819, may exercise the like privileges in keeping additional horses, &c. free of duty during the time he shall continue such effective member, and shall provide such horse, &c. horses, &c. in such service as if he had been assessed, and made composition for the same horse or horses, &c. on payment annually of 1s. for every 20s. of the duty so exempted.

SECOND CASE. — Every effective member of any such corps who shall keep one horse, mare or gelding, and no more, and who hath not been assessed for any other article mentioned in the acts relating to assessed taxes (his dwelling-house excepted), may within three calendar months after the passing of this act, enter into composition in respect of such one horse, mare or gelding, on payment annually of the sum of 3*l.* computed from 5th April, 1819, during the period of such computation, and his continuing in the said corps as such effective member.

THIRD CASE. — Every person who hath entered, or shall enter into composition for his assessed taxes under the said act, or this act, and who hath afterwards, or shall become an effective member of any such corps, shall be entitled to the like exemptions for any horse, mare or gelding used or provided by him, in like manner as if on such composition had been entered into by him, all which privileges, immunities and exemptions, shall be granted and allowed according to the following rules.

FIRST RULE. — The amount of composition payable in pursuance of the provisions in the first of the said cases, shall be ascertained and settled by two of the commissioners acting for the assessed taxes in the same district in which the composition shall have been made, and certified by them under their hands by endorsement on the certificate or contract of such composition on the production thereof, and of the certificate of effective service as provided by the said acts relating to the assessed taxes, and which certificate, the said commissioners, for their respective districts are hereby required and authorized to indorse and sign accordingly; and the sum so charged, and added to the amount of the said composition in and by such certificate; and to the abstract thereof, shall and may be levied and recovered by the same instalments, and in like manner as the amount of composition inserted in the body of the said contract, and in addition thereto.

SECOND RULE. — The amount to be charged in the second case before mentioned, shall be inserted in each annual assessment for the same parish or place in which the exemption shall have been claimed, and shall be collected therewith, and levied and accounted for as in other cases of assessed taxes.

THIRD RULE. — The respective commissioners acting in execution of the said acts in their respective districts shall and are hereby authorized and required, on production of the certificate of effective service for any one year, in the manner prescribed by the schedule marked (E), in the acts relating to assessed taxes, and the certificate of contract and composition by such person or persons by certificate under the hands of any two of the said commissioners, to be endorsed on the said last mentioned certificate, to remit and deduct from the annual amount payable on such contract, but nevertheless for the particular year only in and for which such certificate of effective service shall have been produced, and such exemption shall have been acquired, a sum equal to the amount of duty for any such horse, mare, or gelding, horses, mares, or geldings, in respect of which such exemptions shall have been so acquired, and to discharge the amount from the abstract of composition prepared by the said commissioners, in like manner as they would have discharged the same from the annexed assessment, for such particular year of exemption, in case such compositions had not been entered into, and in all cases where such exemptions shall have been claimed and established for and in respect of the year ending 5th Apr. 1820, and the instalments on such composition shall have been paid for that year, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to certify the amount of duty so discharged by reason of the said exemption for the said year, with the cause thereof, to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; and in that case it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to order and direct the receiver-general of the county, riding, or division in which such composition shall have been entered into, to repay the same to the party, which order shall be an authority to such receiver-general to make such payment, and the same shall be allowed in his accounts.

293. To CONTINUE SEVERAL ACTS FOR RELIEF OF persons compounding for assessed taxes from an annual assessment, for a further term; and to amend the acts relating to assessments and compositions of assessed taxes, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. [See s. 1., ante, pl. 260.]

294. The several compositions entered into under 59 G. 3. c. 51. and 1 G. 4. c. 73. on the duties on windows or lights, and on inhabited houses, may be renewed under this act for 6 years, computed from 5th April 1822, and the several compositions entered into under the above acts on the other duties of assessed taxes, may, in respect of those herein enumerated, be renewed under this act for 5 years, to be computed from 5th April 1822, in the manner and subject to the terms and exceptions herein prescribed, id. s. 2.

295. Every new contract of composition entered into under this act, in respect of a dwelling-house, shall contain in its body a schedule of the number of windows or lights therein, and the annual rent or value thereof, and every such new contract so entered into in respect of the other assessed taxes, shall contain in the body the number of servants, carriages, horses, and other articles of each such establishment, which several contracts shall be made according to the form set forth in the schedule to this act, mutatis mutandis, id. s. 3.

296. No composition shall be entered into or renewed under this act, for any assessed taxes, other than those on dwelling-houses mentioned in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (A.) and (B.) and the other assessed taxes on the following articles, forming the establishments of the person so compounding, and kept, and used for his own use, and not for the use or profit of any other, or to be lent or let to hire; viz. the duties on servants mentioned in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (C.) and 52 G. 3. c. 23. Sch. (C.) No. 1. and No. 2.; on carriages mentioned in Sch. (D.) No. 1, 2, & 4.; on horses, mares, and geldings, mentioned in Sch. (E.) No. 1. and 3. and (F.) No. 1., whether such horses, &c. are subject to the rates mentioned in the said acts, or to any reduced duty by any subsequent acts, on dogs, mentioned in Sch. (G.) on persons in respect of hair powder, mentioned in 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. (I.) and on persons in respect of using or wearing armorial bearings or ensigns, mentioned in that act, Sch. (K.); and every such composition comprising any other duty than those enumerated, shall be void in respect of such other duties, and the party shall be subject to assessment for the latter, as if no such composition had been entered into, according to the laws in force relating to such assessments, id. s. 4.

297. Every person not having compounded under the said acts, who shall be duly assessed for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, to the duties chargeable under the acts of assessed taxes, is hereby declared competent to compound for the duties assessed on his dwelling-house for 6 years, and for his other assessed taxes in last pl. enumerated, for 5 years respectively, to commence from 5th Apr. 1822, on the same amounts annually, as shall be assessed on him, for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, with an additional annual duty of 1s. for every 20s. of the respective amounts so assessed, and after that rate for any greater or less sum than 20s., so as not to include in such additional duty any fraction of 1d., id. s. 5.

298. No composition shall be entered into or renewed under this act with any person in trade, in respect of any articles kept for the purpose of trade, nor on any assessment charged on 2 or more persons in partnership in trade; nor on any carriages, horses, mares, geldings, or other articles let or used for hire, id. s. 6.

299. Every person having compounded for the duties on his dwelling-house, windows and lights, under the recited acts, continuing to reside therein, is hereby declared competent to renew his composition under this act, for the same dwelling-house, on the same amount, and under the same terms as expressed in the contract of his former composition, id. s. 7.

300. Every person, except as herein-after excepted, who hath compounded under the recited acts for any of the other duties of assessed taxes in s. 4. pl. 296. enumerated, is hereby declared competent to renew his former composition, as to so much and such part as relates to the duties on the articles in s. 4. pl. 296. on the amount of duty charged on the same, and comprized in the said former compositions respectively, together with the additional duty of 5 per cent. also charged therein in respect of the said articles, which several sums shall form the aggregate amount on which any such composition under this act may be renewed, and the terms of such renewal shall be a further duty of 1s. for every 20s. of the said aggregate amount, and so after that rate for any greater or less sum than 20s., so as not to include any fraction of 1d. in such further duty, and the duties on articles not herein enumerated nor compounded for as above, shall continue to be assessed as if this act had not been made, id. s. 8.

301. Every person hereby declared competent to renew his former composition under this act, and desirous so to do, shall, on or before 5th Apr. 1822, in Eng., and on or before the term of Witsunday in the same year in Scot., deliver to the commissioners of the district in which such person shall reside, or to their clerk, the contract of his former composition, or a true copy or certificate thereof, under the hands of any 2 commissioners acting for the division in which it was entered into, annexing thereto a notice according to the form in the schedule hereto annexed, declaring his intention to renew the same; and in case such composition includes any articles not to be compounded for under this act in s. 4. enumerated, then the person so desirous of renewing his composition, shall insert in such notice a schedule of the number of articles contained in such composition as are not to be compounded for; all which articles, and the duty thereon, shall be excluded from such renewed composition, and the commissioners may renew the same on the enumerated articles only, according to the terms and provisions of this act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. s. 9.

302. If any person having compounded under the said acts, has reduced his establishment since entering into such composition, whereby he may be chargeable with less assessed taxes for the year commencing 5th Apr. 1822, than the duty compounded for, and shall by reason thereof be desirous of waving the said composition, and of entering into a composition de novo, he may so do, on giving notice in writing of such his intention to the surveyor of the said duties acting for the district in which he resides, within 3 calendar months after passing this act, viz. 10th July 1821, annexing to such notice a true and complete return of the greatest number of articles chargeable with duty, as kept by such person after 5th Apr. 1821, so that an assessment may be duly made for the year to commence 5th Apr. 1822, on all the articles chargeable for that year; and the commissioners (subject to the examinations in the manner hereinafter provided, for compositions with persons under this act, who have not compounded under the recited acts), may enter into composition under this act, with the person giving the above notices on the amount of such assessment, with the additional duty hereby granted thereon, to all intents as if they had not compounded under the former acts, id. s. 10.

303. Nothing herein shall empower any person to renew his composition as above, who, since its commencement hath come into possession of any estate, real or personal, on the death of any person, by descent, gift, or settlement, or by any devise or legacy, or under the statute of distributions, or by marriage, and hath thereon retained any servants, carriages, horses, or other articles comprised in any composition entered into or renewed under this act, or hath kept any servants, &c., of the same description and chargeable to the like duties by the acts of assessed taxes, to an extent exceeding the total amount of such composition in 25 per cent. in lieu of the like articles kept by the person so dying, or part thereof; but nothing herein shall authorize the said commissioners to contract for renewal of any composition, under the terms last before mentioned, with any person who has compounded under the recited acts on a less amount of duty than ought to have been included in such composition; but after he has made a bona fide return of the greatest number of servants, &c. according to the laws in force for the year to commence 5th Apr. 1822, in order to an assessment thereon for that year, and who shall be duly assessed for that year to his assessed taxes, may contract for composition de novo with such person on the amount assessed for that year on him in respect of the articles in s. 4. together with the additional duty granted by s. 8. pl. 300. on the amounts of other assessments compounded for under this act, id. s. 11.

304. Every person assessed to the duties on his dwelling-house, for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, and who has opened or made, or shall open or make any additional windows or lights therein after 5th Apr. 1821, and having made such addition, shall deliver a statement as in s. 28. required, of the number of windows, &c. opened, &c. in his dwelling-house after 5th Apr. 1821; also, every person who shall have removed or shall remove from his dwelling-house, at any time within the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, and shall not be assessed for that year for the dwelling-house into which he shall have removed during that year, but who shall deliver a statement as above, of the number of windows, &c. therein, and the rent or annual value thereof at which it is chargeable to the said duties, are hereby declared competent to compound for the said duties on the amount chargeable on such dwelling-house by such assessment as shall be made thereon, for the year commencing from 5th Apr. 1822, id. s. 12.

305. Every person who has begun to keep, use, or employ any servants, carriages, horses, or other articles in s. 4. pl. 296. enumerated, or any additional number thereof, in the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, and who shall deliver a statement as in s. 28. required, of the number of such servants, &c. so that an assessment may be duly made thereon for the year to commence from 5th Apr. 1822, is hereby declared to be respectively competent to compound under this act, on the amount charged by such assessment to be made for the said year to commence on 5th Apr. 1822, on the same terms as if he had been so assessed for the preceding year, id. s. 13.

306. Nothing in this act shall be construed to extend any composition under it to any part of any increased establishment set up by any person who hath compounded under the recited acts, which shall in pursuance of 59 G. 3. c. 51. s. 5. pl. 265. or any other act, be discontinued, and which would not have been assessable on the said person on the year to commence after 5th Apr. 1822, by virtue of that act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. s. 14.

307. Nothing herein shall extend any renewed composition under this act, to any articles of a different description than is authorized by the composition entered into under the recited acts, which have been set up or kept since making the said composition; but every such person shall be assessed for the same, as if the former composition had not been renewed; but any such person who has been assessed for such additional articles for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, or shall be assessed for the same for the subsequent year, and who shall renew his former composition, may also compound for such additional articles, on the amount of such assessment, and the additional rate granted by this act, s. 8. pl. 300. by entering into a separate contract for the said articles so assessed, id. s. 15.

308. Every person who has compounded under the recited acts for the articles of his establishment, and has removed from the division where the former composition was entered into, and who shall desire to renew his composition under this act, in respect of the same, shall deliver to the commissioners of the division where he resides, the contract of his former composition, or a true copy or certificate thereof, under the hands of any 2 of the commissioners entering into the said contract, annexing thereto a notice according to the form in the schedule hereto annexed, declaring his intention to renew the same; and the commissioners may renew the same, according to this act, in like manner as if the former composition had been entered into by the commissioners of the division where it is intended to be renewed, id. s. 16.

309. Every person entering into any composition according to this act, and paying the amount of sums compounded for at the times in the proportions and manner specified in the recited acts and this act, and doing all other things required by the same, shall be entitled to the like privileges of opening, making, or keeping open, free of duty, after 5th Apr. 1822, any additional number of windows or lights in the dwelling-house comprized in his contract of composition, or of setting up and keeping, after 5th Apr. 1822, any additional articles composing his establishment, for his own use, but not otherwise, as the compounders under the recited acts were entitled to according to the said acts, or either of them, and not otherwise provided by this act; and shall be exempt from all assessments on such additional windows, &c. and articles during the respective terms in such composition; provided no person compounding under this act for the duties on any carriages with 2 wheels, and not on any carriage with 4 wheels, shall be entitled to set up, keep or use any carriage with 4 wheels free of duty; but no person who shall compound for any dog or dogs other than hounds, shall set up or keep free of duty any hound or hounds; nor shall any person compounding for any less number of hounds than ten, keep free of duty any additional number; provided also, that the privileges in this clause mentioned, shall not extend to any dwelling-house not comprized in the said composition, nor to any article of such establishment, especially excluded by this act from every composition to be made under it, in which excepted cases increased charges may be made, and the penalties incurred under any of the acts for assessed taxes, may be sued for, and recovered according to the said several acts, as if no such composition had been made under this act, id. s. 17.

310. The compositions to be entered into under this act for the duties on windows or lights, or on inhabited houses, though entered in the same contract shall be deemed separate contracts from those entered into in respect of the duties on servants, carriages, horses, or other articles aforesaid, which may be compounded for under this act; and every such composition for the duties on any dwelling-house, in respect of the windows or lights, or as an inhabited house, shall be entered into with the commissioners acting for the parish or place where it is situate, and not elsewhere; and every such composition, in respect of the servants, &c. as above, forming the establishment of the same person in any part of Eng., shall be entered into with the same commissioners and in one contract; and the same in Scot.; provided that every person assessed for any servants, &c. as above, for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, in 2 or more places in G. B., or assessed for that year, or having compounded under the recited acts, in a different place than where he is entitled to compound under this act, shall deliver to the commissioners to whom such application to compound is made, a certificate under the hands of the surveyors of the district where he shall be so assessed, or have compounded under the recited acts, containing the particulars of such assessment or composition in every such other division or place, according to forms devised by the commissioners of taxes pursuant hereto; and every composition entered into or renewed contrary to the above provisions shall be vacated and made of no effect, by the judgment of the commissioners of taxes, as to compositions made in Eng., and of the barons of exchequer in Scot., as to compositions made in Scot., on due proof before them by like certificate of any such assessment for the said year, or of any composition under the recited acts, which respectively have not been certified to the commissioners, parties to the latter, nor comprized therein, unless it be proved to their satisfaction respectively, that the same has arisen by mistake; in which cases, the said barons and commissioners of taxes respectively, may consent that a new composition shall be entered into, to take effect from 5th Apr. 1822; but nothing herein shall preclude any person from compounding for the duties on their dwelling-house, without compounding for his other assessed taxes, and vice versa, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113 s. 18.

311. Every person compounding as above under this act, shall be freed from any penalty contained in the acts of assessed taxes, imposed on persons for non-performance of any thing required by the said act, to be done by persons chargeable to the duties contained therein, during the term herein limited, except that every such person who, in his returns made under the assessed tax-acts, shall conceal any servant or servants, carriage, &c., horse, &c., or other article herein enumerated, whereby he has escaped assessment for such servant, &c., for the year ending 5th Apr. 1822, or who in his statements, lists, &c. to be delivered under this act, shall conceal any such article, so that the same shall not be comprized in his composition under this act, shall be liable to the like penalty as if he had not compounded under this act, and had continued liable to assessment under the acts of assessed taxes, id. s. 19.

312. If any person who shall not compound under this act shall, after 5th April 1822, occupy any dwelling-house, or keep for his own use, any article chargeable with any duty under the assessed tax-acts which hath been compounded for by any other person, or been set up, or kept by such other person under his composition, or under pretence thereof, the same dwelling-house or other article aforesaid, continuing to belong to the person so compounding, and which hath not been compounded for by the person so occupying the same, or keeping the said article chargeable as above, nor under his composition; every such person so occupying any dwelling-house, or keeping for his own use any such article, shall be liable to assessment in respect of the house, during the time of his occupation thereof, and also for any such article, in like manner and amount as if the same had belonged to him, and as if no composition had been made by such other person; and on due proof before the commissioners that the same hath been done with intent to defraud the revenue, shall be assessed in treble the amount of duty payable as aforesaid, id. s. 20.

313. Every person who shall by fraud or covin procure the assessment on which any contract of composition shall be entered into under this act, to be made on a less amount of duty than ought to be charged on him, or by any means in this act mentioned, shall procure any contract of composition under this act to be entered into, or any such contract entered into under the said recited acts to be renewed under this act, on a less amount of duty than ought to be included in the contract under it, every contract so entered into or renewed under this act shall be void; and the offender shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as any penalty contained in the acts of assessed taxes may be sued for, &c. id. s. 21.

314. No composition for assessed taxes shall be entered into or renewed under this act, with any person who has resided out of G. B. before the passing of this act, for a temporary purpose only, and who has ceased to be assessed to the said duties, or has been assessed to a less amount during such his residence out of G. B., and who is assessed to the said duties on a less amount than before his departure from G. B., for the said year ending 5th April 1822, nor with any person who shall be out of G. B. at the time of executing this act, id. s. 22.

315. Any person residing within G. B. may, in case of sickness, or other reasonable cause, with consent of the said respective commissioners, execute such contract in presence of one or more collectors of assessed taxes, acting for the place where he resides; and every such collector shall testify the execution of such contract, by signing it in the presence of the party so contracting; and any person duly assessed in G. B., for the year ending 5th April 1822, and entitled to compound under this act, but residing in Ire. at the time of executing the contract of composition by the respective commissioners under this act, may execute the same by his lawful attorney duly constituted; the power of attorney being first delivered to the said commissioners for that purpose, which contract so executed shall be valid, id. s. 23.

316. Every composition entered into under this act, in respect of servants, carriages, horses, or other articles before enumerated, with any person hereinafter described, shall cease at the following times; viz. if any person compounding under this act shall afterwards come into possession of any estate, real or personal, or become entitled to the rents or profits of any such estate, on the death of any person, whether by descent, gift, or settlement, or in pursuance of any devise or legacy, or under the statutes of distribution, and shall thereupon retain any servants, carriages, &c., or other such articles aforesaid, forming the establishment of the person so dying, or shall keep any other servants, &c. or other such articles of the same description, and chargeable to like duties by the acts relating to assessed taxes, in lieu of the like articles kept by the person so dying, or who at any time after he comes into possession of, or is entitled to the rents or profits of any such estate by any the above means, and during the term of such compositions, begin to keep any greater number of servants, &c., or other articles, than hath been compounded for by him, the duties on which increased number, according to the acts relating to assessed taxes, amount to one-fourth of the amount of duty so compounded for, then the compositions shall cease at the end of the year of assessment, according to the acts for assessed taxes in which such increase of establishment took place; also, if any person shall intermarry after entering into any composition under this act, and the husband shall by such marriage come into possession, or to the use of the rents or profits of any estate, real or personal, belonging to his wife before marriage, whether on such marriage the husband acquires any interest in law or equity in such estate or not, or whether it is vested to the sole use of the wife or not, in case he shall on such marriage keep any servants, &c., or other articles kept by his wife before marriage, or in case the wife shall after such marriage retain her former establishment, or any part thereof, or in case the husband or wife shall on such marriage begin to keep any other servants, &c. or other articles of the same description, and chargeable to the like duties, in lieu of the wife's establishment before marriage, or any part thereof, or so that the separate establishment of either husband or wife, or their joint establishment, would have been assessable on the husband if no composition had been entered into, to an amount of duty exceeding 1-4th of such composition, then the composition entered into under this act by any or either of such persons so intermarrying and keeping such establishment, shall respectively cease at the end of the year of assessment in which the increased establishment began to be kept; but the commissioners in every such case, after such person has made a bonâ fide return of the greatest number of servants, &c., and other articles of his establishment charged with duty according to the laws of taxes, for the year next after determination of such composition, in order to assessment thereon for that year, and who shall be duly assessed for that year to his assessed taxes, may contract, de novo, with any such person for the remainder of the term then unexpired on the amount so assessed on him for that year, together with the additional duty hereby granted on the amounts of other assessments to be compounded for under this act, 1 & 2 G. 4 c. 113. s. 24.

317. The commissioners for executing the acts of assessed taxes shall be commissioners for executing this act, and the powers herein contained, in all places in G. B.; and the several assessors, collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general for the time being, appointed to put in execution these acts, shall respectively be assessors, &c., to execute this act within the limits of the places to which they are appointed; and the commissioners and other persons authorized by the recited acts, to contract for such compositions, or to do any other thing for carrying them into execution, shall respectively contract for the composition to be entered into under this act, and do all other things required to be done in execution of this act, within their respective jurisdictions; and all their powers shall be revived for the respective terms in s. 1. pl. 260., and s. 2. pl. 294. limited, and shall belong to this act as part thereof, id. s. 25.

318. All provisions contained in the recited acts, though expressly applied to the compositions made under them, shall respectively apply to compositions under this act, and (except where other provisions are substituted hereby) shall be practised in ascertaining the amount on which composition is to be made, and the additional rate to be imposed thereon, and in doing all other things necessary for executing this act, and shall belong to this act, as part thereof; and where other provisions are substituted by this act, in lieu of any provisions, &c. or things contained therein, the same respectively shall be practised in such manner, and to the like effect in all respects, as if the said acts and this act had been incorporated, and as if this act had expressly made void the several parts of the said acts, in lieu whereof any part of this act is substituted, id. s. 26.

319. Where the recited acts contain any limitation of time for doing any act therein required, their powers shall be used for doing the like things required by this act, observing therein the period of time expressed in this act, id. s. 27.

320. Every person hereby declared competent to compound under this act, and desirous so to do, shall, on or before 5th April 1822, in Eng., and on or before the term of Whitsunday, in the same year in Scot., deliver, free of charge, to the surveyor of the respective districts acting for the places where he resides, a notice in writing according to the form in the schedule hereto annexed, declaring his intention to take the benefit of this act, which notice shall be signed and bear date on the day of signature by such person, (or some authorized agent on his behalf, residing in such district, and declaring therein the place of his residence), in presence of one or more assessors or collectors for the same parish or place where the person intending to compound resides, or in presence of such surveyor, who respectively shall attest such signature by signing it with his proper name; and shall contain the number and description of the articles on which such person intends to compound, which notices shall be in form in the schedule hereto annexed; and all such notices may be retained in the hands of the surveyor, until the expiration of 2 calendar months after delivery thereof; and every such surveyor shall carefully examine each assessment and contract of composition entered into under the recited acts, relating to the person so applying, and also the notice delivered by the latter, under the said acts, to discontinue any increased establishment set up under such contract, or any part thereof, and after such examination thereof shall, from time to time, within the said period of 2 calendar months, deliver the same to and therewith certify to the respective commissioners authorized by this act to contract for such compositions for the places where such applications have been made, either his satisfaction with or objections to the notices delivered in such cases, together with the particular article omitted, and the amount of duty on which such composition ought to be made; and no composition shall be entered into in any of the cases so objected to, till a full return is made of all the articles chargeable with duty, on which the composition ought to be made under this act; and every composition entered into contrary to this act shall be void, and the person entering into the same shall be liable to assessment, according to the acts of assessed taxes, as if no composition had been entered into, and to the charge of the respective surveyors, to be made subject to the provisions of these acts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. s. 28.

321. In every case where, by any mistake, the just amount of duty on which the person compounding ought to compound, or the additional rate thereon shall not be duly inserted or calculated in the contract of composition, the commissioners of taxes, and the said barons respectively, by certificate under the hands of any 2 or more of them, directed to the commissioners of the division by whom such composition was made, may cause the same to be amended, or a new contract made and executed, as seems to them expedient, to obviate such mistake, conformably to the true meaning of this act; and the commissioners to whom such certificate is directed shall cause it to be amended accordingly, id. s. 29.

322. After 10th July 1821, the respective commissioners acting in execution of the several acts of assessed taxes, and of those relating to the several compositions for the same, shall cause the several amounts of the duties compounded for, and the additional duty charged by this act, in each place within their respective divisions, to be inserted in their annual duplicates of assessments on parchment, in such form as the commissioners of taxes shall devise, as if the same amounts had been severally charged by assessment, and shall place the respective amounts payable in each parish, &c. opposite the names of the collectors of the same parish, &c. that the several collectors in each parish, &c. may be answerable for the same amounts as if they had been to be raised by assessment under the said acts, id. s. 30.

323. The monies to become payable by the compositions entered into or renewed under this act, shall be paid to the collectors of contracts, or to one of them, at or before the times respectively herein directed to be expressed in such contracts; and all provisions in the acts of assessed taxes for raising, and accounting for these taxes, shall be applied for raising, and accounting for the monies to arise under this act, as if they had continued in the assessment; and the persons assessed, or compounding in each such parish, &c. shall be severally answerable for the default of the collector of each such parish, &c. under the acts of assessed taxes, in proportion to the amount of their composition, and the remainder of the assessments for such parish, &c., id. s. 31.

324. The like schedules as are required by the acts of assessed taxes, in default of the payment of the monies arising by assessment, shall be delivered of persons defaulting in payment of monies to arise by such compositions, which last-mentioned schedules shall in all cases be delivered to the respective receivers-general, or their deputies, on their next receipt after each day of payment, with an affidavit subscribed, to be made on the oath or affirmation of the said collector, that the several sums contained therein have been demanded, and are due from the persons charged therewith, either to such collector, or other person for such collector, to the best of his belief, which oath the receiver-general, or deputy, shall administer and subscribe; and shall forthwith certify the same to the court of exchequer at Westminster, in order that process may thereon be issued against such defaulter without delay, id. s. 32.

325. In default of any such schedule being delivered to any receiver-general, or his deputy, at such his receipts as aforesaid, or within 3 days thereafter, he at the same time that he shall certify the default of the collectors in non-delivery of schedules under any acts of assessed taxes, shall, by the same certificate, and every receiver-general by himself or deputy, shall certify also to the exchequer the amount of the monies to arise by the said compositions, and remaining unpaid, to the best of his belief, and the particular parish, &c. and the division, where such failure hath happened, together with the names of the collectors of the parishes, &c., id. s. 33.

326. After 10th July 1821, every certificate under the hand of any receiver-general, or his deputy, of any default of any collector of the assessed taxes, or of the monies arising from compositions under the recited acts or this act, for non-delivery of a schedule as directed by them, shall be a sufficient authority to any one or more barons of the court of exchequer, to cause immediate process to be issued out of the office of H. M.'s remembrancer of the said court against the collector, on which writ, the sheriff or other officer to whom the said process shall be directed, shall levy issues after the rate of 1s. for every 20s. of the sums so unpaid or unaccounted for by the said certificate, and shall pay the monies so levied, after deducting the costs, to be settled and allowed by the commissioners of taxes, to the receiver-general or his deputy; and the sheriff shall make immediate return of the process to the court according to the due course thereof: but any 2 or more commissioners of taxes, after payment of the duties in arrear so certified, may cause such issues, or such part thereof as they think reasonable, and whenever they are satisfied that the default so certified was not wilful, to be remitted and paid to the collector on whom the same was levied, after deducting thereout the costs attending such process and levy, to be settled and allowed by the said commissioners, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. s. 34.

327. All the monies arisen from fines, penalties, issues, and forfeitures, or shares thereof, respectively recovered, or received under the acts relating to assessed taxes, or any of them, or under the recited acts relating to compositions for the duties, or which, after 10th July 1821, shall be levied, or received under these acts or this act, shall be paid by all sheriffs, under-sheriffs, or other persons who shall receive or recover the same respectively, into the hands of the receiver-general of the said duties and compositions, or to his deputy acting for the county, &c. or place within which such fines, &c. or shares thereof, respectively, have arisen and been received or levied, or shall arise and be levied, within 10 days after they respectively shall receive any order for that purpose under the hands of any 2 or more commissioners of taxes, or to such other receiver-general of assessed taxes, or compositions for assessed taxes, to be named in such order, as the said commissioners last mentioned shall direct, id. s. 35.

328. All the monies arising by compositions entered into under either acts, (the necessary charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the receipt of exchequer at Westminster, to the account of assessed taxes in G. B., and shall be made part of the consolidated fund of the U. K., id. s. 36.

329. The treasury of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., may order 3 or more commissioners of inland excise and taxes in Ire., to make contracts and agreements with any person in Ire., who shall have made any composition for 3 years, from 6th Jan. 1820, under the recited act, for the taxes on dwelling houses, for the fire hearths or places for firing or stoves, and of the windows therein, and in the outhouses, offices, and edifices appertaining thereto, and on male servants and other male persons, and on horses, mares, and geldings, and on carriages, race horses, and dogs, for 6 years, from 6th Jan. 1825, and may so make contracts for any term not exceeding 7 years, from 6th Jan. 1822, with any person charged for the year ending 5th Jan. 1822, with the taxes, or any of them, and who shall apply to the commissioners of inland excise and taxes, for making a composition for the taxes, which such person shall be liable to pay; and all such compositions shall be continued and made on and under the like terms in all respects, as directed by 59 G. 3. c. 51. pl. 259. with respect to compositions under that act; and all rules, and provisions, with respect to any such composition made before 10th July, 1821, and such other provisions as shall be required by the treasury, shall be applied with respect to compositions made under this act, during the term for which such compositions shall be made as aforesaid, as fully to all purposes as if such provisions had been enacted in this act, id. s. 38.

330. The schedule shall be deemed part of this act; and the commissioners of this act may use the form, as well where the composition comprises all the duties or part thereof, only striking out all such parts as may not relate to the duties not intended to be included therein, id. s. 39.

TAYLORS.

1. FOR REGULATING THE JOURNEYMEN TAYLORS within the weekly bills of mortality, 7 G. 1. St. 1. c. 13. [AMD. 8 G. 3. c. 17. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 11.]

2. All contracts, covenants, or agreements, in writing or not, entered into by or between any persons exercising the mystery of a taylor or journeyman taylor, in making up men's or women's work in London and Westminster, or within the weekly bills of mortality, for advancing their wages, or lessening their usual hours of work, are hereby declared to be illegal and void; and if any taylor, journeyman taylor, or other such person, within such limits, shall keep up, act in, enter into, or sign, seal, or be knowingly concerned in any such contract, &c. he shall, on conviction, on the oath of one witness before 2 justices, upon any information exhibited, or prosecution within 3 months after the offence committed, be by order of such justices committed either to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 months, or to the common gaol for the like term, without bail, if they see cause, 7 G. 1. St. 1. c. 13. s. 1.

3. The hours for work for all journeymen taylor, servants, and apprentices to taylor, and other persons employed as taylor within such limits, shall be from 6 in the morning until 8 at night; and there shall be paid unto every journeyman taylor or other such person the wages following, viz. from the 25th March to 24th June, any sum not exceeding 2s. per diem, and for the rest of the year 1s. 8d. per diem, id. s. 2. [Virtually REP. and other regulations made, 8 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1.]

4. The hours of work in the day for servants or journeymen employed as taylor, within the city of London and 5 miles thereof, shall be from 6 in the morning until 7 in the evening, with an interval of one hour only; and there shall be paid to such servants or journeymen for their work during such hours the wages following, viz. any sum not exceeding 2s. 7d. per diem, except during the space of one calendar month from the publication of any order for a general mourning by the earl marshal in the London Gazette, and during that time any sum not exceeding 5s. 1d., 8 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1. [But see s. 6. pl. 15.]

5. If any master taylor, or other person exercising the mystery of a taylor within the city of London or 5 miles thereof, shall pay or suffer to be paid, in money or otherwise, to any servant or journeyman in the business of a taylor, any greater wages than as aforesaid, or such other wages as shall be ordered under this act; or if any such servant or journeyman within such limits shall in any way receive any greater wages than as aforesaid, he shall, on conviction, before 2 justices for the county, city, or place, either by confession, or on oath of one witness on information made, or prosecution commenced within 3 months after the offence committed, be committed to the house of correction by warrant under the hands and seals of such justices, there to be kept to hard labour, or to the common gaol for not exceeding 2 months, or less than 14 days, 8 G.3. c.17. s.2.

6. Any 2 justices within such limits, on information on oath made that there is reason to suspect that any master or journeyman taylor within such limits, hath paid or received greater wages than as aforesaid, may, at the request of such informant, issue their summons in writing signed by them, requiring the clerk, foreman, apprentice, or servant, or other person employed by such suspected person, or any other person, to attend such justices at a time and place specified in the summons; and if any person so summoned shall not attend, and proof is made of the service of such summons, either personally, or by leaving it at the last or usual place of abode of such person, any 2 justices, acting for the county or place, (no excuse for non-attendance being made) may issue their warrant under their hands and seals, to apprehend and bring him before 2 justices, to be examined touching the premises; and if he refuse to be examined, he shall be committed to the house of correction till he submits, id. s.3.

7. In case any taylor or other such person, within such limits, shall have, retain, or employ any journeyman or other person, not being an apprentice, he shall pay him after the same rate, 7 G.1. St.1. c.13. s.3.

8. Any 2 justices within such limits shall, upon complaint made for non-payment of wages, summon before them the party offending; and for non-payment of such wages, or sufficient satisfaction given to the party grieved, may issue their warrant for levying such wages by distress and sale of the offender's goods, rendering the overplus to the owner, and for want of such distress may commit the offender to the common gaol, until he give satisfaction to the party for the same, id. s.4.

9. The justices in quarter sessions within such limits may, on application made, take into their consideration the plenty or scarcity of the times, and other circumstances necessary to be considered, and may alter the wages and hours for work, and may appoint what wages shall be paid to journeymen taylor and servants retained and employed by taylor within such limits, and what hours they shall work, and shall make such alterations therein from time to time as they think fit; and such justices shall, within 14 days next after such sessions, cause such rates and alterations to be printed and published in such manner as they think fit, at the expence of the party desiring the same; and after the publication thereof, all taylor, and their journeymen and servants within such limits, shall observe the same upon pain of imprisonment for not exceeding 2 months on conviction of such offence, after knowledge of such rates or alterations made thereof, upon any prosecution commenced within 6 days after the offence committed, id. s.5.

10. The mayor, aldermen, and recorder of London, at their general or quarter sessions shall, on application made, alter, regulate, and appoint the wages to be paid to journeymen taylor and servants employed as taylor in making up men's and women's work within the city of London, or 5 miles thereof, and the hours of work, and shall, within 14 days after such order made, cause the same to be printed and published in such way as they think fit, at the expence of the applicant, and after publication all taylor and their journeymen, &c. within such limits, shall observe the same, the 7 G.1. St.1. c.13. notwithstanding, 8 G.3. c.17. s.4.

11. Advertising such order of sessions 3 times in any 2 two daily newspapers, published in London or Westminster, shall be deemed good notice of publication under this act, id. s.5.

12. If any person actually employed as a journeyman taylor or servant in the mystery of a taylor within such limits, as in s.1. pl.2. shall depart from his service before the end of the term for which he was hired, or until his work is finished, or not being retained, shall refuse to work (after request made by any master taylor for the wages and hours limited, or to be limited, as in s.5. pl.9.) unless for some cause to be allowed by 2 justices, then such offender shall be sent to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 months, 7 G.1. St.1. c.13. s.6.

13. Penalty on paying or receiving greater wages than hereby allowed, id. s.7. [Virtually REP. 8 G.3. c.17. s.2. pl.5.]

14. This act shall not hinder the paying or receiving any more or other wages, which shall be agreed on for working extra hours, id. s.8.

15. This act shall not extend to fix or regulate wages or hours of work of servants in such business bonâ fide retained as foremen, or to prevent the paying or receiving other wages (not exceeding 6d. by the hour in times of general mourning, and 3d. by the hour at other times), which shall be agreed on for working extra hours, so as such overwork be not at one time less than one hour, and be bonâ fide done by such journeyman or servant, and so as such retainer or agreement is not made in fraud, or to elude the regulations of this act with respect to wages and hours of working, 8 G.3. c.17. s.6. [But see s.1. pl.4.]

16. Persons aggrieved by any order made by 2 justices may appeal to the quarter sessions for the city, division, parish, or place, on giving 6 days' notice thereof, and the justices there shall finally hear and determine the same, and may award costs to either party, 7 G.1. St.1. c.13. s.9.

17. Any person convicted before 2 justices as aforesaid may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the place where conviction had, giving immediate notice of such appeal, and finding security to the satisfaction of such justices for being personally present at such sessions, and for prosecuting the appeal with effect, and abiding the judgment of the court; and the justices at such sessions shall finally determine the same, and may award costs to either party; and if the conviction is confirmed, the appellant shall be committed to prison for the time specified in such conviction, and till such costs be paid, 8 G.3. c.17. s.8.

18. Any person convicted of any offence against this act, and who shall suffer for the same accordingly, shall not be otherwise punished for such offence, 7 G.1. St.1. c.13. s.10.

19. If any master taylor, or other person, as in s.2. pl.5. inhabiting within such limits shall in any way employ any servant or journeyman, or other person, using the business of a taylor in making up men's and women's work out of such limits, as in pl.2. with intent to evade this act, and shall give or pay to such servant, &c. any greater wages than as aforesaid, he shall forfeit 500l. to be sued for by action of debt in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, and the ordinary costs shall be paid, and such forfeiture shall go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing, 8 G.3. c.17. s.7.

20. Actions against any justice, constable, or other person, for any thing done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the thing done, id. s.9.

21. In actions for any thing done under this act the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or forbears prosecution, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall have full costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.10.

TENURES BY THE CURTESY.

26. ALIENATION OF LAND BY TENANT by the curtesy, though with warranty, shall be void against the heir, 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 3. [EXPL. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. 136.]

27. If a man aliene any land that he holds by the law of Eng., his son shall not be barred by the deed of his father (from whom no heritage to him descended) to demand and recover by writ of mort d'ancestor of the seisin of his mother, although his father's deed binds him and his heirs to warranty; and if any heritage descend to him from his father, then he shall be barred for the value of such heritage. And if in time after any heritage descend to him from his father, the tenant shall recover against him of the seisin of his father by a judicial writ that shall issue out of the rolls of the justices before whom plea was pleaded, to resummon his warranty, as in cases where the warrantor says that nothing descended to him from him by whose deed he is vouched; and in like manner the issue of the son shall recover by writ of cozenage, aie and besaie; and the heir of the wife shall not be barred of his action after the death of his father and mother by his father's deed, if he demanded by action the inheritance of his mother by writ of entry which his father did aliene in the time of his mother, whereof no fine is levied in H. M.'s courts, 6 Ed. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 3.

28. The 6 E. 1. c. 3. shall run for such lands aliene after statute published, and for lands of a wife aliene by her husband, whereof no fine was levied in court, EXPL. Stat. Glouc. 6 E. 1. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. 136.

29. STATUTUM DE TENENTIBUS PER LEGEM ANGLIÆ, Stat. Incert. Temp. xix. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. 413.

30. Cum quis terram cum uxore in maritagio ceperit, si ex eadem sua heredem, filium vel filiam, clamantem auditum intra quatuor parietes habeat, si vir uxorem suam supervixerit, sive heres vivat, sive non, ipsi viro remanebit maritagium illud, post mortem viri ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem reversurum: si autem nullum ex uxore sua habuerit heredem, tunc post mortem uxoris ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem revertetur. Si enim donata esset aliqua terra sic in maritagium, vel alio modo, quod cum recipiatur homagium, tanquam ad donatorem de cetero vel ad ejus heredem licite posset reverti, ut supradictum est. Illud judicium erit de secundo viro, quod dictum est de primo, si heres reliquerit primo, sive non, id. ibid.

Sess. 1. c. 37. are incorporated in the 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118., which see, POLICE, pl. 13.]

2. TO REVIVE, AND CONTINUE, AND AMEND several acts for the more effectual prevention of depredations on the river Thames and its vicinity, 54 G. 3. c. 187. [CON. till 5th July, 1821, and then REP. 1 G. 4. c. 118. s. 1. which see, POLICE, pl. 13.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO PREVENT THE COMMITTING OF THEFTS AND FRAUDS by persons navigating bum-boats and other boats upon the river Thames, 2 G. 3. c. 28. Public clause, s. 28. [AMEND. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 42.]

2. If any person shall use, let out to hire, lend or navigate, or shall be aiding in using or navigating upon the river Thames any bum-boat, or other boat, for the purpose of selling, bartering, exchanging or exposing to sale, to and amongst the seamen and labourers employed in vessels, any liquors, slops, tobacco, brooms, or any fruit, greens, gingerbread, or other such like ware; or shall sell, barter, exchange, or expose to sale as aforesaid, any sort of liquor, or any slops, tobacco, brooms, or any fruit, greens, gingerbread, or other such like ware or things, in or from any bum-boat or other boat (except such as shall be entered in the office of the master, wardens and assistants of the guild of the Trinity, as in s. 2. pl. 3. mentioned, and shall be used and navigated for the purposes aforesaid, in the day-time, between sun-rising and sun-setting only); or if any person shall take in exchange, or by way of barter, or shall unlawfully receive, or procure to be delivered to them, any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, materials, or any part of any cargo or loading of any ship or vessels in the said river; all and every such persons shall, upon conviction before any justice or justices of peace within any county, city, division, liberty or place adjoining such river, upon the oath of one or more credible persons, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person may apprehend and detain all persons then on board such boat, and also seize, search and detain such boat, with the tackle, &c. and loading thereof; and the person so apprehended shall be (as soon as convenient) conveyed before such justice; and such boat, with the said tackle, &c. and loading, shall, upon such conviction, be forfeited, and disposed of as in s. 17. pl. 18. directed, 2 G. 3. c. 28. s. 1.

3. Every bum-boat, or other boat whatsoever, used for the purposes aforesaid, upon the said river, between London-bridge and the Lower Hope Point, shall be entered by the owner at the Trinity House in Water-Lane, London, specifying the name and abode of such owner; to the intent that the master, wardens and assistants may register such entry, and deliver in writing to such owner a number to be marked on every such bum-boat or other boat; and every such owner shall cause the number delivered to be marked, together with his christian and surname, and place of abode, upon such part of his boat, in such manner as such master, wardens and assistants shall direct, id. s. 2.

4. Every time the property of such bum-boat or other boat shall be altered, the new owner shall make a fresh entry, and cause the number delivered to be marked on the boat, with his christian and surname, and place of abode, as before directed at first entering, id. s. 3.

5. Such master, wardens and assistants, shall receive and register every such entry in a book, and deliver out a number in writing to such owner to be marked on such boat in such manner as shall be directed; for the registering which entry, and delivering out such number, 5s. shall be paid; and such master, wardens and assistants, shall make such orders, rules and regulations as they think proper for ascertaining the part of such boat on which the number, and the names and abode of the owners shall be marked, and in what manner, and of what dimensions the figures and letters shall be made, and how the same shall be renewed and kept legible; and all such orders, &c. after one publication thereof in the London Gazette, and printed copies of the same being affixed at Iron Gate, the Hermitage, Execution Dock, Shadwell Dock, Rotherhithe Old Stairs, Deptford, Ratcliffe Cross and Blackwall, shall be observed by every owner of such boats so entered, id. s. 4.

6. Such master, wardens and assistants, or such person as they shall appoint under their corporation seal, and all owners or masters of vessels in such river, or such persons as such owners and masters, or any seven or more of them, by writing under their hands and seals, shall for that purpose nominate (and which they may do), may stop, search and detain any boat which there shall be reason to suspect has any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, materials, or any part of any cargo or lading, stolen or unlawfully procured out of any vessel in such river; and also may apprehend any person who may be reasonably suspected of having or conveying any such goods, stores or things in such boat; and such person so apprehended shall be (as soon as may be) conveyed before one or more justices for county, &c. adjoining such river; and if such person shall not produce the party from whom he bought or received such things aforesaid, or some credible person to depose, upon oath, the sale or delivery thereof, or shall not give an account to satisfaction of such justice how he came by the same, then such person so apprehended shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and such boat, with her tackle and loading, shall, upon such conviction, be forfeited and disposed of as in s. 17. pl. 18. directed, id. s. 5.

7. Every constable, headborough and beadle, and every watchman (during duty), shall and may apprehend and detain all persons who may be suspected of having or carrying any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, materials or any part of any cargo or lading, stolen or unlawfully procured out of any vessel in such river Thames, and also shall seize and detain such things as aforesaid, and shall, as soon as may be, convey the person before one or more such justice; and if such person shall not produce the party from whom he bought or received the same, or some credible person to depose upon oath the sale or delivery thereof, or shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justice how he came by the same, then the said person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, 2 G. 3. c. 28. s. 6.

8. Any justice, upon information on oath, by any credible person, that there is cause to suspect that any merchandises (suspected to have been stolen or otherwise unlawfully come by) are concealed in any place, may, by warrant under his hand and seal, cause every such place to be searched in the day time; and if any such merchandises or things shall be found therein, may cause the same to be deposited in some place of safety; and also may cause the person in whose house or other place the same are found, to be brought before him, or any other justice for same county, &c.; and if such person shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justice how he came by the same, or shall not within some reasonable time to be set by such justice, produce the party from whom he bought or received the same, then the person in whose house or other place the same shall be found, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 7.

9. Upon any person being convicted of either of the last misdemeanors, the justice before whom such person was convicted may cause such merchandises or things to be deposited in custody of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of place where so first deposited, who are to receive the same, or in any other convenient place, for not exceeding 30 days; and may order such churchwardens or overseers, if within the bills of mortality, to insert immediately an advertisement in some newspaper; and if in any other parish, to cause notice to be immediately given by some public crier, and by affixing on the church or chapel door a notice in writing, describing such merchandises or things, and where deposited, to the end that persons having lost any such, or any reputable person on their behalf, may claim the same, within 30 days from such notice; and in case any person shall, within the 30 days, prove his property in such things, upon oath, to satisfaction of one or more such justices, then such justice shall order restitution to be made to the owner, after paying the charges of seizing, removing, depositing, and giving public notice, and also reasonable compensation to the person giving information; such charges and compensation to be settled by such justices; but if, at the end of the 30 days (notice having been given), no proof shall be made, such things shall be sold by such churchwardens or overseers with whom deposited; and after deducting the charges settled, the remainder of the money arising from such sale shall be given, one moiety to the person so apprehending or giving such information, and the other to the poor of the parish where goods so first deposited, id. s. 8.

10. Every person to whom any goods, stores or things belonging to ships or vessels shall be brought and offered to be sold, pawned or delivered, shall, (there being cause to suspect that such things were stolen, or unlawfully come by,) apprehend, secure and carry before a justice for county, &c. where the same were so brought, the person so bringing or offering the same, and in the mean time secure such things; and such person so apprehended shall be dealt with, and such things shall be deposited and disposed of in the same manner as if he had been apprehended by the constable, headborough, beadle, or watchman, as aforesaid, id. s. 9.

11. Every person deemed guilty of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, for every such misdemeanor, forfeit for the first offence 40s., for the second 4l., and for every subsequent offence 4l., all which forfeitures shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, rendering to him overplus after charges of distress and sale deducted, by warrant under hand and seal of any one or more justices before whom such offender was convicted; which forfeiture shall be paid one moiety to the person apprehending or giving information as case may be, and the other to the master, wardens, and assistants of such corporation, to be distributed among the poor decayed seamen and their widows, under the care of such corporation; and if such forfeitures shall not be paid nor sufficient distress found to levy same, then such justice shall commit such offender to the common gaol, or other prison or house of correction, without bail &c., for one month for the first offence, for the second 2 months, and for every subsequent offence, until such offender shall be discharged by quarter sessions, id. s. 10.

12. Every conviction for such misdemeanors shall be certified by convicting justice, to the next quarter sessions, to be filed of record, and shall be drawn up on parchment, and be in this form, viz.

‘Middlesex, } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year — A. D. to wit, } was convicted before — of the justice of the peace for the county, city, division, liberty, or place aforesaid [as the case shall be], of a misdemeanor in one or more of the instances before mentioned, [specifying the same, particularly in the words by which the same is or are described in and by this act, or in any other form of words to the like effect.] Given under — hand and seal the day and year aforesaid.’

Which conviction, in the same or like words, shall be good, and not quashed for want of any other form, nor liable to be removed by certiorari, but shall be deemed final, id. s. 11.

13. Every person who shall buy or receive any part of the cargo or loading of, or any goods, stores, or things, of or belonging to any ship or vessel in the said river, knowing the same to be stolen or unlawfully come by; or shall privately buy or receive any such goods, stores or things, or any part of such cargo or loading, by suffering any door, window, or shutter, to be left open or unfastened between sun-setting and sun-rising for that purpose, or shall buy or receive the same at any time in a clandestine manner, from any person whomsoever, shall, being thereof convicted (although the principal felon or offender have not been convicted,) be transported for fourteen years to any of H. M.'s plantations in America, 2 G.3. c.28. s.12.

14. If any person shall cut, damage, or spoil any cordage, cable, buoys, buoy-rope, headfast, or other fast, fixed to any anchor or moorings belonging to any vessel at anchor or mooring in the Thames, or any rope used for mooring or rafting masts or timber, or shall be aiding therein, with an intent to steal, such person shall, being convicted thereof on the oath of two or more credible witnesses, be transported to some of H. M.'s plantations in America for 7 years, id. s.13.

15. If any person out of prison, by stealing or unlawfully receiving any part of a cargo, &c. from any vessel in such river, shall afterwards discover two or more persons who shall have bought or received any stolen or unlawfully procured goods, stores, or things, or any part of any cargo or lading of any ship or vessel in such river, knowing the same to be stolen or unlawfully procured, so as 2 or more of the persons discovered shall be convicted, every person so discovering shall have the pardon of H. M. for all such felonies by him committed before such discovery made, which pardon shall be likewise a bar to any appeal for such felony, id. s.14.

16. If after the publication of any orders, rules, and regulations by such master, wardens, and assistants, any person shall row or navigate, within the limits aforesaid, any boat herein before directed to be entered, marked and numbered, not being so entered, marked and numbered, or having a false mark or number, or not having the real name and abode of the owner inscribed thereon, or not having such names and figures kept legible, in such manner as directed by such orders, &c. in each of such cases every such person, being thereof convicted before one or more justices for county, &c. adjoining such river, upon his own confession, or the oath of one or more persons, shall, for every offence, forfeit 40s.; one moiety to the person who shall give information of and prosecute to conviction such offender, and the other to such master, wardens, and assistants, to be applied as aforesaid; and any person, upon discovery of any such offence, may seize and detain such boat, with all her tackle, &c., and shall thereupon, within 48 hours after seizure, give information to any one or more such justices, who shall hear and determine same as soon as may be; and if such forfeiture shall not be paid within 24 hours after conviction, then the same shall be raised by sale of the boat and tackle, &c.; and every justice shall issue his warrant to the constable or peace officer, to cause sale to be made thereof, with all her tackle, &c. with all speed, for raising the money forfeited, rendering overplus to offender, after charges of detaining and selling such boat deducted, id. s.15.

17. Such master, wardens, and assistants shall, on complaint made to them by any credible persons, of any thefts, robberies, frauds, or other illegal practices being carried on, or suspected so to be in any boat so numbered and marked, summon the owner to appear at the Trinity House, Water Lane, or other usual place of meeting at a time appointed, at which time and place such master, wardens, and assistants, or any 5 of them, shall inquire into the complaint in a summary way; and in case the complaint shall be proved, and they or the majority present think fit, they may take away and totally abolish the said number given to such boat, and also for the future refuse to enter any boat of such owner, id. s.16.

18. Where any person shall be convicted of any offence under this act by which is incurred the forfeiture of any boat, with her tackle, &c. and concerning which, after conviction, no provision is hereby made, any such justice as aforesaid, on conviction had, may cause such boat, with her tackle, &c. to be totally burnt, and destroyed, within 6 days next after conviction, by warrant under hand and seal, directed to the constable or other peace officer of place where conviction had; which officer shall thereupon cause such boat, &c. to be burnt and destroyed, id. s.17. [See now 1 & 2 G.4. c.118. s.43. POLICE. pl.55.]

19. Any person by this act, and without any other warrant, may apprehend any offender against this act, and, with all speed, convey such offender to a constable or other peace-officer, in order to be conveyed before some justice for place where offence committed, id. s.18.

20. In case any person acting in execution of this act shall be obstructed, every person so obstructing, and all such as act in their assistance, shall, being thereof convicted at quarter sessions for county adjoining such river, upon oath of two or more persons, be transported to any of H. M.'s plantations in America for 7 years, id. s.19.

21. In all actions and other proceedings had in pursuance of this act, any member of such corporation, or any inhabitant of the parish where offence committed or conviction made, shall be admitted to evidence, and be deemed a competent witness, 2 G.3. c.28 s.20.

22. In all cases where an oath is directed by this act to be taken, it shall be lawful for any justice for place where matters arise, to administer the same without fee, id. s.21.

23. Actions against any justice, or such master, wardens, and assistants, or other officer or person, for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be laid in Middlesex or London, and shall be commenced within 6 months next after cause of action accrued; and defendants in such actions may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance thereof; and if it shall so appear, or if the action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong place, the jury shall find for the defendant; and if the defendant has a verdict, or plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or if the defendant has judgment on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.22.

24. Every person guilty of any offence by 2 G.3. c.28. declared a misdemeanor, may be punished at the discretion of the justice or justices by or before whom he is convicted, either with the punishment by that act appointed, or with the punishment hereby appointed for misdemeanors under this act, 1 & 2 G.4. c.118. s.42. [See POLICE.]

25. To AMEND 2 G.3. c.28. so far as relates to the seizure of excisable commodities, 43 G.3. c.115. [Ext. by similar enactments to customable and prohibited goods, 49 G.3. c.65. ss.7—11. (See the rest of this act, JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl.132.)]

26. All coffee, tea, cocoa-nuts, chocolate, tobacco, snuff, wine, brandy, rum, geneva, or other spirits, or any other goods, &c. subject to the excise duty, stopped or taken by any police or peace officer, or other person under the 2 G.3. c.28. and 39 & 40 G.3. c.87., [which is EXP. and see the new act, 1 & 2 G.4. c.118. POLICE, pl.13.] for having been unshipped, smuggled, or run on shore, or manufactured without payment of the duty, or for being removed without permit, or for any other cause of forfeiture, shall be taken to the chief office of excise within 24 hours after so stopped, in order that the same and the person in whose custody they were found, may be prosecuted, 43 G.3. c.115. s.1.

27. In case any such articles shall be stopped by any such persons, on suspicion of having been feloniously stolen or received, such detaining person shall lodge them at the police office, or the police office nearest the place where stopped, there to remain until produced upon the trial of the offenders, id. s.2.

28. But such officer or persons so detaining such articles, on suspicion of being stolen, shall, within 24 hours after, give notice thereof in writing at the chief office of excise, and shall permit the proper excise officer to take an account of the same, id. s.3.

29. When any person charged with feloniously stealing or receiving any such articles has been tried for such felony, all such articles shall be deposited with such chief office, to be prosecuted for such cause of forfeiture as they may be liable to, or to be restored on payment of the duties due to the legal proprietor, or otherwise dealt with as the case may require, id. s.4.

30. All such articles which shall be so detained, and not conveyed within the times aforesaid to such chief office, shall be forfeited, and may be seized or re-seized by any excise officer, and the party neglecting to convey the same, shall forfeit 20l., id. s.5.

31. Every person who shall molest or oppose, &c. any officer of excise in the execution of the powers hereby given, shall forfeit 200l., id. s.6.

32. Penalties hereby inflicted, may be recovered, levied, or mitigated, as other excise penalties may be, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, and may go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, id. s.7.

33. All goods, wares and merchandizes, which by any act now in force, or hereafter to be made, are liable to the duties of customs, and not of the excise, on importation, or which are prohibited to be imported, or worn or used in this country, or which are subject to forfeiture, for being unshipped without the presence of an officer of customs, or for any other cause relating to the customs, and which are stopped or taken, shall be carried to the custom-house warehouse in London, within 48 hours after such detention, in order that such goods, and the persons in whose custody the same were found, may be prosecuted as the case requires, 49 G.3. c.65. s.7.

34. And in case any such goods, &c. so liable to the customs, and not the excise, or which are so prohibited to be imported, or subject to forfeiture for being unshipped, without the presence of an officer of customs, or for any other cause relating to the customs, shall be shipped or taken by any police or peace officer or other person, on suspicion of having been feloniously stolen or received, such officer, &c. may lodge the same in the office of the Thames police or the police office nearest to the place where found, there to remain for production on the trial of any person charged with having so stolen or received the same, id. s.8.

35. Every such officer or person, who shall detain such goods, &c. on such suspicion, shall, within 48 hours after such detention, give notice thereof in writing to the commissioners of customs, together with the particulars thereof, 49 G. 3. c. 65. s. 9.

36. When any person so charged with feloniously stealing or receiving of any such goods, &c. has been tried for the felony, all such goods, &c. shall be deposited in the custom-house warehouse in London, to be prosecuted for such cause of forfeiture as they may be liable to, or to be restored on payment of such duties as are due thereon to any person who can prove himself the legal owner thereof, or to be otherwise dealt with as the case requires, id. s. 10.

37. In case any such goods, &c. which are so liable to the payment of the customs and not excise duties, or which are prohibited to be imported, used, or worn in this country, or are subject to forfeiture for being unshipped without the presence of an officer of customs, or for any other cause relating to the law of customs, and which shall be so detained, &c., and not conveyed to and deposited in such warehouse, in the manner and within the time in ss. 7. 9. pl. 33. 35. directed, the same may be seized or re-seized by any officer of customs, and the party neglecting so to deposit the same, shall forfeit 20*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing for the same, id. s. 11.

6. Every person who shall for gain act or represent any interlude, tragedy, comedy, opera, play, farce, or other entertainment of the stage, or any part therein, in case such person shall not have any legal settlement in the place where the same shall be acted, without authority of letters patent from H. M., or without licence from the lord-chamberlain, shall be deemed a rogue and a vagabond within the act 12 A. St. 2. c. 23., 10 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.

7. If any person, having or not having a legal settlement, shall, without such authority or licence, act or represent for gain, any interlude, &c. such person shall forfeit 50*l.*, and in case the 50*l.* shall be paid or recovered, such offender shall not for the same offence suffer any of the penalties inflicted by the said act, id. s. 2.

8. No person shall for gain, act or represent any new interlude, &c. or any new act, scene, or other part, added to any old interlude, &c. or any new prologue or epilogue, unless a copy thereof be sent to the lord-chamberlain 14 days before the representing thereof, with an account of the place where, and the time when the same is intended to be first represented, signed by one of the masters or managers of such playhouse, &c. id. s. 3.

9. The lord-chamberlain, when he shall think fit, may prohibit the representing any interlude, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 6. or any part thereof, or any prologue or epilogue; and in case any person shall for gain, act or represent any new interlude, &c. before a copy thereof shall be sent as aforesaid, or shall for gain act or represent any interlude, &c. contrary to such prohibition; every person so offending, shall forfeit 50*l.*, and every licence or authority by which the managers set up such playhouses or company shall cease, id. s. 4.

10. No persons shall be authorized by any letters patent, or by the licence of the lord chamberlain, to act or represent for gain any interlude, &c. in any part of G. B.; except in the city of Westminster, and in such places wherein H. M. shall in person reside, during such residence only, id. s. 5.

11. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by this act, for offences committed within Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be recovered by bill or information in any of the courts at Westminster; and for offences committed in Scot., by action or summary complaint before the court of session or judiciary, or for offences committed in any part of G. B. in a summary way before 2 justices of peace, by the oath of one witness, or confession of the offender, to be levied by distress and sale of goods; and for want of distress the offender shall be committed to any house of correction, for any time not exceeding six months, to be kept to hard labour, or to the common gaol of the county, &c. for any time not exceeding 6 months; and any persons aggrieved by the order of such justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions, whose order therein shall be final; and the penalties for any offence against this act shall belong, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, id. s. 6.

12. If any interlude, &c. shall be represented in any place where wine, beer, ale, or other liquors are sold or retailed, the same shall be deemed to be represented for gain, id. s. 7.

13. No person shall be prosecuted for any offence against this act, unless the prosecution is commenced within 6 calendar months after the offence committed; and every suit brought against any justice for any thing done under this act, shall be commenced within the like period; and the defendant may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict is found for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or does not prosecute his action, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 8.

14. Any house, room, or garden, or other place kept for public dancing, music, or other entertainment of the like kind in London and Westminster, or 20 miles thereof, without a licence had at the last preceding Michaelmas quarter sessions for the county, city, or liberty (and such sessions may grant such licences), signified under the hands and seals of 4 of the justices present, shall be deemed a disorderly house or place; and such licence shall be signed and sealed by such justices in open court, and afterwards publicly read by the clerk of the peace, together with the names of the subscribing justices; and no such licence shall be granted at any adjourned sessions, nor shall any fee be taken for it; and any constable or person authorized by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice for the county, &c. where such house or place is, may enter into the same, and seize any person found therein, to be dealt with according to law; and every person keeping such house, &c. without such licence, shall forfeit 100*l.* to any person that will sue for it, and be punished as the law directs in cases of disorderly houses, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 2.

15. In order to give notice what places are licensed under this act, there shall be kept up in some place over the door or entrance of such house, &c. and so licensed in large letters, these words, viz. LICENSED PURSUANT TO ACT OF PARLIAMENT OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH OF KING GEORGE THE SECOND; and no such house, &c. although so licensed, shall be open for any of such purposes before 5 in the afternoon; and the affixing up of such inscription, and the limitation as to time, shall be inserted in, and made conditions of such licence; and in case of breach of such conditions, the licence shall be forfeited and be revoked by the justices in their next quarter sessions, and shall not be renewed, nor shall any new licence be granted to such person, or to any other in his behalf, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 3.

16. This act shall not extend to the theatres royal Drury-Lane, and Covent Garden, or the King's Theatre in the Haymarket, nor to such performances and public entertainments as may be carried on under letters patent or the licence of the crown, or the lord-chamberlain, id. s. 4.

17. Penalties hereby inflicted may be sued for by action of debt, &c. [to be brought within 6 calendar months after the offence done, 28 G. 2. c. 36. s. 14.] in any of the courts of record in Westminster, wherein it shall be sufficient to declare, that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of—l., being forfeited by an act, intituled, (setting forth the title of this act.) and if the plaintiff recovers, he shall have full costs, id. ss. 13, 14.

18. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF THE PEACE TO LICENSE theatrical representations occasionally, under the restrictions therein contained, 28 G. 3. c. 30.

19. The justices, in general or quarter session, may grant a licence to any person, making application by petition, for the performance of such tragedies, comedies, interludes, operas, plays, or farces, as shall be represented at either of the patent or licensed theatres in Westminster, or as shall in manner prescribed by law, have been submitted to the inspection of the lord-chamberlain, at any place within their jurisdictions, or within any city, town, or place, within the limits of the same, for not exceeding 60 days, to commence within the then next 6 months, and to be within such four months as shall be specified in the licence, so as there be only one licence in use at the same time within the jurisdiction so given, and so as such place be not within 20 miles of London, Westminster, or Edinburgh, or 8 miles of any patent or licensed theatre, or 10 miles of the residence of H. M., or of any place within the same jurisdiction, at which, within 6 months preceding, a licence under this act shall have been had and exercised, or within 14 miles of either of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or within 2 miles of the outward limits of any city or place, having peculiar jurisdiction; and so also as no licence shall have been had and exercised at the same place within 8 months then next preceding, id. s. 1.

20. No such licence shall be granted by such justices to be exercised within any city or place, having peculiar jurisdiction, unless proof shall be made that the majority of justices acting for such peculiar jurisdiction, have, at a public meeting, signed their consent to such application, or unless an express condition shall be therein inserted, that the same shall not be valid until approved by the majority of such justices at a meeting holden expressly for taking the same into consideration, id. s. 2.

21. No such licence shall be granted by the justices within any city, town, or place, unless notice shall have been given by the person applying for such licence, at least 3 weeks before such application, to the mayor, bailiff, or other chief civil officer of such city, of his intending to make such application, id. s. 3.

THREAD.

1. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF THE MANUFACTURE OF ounce thread, 28 G. 3. c. 17.

2. The reel used in reeling or making up nuns or ounce thread, shall be one yard or 36 inches in circumference, and persons using other reels than as aforesaid, shall, on conviction, forfeit the reels so used, which shall be broken or destroyed, and pay to the informer 5l., to be levied as in s. 4. pl. 5. mentioned, id. s. 1.

3. All ounce thread manufactured in G. B., shall be made up in hanks, ounces, quarters, and pounds, avoirdupois weight, each hank containing 30 threads or rounds of such reels of the same quality and fineness; and each ounce containing a particular number of such hanks entire of the same quality and fineness and no broken parts of a hank, and each quarter containing 4 such ounces of the same quality and fineness, and each pound, 4 such quarters of the same quality and fineness; and the cover of each package of such thread, shall be marked with a stamp shewing the contents thereof to be ounce thread, and the number of hanks in each ounce, and the manufacturer's name and abode; and no person shall reel or make up such thread, other than as aforesaid, or sell or expose to sale any ounce thread manufactured in G. B. but such as is so reeled, made up, and stamped; and any person who shall reel or make up any such thread other than as aforesaid, or who shall knowingly sell or expose to sale, any such thread of the manufacture of G. B. so reeled and made up, other than as aforesaid, and is convicted thereof, as by s. 4. pl. 5. mentioned, shall forfeit to the informer the thread so reeled and made up contrary to this act, and 10l. for each pound avoirdupois, to be levied as in s. 4. pl. 5. mentioned, id. s. 2.

4. Such person who shall imitate or counterfeit the mark or stamp used by any manufacturer of such thread, in order to make the thread stamped therewith pass for the manufacture of the person whose stamp is counterfeited, or who shall sell, or expose to sale, any thread so marked with a counterfeited stamp, knowing the same to be counterfeited, and shall be convicted as in s. 4. pl. 5. mentioned, shall forfeit such stamp to be destroyed; and also for the use of the person whose stamp is so counterfeited the thread so falsely stamped, and 10l. to be levied as in s. 4. pl. 5. mentioned, 28 G. 3. c. 17. s. 3.

5. Any 2 justices for the county, city, riding, place, &c. where any offence against this act is committed, or the offenders reside, or are found, may, on information exhibited, or complaint made in writing, summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side, and examine into the matter; and on proof thereof made, either by confession or the examination of the party accused, or by oath of 2 witnesses, give judgment for the penalties as hereby directed, and may issue their warrant to execute such sentence, and for levying the penalties by distress and sale, if not redeemed within 10 days, on the offender's goods, rendering overplus to him, first deducting the charge of such distress and sale; and in case no such goods can be found, they may commit the offender to the prison of the county, &c. for 3 months, unless the penalties be sooner paid; and persons aggrieved by the judgment of such justices may, on giving security to make good the sentence, and to pay such costs as shall be ordered, in case the judgment is affirmed, appeal to the quarter sessions for such county, &c. and the justices there may summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the same; and if judgment is affirmed, they may order the appellant to pay such costs as to them seems meet, id. s. 4.

6. Such 2 justices and the quarter sessions may mitigate such penalties as to them seems meet, provided they be not reduced below one half and the full costs, id. s. 5.

7. If any person summoned as a witness before such justices touching such matters on either side shall neglect to attend, having no excuse to be allowed by such justices, he shall forfeit to the prosecutor 5l. to be levied as in s. 4. pl. 5. directed, besides being compelled to appear and give evidence by means of another summons under like penalty, or any other means practised in law in similar cases, id. s. 6.

8. When any thread is seized under this act, and it is alleged that such thread is of foreign manufacture, the onus probandi shall lie on the owner thereof, and if he fail in such proof, the thread shall be forfeited, and the owner liable to the penalty, id. s. 7.

TITHES.

1. OF ACTIONS AGAINST THE CLERGY FOR TAKING OF TITHES 1 R. 2. c. 14.

2. Whenever any person of holy church is drawn into plea in the secular court for his own tithes taken by the name of goods taken away, and makes an exception, or alleges that the source of the business is only for tithes due, in such case a general averment shall not be taken without shewing the special matter how the same was a lay chattel, id. ibid.

3. THE STATUTE OF PROVISIONS 13 R. 2. St. 2. c. 2. EXTENDED to bulls to be discharged of tithes, 2 H. 4. c. 4. [AMD. 7 H. 4. c. 6. see PROVISORS.]

4. Of religious and seculars who put bulls to be discharged of tithes in execution, or shall purchase any such bulls, process shall be made against them by warning of 2 months by writ of præmunire facias; and if they make default, they shall incur the pains in the statute of præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5. contained, 2 H. 4. c. 4.

5. No person shall put in execution any bulls to be discharged of tithes pertaining to any parish church, prebend, hospital, or vicarage, on pain that persons disturbing any persons of holy church, so that they cannot take their tithes, shall incur the pains in 2 H. 4. c. 4. contained, 7 H. 4. c. 6.

6. HOW FARMERS OF ALIENS' POSSESSIONS SHALL PAY THEIR tithes, 5 H. 4. c. 11.

7. Tithes of lands belonging to aliens shall be paid duly by the occupiers, although the lands are seized into H. M.'s hands, id. ibid.

8. CONTAINING AN ORDER FOR TITHES THROUGHOUT THE REALM, 27 H. 8. c. 20. [QU. Is this act in force? see s. 4. pl. 12.]

9. All H. M.'s subjects of Eng., Wa., and Calais, according to the ecclesiastical laws and ordinances of the church of Eng., and of the parish or place where they dwell, shall pay their tithes; and for subtractions of such tithes, offerings, or other duties, the parson or other party grieved may by due process of such ecclesiastical laws convent the offenders before the ordinary; and in case the ordinary of the diocese, or his commissary, or the archdeacon, or his official, or any competent judge for any contempt, contumacy, disobedience, or other misdemeanor of the defendant, make information to H. M.'s council, or to the justices of peace for the shire, to assist such ordinary, &c. to reform such person, such council or 2 such justices shall attach the person against whom such information is made, and commit him to ward, till he has found surety, to be bound by recognizance or otherwise before H. M.'s counsellor or justice to the use of H. M., to give due obedience to the process of the ecclesiastical court of this realm wherein the suit depends, 27 H. 8. c. 20. s. 1.

10. This act shall not extend to the city of London, id. s. 2.

11. Every person party to such suit may have his action, demand, or prosecution, appeals, prohibitions, and other lawful defences and remedies according to the ecclesiastical law, id. s. 3.

12. This act shall be in force only until H. M. and 32 others named by him have under 27 H. 8. c. 15. (which is now Exp.) ratified the ecclesiastical laws of the realm, and the tithes shall then be paid according to such laws, id. s. 4.

13. FOR THE TRUE PAYMENT OF TITHES AND OFFERINGS, 32 H. 8. c. 7. and recital in s. 1. [CONF. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 13. s. 1.]

14. All persons shall truly set out and pay their tithes and offerings according to the custom of the place, and if they do not, and any person shall withhold the same, then the party being ecclesiastical or lay person, having cause to demand the same, may convent the offenders before the ordinary or other competent minister of the place according to the ecclesiastical law, who having the parties and their procurators before them, shall examine and determine such cause ordinarily or summarily, according to the course of the ecclesiastical laws, 32 H. 8. c. 7. s. 2.

15. And if any of such parties do appeal from the sentence of such ordinary, &c. such judge shall award to the other party reasonable costs, and compel the appellant to pay the same by censures and other compulsory process, taking surety of the appellee to restore such costs, in case such appeal is adjudged against him, and so every ordinary or other judge under this act shall award costs to the other party upon appeal made in any suit for subtraction or detention of tithes or offerings, or in any other suit concerning tithes, id. s. 3.

16. If any persons, after sentence definitive given against them, obstinately and wilfully refuse to pay their tithes or duties, or such sums of money wherein they be condemned for the same, 2 justices of peace of the shire, whereof one of the quorum, shall, upon information, certificate, or complaint, made in writing by the ecclesiastical judge that gave the sentence, cause the party refusing, to be attached and committed to the next gaol, till he shall have found surety to the use of H. M. to perform the sentence, id. s. 4.

17. No person shall be sued or compelled to pay tithes for any manors; lands, &c. which by law are not chargeable with such tithes, id. s. 5.

18. This act shall not bind the inhabitants of the city of London to pay their tithes and offerings within the city otherwise than as before this act, id. s. 6.

19. Where any persons which shall have any estate of inheritance, freehold, term, right, or interest, in any parsonage, vicarage, portion, pension, tithes, oblations, or other ecclesiastical or spiritual profit, made temporal, or admitted to be in temporal hands by law, shall be disseised, or otherwise put from their lawful inheritance or interest by any person claiming title to the same; the persons so disseised, or put from their right, their heirs, wives, and such other to whom such injury shall be done, shall have their remedy in H. M.'s temporal courts, or other temporal court, as the case shall require, for the recovery of such inheritance or interest, by writs of præcipe quod reddat, assise of novel disseisin, mort d'ancestor, quod ei de forceat, writs of dower, or other writs original, as the case requires; and writs of covenant, and other writs for fines and other assurances of any such parsonage, vicarage, portion, pension, or other profit, called ecclesiastical or spiritual, shall be devised and granted in the chancery, as hath been used for lands; and judgments given and fines levied of tithes shall be of like force as of lands, id. s. 7.

20. Provided that this act shall not give remedy or suit in the courts temporal, against any person which shall refuse to set out his tithes, or detain his tithes or offerings, but the same shall be in the spiritual court, id. s. 8.

21. FOR THE TRUE PAYMENT OF TITHES, 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. [AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 5.]

22. Every of H. M.'s subjects shall justly, without fraud, set out and pay all manner of their predial tithes in kind as they happen, as have been of right paid within 40 years before this act, or of right or custom ought to have been paid. And no person shall carry away any such or like tithes which have been paid within such 40 years, or of right ought to have been paid, in the places titheable, before he hath justly set forth for the tithe, the 10th part of the same, or otherwise agreed for such tithes with the parson, vicars, or other owner, or farmer thereof, under pain to forfeit treble value of the tithes so taken away, 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. s. 1.

23. Whensoever the said predial tithes shall be due, every party, to whom such tithes ought to be paid, or his servant, may see their tithes truly set forth, and the same quietly may carry away; and if any person carry away his corn or hay, or other predial tithes, before the tithe be set forth, or willingly withdraw his tithes of the same, or of such other things whereof predial tithes ought to be paid, or do stop the parson, vicar, owner, or their farmers, to view and carry away their tithes, by reason whereof the tithe is lost or impaired; upon proof thereof made before the spiritual judge, or any other judge, to whom heretofore he might have made complaint, the party so withdrawing or stopping shall pay the double value of the tithe so taken, lost or carried away, besides costs, to be recovered before the ecclesiastical judge, according to the ecclesiastical laws, 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. s. 2.

24. Every person which shall have any beasts or cattle titheable, depasturing in any waste or common ground, whereof the parish is not certainly known, shall pay their tithe for the increase of such cattle to the parson, owner, or their farmers, of the parish or place where the owner of such cattle inhabiteth, id. s. 3.

25. No person shall be sued, or compelled to pay tithes for any manor, lands, &c. which by law, or by any privilege or prescription, are not chargeable with such tithes, or that be discharged by any composition real, id. s. 4.

26. All such barren heath or waste ground, other than such as be discharged of tithes by act of parliament, which before this time have paid no tithes by reason of barrenness, and shall be improved and converted into arable ground or meadow, shall, after 7 years after such improvement, pay tithe for the corn and hay growing upon the same, id. s. 5.

27. If any such barren, waste, or heath ground, hath before this time been charged with tithes, and the same be hereafter improved and converted into arable ground or meadow; the owners shall, during 7 years after the improvement, pay such kind of tithe as was paid for the same before the improvement, id. s. 6.

28. Every person exercising merchandizes, bargaining and selling, clothing, handicraft, or other art or faculty, being such persons, and in such places, as within these 40 years have used to pay personal tithes, or of right ought to pay, other than such as be common day-labourers, shall yearly at or before Easter, pay for his personal tithes, the 10th part of his clear gains, his charges and expenses, according to his estate or degree to be deducted, id. s. 7.

29. In all such places where handicraftsmen have used to pay their tithes within these 40 years, the same custom shall continue, id. s. 8.

30. If any person refuse to pay his personal tithes, the ordinary of the diocese where the party is dwelling, may call the party before him, and examine him by all lawful means, other than the party's own oath, concerning the payment of such tithes, id. s. 9.

31. All persons, which by law ought to pay their offerings, shall yearly pay their offerings to the parson, vicar, proprietor, or their deputies or farmers, of the parishes where they dwell; and at such 4 offering days, as heretofore within 4 years hath been accustomed, and in default thereof pay for their said offerings at Easter following, id. s. 10.

32. This act shall not extend to any parish on the sea-coasts, the commodity whereof consisteth chiefly in fishing, and have used to satisfy their tithes by fish, but that every such parish shall pay their tithes as they have of ancient time within these 40 years accustomed, and shall pay their offerings as in s. 10. pl. 31., id. s. 11.

33. This act shall not extend to the inhabitants of the city of London and Canterbury, or the suburbs of the same, nor to any other town or place that hath used to pay their tithes by their houses, otherwise than as before this act, id. s. 12.

34. If any person subtract any manner of tithes, obventions, profits, or other duties before mentioned, he shall be sued in H. M.'s ecclesiastical court by the party grieved; and the parson, vicar, owner, or other their farmers, shall not sue such withholders of tithes, or other such duties, before any other judge than ecclesiastical; and if any archbishop, bishop, chancellor, or other judge ecclesiastical, give any sentence in such causes, and (no appeal nor prohibition hanging) the party condemned do not obey the sentence, such judge ecclesiastical may excommunicate the party disobeying; in which sentence of excommunication, if the party wilfully endure 40 days, upon publication thereof in the parish church where the party is most abiding, the judge ecclesiastical may at his pleasure signify to H. M., in chancery, the condition of such party excommunicate, and thereupon require process de excommunicato capiendo, id. s. 13.

35. If any party for any cause before, by s. 13. pl. 34. limited to be determined in the court ecclesiastical, sue for any prohibition in H. M.'s court, the party, before any prohibition shall be granted, shall deliver to some of the judges of the court the copy of the libel in the ecclesiastical court, subscribed with the hand of the party; and under the copy of the libel shall be written the suggestion, whereof the party demandeth the prohibition: and in case the suggestion by two witnesses be not proved in such court within six months after the prohibition shall be granted, the party that is hindered by such prohibition, shall, upon his request have a consultation, and shall also recover double costs and damages, to be assessed by such court, and recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 14.

36. This act shall not give any minister or judge ecclesiastical any jurisdiction to hold plea of any matter contrary to the statute, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 5. statutes of articuli cleri, (9 E. 2.) circumspecte agatis, (13 E. 1.) silva cædua, (45 E. 3. c. 3.) the treatise De regia prohibitionibus, (1 E. 5. S. 2. c. 11.) nor against the statute 1 E. 3. S. 2. c. 10. nor yet hold plea in any matter whereof H. M.'s court ought to have jurisdiction, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 13. s. 15.

37. Where such custom hath been in many parts of Wa., that of such goods as hath been given with the marriage of any person their tithes have been exacted by the parsons and curates, no such tithes of marriage goods shall be exacted, id. s. 16.

38. No action shall be brought for the recovery of any penalty for not setting out tithes, nor any suit instituted in any court of equity or ecclesiastical court to recover the value of any tithes, unless such action is brought within 6 years from the time the tithes became due, 57 G. 3. c. 127. s. 5.

39. FOR THE MORE EASY RECOVERY OF SMALL TITHES, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. [CON. 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 15. MADE PERP., 3 & 4 A. c. 18. AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 127. ss. 4. 6.]

40. For the more easy recovery of small tithes, where the same do not amount to above the yearly value of 40s. from any one person; every person shall truly set out and pay all small tithes, and compositions for the same, with all offerings, oblations, and obventions, to the rectors, vicars, and other persons to whom they shall be due, according to the rights, customs, and prescriptions used within the parishes of Eng., Wa., and Ber.; and if any person shall subtract, or fail in the payment of such small tithes, offerings, &c. 30 days after demand, the persons to whom the same shall be due, may make their complaint in writing unto 2 justices of peace within that place where the same shall grow due; neither of which justices shall be patron of the church whence the tithes arise, nor interested in such tithes, &c., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. s. 1.

41. The power of justices of peace in regard to tithes, not exceeding 40s. annual value given by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. s. 1. shall extend to tithes, not exceeding 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ l., from one person in all such cases, and one justice may receive the original complaint, and summon the party to appear before 2 justices, as in the said act set forth, 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 4.

42. If any complaint shall be brought to 2 justices of peace concerning small tithes, offerings, &c. they shall summon in writing, under their hand and seal, by reasonable warning, the person complained of; and after his appearance, or default of appearance, such summons being proved upon oath, such justices shall proceed to hear and determine the complaint; and upon the proofs produced, shall in writing adjudge the case, and give such compensation upon such tithes, &c. as they shall judge reasonable, and also costs not exceeding 10s., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. s. 2.

43. If any person shall neglect, by 10 days after notice, to pay any such sum, as upon such complaint shall by 2 justices be adjudged, the constables and churchwardens of the parish, or one of them, shall by like warrant of such justices distrain the goods of the party, and after detaining them 3 days, in case the sum adjudged together with reasonable charges be not in the mean time paid, shall make public sale of the same, and pay the complainant his demand, and such costs for such distress as such justices think fit, id. s. 3.

44. All justices, in the examination of matters offered to them by this act, may administer an oath to any witness, id. s. 4.

45. This act shall not extend to any tithes, &c. within London, nor to any other city or town corporate where the same are settled by act of parliament, id. s. 5.

46. No complaint concerning any small tithes, &c. shall be determined by justices of peace, unless the complaint be made within 2 years after the same tithes, &c. become due, id. s. 6.

47. Any person aggrieved by any judgment given by 2 justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions, and the justices there may finally determine the matter; and if the justices then present find cause to confirm such judgment, they shall give costs against the appellant, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods; and no proceedings by virtue of this act, shall be removed or superseded by certiorari, or other writ, unless the title of such tithes, &c. be in question, id. s. 7.

48. Where any person complained of for subtracting small tithes, &c. shall before the justices insist upon any prescription, composition or modus decimandi, agreement or title, and deliver the same in writing to the justices subscribed by him, and shall then give to the party complaining security to the satisfaction of such justices, to pay all such costs and damages, as upon a trial at law shall be given against him, in case such prescription, &c. shall not be allowed; the justices shall forbear to give judgment in the matter, and the persons complaining shall be at liberty to prosecute such persons for their subtraction in any other court, id. s. 8.

49. Every person who shall by virtue of this act obtain any judgment, or against whom any judgment shall be obtained, before justices out of sessions for small tithes, &c. shall cause such judgment to be inrolled at the next quarter-session; and the clerk of the peace shall, on tender thereof inrol the same, and he shall not ask for the inrolment any fee exceeding 1s.; and the judgment so enrolled, and satisfaction made by paying the sum adjudged, shall bar such rectors and other persons from any other remedy for the same tithes, &c., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. s. 9.

50. If any person against whom such judgment shall be had, shall remove out of the county, &c. after judgment, and before the levying the sum adjudged, such justices who made the judgment, or one of them, shall certify the same to any justice of such other county, wherein such person shall be inhabitant; which justice shall, by warrant under hand and seal, directed to the constables or churchwardens of the place, levy the sum adjudged upon the goods of such person, as if he had not removed, id. s. 10.

51. The justices who shall hear and determine any such matters, shall give costs, not exceeding 10s. to the party prosecuted, if they find the complaint false and vexatious; which costs shall be levied as in s. 7. pl. 47. aforesaid, id. s. 12.

52. If any person shall be sued for any thing done in execution of this act, and the plaintiff discontinue, is nonsuit, or has a verdict against him, such person shall recover double costs, id. s. 13.

53. Any person who shall begin any suit for recovery of such small tithes, &c. in the court of exchequer, or in any ecclesiastical court, shall have no benefit by this act for the same matter, id. s. 14.

54. FOR THE BETTER ASCERTAINING THE TITHES of hemp and flax, [3 W. & M. c. 3. EXP.] 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 16. [CON. 6 A. c. 28. MADE PERP. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 26. s. 2.]

55. All persons who shall sow any hemp or flax, in any parish in Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall pay to every parson, vicar or impropriator of such parish, 5s., and no more yearly for every acre of hemp and flax sown before the same is carried off the ground, and so in proportion for a greater or less quantity, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 16. s. 1.

56. This act shall not charge any lands discharged by any modus decimandi, ancient composition, or otherwise, id. s. 2.

57. FOR MORE EASY RECOVERY OF CHURCH RATES AND TITHES, 53 G. 3. c. 127. ss. 4—12. for Eng., 54 G. 3. c. 68. ss. 4—14. for Ire. [See rest of these titles and statutes, ante, COURTS, ECCLESIASTICAL, pl. 32.]

58. Two or more justices of peace in Eng. and Ire., shall hear and determine all complaints touching tithes, offences, ecclesiastical dues or compositions, subtracts, &c. where the same do not exceed 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ l. from any one person, in all such cases, and by all such means, and subject to all provisions by appeal or otherwise given for small tithes, &c. not exceeding 40s. by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. s. 1. Eng., pl. 39. and by 1 G. 2. c. 12. Ire., and 13 & 14 G. 3. c. 41. Ire.; but one justice shall be competent to receive the original complaint, and to summon the parties to appear before 2 or more justices, as in pl. 40., 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 4. Eng., 54 G. 3. c. 68. s. 4. Ire.

59. No action shall be brought for recovery of any penalty for not setting out tithes, nor any suit instituted in any court, ecclesiastical or of equity, to recover the value of any tithes, unless within 6 years of the tithes becoming due, s. 5. of both acts.

60. Recital "That by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34. s. 4. and 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 6. s. 2. and 7 G. 3. c. 21. Ire., (MADE PERP. 12 G. 3. c. 10. s. 9. Ire.) where a quaker refuses to pay or compound for his great or small tithes, or to pay church rates, 2 or more H. M.'s justices shall hear and determine the same, if not exceeding 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ l. value," their power is extended to 50 $\frac{1}{2}$ l.: and one justice may receive the original complaint, and summon the parties to appear before 2 or more justices, as in pl. 40. s. 6. of both acts.

61. Where person rated to church or chapel rate, or parish cess, (the validity of which has not been questioned in ecclesiastical court,) shall refuse to pay same, any justice of the county, city, or town, where the church is situate, on complaint of the churchwardens, who ought to receive the same, may convene by warrant such person before 2 or more justices, and examine on oath, administered by them, into the merits of the complaint, and by order under their hands and seals, may order payment of any sum so due, not exceeding 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ l., besides costs, ascertained by the justices; and on refusal or neglect to pay according to such order, any one of such justices by warrant under hand and seal may levy the money thereby ordered to be paid, with the above costs, as well as those of distress, being first allowed as above, by distress and sale of the goods of offender, his executors or administrators rendering him the overplus: and any person grieved by the judgment of 2 or more such justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, &c. wherein the church, &c. for which the rate was made, is situate, and if the justices present, or a majority, find cause to affirm the judgment, it shall be decreed by order of sessions, with costs, to be levied by distress and sale of appellant's goods: provided that where such appeal is made as above, no distress warrant shall be granted till after its determination, and that nothing herein shall alter the jurisdiction of ecclesiastical courts to hear and determine causes touching the validity of any church or chapel rate, or from enforcing payment thereof, if exceeding 10*l.*, from the party proceeded against: if the validity of such rate, or liability of the person from whom it is demanded, be disputed, and the party give notice thereof to the justices, they shall forbear giving judgment thereon, and the person demanding the same may proceed to recovery of their demand by due course of law; but nothing herein shall affect parliamentary regulations respecting church or chapel rates, of any particular parishes or districts, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 7. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 7. Ire.; or for rebuilding and repairing churches, contained in 12 G.1. c. 9. Ire., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 7. only.

62. The chairman of the sessions of peace for the county of Dublin, may hear in a summary way by civil bill all actions on monitions, from metropolitical and consistorial court of the diocese of Dublin, for non-payment of sums in which the parties are condemned therein for predial tithes, growing in such county, and costs of suit according to 7 G.3. c. 21. s. 6. (Ire.) without limitation of amount, 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 8. [The Irish acts recited as to such jurisdiction in the sessions in Ire., are 2 G.1. c. 11., 7 G.3. c. 21., 27 G.3. c. 40., 36 G.3. c. 25., 39 G.3. c. 16.]

63. If any proctor of the arches court of Canterbury, or other ecclesiastical courts in Eng., or in court of prerogative, or in the ecclesiastical courts of Armagh, Dublin, or others in Ire., shall act as such, or suffer his name to be used in any suit, the prosecution or defence of which belongs to his office of a proctor, or in obtaining probates, letters of administration, or marriage licences, for benefit of any person, not being a proctor, or shall suffer such person to participate in the profits, he shall be struck off the roll of proctor, and be disabled from acting as such, or suspended therefrom, at will of the court, except allowances to widows or children of deceased proctors, by their surviving partners, and except agreement between proctors and articulated clerks executed before the act, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 8. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 9. Ire.

64. Every person acting as proctor in his own or another's name for fee, or with a view to participation of profit, without admission and enrolment, shall forfeit 50*l.*, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 9. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 10. Ire.

65. Nothing herein shall extend to any salary agreed to be paid by a proctor to a clerk, bond fide, serving in his office at the time of passing this act, and having so served the 7 years next preceeding, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 10. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 11. Ire.

66. Such penalties and plaintiff's full costs shall be recovered, to H.M.'s use, in any of H.M.'s courts at Westminster, or his 4 courts in Dublin, by action of debt, plaint, bill, or information: wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 11. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 12. Ire.

67. Limitation of action, &c. under these acts is 3 calendar months, laying the venue in the city and county where the cause thereof arose: defendant may plead the general issue, giving this statute and special matter in evidence, and that the act was done under authority thereof: if it shall so appear, or if the action is brought in a wrong county, or after 3 months, the judge shall find for defendant, and on such verdict, or on nonsuit, or discontinuance by plaintiff, after defendant's appearance, or on judgment against plaintiff on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, 53 G.3. c. 127. s. 12. Eng., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 13. Ire. [Nothing in 54 G.3. c. 68. extends to any part of U. K. but Ire., 54 G.3. c. 68. s. 14.]

2. No person shall set, plant, improve to grow, make or cure any tobacco, either in seed plant, or otherwise, in any field or place, within Eng., Wa., Guernsey, Jersey, or Ber., or in Ire., under the penalty of the forfeiture of such tobacco, or the value thereof, or 40*s.* for every pole of ground so planted, and so in proportion, to go one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party suing by bill, plaint, or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c., 12 C.2. c. 34. s. 1.

3. All persons who shall so plant, &c. tobacco, as in 12 C.2. c. 34. s. 1. shall, besides the penalty thereby inflicted, forfeit 10*l.* for every rod of ground so planted, &c. one third to H.M., one-third to the use of the poor of the parish where the tobacco was planted, and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c., 15 C.2. c. 7. s. 18.

4. All sheriffs, justices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, constables, and every of them, on information or complaint made by any officer of customs, or other person, that there is any tobacco set or planted within their jurisdiction contrary to this act, shall, within 10 days after, cause the same to be burnt or destroyed, 12 C.2. c. 34. s. 2.

5. If any person shall resist the execution of this act, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 1. pl. 2. and if not paid, the same may be distrained for, and if no distress, the party shall be committed to gaol for 2 months, id. s. 3.

6. Besides the penalty for resisting the execution of the 12 C.2. c. 34. by that act given, the offender shall be committed to the county gaol, until he shall enter into recognizance to H.M., with 2 sureties of 10*l.* penalty, not to commit the like offence again, 15 C.2. c. 7. s. 19.

7. All justices of peace shall, a month before the quarter sessions of their respective counties, issue their warrants to all high and petty constables, and tithing-men, requiring them to search what tobacco is sown, or planted, or growing, or curing, and by whom, and to make a true presentment in writing, on oath, at the next sessions for such county, of the names of all persons as have sown, &c. any tobacco, and what quantity of land is so sown, &c. and who are the tenants of such land, who shall be deemed the planters thereof, 22 & 23 C.2. c. 26. s. 2.

8. Which presentment shall be filed by the clerk of the peace in open sessions, and then shall be a sufficient conviction of all persons so sowing, &c. tobacco, either in seed, plant, leaf, or otherwise, contrary to the 12 C.2. c. 34. and 15 C.2. c. 7. ss. 18—20. unless such person (having notice of such presentment, by leaving a copy thereof with him or at his house, 10 days before such sessions,) shall at such sessions traverse such presentment, and find sureties to prosecute the same at the next ensuing sessions for the county, id. s. 3.

9. All constables, tithingmen, bailiffs, and other officers, within 14 days after warrant from 2 justices of peace, for the county, town, city, or place, calling to their assistance such persons as they deem fit, shall destroy all tobacco seed, plant, or leaf, planted, sowed, or growing in any ground, id. s. 4.

10. If any such tobacco is suffered to grow, or be consumed in seed, plant, or leaf, in any township, hamlet, or place, for 14 days after the receipt of such warrant, by such constables, &c. such constables, &c. shall forfeit 5*s.* for every rod of ground so set, planted, or sowed, one moiety to H.M., and the other to him that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts at Westminster, id. s. 5.

11. In case any person shall neglect to assist (being required) any constable, &c. in the execution of this act, he shall, on conviction before 2 justices of the county, forfeit 5*s.*, to be levied by warrant of distress on his goods, and if no distress, the offender shall be committed to the common gaol of the county for one week, id. s. 6.

12. If any person shall resist any constable, or other officer, in the execution of this act, then such person on conviction before 2 justices for the county, shall forfeit 5*l.* to be levied by warrant from such justices, by distress and sale; and if no distress, such offender shall be committed to the county gaol for 3 months, id. s. 7.

13. If any action is brought against any person for any thing done under this act, or the 12 C.2. c. 34. or 15 C.2. c. 7. ss. 18—20. such person may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has a verdict against him, the defendant shall have costs, id. s. 8.

14. This act shall not extend to hinder the planting of tobacco, in any physic garden, of either university, or in any private garden for physic or chirurgery, so as the quantity planted does not exceed half a pole, 12 C.2. c. 34. s. 4. 15 C.2. c. 7. s. 20. 22 & 23 C.2. c. 26. s. 9.

15. FOR PROMOTING THE CONSUMPTION OF SUCH TOBACCO as shall have paid H.M.'s duties, 6 A. c. 22. ss. 12, 13.

16. No commander of any ship of war, or purser thereof, shall sell or deliver to any seamen or marines on board of such ship, any tobacco of the growth of Europe, nor any tobacco mixed with tobacco of such growth, id. s. 12.

17. All tobacco to be used on board any of H.M.'s ships of war in Europe, shall be of the growth of the British plantations which hath paid H.M. the duties, and been manufactured in G. B., upon pain that every commander or purser who shall knowingly offend herein, shall forfeit his place, and 3*s.* for every pound of tobacco so sold and delivered; one moiety to H.M., and the other to the informer who shall sue for the same by action or information in any of the courts at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 13.

18. TO PREVENT THE MISCHIEFS by manufacturing leaves and other things to resemble tobacco, and the abuses in making and mixing snuff, 1 G.1. S.2. c. 46. [AMD. 5 G.1. c. 11. s. 22.]

19. Every person who shall cut, or procure to be cut, any walnut leaves, hop leaves, sycamore leaves, or other leaves or materials (not being tobacco leaves), into the form of any the usual cuts, which tobacco shall be cut into for sale; or shall colour or cure, or procure to be coloured or cured, any such leaves, &c. to make them resemble tobacco; or shall sell, or offer to sell, knowingly, any such leaves, &c. mixed or unmixed with tobacco, as if the same were tobacco, shall forfeit for every pound weight 5s., one moiety to H.M. (bearing the charge of prosecution), and the other to the informer; to be recovered with costs by action of debt, &c. or information in any of the courts at Westminster, or in the exchequer in Scot., wherein no essoin and only one imparlance allowed, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 46. s. 1.

20. Every person who shall export, or put on board for exportation, any such leaves, &c. or endeavour to obtain a drawback for the same as if it were tobacco which had paid the duty, shall forfeit 5s. for every pound weight, over and above all other penalties, to be recovered and applied as in s. 1., id. s. 2.

21. All leaves, &c. so cut, coloured, &c. and all utensils made use of in cutting or curing the same, may be searched for and seized by any officer of the customs, or by any persons thereto authorized by writing under hand and seal from the treasury, or the commissioners of the customs in Eng. or Scot., id. s. 3.

22. No house, &c. shall be opened to search for such leaves, &c. but at seasonable hours, and not without a warrant from two justices; and such leaves, &c. which shall be seized within the limits of any port, or within six miles of the same, shall be brought to the next customhouse warehouse; and if seized at a greater distance, shall be secured by order of two justices, at H.M.'s charge, till the cause of such seizure shall be determined by the justices at the next or second quarter-sessions after such seizure; and all such leaves, &c. after condemnation, shall be openly burnt at H.M.'s charge, id. s. 4.

23. All servants and labourers employed in cutting, &c. such leaves, &c. or in vending the same, and being convicted by the oath of one person before two justices, shall by them be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, to be kept at hard labour for not exceeding 6 months, id. s. 5.

24. Persons sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff be nonsuit, discontinues, or has a verdict against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 6.

25. If any person shall make, mix or colour any snuff with ochre, umber, or any other colouring, (except with water tinged with Venetian red only), or shall mix with any snuff any fustick or yellow ebony, touchwood, or other wood, or any dirt, sand or dust sifted from tobacco, or knowingly sell or expose to sale such snuff, he shall forfeit the snuff, and 3l. for every pound weight thereof, to be recovered and applied as in s. 1. pl. 19., id. s. 7.

26. The powers of 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 46. shall be in full force against persons who shall make, mix or colour, or cause to be made, &c. any sort of snuff, with any sort of ochre, umber or other colouring, except water tinged with Venetian red, or shall mix, or cause to be mixed, with any sort of snuff, fustick or yellow ebony, touchwood, or other sort of wood, or any dust, sand or tobacco dust, 5 G. 1. c. 11. s. 22.

TOLLS.

1. THE PENALTY for taking excessive tolls in a city, &c. Murage granted to cities, 3 E. 1. c. 31.

2. If any take excessive toll in H.M.'s own town, H.M. shall seize into his own hand the franchise of the market; and if it be in another's town, and the same be done by the lord of the town, H.M. shall do in like manner; and if it be done by a bailiff or mean officer without the lord's commandment, he shall restore the plaintiff double the outrageous taking, and shall have 40 days' imprisonment; touching citizens and burgesses to whom H.M. hath granted murage to enclose their towns, which take such murage otherwise than it was granted, they shall lose their grant for ever and be grievously amerced, id. ibid.

TOKENS. (See COIN.)

1. TO PREVENT THE COUNTERFEITING OF SILVER PIECES denominated tokens intended to be issued and circulated by the governor and company of the bank of Eng. for the respective sums of 5s. 6d., 3s. and 1s. 6d., and to prevent the bringing into the kingdom, or uttering any such counterfeit pieces or tokens, 57 G. 3. c. 110.

2. FOR THE FURTHER PREVENTION OF THE COUNTERFEITING OF silver tokens issued by the governor and company of the bank of Eng., called dollars, and of silver pieces issued and circulated by such governor and company called tokens, 52 G. 3. c. 138. ss. 1—4. [For rest of title, see BANK OF ENGLAND, pl. 74, 75.] [Both these acts may be deemed virtually REP. since the bank has been restrained from issuing such dollars or tokens by 57 G. 3. c. 113. which see, post, pl. 26., and see also 44 G. 3. c. 71. for Ir.]

1. TO PREVENT THE ISSUING AND CIRCULATING of pieces of gold and silver, or other metal, usually called tokens, except such as are issued by the banks of Eng. or Ir. respectively, 52 G. 3. c. 157. [AMD. and the time for issuing such tokens EXT. 53 G. 3. c. 19., 53 G. 3. c. 114., 54 G. 3. c. 4. EXT. to copper tokens, 57 G. 3. c. 46.]

2. No piece of gold or silver, or mixed metal composed in part of gold or silver, of whatever value, shall be manufactured or originally issued as a token for money, or as purporting that the bearer or holder thereof is entitled to demand any value denoted thereon, either by letter, words, figures or otherwise, whether such value is to be paid in money or goods, or otherwise; and every person who shall make or originally issue as for nominal value any such token, shall, for each such token, forfeit not less than 5l., or more than 20l., in discretion of the justice hearing the offence, 52 G. 3. c. 157. s. 1.

3. Certain tokens allowed to be circulated for a limited time, id. s. 2. [The 52 G. 3. c. 157. s. 2. shall be REP., but such tokens shall not be circulated after 5th July, 1813, 53 G. 3. c. 19. ss. 1, 2. which is also REP. and such tokens not to be circulated after 6 weeks after the then next session of parliament, 53 G. 3. c. 114. ss. 1, 2. which is also REP., 54 G. 3. c. 4. s. 1.]

4. From 6 weeks after the then next session of parliament, no piece of gold or silver, or of any mixed metal composed in part of gold or silver, shall pass as a token for money, or as purporting that the bearer or holder thereof is entitled to demand any value denoted thereon, and every person who shall after such day pass the same, shall, for each such token so passed, whether such person is concerned in the original issuing, or be only the bearer or holder thereof for the time being, forfeit not less than 5l., or more than 10l. in the discretion of the justice who shall determine the offence; provided nothing herein shall prevent the presentation of such token to its original issuer, or discharge such issuer from his liability to pay the same, 54 G. 3. c. 4. s. 2.

5. Penalties imposed by this act shall be applied and levied as in 52 G. 3. c. 157. s. 8. pl. 18. directed, and the powers, &c. of that act shall be in force, and be applied to this act, 53 G. 3. c. 19. s. 4., 53 G. 3. c. 114. s. 6., 54 G. 3. c. 4. s. 5.

6. This act shall not affect the tokens issued by the banks of Eng. or Ir., or subject such banks to any penalty for issuing and circulating the same, 52 G. 3. c. 157. s. 3., 53 G. 3. c. 19. s. 3., 53 G. 3. c. 114. s. 5., 54 G. 3. c. 4. s. 5.

7. No piece of copper, or mixed metal composed in part of copper, of whatever value the same may be, shall be made or originally issued as a token for money, or as purporting that the holder is entitled to demand any value denoted thereon, either by letters or otherwise, whether such value is to be paid or given in money or goods, or in any manner; and every person who shall make, or originally issue, any such token, shall, for every token, forfeit not less than 1l. nor more than 5l., at the discretion of the justice who determines the offence, 57 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.

8. No piece of copper of any such mixed metal shall pass as a token for money, or as purporting that the bearer or holder thereof is entitled to demand any value denoted thereon; and every person who shall pass as for any nominal value in money or goods, any such token, shall, for every token, whether such person was concerned in the original issuing, or only the holder thereof, forfeit not less than 2s. nor more than 10s., at the discretion of the justice; but nothing in this act shall prevent any person from presenting any such token for payment to the original issuer thereof, or to discharge any such original issuer from his liability to pay; but nothing in this act shall affect any tokens issued by the bank of Eng., id. s. 2.

9. Nothing in this act shall prevent the Sheffield penny token from being passed and circulated at any time previous to the 25th of March, 1823; but after such day this act shall prevent such tokens from being passed, id. s. 3.

10. In case any tokens issued previous to this act, with the super-scription Sheffield penny token, shall, after the 25th of March, 1823, and previous to the 25th of September, 1823, be presented to the overseers of the township of Sheffield at the workhouse, such overseers shall receive such tokens, paying to the holder one penny of the current coin of the realm for each; and in case such overseers shall neglect so to do, one justice, upon complaint on oath, may summon such overseers, and order them to receive such token, and to pay one penny for the same, together with all costs attending such complaint; and such overseers may pay such penny out of any money received by them for the relief of the poor; but shall not pay such costs out of such money, id. s. 4.

11. And in case such overseers shall, at any time previous to the 25th of March, 1823, deem it advisable to call in such tokens, they may take such measures as may seem necessary for that purpose; paying for each one penny of the current coin of the realm, id. s. 5.

12. Also other tokens bearing the superscription Birmingham, one penny, are in like manner permitted to pass until 25th of March, 1820, 57 G.3. c.46. ss. 6, 7, 8.

13. Nothing herein shall extend to any copper money current by virtue of H.M.'s proclamation, id. s.18.

14. Any justice for the county, riding, city or place wherein any offence against this act is committed, shall hear and determine the same in a summary way, and on complaint or information on oath, shall summon the party accused, and the witnesses on either side, and examine into the fact; and on proof thereof made, either by confession or by the oath of one witness, or otherwise, shall convict the offender, and adjudge the penalty, 52 G.3. c.157. s.4., 57 G.3. c.46. s.9.

15. If any person summoned as a witness before such justice on either side shall neglect to attend at the time and place appointed, without a reasonable excuse, to be allowed by such justice, he shall forfeit [20*l.* 52 G.3. c.157. s.4.], [50*l.* 57 G.3. c.46. s.10.], to be levied and paid as in s.8. pl. 18. directed, id. s.5., id. s.10.

16. The justice convicting any such offender, shall draw up the conviction in the form following, and shall return the same to the quarter sessions for the county, to be filed of record by the clerk of the peace:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our lord —, A.B. having appeared before me [or us], one [or more] of H.M.'s justices of the peace [as the case may be], and due proof having been made on oath by one or more credible witness or witnesses, or by confession of the party [as the case may be], is convicted of [specifying the offence]. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands, &c.], the day and year aforesaid,' id. s.6. id. s.11.

17. The clerk of the peace for any county, city, &c. on application made, shall cause a copy of any such conviction, filed by him, to be delivered to any person on payment of 1*s.*, id. s.7. id. s.12.

18. The penalties hereby inflicted shall be forthwith paid by the person convicted, and shall go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and in case of neglect to pay the same, or to give security to prosecute any appeal against such conviction, such justice shall, by warrant under his hand and seal, cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, together with all costs attending the same, and which warrant shall be in the form following, viz.:

'To the Constable, Headborough or Tythingman of —.

'WHEREAS A.B. of — in the county of — is this day convicted before me [or us], one [or more] of H.M.'s justices of the peace [as the case may be], for the county of —, [or for the — riding of the county of York], [or for the town, liberty or district of — as the case may be], on the oath of — or — a credible witness or witnesses, [or by confession of the party, as the case may be], or that the said A.B. hath [here set forth offence], contrary to the statute in that case made and provided, by reason whereof the said A.B. hath forfeited the sum of — to be distributed as herein mentioned, which he hath refused to pay; these are therefore, in H.M.'s name, to command you to levy the said sum of — by distress of the goods and chattels of him the said A.B., and if within the space of — days next after such distress by you taken, the said sum, together with the reasonable charges of taking the same, shall not be paid, then that you do sell the said goods and chattels so by you distrained, and out of the money arising by such sale, that you pay one half of the said sum of — to — of — who informed me [or us, as the case is] of the said offence, and the other half of the said sum of — to the overseer of the poor of the parish, township or place where the offence was committed, to be employed for the benefit of such poor, returning the overplus, if any, on demand, to the said A.B., the reasonable charges of taking, keeping and selling the said distress being first deducted; and if sufficient distress cannot be found of the goods and chattels of the said A.B. whereon to levy the said sum of —, that then you certify the same to me [or us, as the case is], together with this warrant. Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands, &c.] the — day of — in the year of our Lord —, id. s.8. id. s.13.

19. Such justices may order such offender to be detained in custody until return made to such warrant of distress, unless the party convicted shall give security by recognizance, or otherwise, for his appearance before such justice on the day appointed for such return, not exceeding 5 days from taking such security, id. s.9. id. s.14.

20. On such return, if no distress have been had, such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction of the county, &c. for 3 calendar months, unless the money is sooner paid, or until the offender shall give notice to the informer of his intention to appeal to the justices at the next quarter sessions, and shall enter into recognizance before some justice, with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the order and pay such costs as shall be awarded by such sessions; which notice of appeal not being less than 8 days before the trial thereof, such person may give, and such justices, on proof of such notice, and of such recognizance given and entered into, shall finally determine such appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party, as they think proper; and their determination shall be final and binding, id. s.10. id. s.15.

21. No person shall be disabled from being a witness in any prosecucution under this act, by reason of being an inhabitant of the parish where the offence was committed, 54 G.3. c.157. s.11., 57 G.3. c.46. s.16.

22. No proceeding under this act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise, into any court, id. s.12., id. s.16.

23. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the proper county, and the defendants therein may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done under this act; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant; or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance entered, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s.13. id. s.17.

24. All persons, who originally issued, or were concerned in issuing of any such tokens, as in s.2. pl. 4. and their executors or administrators, shall be liable in law, on demand made, to pay the value on such tokens denoted, and such value may be recovered by the holder in any action against such persons, in like manner as the amount of any promissory note, payable to bearer, and issuable by law, may be, 53 G.3. c.116. s.3., 54 G.3. c.4. s.3.

25. This act shall not authorize the issuing of any promissory note, not being a token, composed of gold or silver, or mixed metal, composed partly of gold or silver, which cannot now be issued by law, 53 G.3. c.114. s.4., 54 G.3. c.4. s.4.

26. TO PREVENT THE FURTHER CIRCULATION OF dollars and tokens, issued by the governor and company of the bank of Eng., for the convenience of the public, 57 G.3. c.113., [AMD. 58 G.3. c.14. Exp.]

27. From the 25th March, 1818, such dollars and tokens shall no longer circulate, or be received in payment or exchange; and in case any person shall utter, offer, or tender in payment, or give in exchange, or pass, circulate, or put off, any such dollars or tokens, whether the value thereof shall be given in money, goods, or other issue, such person, being thereof convicted upon the oath of one witness, before one justice, shall, for every such dollar or token so uttered, &c. forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.*; provided, that this act shall not prevent any person from presenting any such dollars or tokens for payment to the bank, before the 25th March, 1820, or to discharge the bank from liability to pay the same before the 25th March, 1820; and nothing herein shall restrain any person after the 25th March next, from selling of any such dollars or tokens as old silver, according to the weight thereof at the current price, and without regard to the nominal or current value at which the same were circulated, 57 G.3. c.113. s.1. [NOTE.—The rest of this act, viz. ss. 2—11. is verbatim with 52 G.3. c.157. ss. 4—13. and 57 G.3. c.46. ss. 9—17., ante, pl. 3—17.]

28. The time for circulation of such bank tokens and dollars extended, but now Exp., 58 G.3. c.14.

TRANSPORTATION.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO AUTHORIZE FOR A LIMITED TIME THE PUNISHMENT by hard labour of offenders, who for certain crimes are liable to transportation, 16 G.3. c.43. [CON. 18 G.3. c.62., and 19 G.3. c.54. all Exp.]

2. TO AUTHORIZE THE REMOVAL OF PRISONERS IN CERTAIN CASES, and to amend the laws respecting transportation of offenders, 24 G.3. S.1. c.12. [REP. 24 G.3. S.2. c.56. s.17.]

3. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL TRANSPORTATION OF FELONS and other offenders, and to authorize the removal of prisoners in certain cases, and for other purposes therein mentioned, 24 G.3. S.2. c.56. [This act shall continue in force so far as it relates to the removal of prisoners to temporary places of confinement, till 1st June, 1787, id. s.19., CON. by 28 G.3. c.24. s.3., 34 G.3. c.60. s.1., 39 G.3. c.51. s.1., 42 G.3. c.28. s.1., 46 G.3. c.28. s.1., 53 G.3. c.39. s.1., 54 G.3. c.30. s.1.; but REP. 55 G.3. c.156. s.1., and also Exp.]

4. TO AMEND THE LAWS RELATIVE TO THE TRANSPORTATION OF offenders, to continue in force till 1st May 1816, 55 G.3. c.156. [CON. as to the repeal of 24 G.3. S.2. c.56.; and proceedings under 24 G.3. S.2. c.56., valid in relation to proceedings commenced before 55 G.3. c.156. passed, 56 G.3. c.27. ss. 1, 2.]

STATUTES in force.

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL TRANSPORTATION OF FELONS, and unlawful exporters of wool, 4 G.1. c.11. ss. 1—3. 6. [This act shall not extend to Scot., id. s.8., but shall extend to H.M.'s dominions in America, and be deemed a PUBLIC act, id. s.9., AMD. 6 G.1. c.23. ss. 1—8., EXT. to Scot. 6 G.3. c.32., but see now 56 G.3. c.27. pl. 25.]

2. Where any person is convicted of grand or petit larceny, or any felonious stealing, or taking of money, or goods and chattels, either from the person, or the house of any other, or in any other manner, and who by law is entitled to the benefit of clergy, and liable only to the penalties of burning in the hand or whipping, (except persons convicted for receiving or buying stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen), the court before whom conviction had, or any court held for the same place, with like authority, may, instead of such punishment, order the offenders to be sent to the colonies in America for 7 years; and such court may order them to be transferred to the contractors for transportation; and persons convicted of any offence, excluded from the benefit of clergy, to whom H. M. shall extend his mercy, on condition of transportation, and the same is signified by a secretary of state, such court may allow such offenders the benefit of a pardon under the great seal, and may order them to be transferred to such contractors, as also any persons convicted of receiving or buying stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, for 14 years, in case such condition of transportation is general, or else for such term as is made part of such condition; and such contractors shall have a property in the service of such offenders, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 1.

3. The powers of 4 G. 1. c. 11., may be executed by any other subsequent court with like authority, held for the same county, &c. where the offenders were tried, though not held at the same town or place as the former court, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 1.

4. If any such offenders so ordered for transportation, shall return into G. B. or Ire. before the end of his term, he shall be punished as if attainted of felony without benefit of clergy, and execution may be awarded against him; but H. M. may at any time dispense with such transportation, and allow the offenders to return, he paying his owner a reasonable sum, to be adjudged by 2 justices for the place where his owner dwells; and where any such offenders shall have served their respective terms according to the order of such court, such services shall have the effect of a pardon, as for the crime for which they were transported, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 2. [See governors of colonies allowed to pardon such offenders, 30 G. 3. c. 47. pl. 18.]

5. Such contractors shall give security for the due landing of such offenders, and procure certificates from the governor of the place of such landing, id. s. 3.

6. If any person is in prison for want of bail for unlawful exportation of wool or woollens, and shall refuse to appear or plead to a declaration or information to be delivered to such person, or the keeper of the prison for such offence for one term, judgment shall be entered against him by default; and in case judgement is so obtained by default, verdict, or otherwise, and such person shall not pay the sum recovered against him, within 3 months after judgment entered up, the court before whom such judgment had, shall, by order of court, order him to be transported for 7 years; and if he returns to G. B. or Ire. before the expiration of his term, he shall suffer as a felon without benefit of clergy, id. s. 6. [But see 28 G. 3. c. 38.]

7. Regulations for the effectual transportation of such offenders, ss. 2—5. Being at large before the expiration of the term of transportation, death without benefit of clergy, s. 6.; and method of conviction and evidence, 6 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 2—7. [See superseded by the effect of 56 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 5—8. pl. 26—29.]

8. FOR THE MORE EASY AND EFFECTUAL CONVICTION OF offenders found at large within the kingdom of G. B., after they have been ordered for transportation, 16 G. 2. c. 15.

9. If any felon or other offender hereafter ordered for transportation, or who shall agree to transport himself to any colonies and plantations in America, either for life, or any number of years, shall be afterwards at large within G. B., without lawful cause, before the expiration of the term of transportation, such persons shall suffer death without clergy, id. s. 1.

10. Every such offender shall be tried before such judges, and in such manner, and the same evidence used for his conviction as is directed by 6 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 6, 7. pl. 7. [but see 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 8. pl. 29.] in cases of felons returning from transportation, id. s. 2.

11. Whoever shall discover, apprehend, and prosecute to conviction of felony without clergy, any such offenders so found at large in G. B. shall be entitled to a reward of 20*l.* for each offender so convicted, and shall have the like certificate and payments made without fee, as persons may be entitled to for apprehending, &c. any highwaymen, id. s. 3. [See FELONS AND FELONY, pl. 95.]

12. FOR MORE SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL TRANSPORTATION OF offenders, 8 G. 3. c. 15.; [But see now 56 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 3. 8.]

13. Where any offender is convicted of any crimes for which he is excluded the benefit of clergy, and the judge or justice of oyer and terminer, &c. in any county or place, before whom such conviction had, shall grant a reprieve for staying his execution, and recommend him to H. M.'s mercy, which mercy is afterwards extended to him on condition of transportation, and the same shall be signified by a principal secretary of state to the judge so recommending, such judge may make an order for his immediate transportation in the same manner as if such mercy had been signified during the continuance of the assizes at which the offender was condemned, and shall be considered as made there, and have all the consequences as an order for transportation made by any justice of oyer and terminer, &c. for such county, &c.; and such offenders shall be transferred to the contractor for transportation and his assigns for 14 years, in case such condition be general, or else for such term as is made part of such condition, if any particular time is specified by H. M.; and such contractor shall have a property in the service of such offender, and such transportation shall have the effect of a pardon under the great seal; but if such offender is found at large without lawful cause in G. B., before the expiration of his time, he shall, on conviction, suffer death without clergy, and be tried before such judges in such way and by the usual evidence in such cases; and the person apprehending and prosecuting to conviction any such offender, shall be entitled to the reward of 20*l.* and the usual certificate, 8 G. 3. c. 15.

14. TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND THE LAWS RELATING TO THE transportation and imprisonment of certain offenders, 19 G. 3. c. 74. ss. 1, 2. [Con. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 56. s. 18. 28 G. 3. c. 24. s. 3.; and as to so much as authorizes the removal of offenders to temporary places of confinement, by 34 G. 3. c. 60. s. 1., 46 G. 3. c. 28. s. 1., as to so much as relates to transportation beyond seas, (viz. ss. 1, 2.) by 39 G. 3. c. 57. s. 2., 42 G. 3. c. 28. s. 1., 53 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1., 54 G. 3. c. 30. s. 1., and till 1st May 1821, by 56 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 20 & 21., and AMD. 28 G. 3. c. 24. ss. 4, 5., which is Con. for 2 years, from 24th March 1821, and thence till the end of the then next session, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 6.] [NOTE, the 19 G. 3. c. 74. ss. 1, 2. has not been continued further than 1st May, 1821. QU. are they therefore Exp. ?]

15. When any person at any session of oyer and terminer, &c. or at any quarter or other general session of the peace for any county, &c. within Eng., county palatine of Chester, or Wa., is convicted of any grand or petit larceny, or any other crime for which he is liable to transportation to the colonies in America, such court, or any other court holden for the same place, with like authority, may adjudge such person to be transported to any place beyond seas, whether in America or elsewhere, in such like manner, and for such term of years as they may be liable to be transported to America, 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 1.

16. When any such person who shall be so convicted shall in consequence be ordered for transportation, or if H. M. shall extend his mercy to any offender, convicted or attainted of any felony, by which he is excluded from the benefit of clergy, or of such statutes as are equivalent thereto, upon condition of transportation, then all laws, usages, &c. now in force in regard to transportation of criminals to America, and their punishment for being afterwards found at large within G. B., before the expiration of their terms of transportation, and particularly the provisions contained in 4 G. 1. c. 11., 6 G. 1. c. 23., 16 G. 2. c. 15., and 8 G. 3. c. 15. shall take place and be in force, id. s. 2. [See the note at the end of pl. 14.]

17. The several offenders who by virtue of the 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 56. shall be removed to temporary places of confinement, shall be treated and visited as offenders sentenced to hard labour under 19 G. 3. c. 74. [which seems Exp. as to the part here referred to] are; and all expences occasioned by their maintenance or death shall be defrayed by the overseers appointed by H. M., in the same manner as the like expences incurred for offenders sentenced to hard labour under such act, 28 G. 3. c. 24. s. 4., [See as to the removal of such offenders, 56 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 9, 10. pl. 30, 31.] H. M. may authorize under his sign-manual, any person to contract for the due transportation of such offenders, and direct to what persons security shall be given for such transportation, id. s. 5. [See as to making such contracts, 56 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 5, 6, 7. pl. 26, &c.]

18. FOR ENABLING H. M. TO AUTHORIZE HIS GOVERNOR, OR lieutenant-governor, of such places beyond the seas to which felons or other offenders may be transported, to remit the sentence of such offenders, 30 G. 3. c. 47.

19. H. M. by commission under the great seal may authorize the governor, or lieutenant-governor of any places to which any offenders may be transported by an instrument in writing under the seal of the government in which such places are situated, to remit either absolutely or conditionally, the whole or part of the term for which any such offenders shall be transported, and such instrument shall have the like force as if H. M. had signified his intention of mercy under his sign-manual, id. s. 1.

20. Such governor, &c. shall transmit to one of the secretaries of state, a duplicate under the government seal, of each such instrument of remission, and the names of such offenders contained in such duplicates shall be inserted in the next general pardon that shall pass the great seal after the receipt of such duplicates, id. s. 2.

21. TO FACILITATE AND RENDER MORE EASY THE TRANSPORTATION of offenders, 43 G. 3. c. 15. [Con. for 2 years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 6.]

22. When H. M. shall give orders for the transportation of any offenders in H. M.'s ships, who are sentenced to transportation to any places within his dominions or beyond the seas, H. M. may, by any order under his sign-manual, give to any person named therein, a property in the service of such offenders, for such term of life or years, or part thereof, for which such offenders were to be transported, as he shall think fit, and on such nomination, such offenders may be delivered to such persons, without requiring any security for their due transportation; and such person so nominated, and his assigns, shall have the like property in the service of such offenders, as if he had contracted and given security to transport such offenders under the [26 G. 3. c. 56. REP. 55 G. 3. c. 156.] or any other law now in force, 43 G. 3. c. 15.

23. TO AMEND THE SEVERAL LAWS RELATIVE TO TRANSPORTATION of offenders to continue in force until 1st May, 1821, 56 G. 3. c. 27. [EXT. to offenders adjudged to transportation in H. M.'s foreign dominions, 59 G. 3. c. 101. both acts CON. for 2 years from 24th March, 1821, and thence to the end of the then next session of parliament, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 6. [See ss. 1, 2. STAT. REP. pt. 4.]

24. The court before which any person shall be convicted at any session of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, or any quarter or other general session of the peace, within Eng., or at any great session for the county of Chester, or within the principality of Wa., of grand or petit larceny, or any other offence for which such person shall be subject to be transported, may order and adjudge, or any such like subsequent court may order and adjudge, that such person shall be transported for any term not exceeding the number of years or term for which such person is liable by law to be transported; and in every such case H. M., with the advice of his privy council, may appoint any other place or places, beyond the seas, in addition to such as have been heretofore appointed for that purpose, either within his dominions, or elsewhere without, to which any such felons or offenders shall be conveyed; and such court may order such offenders to be transferred to the use of any person who shall contract for the due performance of such transportation; and when H. M. shall extend mercy to any offender by law excluded from the benefit of clergy, upon condition of transportation either for life or years, to be signified by one of the secretaries of state, or any court having proper authority, may allow such offender the benefit of a conditional pardon, and order such offender to be transported for life or years as specified in such condition of transportation, and make such order of transfer as aforesaid, and when any offender shall be convicted of any crime excluded the benefit of clergy, the judge before whom such offender shall be convicted, or any justice of the K. B., C. P., or baron of the exchequer, or any justice of Chester or Wa., within their respective jurisdictions, shall, on such intention of mercy being signified to him by a principal secretary of state, make an order for the immediate transportation of such offender, and for such offender to be transferred in the same manner as if such intention of mercy had been signified by one of the secretaries of state during the continuance of the assizes or sessions, and shall be as effectual; and such persons so contracting, or their assigns, by virtue of such order of transfer, shall have a property in the service of such offender for such term of life or years for which such offender shall be transported, 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 3.

25. The clerk of assize, clerk of the peace, or other clerk of the court, shall be paid by the treasurer of the county, &c. the same fee as hath been usually paid for the order of transportation, id. s. 4.

26. Every person to whom any such offenders shall be transferred shall, before any of them shall be delivered over to him, give security that he will transport effectually such offender to such place as shall be appointed by H. M. as aforesaid, and procure evidence of the landing of such offenders in such place, (death and casualties by sea excepted), and that they shall not be suffered to return to G. B. or Ire., by the wilful default of the person contracting, or of his assigns, id. s. 5.

27. Every such court as aforesaid may appoint 2 justices of the peace for the county, &c. where the offender convicted, who shall have power to contract with any person nominated by one of the secretaries of state for the performance of the transportation of such offenders, and to order such security to be taken as aforesaid; and also to cause such offenders to be delivered by the gaolers to the persons contracting, or their assigns; which contracts and security shall be certified by such justices to the next court to be holden, with the like authority, for such county or place, to be filed among the records; and all securities for transportation shall be by bond in the name of the clerks of the peace, or other clerks of the court, who shall prosecute such bonds in their own names; for which purpose every such clerk and his successors shall be deemed a body corporate, and shall be paid all such costs as they shall sustain in any such suit, as the justices shall at their general quarter-sessions direct, out of the public stock; and all monies recovered on such bonds shall be for the use of the county, and paid to the treasurer to be part of the public stock; and all charges in making the contracts, taking securities, and conveying felons and offenders, shall be borne by each county, &c. for which the court was held, which ordered such offenders to be transported; and the treasurers shall, by order of quarter sessions, pay all such charges, id. s. 6.

28. The persons so contracting, or their assigns, may, in such manner as they think fit, carry and secure such offenders in and through any county towards the seaport from whence they are to be transported; and if any person shall rescue such offenders, or assist them in making their escape, he shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and suffer death without benefit of clergy, 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 7.

29. If any offender so ordered to be transported, or who shall agree to transport himself on certain conditions either for life or years, under the provisions of any act or acts of parliament, to any such place so appointed by H. M. as aforesaid, shall be afterwards at large within any part of G. B. or Ire., without lawful cause, before the expiration of his term of transportation, every such offender, being thereof convicted, shall suffer death, without benefit of clergy; and may be tried at the assizes for the county, either where such offender shall be apprehended, or from whence he was ordered to be transported; and the clerk of the assize, clerk of the peace, or other officer of the court having the custody of the records, shall, at the request of the prosecutor, give a certificate in writing signed by him, containing the effect and substance only of every indictment and conviction of such offender, and of the order for transportation, to the justices of assize where the offender shall be indicted (not taking for the same more than 6s. 8d.), which certificate shall be sufficient proof of the conviction and order for transportation; and whoever shall discover and prosecute to conviction any such offender, shall be entitled to 20*l.*, and have such certificate to receive the same as any person may be entitled unto for the prosecuting to conviction any persons who have committed any robbery upon the highway; [see FELONS AND FELONY, pt. 95.] but H. M. may pardon such transportation, and allow of the return of any offender to this kingdom, id. s. 8.

30. H. M., by an order in writing, notified by one of the secretaries of state, or any 3 justices of the peace, acting in and for the county, &c. in which any gaol is situate, as shall be authorized by the sign-manual, to direct the removal of any male offender who shall be under sentence of death, but reprieved during pleasure, or under sentence or order of transportation (and who, having been examined by an experienced surgeon or apothecary, shall appear to be free from any putrid or infectious distemper, and fit to be removed from the gaol in which such offender shall be confined), to such place of confinement within Eng. or Wa., either on land or on board any ship or vessel to be provided by H. M. in the river Thames, or any navigable or other river, or within the limits of any port or harbour of Eng. or Wa., as H. M., or 3 of such justices shall appoint, under the management of a superintendant or overseer, to be appointed by H. M., or any 3 of such justices; and every offender who shall be so removed shall continue in such place until transported, or, by the expiration of the term shall be entitled to his liberty, or until H. M., or 3 of such justices shall direct the return of such offender to the gaol from which he was so removed; and the sheriff or gaoler shall, with all speed, after the receipt of such order, convey every such offender to the place appointed, and there deliver him to such superintendant or overseer, together with a true copy, attested by such sheriff or gaoler, of the caption and order of the court, before which such offender was tried, containing the sentence of transportation, by virtue whereof he shall be in custody; and also a certificate containing his age, and an account of his behaviour in prison, before and after his trial, and the gaoler's observations on his temper and disposition, and such information concerning his connexions and former course of life as may have come to the gaoler's knowledge; and such superintendant or overseer shall give a receipt in writing to the sheriff or gaoler, id. s. 9.

31. All such fees on the delivering out of custody of such offender so ordered to be removed, as have been usually paid, when any offender is removed for transportation, and all reasonable expences which the sheriff or gaoler shall incur in such removal, shall be paid by the treasurer of the county, &c. such fees and expences being first allowed by the order of the justices at their quarter or general sessions of the peace, who shall make the proper order, id. s. 10.

32. Where any offender shall be brought to any such place of confinement, he shall be washed, cleansed, and purified, and his clothes burnt, if necessary, or otherwise taken care of for him by the overseer, and redelivered upon his quitting, or sold for his benefit, and the produce accounted for to him by the overseer; and when such offender shall be finally discharged, such other decent clothing as shall be judged necessary by the superintendant, shall be delivered to such offender, and also such sum for his immediate subsistence, as the superintendant shall think proper, so as such sum shall not exceed 3*l.*, id. s. 11.

33. After the removal of any offender, the superintendant or overseer shall have the same powers as are incident to the office of a sheriff or gaoler, and in like manner be answerable for any escape; and also during such custody shall see him fed and clothed according to a scale of diet and clothing, to be fixed on and notified in writing by one of the secretaries of state to the superintendent, and shall keep such offender to labour, under such restrictions, as H. M., or 3 of such justices, as in s. 9. pl. 30., shall by any order directed to such superintendent or overseers appoint; and the time during which any such offender shall have continued confined under this act, shall be reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of transportation, 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 12.

34. If any offender shall during such custody be guilty of any misbehaviour or disorderly conduct, such superintendent may inflict such moderate punishment as may be inflicted by law on persons committed to a house of correction; and if any offender shall escape from the custody of such superintendent, or if any person shall rescue, or attempt to rescue, or assist in rescuing any such offender, or shall convey or cause to be conveyed any disguise, instrument for effecting escape, or arms, to such offender, such offence shall be punishable in the same manner as if such offender had been confined in a gaol or prison in the custody of the sheriff or other gaoler, id. s. 13.

35. The superintendent of the several places of confinement to be appointed by virtue of this act, s. 9. pl. 30., shall make returns, specifying the name of every person in custody in each, the offence of which he shall have been guilty, the court before which convicted, and the sentence, together with his age and bodily state, and his behaviour whilst in custody; and also the names of such offenders who shall have died whilst in such custody, or shall have escaped or been discharged; which returns shall be made on the first day of every Easter and Michaelmas term, to the court of K. B. at Westminster, on the oath of the overseer, made before such court, or a commissioner thereof, id. s. 14.

36. H. M. may appoint one fit person to be superintendent of any place of confinement, either at land or on board any ship or vessel to which such offender shall be removed under this act, and in case it is deemed expedient, one fit person to be assistant or deputy to such superintendent, and to be constantly resident at or near such place; and also one proper person to be overseer on board each such ship or vessel, who, with a sufficient number of officers and guards, shall constantly reside on board; and such superintendent shall personally visit such places of confinement 4 times in every year, or oftener, and distinctly examine into the state of such places of confinement, the behaviour of the assistants or deputies, overseers, officers, and guards, the treatment and condition of the prisoners, and the amount of the several earnings, and the expences attending every such place of confinement, and shall make a report to the secretary of state for the home department, who shall cause such report to be laid before both houses of parliament, at the beginning of every session, and such superintendent shall distinguish in such report the amount of the earnings and expences at each of such places, and shall state the average number of prisoners confined, and the number of days labour done by such prisoners, distinguishing the work of artificers from that of common labourers, and such superintendent shall also, in matters of extreme necessity, make a special report thereof to such secretary of state, who may, if he see fit, submit such special report to the justices of the K. B., who shall afford such redress, or provide such regulations as they deem proper; and such superintendents, assistants, or deputies, and overseers, shall continue in office during H. M.'s pleasure, and shall receive such salaries as he shall appoint; and such superintendent shall be paid such travelling and other reasonable expences as shall be incurred in discharge of his duty, id. s. 15.

37. If any order made for the transportation of any offender, cannot be conveniently executed with respect to the place in such order mentioned, the court of K. B., or (in the vacation time), any two justices of such court of K. B., C. P., or barons of the exchequer, may order that such offender shall be transported to any other place, appointed for the transportation of offenders, in like manner as such offender shall be liable to be transported to the place mentioned in the original sentence or order; and such order shall have all the same consequences in every respect as the original order for the transportation of such offender, who shall be as aforesaid transferred to the party contracting for the transportation of offenders; and in case any such offender so ordered for transportation shall be afterwards at large within any part of G. B., without some lawful cause, before the expiration of the term, he shall, on being thereof convicted, suffer death without benefit of clergy, and shall be tried in such manner with such evidence as is directed by the laws now in being or hereafter to be made for the trial of like offenders; and whoever shall discover and prosecute to conviction any such offender, shall be entitled to a reward of 20*l.* and shall have such certificate to receive the same, as any person may for the prosecuting persons who have committed any robbery upon the highway, id. s. 16. [See FELONS AND FELONY, pl. 95.]

38. The expences of carrying this act into execution, as far as relates to the removal of prisoners to other places of confinement, and which are not otherwise provided for, shall be annually laid before both houses of parliament, and provided for in the next supplies, id. s. 17.

39. In actions brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if verdict shall pass for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after issue joined, or has judgment on demurrer or otherwise against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs; and if the plaintiff in such action shall get a verdict, he shall not have costs, unless the judge shall certify his approbation of the verdict, 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 18.

40. Such actions shall be laid in the proper county, and be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, id. s. 19.

41. Whenever any convict adjudged to transportation by any court or judge beyond Eng. or Wa., or any convict adjudged to suffer death by any such court or judge, and pardoned on condition of transportation, shall be brought to Eng. to be transported, such offender may be imprisoned in any place of confinement on board any vessel provided under 56 G. 3. c. 27., until transported, or till entitled to his liberty; and one of the principal secretaries of state shall appoint some person, who shall contract for the transportation of such convict as justices of peace may do, under 56 G. 3. c. 27. s. 9. pl. 30. and when such convict is so imprisoned, all the rules, powers, &c. of such act concerning his safe custody, escape, or being at large before his term of transportation expired, shall extend to all such convicts sentenced to transportation in any such court beyond Eng. or Wa. as fully as if convicted and sentenced at any session of gaol delivery in Eng.; but this shall not extend to Scot. or Ire., 59 G. 3. c. 101. ss. 1, 2.

42. TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND 56 G. 3. c. 10. for the punishing mutiny and desertion, in relation to the transportation of offenders, 56 G. 3. c. 119.

43. Every order made by any justice of K. B. C. P. or baron of exchequer under any act in force, when such order made in relation to the transportation of offenders, for the transportation of any offender sentenced to transportation by any court-martial, or being liable to the punishment of death by sentence of court-martial, but pardoned on condition of transportation, and every act consequent upon such order shall be obeyed by the person in whose custody the offender is, and all others whom it may concern, and shall be as effectual as any order made, or act done under any statute in relation to the transportation of offenders, and all sheriffs, gaolers, keepers, governors or superintendents, and all constables and others shall obey the same, and assist therein, and be liable to like punishment for disobedience, or resistance, as if made and done under any act of parliament in force for the transportation of offenders, id. ibid.

TREASON.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR CONFIRMATION OF CERTAIN ATTAINDERS or judgments given in parliament, and for indemnity to all parties concerned, 11 R. 2. c. 1. [Exp. and in part Rep. 2 H. 4. c. 22.]

2. FOUR OFFENCES AGAINST H. M. declared treason, 21 R. 2. c. 3. [Rep. 1 H. 4. c. 3., 1 H. 4. c. 10., 1 E. 6. c. 12., and 1 M. Sess. 1. c. 1. s. 3.]

3. PENALTY OF HIGH TREASON ON ATTEMPTING to repeal any judgments or statutes made in this parliament, and to the observance of which the lords spiritual and temporal had been sworn, 21 R. 2. c. 4. [Rep. 1 H. 4. c. 3., 1 H. 4. c. 10., 1 E. 6. c. 12. and 1 M. Sess. 1. c. 1. s. 3.]

4. THE ISSUE OF MALE TRAITORS ATTAINED in this parliament, disabled from sitting in parliament, or in H. M.'s council, with saving to the issue female and their issue, 21 R. 2. c. 6. [Rep. 1 H. 4. c. 3.]

5. WHOEVER SHALL ATTEMPT TO REPEAL any of the statutes made in this parliament, by virtue of the authority given to the commissioners, shall be liable to the penalties of high treason, as if the statutes had been made in full parliament, 21 R. 2. c. 20. [Rep. 1 H. 4. c. 3., 1 H. 4. c. 10., 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2., 1 M. Sess. 1. c. 1. s. 3.]

7. CONCERNING TREASONS IN CERTAIN CASES, 28 H. 8. c. 18. [Rep. 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2., 1 M. Sess. 1. c. 1. s. 3.]

8. FOR THE TRIAL OF TREASONS in Wa. 32 H. 8. c. 4. [virtually Rep. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7. post, pl. 52.]

9. TO PROCEED BY COMMISSION OF OYER and determiner against such persons as shall confess treason, &c. without remanding the same, to be tried in the shire where the offence was committed, 33 H. 8. c. 23. [virtually Rep. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7. as to the treasons, but in force as to murders, see HOMICIDE.]

10. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF TRAIFEROUS WORDS against the Queen's Majesty, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 9. [Exp.]

11. Whereby certain offences be made treasons, and also for the government of the king's and queen's issue, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. [Exp. all but ss. 7, 8.]

12. WHEREBY CERTAIN OFFENCES BE MADE TREASON, 1 El. c. 5., 13 El. c. 1. [Exp. and Rep. 1 M. Sess. 1. c. 1. s. 3.]

13. AGAINST SUCH AS SHALL CONSPIRE or practise the enlargement of any prisoner committed for high treason, 14 Ed. c. 2. [EXP.]

14. TO AVOID FRAUDULENT ASSURANCES MADE in certain cases by traitors, 29 Ed. c. 3. [EXP.]

15. FOR SAFETY and preservation of H. M.'s person and government against treasonable and seditious practices and attempts, 13 C. 2. c. 1. [EXP.]

16. AGAINST corresponding with H. M.'s enemies, 3 W. & M. c. 13. [EXP.]

17. AGAINST corresponding with the late king James and his adherents, 9 W. 3. c. 1. [EXP.]

18. TO PREVENT ALL traitorous correspondence with H. M.'s enemies, 3 & 4 A. c. 14. [EXP.]

19. FOR THE MORE easy and speedy trial of such persons as have levied or shall levy war against H. M., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 33. [For the like purpose in Scot., 19 G. 2. c. 9. ss. 1—3. Both EXP.]

20. TO MAKE IT high treason to hold correspondence with the sons of the Pretender, and for attainting them of high treason in case they shall land, or attempt to land in G. B. or its dominions, and for suspending the operation of a clause in 7 A. c. 21. (s. 10.) relating to forfeitures for high treason, until after the decease of the sons of the Pretender, 17 G. 2. c. 39. [EXP.]

21. TO PREVENT THE return of such rebels and traitors concerned in the late rebellion as have been or shall be pardoned, on condition of transportation, and also to hinder their going into the enemy's country, 20 G. 2. c. 46. [EXP.]

22. MORE EFFECTUALLY to prevent, during the present war between G. B. and France, all traitorous correspondence with, or aid or assistance being given to H. M.'s enemies, 33 G. 3. c. 27. [EXT. to H. M.'s enemies in Switzerland, 38 G. 3. c. 45. Both EXP.]

23. FOR THE SAFETY and preservation of the person of H. R. H. the Prince Regent against treasonable practices and attempts, 57 G. 3. c. 6. ss. 2—6. [EXP. See s. 1. post, pl. 24.]

24. A DECLARATION WHICH OFFENCES SHALL BE ADJUDGED TREASON, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 2. [1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 8., 36 G. 3. c. 7., which as to ss. 1. 5. 6., is MADE PERP. 57 G. 3. c. 6. s. 1. and the rest is EXP.]

25. When a man doth compass or imagine the death of H. M., or of his wife, or of their eldest son and heir; or if a man doth violate H. M.'s companion, or H. M.'s eldest daughter unmarried, or the wife of H. M.'s eldest son and heir; or if a man levy war against H. M. in his realm, or be adherent to H. M.'s enemies in this realm, giving to them aid or comfort in the realm or elsewhere, and thereof be probably attainted of open deed by men of his condition; and if any man counterfeit H. M.'s great or privy seal, or his money, and if a man bring false money into this realm counterfeit to the money of Eng., knowing the money to be false, to merchandize or make payment, in deceit of H. M. and his people; and if a man slay the chancellor, treasurer, or H. M.'s justices of the one bench or the other, justices in eyre, or justices of assize, and all other justices assigned to hear and determine, being in their places doing their offices; the cases above rehearsed ought to be judged treason, which extendeth to the king and his royal majesty; and of such treason the forfeiture of the escheats pertaineth to H. M., as well of the lands holden of other as of himself, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 2. s. 1.

26. And there is another manner of treason, when a servant slayeth his master, or a wife her husband, or when a man secular or religious slayeth his prelate to whom he oweth faith and obedience; and of such treason the escheats ought to pertain to every lord of his own fee, id. s. 2.

27. And if any other case, supposed treason, happens before any justices, they shall tarry without going to judgment till the case be shewed before H. M. and his parliament, whether it ought to be judged treason or felony, id. s. 3.

28. And if any man of this realm ride armed covertly or secretly, with men of arms, against any other to slay him, or rob him, or to take him, or keep till he hath made fine or ransom; it is not the mind of H. M., nor his council, that it shall be judged treason, but it shall be judged felony or trespass according to the laws; saving to H. M. the year and the waste, and the forfeitures of chattels. And writs of scire facias shall be granted in such case against the land-tenants without other original, and without allowing any protection, id. s. 4.

29. If any persons during the life of our gracious sovereign shall, within the realm or without, compass, imagine, devise, or intend death or destruction, or any bodily harm tending to death or destruction, maiming or wounding, imprisonment or restraint of H. M., or to deprive or depose him from the style, honour, or kingly name of the imperial crown of this realm, or any other of H. M.'s dominions, or to levy war against him within this realm, in order by force or constraint to compel him to change his measures or counsels, or in order to put any constraint upon, or intimidate or overawe, both or either house of parliament, or to move or stir any foreigner or stranger with force to invade this realm, or any of H. M.'s dominions under his obedience; and such compassings, imaginations, inventions, decrees or intentions, shall express or declare by publishing any printing or writing, or by any other overt act; being convicted thereof, upon the oaths of two witnesses upon trial, or otherwise convicted by due course of law, such person shall be adjudged a traitor, and suffer death, and forfeit as in cases of high treason, 36 G. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

30. All persons indicted for any offence hereby made treason, shall have the benefit of 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3. and 7 A. c. 21. id. s. 5.; and nothing herein shall prevent the prosecution of any person for any offence under this act at common law, unless first prosecuted under this act, id. s. 6.

31. The concealment of any high treason shall be deemed misprisions of treason, and the offender shall forfeit as in cases of misprision of treason as heretofore, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 20., 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 8. [See also pl. 49.]

32. NOTHING SHALL BE ADJUDGED TREASON OTHERWISE than as ordained by stat. 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 2., 1 H. 4. c. 10.

33. REPEALING CERTAIN TREASONS, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 1. 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 1—2.

34. No act, deed, or offence, made treason, petty treason, or misprision of treason, by act of parliament, shall be adjudged high treason, petty treason, or misprision of treason, but only such as are declared by 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 2.; nor shall any death or penalty ensue to any offender for doing such acts, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2., 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 3.

35. THERE SHALL BE NO FORFEITURE OF LANDS FOR TREASON, of persons dead, without being attainted, 34 E. 3. c. 12.

36. If any such forfeiture shall be, H. M.'s hands shall be out thereof; and in all cases of forfeiture for treason of persons dead, not attainted or adjudged in their lives, their heirs nor their land-tenants shall not be impeached or challenged; nor of any other forfeiture except those in old time judged, after the death of persons, by presentments in eyre or in the K. B., as of felons of themselves and others, id. ibid.

37. NO PERSON GOING WITH H. M. TO THE WARS SHALL BE attaint of treason, 11 H. 7. c. 1.

38. No persons that attend upon H. M. in his person, and do him true and faithful service of allegiance, or be in other places by his commandment in his wars, within this land or without, for the same service of allegiance, shall be convict or attaint of high treason, or of other offences by act of parliament or otherwise, whereby they shall forfeit life, lands, possessions, goods, or other things, but shall be for that service discharged of any trouble or loss; and any acts or process contrary to this ordinance shall be void; provided that no person take any benefit by this act, which shall decline from his allegiance, id. ibid.

39. FOR DUE PROCESS TO BE HAD IN HIGH TREASON IN CASES OF LUNACY or madness, 33 H. 8. c. 20.—[NOTE. This act by s. 1. inflicts the punishment of death on persons who, when in sane mind, commit any treason, and afterwards turn to lunacy or madness, and directs a commission of oyer and terminer to be awarded to try such persons; but as the 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7. pl. 52. directs trials for high treason to be had according to the common law, so much of this act has been deemed REP.; but see as to the safe custody of lunatic offenders, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 94., 48 G. 3. c. 96., and 56 G. 3. c. 117. IDIOT and LUNATIC, pl. 45. 59.]

40. Persons attainted and convicted of high treason by parliament, or by the due course of the common law, and afterwards falling to madness or lunacy, shall nevertheless suffer execution; and if any person is attainted of high treason by the common law, such attainer shall be as good as if done by parliament, and shall be deemed in actual possession of the lands, &c. and goods, &c. of the person attainted, without inquisition found (s. 2.), saving to all persons and corporations other than the offenders, their heirs or assigns, and persons claiming through them, or to their uses, all rights, rents, &c. 33 H. 8. c. 20. ss. 2. & 3.

41, 42. CONCERNING THE TRIAL OF TREASONS COMMITTED out of H. M.'s dominions, [and for declaring the law with respect to the forfeiture of lands on attainder for treason], 35 H. 8. c. 2., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. ss. 6—13. [See 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. ss. 1—5. 10. SEDITION, pl. 5., and the note to 33 H. 8. c. 20. pl. 39. The part within brackets was framed to meet the object of some of these clauses.]

43. All offences declared by law to be treasons or misprisions of treasons, done by any person out of the realm, shall be determined before the K. B. by good men of the shire, where such bench shall sit, or else before such commissioners, and in such shire, as if such treasons had been done in the shire where determined, id. s. 1.

44. Peers indicted of any such treasons under this act, shall be tried by their peers, id. s. 2.

45. If any of H. M.'s subjects, denizens or others, do commit or practise out of the realm any offences heretofore made treason, the same shall be tried by the oaths of 12 men upon good evidence, and witness in such shire, and before such persons as H. M. may appoint under the great seal, in such form as treasons committed within the realm are usually tried; and upon presentment, founded on such treasons, and certified into K. B., like process shall be had as if such treasons had been committed within the realm, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. s. 6.

46. Outlawry made within the realm against offenders in treason resistant out of the realm, at the time of outlawry pronounced, shall be as good as if made when such offenders were within the realm, id. s. 7.

47. Provided, that if the party so outlawed shall, within one year after outlawry pronounced, yield himself to the chief justice of Eng., and offer to traverse the indictment or appeal, whereon the outlawry was pronounced, he shall be received; and on not guilty found, shall be clearly discharged of such outlawry, and all penalties by reason of the same, id. s. 8.

48. Every offender, convict of high treason, by presentment, confession, verdict or process of outlawry, according to law, shall forfeit to H. M. all such lands and hereditaments, which he has in his own right in use or possession within Eng. or elsewhere, in H. M.'s dominions, when the treasons were committed or after, id. s. 9.

49. The concealment of any high treason shall be deemed misprision of treason only, and the offender shall forfeit as in cases of misprision of treason, as heretofore, id. s. 11. [See also pl. 30.]

50. No person shall be indicted or attainted of any treason, unless accused by 2 accusers, which accusers, at the time of arraignment, shall be brought in person before the accused, and avow that they have to say against him to prove him guilty, unless the party will confess: Saving the right, rent, revenues, &c. of all persons, other than the offenders and persons claiming to their uses, id. s. 12.

51. The wife whose husband shall be attainted of treasons, shall in no wise be received to demand her dower of the lands, &c. of such husband, id. s. 13.

52. FOR REGULATING TRIALS IN CASES OF HIGH TREASON and misprision of treason, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 22., 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 93.; [See as to Scot., 7 A. c. 21.; and as to Ire., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 24.]

53. No person shall be indicted or convicted for any treason, petit treason, or misprision of treason, or for any word before specified, [see SEDITION,] for which he may suffer loss of goods or lands, death or imprisonment, unless accused by 2 witnesses, or that he will confess the same, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 22. [See 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. s. 12. pl. 50. and 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3. pl. 55.]

54. All trials for treason shall be had according to the order of the common law: Saving to all persons and corporations, other than the offenders and persons claiming through them or to their use, all rights, leases, rents, &c., which they had at the time of the treason committed, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7.

55. All persons that shall be indicted for high treason, whereby any corruption of blood may be made to such offenders, or their heirs, or for misprision of such treason, shall have a copy of the indictment, but not the names of the witnesses, [but a list of witnesses shall be given, see 7 A. c. 21. s. 11., 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 3.] delivered unto them 5 days at least before they be tried, to enable them to advise with counsel; their attorneys or agents requiring the same, and paying the officer his fees for writing thereof, not exceeding 5s. and every such person shall be admitted to make his defence by counsel, [but see further as to counsel, 20 G. 2. c. 30. pl. 69.] and to make any proof that he can produce by lawful witnesses, upon oath, for his just defence; and in case any person so accused shall desire counsel, the court before whom such person is tried, or some judge of that court, shall immediately upon request assign such counsel, not exceeding two, as the person shall desire, to whom such counsel shall have free access at all seasonable hours, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3. s. 1.

56. No person shall be indicted, tried, or attainted of high treason, whereby any corruption of blood may be made, or of misprision of such treason, but upon the testimony of 2 witnesses, either both of them to the same overt act, or one of them to one and the other of them to another overt act of the same treason, unless the party shall willingly, without violence, in open court, confess the same, or shall stand mute, or refuse to plead, or in cases of high treason shall peremptorily challenge above the number of 35 of the jury, id. s. 2.

57. Provided that any person indicted for any the treasons or misprisions aforesaid may be outlawed, and thereby attainted; and in cases of high treason, where by law, after such outlawry, the party may come in and be tried [see 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. s. 8. pl. 47.], he shall have the benefit of this act, id. s. 3.

58. If two or more distinct treasons of divers kinds be alleged in one indictment, one witness produced to prove one of the treasons, and another witness produced to prove another, shall not be deemed two witnesses to the same treason, id. s. 4.

59. No person shall be indicted, tried, or prosecuted, for any such treason or misprision of such treason, committed within Eng., Wa., or Ber., unless the indictment be found by the grand jury within 3 years after the offence done, id. s. 5. Except that if any person be guilty of designing, endeavouring, or attempting any assassination on the body of H. M. by poison or otherwise, such person may be prosecuted at any time, 7 & 8 W. c. 3. s. 6.

60. And all persons who shall be accused and tried for such treasons, or for misprision of such treason, shall have copies of the panel of the jurors, duly returned by the sheriff, and delivered to them 2 days at least before they be tried; and all persons indicted shall have the like process of the court to compel their witnesses to appear at such trials, as is usually granted to compel witnesses to appear against them, id. s. 7.

61. No evidence shall be given of any overt act that is not expressly laid in the indictment, id. s. 8.

62. No indictment, for any of such offences, nor any process or return thereupon, shall be quashed on the motion of the prisoner or his counsel, for miswriting, misspelling, false or improper Latin, unless exception be taken in court by the prisoner or his counsel before any evidence given in open court upon such indictment; nor shall any such miswriting, &c. after conviction, be cause to stay or arrest judgment; but judgment given upon such indictment may be reversed upon a writ of error, as if this act had not been, id. s. 9.

63. "Recital that by law on the trial of commoners for treason, a jury of 12 must agree; but on trial of peers a major vote is sufficient therefore:" Upon the trial of any peer or peeress for treason or misprision, all the peers who have a right to sit and vote in parliament shall be summoned 20 days before such trial; and every peer so summoned and appearing shall vote in the trial, first taking the oaths mentioned in 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8. and subscribing and repeating the declaration mentioned in 30 C. 2. St. 2., id. s. 10, 11.

64. This act shall not extend to any impeachment or other proceedings in parliament, id. s. 12.

65. This act shall not extend to any indictment of high treason for counterfeiting H. M.'s coin, his great seal or privy seal, his sign-manual or privy signet, id. s. 13.

66. In all cases of high treason, in compassing and managing the death of H. M. and misprision of such treason, where the overt act or acts thereof alleged in the indictment for such offence shall be assassination or killing of H. M., or any direct attempt against his life, or against his person, whereby his life may be endangered, or his person suffer bodily harm, the persons charged therewith may be indicted, arranged, tried, and attainted in the same manner and course of trial, and upon like evidence, as if such person stood charged with murder, and none of the provisions of 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3. or 7 A. c. 21. touching trials in cases of treason, shall extend to any indictment for high treason, or misprision of treason, where the overt act alleged therein is as aforesaid; but on conviction, judgment and execution shall be done as in cases of high treason, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 93.

67. CONCERNING ERRORS IN RECORDS OF ATTAINDERS of high treason, 29 E. 1. c. 2.

68. No record of attainder that now is, of any person of and for any high treason done, where the party has been executed for the same, shall by the heirs of such person, or any other claiming by or through such heirs, be reversed, or impeached by any plea of error, id. s. 1.

69. FOR ALLOWING PERSONS IMPEACHED OF HIGH TREASON, whereby any corruption of blood may be made, or for misprision of such treason, to make their full defence by council, 20 G. 2. c. 30. [See 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 3. s. 1. pl. 55.]

70. All persons who shall be impeached by the commons of G. B. for any high treason, whereby any corruption of blood may be made to such offenders, to their heirs, or for misprision of such treason, may make their full defence by counsel, not exceeding 2, who shall be assigned for that purpose, on the application of the parties impeached at any time after the articles of impeachment exhibited, id. ibid.

71. FOR DISCONTINUING THE JUDGMENT REQUIRED BY LAW to be given against women convicted of certain crimes, and substituting another judgment in lieu thereof, 30 G. 3. c. 48.

72. The judgment to be given against any woman convicted of high or petty treason, or of abetting, procuring, or counselling petty treason, shall not be that she be drawn to the place of execution and be there burned to death; but that she be drawn to the place of execution, and be there hanged by the neck till she be dead, id. s. 1.

73. Any woman convicted of petty treason, or of abetting, &c. the same, shall be subject to the further penalties by 25 G. 2. c. 37. ss. 1-10. [HOMICIDE, pl. 26.] provided, and the court before whom she shall be convicted, shall pass sentence at such time, and give such orders as to the time of her execution, the disposal of her body after execution, and all other matters as in that act directed in respect to murderers, id. s. 2.

74. Whenever any woman shall be convicted of high or petty treason, or of abetting, &c. the latter crime, and judgment is given thereon according to this act, the woman so attainted of such crimes respectively, shall be liable to the like forfeitures and corruption of blood as before this act, id. s. 4.

75. TO ALTER THE PUNISHMENT IN CERTAIN CASES OF high treason, 54 G.3. c.146.

76. In all cases of high treason in which, as the law now stands, the sentence would have been, to have been drawn to the place of execution on an hurdle, and there be hanged, but not till dead, but that they should be taken down again, and their bowels taken out and burnt before their faces, and that afterwards their heads should have been severed from their bodies, and their bodies, &c. be divided into 4 quarters, and their heads and quarters to be at H. M.'s disposal, the sentence or judgment hereafter to be awarded against any person convicted shall be, that such person be drawn to the place of execution on an hurdle, and there be hanged by the neck till dead, and afterwards the head shall be severed from the body, and the body divided into 4 quarters, shall be disposed of as H. M. thinks fit, id. s.1.

77. H. M. may, after judgment awarded, by warrant, under his sign-manual, countersigned by a principal secretary of state, declare it to be his will, and may direct that such person shall not be drawn, but shall be taken in such manner as in the warrant may be expressed, to the place of execution, and that such person shall not be hanged, but that his head shall be there severed from the body of such person whilst alive, and in such warrant may direct how the body, head, and quarters shall be disposed of, and the sheriff to whom such warrant is directed, may execute the same accordingly, id. s.2.

TREES.

1. TO ENCOURAGE THE PLANTING OF TIMBER TREES, fruit trees, or other trees, for ornament, shelter, or profit, and for the better preservation of the same, 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. ss.1—3. See s.4. Woods. [AMD. 6 G.1. c.16., 29 G.2. c.36. s.9.]

2. Every person who shall maliciously break down, cut up, pluck up, throw down, break or otherwise destroy, deface, or spoil any timber tree, fruit tree, or other tree, the person or corporation damaged by the same, shall receive satisfaction of the inhabitants of the parish, town, hamlet, vill, or place, where such trees are so broken, &c. and to be viewed and damages and costs recovered against such parish, &c. by the party grieved, in the same manner as hedges and ditches overthrown in the night, by 13 Ed.1. West. Sec. c.46. are to be, and where such offence is committed in Scot. to be recoverable by way of summary action, and in the same manner as damages in other cases of riot are to be, by the laws there, unless the offender shall by such parish, &c. be convicted within 6 months from the committing of the offence, 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. s.1. [Statutes of hue and cry extended to damages done by unknown persons to trees, 9 G.1. c.22. s.7. Riot, pl.34.]

3. Any 2 justices of the county, riding, division, stewardry, regality, city, town, borough, or corporation, wherein any such offence is committed, or the justices in open sessions, on complaint made to them by any inhabitant of such parish, &c. or of the owner of such trees, &c. or any other, may cause such offenders to be apprehended for such trespasses and offences, and hear and finally determine the same; and if they convict any person of all or any such trespasses, &c. then such justices shall immediately after such conviction commit the offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for 3 months, and where there are no houses of correction in any county, &c. such justices shall commit the offender to the prison for criminals there, for 4 months; and shall order that such offender be publicly whipped by the master thereof once every month, in such borough or corporation, if the offence be committed therein, or in the market town where such house of correction stands, or in the next adjacent market town, and in the county where such offence was committed, and on market day, between 11 and 2; and where no house of correction, such offender shall be publicly whipped by the common hangman, once every month on the market day of any borough or corporation where the offender is committed, or on the market day of some town, between 11 and 2, id. s.2.

4. Before any such offender is discharged, he shall find sureties for his good behaviour for 2 years, id. s.3.

5. Every person who shall by day or night, cut, take, destroy, break, throw down, bark, pluck up, burn, deface, spoil, or carry away any wood springs, or springs of wood, trees, poles, wood, tops of trees, underwoods, or coppice woods, thorns, or quicksets, without the consent of the owner of such woods, wood grounds, parks, chases, or coppices, plantations, timber trees, fruit trees, or other trees, thorns, or quicksets, or of the person entrusted with the care thereof, or shall break open, throw down, level, or destroy, any hedges, gates, posts, stiles, railing, walls, fences, dikes, ditches, banks, or other enclosure of such woods, &c., such lords of manors, owners, or proprietors of the same as are damaged thereby, shall have like remedy, [by action on the case, 11 East. 349.] under the 13 Ed.1. West. Sec. c.46. as in 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. s.1. pl.2. provided, unless the offender is convicted within

6 months from the committing of the offence, 6 G.1. c.16. s.1. [See further as to gates, &c., 1 G.4. c.56. TRESPASS, pl.26.]

6. If any persons in a riotous, open tumultuous, or in a secret manner, forcibly, wrongfully, and maliciously, and without the consent of the proprietor, wood-reeve, or keeper, or person entrusted with the care of such woods, &c. as in s.1. pl.5., shall cut, take, destroy, &c. any wood, or springs of wood, under or coppice wood, or shall in such riotous or secret, &c. manner break open, &c. any hedges, &c. or inclosures of such woods, &c. then 2 justices of peace for the county, riding, city, &c. where the offence was committed, or the justices in sessions, on complaint made to them by such persons and in such manner as by 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. s.2. directed, shall hear and finally determine the same, and the offenders on conviction, shall be liable for such offences to the punishments and penalties by such act inflicted, 6 G.1. c.16. s.2.

7. In actions for any thing done under this act, or the 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. or 13 Ed.1. (West. Sec.) c.46. the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and in case a verdict passes for defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.3.

8. FOR INCLOSING BY MUTUAL CONSENT OF THE lords and tenants part of any common for the purpose of planting and preserving trees fit for timber or underwood, 29 G.2. c.36. [AMD. 31 G.2. c.41., 10 G.3. c.42. s.7.]

9. H. M. and all other owners of wastes, woods, and pastures, in Eng., wherein any persons or bodies politic or corporate have common of pasture, with assent of majority in number and value, of the owners and occupiers of tenements to which the said right of common belongs: and the major part in number and value of the latter, with assent of the owners of such wastes, &c. and any other persons or bodies, &c. with assent and grant of the owners of such wastes, and of the major part in number and value of the owners of such tenements, may enclose for growth of timber or underwood, any part of such wastes, woods, and pastures, for such time and on such conditions as shall be agreed, 29 G.2. c.36. s.1.

10. Any recompence agreed to be given for such inclosure to the owners and occupiers of tenements having the rights of common, shall be made either by a grant of a share of the profit arising from timber or underwood growing on the lands so inclosed, or by grant of other lands or hereditaments, or by annuity, or rent-charge issuing out of either of the above described lands, or in money to be placed out at interest on public securities, or laid out in the purchase of lands, &c. or of some annuity or rent-charge issuing therefrom, [and such recompence shall be paid to the respective persons interested in the right of common, and not to the overseers of the poor, 31 G.2. c.41. s.1. altering 29 G.2. c.36. s.2.]; and where the owners of the wastes, and majority of the commoners jointly agree to assign their respective interests in any part of such wastes, in order to such inclosure, and the owners of the wastes have not a fee simple therein, or are unable to alienate same, the recompence to them shall be paid either by grant of a share of profit from sale of timber growing on such inclosure, or by grant of other lands, &c., or of an annuity, or rent-charge from either of the above described lands, and such equivalent shall be held by the owners of such wastes, in like manner as their estate in such wastes is limited, 29 G.2. c.36. s.2. as AMD. by 31 G.2. c.41. s.1.

11. The annuity so granted as a recompence shall be deemed a rent-charge on the land inclosed, 10 G.3. c.42. s.7.

12. If any parish is desirous to acquire such right of inclosure for employment of the poor, and any recompence for the same is agreed to be paid, the overseers, by direction of the majority of inhabitants assembled at a vestry or public meeting, (of which notice shall be given in the church, on 3 Sundays before it is held,) may purchase such recompence out of the poor rates, and pay expenses of inclosing and preserving the land and apply the profits of timber and underwood thereon, towards the relief of the poor of parish, &c. and shall account for the same as for poor rates, 29 G.2. c.36. s.2.

13. The powers vested in owners, [Qu. of wastes, or of rights of common, or both? but symb. the latter, see 31 G.2. c.41. s.1. supra, pl.10.] under 29 G.2. c.36. and this act may be exercised by tenants for life or years, 31 G.2. c.41. s.2. But their acts are of no force after determination of their interests, 31 G.2. c.41. s.3.

14. Every agreement for such inclosure shall be in writing, signed by the parties, and registered and inrolled by the clerk of the peace for the county or division where the wastes lie, in 3 months after execution, 29 G.2. c.36. s.3. [Further time allowed for so doing, 10 G.3. c.42. Exp. except s.7. supra, pl.11. See rest of act, INDEMNITY.]

15. All parties grieved by such agreement may, in 6 months after such register and enrolment, appeal to the quarter sessions, who shall finally determine same; and if no such appeal is made, the agreement so registered and enrolled, shall be for ever binding to all persons, (s.4.) and all bodies politic or corporate, executors, &c. guardians, committees, and other trustees, &c. and husbands in right of their wives, may agree to such inclosure, and shall be indemnified for all such agreements, 29 G.2. c.36. ss. 4, 5.

16. If any person after the time limited for bringing such appeal against any such agreement, by day or night, shall unlawfully cut, take, destroy, break, throw down, bark, pluck up, burn, deface, spoil, or carry away, any trees growing within any such inclosure, without consent of the owners, the latter shall have such remedy and satisfaction from the inhabitants of the parishes or places adjoining such inclosures, and recover such damages and in manner directed for dykes and hedges overthrown, by 15 E.1. c.46. COMMON, pl. 3., unless the offender is convicted of such offence within 6 months after its commission, id. s.6.

17. Any 2 justices of the county or place wherein such offence is committed, or the justices for such county or place, in sessions, on complaint, may cause every such offender to be apprehended, and may hear and determine such trespass, and inflict the like penalty on every offender by them convicted, as by 6 G.1. c.16. ante, pl. 5. directed, id. s.7.

18. Every person who shall unlawfully cut, take, destroy, break, or throw down, bark, pluck up, burn, deface, spoil, or carry away any tree growing in any waste, wood, or pasture, in which any person or body hath right of common, shall be in like manner convicted, and incur like penalty, id. s.8.

19. Any person or body politic may take remedy for the before-mentioned damages, either against the parish or place where any of the said offences are committed, according to 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. or 6 G.1. c.16. ante, pl. 1, &c. or against the hundred, according to 9 G.1. c.22. s.7. as to them seems most meet, id. s.9.

20. In actions brought for any thing done in execution hereof, defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff discontinues, is nonsuit, or has judgment against him, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.10.

21. FOR ENCOURAGING THE CULTIVATION AND FOR THE better preservation of trees, roots, plants, and shrubs, 6 G.3. c.36.

22. All persons who shall in the night lop, top, cut down, break, throw down, bark, burn, or otherwise spoil, or destroy, or carry away any oak, beech, ash, elm, fir, chesnut, or asp timber tree, or other trees, standing for timber, or likely to become timber, without the consent of the owner; or shall in the night time pluck up, dig up, break, spoil, or destroy, or carry away any root, shrub, or plant, of the value of 5s. and which shall be growing, standing, or being in any garden, nursery, or other inclosed ground, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and be liable to the penalties thereof; and the court trying such offenders, may order them to be transported for 7 years, as other felons may be; and all persons who shall be wilfully aiding or abetting in such cutting down, breaking, throwing down, &c. any such oak, beech, &c. or other such timber, trees, &c. or in such plucking up, digging, &c. any roots, shrubs, or plants, of such value, or shall buy, or receive such roots, &c. knowing the same to be stolen, shall be subject to the like punishment, as if they had stolen them, 6 G.3. c.36.

23. FOR THE BETTER PRESERVATION OF TIMBER TREES, and of woods and underwoods, and for the further preservation of roots, shrubs, and plants, 6 G.3. c.48 [EXTD. to hollies, thorns, and quicksets, in forests and chaces, and trees and underwoods, in private grounds, 9 G.3. c.41. s.8. mistake in the misrecital of the title of 6 G.3. c.48. in the 9 G.3. c.41. s.8. RECTIFIED 10 G.3. c.30. EXTD. to poplar, elder, maple, larch, and hornbeam, 15 G.3. c.33. and EXTD. to bark, and AMD. 45 G.3. c.66. (See 15 C.2. c.2., Woods, &c.)]

24. Every person who shall wilfully cut or break down, bark, burn, pluck up, lop, top, crop, or otherwise deface, damage, spoil, or destroy, or carry away, any timber tree, or trees likely to become timber, or any part thereof, or the lops or tops thereof, without the consent of the owner, or in any of H. M.'s forests or chaces, without the consent of the surveyor, or his deputy, or person intrusted with the care of the same, and shall be thereof convicted upon the oath of one witness, before one justice, for the county, &c. shall, for the first offence, forfeit such sum, not exceeding 20*l.*, as to such justice shall seem meet, together with the charges previous to and attending such conviction, to be ascertained by such justice; and upon non-payment thereof, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol, for not exceeding 12, nor less than 6 months, or until the penalty and charges be paid; and if any person so convicted shall be guilty of the like offence a second time, and shall be thereof convicted in like manner, such person shall forfeit not exceeding 30*l.*, together with such charges attending such conviction; and upon non-payment thereof, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol, for not exceeding 18, nor less than 12 months, or until the penalty and charges be paid; and if any person so convicted shall be guilty of the like offence a third time, and shall be thereof convicted in like manner, such person shall be guilty of felony, and the court shall transport such person for 7 years, in like manner as other felons, 6 G.3. c.48. s.1.

25. All oak, beech, chesnut, walnut, ash, elm, cedar, fir, lime, sycamore, and birch trees, [and poplar, alder, larch, maple, and hornbeam trees, 13 G.3. c.33. see pl. 35.] shall be deemed timber trees within this act, id. s.2.

26. Every person who shall pluck up, or cut, spoil, or destroy, or take away any root, shrub, or plant, out of the fields, nurseries, gardens, or garden grounds, or other cultivated lands, of any person whomsoever, without the consent of the owner, and shall be thereof convicted upon the oath of one witness, before one justice, for the county, &c. shall for the first offence forfeit not exceeding 40*s.* together with the charge previous to and attending such conviction, to be ascertained by such justice; and if any person so convicted shall again commit the like offence, and be convicted as aforesaid, such person shall for such second offence, forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, together with such charges attending the conviction; and if any person so before convicted shall a third time commit the like offence, and shall be thereof convicted, such person shall, for such third offence, be deemed guilty of felony; and the court shall transport such person for 7 years, as other felons, id. s.3.

27. Every person who shall go into the woods, underwoods, or wood grounds, of any of H. M.'s subjects, not being the owner thereof, and shall there cut, lop, top, or spoil, split down, or damage, or otherwise destroy, any kind of wood or underwood, poles, sticks of wood, green stubs, or young trees, or carry away the same; or shall have in his custody any kind of wood, underwood, &c. and shall not give a satisfactory account how he came by the same, and shall be thereof convicted before one justice, on the oath of one witness, shall for the first offence forfeit not exceeding 40*s.* together with the charges attending such conviction, to be ascertained by such justice; and if any person shall commit any of such offences a second time, and be so convicted, he shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, together with the charges attending such conviction; and if a third time, such persons convicted thereof shall be deemed incorrigible rogues, and punished as such, id. s.4.

28. The 6 G.3. c.48. s.4. [and 9 G.3. c.41. s.8. by the 45 G.3. c.66. s.1.] and all penalties, &c. hereby inflicted, and all other provisions relating thereto, shall extend to and be put in execution in relation to all [H. M.'s forests and chaces within this realm, 9 G.3. c.41. s.8.] [woods and wood grounds belonging to H. M. in G. B., as well in right of his duchy of Lancaster, as otherwise, and whether such woods or wood grounds be within any of H. M.'s forests, or chaces, or not, 45 G.3. c.66. s.1.] and to all persons who shall without legal right, by night or day, [cut down, or destroy, 9 G.3. c.41. s.8.] take, carry, or convey away, any [hollies, thorns, or quicksets, growing, or being on any of H. M.'s forests, or chaces, or within the woods, or wood grounds of H. M.'s subjects, 9 G.3. c.41. s.8.] [bark being in such woods, &c. of H. M., or in the woods, or wood grounds, of any of H. M.'s subjects, 45 G.3. c.66. s.1.] or who shall have in custody any such [hollies, &c. 9 G.3. c.41. s.8.] [bark, 45 G.3. c.66. s.1.] and shall not give a satisfactory account how they came by them, and shall be thereof convicted before one justice, as in 6 G.3. c.48. prescribed; and such justices may administer oaths, and proceed in like manner for the conviction and punishment of offenders, on the premises, as fully as if such provisions, and such act had been here repeated, 9 G.3. c.41. s.8. 45 G.3. c.66. s.1.

29. Provided that if any person shall commit any such offences, in such acts specified, more than 3 times, and be thereof convicted, as in 6 G.3. c.48. directed, every such person shall, for the fourth or any subsequent offence, be adjudged an incorrigible rogue, and be punished as such, 45 G.3. c.66. s.3.

30. Justices for the counties, cities, ridings, divisions, or places, wherein any offences against this act shall be done, shall put this act in execution, and administer an oath to any witnesses, 6 G.3. c.48. s.5.

31. Such justice, unless such forfeitures shall be paid down upon conviction forthwith, where not otherwise directed, may by warrant, under hand and seal, commit such offender, for the first offence, to the house of correction for one month, to hard labour, and to be once whipped there; and for the second offence, for 3 months, to hard labour, and to be whipped there once in every one of such 3 months, id. s.6.

32. If any person shall hinder, or attempt to prevent the seizing or securing any person employed in carrying away any such timber or other trees, such person shall forfeit 10*l.* to the person who shall convict such offender; and if not paid on conviction, the person convicted shall be committed to the house of correction to hard labour, for not exceeding 6 calendar months, id. s.7.

33. One moiety of all such forfeitures, not otherwise directed, shall go to the informer, and the other to the person aggrieved, id. s.8.

34. The conviction of every offender against this act shall be certified by the justice before whom made, to the next general quarter sessions, to be filed amongst the records of the sessions; and such conviction shall be on parchment or paper, in the following form (as the case shall happen) or in words to the like effect, viz.

— { Bz it remembered, That on the — day of — in the year — to wit. { A. B. was upon the complaint of C. D. convicted before — of the justices of the peace for — in pursuance of an act passed in the 6th year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, for — [as the case shall be.] Given under — hand and seal the day and year above written.

Which shall be good in law, and shall not be quashed for want of any other form or words whatsoever; nor be removed by certiorari into K. B., but shall be deemed final, 6 G. 3. c. 48. s. 9. 9 G. 3. c. 41. s. 9. 45 G. 3. c. 66. s. 2.

55. The trees called poplar, alder, larch, maple, and hornbeam, shall be deemed timber trees, and all persons who shall wilfully cut, or break down, bark, burn, pluck up, lop, top, crop, or otherwise deface, damage, spoil, destroy, or carry away any poplar, &c. or any part thereof, or the lops or tops thereof, without the consent of the owner, or of some person entrusted with the care of such trees, shall, if found guilty, as in 6 G. 3. c. 48. s. 1. pl. 24. directed, be convicted in manner by that act directed, concerning trees, therein deemed timber trees, and shall be liable to all the penalties and punishments thereby inflicted; and all justices, and peace officers, on complaint made of any such offences, may administer oaths, and convict and punish such offenders, as fully as if poplars, &c. had been deemed timber trees by such act; and the conviction shall be certified and be in the form, and the penalties shall go as in such act is directed, 13 G. 3. c. 33.

TRESPASS.

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO PREVENT THE STEALING OR DESTROYING OF TURNIPS, 23 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 13—14. [REP. 13 G. 3. c. 32. s. 6. which see, pl. 21.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. OF PROCEEDINGS IN PLEAS OF TRESPASS, 6 E. 1. c. 8.

2. Sheriffs shall plead pleas of trespass in their counties as usual, and none shall have writs of trespass before justices, unless he swear that the goods taken were worth 40s., and if he complain of beating, he shall answer by his faith that his plaint is true; touching wounds and maims, a man shall have his writ as before, id. s. 1.

3. Defendants may make their attorneys in such pleas where appeal lies not, and if they be attainted of trespass, being absent, the sheriff shall be commanded to take them, and they shall have like pain as if they were present when judgment given, id. s. 2.

4. And if plaintiffs in trespass be essoined after the first appearance, day shall be given them unto the coming of the justices in eyre in such pleas, and other, where attachments and distresses lie; if the defendant essoin himself of H. M.'s service, and do not bring his warrant at the day given, he shall recompense the plaintiff for the damages of the day, 20s. or more, after the discretion of the justices, and be amerced to H. M., id. s. 3.

5. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL MALICIOUSLY, WILFULLY, and unlawfully cut, or cause to be cut out, the head or dams of any ponds, pools, mores, or stews, or other several waters, or the heads, or pipes, of any conduit, of any other person, or maliciously, &c. burn, or cause to be burned, any wain, or cart, laden with coals, or other goods, &c. or any heap of wood of any other person, cut and felled, or who shall maliciously and willingly cut out the tongue of any tame beast of any other person, such beast being alive, or who shall cut off the ear of any person, otherwise than by law, chance medley, or sudden affray, or who shall maliciously, &c. bark any apple trees, pear trees, or other fruit trees, shall forfeit to the party grieved treble damages, to be recovered by action of trespass, at the common law, and forfeit to H. M. 10*l.* sterling, 37 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4.

6. TO PREVENT THE MALICIOUS KILLING OR MAIMING OF CATTLE, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 7. s. 5. [See the rest of this title and statute, ARSON.]

7. Every person who maliciously in the night time shall maim, wound, or otherwise hurt any horses, sheep, or other cattle, whereby the same are not entirely killed, or shall destroy any trees, or throw down any inclosures, shall forfeit to the party grieved treble damages, to be recovered by action of trespass, or on the case, id. ibid. [See as to justices' enquiry and punishment of offenders, id. s. 6—7. ARSON.]

8. TO AVOID AND PREVENT IDLE MISDEMEANORS IN LEWD and idle persons, 43 E. 1. c. 7. [See further, 15 C. 2. c. 2. Woods, &c.]

9. All lewd persons which shall cut or unlawfully take away any corn rowing, or rob any orchards or gardens, or break or cut any hedge, pales, rails, or fence, or dig, pull up, or take up, any fruit trees, to the intent to take the same away, or shall cut or spoil any woods or underwoods, poles or trees standing, not being felony, and their procurers or receivers knowing the same, being convicted by confession, or one witness, before some justice of peace, mayor or other head officer, where the offence shall be committed, or the party apprehended, shall give such recompence for the damages as by such head officer or justice of peace shall be appointed, for the first fault; and if such offenders shall be thought in the discretion of the justice, &c. not able, or do not make satisfaction for the damages, the justice, &c. shall commit the offenders to some constable or other inferior officer of the city, &c. or hamlet where the offence shall be committed, or the party apprehended, to be whipped; and for every such offence for which the offenders shall be afterwards committed, to receive the said punishment of whipping, 43 E. 1. c. 7. s. 1.

10. If any constable or inferior officer do not, at the command of any justice of peace, or other head officer, execute by himself, or some other, the punishment limited by this statute, it shall be lawful for the justice to commit the constable, &c. to the common gaol, until the offenders be by the said constable, or by his procurement, whipped, id. s. 2.

11. Provided that no justice of peace, or other head officer, do execute this statute for any the offences aforesaid done unto himself, unless he be assisted with one or more other justices of peace whom the offence doth not concern, id. s. 3.

12. FOR PUNISHING SUCH PERSONS AS SHALL do injuries and violences to the persons or properties of H. M.'s subjects, with intent to hinder the exportation of corn, 11 G. 2. c. 22.

13. If any person shall wilfully and maliciously beat, wound, or use any other violence to or on any person or persons, with intent to deter or hinder him or them from buying of corn or grain, in any market or place within this kingdom, or shall unlawfully stop, or seize on any waggon, cart, or other carriage, or horse loaded with wheat, flour, meal, malt, or other grain, in the way to or from any city, market-town, or sea-port, and wilfully and maliciously break, cut, separate, or destroy the same, or any part thereof, or the harness of the horses; or shall unlawfully take off, drive away, kill, or wound any of such horses, or unlawfully beat or wound the drivers, in order to stop the same; or shall scatter such wheat, flour, meal, malt, or other grain, or shall take and carry away, spoil or damage the same, or any part thereof; every such person being thereof convicted before any 2 justices of peace, shall be sent to the common gaol or house of correction; to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding 3 months nor less than 1 month; and shall by the justices be ordered to be once publicly whipped by the keeper of such gaol or house of correction, on the first convenient market-day, at the market place, between 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., id. s. 1.

14. If any person so convicted shall commit any of the offences aforesaid a second time, or if any person shall wilfully and maliciously pull, throw down, or otherwise destroy any store-house or place where corn shall be then kept in order to be exported; or shall unlawfully enter any such place, and carry away any corn, flour, meal, or grain, or throw abroad or spoil the same; or shall unlawfully enter on board any ship, barge, or vessel, and wilfully and maliciously take and carry away, cast or throw out therefrom, or otherwise spoil or damage any meal, flour, wheat, or other grain therein intended for exportation; every person so offending, and being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be transported for 7 years; and if such offender shall return into this kingdom before expiration of 7 years, he shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 2.

15. No attainder for any offence made felony by this act shall work corruption of blood, loss of dower or disinheritance of heirs, id. s. 3.

16. No person punished for any offence by this act shall be punished for the same offence by any other law, id. s. 4.

17. The inhabitants of every hundred in Eng., wherein any such offence shall be committed, shall make satisfaction to all persons, their executors and administrators, for the damages they shall have sustained by any injury done to their properties by any offender against this act; the sum to be recovered not exceeding 100*l.*, such damages to be levied by the like methods as are prescribed in cases of actions for robberies on the highway, by 27 E. 1. c. 13. and 8 G. 2. c. 16., except so much thereof as relates to giving notice, or making fresh suit and hue and cry, or any other matter otherwise provided for by this act, id. s. 5.

18. Provided that no persons be enabled to recover damages by this act, unless they by themselves or their servants, within 2 days after damage done, give notice of such offence to one of the constables of the hundred, or to the constable, borsholder, headborough, or tithingman, of the town, hamlet, or tithing, in or near which such fact shall be committed; and shall, within 10 days after such notice, give in their examinations upon oath, or the examination upon oath of their servants, present at the time of the fact being committed, or having the care of such their properties to which such damage shall be done, before any justice of peace where such fact shall be committed, whether they know the persons that committed such fact, or any of them; and if upon such examination it be confessed, that they do know the persons or any of them, they shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute such offenders, id. s. 6.

19. Where any offence shall be committed against this act, and any one of the offenders shall be apprehended and convicted within 12 months after the offence, no hundred shall be liable to make satisfaction, 11 G. 2. c. 22. s. 7.

20. No person shall be enabled hereby to sue or bring any action against any hundred till after the expiration of one year, nor unless the parties sustaining such damage, shall commence their action within 2 years after the offence, id. s. 8.

21. FOR REPEALING 23 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 13, 14., and for the more effectually preventing the stealing or destroying of turnips, potatoes, cabbages, parsnips, pease, and carrots, 13 G. 3. c. 32. [Ext. to beans and orchards, 42 G. 3. c. 67.]

22. If any person shall steal and take away, or maliciously pull up or destroy any turnips, potatoes, cabbages, parsnips, pease, or carrots, growing or being in any garden, lands, or grounds, open or inclosed, and shall be convicted thereof before any justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, either by confession or the oath of one witness, such person shall forfeit, on conviction, such sum not exceeding 10s. over the value of the goods stolen, as such justice deems meet; which sum shall be distributed between the owner of such turnips, &c. and the overseers of the poor, or other person having the disposal of the funds of the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, for the use of such poor, in such proportion as such justice thinks fit, or the whole of such sums shall be given to either of such parties in the discretion of such justice; and in default of payment, such justice may commit the offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and if the offence is committed in Scot. such offender may be committed to prison for the like time, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and the bringing the offender before a justice, and the proceedings against him, may be done in the most summary manner, 13 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1.

23. Every person who shall steal, take away, wilfully or maliciously pull up, injure, or destroy any turnips, &c., or beans growing or being in any garden, orchard, lands, or grounds, open or enclosed, and shall be thereof convicted, as by 13 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1. pl. 22. directed, shall forfeit on such conviction, such sum over the value of the goods stolen, &c., not exceeding 20s., as to such justice seems meet; which penalty shall be recovered and applied in the same manner, and on the same evidence, as penalties by the said act inflicted may be; and in default of payment, such offender may be committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid, 42 G. 3. c. 67.

24. In all informations and other proceedings for these offences, the evidence of the owner of such turnips, &c., and of the inhabitants of the parish where the offence shall be committed shall be taken, 13 G. 3. c. 32. s. 2.

25. Where such conviction shall be on the oath of the owners, the whole penalty shall be paid to the overseer for use of the poor, id. s. 3.

26. The justices shall cause the conviction under this act to be drawn thus, or to that effect, viz.:

'Be it remembered that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A. B. having been brought before me or having been duly summoned, and not having appeared or having appeared, [as the case may be] and having confessed or being convicted [as the case may be] of the charge exhibited against him is duly convicted before me C. D., one of H.M.'s justices of the peace for the county of —, [specifying the offence, and the time and place when and where the same was committed, as the case shall be]. Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid,' id. s. 4.

27. No person shall be prosecuted for any such offence, unless such prosecution be begun within 30 days, id. s. 5.

28. FOR THE SUMMARY PUNISHMENT IN CERTAIN CASES OF PERSONS wilfully or maliciously damaging or committing trespasses on public or private property, 1 G. 4. c. 56. [Extends to Eng. and Ire. only, id. s. 8.]

29. Every person who shall wilfully or maliciously commit any damage, injury, or spoil, to or upon any building, fence, hedge, gate, stile, guide post, mile-stone, tree, wood, underwood, orchard, garden, nursery-ground, crops, vegetables, plants, land, or other thing growing or being thereon, or to or upon any real or personal property, and shall be thereof convicted within 4 calendar months next after the injury done, before any justice of peace for the county, riding, division, city, town, or place, &c. where the offence was committed, either by confession or oath of one witness or of the party aggrieved, which oath such justice shall administer, shall forfeit to the party grieved such sum as such justice shall deem reasonable, not exceeding in any case 5*l.*; but in case such conviction is had on the sole evidence of the party grieved, then such forfeiture shall be paid to the overseers of the parish or place where the offence was committed; or if it is had in Ire., to the governor of the fever hospital or infirmary, for the county, city, or place, to be applied to the use of the establishment; and in default of payment immediately, or at such time as the justice shall appoint, together with all costs, &c. attending such conviction, such justice may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 calendar months, unless such penalty and costs are sooner paid; provided that if such damage, &c. was done to any church, chapel, bridge, building, common way, or other property, whether real or personal of a public nature, or wherein any public right is concerned, such justice may proceed against and convict the offender within the time aforesaid, in such sum as aforesaid, upon the information of any prosecutor, and may direct one moiety thereof to be paid to such prosecutor, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and in default of the payment thereof and of all costs, such offender shall stand committed as aforesaid, 1 G. 4. c. 56. s. 1.

30. If any male person, under 16 years of age, shall offend against this act, the justice, who shall convict him, shall, in default of payment of the sum awarded, together with all costs of conviction, immediately or within such time as such justice shall appoint, commit such offender to the house of correction, to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour for not exceeding 6 weeks, id. s. 2.

31. Any constable or other peace-officer, and the owner of any property so damaged, &c. or his servant, and such person as he shall call to his assistance, may, without any warrant, apprehend any person who has actually committed, or shall be committing, any offence against this act, and take him before any justice of the county, city, or place, who shall act by him as hereby directed, id. s. 3.

32. Every justice, before whom any person is convicted of any offence against this act, shall draw up the conviction in the following form, or to that effect, viz.:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord —, A. B. is convicted by and before me —, one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — [or riding, division, city, town, or place, as the case may be,] for that the said [here state the offence, and the time and place when and where committed,] contrary to the statute made in 1st year of the reign of K. G. 4. intituled, "An Act," [set forth the title as in pl. 28.] And I, the said justice do hereby adjudge and determine that the said — shall for his said offence forfeit and pay the sum of — lawful money of G. B. [or of Ire. if the same offence shall be there committed,] and to [so in the act, but qu. do?] order that the same shall forthwith be paid [here direct the payment according to s. 1. pl. 29.] Given under my hand and seal the day and year first above written.' id. s. 4.

33. Any person so convicted by any justice, as in s. 1. pl. 29., of any offence against this act, may appeal to the justices at quarter or general sessions to be holden for the county, city, or place, where such conviction was had next after 7 days, from the time of such conviction, on giving immediate notice of such appeal, and of the matters thereof, and finding security to the satisfaction of such justice for prosecuting such appeal with effect, and abiding the determination of the court therein; and such sessions shall hear and determine such appeal, and either confirm or quash such conviction, and award such costs to either party as to the justices there shall seem reasonable, and the decision of such justices there shall be final and binding, and no proceeding under this act shall be quashed for want of form only, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into the courts at Westminster or elsewhere; and if on hearing such appeal, the judgment of such justice shall be affirmed, the appellant shall forthwith pay the penalty and costs awarded against him, or in default thereof, shall be committed by such court to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 6 calendar months, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid, id. s. 5.

34. This act shall not repeal or affect any act now in force, whereby any person may be subject to punishment for wilful and malicious acts of trespass, to any property, either public or private, or to any case of wilful or malicious mischief or trespass to private property where the damage claimed shall exceed 5*l.*, or wherein it shall appear to the justice hearing the complaint that the party trespassing acted under a fair and reasonable supposition that he had a right to do the act to the property in respect of which the trespass was committed, or to do the act complained of, or shall have committed such trespass in hunting; or being a qualified person, and having duly obtained his certificate to kill game, committed the injury complained of in pursuit of game, id. s. 6.

35. In case any person is convicted of any offence against this act before any justice of peace, on the complaint of any person of public or private property having been so injured, and shall have paid the penalty and costs under such conviction, or suffered the imprisonment awarded for the nonpayment thereof, then such conviction may be pleaded in bar of any action, &c. that shall be commenced for any such offence, id. s. 7.

TRIAL.

1. NO BAILIFF SHALL PUT ANY MAN TO HIS OPEN LAW, OR TO SH

oath upon a bare charge, without faithful witnesses brought in for the same, 9 H.3. Mag. Chart., c. 28.

2. OF THE GRAND ASSISE AND TRIAL BY BATTLE, Stat. Incert. Temp. XXV. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. 414. [Trial by battle abolished, 59 G.3. c. 46.]

3. INQUESTS SHALL NOT BE DELAYED by the absence of witnesses to deeds, 19 E.2. St. 1. c. 2. [See 15 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 38. that such witnesses were necessarily part of the jury.]

4. When a deed, release, acquittance, or other writing is denied in H. M.'s court, wherein witnesses be named, process shall be awarded to cause such witnesses to appear as before usual, so that if they come not at the great distress returned, or if it be returned that they have nothing, or that they cannot be found, the taking of the inquest shall not be deferred by the absence of such witnesses; and if the witnesses do come at the great distress, and the inquest for some cause remains untaken, like day shall be given to the witnesses that so come in as is assigned for taking the inquest; at which day if the witnesses do not come, the issues first returned on them shall be forfeited, and the taking of the inquest shall not be deferred because of their absence. And for absence of witnesses dwelling within franchise where H. M.'s writ original doth not lie, the taking of the inquest shall not be omitted, 19 E.2. St. 1. c. 2.

5. INQUESTS SHALL NOT BE DELAYED BY THE ABSENCE OF WITNESSES to deeds, dated where H. M.'s writ runneth not, 9 E.3. St. 1. c. 4.

6. When any deed made within franchises where H. M.'s writ runneth not is shewed in bar of an action, bearing date within such franchise, although witnesses of the same franchise be named in such deeds, and the same be denied, process shall be awarded into the same county where the plea is moved, to have inquest of the county and the witnesses to appear; and if the witnesses come not at the great distress returned, then the inquest shall not be delayed thereby, but the justices shall proceed as if the deed did bear date in the shire where the plea was moved, and the witnesses were of the same county; id. ibid.

7. TO REGULATE THE TRIAL of causes, indictments, and other proceedings which arise within the counties of certain cities and towns corporate, within this kingdom, 38 G.3. c. 32. [AMD. 51 G.3. c. 100.]

8. In every action, whether the same is transitory or local, which is prosecuted or depending in the courts at Westminster, and in every indictment removed into K. B. by certiorari, and in every information filed by H. M.'s attorney or solicitor-general, or by leave of the court of K. B. and in all cases where any person shall plead to or traverse any of the facts contained in any return to any writ of mandamus, if the venue in such action, indictment, or information be laid in the county of any city or town corporate within Eng., or if such mandamus is directed to any person or corporation, the court in which such action, &c. is depending, at the prayer of the prosecutor, plaintiff, or defendant, may direct the issue joined in such action, &c., to be tried by a jury of the county next adjoining to the county of such city, &c., and award proper writs of venire or distringas accordingly, if they think fit, 38 G.3. c. 52. s. 1.

9. Any prosecutor may prefer his bill of indictment for any offence committed, or charged to be committed, within the county of any city or town corporate, to the jury of the county next adjoining, sworn to and charged to inquire for H. M. for the body of such adjoining county, at at any sessions of oyer and terminer and general gaol delivery; and every such bill so found to be true, shall be as valid as if found by the jury sworn, &c. to inquire for H. M. for the body of the county of such city, &c., id. s. 2.

10. If it appear to any court of oyer, &c. for the county of any city or town corporate, that any indictment found by any grand jury of the county of such city, &c., or any inquisition taken before the coroner of the county of such city, &c. or other franchise, is proper to be tried by a jury of the adjoining county, such court, at the prayer of the defendant, may order such indictment or inquisition, and the several recognizances, examinations, and depositions relative to such indictments, &c., to be filed with the proper officer, to be by him kept among the records of the courts of oyer, &c. for such adjoining county, and cause the defendant in such indictment to be removed by hab. corp. to the gaol of such county, which writ such court shall issue, if the defendant be in the prison of such city, &c., and if not, may commit him to such gaol, and cause the prosecutor and witnesses to enter into a recognizance to prosecute and give evidence against such defendant at the sessions of oyer, &c. for such adjoining county; and the same proceedings and trial, and the same judgment shall be given in such last-mentioned court, as would be given in cases of indictments, &c. for the like offences committed within such adjoining counties, id. s. 3. [See 51 G.3. c. 100. s. 1. pl. 21.]

11. Any judge of K. B., or justice of oyer, &c. for such adjoining or other county, on the application of such prosecutor 10 days next before the holding of any sessions of oyer, &c. for such last-mentioned county, by proper writs of hab. corp., which they may issue, may cause any person in the custody of the sheriff, or of the keeper of any gaol or prison, charged with any offence committed within the county of any city or town corporate, to be removed into the custody of the sheriff of such adjoining county, in order to be tried in such county; and by order under the hand of one of such judges or justices, direct the coroner for the county of any city, &c. or other franchise, to return to the next court of oyer, &c. to be holden for such adjoining county, any inquisition, examination, or deposition, taken touching the death of any one within his limits; and whenever, in pursuance of this act, any bill of indictment is found by such grand jury, as in s. 3. pl. 10. for any offences committed, or charged to be committed, within the county of any city, &c., such courts of oyer, &c. may issue process to apprehend the defendant if not in custody, and compel the attendance of witnesses on the trial, in like manner as in cases of indictments found in any such court of oyer, &c. for offences committed within such adjoining county, 38 G.3. c. 52. s. 4.

12. Every recognizance which shall be entered into for the prosecution of any person for any offence committed, or charged so to be, within the county of any city or town corporate, or any liberty or franchise, and every recognizance for the appearance as well of witnesses to give evidence on any indictment to be preferred, or inquisition found for such offences, as for the appearance of any person to answer our lord the king concerning the same, shall be forfeited, if the prosecutor shall within 10 days previous to the holding of the next court of oyer, &c., in such adjoining county, give notice to the person bound to give evidence in such recognizance, or to answer our lord the king, of the intention to prefer such indictment, or to remove such inquisition in or into the adjoining county, and the party bound therein shall not appear, prosecute, give, or be ready to give evidence at such court; but if the party so bound after such notice shall appear in such adjoining or other county, prosecute, give, or be ready to give evidence on such indictment before the grand jury, and on the trial, then such recognizance shall be discharged, as if the person bound had complied with its terms, id. s. 5.

13. In case the person who shall enter into such recognizance cannot be found, and such notice as in s. 5. pl. 12. be left at his last place of abode 10 days previous to the holding of such sessions, the same shall be as good as if personally served; and no such recognizance shall be estreated into the exchequer until the next following sessions of oyer, &c. for such adjoining county, in order that such recognizance may be discharged, in case the person who entered into the same shews good cause, id. s. 6.

14. Every person before whom such recognizances are entered into, or by whom any examination or deposition is taken touching any such offences, as in s. 2. pl. 9., shall return the same to the next court of oyer, &c. for such adjoining county, on such prosecutor leaving at his dwelling or abode, 10 days before the holding of such sessions of oyer, &c. for such adjoining county, notice in writing of his intention to prosecute such indictment or inquisition at such last mentioned sessions for any offence committed within the county of any city, &c.; and on the delivery of such notice no person shall prefer any indictment or return any inquisition for any offence mentioned in the recognizances at or to any sessions of oyer, &c. for the county of such city, &c. id. s. 7.

15. In all cases of indictments or other proceedings, which may be tried before H. M.'s justices of oyer, &c. for any county in pursuance of this act, such justices may order the expences of prosecution, of the witnesses, and of the rewards payable on the conviction of any offender to be paid by and to the same persons, and in like manner as if such indictment had been tried in the court of oyer, &c. for the county of such city, &c., id. s. 8.

16. The justices of oyer, &c. at any session thereof holden for such adjoining county, may order all expences incurred by such county in relation to any person tried there, or removed thither for trial, for any offence committed, or charged to have been committed within the county of any city or town corporate, as well in maintaining such person and executing the sentence, as in other respects, to be repaid to the treasurer of the county, or person who actually paid such expences, by the same person and in the same manner as if the offender had remained in such county of a city, &c., and had been tried and his sentence executed there, 51 G.3. c. 100. s. 2.

17. For this act Yorkshire shall be deemed the next adjoining county to the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and the county of Northumberland as the next adjoining county to the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, 38 G.3. c. 32. s. 9.

18. This act shall not extend to the cities of London and Westminster, or the borough of Southwark, or to the cities or counties of the cities of Bristol or Chester, or to the criminal jurisdiction of the city of Exeter or county of the same city, unless in cases of indictments removed by certiorari into K. B. from any court of criminal jurisdiction within the city, &c. of Essex, 38 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10.

19. This act shall not take away any privileges anciently granted to such corporations by royal charters or grants, and which have been immemorially enjoyed; and they shall not be obliged to attend as jurymen on trial of any cause or indictment, removed from the limited jurisdiction to the county at large, nor on trial of any cause, &c. tried by the justices of assize, oyer, &c. in the next adjoining county, id. s. 11.

20. This act shall not enable any person to prefer any indictment for any such offence as in s. 2. pl. 9. to the jury of such adjoining county, or to remove any indictment or other criminal proceeding, except the person preferring such indictment, or applying for such removal enter into recognizance before the court where such indictment is preferred, or court or magistrate where such application is made, in 40*l.*, conditioned to pay the extra costs attending the prosecution for such offence in such adjoining county, provided the court before whom the trial is had is of opinion that he ought to pay the same, id. s. 12.

21. The court before whom any conviction shall have taken place under 38 G. 3. c. 32., may order such convict to be punished according to law either within the county where the conviction was had, or within the county of a city or town corporate where the offence was committed; and where the court shall order such convict to be punished within the county of such city, &c., the court, after passing sentence, may order him to be delivered into the custody of the sheriff or gaoler, or other proper officer thereof, who shall receive him and execute the sentence passed on him, as if he had been tried and sentenced within such county of a city, &c., 51 G. 3. c. 100. s. 1. [See 38 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3. pl. 10.]

4. All the trustees appointed by any act of parliament for the repair of any turnpike road within Eng., or 5 of them, at some public meeting shall, if they think proper, at as many gates or bars as they have erected for receiving toll, and at such distance from such gates or bars as they think proper, cause to be built a weighing-engine for weighing carts, waggons, or carriages conveying any goods, and by writing signed by 5, order all such carriages which pass loaded through such gate to be weighed, together with the loading thereof, and take an additional toll, in case the weight exceeds the weight following, viz.

To every waggon or 4-wheel carriage having the fellies or rollers of the wheels of the breadth of 16 inches, 8 tons in summer, and 7 in winter. To every waggon or wain having the axletrees thereof of such different lengths, that the distance from wheel to wheel of the nearer pair of wheels be not more than 4 feet 2 inches, to be measured at the ground, and that the distance from wheel to wheel of the other pair be such that the fore and hind wheels roll only one single surface or path of 16 inches wide on each side the waggon, &c., and having the fellies thereof of the breadth of 9 inches from side to side at the bottom thereof, 6 tons 10 cwt. in summer, and 6 tons in winter.

To every waggon or 4-wheel carriage having the bottom of the fellies of the wheels of the breadth of 9 inches, 6 tons in summer, and 5 tons 10 cwt. in winter, to every cart having such wheels, 3 tons in summer, and 2 tons 15 cwt. in winter.

To every waggon having the bottom of the fellies of the wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, 4 tons 5 cwt. in summer, and 3 tons 15 cwt. in winter.

And to every waggon constructed so as to roll a surface of 11 inches by the wheels thereof, 5 tons 10 cwt. in summer, and 5 tons in winter; and to every cart with like wheels, 2 tons 12 cwt. in summer, and 2 tons 7 cwt. in winter.

To every waggon having the bottom of the fellies of the wheels of less breadth than 6 inches, 3 tons 10 cwt. in summer, and 3 tons in winter; and to carts with wheels of like dimensions, 1 ton 10 cwt. in summer, and 1 ton 7 cwt. in winter; and for this act it shall be deemed summer from 1st May to 31st Oct., and winter from 1st Nov. to 30th April, both days inclusive, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. [See pl. 99. 108.]

The additional toll for overweight by 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. granted, shall be REP. s. 1., and all trustees for any turnpike road, or 5 of them, or any person authorized by 5 of them, may receive over the tolls already granted or to be granted, the following sums as additional tolls for every cwt. of 112lb. which any waggon, cart, or carriage, together with the loading thereof, shall weigh over the weights by 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. pl. 4. allowed, viz. for the first and second cwt. 3*d.*

For every cwt. above	$\left\{ \begin{array}{l} 2 \\ 5 \\ 10 \\ 15 \end{array} \right\}$	and not exceeding	$\left\{ \begin{array}{l} 5 \\ 10 \\ 15 \end{array} \right\}$	they may take	$\left\{ \begin{array}{l} 6d. \\ 2s. 6d. \\ 5s. \\ 20s. \end{array} \right\}$

which additional toll shall be levied and recovered in the cases aforesaid, or any person liable thereto, or his goods, who shall after demand made, neglect to pay the same in such manner as any other toll payable at the same gate is to be recovered, and the money arising from such additional toll shall be applied to repair the turnpike road where collected, 14 G. 3. c. 82. ss. 1, 2. [See as to power of reducing such additional tolls, 55 G. 3. c. 119 s. 1. pl. 115.]

5. But the trustees of the turnpike roads within 10 miles of London, Westminster, and Southwark, may, at their general or quarterly meetings, lower such additional tolls, id. s. 4.

6. The keeper of every such toll-gate or bar, where any such weighing engine is erected, or any other person appointed by the trustees to the care thereof, shall weigh all such waggons and carts liable by this act to be weighed, which shall pass loaded through such gates, and which he shall believe carry greater weights than are allowed to pass without paying additional toll; and if he permit such waggon or cart to pass such toll-gate with greater weights than what allowed, without weighing same, and receiving such additional tolls, he shall forfeit 5l., 13 G.3. c. 84. s. 2.

7. Any trustee, creditor, clerk, treasurer, or surveyor of such turnpike road, if he suspect any connivance or neglect herein, may cause any carriage, liable to be weighed, which shall have passed through any toll-gate where such weighing engine is erected, and shall not have passed 300 yards beyond such toll-gate, to return to such weighing engine, and be there weighed, with the loading, in presence of such trustee, &c. upon requiring the driver to drive such carriage back to such engine, and upon tendering to him one shilling for so doing; which one shilling shall be returned to the person paying, if upon weighing, the same be found above the weight allowed, id. s. 3.

8. The surveyors shall make convenient places for turning such carriages upon every turnpike road where such weighing engine is erected, within 300 yards of such toll-gate, on each side thereof, if the ground will admit; and there shall be a list of the names of all the trustees and creditors, and also of the clerk, treasurer, and surveyor of such turnpike road, put up in house where such weighing engine is placed, to be inspected by the owner or driver of such carriage; and if the driver, being requested to return to such engine, shall refuse so to do, he shall forfeit 40s.; and any peace officer, or person then present, upon such neglect, may drive such carriage back to such engine to be weighed, id. s. 4.

9. All acts for repairing turnpike roads, the trustees whereof shall, within 12 months after the commencement of this act, have caused to be erected thereupon such weighing engine, pursuant to this act, shall be continued for 5 years, to be computed from the expirations of all such acts, and subject to all the tolls, penalties, &c. made by any such acts heretofore made, for repairing turnpike roads, id. s. 5.

10. The regulations of weight before mentioned shall not extend to any waggons, carts, or other carriages, employed only in husbandry, or carrying only manure for land, hay, straw, fodder, or corn unthreshed; and where lime or other manure is, by any turnpike act, permitted to pass through any gate toll free, or upon paying less toll than is required for other goods, it shall be liable to be weighed at all weighing engines upon such turnpike road, together with the carriages in which such lime or manure is conveyed, and shall pay such additional toll for overweight as in s. 1. pl. 4. directed, id. s. 6.

11. No waggon, cart, or carriage employed only in husbandry, or carrying only manure or lime for improving land, or hay, straw, fodder, or corn unthreshed, (except hay or straw for sale,) shall be weighed at any weighing engine, 14 G.3. c. 82. s. 2. [See 13 G.3. c. 84. s. 24. pl. 30., 52 G.3. c. 145. s. 6. pl. 108.]

12. The justices within every county, riding, division, &c. at any general quarter sessions, upon complaint made to them by any justice, or by 2 creditors, or 2 trustees of any turnpike road, that such turnpike road is much damaged by excessive weights being carried thereupon, and that no weighing engine hath been, or ordered by the trustees to be erected, may summon the clerk, surveyor, and treasurer of such road to appear before the justices, at their then next quarter sessions, to shew cause why a weighing engine should not be erected at or near the gates, described in such summons, and if at such subsequent sessions such clerk, &c. shall not appear, or appearing, shall not shew sufficient cause against erecting of such engine, such quarter sessions may order weighing engines to be erected at such places as they think proper; a copy of which order shall be forthwith delivered to clerk of such turnpike road; and the trustees, at next meeting held after their clerk has been served with such copy of the order, shall contract with some person for making such weighing engine; and the treasurer shall pay expences attending the making of such engine out of the money in his hands arising from tolls upon such turnpike road, 13 G.3. c. 84. s. 7.

13. When 2 or more turnpike roads meet at the same place, the trustees, at a meeting for that purpose, may fix upon some convenient place to erect a weighing engine which will accommodate all such roads; and, by agreement amongst themselves at such meeting, proportion the expences which attend the making and keeping such engine, and likewise the money arising from forfeitures to be incurred for overweight at such weighing engine, amongst all such roads, id. s. 8.

14. The trustees of any turnpike road, or their lessees, shall not make composition for tolls, for any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, or horses, or beasts of draught, drawing same, unless such waggons, &c. have the fellics of the wheels thereof of the breadth of 6 inches, or more, id. s. 9. [See s. 25. pl. 31.]

15. If any person shall unload any goods from any cart, waggon, or carriage (except such carriages as in s. 6. pl. 10. excepted), at or before the same shall come to any turnpike gate or weighing engine, or shall load thereon (except as aforesaid), after the same has passed any such turnpike or weighing engine, any goods taken or unloaden from any horse, cart, or other carriages, belonging to, or hired by the same waggoner or carrier, in order to avoid payment of such duties; or if any person shall so unload, in order to carry considerable quantities of goods through any turnpike gate in the same day, and thereby pay less toll at such turnpike gate than would have been paid if such goods had not been so unloaden; each person so offending being thereof convicted before one justice upon oath of one witness, shall forfeit 5l.; to be levied upon the goods of the owner of such cart, &c.; and each driver, not being the owner of such carriage, and being thereof convicted, shall be committed to the house of correction for one month, 13 G.3. c. 84. s. 10.

16. If owner of any waggon, cart, or carriage, or the driver thereof, travelling on any turnpike road where any toll-gate or weighing engine is erected, shall drive out of same into another road, to avoid being weighed, or paying of toll, and shall afterwards proceed with such carriage on the same turnpike road, such owner, or driver being convicted before one justice, upon oath of one witness, shall forfeit, if the owner, from 20s. to 5l.; and if driver and not owner, from 10s. to 50s., id. s. 11.

17. Regulations in the construction of the wheels of carriages travelling on roads within 20 miles of London, id. s. 12. [REP. 14 G.3. c. 14. s. 1.]

18. Offenders against such clause indemnified, 14 G.3. c. 14. s. 2. [EXP.]

19. No waggon, wain, or 4-wheeled carriage, having the sole of the fellics of the wheels of the breadth of 9 inches, shall pass on any turnpike road with more than 8 horses; nor any cart or 2-wheeled carriage with such wheels, with more than 5 horses; and horses in such carriages shall draw in pairs (except an odd horse in any team, and except where the number shall not exceed 4), and no waggon, wain, or 4-wheeled carriage, having the sole of the fellics of the wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, shall pass on any turnpike road with more than 6 horses; and no cart or 2-wheeled carriage with such wheels, with more than 4 horses, and no waggon, wain, or 4-wheeled carriage, having the fellics of the wheels of less breadth than 6 inches, shall pass on any turnpike road with more than 4 horses; and no cart or 2-wheeled carriage with such wheels, with more than 3 horses; and the owner of every such carriage shall forfeit 5l., and the driver not being the owner, 20s., for every offence against these provisions to any person who shall sue for same, id. s. 13.

20. All carriages moving upon rollers of the breadth of 16 inches on each side thereof with flat surfaces, may be drawn with any number of horses or cattle, id. s. 14.

21. No prosecution shall be commenced before a justice, by information, for any forfeiture incurred by the owner or driver of any carriage having a greater number of horses therein than allowed, unless laid within 3 days after the offence committed; and no action shall be commenced for such offence, unless within one month; and neither such information or action shall be laid or commenced, unless notice is given by the informer to the driver on the day upon which the offence was committed, of the intention to complain of such offence; and if it appear to the justice, that the offender lives so remote as to make it inconvenient to summon him to appear before him, such justice may dismiss the complaint, and leave the informer to his remedy by action at law, id. s. 15.

22. Unlimited number of horses may be used after carriage weighed, id. s. 16. [REP. 14 G.3. c. 82. s. 1.]

23. If any person shall take off any horse or beast of draught from any carriage, or shall alter the distance of the wheels, at or before the same shall come to any such gates, with intent to avoid any toll or penalty, each person so offending, and being convicted thereof before one justice for the limit where the offence was committed, upon oath of one witness, shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 17.

24. If it appear to the trustees of any turnpike road, or 7 of them, at any of their public meetings, by oath of one witness experienced in levelling, that any part of the rise of any hill upon such road is more than 4 inches in a yard, such trustees shall allow such number of horses as they deem necessary, not exceeding 10 for waggons, or 6 for carts, with 9 inch wheels; and not exceeding 7 for waggons, or 5 for carts, with 6 inch wheels; and not exceeding 5 for waggons, or 4 for carts, with wheels of less breadth than 6 inches. And in case it appear to such trustees, that the whole rise of any hill taken together shall be more than 4 inches in a yard, upon an average, they may allow such number of horses as they think fit to be used in such waggons and carts, for the purpose only of drawing the same up such hill, the length of such hill to be specified in such order, and the termination at each end thereof to be marked by a post or stone, to be erected at such boundaries; and such order shall be certified by such trustees, or their clerk, to the next general quarter sessions. And if the facts shall, at such sessions, be proved upon oath of one witness, such order shall be confirmed and filed among the records of the sessions by the clerk of the peace, or otherwise vacated; and after such confirmation and filing, no person shall be liable to any penalty for using such number of horses as shall be so allowed; and such justices, at any subsequent quarter sessions, may reconsider such order, and discharge the same, if fit, id. s. 18.

25. If it appear, upon the oaths of witnesses, to satisfaction of any justice, or court authorized to enforce this act, that any carriage could not, by reason of deep snow or ice, be drawn with the weights, and by the number of horses allowed, such justice, or court, may stop all proceedings before them, for the recovery of any penalty incurred by drawing with a greater number of horses than allowed, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 19.

25. No waggon, wain, or cart, having the sole of the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth than 9 inches, shall pass upon any turnpike road, or through any turnpike gate, if the same be drawn by horses in pairs; except such waggons, &c. having the fellies of the breadth of 6 inches, as shall be authorized to be drawn in any other manner by order made, at a public meeting of 7 trustees, which order such trustees may revoke at any subsequent meeting, and afterwards make a new one, if they think fit, for the same purpose, and fixed in writing upon every toll-gate within such district; and except carriages drawn by 2 horses only, id. s. 20.

26. In case any person shall, upon any turnpike road, drive, or act as driver of any carriage, not being marked according to s. 68. pl. 76., or drawn by more horses than hereby allowed, any constable, tythingman, surveyor or other person, may apprehend and take such person so driving before one justice, and upon conviction thereof, either by confession of party, or by oath of one witness before such justice, such person shall forfeit from 10s. to 5*l.* in discretion of convicting justice, id. s. 21.

27. "As by several acts extraordinary tolls are granted for carriages drawn by more than a certain number of horses, &c." therefore such trustees, or 5, within their districts, at the first meeting after commencement of this act, may mitigate such extraordinary tolls for such waggons, or carriages only, having the wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, in such manner as no greater toll be demanded for same than is provided by such acts to be paid for waggons, and other 4-wheeled carriages, drawn by 4 horses; and that no greater toll or duty be demanded for carts, having the fellies or their wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, than is provided by such acts, to be taken for carts drawn by 3 horses; and such trustees, within their districts, or 5 of them, shall give directions, in writing, to the collectors within their districts, to take such tolls, and no other, id. s. 22.

28. The trustees appointed under any act for repairing turnpike roads, or persons authorized by them, shall take for every waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, having the fellies of the wheels of less breadth than 6 inches from side to side, at the bottom thereof, and for the beast drawing same, one half more than the tolls payable for same, and after Sept. 1776, double such tolls, before same shall pass the gate, id. s. 23.

29. So much of 15 G. 3. c. 84. s. 23. as authorizes the taking of double tolls shall be [suspended 16 G. 3. c. 44.] Rep., s. 1. [and lessees of tolls released, s. 2. Exp.] 18 G. 3. c. 28.

30. "As there are, in several acts, exemptions from tolls in particular cases and liberties, to pay less than are charged upon other carriages," it is therefore enacted, that no person shall, under such acts, have the benefit of any such exemption, unless the waggon, wain, cart, or other carriages have the sole of the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of 6 inches or upwards, (except carts and carriages employed in carrying corn in the straw, hay, straw, fodder, dung, lime for the improvement of land, or other manure, or any implements of husbandry only); but the toll required by such acts, together with the tolls hereby required for carriages, having the sole of the fellies of the wheels of less breadth than 6 inches, and for horses drawing the same (except as before), shall be paid in the same manner as if no exemption had been allowed by any such acts, and as fully as other waggons, &c. and horses ought to pay, which are not intitled to any exemption, 13 G. 2. c. 84. s. 24.

31. Provided no person be allowed the benefit of such exemptions, or have the privilege in s. 9. pl. 14. given of compounding in respect of any carriage having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of 6 inches, unless the fellies, and the tire upon such fellies, shall lie flat, id. s. 25.

32. All wheels of the breadth or gauge of 6 inches or upwards, the fellies or tire whereof shall not deviate more than one inch from a flat surface, shall be deemed flat according to the meaning of 15 G. 3. c. 84. ss. 9. and 25., 16 G. 3. c. 39. s. 2.

33. All waggons, carts, or carriages, moving upon rollers, of the breadth of 16 inches on each side thereof, with flat surfaces, shall pass upon any turnpike road toll free for one year, [EXTRA. to 5 years from Michaelmas, 1774, 14 G. 3. c. 82. s. 5.]; and after such term, all such carriages shall pass, upon paying only so much of the tolls as shall not exceed one half of the full toll payable by this or any turnpike act, for waggons, &c. having the fellies of the wheels of the breadth of 6 inches from side to side, or for the horses drawing the same, and not rolling a surface of 16 inches on each side thereof; and no more than half toll shall be paid in respect of waggons having the fellies of the breadth of 9 inches, and rolling a surface of 16 inches on each side thereof, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 26.

34. Nothing herein shall extend to any chaise-marine, coach, landau, berlin, chariot, chaise, chair, calash, or hearse, or to the carriage of such ammunition or artillery as shall be for H. M.'s service, or to any cart or carriage drawn by one horse, or 2 oxen, and no more; or to any carriage, having the sole of the fellies of the breadth of 9 inches, which shall be laden with one block of stone, one piece of marble, one cable rope, one piece of metal, or one piece of timber, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 27.

35. If any person shall take the benefit of any exemptions, under this or any other turnpike act, in any fraudulent manner, such person shall forfeit from 40s. to 5*l.*, id. s. 28.

36. "As by several acts for repairing turnpike roads, there is no power given to the trustees to lessen the tolls, although such roads may be amended and the money borrowed upon the credit of such acts paid;" it is ENACTED, that such trustees appointed by any act now in force for repairing particular roads, or 7 of them, at a meeting for that purpose, of which one month's notice shall be given in writing, to be affixed on all turnpike gates erected upon such roads, and in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country, may reduce the tolls granted by any of the said acts, for such time as such trustees think proper; and afterwards, at any meeting, if they see occasion, advance the tolls lessened, to any money, not exceeding the rates granted by such acts, id. s. 29.

37. But where the whole money borrowed on the credit of such tolls shall not have been paid, no such tolls shall be reduced without the consent of the persons entitled to 5-6ths of the money remaining due upon such tolls, id. s. 30.

38. The trustees of any particular turnpike act, or 7 of them, at a public meeting, may let to farm the tolls of the gates, although no power shall have been given by such act for that purpose; and whenever any tolls shall hereafter be let to farm, by virtue of this or any other act, the following directions shall be observed; viz. the trustees shall cause notice to be given of the time and place for letting the same one month before the day appointed for that purpose, by fixing the same upon every toll-gate belonging to such turnpike road, and also upon the market-cross of the market-town nearest to the place where the tolls are to be let, and also in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country, and specifying therein the sum which such tolls produced in the preceding year, clear of the salary for collecting, in case any hired collector was appointed, and that they will let such tolls by auction to the best bidder, on his producing sufficient sureties for payment of the money, monthly or quarterly, as shall be required by the trustees; and that they will be put up at the sum which they were let for in the preceding year, clear of the salary of the collector; and to prevent fraud, or undue preference in the letting thereof, the trustees shall provide a glass with so much sand in it as will run from one end of it to the other in one minute; which glass, at the time of letting the tolls, shall be set upon a table, and immediately after every bidding the glass shall be turned, and as soon as the sand is run out, it shall be turned again, and so for 3 times, unless some other bidding intervenes: and if no other person shall bid, until the sand shall have run through the glass for 3 times, the last bidder shall be farmer of such tolls, and forthwith enter into a proper agreement for taking thereof, and paying the money at the times specified in such notice, or as shall be agreed upon between him and the trustees; and in case no bidder shall offer, such trustees may appoint a collector, or fix some future day for letting thereof, as they judge most proper, upon giving such notice, and shall, in that case, put them up at such sum as they think fit; and if the person, who shall be the farmer, shall take a greater or less toll from any person than what are authorized by this or the particular act, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, and also the contract for renting the tolls, if such trustees think fit to vacate the same; and every other gate keeper authorized to collect the tolls, who shall take a greater or less toll, shall forfeit 40s., id. s. 31.

39. The surveyors of all turnpike roads shall cause the statute duty required by the turnpike acts, and the compositions arising from the same, to be performed and expended, upon the turnpike road lying within the parish from which such duty is required, and not elsewhere, and shall forfeit 40s. for every misapplication thereof; and where there are 2 or more turnpike roads under several acts, within the same parish, &c. and the statute-duty directed by all such acts shall exceed 3 days' duty in the whole, then 2 justices for the limit where such turnpike shall be, at some special sessions, shall adjust the statute-duty betwixt such turnpike roads and the other highways in such parish, &c. as they think fit, having regard to the extent and condition of such several roads and highways, and also to the tolls arising from such turnpike roads, such justices previously summoning the clerks and surveyors of such turnpike roads, and likewise the surveyors of the highways, for such parish, &c., id. s. 32.

40. When the inhabitants of any parish, township, &c. shall be indicted or presented for not repairing any highway, being turnpike road, and the court shall impose a fine for the repair of such road, the same shall be proportioned, together with the costs attending the same, between the inhabitants of such parish and the trustees of such turnpike road, as the court shall deem just; and such court may order the treasurer of such turnpike road to pay the sum proportioned for such turnpike road out of the money in his hands, in case it appear to such court, from the circumstance of such turnpike debts and revenues, that same may be paid without endangering the security of creditors who have advanced their money upon the credit of the tolls to be raised thereupon; which order shall be binding upon such treasurer, and he shall obey the same, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 33.

41. Provided no toll-gate shall hereafter be erected on the side of any turnpike road, unless ordered by the trustees, at a meeting, of which 21 days' public notice shall have been given in writing, affixed upon all the toll-gates erected on such roads, and also in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country, specifying the place where such side-gate is proposed to be erected, and unless 9 trustees at least (being a majority of those present) shall sign such order at such meeting; and no person shall be liable to pay toll at any toll-gate erected across or on the side of any turnpike road, or be subject to any penalty for any carriage or beast, which shall only cross such road, and shall not pass above 100 yards thereon, except over some bridge, erected at a considerable expence by the trustees of such turnpike road, id. s. 34.

42. The 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 34. REP. so far as it affects any toll-gate directed to be set up at any place particularly specified in any act of parliament, for repairing any highway or road passed before the 13 G. 3. c. 84. was made, 14 G. 3. c. 57.

43. If any person shall agree to advance any money, to be employed in making or repairing any turnpike road or highway intended to be made turnpike, and shall subscribe his name to any writing for that purpose, such person shall be liable to pay such money, according to such writing; and in default of payment within 21 days after payable and demanded by the person to whom the same is payable by such writing, or if no person be named therein, by the treasurer of such turnpike or intended turnpike road, such treasurer, or person, &c. may recover the same, in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 35.

44. On every turnpike road where a sufficient quantity of stone, gravel, chalk, or other materials, cannot be provided and carried by the labourers and teams required to perform statute duty upon the same, the surveyor, with the approbation of the trustees of such road, shall contract for getting and carrying thereof, at some time and place to be fixed for that purpose, of which 10 days' notice in writing shall be given, by fixing the same on the door of the church or chapel of such parish, &c., and if there shall be no church or chapel, at the most public place there, which shall specify the work to be done, and the time and place for letting thereof, and if any surveyor shall have any share or interest, directly or indirectly, in such contract, or in any other, for work or materials to be made, done, or provided upon the highways, roads, bridges, or other works under his care; or shall, upon his own account, directly or indirectly let to hire any team, or sell any timber, stone, or other materials to be used in making or repairing such roads, &c. unless a licence in writing for sale of such materials, or for letting to hire such team, be first obtained from such trustees, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, and be incapable of being surveyor under this or any other act, id. s. 36.

45. If the surveyor or person having the care of any turnpike road, shall knowingly suffer to remain, for 4 days, in any part thereof, within 10 feet on either side of the middle of such road, any post, heap of stones, rubbish, or earth, set above the surface of the road, by which the passage may be obstructed, confined, or straitened (except posts, blocks, stones, or banks of earth, fixed in the ground, or raised, for securing horse or foot roads, or passages for water, and also direction posts and stones), such surveyor, or person, shall forfeit 40*s.*, id. s. 37.

46. If any person shall encroach, by making any hedge, ditch, or other fence on any turnpike road, within 30 feet from the middle thereof; or shall plough, harrow, or break up the soil of any land; or in ploughing or harrowing the adjacent lands, shall turn his plough or harrow upon any land within 15 feet from the middle of any turnpike road, every person so offending shall forfeit 40*s.* to such person as shall make information; and the trustees who have the care of such road, or 5 of them, may cause such hedge, ditch or fence, to be taken down or filled up, at the expence of the person to whom the same shall belong; and one justice for limit where offence committed, upon proof thereof to him, upon oath, may levy as well the expences of taking down such hedges, as the penalties hereby imposed, by distress and sale of the offender's goods, rendering overplus to the owner, id. s. 38.

47. "As in some places the trustees of turnpike roads are to secure horse and foot causeways to travel upon, in public highways, by posts, blocks, or great stones fixed in the ground, or by banks of earth cast up, from being broken with waggons, wains, carts, or carriages; and as several persons may wilfully pull up, cut down, and remove or damage such posts, blocks, and great stones, and drive carriages upon such banks and causeways, or against the sides thereof, and also dig or cut down such banks, whereby the causeways or banks are destroyed; and such persons may break, damage, or throw down the stones, bricks, or wood fixed upon the parapets of bridges, and may pull down or deface any mile-stone or post, graduated or direction post or stone, erected upon any turnpike road;" it is ENACTED, that every person who is guilty of any such offence, shall, upon complaint thereof made to any such justice, by oath of one witness, or upon view of the justice himself, forfeit from 10*s.* to 5*l.*, and in default of payment thereof, shall be committed to house of correction, there to be whipped and kept to hard labour, for from 7 days to one month, unless penalty sooner paid, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 39.

48. If the driver of any cart, car, dray, or waggon shall ride upon such carriage, in any street or highway, not having some other person on foot, or on horseback, to guide the same (such carriages as are conducted by some person holding the reins of the horses excepted); or if the driver of any carriage whatsoever shall, by negligence or misbehaviour, cause any hurt to any person or carriage passing; or shall quit the highway, and go on the other side of the hedge or fence inclosing the same; or wilfully be at such distance from such carriage, or in such a situation, whilst it shall be passing upon such highway, that he cannot have the direction of the cattle drawing the same; or shall, by negligence or misbehaviour, prevent or interrupt the free passage of any other carriage or king's subjects on such said highways; or if the driver of any waggon, cart, or other carriage, shall neglect to turn aside for any coach, chariot, chaise, loaded waggon, cart, or other loaded carriage; or if any person shall drive any such coach, or other carriage let for hire, or waggon, wain, or cart not having the owner's name, as hereby required, painted thereon; or shall refuse to discover the true christian and surname of the owner; such driver being convicted of any such offence, either by his own confession, the view of a justice, or by oath of one witness before any such justice, shall for every offence forfeit not exceeding 10*s.* in case such driver shall not be the owner; and if the owner of such carriage, then not exceeding 20*s.*; and in either of such cases shall, in default of payment, be committed to house of correction for not exceeding one month, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and such driver, offending in either of such cases, shall by authority of this act, with or without any warrant, be apprehended by any person who shall see such offence committed, and be immediately conveyed to a peace officer, to be conveyed before some justice; and if such driver shall refuse to discover his name, the justice before whom taken, or to whom such complaint made, may commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, or proceed against him for the penalty, by a description of his person and the offence, and expressing in his proceedings that he refused to discover his name, id. s. 40.

49. The trustees appointed to execute any act for repair of any turnpike road, shall direct the surveyor, where several highways meet, to erect in the most convenient place where such ways meet, a stone or post, with an inscription thereon in large letters, containing the name, and distance from the next market-town, or other place to which the highways lead; and also at approaches to such parts of any highways as are subject to floods, graduated stones or posts, denoting the depth of water in the deepest part, and likewise such direction post or stones as the trustees shall judge necessary for guiding travellers through such floods; and also shall order the surveyor to erect mile-stones or posts upon such road, with proper inscriptions, denoting the names and distances from the principal towns on each road, and from time to time to repair such stones and posts, and keep legible the inscriptions thereon; and the surveyor shall be reimbursed the expences of providing and continuing the same out of the tolls granted by such acts; and in case he shall, 3 months after such direction, neglect to cause such stone or post to be fixed or repaired, such offender shall forfeit 20*s.*, id. s. 41.

50. If any person shall, by day or night, wilfully pull down, pluck up, throw down, level, or otherwise destroy any turnpike-gate, or any post, rail, wall, chain, bar, or other fence, belonging to any turnpike-gate, or any other chain, bar, or fence, of any kind whatsoever, set up to prevent passengers from passing by without paying toll, directed to be paid by act of parliament; or any house erected for the use of such turnpike-gate; or any crane, machine, or engine, made on any turnpike road by authority of parliament, for weighing carriages; or shall forcibly rescue any person lawfully in custody of any officer, for any of the offences before-mentioned; then every person so offending shall be guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, or shall be committed to prison for not exceeding 3 years, at the discretion of the judge or court before whom such offender is tried; and any indictment for such offences may be determined in any adjacent county within Eng., as if the facts had been therein committed, id. s. 42. [See 1 G. 4. c. 115. s. 1., which repeals the punishment of death for this offence inflicted by 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., but does not mention this act, and the 8 G. 2. c. 20. was Rep. by 7 G. 3. c. 40. s. 61., see STATS. rep., &c. pl. 1., and INLAND NAVIGATION, pl. 4, s.]

51. The inhabitants of every hundred within Eng. within which such offence is committed, shall make full satisfaction for the damages thereby suffered; and such damages shall be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, by and in the name of the clerk of the peace of the county, without naming his name; and such action shall not be abated by the death or removal of such clerk, but may be prosecuted by his successors, and such damages shall be to the only use of the trustees of such turnpike road, where the offence was committed, to be by them applied to such uses as the several tolls, by virtue of such act, shall be applied; and all the inhabitants of such hundred shall be rateably taxed toward an equal contribution for the relief of such inhabitants against whom execution for such damages shall be had, which tax shall be levied by such means as is prescribed in any act, 27 El. c. 15, [see HUE and CAY] for levying the damages recovered against hundreds, in case of robberies; provided, that upon conviction of such offender, within 12 months after the offence committed, any hundred, having made such satisfaction, shall be repaid the sums they have so paid out of tolls of the turnpike, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 43.

52. No person shall be a trustee in execution of any act, unless he be in his own right, or in the right of his wife, in the actual possession of the rents of lands, &c. of clear yearly value of 40*l.*, or possessed of, or entitled to, a personal estate to the value of 800*l.*, or be heir-apparent of a person possessed of an estate in land of the clear yearly value of 80*l.*; and unless he hath taken, or shall (not being such heir-apparent) before he acts, take and subscribe the oath following before 2 trustees, who are empowered to administer the same in words following, viz.

'I A. B. do swear, that I truly and bonâ fide am, in my own right, or in the right of my wife, in the actual possession and enjoyment, or receipt of the rents and profits of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the clear yearly value of 40*l.*, or possessed of, or entitled to a personal estate to the value of 800*l.*, [as the case may be.] So help me God.'

And if any person shall presume to act contrary to the meaning hereof, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to any person who shall sue, to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt or information, &c., wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed; and such person so prosecuted shall prove that he is qualified, or otherwise pay the 50*l.*, without any other proof on the part of the plaintiff, than that such person hath acted as a trustee, id. s. 44.

53. All clerks, treasurers, surveyors, and other officers, appointed by any act for repair of turnpike roads, and their executors or administrators shall, within 10 days after notice in writing to them given by trustees, or 5 of them, at a meeting held pursuant to such act, produce and deliver up to such trustees, all books, accounts, papers, or writings, relative to such offices, which shall be in their custody; and such person neglecting to produce and deliver up such books, &c. after such notice, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 45.

54. No person who shall keep any victualling-house, ale-house, or other house of public entertainment, or who shall sell any wine, cyder, beer, ale, spirituous or other strong liquors, by retail, shall be capable of acting as a trustee, or of enjoying any place of trust or profit under trustees of any act, for erecting turnpikes, or of collecting the tolls thereby granted; but no such person shall be precluded from farming such tolls, provided he employs a person to collect them who shall not be under such incapacity, id. s. 46.

55. The trustees of the roads, or 5 of them, at a public meeting, may direct prosecutions by indictment against the offender for any nuisance done upon any turnpike roads under their care, at the expence of the revenues belonging to such roads, to be allowed by such trustees, or 5 of them, at some subsequent meeting; but this act shall not empower the trustees to prosecute any person for such offence, unless the confession of the offender, or one witness can be had to prove the offence, id. s. 47.

56. All justices before whom there shall be any information for any penalty inflicted by this or any act made for repairing turnpike roads, where any information or conviction shall be set up, by way of defence, or to defeat any information, or any forfeiture, may examine into the real merits of such information or conviction; and if it appear that the same was not done effectually, to recover and apply the penalty for the real ends for which such penalties were enacted, but to favour the offender, such information shall be deemed fraudulent and void; and such justice shall determine and convict, as if no such information, &c. had been made or obtained, id. s. 48.

57. Where a sufficient number of trustees shall not meet on the day appointed by any act for their first meeting, or on the day appointed by adjournment for their meeting, or for want of a proper adjournment, by which means the intent of such act may be frustrated; in either such cases, so many of the trustees as shall meet, or the major part of them, or in case no such trustee shall be present, their clerk, may cause notice in writing to be affixed on all turnpike-gates then erected on such roads, or if no turnpike-gate shall be then erected, may cause the like notice to be affixed in the most conspicuous place in one of the principal towns nearest to which the roads directed to be repaired do lie, and also in some public newspaper circulated in that country, 10 days before the intended meeting, appointing such trustees to meet at such place where the preceding meeting was appointed to have been held, or at the place directed for first meeting of such trustees if no preceding meeting shall have been held; and trustees, when met in pursuance of such notice, shall carry such act into execution, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 49.

58. No meeting of such trustees shall be adjourned for longer than 3 calendar months; and no business shall be done by trustees, at any meeting held under this or any other act, before 10 in the forenoon; and no adjournment shall be made to any hour later than 2 in the afternoon of the day of meeting; and every act agreed upon at any meeting shall be then signed by a competent number of trustees, or otherwise such meeting, adjournment, and act shall be void, id. s. 50.

59. If the trustees appointed to put any turnpike-road act into execution shall abuse or exceed their power, by erecting, or continuing any gate where they have not power to erect such gate, the justices, in their general quarter sessions, upon complaint of such abuse, in a summary way may determine the same, and thereupon order the sheriff of county to remove such gate, who may accordingly do so, id. s. 51.

60. All mortgagees, that shall take or be in possession of, any toll-gate erected on any turnpike road, or of any lands, the rents whereof are appropriated to the repairs of any turnpike road, shall, within fourteen days after he shall have received notice in writing from the trustees or five of them, render upon oath, to be administered by one justice or one trustee, an exact account, in writing, of all monies received by such mortgagee, or by any other person, for his use, or by his authority, at such toll-gate, or otherwise, and of what he has expended in keeping or repairing the same; and in case he shall neglect to render such account when required, as herein directed, he shall forfeit to trustees, for each such omission, 10*l.*, to be recovered by the trustees, or 5 of them, or by the treasurer or their clerk, in a summary manner, before one justice, which, when recovered, shall be applied to the use of the road whereon such toll-gate is placed, id. s. 52.

61. If such mortgagee shall keep possession of any toll-gate, by himself, or any other person on his behalf, and receive the tolls thereat, or of any such rents, after such mortgagee shall have received the full sum due on mortgage, and the interest thereof, with costs, such mortgagee shall forfeit to such trustees, double the money received over the money due, with treble costs, to be recovered by trustees, or by the treasurer or clerk, by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record; which, when recovered, shall be applied to the use of the road whereon such toll-gate is placed, id. s. 53.

62. Two trustees, upon the death of any toll-gatherer appointed to collect the tolls, may nominate some other person in his place until the next meeting of the trustees, which person shall have the like power, and be accountable in same manner as the person dying; and if any toll-gatherer, who shall be discharged from his office by the trustees, shall refuse to deliver up the possession of the house, &c. which he enjoyed in right of his appointment to that office, within 2 days after notice of his discharge is given to him, or left at his house; or if the wife or family of such toll-gatherer, who shall die, shall refuse to deliver up the possession of such house, &c. within 4 days after such new appointment made, then any justice for such limit, by warrant under his hand and seal, may order the constable or peace officer, with such assistance as shall be necessary, to enter such house in the day-time, and to remove the persons found therein, together with their goods, and to put the new-appointed officer into the possession thereof, id. s. 54.

63. The gate-keeper, and every surveyor of any turnpike road shall, when required by notice in writing from the trustees, or 5 of them, render upon oath, to be administered by one justice or trustee, a true account in writing, to such trustees, of all monies received by him at such toll-gate or otherwise, on account of such turnpike road, not before accounted for, under the penalty of 5*l.*, to be recovered in a summary manner before one justice, and applied to the use of such road, id. s. 55.

64. No gate-keeper, or person renting the tolls thereof, and residing in any toll-house belonging to the trust, shall be removeable from such toll-house by the order of any justices, in pursuance of any laws now in being for relief of poor, unless he shall become actually chargeable to the parish in which such toll-house is situate; and no such gate-keeper, or person renting such tolls, and residing in such toll-house, shall thereby gain a settlement in any parish, and no tolls taken at any gate, nor any toll-house erected for collecting the same, nor any person, in respect of such tolls, or toll-house, shall be rated towards the poor-rates or any other public or parochial levy, id. s. 56.

65. If any toll-gatherer or gate-keeper shall permit any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, to be drawn upon any turnpike road within view, or with knowledge of such gate-keeper, or to pass through any toll-gate with any greater number of horses, or with any carriage constructed or drawn in any other manner than before directed, or without such names and descriptions painted thereon as are hereby directed, and shall not, within one week, proceed for recovery of forfeiture for such offence, as directed by this act, he shall forfeit 40s., 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 57.

66. "As there may be turnpike roads in such a state with regard to repairs, and revenues, that statute-duty required to be performed upon same may be dispensed with, and employed more conveniently for the benefit of other highways within the same parish, &c." the justices, at any special sessions, upon application to them made by the surveyor of any parish, &c., in the situation before described, may summon the clerk and surveyor of such turnpike road to appear before them, at some other special sessions, and to produce before them a state of the revenues and debts belonging to such road, and such justices may then enquire into the state of the repairs thereof, and also of such other highways; and if it appear that the whole, or part of such statute-duty, may be dispensed with from such turnpike road, without endangering the securities for the money advanced upon the credit of the tolls, and that such statute-duty is wanted for the repairs of other highways within such parish, &c., then such justices may order the statute-duty to be performed upon the highways, not being turnpike, within such parish, under the direction of the surveyor thereof, during such time as to them shall seem just, and the same shall be performed accordingly, id. s. 58. [See as to statute-duty, HIGHWAY, pl. 102.]

67. The justices within W., at their general quarter sessions, in the week after Michaelmas, may license an increase of the number of horses to be employed in drawing carriages on any turnpike road within their jurisdictions, over the number before limited, if upon inquiry into the state of such roads they find any additional number necessary, and at any Michaelmas quarter sessions, revoke or vary the same, as they think fit; and neither the owner or driver, so licensed, shall incur any forfeiture for using such increased number, id. s. 59.

68. No toll shall be collected for carriages solely employed in carrying materials for the repair of any turnpike road or public highway, or for going to be, or returning after having been so employed, id. s. 60.

69. No surveyor shall cause to be gathered any stones for the use of the highways, upon the common fields or inclosed lands, without the consent of the occupier, or a licence from a justice, after having summoned such occupier to come before him, and heard his reasons, if he appear and give any, for refusing his consent, id. s. 61.

70. "As many persons are liable by tenure, &c. to the repair of highways, which having become turnpike roads, are more used, and occasion an increase of the expense in repairing," it is ENACTED that the trustees of such turnpike roads may agree with the person liable to repair such highway, for the repair thereof, and may contribute so much out of the tolls, or out of the statute-duty belonging to the same, as they think just, id. s. 62.

71. "As parts of highways or turnpike roads may be turned by legal authority, to make the same more commodious," the inhabitants of every parish, &c. or persons liable to the repair of any old highway or road, which shall be turned, shall continue liable to the repair of such new highway, or so much as shall be equal to the burthen of repairing such old highway from which he shall be exonerated by turning the same; and if the parties interested cannot agree therein, the same shall be viewed by two justices, and determined by them, as they think just; and after such determination of justices, the inhabitants of such parish, &c. or persons liable to repair such new highway, shall bear all charges of indictments for not repairing the same; and if it be found more convenient to fix a gross or an annual sum, to be paid by such inhabitants or persons, towards the repair of such new highway, instead of fixing the part of such new highway to be repaired by them, such justices may, with the consent of such persons, and also of the inhabitants interested therein, obtained at a vestry or public meeting, and also of two trustees at a public meeting, if it be turnpike road, order the same, which shall be binding, id. s. 63.

72. Where any action shall be brought by or against any trustee of any turnpike road, evidence of such trustee having acted, together with the act by which he was appointed, or the order, or a copy of the order, for his appointment, in case he was appointed by the trustees, shall be sufficient proof of his being a trustee, id. s. 64.

73. Every treasurer and surveyor of any turnpike road shall, within one month after his appointment, give a bond to the trustees, with a sufficient surety, in such penalty as the trustees, at any public meeting, shall direct, conditioned for duly paying and accounting for all money which he shall receive as treasurer or surveyor, according to the acts respecting such road; which bond shall be wrote upon paper without stamp, id. s. 65.

74. The trustees of every turnpike road within Eng., shall cause to be put up, and afterwards continued, upon every toll-gate within their districts, a table of all the tolls payable at such gate, distinguishing each toll, and the different sorts of carriages for which they are to be paid, where there is any variation therein; and also a table of weights allowed for each carriage with the loading thereof in summer and winter; and such trustees shall, from time to time, examine every weighing engine erected upon their roads, to see that the same, with the weights, are kept in good condition to weigh the carriages and loading with accuracy, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 66.

75. In all carriages wherein oxen or neat cattle shall be used, 2 oxen or neat cattle shall be considered as one horse, with respect to tolls, &c. id. s. 67.

76. The owner of every waggon, wain, or cart, and also of every coach, post-chaise, or other carriage let to hire, shall paint upon some conspicuous part of his waggon, &c. and upon the pannels of the doors of all such coaches, post-chaises, or other carriages, before the same are used upon any turnpike road, his christian and surname, and the place of abode, in large letters, and continue the same thereupon so long as such waggon, &c. shall be used upon such turnpike road; and the owner of every common stage waggon or cart, employed in travelling stages from town to town, shall, above his christian and surname, paint on the part, and in manner aforesaid, the following words, COMMON STAGE WAGGON, (or CART, as the case may be); and every person using such carriage, without names and descriptions painted thereon as aforesaid, or who shall paint any false name or abode on such waggon or other carriage, shall forfeit from 20s. to 5*l.*, id. s. 68.

77. "As the powers given by several turnpike acts are ineffectual for digging, providing, and carrying materials, for the use of the turnpike roads, and also for enlarging and turning such roads, and stopping up, selling, and disposing of old roads so to be turned; and also for making, opening, and cleansing of ditches and drains, and cutting and pruning of hedges and trees; and also for compelling the performance of statute duty which shall belong to such turnpike roads; and more ample powers, under proper restrictions, may be given for the purposes aforesaid, by certain clauses in the acts for the amendment of the highways," [See 13 G. 3. c. 78. HIGHWAYS, pl. 4.]; be it ENACTED, that the surveyors of every turnpike road shall, with the approbation of the trustees, apply any part of the tolls and statute-duty arising in respect of such turnpike road, in the execution of such powers, which are contained in any acts for the amendment of the highways, and may execute the same to the benefit of such turnpike roads, for the purposes aforesaid, as fully, but upon such terms as the surveyor of any parish, &c. can do under such acts, id. s. 70.

78. When any materials shall be dug by surveyor of any turnpike road, in the inclosed lands of any person, for the use of any turnpike road, under authority of this or such acts, for the amendment of the highways, satisfaction shall be made by the trustees to the owner or occupier of such lands, for materials dug, and also for the damages done in carrying away the same, in such manner as satisfaction is required to be made for damages occasioned by digging and carrying away materials in inclosed lands, by virtue of such acts for the amendment of highways, id. s. 71.

79. The forms of proceedings relative to the matters in this act, set forth in the schedule, shall be used upon all occasions, and no objection shall be made for want of form in such proceedings, id. s. 72.

80. Every constable, headborough, or tithingman, neglecting to put this act into execution, or to account for and deliver any forfeiture according to this act, and every surveyor of any turnpike road, and every toll-gatherer, and all persons employed by trustees appointed for repairing roads, as shall receive salaries, who shall wilfully neglect, for one week after offence committed, to lay such information upon oath before one justice, shall, upon information made upon oath before one justice forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 73.

81. No conviction shall be had under this act, unless upon confession of party accused, or upon the oath of one witness, and any inhabitant of any parish shall be a competent witness, and any justice may act notwithstanding he may be a creditor, or a trustee for repairing the roads whereon offence committed, id. s. 74.

82. In case any person shall resist, or make forcible opposition against any person employed in the execution of this act, or any particular act made for amending any particular highway; or shall assault any collector of tolls in the execution of his office, or shall pass through any turnpike-gate, rail, chain, or other fence, set up, by authority of parliament, without paying toll, or shall attempt to prevent such person in measuring the wheels of any carriage, or make any rescue of cattle or goods, distrained by virtue of this act; or if any constable, &c. shall neglect to execute any warrant granted by any justice, pursuant to this act, such person offending therein, and being convicted thereof in manner aforesaid, shall forfeit from 40s. to 10*l.*, to be paid to surveyor of turnpike roads where offence committed, and laid out in repairs thereof; and in case he do not forthwith pay, or secure to be paid, the forfeiture, after conviction, then such justice may commit such person to the common gaol, or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, unless forfeiture sooner paid, id. s. 75.

83. All penalties and costs allowed by this act (the manner of recovering of which is not otherwise directed) shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of some justice for the limit where such offence, &c. shall happen, or such order is made, rendering overplus to the party, after deducting charges of making the same; which warrants such justice shall grant, upon conviction of offender, by confession or upon oath of one witness, or upon order so made; the penalties, costs, and charges, shall be paid, one half to the informer, and the other to the surveyor of the turnpike road, to be employed towards the repair thereof, unless otherwise directed by this act; and in case such distress cannot be found, and such penalties or costs shall not be forthwith paid, such justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may commit such offender or person liable to pay same to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, unless the penalty, &c. shall be sooner paid; and if such offender shall live out of the jurisdiction of the justice hereby authorized to grant such warrant, any justice, where such person shall inhabit, upon a true copy of the conviction whereby forfeiture was incurred, or of the order for payment of such costs, produced and proved by a witness upon oath, by warrant under his hand and seal, may cause the penalty mentioned in such conviction, or the costs mentioned in such order, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such offender; and if no sufficient distress can be had, may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction in manner and for time aforesaid, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 76.

84. No warrant of distress, unless otherwise directed by this act, shall be issued for levying any penalty or charges, until 6 days after offender shall have been convicted, and an order made and served upon him for payment thereof, id. s. 77.

85. Whatever penalty shall be levied on information of surveyor, or of any toll-gatherer, or other person employed by the trustees, and receiving salaries for their services, and not otherwise directed by this act, shall go to the amending of the turnpike roads, id. s. 78.

86. Every prosecutor may, at his election, recover any forfeiture imposed by this or any other act for erecting turnpikes, or for repairing turnpike roads thus: viz. if the same shall not amount to 40s., it shall be recoverable only by information before a justice; and if same shall amount to 40s. or upwards, it may be recovered either by information, as aforesaid, or by action of debt, in any court of record, in which it shall be sufficient to declare that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of—/ being forfeited by an act passed in the 13 G. 3., intitled, "An act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament the general laws now in being, for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes;" and the plaintiff, if he recover in such action, shall have full costs, provided, that there shall not be more than one recovery for the same offence, and that 10 days' notice in writing be given to party offending previous to commencement of such action, and that the same be brought within one month after the offence, id. s. 79.

87. Where any distress shall be made for any money, to be levied by this act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor party a trespasser, on account of any want of form in any proceedings; nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by party distraining; but the person aggrieved may recover satisfaction in an action on the case, id. s. 80.

88. No plaintiff shall recover in any action for irregularity, if tender of sufficient amends be made before such action brought; and in case no tender is made, the defendant, by leave of court at any time before issue joined, may pay into court such money as he shall see fit, and the usual proceedings in such cases shall be adopted, id. s. 81.

89. Any person aggrieved by any thing done by any justice under this act, except under the circumstances hereafter mentioned, and for which no relief hath been appointed, may appeal to the general quarter sessions, such appellant first giving to such justice, by whose act he thinks himself aggrieved, notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, within 6 days after cause of complaint arose, and within 4 days after such notice entering into recognizance before some justice, with one surety conditioned to try such appeal at, and abide the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the quarter sessions; and every justice having received notice of such appeal, shall return all proceedings had before them touching such appeal to such quarter sessions, on pain of 5/; and such sessions, upon proof of such notice being given, and of entering into such recognizance, shall determine such appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party as they think proper, to be levied as in s. 76; pl. 83. directed, and the determination of such sessions shall be conclusive; and no proceeding under this act shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari into any court at Westminster, id. s. 82.

90. No such appeal shall be made against any conviction for any penalty incurred by this act, unless the person convicted shall, at time of conviction if he be then present, if not, within 6 days after, give notice of his intention to appeal, and at same time enter into a recognizance, or give security, with sureties, to pay such penalty in case conviction affirmed upon such appeal; and upon his giving such security, the further proceedings for such penalty shall be suspended until such appeal shall be determined, 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 83.

91. Where any oath is to be made, the justices, or trustees of any turnpike road (as the case may be), shall administer the same, id. s. 84.

92. Actions against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months; and shall be brought in the county where the person against whom such action is commenced doth reside, or where the fact was committed; and defendants in such actions may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if on the trial it appears that the thing complained was done under this act, or that such action was brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant; or if plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or if the judgment is given against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 85.

93. All the provisions, &c. contained in 13 G. 3. c. 84., which have not been altered or repealed (except so much thereof as gives an additional term of 5 years to turnpike acts), shall be deemed to extend to all acts made since the passing thereof, and to be made for repairing turnpike roads, 21 G. 3. c. 20. s. 1.

94. FOR LIMITING THE EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLL GRANTED by any act of parliament for repairing turnpike roads, on account of cattle going to and from water or pasture, 17 G. 3. c. 16.

95. In all cases where any exemptions from toll for cattle going to and from water or pasture, is given by any act for repairing any turnpike roads, such exemption shall extend to such cattle only as shall be driven to and from water or pasture from one parish to the adjoining parish, or to such cattle as shall not pass upon any such road for more than 2 miles, in going to or returning from water or pasture, id. s. 1.

96. Provided this act shall not exempt from payment of toll, any cattle going to and from pasture or water, for which any person is liable to pay toll by any turnpike acts, id. s. 2.

97. FOR ENABLING TRUSTEES UNDER PARTICULAR TURNPIKE ACTS, to meet and carry such acts into execution, notwithstanding they may not have met or adjourned agreeable to the directions of such acts; and for preventing disputes touching the payment of tolls for horses or carriages belonging to or employed by officers or soldiers on duty, 18 G. 3. c. 63.

98. In all cases where the trustees appointed by any acts for repairing any particular turnpike roads, shall not have met on the day appointed for their first meeting by such acts, or on the day appointed by adjournment, or shall not adjourn in the manner by any such acts directed, 5 or more of them may cause notice under their hands to be affixed on all turnpike gates erected on such roads, and in case no such gates, may cause the same to be affixed on some conspicuous place in a market town near the roads directed to be repaired; and inserted in some newspaper circulated in that part of the country, 20 days before the intended meeting, appointing the trustees to meet at the place where the last preceding meeting was to have been held, or at the place directed for the first meeting, if no preceding meeting was held; and such trustees, when met, may put such acts in execution in the same way as if no such neglect had happened, id. s. 1.

99. No toll or duty shall be taken under any act of parliament now made, or hereafter to be made for repairing any turnpike road, for any horses belonging to officers or soldiers upon march or duty, or for any horses, cattle, or carriages employed in carrying the arms or baggage of such officers or soldiers, or carrying any sick or wounded officers or soldiers, and no carriages so employed, shall be subject to be weighed at any engine erected on any turnpike road, or the owner or driver thereof liable to any penalty for carrying any greater weight than allowed by law (See 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. pl. 4.) in any such carriage, id. s. 2.

100. TO EXEMPT CARRIAGES CARRYING THE MAIL from paying tolls at any turnpike gate in G. B., 25 G. 3. c. 57.

101. All carriages or horses employed in conveying the mail or packet which shall be made up under the authority of H. M.'s postmaster-general or his deputies, shall be exempt from payment of any tolls demanded for the passage of horses or carriages through any turnpike, toll-bar, &c. at which any toll is collected by any act now in force, and all turnpike-keepers or toll-collectors, shall permit such carriages and horses to pass without taking toll for the same, id. ibid.

102. TO EXPLAIN THE EXEMPTION FROM TOLL IN SEVERAL acts of parliament for carriages employed in husbandry, and for regulating the tolls to be paid on other carriages and on horses in certain other cases therein specified, 52 G. 3. c. 145. PUBLIC clause, s. 8. [AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 82. PUBLIC clause, s. 5. EXPLD. 57 G. 5. c. 37. PUBLIC clause, s. 5.]

103. In every case in which under any act for making, widening, repairing, or otherwise relating to any turnpike roads, there is an exemption from toll or duty for any horse, mule, ass, oxen, waggon, cart, or other carriage, drawing any dung, mould, soil, marl, lime, or compost of any kind for manuring or improving land, or hay, straw, or other fodder for cattle, such exemption shall extend to every such waggon, &c. and to the cattle drawing the same, going or returning empty or loaded only with implements necessary for the more convenient carriage or loading or unloading such lading, notwithstanding such waggon, &c. shall go to or return from any place in which such turnpike road does not lie, 52 G. 3. c. 145. s. 1.

104. Provided that the driver of any empty waggon, &c. claiming the exemptions hereby extended, shall in all cases first pay the toll before he passes such turnpike; and the collector shall give him a ticket marked "Manure Exemption," with the name of gate, and date when delivered, and amount of toll paid, which sum shall be repaid to such driver on his returning the same day with such waggon, &c. and producing ticket; and every collector of toll neglecting to return the same on return of such waggon, &c. and production of such ticket, shall forfeit to the owner of such waggon, not less than 10s., or more than 40s., on conviction before the justice for the county, &c. where the offence committed, on oath of one witness; and if the same is not paid, such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding one month, id. s. 2.

105. The restriction as to returning the same day in 32 G. 3. c. 145. s. 6. contained, shall be REP., and all provisions of all local turnpike acts, granting such exemption without such restriction, shall be in full force, 53 G. 3. c. 82. s. 3.

106. Provided party aggrieved hereby may appeal to the justices of peace [so in the act] to be held for the limits wherein the cause of complaint arose, on giving such notice and entering into such recognizance as by 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 82. pl. 89. directed, and thereupon such proceeding shall be had as in such act directed, 52 G. 3. c. 145. s. 3.

107. Trustees shall release lessees of tolls from their contracts at Michaelmas next, id. s. 4.; and after contracts are so determined, trustees may relet the tolls, id. s. 5. [Exp.]

108. The regulations of weight in the 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. pl. 4. shall not extend to any waggon, cart, or other carriage laden with manure for land, passing through any gate, so as to subject the owner or driver to payment of toll for overweight, by reason of any empty baskets, sacks, or tubs, or any spade, shovel, or fork for loading or unloading the same, being upon the same so as the loading is substantially manure; provided the fellys of the wheels of such carriages are of breadth of 6 inches; and that such waggon, &c. and loading, shall not exceed a certain weight, id. s. 6. [See pl. 11.]

109. The 52 G. 3. c. 145. s. 6. pl. 108., so far as it relates to breadth of wheels, and the weight of such carriages, with their loading, shall be REP., 53 G. 3. c. 82. s. 1.

110. The owner or driver of any such carriages laden with manure shall not pay toll for passing through any gate by reason only of any empty basket or sacks for more convenient carriage, or any spade, shovel, or fork, necessary for loading the same, being upon such carriage, if the loading is substantially manure, id. s. 2. [See pl. 108.]

111. Nothing in the 53 G. 3. c. 82. s. 2. or any other act, shall extend to exempt any carriages therein mentioned, or the horses or other cattle drawing the same, from any tolls imposed by virtue of any local act under which any such tolls have been, or shall be imposed, for the maintenance and repairs of the roads upon which such carriages shall go or travel, 57 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.

112. But nothing in this act shall repeal or alter any clause in 53 G. 3. c. 82., nor any other act, so far as respects any turnpike roads, or the tolls to be collected at any gates erected, or to be erected thereon, within the cities of London or Westminster, or within the distance of 15 miles from the Royal Exchange, 57 G. 3. c. 37. s. 2.

113. Where any coach or other four-wheel carriage shall pass through any gate, tied to a waggon or cart, it shall pay toll as if drawn by two horses; and where any two-wheel carriage shall pass any such gate, tied to a waggon or cart, it shall pay toll as if drawn by one horse; and where any horse shall be tied to any waggon, &c. but not used in drawing the same, it shall pay toll for a single horse; provided that where any such coach, &c. or other carriage so tied, shall have any goods conveyed therein other than the harness thereof, and such articles of package as shall be necessary for the protection of such carriage, it shall pay double the toll, 52 G. 3. c. 145. s. 7.

114. This act shall not extend to Scot. or to any other turnpike road out of Eng., 53 G. 3. c. 82. s. 4.

115. TO ENABLE THE TRUSTEES OF TURNPIKE ROADS to abate the tolls on carriages, and allow of their carrying extra weight in certain cases, 55 G. 3. c. 119.

116. Any seven trustees acting in execution of any acts for maintaining and repairing turnpike roads in Eng. at any of their meetings, may, by order there to be made, exempt from payment of all or part of any additional tolls for every cwt of 112lbs. which any waggon, cart, or other such carriage, with its loading, shall weigh over and above the weights, by 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1. pl. 4. and 14 G. 3. c. 82. s. 2. pl. 5. allowed, provided such carriages have the bottoms of the fellys of all the wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, 9 inches, or 16 inches and upwards, and of the same diameter inside next the carriage as on the outside, and so that the wheels may bear equally for the whole breadth when rolling on flat surfaces; and that part of the axletrees that goes into the naul is horizontal, and each pair of wheels equidistant at top and bottom when resting on the ground; provided no such exemption shall be allowed for such carriages having the fellys of the wheels 6 inches and upwards, and less than 9 inches in breadth, although they be so made, and the axletrees so fixed as aforesaid, if such overweight exceed 8 cwt.; nor for such carriages having the fellys of the wheels 9 inches and upwards in breadth, and less than 16 inches, although they be so made, and axletrees so fixed, if such overweight shall exceed 6 cwt., nor for such carriages with such axletrees, and having the fellys of the wheels thereof 16 inches and upwards in breadth, although they be so made, if such overweight shall exceed 30 cwt., id. s. 1.

117. Any seven such trustees, at any of their respective meetings, may, if they deem it expedient, reduce the tolls payable by virtue of such acts, for every waggon, cart, or other carriage, or the horses, or other cattle drawing the same, having the wheels and fellys so made, and the axletrees so fixed; provided, this act shall not extend to enable trustees to reduce the tolls more than one-fourth of what might otherwise be demanded for such carriages and cattle drawing the same, id. s. 2.

118. This act shall not extend to enable such seven trustees to reduce such tolls or penalties for overweight, during the continuance of any lease, without consent, in writing, of the lessees first had, id. s. 3.

UNIVERSITY.

1. FOR INCORPORATION OF BOTH THE UNIVERSITIES, 15 El. c. 29.

2. "The chancellor, masters, and scholars of the university of Oxford," for the time being, shall be incorporated and have perpetual succession, in fact, deed, and name, by the name of the chancellor, &c. and shall from henceforth, by that name only, be named for evermore, and shall have a common seal to serve for their necessary causes, touching themselves and their successors: [then follows a like provision for "the chancellor, masters, and scholars of the university of Cambridge."] And the chancellors, &c. of Oxford and Cambridge respectively, may, by the above names, severally sue and be sued for all causes, quarrels, and actions of all kinds, and may demand all manner of liberties and franchises for the profit or right of either university, before any spiritual or temporal judge, in any courts and places within H. M.'s dominions. The letters patent 1st April, 14 H. 8. granted to Oxford, and those of 26th April, 5 El. granted to Cambridge, are confirmed with all franchises, &c. therein. Saving all private and other rights to the things in those patents contained, or conveyed by any act of such chancellor, &c. before the dates of such patents; and saving for the liberties and privileges of the mayors, bailiffs, and burgesses of Cambridge and Oxford, id. ibid.

3. FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE COLLEGES IN THE UNIVERSITIES, and of Winchester and Eton, 18 El. c. 6. (or 21. on the Roll.)

4. No master, provost, president, warden, dean, governor, rector, or chief ruler of any college, cathedral, church, hall, or house of learning in the universities, nor any provost, warden, or other head officer of the colleges of Winchester or Eton, nor the corporation of any of them, shall make any lease for life or years of their lands or other hereditaments, to which any tithes, arable land, meadow, or pasture shall appertain, except 1-3d of the old rent is reserved in corn; viz. in good wheat, at 6s. 8d. the quarter, or under; and good malt at 5s. the quarter, or under; to be delivered yearly at the said colleges, &c., and for default thereof, to pay to the said colleges, &c. in ready money, at the election of the lessees, after the rates of the best wheat and malt in the markets of Cambridge, Oxford, and Winchester, for the rents respectively payable there; and in the market of Windsor for the rents payable to the houses at Eton; the next market day before the rent shall be due, without fraud: all leases otherwise to be made, and all collateral bonds or assurances to the contrary shall be void. The same wheat, malt, or money shall be expended to the relief of the commons and diet of the colleges, &c. only, and by no fraud, let or sold away from the profit of the said colleges, &c. in the same, and the use aforesaid, on pain of deprivation of the governor and chief rulers of the same, and all other consenting, id. s. 1.: but this act shall not extend to any lease to be made by the president and scholars of St. John's, Oxford, to any heir-male of Sir Thomas White, their founder, according to the meaning of the foundation and statutes of the said college of the manor of Fifield, and no other hereditaments, id. s. 3.

UPHOLDERS.

1. FOR THE TRUE STUFFING OF FEATHER BEDS, MATTRESSES, and cushions, 11 H. 7. c. 19., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 23.

2. No person shall make or put to sale any feather-beds, bolsters, or pillows, except they be stuffed with dried pulled feathers, or clean down alone, and with no scalded feathers, nor fen down [thistle down, sand, lime, gravel, hair, or other unlawful stuff, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 23. s. 1.] on pain to forfeit the same: [except that all persons may make beds of such corrupt stuff for their own use, so as they be not sold, 11 H. 7. c. 19.] No person shall make or put to sale any quilts, mattresses, or cushions, other than such as are stuffed with [feathers, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 23. s. 2.] wool or flock alone, on pain to forfeit the same, or the value thereof, 11 H. 7. c. 19., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 23. ss. 1, 2.

3. The moiety of all such forfeitures shall go to H. M., and the other to such person as will sue for the same in any court wherein no essoin, &c., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 23. s. 3.

USES AND TRUSTS.

1. FOR GIVING EXECUTION AGAINST FEOFFERS TO USES, 19 H. 7. c. 15.

2. Every sheriff or other officer to whom any writ or precept is directed at suit of any person, to have any execution of any lands or hereditaments against another, of, for, or on any condemnation, statute, merchant, staple, or recognizance, shall make and deliver execution to the party suing of all such lands of which any other person is seised in anywise, to the use of the party against whom execution is so sued, as if the latter had been solely seised thereof, id. s. 1.

3. The lord of whom any such lands or tenements are holden in socage shall, after the death of the cestui que use (and no will thereof declared), have his relief, heriot, and all other duties as he ought to, or might have had, if he had died seised of the same, id. s. 2.

4. Every such cestui que use shall have all such advantage in the law against him who hath execution of the said lands, as he might have had had he been solely seised of the said lands, &c. at the time of execution sued, id. s. 3. [cestui que use being a bondman, the land may be entered upon by his lord, id. s. 4. Exp.]

5. CONCERNING USES AND WILLS, 27 H. 8. c. 10. ss. 1—5. 10—12. [see ss. 6—9. DOWER, pl. 16—19., and as to Ire., 10 C. 1. S. 2. c. 1. (Ir.)]

6. Where any person shall stand seised of any honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, services, reversions, remainders, or other hereditaments, to the use or trust of another, or of any body politic, by reason of any bargain, sale, feoffment, fine, recovery, covenant, contract, agreement, will, or otherwise, such person and bodies that shall have such use or trust shall stand seised, and be deemed in lawful seisin, of the same honours, &c. with their appurtenances in such like estate, as they had in the use or trust, and the estate, title, right, and possession shall, from henceforth, be adjudged to be in them, 27 H. 8. c. 10. s. 1.

7. Where any persons shall be jointly seised of and in any lands, tenements, rents, reversions, or remainders, or other hereditaments, to the use or trust of any of them that be so jointly seised, then the person that shall have such use or trust, shall be deemed to have only such estate, possession, or seisin, of and in such lands, &c., in like nature, manner, and condition, as they had before in the use or trust, saving to all persons and bodies politic, their heirs and successors, other than those that shall be actually seised of any lands to any use or trust, all such right, entry, possession, action, &c. as they had before this act made, id. s. 2.

8. Saving also to all persons and their heirs hereafter seised to any use, all such former right, title, entry, possession, action, &c. as they had to their own proper use, in any lands, &c. whereof they may be seised to any other use, as if this act had not been made, id. s. 3.

9. Where any person shall stand seised of any lands, &c. in fee-simple or otherwise, to the use and intent that another shall have and perceive a yearly rent, and some other person another annual rent out of such lands, &c., for a term of life or years, or for some special time declared and limited; in such case, the same persons, their heirs and assigns, that have such use to perceive such rents, shall be deemed to be in possession of the same rent in such estate as they had in use of the said rent, and as if a lawful conveyance had been made to them by the persons seised to the use of any such rent; and all persons having title, use, and interest to any such rent, may distrain for the nonpayment thereof, and may make recoveries in their own names or cognizances by their bailiffs, and have all other suits, entries, and remedies for such rents, as if the same were actually granted to them, with clauses of distress and re-entry, &c. according to the conditions, &c. limited upon the trust, id. ss. 4, 5.

10. This act shall not release, discharge, or suspend any statute, recognizance, or other bond, by the execution of any estate of or in any lands, &c. under this act, to any person or bodies politic, id. s. 10.

11. Fines for alienations, reliefs, and heriots, shall be paid to H. M., and also liveries and ouster le mains shall be sued, for uses and trusts to be made of any lands holden of H. M., in such manner as heretofore accustomed, id. s. 12.

12. FOR REGULATING THE GRANT, PROOF, ASSIGNMENT, and descent of trust estates, with the mode of making execution thereon, 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 7—11. [AMD. 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 15. (The above title is framed to shew the object of the recited sections.) See 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 1—4. and s. 17. tit. FRAUDS, pl. 25—28.; ss. 5, 6. 12. 19—24. tit. WILLS, and s. 12., also in tit. ESTATES (Life), pl. 5.; ss. 13—15. JUDGMENT, pl. 4—5.; s. 16. EXECUTION, pl. 18.; s. 18. RECOGNIZANCE, pl. 15.; s. 25. EXECUTORS, &c. pl. 38.]

13. All declarations or creations of trusts or confidences, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall be manifested and proved by some writing signed by the party, who is by law enabled to declare such trust, or by his last will in writing, or else shall be utterly void, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 7.

14. Provided, that where any conveyance shall be made of any lands or tenements, by which a trust or confidence may arise or result, by implication or construction of law, or be transferred or extinguished by an act or operation of law, then such trust, &c. shall be of like force as if this statute had not been made, id. s. 8.

15. All declarations or creations of uses, trusts, or confidences, of any fines or common recoveries of any lands, &c., manifested and proved by any deed, by the party who is by law enabled to declare such uses and trusts, after levying or suffering any such fines or recoveries, are as effectual in the law as if 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 7, 8. had not been made, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 15.

16. All grants and assignments of any trusts shall be in writing, signed by the party granting or assigning the same, or by last will and devise, or else are utterly void, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 9.

17. It shall be lawful for every sheriff or other officer to whom any writ or precept is directed at suit of any person or persons, for and upon any judgment, statute, or recognizance, to make and deliver execution to the party suing in that behalf, of all such lands, tenements, rectories, tithes, and hereditaments, as any other person, &c. is in any wise seised in trust for him against whom such execution is sued: which lands, &c., by virtue of such execution, shall accordingly be held free from all incumbrances of such person as shall be so seised in trust for the person against whom execution shall be sued; and if any cestui que trust hereafter shall die, leaving a trust in fee simple to descend to his heir, there such trust shall be deemed assets by descent, and the heir shall be chargeable with the obligation of his ancestors by reason thereof, as fully as he might have been, if the estate in law had descended to him in possession, in like manner as the trust descended, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 10.

18. No heir who shall become chargeable by reason of any estate or trust made assets in his hands by this law, shall, by reason of any kind of plea or confession in this action, or suffering judgment of nient dedere, or any other matter, be chargeable to pay the condemnation out of his own estate; but execution shall be sued of the whole estate so made assets in his hands by descent, in whose hands soever it shall come after the writ purchased, in the same manner as it is to be at common law, where the heir at law, pleading a true plea, judgment is prayed against him thereupon, id. s. 11.

USURY.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. USURY SHALL NOT RUN against any within age, 20 H. 3. c. 5. [REP. 37 H. 8. c. 9. s. 1.]

4. AGAINST USURY, 37 H. 8. c. 9. [This statute first fixed a rate of interest at 10*l.* per cent.; was REP. 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 20.; but was REV. 13 El. c. 8. s. 1. see infra.]

5. AGAINST USURY, (or against taking any interest for money,) 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 20. [This statute repealed the rate of interest fixed by 37 H. 8. c. 9., but was REP. 13 El. c. 8. s. 2: The common rate of interest notwithstanding the law was now 14 per cent. Hume's Hist.]

6. AGAINST USURY, 13 El. c. 8. [Reviving 37 H. 8. c. 9. thus again fixing interest at 10*l.* per cent. id. s. 2. MADE PERP. 59 El. c. 18. s. 30. and 32., but semb. virtually EXP. since 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. s. 1.]

7. AGAINST USURY, 21 J. 1. c. 17. [Interest reduced from 10*l.* to 8*l.* per cent. MADE PERP. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 5. but virtually EXP. since 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. s. 1.]

8. FOR RESTRAINING THE TAKING of excessive usury, 12 C. 2. c. 13. [CON. 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 14. Interest reduced to 6*l.* per cent., id. s. 2. but virtually EXP. since 12 A. St. 2. c. 16.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. PUNISHMENTS OF USURY BY H. M. OR THE ORDINARIES, 15 E. 3. St. 1. c. 5.

2. H. M. and his heirs shall have cognizance of usurers dead, and the ordinary of usurers living, as to them pertaineth, to make compulsion by censures of holy church for the sin, to make restitution of the usuries taken against laws of holy church, 15 E. 3. St. 1. c. 5.

3. AGAINST USURY, 37 H. 8. c. 9. [Interest reduced to 10 per cent., ss. 3—4., which seem EXP. since 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. s. 1.]

4. No person shall sell his merchandizes to another, and within 3 months after buy the same, or any part thereof, knowing them to be the same, 37 H. 8. c. 9. s. 2.

5. Such offence shall be punished by forfeiture of the things sold, as also by imprisonment and fine, and ransom at H. M.'s will; one moiety thereof being to H. M., and the other to him that will sue in any of H. M.'s courts of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no wager of law, essoin, &c. shall be allowed, id. s. 5.

6. Nothing in this act shall extend to any lawful obligation indorsed with a condition, nor to any statute or recognizance for payment of a lesser sum, if made for a true, just, and perfect debt, or for performance of any other true covenants, made on a just intent had between the parties, other than in cases of usury, interest, corrupt bargain, shift, or chevizance, nor to any recovery, fine, feoffment, release, confirmation, or grant, made on condition with a true intent, other than those made on usury, &c. id. s. 6.

7. TO REDUCE THE RATE OF INTEREST WITHOUT ANY prejudice to parliamentary securities, 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. [See as to mortgages in Ire. and West Indies, 14 G. 3. c. 79. us AMD. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51. MORTGAGES.]

8. No person, from and after 29th Sept. 1714, upon any contract which shall be made from and after that day, shall take directly or indirectly, for loan of any monies, wares, merchandizes, or other commodities soever, above the value of 5*l.* for the forbearance of 100*l.* for a year, and so after that rate for a greater or lesser sum, or for a longer or shorter time; and all bonds, contracts, and assurances for payment of any principal or money to be lent, or covenants to be performed on usury, whereupon shall be reserved or taken above 5*l.* in the 100*l.*, shall be void; and every person which shall receive, by means of any corrupt bargain, loan, exchange, chevizance, shift, or interest, of any wares or other thing, or by any covin, or deceitful conveyance, for the forbearing or giving day of payment for one whole year, for their money or other thing, above 5*l.*, and after that rate for a greater or lesser sum, or for a longer or shorter time, shall forfeit treble value of the monies and other things, so lent, bargained, &c. 12 A. S. 2. c. 16. s. 1.

9. Every scrivener, broker, solicitor, and driver of bargains for contracts, who shall, after 29th Sept. 1714, take or receive, directly or indirectly, any money, reward, or thing, for brokerage, soliciting or procuring the loan or forbearing of any money above the rate of 5s. for the loan, &c. of 100l. for a year, or above 12d. above the stamp duties for making or renewing of the bond or bill for loan, &c. thereof, or for any counter bond or bill concerning the same, shall forfeit 20l., with costs, and suffer imprisonment for half a year; the one moiety of which forfeitures shall be to H. M., and the other to him or them that will sue for the same, in the county where the offences are committed, and not elsewhere, by action of debt or information, in which no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, 12 A. S. 2. c. 16. s. 2.

10. To AFFORD RELIEF TO THE bond Ade HOLDERS OF NEGOTIABLE securities, without notice that they were given for an usurious consideration, 58 G. 3. c. 93.

11. No bill of exchange or promissory note, drawn or made after passing this act, (viz. 10th June 1818,) shall, though it may have been given for an usurious consideration, or on an usurious contract, be void in the hands of an indorsee, for valuable consideration, unless he had, at the time of discounting or paying such consideration for the same, actual notice that such bill, &c. had been originally given for an usurious consideration, or, on an usurious contract, id. ibid.

13. FOR AMENDING and enforcing the laws relating to rogues, vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly persons, and for reducing the same into one act of parliament, and also for amending the laws for erecting, providing, and regulating houses of correction, 13 G. 2. c. 24. [REP. 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 34.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST LEWD and WANDERING PERSONS PRETENDING themselves to be soldiers and mariners, 39 El. c. 17. and recital in s. 1. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4., and indefinitely 16 C. 1. c. 4.; see 43 G. 3. c. 61. pl. 76.]

2. All idle and wandering soldiers or mariners, or idle persons wandering as such, shall settle themselves to labour without wandering, or repair to their dwelling places, betaking themselves to some lawful trade, upon pain that persons so offending shall be reputed as felons without benefit of clergy, 39 El. c. 17. s. 2.

3. Every idle and wandering soldier or mariner, which, coming from his captain, from the seas or from beyond seas, shall not have a testimonial of some justice of peace near the place where he landed, setting down the place and time when he landed, and the place of his dwelling or birth, unto which he is to pass, and a convenient time limited for his passage, or having such testimonial, shall wilfully exceed the time above 14 days, every such idle and wandering soldier or mariner, as also every other idle person wandering as soldier or mariner, which shall forge any such testimonial, or have with him such testimonial forged, knowing the same to be forged, every such act shall be felony without clergy, 39 El. c. 17. s. 3. [See 32 G. 3. c. 45. s. 7. pl. 32.]

4. The justices of assize, justices of gaol delivery, and the justices of peace having power to hear and determine felonies, may hear and determine all such offences in their general sessions, and execute the offenders: except some honest person valued at the last subsidy to 10l. in goods, or 40s. in lands, or else some honest freeholder, as by the justices shall be allowed, will be contented, before such justices, to take them into his service for one year, and will be bound by recognizance of 10l. to H. M., if he keep not the person for one year, and bring him to the next session for the peace, and gaol delivery after the year: and if such person depart within the year, without the licence of him that retained him, then to be adjudged as a felon, and not have benefit of clergy, id. s. 4.

5. Provided that if any such idle and wandering person fall sick by the way, so that he cannot travel within the time limited in his testimonial, no such to be within the danger of this statute, so as he settle himself in some lawful course within convenient time after the recovery of his sickness, id. s. 5.

6. When any such soldier or mariner shall repair to the place of his dwelling or birth, according to the testimonial, and cannot get work; upon complaint made by such soldier or mariner, to 2 justices of peace, they shall take order to set him to some honest labour; and for want of such work, such 2 justices shall tax the hundred for the relief of such soldier, &c., id. s. 6.

7. If any such soldier or mariner on landing shall not go the direct way to the place whither he is going, he shall resort to some justice of peace and make known his poverty, such justice shall license such soldier or mariner to pass the next way to the place where he is to repair, and limit him so much time as shall be necessary for his travel thither; and he pursuing his licence, may for his necessary relief ask the relief that any person shall willingly give him, id. s. 7.

8. This act shall not work any corruption of blood in the heirs of any offender, id. s. 8.

9. FOR THE DUE EXECUTION OF THE LAWS HERETOFORE MADE against rogues, vagabonds, and sturdy beggars, and other lewd and idle persons, 7 J. 1. c. 4. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4.; REP. as to privy search, 12 A. St. 2. c. 23.]

10. Former laws against rogues and vagabonds shall be executed, 7 J. 1. c. 4. s. 1.

11. There shall be provided within every county in Eng. or Wa., one house of correction, together with mills, turns, cards, and other implements, to set rogues and other idle persons to work, which houses shall be conveyed unto such person as the quarter sessions for each county shall appoint in trust, to be employed in keeping and setting rogues on to work, id. s. 2.

12. The justices at their quarter sessions, shall elect one or more to be governor or master of the house so to be provided, who shall set such rogues, vagabonds, idle and disorderly persons, as shall be sent to such house, to work, and punish them by putting fetters or gyes upon them, and by moderate whipping; and such rogues, &c. during such time as they shall continue in the house of correction, shall not be chargeable to the county, but shall have such allowance as they shall deserve by their own labour, id. s. 4.

13. The masters of the houses of correction shall have such sums of money yearly, as shall be thought meet by the justices at the quarter sessions, to be paid quarterly beforehand by the treasurers appointed by 43 El. c. 2. s. 14., [which seems REP. by 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 22.; see COUNTY RATE, pl. 24.] (such master giving security for the performance of the service); which if the treasurer shall neglect, the master shall levy the same in such manner as by such statute the treasurers are appointed to levy the weekly payment, id. s. 6.

14. Wilful people having children, and being able to labour, and running away out of their parishes, shall be deemed incorrigible rogues; and if such man or woman, being able to work, shall threaten to run away and leave their families, the same being proved by 2 witnesses before 2 justices of peace, they shall be sent to the house of correction (unless they put in sureties for discharge of the parish) to be dealt with as a sturdy wandering rogue, and to be delivered at the meeting or quarter sessions, 1 J. 1. c. 4. s. 8. [See 5 G. 1. c. 8. Poor, pl. 189., 17 G. 2. c. 5. ss. 1, 2. pl. 27, 29.]

15. If the masters of the houses of correction shall not every quarter sessions yield account unto the justices of all persons committed to their custody; or if the persons committed shall be troublesome to the country, by going abroad, or otherwise escape from the house of correction; such justices shall set fines upon the master, which shall be paid to the treasurer, id. s. 9.

16. FOR THE DUE APPREHENSION OF VAGRANTS and other idle and disorderly persons, and for rewarding persons who shall apprehend them, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. ss. 16—18. 20. 23.; [See the rest of this act, Poor, pl. 245., and the note there as to its being in force or not. This title is framed from these sections.]

17. Any justice of the peace to whom any rogue, vagabond, or sturdy beggar shall be brought, may reward any person who shall apprehend any rogue, &c., by giving him an order or warrant, under hand and seal, to the constable, headborough, and tithingman of such parish, through which such rogue, &c. passed, without being apprehended, requiring him to pay such person 2s. [See as to this reward, 17 G. 2. c. 5. ss. 1, 5. pl. 27., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 2. pl. 36.] for each rogue, &c. so apprehended; and if such constable shall refuse, such justice or another may proceed against such constable, &c., according to the 39 El. c. 4. and 1 J. 1. c. 7., [both acts REP., 12 A. St. 2. c. 25.], to compel him to pay the sum he has forfeited under the 1 J. 1. c. 7., and allow thereof such 2s., and an allowance for loss of time, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 16. [See 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 5. pl. 34.]

18. If any person shall apprehend any rogue, &c. at the confines of any county, which passed through any parish of another county unapprehended, such person may go before some justice of such last-mentioned county, who shall (on certificate, under the hand of some justice of the county where such rogue was apprehended) grant such order as in 4. 16. pl. 18.; and in case such constable, &c. shall refuse to pay the same, such justice shall proceed against him, and cause him to pay 10s., or so much thereof as such justice shall think fit to such person, which such constable forfeited under 39 El. c. 4. id. s. 17. [See 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 5. pl. 34. s. 34. pl. 73.]

19. All constables, headboroughs, and tythingmen, out of purse, by relieving, conveying with passes, and carrying rogues, &c. to the house of correction, together with the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, and other inhabitants of such parish, may tax all persons chargeable under 43 El. c. 2. s. 1. [Poor, pl. 1.] within such parish, and which rate being confirmed under the hands and seals of two justices, such constables, &c. may, by like warrant from such justices, levy by distress and sale of the goods of the party refusing to pay the same, id. s. 18.

20. Persons sued under this act may plead general issue, and if they obtain a verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinued, they shall have treble damages, id. s. 20.

21. The justices in every county in Eng. and Wa. in quarter sessions, may transport such rogues, vagabonds, and sturdy beggars, as shall be adjudged incorrigible, to the Eng. plantations, beyond seas, id. s. 25. [See a similar power given to the president, &c. of the workhouse established under this act, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 6. Poor, pl. 248. But see now, 17 G. 2. c. 5. ss. 4. and 9. pl. 33. 50.]

22. ALL LEWD AND DISORDERLY MEN, SERVANTS, AND EVERY idle person, both men and boys, who are deemed rogues, vagabonds, and sturdy beggars (not being felons) by 39 El. c. 4. [which was REP. 12 A. St. 2. c. 25.] shall be taken up and conveyed into H. M.'s sea service, as by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18. [Exp.] directed, 2 & 3 A. c. 6. s. 16.

23. THE JUSTICES, CHIEF MAGISTRATES, TREASURER and constables, and other officers residing in liberties and towns corporate, having quarter sessions distinct from the county, and separate treasurers, shall, in the certifying and conveying of passengers, vagabonds, beggars, and other idle persons, and raising and paying of money, act in such liberties, &c. as they are by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18. [which is Exp.] and 1 A. St. 1. c. 13. [which is REP. by 17 G. 2. c. 5. ss. 16. 17.] in counties at large, 5 & 6 A. c. 32. s. 5.

24. FOR PASSING ROGUES AND VAGABONDS, 14 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3. [For rest of title, see BRIDGES, pl. 29. PRISONS, pl. 102.]

25. Any justice of peace may send any person apprehended as a rogue, &c. to the house of correction in the county where he dwells, or to any other house of correction in the same county, as shall be most convenient for passing such persons, id. ibid.

26. TO AMEND AND MAKE MORE EFFECTUAL THE LAWS relating to rogues, vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly persons, 17 G. 2. c. 5. [AMD. 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 12.; and as to the expences of passing vagrants, 26 G. 2. c. 54. s. 2. and EXT. to persons having implements of house-breaking, 23 G. 3. c. 88.; and further AMD. 32 G. 3. c. 45.; and passes and rewards DISCONTINUED, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64, which will expire 1st Sept. 1822, id. s. 9.]

27. All persons who threaten to run away and leave their wives or children to the parish, and all persons who unlawfully return to such parish or place from which they have been legally removed, by order of 2 justices of peace, without bringing a certificate from the parish whereunto they belong, and all persons not having wherewith to maintain themselves, live idle, and refuse to work for the usual wages, and all persons going about from door to door, or placing themselves in the streets, highways, or passages, to beg alms in the parishes where they dwell, shall be deemed idle and disorderly persons; and any justice may commit such offenders (being convicted by his own view, or by confession, or by the oath of one witness), to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month; and any person may apprehend and carry before a justice any such persons going about from door to door, or placing themselves in streets, highways, or passages, to beg alms in the parishes where they dwell; and if they resist or escape, they shall be subject to the same punishment as rogues and vagabonds are made liable to by this act; and such justice, by warrant, under his hand and seal may order any overseer of the poor of the parish or place where such offender is apprehended, to pay 5s. to any person apprehending them, for every offender so apprehended, [see as to this reward, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 2. pl. 36.] which shall be allowed to such overseer in his account, he producing the justice's order, and a receipt under the hand of the person to whom such sum was paid; but if such overseer neglect to pay such sum, such justice, on oath thereof made, may, by like warrant, order the same to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such overseer; who in such case shall not be allowed the sum so levied in his account, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 1.

28. If it is made appear to any 2 justices that any poor person shall not use proper means to get employment, or if he is able to work, by his neglect of work, or by spending his money in alehouses or places of bad repute, or in any other improper manner, shall not apply a proper proportion of his earnings towards the maintenance of his wife and family, whereby they become chargeable to the parish, he shall be considered an idle and disorderly person, and be subject to punishment as such, under the 17 G. 2. c. 5., 32 G. 3. c. 45. s. 8.

29. All persons going about as patent gatherers, or gatherers of alms under pretences of loss by fire or other casualty, or going about as collectors for prisons or hospitals, all fencers and bearwards, all common players of interludes, and all persons who for hire or reward act or cause to be acted any interlude or entertainment of the stage, or any part therein, not being authorized by law; all minstrels, jugglers, all persons pretending to be gypsies, or wandering in the habit of Egyptians, [See GYPSY,] or pretending to have skill in physiognomy, palmistry, or like crafty science, or pretending to tell fortunes, or using any subtle craft to deceive, or playing or betting at unlawful games, and all persons who run away and leave their wives or children chargeable to the parish, and all petty chapmen and pedlars wandering abroad, not being licensed or authorized by law, and all persons wandering abroad, and lodging in alehouses, barns, out-houses, or in the open air, not giving a good account of themselves, and all persons wandering abroad and begging, pretending to be soldiers, mariners, seafaring men, or pretending to go to work in harvest, and all others wandering abroad and begging, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 2.

30. Every person who shall be apprehended, having upon him any picklock key, crow, jack, bit, or other implement, with intent feloniously to break and enter any dwelling-house, warehouse, coach-house, stable, or out-house, or shall have any pistol, hanger, cutlass, bludgeon, or other offensive weapon, with intent feloniously to assault any persons, or shall be found in or upon any dwelling-house, &c. or in any inclosed yard, garden, or area belonging to any house, with intent to steal any goods, such person shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond within the 17 G. 2. c. 5., 23 G. 3. c. 88.

31. This act shall not extend to soldiers wanting subsistence, having certificates from their officers or the secretary at war, or to seafaring men licensed by some testimonial under the hand and seal of some justice of peace, setting down the time and place of their landing or discharge, and the place to which such soldiers or mariners are to pass, and the names of the chief towns through which they are to pass, and limiting the time of their passage while they continue in the way to the place to which they are to pass, and during the time so limited; or to any person going abroad to work in harvest, so as he carry with him a certificate signed by the minister and one of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish where he inhabits, declaring that he hath a dwelling-house or place there, in which he inhabits, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 3.

32. Soldiers and mariners wandering abroad and begging, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds within 17 G. 2. c. 5. notwithstanding any certificate from their officers, or the secretary at war, or any testimonial under the hand of a justice of peace, 32 G. 3. c. 45. s. 7. [See 39 El. c. 17. s. 3. pl. 3. and 43 G. 3. c. 61. pl. 76.]

33. All end-gatherers offending against 13 G. 1. c. 23. [For the regulation of woollen manufactories] and being convicted, and all persons apprehended as rogues and vagabonds, and escaped from the persons apprehending them, or refusing to go before a justice, or to be examined upon oath, or to be conveyed by any such pass as is herein-after directed, or knowingly giving a false account of themselves, after warning given them of their punishment, and all rogues and vagabonds who break or escape out of any house of correction before the expiration of the term for which they were committed, and all persons who, after having been punished as rogues and vagabonds and discharged, again commit any of such offences, shall be deemed incorrigible rogues, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 4. [See 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 23. pl. 21.]

34. Any person may apprehend offenders against this act, and convey to some justice the persons so apprehended, to be proceeded against as is herein-after directed; and in case any constable or other such officer refuse or neglect to use his best endeavours to apprehend or convey to some justice any such offender, it shall be deemed a neglect of duty, and he shall be punished as is herein-after directed; and in case any other person charged by any justice so to do, refuse or neglect to use his best endeavours to apprehend and deliver to the constable, or such other officer, or to carry such offender before some justice, where no officer can be found, being convicted upon view, or by the oath of one witness, before a justice, he shall forfeit 10s. to the use of the poor of the parish; to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant from any justice; and in case any person, not being a constable or officer, apprehend any such rogue or vagabond, and deliver him to a constable or other officer, or convey him to some justice, according to this act, or if any constable or other such officer, so apprehend and convey such rogue or vagabond, such justice may reward any such constable or other person, by making an order under hand and seal upon the high constable to pay 10s. to the person so apprehending him, within one week after demand, and producing such order, and giving a receipt; and the same shall be allowed by the treasurer of the county or liberty to such high constable, on his passing his accounts and delivering such order and receipt, and also his own receipt for the same, to such treasurer; and such justices, at the general or quarter sessions, shall allow the same to such treasurer in his accounts, upon his producing such vouchers; and in cities and places where there are no high constables, such petty constables and other officers shall pay or retain such reward, and be allowed it by virtue of this act, in their respective accounts, upon their producing and delivering up their like vouchers; and in case any high constable, or where there is no high constable, such petty constable or other officer neglect to pay such reward on demand, such justice, by like warrant, may levy the sum of 20s. by distress and sale of the goods of such officer, and thereout allow to the person entitled the reward of 10s. and such other recompence for his trouble, time, and expences, as such justice thinks fit, id. s. 5.

35. No justice shall order any reward to be paid to any constable or other person for apprehending any rogue or vagabond, until such rogue, &c. has been punished, as in s. 1. pl. 27., and until the examination required by 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 7. pl. 40. has been transmitted to the sessions, to be filed on record, 32 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2.

36. No person shall claim from any justice any order for any sum or reward for apprehending and carrying before such justice, or delivering to any constable or other person, any rogue, &c. nor shall any justice order any sum to be paid in that behalf, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 2.

37. When any rogue, &c. is apprehended, and brought before any justice of peace, or is apprehended and delivered to any constable or other such officer by any person, (not being a constable or other such officer) such justice may, in his discretion, by warrant under his hand and seal, order any overseer of the parish or place where the act of vagrancy was committed, to pay any sum not exceeding 5s. for every offender so apprehended; which sum he shall be allowed in his accounts on producing such order, and the receipt of the person, to whom it was paid, for the same; and if such overseer neglect to pay it, such justice, on oath thereof made, may by like warrant levy the same by distress and sale of his goods, returning the overplus after charges of distress and sale deducted, and in such case such sum shall not be allowed him in his accounts, id. s. 3.

38. The justices for every county, town corporate, division, or liberty, or any 2 of them shall, 4 times in the year, or oftener if need be, meet in their respective divisions, and by their warrant command the constables or other peace officers of every hundred, parish, town, and hamlet, (who shall be assisted with sufficient men of the same places) to make a general privy search in one night throughout their several limits, for the apprehending of rogues and vagabonds; and every justice shall, on receiving information that rogues and vagabonds are in any place within his jurisdiction, issue his warrant to the constable or other officer of such place, to search for and apprehend them; and such rogues and vagabonds as they apprehend upon such searches, they shall cause to be brought before any justice of peace of the same county, &c. 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 6.

39. Two justices in any county, city, or liberty, if any person apprehended upon any general privy search, or by virtue of a special warrant, shall be charged before them as a rogue and vagabond, or an idle and disorderly person, or with suspicion of felony, though no direct proof be then made, may examine him on oath as to the place of his last legal settlement, and as to his means of livelihood; the substance of which examination shall be put in writing, and signed by the person examined, and such justices, who shall transmit it to the next quarter sessions, to be filed of record; and if such person has not any lawful means of livelihood, or shall not procure some responsible housekeeper to appear to his character, and give security for his appearance on a day to be fixed, if the same is required, such justices may commit such person to prison for not exceeding 6 days, and in the mean time order the overseers of the poor to insert an advertisement in some public paper, describing such person, and the things found upon him, and suspected not to have been honestly come by, and mentioning the place where he is committed, and the time and place of his re-examination; and if no accusation is then laid against him, he shall be discharged, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 12.

40. Where any rogues or vagabonds, apprehended by any constable or other person, or upon such search, are brought before any justice, such justice shall inform himself, by the examination upon oath of the person apprehended, or of any other person, of the condition and circumstances of the person so apprehended, and of the parish where he was last legally settled; the substance of which examination shall be put into writing, and be signed by the person examined, and by such justice, who shall transmit it to the next general or quarter sessions, there to be filed on record, and such justice shall order all such persons so apprehended to be publicly whipt by the constable, petty constable, or tithing-man, or some other person appointed by such constable, &c. of such parish or place where such persons were apprehended; or order such persons to be sent to the house of correction until the next general or quarter sessions, or for any less time; and after such whipping or confinement, such justice may, by a pass under hand and seal, as hereafter directed, cause such persons to be conveyed to the place of their last legal settlement; but if it cannot be found, then to the place of their birth; or if such persons be under the age of 14 years, and have any father or mother living, then to the place of abode of such father or mother, there to be delivered to some churchwarden or overseer of the poor; which pass shall be in the form or to the effect following:

'To the constable of — in the county of — or to the tithingman, or other officer, (as the case is; or if the offender is committed to the house of correction, then to the governor or master thereof,) and also to all constables and other officers whom it may concern, to receive and convey, and to the churchwardens, chapelwardens, or overseers of the poor of the parish (town, or place, as the case is) of — in the county of — or either of them, to receive and obey.

'Whereas — was (or were) apprehended in the parish of — (or in the town, or — or other place, describing it) as a rogue and vagabond, (or as rogues and vagabonds,) viz. wandering and begging there (or as the case shall be), and upon examination of the said — taken before — upon oath (which examination is hereunto annexed), it doth appear that his (her, or their) last legal settlement is at — in this county, (or in the county of —) [or, that the said — was (or were) born in the parish of — in this county (or in the county of —) and hath (or have) not since obtained any legal settlement] [or that the said — is (or are) under the age of 14 years, and hath (or have) a father and mother living at abiding in the parish (or town) of — (or other place,) describing it.] These and therefore to require you, the said constable, or other officer, (or governor or master of the house of correction, as the case shall be) to convey the said — in the next direct way to the said parish (or town) of — (or other place) within the said county, and there to deliver him (her, or them) to some churchwarden, chapelwarden, or overseer of the poor of the same parish, (town, or place,) to be there provided for according to law, [or in case the said parish, town, or place, to which such person is to be sent, lies in some other county or franchise, having separate general or quarter sessions of the peace, then the form shall be as followeth, viz. to convey the said — to the parish (or town) of —, that being the first parish (or town) in the next precinct through which he (she, or they) ought to pass in the direct way to the said parish, (or town) of — to which he (she, or they) is (or are) to be sent, and to deliver him (her, or them) to the constable or other officer of such first town (or parish) in such next precinct, together with this pass, and the duplicate of the examination of the said — taking his receipt for the same; and the said — is (or are) to be thence conveyed on in like manner to the said parish (or town) of — there to be delivered to some churchwarden, chapelwarden, or overseer of the poor of the same parish (town, or place) to be there provided for according to law.] And you, the said churchwardens, chapelwardens, and overseers of the poor, are hereby required to receive the said person (or persons) and provide for him (her, or them) as aforesaid, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 7. [See, as to suspending vagrant passes, in cases of sickness, 35 G. 3. c. 101. s. 2. Poor, pl. 228., and see also passes abolished for a time, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 1. pl. 45.]

41. When any justice of peace shall order to be conveyed by pass under his hand and seal, any rogue or vagabond, according to 17 G. 2.

s. 5. & 7. pl. 40.; such rogue or vagabond, shall be either publicly whipped, or be sent to the house of correction until the next general or quarter sessions, or for such less time as such justice shall think proper, not being less than 7 days, and such justices shall certify in such person's pass, that the same has been done; provided no person shall be so whipped or imprisoned unless he has committed an act of vagrancy within such act, 59 G. 3. c. 45. s. 1. [But see now 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 4. pl. 46.]

42. Whenever any female shall be guilty of any offence for which she shall be convicted as a rogue or vagabond, or incorrigible rogue before any justice or sessions, the punishment of whipping shall not be inflicted on her, id. s. 3.

43. The judges at assizes, and the justices at sessions, or any justice of peace, may order any convict upon his discharge from prison to be conveyed by pass, under hand and seal, according to the 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 7. pl. 40.; and the judge, justice or justices, may also convey by pass any person acquitted at such assizes or sessions, or discharged by proclamation or otherwise, who shall apply to the court whereat acquitted or discharged, or to any justice to be so conveyed; and such judge, &c. shall certify in such pass, that such person was so discharged from prison, or acquitted, or otherwise discharged at the assizes or sessions; and no fee shall be paid for such pass, id. s. 4.

44. The general or quarter sessions for any county, riding, city, place, &c., or any adjournment thereof, may make an order that all rogues and vagabonds apprehended within their respective counties, &c., and who are ordered to be conveyed by pass, shall be conveyed by the master of the house of correction, or his servants, or by a constable, as such sessions or any adjournment thereof shall think proper; and may also make an order, that all constables to whom rogues or vagabonds brought from another county, &c. are delivered, shall forthwith convey them to the nearest house of correction in their county, &c., to be forwarded by the master as aforesaid, according to the provisions of the 17 G. 2. c. 5., id. s. 5.

45. All provisions heretofore made, and now in force, for passing any rogue, vagabond, vagrant or incorrigible rogue, or other idle and disorderly person to his place of legal settlement or birth, or abode of his father or mother, shall cease; and from 1st Sept. 1821, [until 1st Sept. 1823, id. s. 9.] no justice shall grant any pass, or give any directions for the conveyance of any rogue, &c. to any such place or grant any walking or permissive or other pass, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 1.

46. No justice, except the justices in general or quarter sessions, shall commit any rogue, &c. to any gaol or house of correction for any time exceeding 3 months, or less than one month, unless the offender is so committed to remain until the sessions; and offenders so committed shall be kept to hard labour; but any justice or justices before whom any person apprehended as a rogue, &c. is brought, may in his discretion either commit or discharge such person, although an act of vagrancy be proved against him, id. s. 4.

47. Provided that whenever it appears to 2 justices, that any person apprehended as a rogue, &c., and directed to be discharged without committal, or to 2 visiting justices of any gaol or house of correction where any person has been committed to and discharged from gaol, necessary that such persons, or any of them, ought to be passed as vagrants to their places of birth, settlement, or abode of their fathers or mothers, such justices may pass such persons as before this act, id. s. 7.

48. This act shall not affect the 59 G. 3. c. 12. [see Poore, pl. 97.], or the mode of passing poor persons born in Scot. and Ire., and the isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, who may become chargeable to the parishes in Eng., or the laws in force for the removal of poor persons not having committed any act of vagrancy, id. s. 8.

49. Such justice shall make a duplicate of such pass and examination, and sign the same; and shall transmit the duplicate of such pass annexed to the examination, to the next general or quarter sessions, there to be filed on record; and shall annex the duplicate of the examination to the pass, and send it with the same; and such pass, examination, and duplicates, may be read in any court of record in Eng., Wa., or Ber., as evidence, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 8.

50. Where any offender against this act is committed to the house of correction until the next general or quarter sessions, and the justices at such sessions adjudge such person a rogue or vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue; they may order such rogue or vagabond to be kept in such house of correction to hard labour for any further time not exceeding 6 months; and such incorrigible rogue, for any further time not exceeding 3 years, nor less than 6 months from the making such order of sessions; and during such confinement, to be corrected by whipping, in such manner and at such times and places within their jurisdictions as they think fit; and such person may afterwards be sent away by such pass, mutatis mutandis, as in s. 7. pl. 40.; and if such person, being a male, is above the age of 18 years, the justices at their sessions may, at any time before he is discharged, send him to be employed in H. M.'s service, either by sea or land. And in case any such incorrigible rogue, so kept in the house of correction, before the expiration of the time for which he or she is so detained, break out or escape therefrom, or offend again in like manner, such person shall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted, shall be transported for any time not exceeding 7 years, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 9.

51. The justice who makes the pass shall, at the same time, cause likewise to be delivered to the constable, or other officer appointed to convey them, a certificate, ascertaining how they are to be conveyed, by horse, cart, or on foot, and what allowance such officer is to have for conveying them, (according to the rates appointed by the general or quarter sessions of the peace, as is herein after directed) in the form, or to the effect following, viz.

'Whereas by a pass (reciting the substance of the said pass) I (or we) do hereby order and direct the said person (or persons) to be conveyed on foot, (or in a cart, or by horse, &c.) to the said town (or parish) of — in — (or other place, describing it) in the way to such parish (town or place, as the case shall be) in — day's time; for which the said constable (&c.) is to be allowed the sum of — and no more. Given under my hand (or our hands), this — day, &c. id. s. 10.

52. The constable, or officer who receives such pass and certificate, shall convey the person named in such pass in such manner, and in such time, as by the same pass is directed, the next direct way to the place where he or she is to be sent, if such place be in the same county or franchise where such person was apprehended; but if the place to which the person so apprehended is to be sent lies in some other county or franchise, he shall deliver such person to the constable or other such officer of the first town or place in the next county or franchise, in the direct way to the place to which such person is to be conveyed, together with such pass and duplicate of examination, taking his receipt for the same; and such constable, or other officer, shall without delay apply to some justice of peace in the same county or franchise, who shall make the like certificate as before (mutatis mutandis) and deliver it to such constable or other officer, who shall convey the person unto the first parish or place in the next county or franchise, in the direct way to the place to which such person is to be conveyed; and so in like manner from one county or franchise to another, till they come to the place to which such person is sent; and the constable or other officer who delivers such person to the churchwarden, or other person ordered to receive him by such pass, shall deliver such pass with the duplicate of examination, taking their receipt for the same; and if the churchwarden or person who receives any person so sent think the examination to be false, he shall carry the person so sent before some justice of peace, who, if he see cause, may commit such person to the house of correction, till the next quarter sessions; and the justices there, if they see cause, may deal with such person as an incorrigible rogue, but the person so sent shall not be removed from the place to which sent, but by order of 2 justices, in the same manner as other poor persons are removed to the place of their settlement, id. s. 11.

53. Any justice of peace, before whom any vagrants are carried, may order such vagrants to be searched, and their bundles to be inspected by the constable, tithingman, churchwarden, or overseer of the poor, in the presence of such justice; and if it appear, that any such vagrants have sufficient to pay their passage, either in the whole or in part, to the parish to which they belong, then such justice shall order so much of the money to be paid, or other effects found upon such vagrants to be sold, and employed towards the expence of taking up and passing such vagrants, returning the overplus after deducting the charges of such sale to such vagrants, id. s. 12.

54. The constable, or other officer of any parish or place in the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Durham, or town of Berwick, shall, upon any person being delivered to them by a pass and examination, who has been apprehended in such counties or town, or brought to them according to this act, whose place of legal settlement is in Scot., deliver such examination to the clerk of the peace for such respective county, to be kept among the records of the sessions of that county, and convey such person, with such pass, into the next adjoining shire, stewartry, or place in Scot., and deliver him to some constable or other officer of the next parish or district within such shire, &c. taking his receipt for him, and such officer shall receive such person, and give such receipt, and dispose of him according to law; and in case any such vagrant, after being so sent into Scot., be found wandering, begging, or misbehaving in Eng., he shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, and be punished as such, id. s. 13.

55. Every master of any ship or packet-boat bound for Ire., the isles of Man, Jersey, Guernsey, or Scilly, shall, upon warrant to him directed, under the hand and seal of any justice of the peace of the county or place where such ship lies, take on board the same such vagrants as be named in such warrant, and convey them to such place in Ire., the isles of Man, Jersey, Guernsey, or Scilly, as such ship is bound to, or shall arrive at; and for the charges thereof, such master shall take, and the constable or person who serves him with such warrant shall pay him such rate per head, as the justices at quarter sessions appoint; and such master shall, on the back of such warrant, sign a receipt for the money, and also for the vagrants; which warrant, so indorsed, shall then be produced to the justice who signed and sealed the same, and upon his allowance thereof, under his hand, the money so paid shall be repaid by the county, in such manner as by this act the money to be paid for conveying vagrants is directed; and every master of such ship neglecting to receive or transport such vagrants, or to indorse and sign such receipt, shall forfeit 5l. to the use of the poor of the parish, to be levied by distress and sale of the ship, or any goods within the same, by like warrant of any justice for the same county, &c., 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 14.

56. Provided that no master of any ship be compelled to take on board more than one vagrant for every 20 tons burthen of such ship, id. s. 15.

57. The justices of any county, &c. shall, at the general or quarter sessions, appoint what rates per mile, or otherwise, shall be made for the passing or maintaining of rogues, vagabonds, or incorrigible rogues, and may likewise make such other orders for the more regular proceeding therein, within their respective jurisdictions, as they think proper; which rates and orders shall be observed by all justices, constables, and other persons within the same jurisdiction, id. s. 16. and 32 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6.

58. In case any petty constable, or other such officer of any parish, or place, bring to any high constable any such certificate, as in s. 10. pl. 51. ascertaining how or for what rates he is required to convey any vagabonds, &c., together with a receipt from any constable, or other person to whom the person so to be conveyed was delivered, such high constable shall pay unto such petty constable the rates ascertained by such certificate, taking from such petty constable such certificate, and his receipt for the same; and such high-constable shall be allowed the same by the treasurer of the county, &c. on his passing his accounts, upon his producing and delivering up such certificate and receipt, and giving his own receipt to such treasurer; and the justices at the general or quarter sessions shall allow the same to such treasurer in his accounts, upon his producing and delivering up such vouchers, and in case any high constable neglect to pay such petty constable, or other person, such rates ascertained by such certificate and receipt, on demand, any justice, by warrant, may levy double such sum, by distress and sale of such high constable's goods, and thereout allow such petty constable, or other person, the sum so ascertained, and such other recompence for his trouble, time, and expences, as such justice thinks fit; and the overplus shall be returned to such high constable upon demand: and in cities and places where there is no high constable, such petty constables or other officers shall be allowed what they so pay, pursuant to such certificate, in their accounts, upon their producing and delivering up such vouchers; or in case any master of a house of correction deliver such certificate and receipt to any treasurer, such treasurer shall pay the rates therein ascertained to such master, taking his receipt, which shall be allowed to such treasurer in his accounts, on his producing and delivering up such vouchers, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 17.

59. All rogues, vagabonds, and incorrigible rogues, sent by passes from one county, corporation, franchise, &c. into another, shall be delivered to the constable or other such officer of the first town, parish, or place in the next county, &c., and shall be by him conveyed forward, as in 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 7. pl. 40. directed; and the treasurer of each county, &c. shall pay to such constable, &c. the charges of conveying such rogues, &c. upon such constable producing to him the certificate and such other vouchers as are by such act (s. 17. pl. 58.) required; and the sums so paid shall be allowed such treasurer in his accounts, upon producing such vouchers, together with such constable's receipt, 26 G. 2. c. 34. s. 2.

60. In case any such petty constable, or other officer or master of any house of correction, counterfeit any such certificate, receipt, or note, or make, or knowingly permit to be made, any alteration therein, he shall forfeit 50l.; and in case he convey not the persons to the place where they ought to be conveyed, or deliver them not to the proper person, or if any constable or other person refuse to receive any such persons sent to them, or to give a receipt as before directed, such constable or other person shall forfeit 20l., which respective forfeitures shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant of the justices where such offence is committed, at their general or quarter sessions; one moiety to be paid to the person who first makes information, and the other to the treasurer of the county or place, to be applied as part of the public stock; and the overplus shall be returned to such constable, &c. upon demand, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 18.

61. The parish or place to which any rogue, vagabond, or incorrigible rogue, is so conveyed, by pass, shall employ in work, or place in some workhouse or almshouse, the person so conveyed to them, until he or she betake themselves to some service or employment; and in case any such person refuse to work, the overseers of the poor of such parish may cause such person to be carried before some justice of the peace, in order to be sent to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour, id. s. 19.

62. Where persons by lunacy or otherwise are furiously mad, and dangerous to be permitted to go abroad, 2 justices where such lunatic is found, by warrant directed to the constables, churchwardens, and overseers of the poor of the parish or place, may cause such person to be apprehended, and kept safely locked up in some secure place within the county or precinct, as such justices direct, and, if such justices find it necessary, to be there chained, if the last legal settlement of such person be in any place within such county; and if such settlement be not there, such person shall be sent to the place of his last legal settlement, by a pass, mutatis mutandis, as in s. 10. pl. 51., and shall be locked up or chained, by warrant of 2 justices of the county or precinct to which such person is to be sent, and the charges of removing, and of maintaining, and curing such person during such restraint (which shall be for such time only as such madness continues) shall be paid (being first proved upon oath) by order of 2 justices, directing the churchwardens or overseers where any goods, lands, or tenements, of such person be, to seize and sell so much of the goods, or receive so much of the rents of the lands as is necessary to pay the same, and to account for what is so seized, sold, or received, to the next quarter sessions; but if such person hath not an estate to pay the same, over and above what is sufficient to maintain his or her family, then such charges shall be paid by the parish or place to which such person belongs, by order of 2 justices directed to the churchwardens or overseers, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 20. [See 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 19. IDIOT AND LUNATIC, pl. 82.]

63. This act shall not abridge the prerogative of H. M., or the power of the lord chancellor, or the chancellor or vice-chancellor of the county palatine of Lancaster, or of the chamberlain or vice-chamberlain of the county palatine of Chester, concerning such lunatics, or restrain any friend or relation of such lunatics from taking them under their own care, id. s. 21.

64. In case any constable or other officer or master of any house of correction be negligent in his duty in the execution of this act, in any case for which no punishment is particularly provided, or in case any person disturb the execution of this act, or rescue any person apprehended or passing by virtue thereof, or be assisting to his or her escape, and be thereof convicted, upon the oath of one witness, before a justice, where such offence is committed, the person so offending shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 5l. nor less than 10s. to the use of the poor of the parish, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant from such justice; and if sufficient distress cannot be found, such justice may commit the person so offending to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding 2 months, id. s. 22.

65. If any person shall knowingly permit any rogue, vagabond, or incorrigible rogue, to lodge in his or her house, barn, or other out-house or building, and shall not apprehend and carry such vagabond, &c. before some justice, or give notice to some constable, or other officer so to do, such person being thereof convicted, either on confession or upon oath of one witness before a justice where such offence is committed, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 40s. nor less than 10s. one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of his parish, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant from such justice; and if any charge be brought upon any parish or place, by means of any such offence, the same shall be answered to such parish by such offender, and be levied by distress and sale of goods; and if sufficient distress cannot be found, such offender shall be committed to the house of correction by the justice, for any time not exceeding one month, id. s. 23.

66. "And whereas persons are often found offending against this act having children with them," if any such child above the age of 7 years be committed to the house of correction, the justices at the quarter sessions, if they see convenient, at any time before such child be discharged, may order such child to be placed out in such manner as they think fit, as a servant or apprentice to any person within their jurisdictions, who is willing to take such child, to serve such person till such child arrive at the age of 21 years, or for any less time; and if any offender who was found with such child, be again found with the same child, (which was so placed out) offending against this act, such offender shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, id. s. 24.

67. "And whereas women wandering and begging are often delivered of children in parishes to which they do not belong," where any such woman is so delivered and becomes chargeable, the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of such parish or place, may detain such woman in their custody until they can safely convey her to some justice of the peace, who shall examine her, and commit her to the house of correction, until the next general or quarter sessions, who may (if they see convenient) order her to be publicly whipt, [no female shall be whipt for any offence against this act, 39 G. 3. c. 45. s. 3. pl. 42.] and detained in the house of correction, for any further time, not exceeding 6 months; and upon application by the churchwardens or overseers of the place where she was delivered, the justices at such sessions shall order the treasurer of the county or district to pay them such a sum as is adjudged a satisfaction for the charges such place has been put to

on such women's account; and if such woman be detained and conveyed to a justice, the child of which she is delivered, if a bastard, shall not be settled in the place where so born, but the settlement of such woman shall be deemed the settlement of such child, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 25.

68. Any persons aggrieved by any act of any justice out of sessions, concerning the execution of this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the county, &c., giving reasonable notice thereof, whose order thereupon shall be final, id. s. 26.

69. In all cities and towns, where by special acts of parliament the charge of passing vagrants is to be defrayed in other manner than is by this act directed, or where such vagrants, by virtue of special statutes, are to be apprehended and conveyed to the places whither they are to be sent by any persons or officers, other than those named for that purpose in this act, such charge shall be defrayed in such cities and towns as before the making of this act; and the person or officer liable to such service in such cities and towns, by the said special acts of parliament, shall continue liable. And if any person be delivered to a beadle or constable within the city or liberties of the city of London, to be conveyed on, as directed by this act, such beadle or constable shall not deliver such person in any other precinct within such city or liberties, but in the next county, as directed by this act, id. s. 27.

70. Where any persons offending against this act, have been committed to the house of correction, until the next general or quarter sessions, if, upon the examination of the persons so committed, no place can be found to which they may be sent by a pass, such justices shall at such sessions order such persons to be detained and employed in the house of correction, until they can provide for themselves, or until the justices at sessions can place them out in some lawful calling, as servants, apprentices, soldiers, mariners, or otherwise, either within this realm, or H. M.'s colonies of America, which sessions may do in such manner as they think fit, id. s. 28.

71. This act shall not prejudice the heirs or assigns of John Dutton, of Dutton, late of the county of Chester, Esq., concerning the liberty which they lawfully may use within the county palatine of Chester, and county of Chester, id. s. 29.

72. To defray the expences of apprehending, passing, conveying, and maintaining rogues, &c. and likewise the expence of erecting, purchasing, altering, hiring, &c. houses of correction, and for purchasing land to build them on, and of fitting up and purchasing the same, and of sending persons to and from the same, and employing them therein according to this act, and all other expences, the justices at quarter sessions shall cause such sums as may be necessary, to be raised as county rates, as in 12 G. 2. c. 29. directed, id. s. 33. [See COUNTY RATE.]

73. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict passes against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited or discontinues, the defendant shall have treble costs. The 13 G. 2. c. 24. and all acts repealed by that act hereby Rev., id. s. 34.

74. When any justice of peace shall commit any person apprehended as a rogue, vagabond, vagrant, or idle, or disorderly person, to the house of correction till the next general or quarter sessions, such justice may require the person by whom the offender is apprehended to become bound in recognizance to H. M., to appear at such sessions to prosecute, and give evidence against such offender touching his offence, and the justices at such sessions shall, at the request of any person so bound, and who shall appear to prosecute and give evidence, order the treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place in which the offence was committed, to pay to such prosecutor and witnesses such sum as they deem reasonable for their expences and loss of time, which order the clerk of the peace shall make out and deliver to the prosecutor, on payment of 1s., and such treasurer shall, on sight thereof, pay the same, and be allowed it in his accounts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 5.

75. When any such offender who has been committed to gaol or house of correction is duly discharged therefrom, the visiting justices of such gaol, &c. may order such portion of his earnings during his confinement, or such sum to be paid by the gaoler or keeper to such offender, as such justices think fit; which sum shall be repaid to such gaoler, &c. by the treasurer of the county, &c. id. s. 6.

76. FOR RELIEF OF SOLDIERS, SAILORS, AND MARINES, AND OF SOLDIERS' WIVES IN CERTAIN CASES, as relates to Eng., 43 G. 3. c. 61. [See 58 G. 3. c. 92. Addenda.]

77. Every soldier or marine duly discharged out of any regiment, and every sailor duly discharged from any H. M.'s ships, carrying his discharge by the 3d day at latest from its date to the mayor or chief magistrate of the city, town, port, or corporate place, nearest to, or within 15 miles from his place of discharge, shall receive from the latter a certificate under his hand, stating the place to which such discharged person wishes to go, being his home or legal settlement; with the time to be fixed not exceeding 10 days for every 100 miles, and so in proportion, except for a reasonable cause therein expressed; and such person having and producing to such persons as lawfully demand to see the same such discharge and certificate, and being in his route accordingly, both as to time and road, shall not by asking relief, be deemed a rogue or vagabond within 17 G. 2. c. 5. or 32 G. 3. c. 45.; provided every such discharge bears the true date of time and place where given, and shall express the sum (if any) then paid to such soldier or sailor, 43 G. 3. c. 61. s. 1.

78. The wife of any non-commissioned officer or soldier ordered for foreign service, making due proof of not being permitted to embark with her husband before the mayor, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 77., or of any other city, &c. at which the regiment may be on its march, under orders for embarkation, shall receive from such mayor, &c. a certificate under his hand and the corporate seal of such city, &c. stating the place to which she is desirous of going, being her home or legal settlement, with the time to be fixed, not exceeding 10 days for 100 miles, and so in proportion, except for a reasonable cause expressed in the certificate, which person on producing the same, and being in her route as in s. 1. pl. 77., shall not be deemed rogue or vagabond within either of such acts, id. s. 2.

79. In case of accident or sickness duly proved, which shall prevent the person having such certificate from proceeding on his or her journey according to its terms, the chief magistrate of any other city, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 77. where such person shall be or arrive, may grant a new one, stating the true reasons for granting it, and containing the like provisions, and shall annex the same to the former, id. s. 3.

80. Admiralty or war-office certificates, or passes granted as heretofore to discharged sailors, soldiers, or marines, or to the families of such persons serving abroad, or lately deceased, shall have the same effect as the above certificates, and the terms thereof may be extended in any instance where necessary by a new certificate, as in s. 3. pl. 79., id. s. 4.

VESTRY. (See POOR.)

(STATUTE expired.)

FOR REGULATING SELECT VESTRIES, 15 C. 2. c. 5. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE REGULATION OF PARISH VESTRIES, 58 G. 3. c. 69. (To extend only to Eng. and Wa. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 11.) [AMD. 59 G. 3. c. 85.]

2. No vestry or meeting of the inhabitants in vestry of or for any parish shall be holden until public notice shall have been given of such vestry, and of the place and hour of holding the same, and the special purpose thereof, three days before the day to be appointed for holding such vestry, by the publication of such notice in the parish church or chapel on some Sunday, during or immediately after divine service, and by affixing the same on the principal door of such church or chapel, 58 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.

3. And for the more orderly conduct of vestries, in case the rector or vicar, or perpetual curate shall not be present, the persons so assembled shall forthwith appoint, by plurality of votes, to be ascertained as hereinafter directed, one of the inhabitants to be the chairman of and preside in every such vestry; and in all cases of equality of votes the chairman shall (in addition to such vote or votes as he may, by virtue of this act, be entitled to give in right of his assessment) have the casting vote; and minutes of the proceedings and resolutions of every vestry shall be fairly entered in a book (provided by the churchwardens and overseers), and shall be signed by the chairman, and by such other of the inhabitants present as shall think proper to sign the same, id. s. 2.

4. In all such vestries every inhabitant present who shall, by the last rate made for the relief of the poor, have been assessed in respect of any annual rent, profit, or value not amounting to 50s., shall give one vote; amounting to 50s. or upwards (whether in one or in more than one charge) shall be entitled to give one vote for every 25s. in respect of which he shall have been assessed; so that no inhabitant shall give more than 6 votes; and where 2 or more of the inhabitants present shall be jointly rated, each shall vote according to the proportion which shall be borne by him of the joint charge; and where only one of the persons jointly rated shall attend, he shall vote according to the whole of the joint charge, id. s. 3. [See pl. 12—14.]

5. And when any person shall have become an inhabitant of any parish, or become liable to be rated therein, since the making of the last rate, he shall be entitled to vote in respect of the property for which he shall have become liable to be rated, and shall consent to be rated in like manner, as if he should have been actually rated for the same, id. s. 4.

6. No person who shall neglect to pay any rate for the relief of the poor, which shall be due from, and have been demanded of him, shall be entitled to vote, or to be present in any vestry until he has paid the same, id. s. 5.

7. "Whereas the word 'and' was inserted by mistake in the 58 G. 3. c. 69. s. 5, IT IS ENACTED," that no person who shall neglect to pay any rate for the relief of the poor, due from and demanded of him, shall vote or be present at any vestry of the parish for which the rate was made, till such rate is paid, 59 G. 3. c. 85. s. 5.

8. As well the books hereby directed to be provided and kept for the entry of the proceedings of vestries, as all former vestry books, and all rates and assessments, accounts and vouchers of the churchwardens, overseers of the poor, and surveyors of the highways, and other parish officers, and all certificates, orders of courts and of justices, and other parish books, documents, writings, and public papers of every parish, except registry of marriages, baptisms, and burials, shall be kept by such person, and deposited in such place and manner as the inhabitants in vestry shall direct; and if any person in whose custody the same shall be, shall wilfully or negligently destroy, obliterate, or injure the same, or suffer the same to be destroyed, obliterated, or injured, or shall, after reasonable notice and demand, neglect to deliver the same to such person, or to deposit the same in such place as shall by the order of any such vestry be directed, he shall, on conviction, on confession, or on the oath of one witness before 2 justices of peace, upon complaint thereof made, forfeit not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 40*l.*, as such justices shall adjudge; and the same shall be levied by warrant in such manner as poor rates may be, and be paid to the overseers and applied for the relief of the poor; but nevertheless, every person who shall unlawfully retain in his custody, or refuse to deliver to any person authorized to receive the same, or who shall obliterate, destroy, or injure, or suffer to be obliterated, &c. any book, rate, assessment, &c. paper belonging to any parish, or to the churchwardens, overseers of the poor, or surveyors of the highways thereof, may be proceeded against in any courts, civilly or criminally, as if this act had not been made, 58 G. 3. c. 69. s. 6.

9. All provisions in this act in relation to parishes shall extend to all townships, villis, and places having separate overseers, and maintaining their poor separately, and all the directions herein, in regard to vestries, shall be applied to all meetings which may by law be holden of the inhabitants of any parish, township, vill, or place, for any of the purposes in this act expressed; and the notices hereby required to be given of every vestry may, in places in which there shall be no parish church or chapel, or where there is not divine service, be given in such manner as notices of the like nature have been there usually given, or as shall be most effectual for communicating the same to the inhabitants, id. s. 7.

10. Nothing in this act shall alter the time of holding any vestry, parish, or town meeting which is by the authority of any act required to be holden on any certain day, or within any certain time; nor shall any thing in this act affect the powers of any vestry or meeting holden by virtue of any special act, of any ancient and special usage or custom, or change or affect the manner of voting in any vestry or meeting so holden, id. s. 8.

11. Nothing in this act shall extend to any parish within London, id. s. 9.; or the borough of Southwark, id. s. 10.; But only to Eng. and Wa., id. s. 11.

12. Any person rated for the relief of the poor in respect of any annual rent, profit, or value arising from any lands, tenements, or hereditaments situate in any parish, in which any vestry is holden under 58 G. 3. c. 69., although such person shall not reside in, or be an inhabitant thereof, may be present at such vestry, and be entitled to give so many votes at such vestry, in respect of the amount of such rent, or value, as by such act, any inhabitant of such parish, present at such vestry, might, as if such person were an inhabitant of such parish, 59 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1.

13. In all cases where any corporation, or company of such corporation, &c. shall be charged to such rate, either in the name of such corporation, or of any officer of such corporation, the clerk, secretary, steward, or other agent duly authorized, may at such vestry, be present at any vestry; and such clerk, &c. shall be entitled to give at such vestry such and so many votes, in respect of the amount of the rent, &c. of such lands, &c. as by 58 G. 3. c. 69. any inhabitant assessed to such rate present might, id. s. 2.

14. No clerk, secretary, steward, or agent, shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any vestry, unless all rates which have been assessed in respect of the annual rent, &c. in right of which any such clerk, &c. shall claim to be present and vote, which shall be due, and which have been demanded before the meeting of such vestry shall have been paid, id. s. 3.

VICTUALS.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. THE SEVERAL PRICES OF A CAPON, HEN, PULLET, and goose, (viz. a young capon 3*d.*, an old one 4*d.*, a hen 2*d.*, a pullet 1*d.*, and a goose 4*d.*, 37 Ed. 3. c. 3. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 21. s. 1.]

2. THE MAYOR OF London, and chief officers of towns corporate, shall be sworn to observe the foregoing ordinance, touching fishmongers and victuallers, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 12. [REP. 7 R. 2. c. 11.]

3. JUSTICES SHALL REGULATE THE GAINS OF victuallers, 13 R. 2. St. 1. c. 8. s. 3, 4. [CONF. 4 H. 4. c. 25. and both acts, REP. 21 J. 1. c. 21. s. 1.]

4. CONCERNING BAKING OF HORSEBREAD, 39 H. 8. c. 41. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 21. s. 1.]

1. STATUTE OF THE PILLORY AND TUMBREL, 51 H. 3. St. 6.

2. If a baker or a brewer be convict because he hath not observed the assize, the first, second, and third time, he shall be amerced according to his offence, if it be not over grievous; but if the offence be grievous and often, he shall suffer punishment of the body, viz. a brewer to the tumbrel, or some other correction. First, six lawful men shall be sworn truly to gather all measures of the town, viz. bushels, half and quarter bushels, gallons, pottles, and quarts, as well of taverns as of other places; measures and weights, viz. pounds, half pounds, and other little weights, wherewith bread of the town or of the court is weighed; and upon every measure, bushel, and weight, the name of the owner shall be written; and likewise they shall gather the measures of mills: after which twelve men shall swear to make true answer to all such things as shall be demanded of them in H. M.'s behalf upon articles here following; and such things as be secret, they shall utter secretly, and answer privately; and the bailiff shall be commanded to bring in all bakers and brewers with their measures: and, first, they shall inquire the price of wheat, how a quarter of the best wheat was sold the last market-day, and how the second wheat, and how the third, and how a quarter of barley and oats; after, how the bakers bread doth agree; also upon how much increase or decrease in the price of wheat a baker ought to change the assize and weight of his bread; also for default in the weight of the bread a baker ought to be amerced, or to be judged unto the pillory; also if any steward or bailiff, for any bribe, doth release punishment of the pillory and tumbrel, id. s. 1.

3. Also if they have in the town a pillory as appertains to the liberty of the market, which they may use without bodily peril; next they shall inquire of the assize and price of wine after the departure of the justices in eyre of the town, or of them that were last in office of the market, viz. of the vintners' names, and how they sell a gallon of wine, and also of corrupted and unwholesome wine; also of the assize of ale in the court of the town, and how it is, and whether it be observed, and if not, what brewers have sold contrary thereto, and they shall present their names; and they shall be amerced for every default, or be judged to the tumbrel, id. s. 2. [See pillory abolished, 56 G. 3. c. 138.]

4. Also if there be any that sell by one measure and buy by another; and if any do use false yards, weights, or measures; also if any butcher do sell bad flesh or that died of murrain, or if any buy flesh of Jews and sell it to Christians; also of cooks that seethe flesh or fish, with bread or water, or otherwise, that is not wholesome, and after it is kept so long that it loseth its wholesomeness, and then seethe it again and sell it; also of forestallers that buy any thing before the due hour, or that pass out of the town to meet such things that come to the market, buying out of town, with intent that they may sell the same more dear than they could who brought them, and in case it had come to market, id. s. 3.

5. When a quarter of barley is sold for 2*s.* then 4 quarts of ale shall be sold for 1*d.*; when for 2*s.* 6*d.* then 7 quarts of ale for 2*d.*; when for 3*s.* then 3 quarts of ale for 1*d.*; when for 3*s.* 6*d.* then 5 quarts 2*d.*; and when for 4*s.* then 2 quarts for 1*d.*; and so on as the price shall increase or decrease after the rate of 6*d.*, id. s. 4. [See BEER AND ALE.]

6. NO OFFICER OF A CITY OR BOROUGH SHALL SELL WINE OF victuals during his office, 12 E. 2. St. 1. c. 6. [SUPERSEDED BY 3 H. 8. c. 8. pl. 12.]

7. NO VICTUALLER SHALL EXECUTE A JUDICIAL PLACE in a city or town corporate, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 9. [QU. REP., 7 R. 2. c. 11. pl. 9.]

8. Neither in London nor in other cities, boroughs, or town, or seaport, shall any victualler exercise any judicial office, except in towns where no other sufficient person can be found; and in such case he shall abstain from victualling, on pain of forfeiting the victuals sold, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 9. [SUPERSEDED BY 3 H. 8. c. 8. pl. 12.]

9. All the statutes of 5 R. 2. cc. 4, 5, and 6 R. 2. cc. 7, 11, 12. (and QU. c. 9.) concerning victuallers, &c. shall be REP. Vintners, victuallers, and fishmongers in London shall be under the rule of the mayor and aldermen, 7 R. 2. c. 11.

10. FOR ANNULLING OF LETTERS-PATENT made to searchers and surveyors of victuals, 12 E. 4. c. 8.

11. All letters-patent granted to any persons for searching or surveying of wine, beer, ale, or other victuals, shall be void; and persons exercising such grants, other than the mayors, &c. of cities and towns, shall forfeit 40*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the person suing by action of debt, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. ibid.

12. CONCERNING THE ASSIZING AND SETTING OF PRICES OF victuals, 3 H. 8. c. 8.

13. When any victualler chosen to bear any office within any city, borough, or town corporate, which should have been the assessing and correction of selling of victuals, then 2 persons of the same city, &c. shall be chosen by the commonalty thereof, in like form as such victualler was, who shall be sworn to set the price of victuals there, so long as such victualler shall remain in office; and such officers, after the same victuals be set by him, and such 2 persons, may sell wines and other victuals, in gross or in retail, whilst in office, the 12 E. 2. c. 6. notwithstanding, 3 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1.

14. This act shall not extend to the cities of London, York, and Coventry, for wine or victuals to be sold therein, id. s. 2.

15. OF PROCLAMATION TO BE MADE CONCERNING VICTUALS, 25 H. 8. c. 2.

16. On complaint made of any enhancing the prices of victuals, the prices shall be assessed by H. M.'s chancellor, counsellors, justices, and officers, and who shall afterwards make proclamation under the great seal thereof, id. s. 1.

17. All farmers, owners, broggers, and all other victuallers, shall sell their victuals at the price set by such proclamation, upon the pains to be therein expressed, to be forfeited to H. M.'s use, and levied as in proclamation mentioned, id. s. 2.

18. This act shall not be hurtful to mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, and other officers of cities and towns corporate, or other persons or bodies, having authority to set prices on such victuals, id. s. 3.

19. CONCERNING HOSTLERS AND INNOLDERS, 21 J. 1. c. 21.

20. No hostler or innholder shall make horsebread in his hostrey nor without, but bakers shall make it, and the assize shall be kept, and weight given after the price of grain in the market; and hostlers or innholders shall sell their hay, oats, provender, and all kinds of victuals, both for man and beast, for reasonable gain, according to the neighbouring markets, without taking any thing for litter, id. s. 2.

21. Every hostler or innholder, dwelling in a town or village, and being no city, town, corporate, or market-town, where there is [no, QU. this word omitted in the act?] baker dwelling, may make horsebread in his house according as the price of grain is, id. s. 3.

22. If any hostler or innholder, making such bread, shall not make it of the usual price and of due assize, or if they offend herein, the justices of assize and oyer and terminer, &c. and the justice of peace and sheriffs in their turn, and stewards in their leets, may enquire of the same; and for first offence, shall fine them at discretion; for the second, shall imprison them without bail for one month; and for the third, they shall stand in the pillory; and for the fourth, shall be prejudged for keeping any inn, id. s. 4. [See pillory abolished, 56 G. 3. c. 138. PILLORY.]

VIEW.

1. IN WHAT CASES THE VIEW ON LAND IS GRANTABLE, and what not, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 48. Stat. Incert. Temp. xxiv. Stat. at Large 8vo. ed. 414.

2. View shall not be granted but where the view is necessary; as if one lose land by default, and moveth a writ to demand the same land; and where one by an exemption dilatory abateth a writ after the view, as by non-tenure, or misnaming of the town, &c. if he purchase another writ in this case, and in the case before mentioned, the view shall not be granted, if he had view in the first writ. In a writ of dower, where the demand is of land that the husband aliened to the tenant or his ancestors, though the husband died not seized, yet view shall not be granted. In a writ of entry also that is abated, because the demandant misnamed the entry, if he purchase another writ of entry, if the tenant had view in the first writ he shall not have it in the second. In all writs also where lands be demanded by reason of a lease, made by the demandant or his ancestor unto the tenant, and not to his ancestor, as that which he leased to him being within age, not whole of mind, being in prison, &c. view shall not be granted; but if the demise were made to his ancestor, view shall lie as before, 13 E. 1. (Stat. West. Sec.) c. 48.

3. View shall not be granted in a writ of ward, in a writ of customs and services, in a writ of advowson of a church, but in case when there be more churches than one in a town, and all of one saint, in a writ of dower and in a nuper obiit, Stat. Incert. Temp. xxiv. 8vo. ed. 414.

4. IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT IN ANY COURT OF RECORD at Westminster, where it appears to the court in which such action is depending, that it will be necessary that the jurors, who are to try the issue, should have a view of the messuages, lands, or place in question, then such courts may order special writs of distringas or habeas corpora to issue, by which the sheriff or such other officer, to whom the writ is directed, shall be commanded to have six out of the first 12 jurors named in the writ, or some greater number at the place in question, some time before the trial, who shall then and there have the matter in question shown them, by two persons in such writ named, to be appointed by the court; and such sheriff or officer, who is to execute such writ shall by a special return on the same, certify that view had been had according to such writ, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 8.

1. THE STATUTE OF WALES, 12 Ed. 1. [NOTE.—The following digest of this instrument or statute, has been carefully compared with the Latin record, claus. 12 E. 1. dorso in Turr. Lond., printed in the appendix to Hawkins's Statutes, and also with its digest by Mr. Williams, but from the obscure nature of many of its provisions, much hath been omitted, which will not, it is hoped, be found material; particularly as no English translation of the whole hath yet been made in the Statutes at Large. The general effect of this statute, is stated in the preface to Wotton's Leges Wallicæ, thus:—Quo sancitum erat ut in actionibus criminalibus veluti furti, latrocinii, homicidii et similibus, et in causis hereditariis de rebus immobilibus leges Wallicæ (excepto solummodo veteri partitionis jure, see now 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. ss. 91. 128. pl. 182.) locum non haberent. In actionibus autem de rebus mobilibus sicut de contractibus, debitis, fidejussionibus, &c. lege Wallicæ uti permiscuum erat; Uxores in posterum dotatas fore et feminas ob heredum masculorum defectum, hæreditatum jura consecuturas statuit. And see Reeves's Hist. E. Law, c. 9. Barrington on Statutes, 121., &c. and the learned notes in 1 Stat. at Large, 8vo ed. 146-7. [Rep. virtually as to s. 2., by 27 H. 8. c. 5., &c. (see note to that section); as to s. 13. (as to appeal) and ss. 14, 15, by 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.]

2. The justice of Snowden shall have the keeping of the King's peace in Snowden and the lands of Wa. adjacent, and shall do justice to all, according to the King's original writs and the laws and customs within written, 12 Ed. 1. s. 2. [Seemingly superseded by 27 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1. for making justices of peace in Wa., and by 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26., for appointing (inter alia) justices for the Welsh counties, as there arranged in circuits, and by id. s. 53. as extended by 5 W. & M. c. 4. See infra, pl. 146.]

3. There shall be sheriffs, coroners, and bailiffs of commotes* in Snowden, (s. 3.) &c. viz. the sheriff of Anglesea, (s. 4.) of Carnarvon, (s. 5.) of Merioneth, (s. 6.) and of Flint, who shall be intendants to the justice of Chester, and answer for the issues of their counties at the exchequer there, id. s. 7.

4. There shall be coroners in the same counties to be chosen by the King's writ, id. s. 8.

* A commote is a portion of land equal to one fourth of a cantred, Girald. Camb. cap. 2. Cantred is from cant a hundred, and tre a town. Barrington, 125.

5. There shall be bailiffs of the commotes, who shall faithfully and diligently perform their duties, as enjoined them by the justices and sheriffs, 12 E. 1. c. 9.

6. There shall be sheriffs of Carmarthenshire and of Cardiganshire, and coroners and bailiffs of commotes in those countries as before, id. s. 10.

7. The sheriff shall exercise his office in this form, viz. when any one complains of any trespass done to him against H. M.'s peace, whether it be of the taking and unjust detaining of cattle, or de namio vetito, or of debt or other contract not kept, &c. by or without writ, he shall first take pledges of prosecuting or by his faith, if he be poor, and afterwards make execution thus: the defendants in every case shall be summoned to be at the next county [court] to answer the plaintiffs, at which county, the summons being made and witnessed, if they come not, they shall be again summoned, and so for 3 times; at which third summons, if they come not, the plaintiffs by consideration of the county, as well in pleas by writ as complaints without writs, shall recover their demands with their damages, as well in moveables as immoveables; for which defaults, pain shall be incurred to H. M., according to the laws and custom of Wa. [see this enforced, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 64. pl. 155. and 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 22. pl. 156.] and when the parties appear, they shall proceed to judgment by consideration of the county, id. s. 11.

8. The county [court] ought to be held in this manner, viz. from month to month, in the place where H. M. shall order, and thus: on Monday in one county, [seemle Anglesea] on Tuesday in another county, [seemle Carnarvon] on Wednesday in the 3d county, [seemle Merioneth] and Thursday in the 4th county, [seemle Flint] and not on other days, and the sheriff shall thus hold his county, id. s. 12. [Qu. if now in force?]

9. First, he shall hear and receive before him and the coroners and suitors of the county, the presentments of felonies and casualties which shall have happened between the 2 counties [courts], of the death of man, thus: the 4 next towns to the place where the manslaughter or casualty shall have happened, shall come to the next county with the finder and the Walescherie or kindred of the man slain, and shall there present the fact and manner of it, saying that such a day and place it happened; that such a one, known or unknown, was found slain by felony, or drowned or dead by misfortune; and such a one found him, who is present, &c. and this presentment shall be inrolled, as well in the roll of the coroner, as in that of the sheriff, id. s. 13.

10. The sheriff shall make his turn in every commote * twice in the year, &c. to which turn all the freeholders and residents shall come, except clerks and women; and by the oath of 12 freeholders, or more, shall enquire of the underwritten heads touching the crown, id. s. 16.

11. Of seductores [deceivers, Ainsworth] of the king, and realm, of the queen, and their children, and their consenters, id. s. 17.

12. Of thieves, manslaughterers, robbers, murderers, and felonious burners, their receivers and consenters, &c. id. s. 18.

13. Also of rights withdrawn from H. M., and of those who have appropriated to themselves royal rights without warrant, &c. id. s. 19.

14. The sheriff in his turn shall first call before him all the people of the commote *, and cause them to swear, that they will present the truth to the 12, or more, jurors elected by the sheriff, &c. id. s. 20.

15. The sheriff in taking of verdicts shall not seek occasion against the presenters, nor take fines of them for not taking occasion against them, id. ss. 21, 22.

16. There shall also be in every commote * in Wales, one coroner at least, to be chosen by H. M.'s writ in full county, &c. id. ss. 23—26.

The writ of Novel Disseisin.

The king to the sheriff of Anglesea greeting; A. hath complained to us, that B. and C. have unjustly, and without judgment, disseised him of his freehold in N. after our peace proclaimed in Wales in the 11th year of our reign; we therefore command you, that if the said A. make you secure of prosecuting his claim, you shall cause that tenement, &c. to be in peace until a certain day, which our justice shall make known to you, &c. Dated at Carnarvon, &c. or elsewhere, id. ss. 27—30.

17. There shall be letters patents made in these words, until H. M. order otherwise:

The king to his justice greeting; know ye that we have constituted you our justice, together with those whom you shall think fit to be associated to you, to take assizes of novel disseisin and mort d'ancestor in the parts of Wales; and therefore we command you, that at certain days and places which you shall to this appoint, you take those assizes, doing therein what to justice shall appertain, according to the law and custom of our realm, &c., id. s. 31.

18. A common writ, which in some case toucheth the right, and in some case the possession:

The king, &c. command A. that justly, &c. he render to B. the maner of N. with the appurtenances, which the said A. to him deforceth, as he saith; and unless he do it, and the aforesaid B. make you secure of prosecuting his claim, then summon by good summoners the aforesaid A. that he be before our justice, &c. 12 E. 1. ss. 34, 35.

19. In like manner the writ shall be granted before the justices in the bench, if the demandant will, id. s. 36. [And see ss. 37—40.]

20. Writs of debt shall not be granted to be pleaded before the justice, of a less sum than 40s.; but pleas of debt, which amount to 40s., shall be pleaded in the county, and in the commote *, id. s. 41.

21. The form of a writ of attornment:

The king to the sheriff greeting; know that A. hath attorned before us B. and C. to gain or lose in a plea which is before you by our writ, between him the said A. demandant, and D. tenant, of a messuage with the appurtenances in N., and therefore we command you, that you receive the said B. and C. or either of them, if both cannot be present, instead of the said A. &c. id. s. 47. [And see ss. 48—54.]

22. In a writ of mort d'ancestor the proceedings shall be thus: pledges being found to prosecute, and the assize elected, and view had by the jurors, the tenant shall be summoned by 2 good summoners, that he be before the justice at a certain day, &c. and the summons shall contain 15 days at least, at which day, if he come, the justice shall proceed; and if he come not he shall be punished for his default, according to what is contained in the law of Wales, viz. by 3 cows, or the price of them; and he shall be resummoned by other summoners, &c. at which day, whether he come or not, the justice shall proceed, unless he cause himself to be essoined de ultra mare, and then shall be given him the space of 40 days, that he may have ebb and flode; but if he be within the four seas, and falsely esoin himself de ultra mare, and be convict thereof by good proof or enquiry, he shall be punished as for a default by the amercement which is contained in the law of Wales, and he shall be precluded from saying any thing against the assize, unless he can vouch to warranty, id. s. 55.

23. In no writ of plea of land lieth any esoin, but only the esoin de ultra mare, and this before the tenant or deforciant appear in court, and the esoin de servitio domini regis, which lies at any time of the plea when H. M. will warrant it; but if he who causeth himself to be essoined de servitio domini regis, fail of H. M.'s warrant, he shall be punished for his default by amercement according to the law of Wales, and shall refund to his adversary the costs of the day by the discretion of the justice, id. s. 56.

24. In the writs of mort d'ancestor, the proceedings shall be thus; the writ being first read, in which is contained the demand of the demandant, the deforciant shall be asked if he can say any thing wherefore the assize ought to remain, which, if he cannot, the justice shall take the assize, id. ss. 57, 58.

25. The deforciant may say many things against the assize, viz. that the ancestor, of whose death, &c. committed felony, for which he was hanged, or confessed the felony before the coroner, &c. abjured Wales, id. ss. 59—62.

26. Of pleas which are determined by inquests or juries, some are of immoveables as of tenements, some of moveables as of debts and chattels, some of both, some of trespasses; but first of immoveables, id. ss. 63, 64.

27. When the deforciant appears, because the demand of the demandant cannot be known by the words of the writ, inasmuch as there are many, and as it were an infinite number of differences, the demandant must count against the deforciant, and express the nature of his demand, and this by words containing the truth, not observing that hard custom, qui cadit à syllabâ, cadit à totâ causâ, id. s. 65.

28. When by the affirmance of the one party, and the denial of the other, they are descended to a lawful issue, the plea shall be determined by verdict of the inquest; because pleas of land in those parts are not determined by battle, nor by the great assize, id. s. 66.

29. Of moveables viz. of debt, the defendant shall be summoned to be before the justice at a certain day, at which, if he come not, he shall be again summoned, and if he come not at the second day, nor esoin himself, the debt shall be adjudged to the demandant by default, together with his damages by the discretion of the justice, or by inquest of the country, at the will of the justice. If the debtor come, the plaintiff must declare his demand, viz. that he is bound to him in 100 marks, &c. or for things sold, or of other contracts, upon which he must produce suit, or the writing obligatory, or shew a tally; then the debtor shall answer, and if he acknowledge the debt, it shall be adjudged and levied of his lands and chattels, &c. If he deny the debt, and his obligation be brought forth against him, the writing must be verified by the witnesses named in the writing, if they be living, together with the country, and if there be no witnesses named, or if they be dead, it shall be verified by the country alone. If the plaintiff have no obligation, but only produce suit or tally, the adverse party may defend that he is not bound to him, and defend this by the law, viz. by his own oath, together with 11 swearing with him, or by the country, at his election, id. s. 67.

30. If the debtor allege payment, he must shew an acquittance; or the demandant may defend by the law, that he hath received nothing, or by the country, 12 E.1. s.68.

31. This writ of debt shall not be granted of a less sum than 40s., id. s.69.

32. In a writ of covenant, if at the second summons the defendant come not, nor is essoined, the petition of the demandant shall be heard, and the thing in demand shall be taken, if it be a tenement, into the hand of H. M.; and if it be a chattel, it or the value thereof shall be taken into H. M.'s hand, and another day shall be given, &c., id. ss. 71, 72.

33. In some case an action lies to demand a tenement by writ of covenant, and in some case money or damages, or the tenement, id. s. 73. [And see ss. 74, 75.]

34. In personal trespasses, the plaintiff shall swear, before the justice near him, that his action exceeds the sum of 40s., id. s. 76. [And see ss. 77—87.]

35. Inheritances shall remain partible among heirs-males, as it hath been accustomed, but bastards shall have no part, id. s. 88. [But now such partition abolished, 34 & 35 H.8. c. 26. ss. 91. 128. pl. 182., and 37 H.8. c. 26. s. 2. pl. 64.]

36. LORDS OF THE MARCHES OF Wa. shall be attending to the crown of Eng., as they and their ancestors have always been, and not to the principality of Wa., 28 E. 3. c. 2.

37. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF JURORS IN THE lordship marchers of Wales, [now divided into counties, 27 H.8. c. 26. s. 3. pl. 65.] 26 H.8. c. 4.

38. On the charge given to any inquest taken and sworn before any justicer, steward, lieutenant, or other officer within Wa., or the marches of the same, for or upon any traverse against H. M., or the trial of any recognizance broken, or other forfeiture to H. M., or upon the trial of any murder, felon, or accessory of felony or murder, one officer or other person shall be deputed, and in the presence of such justicer, &c. and sworn for the keeping of such jurors, who shall not without the special command of such justicer, &c. suffer to be ministered to such jurors, any bread, drink, meat, fire, or light, nor suffer them to speak to any persons, nor shall such officer, without commandment, speak to them, but only to demand their agreement until they have given their verdict; and if he do not execute the premises, he shall be punished, and imprisoned, and make fine and ransom to H. M., in discretion of such justices, &c., id. s. 1.

39. If the jurors acquit any such felon, murderer or accessory, upon whose trial they are charged, or give any untrue verdict against H. M., on such trials, contrary to evidence of witnesses sworn before such justicer, &c. or if they eat, drink, or speak with any persons, other than such as be sworn with them, or otherwise misdeemean themselves after they are sworn, and before verdict given them the lord president and other of the council of the marches, upon notice thereof, may not only call such jurors, before them, [the court of the marches abolished, 1 W. & M. S.1. c. 27. s. 2. pl. 213.] such justices, &c. before whom such untrue verdict is given, but also shall have power to compel such jurors, upon pain of imprisonment, to be bound by recognizance in a certain sum, to be limited by their discretion, that such jurors shall personally appear at a certain day, by such justicer, &c. to be limited, before the lord president, &c. and there stand to such direction and order as such council shall decree; which council may, by examination or otherwise, hear and determine such cause, and commit such jurors to prison, or other punishment as they think most meet, or otherwise, at their discretion, impose on them a fine, to be levied of their lands, goods, &c. to the use of H. M., id. s. 2.

40. THAT MURDERS AND FELONIES COMMITTED WITHIN any lordship marches in Wa. shall be enquired of at the sessions holden within the next adjoining shire grounds, and for administration of justice therein, 26 H.8. c. 6. [Rep. as to s. 12. by 8 El. c. 20. CONF. as to s. 6. by 34 & 35 H.8. c. 26. s. 83.]

41. All persons dwelling within Wa., or in the lordships marchers, upon such warning as hath been used, shall appear before the justice or other officer, at every sessions and court in any place within Wa., or the jurisdictions of the lordships marchers, and shall give their personal attendance; on pain of such fines and amerçiaments, as shall be assessed by the justice or other officer, to H. M.'s use, if it be within any of H. M.'s lordships marchers, and if it be within any other lordships marchers, then to the use of the lord; the said forfeitures to be levied by distress, 26 H.8. c. 6. s. 1. [But see all forfeitures given to the king, 34 & 35 H.8. c. 26. s. 76. pl. 167.]

42. If any steward, or other officer of any lordship marcher, do sign or procure any untrue surmise against any person that shall give attendance before them at such courts, and upon the same commit them contrary to law; upon suit of H. M.'s commissioners, they shall have power to send for such steward or officer, and also for the person imprisoned; and if he can prove that his imprisonment was without cause, shall assess the officer to pay to the person wrongfully imprisoned 6s. 8d. for every day, id. s. 8.

43. The commissioners shall set further fine upon the officer to be paid to H. M.; and in case he refuse to appear before the commissioners, they shall set on him such fine as is thought convenient, and compel him by imprisonment, as well to pay such fine, as to pay to every person so imprisoned such sums as they shall be ceased for their wrong imprisonment, 26 H.8. c. 6. s. 3.

44. No person dwelling in Wa., or the lordships marchers, repairing to any court within Wa., &c. shall bring to the court, or within 2 miles from the same, nor to any town, church, fair, market, or other congregation (except it be upon a hue or outcry of felony) nor in the highways, in affray of the king's peace, or people, any bill, long-bow, cross-bow, hand-gun, sword, staff, dagger, halberd, morespike, spear, or other weapon, privy coat or armour; upon pain of forfeiture of the armour, and to suffer imprisonment, and make fine and ransom to H. M., by the discretion of the commissioners of his marches, except it be by the assent of the said justices, or other officer, or of the commissioners of the marches, id. s. 4. [But court of marches is abolished, 1 W. & M. S.1. c. 27. s. 2. pl. 213.]

45. No person, without licence of the commissioners in writing, shall within Wa. or the marches, or in any shires adjoining, levy any commorth, bydale, tenants ale, or other collections, under colour of marriage, or suffering of their children saying or singing the gospels, or for redemption of any murder or felony, or other cause; nor shall make any games of running, wrestling, leaping, or other games (shooting excepted) on pain of one year's imprisonment, and such fine as by the commissioners shall be thought convenient; and the commissioners shall have power to hear and determine the said offences by their examination; and no person shall cast any thing into any court within Wa., or in the lordships marchers, by name of an arthei, [or vouchee to clear him of a felony, Jac. Dict.] by reason whereof the court may be disturbed, on pain of one year's imprisonment, id. s. 5.

46. All courts within Wa. or the lordships marchers shall be kept within the surest place, where the justice shall appoint. And for the punishment and speedy trials of felonies, &c. committed within any lordship marcher of Wa., the justices of gaol delivery, and of the peace, in the shires of Eng., where H. M.'s writ runneth, next adjoining to the lordship marcher, or other places in Wa., where such felonies shall be committed, shall have power to enquire by verdict of 12 men of the same shires within Eng. there to cause all such felons, &c. to be indicted according to the laws of this land, in like manner as if the felonies, &c. had been committed within the said shires in the realm; and to hear, determine, and judge the same, id. s. 6.

47. All foreign pleas pleaded by any of the said malefactors shall be tried and determined in the said shires; and the acquittal or fine making (as in s. 1.) for any of the causes aforesaid in any of the lordships marchers, shall be no bar for any person being indicted in the said shires within 2 years after such felony done, id. s. 7.

48. The said justices of peace and gaol delivery shall have power to award process, as well of outlawry as otherwise, against offenders so indicted, according to the laws of Eng.; and they, or 2 of them, before whom any such offender shall be outlawed, shall send unto H. M.'s officers of his lordships marchers, or to their deputies, or unto the lords marchers, or their officers, where such offence shall be done, or where such offender shall be resistant, a certificate under seal of such outlawry, commanding them, under pain of 100*l.*, to apprehend and attach the bodies of the offenders, and keep them till such time, before the next sessions of gaol delivery of the shire, where such offenders shall be outlawed or attainted, as shall be thought expedient to convey such offenders, by indenture to be made between the deliverers and the receivers, from one lordship marcher to another, and unto the time that such offenders be delivered before the said justices of gaol delivery, upon pain of 100*l.*, id. s. 8.

49. Every officer or lord to whom any certificate shall be directed as abovesaid, shall, at the next sessions and gaol delivery, after attachment of such offenders, return the certificate, and what they have done in that behalf, on the pain aforesaid; saving to all offenders all exceptions to the outlawry as accustomed, id. s. 9.

50. If any person indicted, outlawed, or attainted, by force of this act, find sureties before the justices of gaol delivery, that he shall not commit any felony or felonious offence, nor be accessory to any felony, &c. but at all times be of good behaviour; the justices shall for one time only, admit such offender to a fine, and discharge him of every such felony, murder, &c. so that he stand not appealed of the said offence; and such offender shall be for the same offences done within any of the lordships marchers discharged, id. s. 10.

51. This act shall not abridge any liberties of any lord marcher, unless the offenders be indicted or attainted by force of this act within 2 years after such felonious offence committed, id. s. 11.

52. Every officer, on command given by the commissioners, shall bring or deliver every offender to the officer of the lordship marcher, or other place, where any such offence shall be committed on the bounds of the said lordships, or to the said commissioners, as he is commanded, under pain of 40*l.*, id. s. 13.

53. FOR MAKING JUSTICES OF PEACE IN WALES, 27 H. 8. c. 5.

54. 99. Wa. shall be divided into 12 shires: 8 ancient shires, viz. Glamorgan, Carmarthen, Pembroke, Cardigan, Flint, Caernarvon, Anglesey, and Merioneth, and 4 of the 12 new shires created by 27 H. 8. c. 26. s. 3. viz. Radnor, Brecknock, Montgomery, and Denbigh: besides Monmouthshire and the lordships in the marches of Wa. annexed by pl. 73. 75. to the shires of Salop, Hereford, and Glocester, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 2.

100. Limitation of the hundreds by H. M.'s commission out of chancery remains the same except as altered by acts of parliament, id. s. 3.

101. Appointment of the president and council of the marches, id. s. 4. REP. by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 27. s. 2. [See pl. 214.]

102. There shall be kept sessions twice in every year in every of the said shires, which shall be called H. M.'s great sessions in Wa., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 5.

103. "By the preamble to 18 El. c. 8. entitled, 'An Act for appointing and authorizing of justices of assizes in the shires of Wa.,' viz. in s. 1. it is recited, that the appointment of great sessions in Wa. by 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. ss. 5—10., to be held before one justice for each circuit, and in s. 2. that accordingly every trial, civil and criminal, in Wa., can only be had before one justice, to his infinite trouble and great delay of justice," IT IS ENACTED, that H. M. may appoint two or more, learned in the laws to be justices for the counties of Chester, Flint, Denbigh, & Montgomery, 2 or more like persons to be justices of North Wa. viz. for the counties of Anglesea, Caernarvon, and Merioneth; 2 or more like persons for those of Radnor, Glamorgan, and Brecknock; and 2 or more like persons for those of Cardigan, Carmarthen, and Pembroke, and the town and county of Haverfordwest, 18 El. c. 8. s. 3.

104. The justice of Chester shall hold sessions twice every year in each of the shires of Denbigh, Flint, and Montgomery, with the old fee of 100*l.* yearly, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 6.: the like of the justices of North Wa. in each of the shires of Caernarvon, Merioneth, and Anglesey, with yearly fee of 50*l.* from H. M. id. s. 7.: the like of the justices of Radnor, Brecknock, and Glamorgan, in each of those shires, with like fee, id. s. 8.: and the like of the justices of Carmarthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan, in each of those shires with like fee, id. s. 9., which justices shall have letters patent and commissions for their offices under the great seal of Eng., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 10.

105. H. M. may grant commissions of association under the great seal to any like learned persons, to be associate with such justices on their circuits; and every such justice or justices with, during, or without such association or after it is ended, shall have all the jurisdiction which the single justice had within his circuit before this act: and shall take cognizance of all matters in last pl., as well as of mayhems, conspiracies, and quare impedit, and all pleas of assize, actions real, personal and mixed, or grounded on statutes, processes, returns, verdicts, judgments, fines, warrants, executions, and other acts soever, all of which being returned, or had and executed by or before any such 2 or more justices, or before any such justice or justices and associate or associates, shall be valid, 18 El. c. 8. s. 4.

106. The said justices shall hold all pleas of the crown in as ample a manner as H. M.'s chief justice in Eng., and others his justices of K. B. there; and also pleas of assizes, and all other pleas and actions real, personal, and mixed, in as ample a manner as the justices of C. P. in Eng., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 12. And shall have power to enquire of treasons, murders, felonies, riots, routs, unlawful assemblies, extortions, embraceries, maintenances, retainers, concealments, contempt, and all other offences committed within the limits of their commissions against the common law or statutes of Eng., and to hear and determine the premises, and generally to administer common justice to all H. M.'s subjects within the like limits, according to the laws, statutes, and customs of Eng., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 15.

107. No justice for the county of Chester, or for any county, circuit or shire, within Wa., shall have any power to exercise his office by deputy, 13 G. 3. c. 51. s. 5. Except he appoint him by writing under his hand and seal, for the purpose of calling and adjourning any court receiving any motions appointed to be made thereon, and for taking and proclaiming fines, and arraigning recoveries in the respective great sessions, which hewhen so appointed may do, 13 G. 3. c. 51. s. 4 [REPEALING 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 10. as to appointment of deputies; and s. 99. as to the suits to be tried before them.]

108. H. M. may, under the sign-manual, appoint one or more persons learned in the law, to execute the office of justice of Chester, or in any county of Wa., in place of any of the said justices, who shall by illness be prevented attending such great sessions, or as often as is necessary, id. s. 5.

109. Every such session shall continue 6 days as used in the 3 shires of North Wales, and the justices shall have open proclamation to be made in the shire towns of the time and place of sessions, 15 days at least before keeping the same, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 14.

110. Days shall be given in all pleas, process, &c. from day to day, and sessions to sessions, at discretion of the justices, as used in North Wa., id. s. 15.

111. The original seal for administration of justice in the 3 shires of North Wa., viz. Merioneth, Caernarvon, and Anglesey, shall be in custody of chamberlain of North Wa., id. s. 16.

112. One other such seal for the like purpose in the shires of Cardigan, Pembroke, and Cardigan, shall be in the keeping of the chamberlain of South Wa., id. s. 17.

113. One other such seal in the shires of Brecknock, Radnor, and Glamorgan, shall be in custody of the steward and chamberlain of Brecknock, id. s. 18.

114. One other such seal in the shires of Denbigh, and Montgomery, shall remain in the custody of the steward and chamberlain of Denbigh, id. s. 19.

115. The seal of Chester shall be the original seal of Flint, and shall be in the custody of the chamberlain of Chester, id. s. 20.

116. The said stewards and chamberlains shall seal with the said seals all original writs and process returnable at the sessions, and shall answer H. M. for the profits of the seal; and no such stewards, &c. or chancellors shall, by colour of their offices, cause any persons within the 12 shires, to appear before them or their deputies, nor shall have power to hear or determine any pleas of the crown, or other matters of justice, otherwise than herein expressed; but shall have charge of the seals to seal all original writs and process, and shall seal and return the same as hath been used before the justice of North Wa., id. s. 21.

117. H. M.'s stewards, chamberlains, or chancellors, within the 12 shires, which have the receipt of H. M.'s rents, farms, or profits, may direct process under the seal, in their charge against bailiffs, reeves, fermors, and other ministers accountant, to appear before them to answer for any of H. M.'s revenues as they have been accustomed, id. s. 22.

118. Stewards of lordships or manors in Wa. may hold such leets, law-days, or court-barons, as appertain to them, and hold pleas by plaint under 40s. and enjoy all other profits as such stewards in Eng. have been used to have, id. s. 23. Provided that neither they nor the sheriff shall have power to inquire of any felony in any leet or town, id. s. 24. And no leet shall be kept of any lordship, but where it was accustomed before 26 H. 8. c. 6., id. s. 25.

119. All mayors and head officers of corporate towns in Wa., may hold pleas and determine actions, according to their grants and customs, so they follow the course of the laws and customs of Eng., and not of any Welsh laws or customs; and in the said towns they may try issues in any action personal by men as heretofore, id. s. 26.

120. There shall be judicial seals devised by H. M., whereof one shall remain with the justice of Chester, to seal judicial process and bills that shall be sued before the said justice in the sessions; and one other in the custody of the justice of North Wa.; and the 3d in custody of the justices of the 3 shires of Glamorgan, Brecknock, and Radnor; and the 4th in the custody of the justices of the shires of Pembroke, Caernarvon, and Cardigan; and all process that shall be awarded from the said justices shall be sealed with such judicial seal, id. s. 29.

121. The said justices shall account to H. M. for the profits of the seals, id. s. 30.

122. The teste of every bill and process under the judicial seal shall be under the name of the justices from whom such process shall pass, in manner as in C. P. in Eng., id. s. 31.

123. All actions, real and mixt, attainments, conspiracies, assizes, and quare impedit, appeals of murder and felony, and actions grounded upon statutes, shall be sued by original writs sealed with the original seal, returnable before the justices at their sessions; id. s. 32.

124. All personal actions amounting to 40s. shall be sued by writs original, or by bills, as the pleasure of the party suing, as in North Wa., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 33.

125. All personal actions under 40s. may be sued before the justices in the sessions by bill, as in North Wa., id. s. 34. But none under 20s. shall be so sued, id. s. 99.

126. Every original bill concerning actions personal shall be sealed with H. M.'s judicial seal, id. s. 35.

127. These fees shall be paid for writing and sealing of such original writs and bills, viz. for sealing every original writ, and for every bill in actions personal, whereof the debt and damage amounteth to 40s. or above 6d.; and for sealing every judicial process on any such original writ or bill, 7d., whereof H. M. shall have 6d. and the justice 1d., id. s. 36.

128. Every bill in personal actions, whereof the debt or damage amounteth not to 40s., and all judicial process upon the same, shall also be sealed with H. M.'s judicial seal, and the parties shall pay for the seal 3d., whereof H. M. shall have 2d. and the justice 1d., id. s. 37.

129. All writs of scire facias, and of good abearing, or for the peace, or of supersedeas on the same, and all other process on any record or suggestion admitted by the justices, shall also be sealed with the judicial seal; and the parties shall pay for the seal 7d., whereof H. M. shall have 6d. and the justice 1d., id. s. 38.

130. Every exemplification on any record before the justices, shall be sealed with the judicial seal; and the parties shall pay for the seal 20d. whereof H. M. shall have 16d. and the justice 4d., id. s. 39.

131. Recoveries and fines of record, and warrants of attorney for the same, may be taken before the justice, of lands within his authority, without any dedimus, in like manner as in C. P. in Eng., id. s. 40. [See as to amending errors in them, 27 El. c. 9.]

132. All fines levied before any of the said justices, with proclamation made the same sessions that the fine shall be engrossed, and in 2 other great sessions next to be holden within the same county, shall be of the same force as fines levied with proclamations before the justices of C. P., id. s. 41.

133. Every person suing writs of entry in the post, or writs of covenant, or any other writs for any recovery by assent of parties, or otherwise, or for any fine to be levied, shall pay such fines to H. M., as well fines pro licentia concordandi as other fines, as is used in Eng.; which fines shall be paid to such persons as shall seal the original writ, who shall account for the same as for profits of the original seal, id. s. 42.

134. H. M.'s silver upon every fine shall be paid as is used in C. P., viz. 2s. which shall be paid to the justice afore whom such fine shall be levied, whereof H. M. shall have 20d. and the prenotary 2d., and the justice 2d.; and the justice shall account for H. M.'s part as for the profits of the judicial seal, id. s. 43.

135. There shall be 4 prenotaries for making of judicial process, and for entering pleas and matters of record in the sessions, whereof one shall attend upon the justices for North Wa., one other upon the justices for Flint, Denbigh, and Montgomery; and the third upon the justices for Caernarvon, Cardigan, and Pembroke; and the fourth upon the justices for Glamorgan, Brecknock, and Radnor; and these prenotaries shall be appointed by H. M. by patent, under the great seal, id. s. 44.

136. There shall be a marshal and crier in every of the circuits, which shall be named by the justices in like manner as justices of assize do in Eng.; and shall attend on the justices in their circuits in person, and not by deputies, id. s. 45.

137. The marshal shall have on every judgment and fine, 4d., and the crier 1d., and like fees upon the acquittals of felons, and of them that shall be delivered by proclamation, or delivered out of common mainprize, id. s. 46.

138. The prenotaries shall have such fees as hereafter expressed; viz. for the writing of pleas, and engrossing writs of entry in the post, writs of right, quod ei deforecat, or any other writs pursued by assent of parties, 5s., and if it be with a double voucher, 6s. 8d., and for the exemplification thereof 2s., and for the engrossing of fines 3s. 4d., and if with proclamations 4s., id. s. 47.

M.'s court of record in Wa., against the cognizors, or either of them, to recover the costs and damages mentioned in the recognizance; 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3.

203. All process for weighty causes shall be made into Wa. by the special command of the chancellor of Eng. or any of H. M.'s council in Eng., as heretofore, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 115.

204. The town of Bewdley, in the parish of Ribbesford, in the county of Wigorn, [Worcester] shall be united to the county of Wigorn, and be within the hundred of Dodingtre, id. s. 116.

205. The lordship of Llanstiffan, Usterloys, and Langham, shall be part of the county of Caermarthen, and parcel of the hundred of Derles, id. s. 117.

206. The county court of the county of Radnor shall be holden at New Radnor and Preston, alternis vicibus, and never at Mother Gosey, id. s. 118.

207. This act shall not prejudice any person or body politic concerning any lands, tenements, rents, services, tolls, or other hereditaments, id. s. 126.; nor concerning any office enjoyed by them under any patent now in force; nor concerning the fees used to be paid for exercise of such offices, but every person having the same, his substitutes and despaties, shall exercise them, as by this act limited, with the usual fees, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 127.

208. All liberties, franchises, and privileges of the duchy of Lancaster shall remain as before this act was made, id. s. 150.

209. TO FILL UP JURIES, de circumstantibus, LACKING IN Wales, 5 El. c. 25. [The difference between this statute and 35 H. 8. c. 6. ss. 5—13. is very slight, and is fully noticed with that act, tit. JURY, pl. 37., &c.]

210. FOR TRANSLATING THE BIBLE AND DIVINE SERVICE into the Welsh tongue, 5 El. c. 28.

211. The bishops of Hereford, St. Davids, Asaph, Bangor, and Llandaff, shall take order, that the Bible, with the Book of Common Prayer, as now used in English, be translated into the British or Welsh tongue, and divine service shall be used throughout the said dioceses where the Welsh is commonly used in the British tongue, id. s. 1.

212. The Bible and Common Prayer, in the English tongue, shall be had in every church throughout Wales, in which the Bible and Common Prayer in Welsh are to be had by this act, and shall remain in convenient places within the churches, that all persons may resort, at convenient times, to read the same; and that such as do not understand the language may, by conferring both tongues together, the sooner attain a knowledge of English, id. s. 2.

213. FOR TAKING AWAY THE COURT HOLDEN BEFORE THE president and council of the marches of Wales, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 2., and recital in s. 1. [See ss. 3, 4. supra, pl. 152. 201.]

214. The "court before the president and council of the marches of Wales," and all jurisdiction of any officers thereof, taken away, id. s. 2. [The 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 4. is also repealed, id. ibid.]

215. TO TAKE AWAY THE CUSTOM OF WALES WHICH HINDERS persons from disposing of their personal estates by their wills, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 38.

216. Any person residing or having any goods within Wa. or its marches, may, by their last wills, dispose of all their goods, chattels, debts, and other personal estate, to their executor, or such other persons as the testators shall think fit, in as ample a manner as any persons may within the province of Canterbury; and the widows, children, and other the kindred of such testators shall be barred to claim any part of such goods or personal estate, in any manner other than as by the said last wills appointed, id. s. 1.

217. Nothing in this act shall take away any right which any woman now married, or younger children now born, may have to the reasonable part of their husband's or father's estate by virtue of the custom, id. s. 2.

218. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRIVOLOUS and vexatious arrests, and for more easy recovery of debts and damages in the courts of great sessions in Wa., and in the court of assize in the county palatine of Chester, 6 G. 2. c. 14. ss. 1, 2. [See rest of this statute, JUDICIAL PROCEEDING.]

219. In all personal actions commenced in the above courts respectively, where the debt or damages do not amount to 10*l.*, and where the plaintiff shall sue out an original writ, and serve defendant with a true copy thereof by a literate person, at least 8 days before commencement of those courts respectively, and shall cause on every such copy to be written the notice in 5 G. 2. c. 27. (ARREST, pl. 32.) specified; defendant in such cases shall appear at the return of such original, or at or before the 3d court to be held in the same respective courts; and in case he shall not so appear, the plaintiff or his attorney, on affidavit made and filed in the proper court, of the personal service of such process (which affidavit shall be filed in the said court, and 1*s.* paid for the same to the proper officer, and no more), may enter an appearance for defendant, and proceed thereon as if defendant had entered the same to such action, id. s. 1.

220. No attorney, bail, or other person, shall charge or take more than 5*s.* for making and serving a copy of each original, issuing out of such courts of great sessions or assize, id. s. 2.

221. FOR PROVIDING PROPER ACCOMMODATION FOR H. M.'s justices of great sessions in Wa. during the time of holding them, 8 G. 3. c. 14.

222. The sheriffs of the counties of Wa. shall provide necessary lodging and other accommodations for H. M.'s justices of the great sessions, during the time of each session, in like manner as is usual with the sheriffs of the English counties for the justices of assize there; and H. M., by warrant under his sign-manual, countersigned by the high treasurer, or 3 commissioners of the treasury, may authorize, during the continuance of 1 G. 3. c. 1. [which is now EXPIRED] the auditor of the land revenues of the crown arising within Wa., to pay all such charges made by such sheriffs, in the accounts by them to be delivered into such auditor's office, of the expences by them incurred in providing such accommodations for such justices of Wa., and to direct certificates to be delivered by such auditor to such sheriffs, of the sums allowed and passed in their accounts; and also to authorize, during the above term, the receivers-general of such revenues to pay the sums so certified, on production and delivery of such certificates, without any fee, 8 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

223. But no larger sum shall be allowed, passed, certified, and paid, than 10*l.*, for accommodations in any one county for any one such session, id. s. 2.

224. AGAINST COMMENCING FRIVOLOUS AND VEXATIOUS SUITS in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, in causes of action arising within Wa., and for further regulating the proceedings in the courts of great sessions there, 13 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 1, 2. 6—17. (See ss. 3—5. ante, pl. 107, 108.) [AMD. as to executions out of great sessions where the person or effects are not found within their jurisdiction, 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1.]

225. In case the plaintiff in any action on the case for words, or of debt, trespass on the case, assault and battery, or other personal action, where the cause of such act [semb. action] shall arise within the dominion of Wa., and which shall be tried at the assizes, at the English county nearest to that part of Wa. in which the cause of action is laid to arise, shall not recover by verdict a debt or damages to the amount of 10*l.*; then if the judge who tried the cause, on evidence appearing before him, shall certify on the back of the nisi prius record, that defendant was resident in Wa. at the service of the mesne process on him in such action, (on such fact being suggested on the record or judgment roll), a judgment of nonsuit shall be entered, and defendant shall have like judgment and remedy thereon to recover costs against the plaintiff, as if a verdict had been given for him by the jury; unless the judge who tried the cause shall certify on the back of the record that the freehold or title of the land mentioned in the plaintiff's declaration was chiefly in question, or that such cause was proper to be tried in such English county, id. s. 1.

226. "In order to prevent transitory actions where the cause of action does not amount to 10*l.*, arising within Wa., from being brought in any of H. M.'s courts out of the principality:" In all transitory actions arising within Wa. which are brought in any of H. M.'s courts of record out of Wa., with the venue laid in any county or place out of Wa., and the debt or damages found by the jury do not amount to 10*l.*, and it appears in evidence given on the trial that the cause of action arose and that defendant was resident in Wa. at the time of service of mesne process upon him, and it is so certified under the hand of the judge who tried the cause, on the back of the nisi prius record, (on such facts being suggested on the record or judgment roll), a judgment or [semble of] nonsuit shall be entered thereon against plaintiff, who shall pay defendant his costs in the action; and defendant shall have like remedy to recover the same as if a verdict had been given for him; and in the taxation of all costs allowed to defendant by this act, the proper officer shall allow plaintiff out the same the full sum given by the verdict for his debt or damages; and though no judgment is entered for plaintiff on such verdict, it shall nevertheless bar any action commenced by him for the same, id. s. 2.

227. The justices of great sessions in Wa., on motion made on behalf of H. M., his heirs or successors, or on motion of any prosecutor or defendant, in any indictment or information of any misdemeanor, or on motion of any plaintiff or defendant in any action soever, in any such court, shall and may, if they think fit, order a jury to be struck before the proper officer of such courts, for trial of any issue joined in any such case in the manner in which special juries have been usually struck in the courts of law at Westminster, on trials at bar had therein; which jury, so struck, shall be the jury returned for trial of the issue, id. s. 6.

228. The party applying for such special jury under this act, shall not only pay the fees of striking the same, but also the expences occasioned by trial of the cause by such jury, and shall have no other allowance for the same on taxation of costs, than he would have been entitled to if the cause had been tried by a common jury, unless the justices or justice before whom the cause is tried shall, immediately after the trial, certify in open court under his or their hands on the back of the record, that the same was a cause proper to be tried by a special jury, id. s. 7.

229. No person who shall serve upon any jury, appointed by authority of this act, shall take for serving, more than the sum which the justices or justice who tries the issue shall think just, not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.* except in causes where a view is directed, id. s. 8.

230. The justices of the courts of great sessions shall, by one or more commissioners, under the seal of the said courts, empower so many persons as they think fit, in all the shires within their circuits in Wa., to take all such affidavits as any person shall be desirous to make before any of the persons so empowered in any cause pending, or in any wise concerning any of the proceedings in their circuits, as the justices of K. B. or C. P., or treasurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer use to do; which affidavits shall be filed in the offices of the said courts of great sessions, and may be read in the said courts, as other affidavits taken therein now are; and all affidavits taken as aforesaid, shall be of the same force as affidavits taken in the said courts; and all persons forswearing themselves, in such affidavits, shall be liable unto the same penalties, as if they had been made in open court; which commissions shall be made out by the prothonotary, upon a fiat from the justices; and he shall cause an entry to be made in a book to be kept for that purpose, of the names of the persons to whom such commissions are granted, and the times when issued; and the following fees shall be paid for each commission, and no more; viz. 2s. for the fiat, 4s. for making out the commission, besides the duty and value of the parchment, and 4s. for sealing the same; and every commissioner so empowered, shall take for swearing of every affidavit before him, 1s. and no more, 13 G.3. c.51. s.9.

231. No person appointed a commissioner shall take any affidavit during the time of holding the great sessions, or assizes, for the county in which such cause is pending, id. s.10.

232. Such officers of the said courts of great sessions, as have heretofore taken or sworn affidavits, may continue so to do, id. s.11.

233. The justices of the courts of great sessions may, by commission, or under the seal of the said courts, empower such persons (other than common attorneys or solicitors) as they think fit, in the several shires within their circuits in Wa., to take recognizances of bail in any action depending in the said courts, in such manner, and by such bail-piece, as the justices of the courts of great sessions have used to take the same; which recognizances, or bail-pieces, together with an affidavit made of the due taking of such bail, by some credible person present at the taking thereof, shall be transmitted to the prothonotary's office, there to be filed of record, paying such fees as have usually been received for taking of special bails by the justices clerks, and other officers of the courts, which recognizance of bail or bail-piece shall be of the like effect, as if the same were taken before any of the justices; for taking which recognizance of bail or bail-piece, the person so empowered shall receive only 2s., id. s.12.

234. The justices of great sessions, in their courts, shall make such rules for justifying of bails, and making the same absolute, as to them shall seem meet, so as the cognizor of such bail be not compelled to appear in person in any of the said courts to justify; but the same may be determined by affidavit taken before the commissioners, touching the value of their estates, id. s.13.

235. The attorney for the defendant shall give notice to the plaintiff's attorney of the taking of such bail within 8 days after caption thereof, and the plaintiff may, within 8 days after such notice, take exception to such bail, and enter the same in the prothonotary's office; which exception having been taken, the bail shall be justified before the justices, before the rising of the second court at the ensuing sessions; and the bail bond taken by the sheriff, under-sheriff, or other officer, for the defendant's appearance, shall remain in force till such special bail have been finally justified; but the plaintiff, nevertheless, may file his declaration conditionally in the prothonotary's office; and defendant, in case such declaration has been delivered 7 days before the first day of the session next ensuing the return of such writs, shall plead thereto, before the rising of the second court of such great sessions, unless further time shall be given him by the court, id. s.14.

236. All original writs, bills, and all mesne process whatsoever, by which any action shall be commenced in the courts of great session for North and South Wa., shall be made returnable before H. M.'s justices respectively of the several counties of North and South Wa., on the first Wednesday in any month in each of the two vacations, annually, betwixt the two sessions, or on the first day of the next sessions, at the election of the plaintiff or the attorney, who shall sue out the same; and [QU. to] all such writs or process which shall issue out of the said courts, returnable in the vacations, and whereon the defendant shall be arrested or served with a copy, defendant shall appear and file special bail, or enter a common appearance on the day of such return, or within 14 days next after; and in case of neglect in bailable actions, the sheriff or officer shall, at the request and costs of the plaintiff or attorney, assign the bail bond, by indorsement and attestation under his hand, in the presence of two witnesses; and the plaintiff, after such assignment, may bring an action upon such bail bond in his own name; and the said courts may, by rule, give such relief to the plaintiff and defendant, in the original action, and to the bail sued upon the bail bond, as is agreeable to justice; and in case on service of the copy of any writ (having notice thereunder written, purporting the intent of such service) returnable in the vacation time as aforesaid, the defendant so served, shall not appear at the return, or within 14 days after, the plaintiff, on affidavit made, and filed with the prothonotary of the said courts, or his deputy, of the personal service of such writ as aforesaid, may enter a common appearance for the defendant, and proceed thereon as if such defendant had entered his appearance; and special bail having been filed, or a common appearance entered, as the case shall require, the plaintiff may proceed to file his declaration; and the defendant, in case such declaration shall have been delivered 7 days before the 1st day of the session next ensuing the return of such writ, shall be bound to plead thereto, before the rising of the 2d court of such great sessions, to be holden for the county in which such action shall have been brought, unless the court think proper to allow further time, 13 G.3. c.51. s.15.

237. Every officer or clerk belonging to the courts of great sessions in Wa., who shall sign any original writ or bill, relating to actions depending in the said courts, shall, at the signing thereof, set down thereon the day and year of his signing the same, which shall be entered on the remembrance, or in the book where the abstracts of such original writ or bill shall be entered, on pain to forfeit 5l. for every neglect; to be recovered by any person who shall sue by action of debt or information, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s.16.

238. Where any penalty is given by any statute, and the same is directed to be recovered in the courts of Westminster, excepting such as may by the laws now in being be sued for only in the exchequer, and the offence for which such penalty hath or shall be given is done in any of the counties of Wa., and the defendant liable to the same is resident within the jurisdiction of the great session, the plaintiff, or prosecutor, or other person to whom such penalty is given, may, in such case, sue for and recover the same in the courts of great session, in such manner as he might have done in the courts at Westminster; and the courts of great session shall have jurisdiction as fully as if they had been named in those statutes, id. s.17.

239. FOR REGULATING PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURTS OF GREAT SESSIONS OF Wa., 33 G.3. c.68. [See part of title and of s.1., COUNTIES PALATINE, pl. 6, 7.]

240. Where final judgment is obtained in any of the courts of great sessions in Wa., any court of record at Westminster, on affidavit made before a judge or commissioner in such court, and filed therein, of such judgment being obtained; and diligent search and inquiry having been made after the person or his effects, and of execution having issued against either, and that the person or effects are not to be found within the jurisdiction of such court, may cause a transcript of the record of the judgment to be removed into such court at Westminster, and may issue writs of execution thereupon to the sheriff of any county or place, against the person or effects, as upon judgments obtained in the courts at Westminster; and the sheriff shall detain the person against whom such execution shall be issued till 40s. be paid to him, or shall levy that sum out of the effects according to the nature of the execution, for the extraordinary costs in such court subsequent to the said judgment, and of the execution in the court at Westminster over and above the money for which it shall be issued, id. s.1.

WARRANTY.

1. WHAT DAY SHALL BE GIVEN TO HIM that is vouched to warranty, 52 (or 54) H.3. c.26.

2. None being vouched to warranty before justices in eyre, in plea of land or tenements, shall be amerced for not being present when so vouched, except the first day of the coming of the justices; but if the party vouched be within the shire, the sheriff shall be commanded to cause him to come within the 3d or 4th day, according to the distance of the place, as it was wont to be done in the circuit of the justices; and if he dwell without the shire, then he shall have reasonable summons of 15 days at least after the discretion of the justices and the common law, id. ibid.

3. VOUCHER TO WARRANTY AND COUNTER-PLEADING of voucher, 13 E.1. c.40. The statute of vouchers, 20 E.1. s.1.

4. In writs of possession, especially in writs of mort d'ancestor, of cosinage, of aiel, nuper obiit, of intrusion, and other like writs, whereby lands and tenements are demanded, which ought to descend, revert, remain, or escheat by the death of any ancestor or otherwise, if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant counterpleadeth him, and will aver by assize, the country, or as the court will award, that the tenant or his ancestor (whose heir he is) was the first who entered after the death of him of whose seisin he demandeth, such averment shall be received if the tenant will abide thereon; and if not, he shall answer over, if he have not his warrantor present that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into answer; saving unto the demandant his exceptions against him, if he will vouch over as he had before against the first tenant, 3 E.1. c.40. s.1.

5. In writs of entry, which make mention of degrees, none shall vouch out of the line, and in other writs of entry, where no degrees are mentioned, (which are only maintained, where the other writs of degrees cannot lie), in a writ of right, it is provided, that if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant will counterplead him, and be ready to aver by the country, that the vouchee nor his ancestors had never seisin of the land or tenement demanded, nor fee, nor service, by the hands of the tenant or his ancestor, since the time of him on whose seisin the demandant declareth, until the time when the writ was purchased and the plea moved, whereby he might have infeoffed the tenant or his ancestors, then let such averment be received if the tenant will abide thereon, or if not, the tenant shall answer over, if he have not his warrantor present that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into answer; saving to the demandant his exceptions against him as he had before against the first tenant. And such exception shall have place in the writs before named, as well as in writs that concern right. And if the tenant have a charter of warranty of another man, which is bound in none of the cases aforesaid to the warranty of an elder degree, his recovery by a writ of warranty of charters out of the chancery shall be saved him at what time he will purchase, howbeit the plea be not delayed therefore, 5 Ed. 1. c. 40. s. 2.

6. That when any tenant doth vouch any to warranty, and the demandant will aver, as in 3 E. 1. c. 40. is contained, his averment shall be admitted, whether the party vouched be absent or present, 20 E. 1. St. 1.

7. BY WHAT WORDS IN A FEOFFMENT A FEOFFER shall be bound to warranty, 4 E. 1. St. 5. c. 6.

8. In deeds where are contained the words dedi et concessi tale tenementum, without homage or a clause of warranty, and to be holden of the givers and their heirs by a certain service, such givers and heirs shall be bound to warranty; and where it is dedi et concessi, &c., to be holden of the chief lord of the fee, or of other than the feoffers and their heirs, reserving no service without homage or without such clause, their heirs shall not be bound to warranty, but the feoffer himself shall, during his own life, by force of his own gift, id. ibid.

9. PENALTY ON A VOUCHER DENYING HIS WARRANTY, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 6.

10. When any demands land against another, and the party impleaded voucheth to warranty, and the warrantor denieth his warranty and the plea dependeth long, and it is proved that the vouchee is bound to warranty, then like as the tenant would lose the land in demand, in case where he vouched to warranty, and the vouchee could discharge himself of the warranty, in the same wise shall the warrantor lose in case he denies his warranty and it be proved against him; and if the tenant and warrantor be at issue, and the demandant will require a writ to cause a jury to come, it shall be granted to him, id. ibid.

11. IF THE TENANT VOUCH TO WARRANTY a dead man, and the demandant will aver that the vouchee is dead, or that there is none such, his averment shall be received without further delay, 14 E. 3. St. 1. c. 18.

12. ALL WARRANTIES HEREAFTER TO BE MADE by any tenant for life, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, the same descending or coming to any person in reversion or remainder, shall be void; and likewise all collateral warranties hereafter to be made of any lands, &c. by any ancestor, who has no estate of inheritance in possession in the same, shall be void against his heir, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 21.

WARRENS.

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVATION OF CONIES in warrens, and for preventing the damage done to sea-banks in Lincolnshire, by breeding conies therein, 5 G. 3. c. 14. ss. 6—9. [Secs. 1—5., GAME, pl. 149.]

2. If any person shall wilfully, in the night-time, enter into any warren or grounds kept for breeding or keeping of conies, though not inclosed, and there kill in the night-time any conies against the will of the owner or occupier, or shall be aiding therein, and convicted thereof before any justices of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery for the county where such offence is committed, shall be transported for 7 years, or suffer punishment by whipping, fine, or imprisonment, as the court shall in discretion award, id. s. 6.

3. No person convicted of any offence against this shall be liable to conviction under any former act, id. s. 7.

4. Nothing in this act shall prevent any person from killing, or from taking and carrying away in the day-time any conies found on any sea or river banks erected for preservation of the adjoining lands from being overflowed by the sea or river waters, so far as the flux or reflux of the tide extends, or on any land within one furlong thereof: and any person may enter on such banks or land in the county of Lincoln, and kill and carry away in the day-time, to his own use, any conies found thereon, doing as little damage as may be to the owner, id. s. 8. And no person shall be obliged to make satisfaction for any such damage, unless it exceed 1s., id. s. 9.

WASTE.

1. THE KEEPER OF LAND OF AN HEIR WITHIN AGE, shall not take of the lands of the heir, but reasonable issues, customs and services, and that without waste. And if H. M. commit the custody of any such land to the sheriff, or other who is answerable to him for the issues, and he make waste, H. M. will take of him amends; and the land shall be committed to 2 lawful men, who shall answer for the issues unto H. M.; and if H. M. give or sell to any man the custody of such lands, and he make waste, the like shall be done, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 4. [See 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1. TENURES.]

2. ALSO FERMORS DURING THEIR TERMS SHALL NOT make waste, sale or exile of houses, woods and men, nor of any thing belonging to the tenements they have to ferm, without special licence by writing of covenant, mentioning that they may do it; which if they do they shall yield full damage, and be amerced grievously, 32 (or 34) H. 3. c. 23. s. 2.

3. NO WASTE SHALL BE MADE IN WARD'S LANDS, nor in bishops, during the vacation, 3 E. 1. c. 21.

4. Guardians shall keep, and sustain the land without making destruction of any thing, as in 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 5. [BENEFICE, pl. 1.] contained. And in the same manner shall archbishops, bishops, &c., and all spiritual dignities be kept in time of vacation, id. ibid.

5. SEVERAL TENANTS AGAINST WHOM AN ACTION of waste is maintainable, 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 5.

6. A man may have a writ of waste in the chancery against tenants by the law of Eng., or otherwise, for term of life or years, or a woman that holdeth a dower; and he that is attainted of waste, shall leese the thing wasted, and recompense thrice as much as the waste is taxed at; For waste made in the time of wardship it shall be done as in the great charter, c. 4. pl. 1. And where in the great charter it is contained, that he which did waste during the wardship shall leese it, it is agreed, that he shall recompense the heir his damages for the waste, if so be that the wardship lost do not amount to the value of the damages before the age of the heir of the same wardship, 6 E. 1. c. 5.

7. NO WASTE SHALL BE MADE PENDING A SUIT for land, 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 13.

8. When a plea is moved in the city of London by writ, the tenant shall not make any waste or estrepement of the tenement in demand pending the plea, and if he do, the mayor and bailiff shall cause it to be kept at the suit of the demandant. And this statute shall be observed in cities, boroughs, and throughout the realm, id. ibid.

9. THE PROCESS IN AN ACTION OF WASTE ALTERED, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 14.

10. Of all waste done to the damage of any person, there shall be no writ of prohibition awarded, but a writ of summons, so that he of whom complaint is shall answer for waste done at any time; and if he come not after summons, he shall be attached, and after attachment distrained, and if he come not after distress, the sheriff shall be commanded, that a proper person taking with him 12., &c., he go to the place wasted, and enquire of the waste done, and return the inquisition, and after inquisition they shall pass judgment, as in 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 5. pl. 6. contained, id. ibid.

11. OF WASTE BETWEEN TENANTS IN COMMON, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 22.

12. When 2 or more do hold a wood, a turbary, fishery, or other such thing in common, wherein none knoweth his several, and one does waste against the will of the other, an action may be maintained by a writ of waste, and when it is come to judgment, the defendant shall have his election, either to take his part in a place certain by the sheriff, and by the view, oath, and assignment of his neighbours chosen and sworn for that intent; or else he shall grant not to take any thing from such wood, &c., but as his partners will allow. And if he will take his part, he shall have the part wasted assigned him, and there is in such case a writ, viz. (Cum A. et B., &c.) id. ibid.

13. EVERY HEIR (IN WHOSE WARD SOEVER HE BE, as well within as of full age) shall have his recovery by a writ of waste committed in the time of his ancestor, and in other cases where the same writ holds; as well for waste and destruction made in lands and tenements of his inheritance, in the times of his ancestors, as from time when the fee and inheritance descended unto him, and shall be answered unto therefore; and he shall recover the tenements wasted, and damages as ordained by 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 14. pl. 10., if the tenant be convict of waste, 20 E. 1. St. 2.

14. FOR REMEDY IN CASES OF WASTE, WHERE TENANTS assign their estate, but take the profits, 11 H. 6. c. 5.

15. If a tenant for life, or years, assign his estate, the lessor or reversioner may have a writ of waste against such tenants for life, or years, and so recover against them the place wasted and treble damages for the waste so done, as they might have done before such grant or lease of their estate; and also when after such grant or lease the first tenants of the lands, &c. take the profits to their own use at the time of waste done id. ibid.

WATCH AND WARD.

1. OF WATCHING AND KEEPING THE PEACE in cities, boroughs and towns, 13 E. 1. (Stat. Wynt.) c. 4.

2. In great towns walled, the gates shall be closed from sun setting to sun rising, and no man shall lodge in the suburbs without his host will answer for him; and the bailiffs of towns shall enquire of all persons so lodged weekly, and do right therein; and all towns shall be kept as hath been usual, and in every city 6 men shall keep at each gate; and in every borough 12; and in every town 6 or 4, and shall watch the town continually all night, and strangers shall be arrested until morning; and if no suspicion be found he shall go quit, but if otherwise, shall be delivered to the sheriff to be kept till duly delivered; and if he will not obey the arrest, hue and cry shall be raised, and those that keep the town shall follow with the towns near till he be taken, and none shall be punished for the arrest of such stranger, 13 E. 1. (Stat. Wymt.) c. 4.

3. THE CONSTABLES SHALL PRESENT BEFORE JUSTICES assigned, such defaults as they shall have found of pursuits, and of watches and highways, and also shall present all such as lodge strangers in uplandish towns, for whom they will not answer; and the justices assigned shall present the same at every parliament to H.M., who shall provide remedy, 13 E. 1. (Stat. Wymt.) c. 6.

4. The statute in last pl. shall be read 4 times by the year, as well as the 2 great charters, and to the keeping the same the 3 knights shall be charged, who are assigned through the counties to redress things done against the great charters, 28 E. 1. c. 17. Art. sup. Chart.

5. NIGHT WALKERS AND SUSPECTED PERSONS shall be safely kept, 5 E. 3. c. 14. [See 3 Inst. 197.]

6. If any have evil suspicion of any roberdesmen, wastors and drawlatches, be it by day or night, they shall be arrested by the constables of the towns, and, if within franchises, delivered to the bailiffs thereof, and if in guildable, to the sheriffs, and kept in custody till the next coming of the justices of gaol delivery; and, in the mean time, the bailiffs and sheriffs of the franchises shall make enquiry concerning such persons arrested, and at their coming shall return their inquests before the justices of gaol delivery, with what they found, and the causes of the takings, with the bodies, and the justices shall proceed to their deliverance according to law; and if such sheriffs, &c. fail so to enquire, they shall be amerced, but nevertheless the justices shall proceed as above, id. ibid.

7. THE WATCHES ON THE SEA-COAST SHALL BE MADE by the number of people in the places, and in manner as they were wont; and 13 E. 1. c. 4. pl. 1. shall be kept herein; and this article shall be put in the commissions of the peace, that the justices have power thereof to make inquisition in their sessions, and punish those found in default, 5 H. 4. c. 3.

8. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVATION OF THE PEACE, by enforcing the duties of watching and warding in places where disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, 52 G. 3. c. 17. [Con. 54 G. 3. c. 22., 57 G. 3. c. 38., 58 G. 3. c. 52. and till 20th June, 1824., 1 G. 4. c. 24. ss. 1. 4. and AMD. id. ss. 2, 3.]

9. The custos rotulorum, or, in his absence, the sheriff or 5 justices acting for any county in Eng. may, from time to time, in case any prevailing or apprehended disturbances or offences against the peace, within the county, shall, in their opinion, render the execution of this act necessary by order under his or their hands and seals, direct the clerk of the peace of the county, or his deputy, to assemble a special general sessions of the justices of the county by notice in some newspaper circulating therein, and put up on the church doors and conspicuous places of the market-places of any of the several parishes and places in which such disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, 2 days at least before the meeting, to consider and determine the expediency of executing all or any of the provisions hereof; which justices may adjourn such sessions as occasion may require, id. s. 1.

10. If it appears to such sessions that disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, in the county within any parish, township, or place, situate within the jurisdiction, and that the ordinary peace officers are not sufficient to protect the inhabitants, and secure the property therein, 5 justices may declare such insufficiency; and that every man residing therein, above 17 years old, and assessed to the poor-rate, shall be subject to watch by night, and ward by day, according to this act; and may thereupon order this act to be carried into execution within every such parish, &c. and forthwith give notice of such adjudication and orders to the home-secretary, and publish the same in some one or more county newspapers, id. s. 2.

11. Any justice, acting for such county, may, by summons, under his hand and seal, cause any person to come to give evidence before such sessions, who shall order the county treasurer to pay, out of the county rates, to every person so summoned to give evidence, such sums as by them may be adjudged a proper compensation for his loss of time and expences; and if any person so summoned shall not appear at the time fixed, without just excuse assigned, or shall refuse to be examined on oath, the justices present at such sessions may, by warrant of 2 of them, commit him to the county gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 3.

12. The justices in special general sessions shall order notice of their adjudication to be given by the chief constables to the constables of every parish, &c. or place in which this act is required to be enforced by any such adjudication, and to special constables, if any are appointed under this act; and shall issue precepts, requiring from them, (within the time required by the justices, and not exceeding 3 days' notice,) a true list of the names, occupations, and ages of all the men above 17 years of age, usually and then dwelling within their respective parishes and places, and assessed to poor-rates therein, and to return the same to the justices, or 2 of them, assembled in such special or petty sessions, appointed for receiving it, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 4.

13. Every constable required to return or assist in making out any such list, may demand, from the overseers of each parish, &c. a true copy of the assessment made for relief of the poor therein, or the inspection and use thereof to copy or make extracts thereof, and if not delivered within 24 hours, or if inspection is refused, the overseer shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 5.

14. Every such constable shall, within the time prescribed by the justices, make out a true list of every such man within the parish, &c. so rated, and deliver to him a notice as in Sch. (A.) specifying that his name is contained therein, and the time and place for hearing appeals of persons claiming exemption, id. s. 6.

Schedule (A.)

Watching and Warding. (see 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 6.)

'Take notice, that your name is inserted in the list, and appeals will be heard on the — day of — at —.

'A.B. constable.'

15. Any two justices may, from time, issue their order under their hands and seals, requiring the attendance of any constable or other officer of such parish at such time and place within the county as is in such order expressed, who, on neglect to appear or return such list, or on wilful partiality or neglect therein, shall forfeit not more than 20*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 7.

16. If any such list is lost or destroyed, any 2 justices for the county may, at any special or petty sessions, order a new list to be made and returned as above, id. s. 8.

17. The constables who have made such lists shall severally attend and verify the returns on oath, on an appointed day and place; and any 2 or more justices, at any special or petty sessions, for executing this act, shall, after hearing appeals of exemption, direct such lists to be amended, and the names of all persons omitted to be inserted; and after amending such lists, shall appoint such number of inhabitants, so liable to undertake the duties of watch and ward, as they shall think necessary, to keep watch in such parish, &c. or places, from sunset to sunrise, and ward in the day-time, if needful, having reasonable regard to the extent and population of such parish, &c., id. s. 9.

18. The justices, at any such special or petty sessions, may direct the constables or special constables of any parish, &c. to settle the order, rotation, and time, in which every person, liable to such duty, shall perform the same, and to regulate the manner of such performance, and the same penalties shall be incurred by neglect of such direction as if the justices had regulated such performance under 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 9.; but persons aggrieved, by any regulation of such constable, may apply for redress to the first special or petty sessions, held under this act, who shall make order therein as is proper, 1 G. 4. c. 24. s. 2.

19. Where it appears to the justices that the number of persons, paying poor-rates, is not sufficient for the duty of watch and ward under this act, they may require any other lists, and appoint such number of other persons, as appear to them necessary, to perform that duty and subject to this act, as if returned in the lists of persons rated to the poor, and may allow them reasonable compensation to be paid as in s. 26. pl. 34., 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 10.

20. Every person aggrieved by insertion of his, or omission of any other names in any such list, or claiming exemption from service, may appeal to the special or petty sessions, appointed for hearing appeals, where any 2 justices may determine the same, or may adjourn the hearing to any other day, id. s. 11.

21. The justices at such sessions may appoint such number and of such persons, whether rated or resident in the parish, &c. or not, as appears proper, to be denominated special constables, who, (either with or without the other constables,) or one or more of them, according to the justice's order, shall direct all persons employed in keeping watch or ward, but shall be subject to the general control of the chief constable for the hundred or division; but no person not resident in the parish or place, for which he is appointed special constable, shall serve as such against his consent, id. s. 12. [See also 1 G. 4. c. 37. JUSTICE OF PEACE, pl. 143.]

22. Where the custos rotulorum, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 9.) think that the circumstances under which they convene such sessions, make it advisable to enforce watch and ward as soon as possible, if the special sessions should deem the execution of this act necessary, the custos rotulorum, &c. may give notice to the constables, and appoint other special constables, require lists, hear appeals, and do every thing for more speedy execution of this act, if such sessions, on assembling, shall deem it necessary to put it in force; and all the penalties and regulations of the act shall apply to *such interim proceedings of the custos, &c., and any 2 justices may appoint special constables and other persons willing to watch and ward until the determination of the session is known, and may direct payment of compensation, as in s. 26. pl. 34. as if this act was enforced by such sessions, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 13.

23. The chief constable of every hundred or division shall, once in the week, or as often as the justices shall direct, visit every parish or place in which watch and ward is carried on under this act, and shall diligently enquire respecting the manner of carrying it into effect, and shall report the same, with all other matters, for preservation of peace, in writing, to the special or petty sessions, id. s. 14.

24. Every person so appointed to watch or ward, who shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the constable or special constable, &c. of the parish or place, for the performance of either duty, or who shall not proceed according to their directions in the regular performance thereof, shall, (unless he prove the satisfaction of the magistrate, that he was prevented by illness or unavoidable accident,) forfeit not more than 10*l.* nor less than 40*s.* for each neglect, &c.; provided that any two such justices, at such special or petty sessions, may exempt from such duty any man exceeding 50 years old, and not occupying tenements of 20*l.* yearly value, id. s. 15.

25. No person having found a sufficient substitute, approved by the justices in special or petty sessions, or by the chief constable, and having enrolled his name, age, occupation, and place of abode, in the book of the constable or his deputy, shall be liable to such forfeiture; but every such substitute shall be personally liable under this act, in his stead, unless he give notice, in writing, of his intention, to withdraw his service as such, both to the constable and employer, at least 2 days before his services become necessary, according to the rotation established in such parish, &c. id. s. 16.

26. Every quaker, appointed to watch or ward, who shall not appear at the fixed time or place, or perform his duties under directions of the constable, shall not be liable to the fine imposed by 52 G. 3. c. 17. for non-attendance or non-observance of such directions; but any 2 justices may forthwith hire, on as reasonable terms as may be, a fit substitute, who shall be enrolled, and perform the duties of watching and warding, and be subject to the same regulations as if he was personally liable to keep the same; and any 2 justices may, by warrant, levy by distress and sale of the goods, of such quaker, the money necessary to defray the expences of hiring such substitute, and if no sufficient goods be found, and it appear to the justices that such quaker can pay 10*l.* he may be committed to gaol (but not confined among felons) for one month, or till he have paid the sum agreed to be paid to such substitute, 1 G. 4. c. 24. s. 3.

27. The constables of parishes, townships or places shall, at the expence of the same, provide rattles, staves, lanterns, and such arms and accoutrements as the special or petty sessions shall direct for the use of every person so keeping watch and ward, such arms or articles to be delivered to every person undertaking such duty, and to be returned by him to the special or other constable of the watch, as soon as he shall cease to be engaged therein, and shall also provide, at like expence, such watch-houses, or other conveniences, as the justices adjudge expedient, all which expences shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish, &c. and shall be contributed in proportions settled by the special or petty sessions, subject to alteration by the next special sessions, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 17.

28. Every person so appointed to watch or ward, shall, during his time of duty, to his utmost power, endeavour to prevent all felonies, affrays, outrages and disorders, and shall arrest and apprehend all night-walkers, rogues and vagabonds, and other idle and suspicious persons found within such parish, &c. and shall deliver them to the constable, or to a special constable of the parish, at the watch-house, or other place of reception appointed by him, until they can be carried before a justice of the county, id. s. 18.

29. Where persons so keeping watch or ward, shall want assistance therein, any other persons on like duty, having knowledge thereof, by the rattle, signal, outcry, or otherwise, shall repair to, and assist by all means in their power; but no person, during his time of duty, shall absent himself from his particular stand or walk, without consent either of the constable or special constable of the night, unless on the above occasion, or for suppressing some disorder of which he is eye or ear witness on some adjoining stand, &c. in absence of the persons keeping watch, &c. therein, nor then longer than necessary, s. 19.

30. Every constable or special constable, so intrusted with the direction and management of persons required to perform the above duties, shall, respectively on every night of watching, and day of warding, diligently observe the behaviour of every person so employed under him in watching and warding, and shall enter in a book his name and hours of attendance, with remarks on his conduct, whether diligent or remiss, and shall weekly or oftener, deliver such book, with other observations arising in discharge of his duty, to the chief constable of the hundred, or to the person appointed by the special or petty sessions to receive it, id. s. 20.

31. The magistrates of any city, borough, town, or place, having exclusive jurisdiction, as justices of peace, for its preservation therein, may carry this act into execution therein, and any 2 magistrates may make any adjudication or order, or do any thing for which any greater number of justices is hereby required as to any county, and the town clerk or other person appointed by the magistrates, may give any notice required to be given, by the clerk of the peace, for assembling any special general sessions; and all the provisions of this act, as to any counties, and justices acting therein, and as to executing this act therein, shall extend to all places, the magistrates whereof have exclusive jurisdiction as justices, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 21.

32. Where the expences, attending the police or preservation of peace, in any city, &c. as in s. 21., or place, within any county, are paid out of any rate made therein, distinct from any county rate, though the magistrates in such city, &c. have no exclusive jurisdiction as justices, yet they may carry this act into execution within such city, &c. and regulate the payment of expences arising therefrom separate from the county; and no such city, &c. where any such rate has been levied for executing this act, or where the expences thereof have been paid from the poor-rates, shall be liable to the rates for the county; nor shall any such rates be levied in any parish or part of such city, &c. beyond the local limits wherein watch and ward is performed under this act, id. s. 22.

33. All provisions herein relating to constables, extend to headboroughs, &c. or other officers performing the duty of constable, id. s. 23.

34. All provisions herein relating to any county, extend to any riding or division within or for which separate general or quarter sessions are held, and the justices in any county, city, &c. or place, may add any extra-parochial place to any parish for the purposes of this act; and all provisions herein relating to parishes extend to all townships or divisions thereof, and to all extra-parochial places added to any parishes for this act; and all constables and special constables, and persons having their authority, shall have full authority in any such extra-parochial place; and where no rates are levied in the latter, either for paying any expences of police, or preservation of peace, or relief of poor, out of which the expences of executing this act can be paid, the justices may cause rates to be made therein adequate to its fair proportion of expence, with the parish to which it is added; and all constables required to collect such rates, shall have the powers vested in overseers for levying poor rates, id. s. 24.

35. Any constable or special constable, where an offender against this act shall, on pursuit, escape out of his jurisdiction, may apprehend him at any place, though out of his jurisdiction, and may act in all other respects as if he had been taken within his jurisdiction, id. s. 25.

36. Every person watching or warding as such special constable, shall, for every night and day, be entitled to such compensation as the special general sessions shall direct; and every other person engaged in so watching, &c. shall (if his behaviour has been satisfactory to the constable of the watch) be entitled to the sum in like manner appointed for every night and day for which he is so employed, to be paid forthwith by the parish constable, and repaid to him by the overseer of the parish, on entry in a book by the constable, and delivered to such overseer after verification on oath before any justice for the county, and certified in writing by him as having been so verified and allowed by him; and every person from whom such compensation is withheld by any constable, may appeal to such justice, whose decision shall be conclusive, id. s. 26.

37. The justices in any county, city, &c. as in s. 21. pl. 29. or place, in which any disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, and in which any number of persons shall (with approbation of the majority of the magistrates in special general session) have voluntarily assembled for the purpose of watching and warding, and shall watch, &c. under regulations approved as above, may allow to the persons so watching, &c. (though such watch, &c. be not carried on according to this act) such compensation for their time as the magistrates think proper out of any rate levied in such county, city or place for police, poor, &c. in such proportions as seem to them proper; and the persons authorized to assess and levy such rates, may raise any sum necessary for paying such compensation by an additional rate under all the laws in force for levying the first mentioned rates, id. s. 27.

38. Every person who shall assault or resist any person watching or warding whilst in execution of his office, or who shall promote or encourage the same, shall, on conviction before a magistrate, forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.*, and shall be also liable to the other punishment on indictment, &c. for assaulting a constable in execution of his office, id. s. 28.

39. Every victualler or keeper of a public house who shall knowingly harbour or entertain, or permit any person so engaged in watching or warding to remain in his house tippling during his hours of duty, shall, for the 1st offence, forfeit 40*s.*; for the 2d id.; and for the 3d and every subsequent offence, 10*l.*, id. s. 29.

40. Any two justices, on information on oath by any constable or other credible witness, that any person, not a householder, nor legally settled in the place, or a native thereof, is in his belief upon his oath dangerous to the peace of the place where he is resorting, or that he is endeavouring to seduce others to such disturbances therein, or in other places, may issue a warrant to apprehend and cause such person to come before them, and examine him on oath as to his last legal settlement and residence, means of livelihood, occupation, mode of living, and reason for resorting to the place where he is found; the substance of which examination shall be reduced to writing and signed by such justices and person so examined, and shall be transmitted to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, there to be filed of record: and if such person shall not give a satisfactory account of himself, and his way of living, and reasons for resorting to such place, &c. and it appears to the satisfaction of the justices on examination of such constable, or credible witness on oath that there is just ground to believe that the person so apprehended is engaged in practices dangerous to public peace, such justices may order him to return, or (if he refuse to obey the order) may remove him to his last legal settlement, or if it cannot be ascertained, to his last place of residence, as vagrants may by law be removed; and if such person afterwards return without shewing sufficient cause, approved by the justices, or refuse to answer on examination, or if his account of himself is proved to be false, any 2 justices may adjudge him a rogue and vagabond, within 17 G. 2. c. 5., 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 30.

41. Any 2 justices may require the constables in any parish or place to make out and deliver to them within the time required by such justices, and as often as deemed necessary by them, true lists of all persons usually residing, or being within their parish above 14, for which purpose any constable may demand from each householder within such parish, a true list or account of the christian and surname of every such person above 14 then in his house, and for refusal to give, or for giving a false account shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*; and every constable who shall not make out and deliver such list to the justices demanding it shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, id. s. 31.

42. Every person aggrieved by the judgment of such justices may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county or place wherein the cause of complaint has arisen, on entering into a recognizance at the time of such judgment, personally to appear there to try such appeal, and abide further judgment of the sessions; but such appeal shall not prevent in the mean time the execution of the justices' judgment, unless the appellant produce 2 sufficient sureties, (householders of the parish where he was apprehended,) who shall enter into a recognizance in a sum fixed by a magistrate to prosecute such appeal and for good behaviour of appellant till its hearing, id. s. 32.

43. Every person guilty of any offence for which a pecuniary penalty shall be incurred by this act, may be convicted thereof by information on oath of one credible witness by any one or more justices of the county in which such offence was committed, and the penalties may be levied by distress, under hand and seal of any justice or justices for the county in which such offence was committed or penalty incurred, and when levied shall be paid in moieties to the informer and poor of the parish in which the offence was committed, and in case of no sufficient distress, the convicting justice, &c. may commit the offender to gaol or house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 33.

44. Such justice, &c. shall cause every such conviction to be drawn up in form or to the effect specified in Sch. (B.) and to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general quarter sessions, to be kept among the records of the court, and persons aggrieved by such conviction may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the respective counties, giving the convicting justice notice in writing within 8 days after such conviction, of his intention to appeal, and the quarter sessions may proceed to the hearing and final determination thereof, and may make such order therein, and award such costs not exceeding 40*s.* to either party at discretion: which appeal, or its subject matter, and any order therein shall not be removed by certiorari, id. s. 34.

Schedule (B.) (see id. s. 34. pl. 44.)

'Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of the reign of His present Majesty, A. B. of — is duly convicted before me [or us] one of the justices, [or 2 of the justices] of the peace for the — under an act passed in the 52d year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, an act, [insert title hereof] for that the said A. B. on — at — did — contrary to the said act, wherefore I, [or, we] the said — do adjudge that — Given under —'

45. The justices of peace at the adjournment of any special general sessions, convened as above, may suspend the powers hereof in any parish, township, or place within their jurisdictions whenever it appears to them on sufficient evidence that the disturbance of the peace therein shall have effectually subsided or been suppressed, and that the officers ordinarily appointed for preserving the peace are sufficient for that purpose, as well as for the protection of the inhabitants, and security of property therein, and shall thereupon give notice thereof to the home secretary, id. s. 35.

46. No person employed as a special constable or watchman for the purposes of this act shall gain a legal settlement thereby, id. s. 36.

47. Nothing herein shall affect any jurisdiction or rights of Oxford, or Cambridge, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 37.

48. Every action brought for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be commenced within 3 months next after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county where the cause of action accrued, and the defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence on any trial thereupon, and that the same was done under this act; and if it appear so done, or if the action is brought after the time above limited, or laid in another county, the jury shall find for defendant, and on such verdict, or if plaintiff is nonsuit, discontinues, or has verdict or judgment against him, on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 38.

WATERMEN.

1. CONCERNING WATERMEN ON THE Thames, 6 H. 8. c. 7. [NOTE. This act settled the amount of fares to watermen, and was superseded by 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. pl. 2. and see now by 34 G. 3. c. 63. pl. 65.]

2. TOUCHING WATERMEN AND BARGEMEN on the river Thames, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. and recital in s. 1. 2. [AMD. as to mariners licensed by the Trinity House, 8 El. c. 4. s. 5., 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 3., 4 & 5 A. c. 19. s. 18.] [All penalties by these acts inflicted to go to the watermen's company, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 7. pl. 40.]

3. There shall be yearly appointed and elected by the mayor and court of aldermen of the city of London, 8 watermen being householders and occupying as watermen on the river Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, which election shall be yearly at the first court of aldermen holden next after the 1st March; and such 8 watermen shall be called "The overseers and rulers of all wherry-men and watermen that occupy any rowing on the river between Gravesend and Windsor," and they shall keep good order amongst such watermen, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 3. [But see the companies of watermen and lightermen united, and a new order of electing rulers, &c., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 1. 3. pl. 33. 35.]

4. No person, where 2 watermen and no more row together in one boat or wherry, in any place betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, shall take any person into his boat, &c. to carry him therein, unless one of them has been for the most part used in rowing on the Thames for 2 years before, and one of them also admitted by such 8 overseers, as in s. 3. pl. 3. by writing under their known seal to be a sufficient waterman, on pain to be, by such 8 overseers, committed to one of the compters of London, for one month or less, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 4.

5. No single man not keeping household and not retained, shall use or exercise to row between Gravesend and Windsor, unless they be apprentices retained with the master for one year, upon pain of like imprisonment as in s. 4., pl. 4., id. s. 5. [See s. 12., pl. 14.]

6. The mayor of London and aldermen of the same city, and the justices within the shires next adjoining the Thames, within their respective jurisdictions, shall, on complaint made by such overseers, as in s. 3. pl. 3. or 2 of them, or the master of any such servant, not only examine and determine all complaints or offences committed against this act, and set at large persons imprisoned by such overseers if just cause appear so to do, but also punish such overseers who shall unjustly and without good cause punish any person under this act, id. s. 6.

7. Every person making any wherries or boats for carrying people on the Thames, which shall not be 22½ feet long, and 4½ feet broad in the midships, or which shall not be substantially and well able to carry 2 persons on one side tight, shall forfeit such boats, to go one moiety to H. 8. Every person exercising the occupation of rowing between Gravesend and Windsor, who shall voluntarily withdraw themselves into secret places in the time of execution of any commission of pressing, and when the same is over, to return to row on the Thames again, shall, on proof thereof, by 2 witnesses before such mayor and court of aldermen, or justices, as in s. 6. pl. 6., and 2 such rulers, be imprisoned for 2 weeks, and be unable to row on the Thames for one year and a day, id. s. 8.

9. In case such number of watermen and lightermen as the admiralty shall give notice in writing to the company of watermen there shall be occasion for, to serve H. M., (being duly summoned by leaving notice in writing at their usual places of abode, by the company,) within 10 days after such summons, shall not appear before the rulers of such company, to be sent on board H. M.'s fleet, such persons so summoned and being duly convicted before the mayor and aldermen of the city of London, or 2 justices for such city, and 2 of such rulers, shall be imprisoned for one month, and be disabled from rowing or working on the Thames and of enjoying any of the advantages of such company for 2 years, 4 & 5 A. c. 19. s. 18.

10, 11. Such 8 rulers, as in s. 3. pl. 3., and their successors, may call before them all persons who occupy to row betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, and shall register the names of all allowed by them for watermen, in a book, and take such further order, as such rulers deem fit; and they may survey all boats and wherries before the same are launched out of the builder's yard into the Thames, in order that they may be prepared according to s. 7. pl. 7. of this act, 24 & 25 P. & M. c. 16. s. 9. [See further as to registering lightermen, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 6., post, pl. 39.]

12. Every person who shall be elected such overseer or ruler, as in s. 5. pl. 5., who shall negligently use his place, or refuse to take the same on him, shall forfeit 4*l.*, to be applied and recovered as in s. 7. pl. 7. directed, 24 & 25 P. & M. c. 16. s. 10.

13. Assessment of fares for rowing between Gravesend and Windsor, id. s. 11. [R.E.P. 24 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1., which see pl. 66.]

14. No person occupying any western barge, shall take into his service any single person not keeping household, but only such as are retained by him for the whole year, and no householder but such as will answer for his good behaviour, on pain to forfeit 40*l.* to be applied and recovered as in s. 7. pl. 7. directed, id. s. 12. [Q.U. R.E.P. see 5 El. c. 4. s. 2. LABOURER, pl. 4.]

15. All mariners and seafaring men dwelling about the Thames, being thereto licensed by the master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Strand, and having certificate of such licence from such master and wardens, shall and may, at all times, freely exercise and row in their own wherries, as well as other men's hired by them or wherein they are hired to work up and down such river to carry persons as other watermen without let, and shall not thereby be drawn under any other government than that of such master, wardens, &c. 8 El. c. 13. s. 5.

16. The 8 overseers and rulers of the society or company of wherry-men or watermen, shall twice in each year, viz. on 1st Sept. and 1st March, cause to be read and published in the hall of their common assembly, all the constitutions and orders already made, or to be made by such overseers, &c., on pain in case of neglect, to forfeit 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoins, &c. allowed, 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 3.

17. CONCERNING THE TAKING OF APPRENTICES BY wherry-men and watermen, 1 J. 1. c. 16. [AMD. and EXT. to lightermen, 4 & 5 A. c. 13., 2 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 1, 2., 10 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 1—7.]

18. No wherryman or waterman who shall row on the Thames, and transport or carry passengers or goods in wherries, tilt boats, or barges, (other than western barges, millboats, and other vessels ordinarily serving for other uses than carrying passengers) shall retain any servant or apprentice to serve him as a waterman on such river, unless he himself has been an apprentice to a wherryman, &c. for 5 years before such retaining; and no wherryman, &c. shall retain in his service as his apprentice, any person who is not of the age of 18 years or more, and who shall be bound for 7 years, on pain to forfeit 10*l.*; to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing, in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoins, &c., 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 1.

19. This act shall not extend to the sons of wherry-men or watermen being of the age of 16, that shall be trained up in rowing, and have used to transport passengers from place to place, but all such sons may serve as apprentices on such river as heretofore, id. s. 2.

20. The clause of 1 J. 1. c. 16. ss. 1, 2. which restrains the taking of apprentices till they arrive at a certain age, and every rule, &c. made under 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 4. for the like purposes shall be REPEALED, 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 1.

21. The court of mayor and aldermen of London, may at all times review or examine, alter or amend, or such rules and by-laws which relate to apprentices of watermen and lightermen, and all other orders, &c. made for governing the company of watermen, &c. which alterations and amendments shall be subject to the approbation of chief justice of K. B., and all such rules, &c. so altered, &c. shall be approved of as aforesaid, and duly observed, id. s. 2.

22. General saving for the Duke of Richmond, and the mayor and jurats of Gravesend and Milton, id. ss. 3, 4. [See the sections at length, 34 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 19, 20. pl. 84, 85.]

23. No person who shall keep, use, hire, or work any wherry, boat, barge, or other vessel for carrying passengers or goods for hire on the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall bind, take, or employ any apprentice or servant, unless he shall be an housekeeper, or have some known lodging where he may entertain such apprentice, &c. [see 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 5. pl. 29.] and shall register with the clerk of the watermen's company, the lodging, &c. where he shall reside, or whereto he shall remove, on pain that any master or person doing contrary hereto shall, on conviction before the mayor of London, or one justice for such city, or for the county or place where the offender is found, by the oaths of 2 witnesses, forfeit 10*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of such mayor or justice, and for want of distress, shall by like warrant be committed to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, or less than 14 days; and the clerk of such company shall, on application made to him, register the such habitation or lodging of every such waterman, wherryman, or lighterman, and every such removal in a book without fee; and if such clerk shall neglect so to do, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered, levied and applied as any other penalty under s. 9. pl. 52. of this act may be; and if any such waterman, &c. shall neglect to register his abode, and such removal, any apprentice bound to him, may on application made to the rulers and overseers of such company, or the major part of them, at any of their public courts or assemblies, be turned over to another master or mistress, any indenture, &c. notwithstanding, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1.

24. No apprentice shall have the sole care of any boat within the liberties aforesaid, till such apprentice has attained the age of 16 years, if he be the son of a waterman, or 17 years if of a landsman, and unless such apprentice has worked on the river with some waterman, &c. for 2 years before attaining such ages, and if any apprentice under such years shall offend contrary hereto, and be convicted thereof, then the master or mistress so offending, shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied, recovered and applied as in s. 9. pl. 52. directed, id. s. 2. Recovering of penalties, id. s. 9. Limitation of actions. General issue, and Public act, id. s. 10. [See the sections at length, pl. 52, 53.]

25. No person, although free of the watermen's company, who shall keep, use, hire, or work any wherry, boat, tilt boat, barge, or other vessel, for carrying passengers or goods for hire on the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall bind, take, retain, or employ to serve him, or to work on such river, any person as an apprentice, until such person so taken is 14 years old, and shall not exceed 20, which shall appear by the certificate of the minister or churchwardens of the parish where he was born, or by oath or affirmation of 2 witnesses, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 1.

26. Such apprentice shall be bound by indentures as usual, and be enrolled in the book of such company, to serve his master or mistress as an apprentice on such river for 7 years, on pain that every person doing the contrary shall, on conviction before the mayor of London, or one justice for the county, city, or place where the offender was found, or the offence committed on oath of one witness, forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 2.

27. Every apprentice bound contrary to this act, shall not hereby obtain any freedom, or be entitled to any of the privileges or advantages by such apprenticeship, which watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, free of such company are entitled to, but shall be liable to pay 10*l.* for every time he shall work any boat or other vessel, on conviction, as in s. 2. pl. 26. id. s. 3.

28. No freemen of such company, nor his widow shall at one time take or retain more than 2 apprentices, nor shall take a second until the first has served four years of his apprenticeship, under penalty of 10*l.*, id. s. 4.

29. No waterman, wherryman, or lighterman, though free of such company, or his widow, shall take or retain any apprentice, unless such waterman, &c. or his widow shall be occupier of some house or tenement, and shall keep his apprentices to lodge in the same house with him, on pain to forfeit 10*l.* on conviction, as in s. 2. pl. 26., id. s. 5. [See 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. pl. 23.]

30. If any person shall knowingly and wilfully produce any forged or false certificate, and shall be thereof convicted before the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the city, by the oath of one witness, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 6.

31. Any waterman, &c. being owner of 12 lighters, barges, or flat-bottomed boats, in his own right, may take 2 apprentices at one time; and the owner of 20 lighters, &c. may take 4 apprentices; provided such owner first take an oath before the lord mayor, or one justice of peace for London, Westminster, Middlesex, Essex, Surrey, Kent, Bucks, or Berks, that he is bonâ fide the real owner of the number of lighters, &c. aforesaid, and produce such oath in writing under the hand and seal of the lord mayor, &c. to the rulers of the company at any of their public courts, id. s. 7. Recovery of penalties, ss. 15, 16. General issue, treble costs, s. 18. [See pl. 61—64.]

32. FOR THE EXPLANATION AND BETTER EXECUTION OF former acts touching watermen and wherry-men serving on the Thames, and for the better ordering of such watermen, &c. and lightermen on such river between Gravesend and Windsor, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. PUBLIC clause, s. 11. [AMD. 2 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 3—10. PUBLIC clause, s. 10. which is AMD. 4 G. 2. c. 24. PUBLIC clause, s. 2. 10 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 8—18. PUBLIC clause, s. 19.]

33. All laws now in force concerning watermen, not hereby altered, shall be put in execution, and every person being a lighterman or owner of any lighter, or keeping any lighter or other large craft, or working in the same, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall be of the same company with the wherry-men and watermen; and such wherry-men, watermen, and lightermen, are hereby made one society and company, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 1.

34. 49. In all cases where distress cannot be found to satisfy the penalties inflicted by any rulers, &c. of the company, oath being made of such want of distress before the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the place where the offender shall be found, such lord mayor, &c. may commit such offender to the workhouse or house of correction, there to be kept at hard labour for not exceeding one month, nor less than 14 days, such offender being convicted according to 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21., or this act, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3.

50. If any person not having served 7 years to any waterman, &c. (except Trinity men, fishermen, ballastmen, and persons employed in navigating western barges, mill-boats, chalk-hoys, faggot and wood-lighters, dung-boats, and gardener's boats, in such manner as hath been accustomed, and is allowed by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. ss. 2, 9. pl. 34. 42.) shall row any boat, vessel, or craft upon the river for hire between Gravesend and Windsor, every such offender being convicted in manner aforesaid shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied, &c. as in s. 9. pl. 52.; and for want of distress, the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the place where the offence was committed, shall by warrant under his hand and seal commit such offender to the next public workhouse or house of correction for not exceeding one month or less than 14 days, id. s. 4.

51. Ferry-boats worked at or between Kingston and Windsor, on the Thames, shall not be deemed large craft; and all flat-bottomed boats and barges navigated from such towns, or places between them, to any other place on the Thames, and thence to Kingston or Windsor, or places between them, shall be deemed western barges, and may navigate the Thames as far as London-bridge; and no person so working such ferry boats or such flat-bottomed boats or barges on such river shall be subject to any penalties by 2 G. 2. c. 26. imposed, 4 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.

52. All penalties incurred under this act shall be sued for by the rulers and overseers of the watermen's company, or two of them, in the manner by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 5. pl. 58. directed, and shall go to such rulers, &c., to be distributed for the use of the poor of such company as they deem fit; and all prosecutions for such offences shall be commenced within one month after, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 9.

53. All constables and headboroughs shall aid and assist in the execution of this act; and actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act or any former act relating to the water-service on such river, or the regulating or governing such company, and persons, shall be brought within 30 days after the fact committed, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and such former acts and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance of such acts; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, the jury shall find for the defendant; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs. This act deemed a public act, id. s. 10. [See 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 17. pl. 82.]

54. No person who shall work or navigate any tilt-boat, row-barge, or other boat, for gain, shall carry in any such tilt-boat or row-barge more than 37 passengers, and 3 more passengers only, if brought on board by the way; nor shall carry in any other boat or wherry more than 8 passengers, and 2 more only if called in by the way; nor shall carry in any ferry-boat or wherry allowed to work on Sundays, more than 8 passengers at one time, on pain on being convicted by oath of one witness, or by confession, before the lord mayor of London, or one justice of peace for the place where the offence was committed, or the offender found, or on view of any such justice for the first offence, to forfeit 5*l.*, and for the second offence, 10*l.*: one moiety to the informer, and the other to such uses as the other penalties imposed by this act; and every person who shall offend in the premises a third time, shall be disfranchised for 12 months, from working any boat, &c., and from enjoying any privileges the members of such company are entitled to; and in case any greater number of persons shall be carried in tilt-boats, &c. than allowed, and any passenger shall be drowned, every person who shall work such boats offending therein, and being convicted, shall be guilty of felony, and transported as felons, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8.

55. No person shall work any tilt-boat which shall not be of the burden of 15 tons, nor any boat which shall not be of the burden of 3 tons, in the long ferry between London-bridge and Gravesend, except such boat as shall be hired by any person for his own use, upon pain to forfeit 10*l.*, to go one moiety to the informer and the other to such uses as other penalties under this act, id. s. 9.

56. No person shall row or navigate any boat or wherry with a close deck, commonly called Gravesend Wherries, or with rails nailed to them, which are not moveable for carrying of passengers for hire between London-bridge and Gravesend, tilt-boats only excepted, on pain that every person offending herein shall forfeit 10*l.*, to go one moiety to the informer and the other to such uses as other penalties under this act, id. s. 10.

57. When any waterman rowing or belonging to such boats shall wilfully or negligently lose his tide either from Billingsgate to Gravesend or vice versa, by putting on shore to take in other passengers, except as herein is directed, or by waiting or loitering by the way, whereby such passengers shall be landed short by 2 miles, such passengers shall be discharged from paying for their passages, id. s. 11.

58. The rulers and overseers of the company of watermen, &c., or the major part of them, shall appoint 2 or more officers who shall give their constant attendance day and night at every time of high water at London-bridge and first flood at Gravesend, viz. one at Billingsgate and one at Gravesend, who, at the times of high water and first flood, shall ring a bell for 15 minutes, as a notice for all boats passing between London and Gravesend to put off on their voyages; and if, after ringing, any such boat does not immediately depart and proceed on without lying by in the river or putting again on shore within 2 miles of the ports of Billingsgate and Gravesend, as the case may be, for taking in any goods or passengers, or be not navigated by 2 sufficient men, the younger of whom shall be 18 years old, at least, then the owners shall forfeit 5*l.*, on conviction on oath of one witness before a justice for the county, city, or place where offence is committed, or the offender found, to be levied and recovered upon such boats, wherries, sails, tilts, and tackle thereof, and on the goods of the owner, in such manner as other penalties incurred by this act are to be levied, and to go in moieties to such rulers and overseers, and the informer, id. s. 12.

59. In case such overseers and rulers neglect to set up such bells at such places, or from time to time hereafter to appoint officers to ring the same, they shall forfeit 50*l.*, to go one moiety to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 13.

60. If such officers neglect to ring such bell at the times appointed they shall forfeit 40*l.*, to be levied, recovered, and applied as other penalties under this act may be, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 14.

61. All penalties incurred under this act, except such as are hereby otherwise directed to be levied and recovered, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of the mayor of London, or one justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, or the offender found, and for want of distress, such mayor or justice may, by like warrant, commit the offender to the next public workhouse or house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not less than 14 days, or more than one month, and such penalties, when levied, except such as are herein otherwise directed, shall be paid to the rulers and overseers of such company, and be by them distributed to their poor and decayed freemen and their widows; and all prosecutions for such penalties shall be commenced within one month after the offence was committed, id. s. 15.

62. Such penalties may be sued for by the rulers and overseers of such company, or any 2 of them, id. s. 16.

63. This act shall not hinder any persons from working any flat-bottomed boats or barges, who are entitled so to do under 4 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1. pl. 51., in the manner there directed, nor subject them to any penalties by this act imposed, id. s. 17.

64. Actions against persons for things done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 months after fact committed, and shall be laid and tried in London, Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, Kent, Bucks, or Berks, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it appears to have been so done, the jury shall find for the defendants, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after defendant has appeared, or if upon demurrer, judgment is given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 18.

65. FOR BETTER REGULATING AND GOVERNING THE WATERMEN, wherry-men, and lightermen on the river Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, 34 G. 3. c. 65. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 24.

66. So much of 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 11. pl. 13., as subjects any person taking for his fare above the prices therein assessed to fine or imprisonment shall be REPEALED; and the court of lord mayor and aldermen of the city of London shall make such rules, orders, and constitution for the better government and regulation of watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, rowing or using any boat, barge, or lighter, or other vessel upon the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, as they think fit, and may alter and repeal the same in manner, and with the approbation in s. 2. pl. 67. mentioned; and the mayor, recorder, and one alderman of such city within such city, and the justices of peace for the counties and places next adjoining the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall severally have power to enforce the laws and statutes, and also such rules, &c. so to be made, or those made by the rulers, auditors, and assistants of the waterman's company, and approved by such court of mayor and aldermen, pursuant to 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 4. pl. 36., against watermen, &c. and other persons offending against them, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.

67. Such court of mayor and aldermen may alter or repeal any of the rules, &c. now in force, or hereafter to be made, and may frame and set down in writing such others for governing such watermen, &c. owning, rowing, or working boats or other craft on the Thames, between the limits in s. 1. pl. 66. mentioned, and annex penalties to a breach of them, not exceeding 3*l.* for any one offence; and such rules, &c. may alter, repeal, or amend, as they deem fit, so as afterwards the same shall be approved by the chancellor of G. B., the lord keeper of the great seal, the chief justices of K. B. and C. P., and the chief baron of the exchequer, or one of them, who, on request of such court of mayor and aldermen, shall examine the same, and allow or alter the same as they deem fit, without fee, id. s. 2.

68. When any alteration in such rules, &c. or any new or other rules, &c. shall be made by such court of mayor and aldermen, a copy of such intended alterations, and of such new or other rules, &c. shall be left at Watermen's Hall, for the perusal of the rulers, auditors, and assistants of the watermen's company, 30 days before the same be allowed, as in s. 2. pl. 67. directed, in order that such rulers, &c. may submit to such court their objections, if any, and in case such rulers, &c. are not satisfied with the determination of such court of mayor and aldermen on such objections, they may submit the same to such chancellor, lord keeper, &c. or one of them, before such alterations, or such new or other rules, &c. are allowed, id. s. 3.

69. Such rules, &c. so to be made, altered, or amended by such court, shall, within 30 days after allowed and approved of, be printed and sent to the police offices lately established by act of parliament in Middlesex and Surrey, [see POLICE] and also to the clerks of the peace for the counties and places adjoining the Thames, to be published as the quarter sessions thereof, and also as such court of mayor and aldermen shall direct, id. s. 4.

70. In case any waterman, wherryman, lighterman, or other person shall offend against the laws, statutes, rules, &c. now in force, or which shall be made by such court in pursuance of this act, or by such rulers or auditors, as in s. 1. pl. 66., and approved by such court pursuant to other acts in that case provided, such mayor, recorder, or one alderman of such city, and any justice for the respective counties and places adjoining the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, within their several jurisdictions, may, on complaint made within 6 days after the commission of any such offence, summon the offender personally, or by leaving such summons at his usual place of abode, to appear and answer the complaint; and if any waterman, &c. being duly summoned shall not appear, such mayor, &c. within their respective jurisdictions, may issue his warrant to apprehend him, on oath made of due service of such summons, and cause such offender to be brought before him; and the accused being before such mayor, &c. either by means of such summons or of such warrant, he shall examine the complainant on oath, or any witness touching such offence, and if the party accused be convicted, either by confession or by oath of complainant, or one witness, such mayor, &c. may impose a fine upon him not exceeding the penalties inflicted by this act, or such other laws, statutes, rules, &c., and if such penalty is not forthwith paid, such mayor, &c. may commit the person convicted to some prison within such city, counties, and places respectively, for not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty be sooner paid, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 5.

71. No constable or other officer shall, by virtue of such warrant, take any waterman, &c. out of any boat or craft, until the same be safely moored, or unless there are sufficient hands on board to navigate the same, and notice of this provision shall be inserted in every such warrant, id. s. 6.

72. Every person who shall refuse to pay any waterman, &c. the money justly due for carrying such person in his boat, according to the established rules, such mayor, recorder, aldermen, or justices of peace within whose jurisdiction such refusal is made, may summon such person to answer the complaint, by causing a summons to be served personally, or by leaving it at his usual abode; and if such person neglects to appear and answer such complaint, such mayor, &c. may issue his warrant to apprehend and bring such person before him, on oath made of the service of such summons and of such refusal to pay, and the cause being before such mayor, &c. either by such summons or warrant, such mayor, &c. on proof made of such refusal, on oath or confession, may order payment of such sum as such waterman, &c. may appear entitled to, and also award satisfaction for loss of time and costs, at his discretion; and in case of non-payment of such sums so awarded, such mayor, &c. may commit such offender to some prison within his jurisdiction, for not exceeding one calendar month, unless such sum be sooner paid, id. s. 7.

73. Every person refusing to pay any such waterman, &c. the money demanded by him for carrying him in his boat, and likewise refusing to give his name and place of abode, or giving any false name or abode, shall forfeit for each offence not exceeding 5l.; and such offender may be summoned, and otherwise proceeded against, not only for the recovery of the money due to such waterman, &c., and satisfaction for loss of time, and costs, but also for such 5l. penalty, in the same manner as in s. 7. pl. 72. directed, id. s. 8.

74. In case any waterman, &c. or widow of any waterman, &c. has cause of complaint against any other waterman, &c. or widow of any other waterman, &c. whether master, apprentice, or servant, for any offence against this act, or such other laws, statutes, rules, &c. whereby the complainant shall deem himself or herself injured, damaged, or ill-treated, the overseers and rulers of the company of watermen, or 2 of them, (as well as such mayor, recorder, aldermen, and justices,) may determine the same, and convict the offender as here mentioned; (viz.) Two such overseers or rulers, on complaint made by such waterman or widow, within 6 days after the commission of any such offence, may summon the offender to appear and answer the same, by serving such summons personally upon him or her, or by leaving it at his last or usual place of abode, and the accused being before them, may examine the complainant or any witness touching such offence, and determine the same; and if the offender is convicted, such overseers or rulers may impose a fine on him, not exceeding the penalty inflicted by this act, or said other laws, statutes, rules, &c. and in case the same is not paid forthwith, such mayor, &c. within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed, shall, on production of the conviction drawn up as set forth below, issue his warrant to apprehend and bring such offender before him, and if on being so brought the penalty is not then paid, such mayor, &c. may commit him to some prison within such city, counties, or places for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty is sooner paid, id. s. 9.

Form of Conviction.

— } Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of H. M.'s to wit. } reign, A. B. is convicted before us — 2 of the rulers of the society or company of watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, for [here set forth the offence], and we do adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —. Given under hands and seals the day and year aforesaid.

75. The authority here given to such overseers and rulers shall not extend to the conviction of any offender who is not a waterman, &c. or the apprentice or servant to a waterman, &c. nor to any case in which the party damaged, or the complainant, is not a waterman, &c. or the apprentice or servant of a waterman, &c. duly authorized to act as such 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 10.

76. Every apprentice to a waterman, &c. imprisoned for offences against this act, or against such other laws, statutes, rules, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 66., shall serve his master or mistress, his or her executors, administrators, and assigns, not only till the expiration of the term for which such apprentice ought to serve by law, or by any agreement, but also for such further space of time, to be computed from the end of such term, as shall be equal in extent to the time for which he was imprisoned; and no such apprentice shall be considered as having served a legal apprenticeship, unless, and until, he has actually and bona fide served such further time, according to the intent of this act, id. s. 11.

77. In every case where any oath is directed by this act to be taken, such mayor, recorder, alderman, and justices respectively before whom such oath is directed to be taken, shall have power to administer the same, or instead thereof, in case of a quaker, a solemn affirmation; and the mayor, recorder, &c. before whom any person is convicted under this act, shall draw up conviction in form following; (viz.)

— } Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of H. M.'s to wit. } reign, A. B. is convicted before me — one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the city, county, or place, [as the case is], for [here set forth offence], and I adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —, being the penalty by him forfeited; and also the sum of — for loss of time and costs, [if any awarded]. Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year aforesaid, id. s. 12.

78. All penalties levied and received under this act shall be paid to the rulers and overseers of such company, or the major part of them, within one calendar month after levied, to be by them distributed to the poor, aged, and decayed freemen of such company and their widows; saving that the convicting magistrate may reward the informer out of the same, according to his discretion, so as such reward shall not exceed one half, id. s. 13.

79. Persons aggrieved by order or judgment of any such mayor, &c. or of such overseers or rulers, on account of any offence against this act, or such rules, &c. may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions holden for the place where the conviction was had, they, at the time of conviction, entering into recognizance, with one surety in 20l., to prosecute such appeal with effect, and abide the order made thereon; and the justices at such sessions shall determine such appeal, and make such order thereon, and award such costs as to them appear just, and may cause such costs, together with the penalty adjudged, to be levied under an order of sessions by distress and sale of the goods of the party refusing to pay, or of his surety, id. s. 14.

80. No orders or proceedings of such mayor, &c. overseers, or rulers respectively, under this act, shall be quashed for want of form, and the order of sessions shall be final; and no proceedings of such mayor, &c. out of or in sessions, shall be removable by certiorari or otherwise, id. s. 15.

81. No person shall be punished for any offence against act, unless such person is prosecuted within 6 days after the offence committed, id. s. 16.

82. Actions against any person for any thing done under this act shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the cause accrued, and shall be laid and tried in the county, &c. where they arose; and the defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it so appear, or if such action was brought after the time limited, or laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendants, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or if judgment is given for the defendant therein, then the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 17. [See 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 10. pl. 53.]

83. The 24 G. 2. c. 44., so far as same relates to rendering justices more safe in execution of their offices, shall extend to such mayor, recorder, aldermen, and justices acting under this act; and no action shall be commenced against any peace officers for any thing done in execution of this act, until notice in writing given or left at his usual place of abode by the attorney for the plaintiff, which notice shall contain the name and place of abode of the plaintiff, together with the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney shall be underwrote or indorsed thereon; and any peace officer may, within 14 days after such notice, tender any sum as amends to the plaintiff or his attorney, and if not accepted the defendant may plead such tender in bar, together with the general issue, and any other plea with leave of the court; and if on issue joined the jury find the amends tendered sufficient, they shall find a verdict for the defendant, and in such case, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have his costs, but if the jury shall find that no tender was made, or that the amends tendered were not sufficient, and against the defendant on such other plea, they shall give a verdict for the plaintiff, with such damages as they deem fit, together with full costs, id. s. 18.

84. This act shall not in any way impeach any right of the late Duke of Richmond, lord of the manor of Gravesend, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the holding of a court in such manor, called "The Court of the Water Course," for the better government of barges, boats, and vessels using the passage from Gravesend to London, and of the persons owning or working the same, or any other rights, &c. of such duke, his heirs, &c. relating to such passage, or to the barges, &c. using the same, or plying at the bridge of Gravesend, or persons owning or working the same, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 14., 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 3., 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 19.

85. This act shall not in any way impeach the grants, liberties, franchises, customs, privileges, or usages now lawfully enjoyed by the mayor, jurats, and capital inhabitants of Gravesend, and Milton, in Kent, relating to the passage upon the Thames, from such places to London, or the government thereof, but such mayor, &c. may enjoy the same as if this act had not been passed, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 15., 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 4., 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 7., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 20.

86. This act shall not alter or abridge the powers vested in the master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House, Deptford Strand, by 8 El. c. 13., nor shall any mariner, licensed, or to be licensed by such master, &c. to row or use any boat or wherry upon the Thames, or any men employed by such master, &c. in rowing or using any ballast lighters, or boats, on such river, be subject to such rules, &c. of such mayor and aldermen, 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 4., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 21.

87. All clauses and exceptions in former laws now in force for regulating watermen, &c., not hereby expressly altered or repealed, shall be in force, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 22.

88. Persons convicted and punished for any offences against this act, shall not suffer for such offence by virtue of such other laws or any statutes, of this realm, or of such rules, &c.; and no offender against such laws, statutes, rules, &c., shall be twice punished for one offence, id. s. 23.

WAX.

(STATUTE repealed.)

CONCERNING WAX-CHANDLERS, THE PRICE OF CANDLES, and other things wrought of wax (as figures, &c.), 11 H. 6. c. 12. [REP. by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

(STATUTE in force.)

1. FOR TRUE MELTING, MAKING, AND WORKING OF WAX, 23 El. c. 8.

2. Every person who shall, in making and melting wax use any deceit, by mixing it with rosin, tallow, turpentine, or other deceitful thing, to the intent to sell, or to offer to sell, the same for wax, shall forfeit the corrupted wax; and if the same is sold before such fault is found, the melter or procurer thereof shall forfeit 2s. per lb., one-half to H. M., the other to the party deceived, if he will sue, or else to any person suing for the same in any court of record, id. s. 1.

3. Every melter and maker-up of unwrought wax shall have a stamp of the breadth of 6d., whereon shall be graven two letters, signifying his name, and shall stamp every piece of wax triangle, in 3 places, on the outside of the upper part thereof, on pain to forfeit the value of every piece offered to be sold and not marked, id. s. 2.

4. No person shall melt, mix, work, or sell, any wrought wax, or wares wrought with wax, as lights, staff torches, red wax or sealing-wax, book candle, searing candle, scaring of dead corps, links, green or red wax, or any other wax-work for sale, but with good stuff, in convenient quantity; and every person who shall work or sell such stuff, shall have a mark to set on his work; and such as shall work, sell, or to sale put any such false wax, or wares wrought with wax, shall forfeit the same, to be divided as in s. 1. id. s. 3.

5. Every person who shall offer to sale any corrupted or false mingled wax, shall forfeit the same, to be divided as in s. 1. And all barrels, kilderkins, and firkins, filled with honey by the maker and seller, shall be marked with two letters for his name, each being one inch and a half long at least, burnt on the head of a cask with an iron, on pain to forfeit 6s. 8d. for every cask offered to be sold, and not marked; and any person who shall fill and sell, or cause to be filled or offered for sale, any barrel, &c. with honey, for a barrel, &c. containing less than 32 wine gallons the barrel, 16 gallons the kilderkin, and 8 gallons the firkin, shall forfeit, for every 1/2 gallon lacking, 5s.; and every person corrupting the honey sold, or to be sold, with any deceitful mixture, shall forfeit the vessel and honey, to be divided as in s. 1., id. s. 4.

6. This act, as touching the making of wax, shall not extend to any person selling the wax of their own bees, in open markets, in small pieces, nor to any servants mingling, &c. wax at command of their master, so as they confess the same, id. s. 5.

7. Every person who shall counterfeit any of the above marks, or shall set the mark of any other person, without consent, shall forfeit 5l. to be divided as in s. 1., and for non-payment shall be set on the pillory in the next market town, and suffer 3 months' imprisonment, id. s. 6. [See pillory abolished, 56 G. 3. c. 138. PILLORY.]

WEARS. — WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

WEARS.

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO CONFIRM ALL FORMER STATUTES AGAINST UNLAWFUL WEARS, 21 R. 2. c. 19. [REP. 1 H. 4. c. 3., but re-enacted 1 H. 4. c. 12.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR PUTTING DOWN AND REMOVING OF WEARS, &c. 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 23., 25 Ed. 3. St. 4. c. 4., 45 Ed. 3. c. 2., 1 H. 4. c. 12., 4 H. 4. c. 11. [All these acts CONF. 1 H. 5. c. 2. AMD. and ENFORCED, 12 Ed. 4. c. 7.]

2. All wears shall be put down through the Thames and Medway, and through all Eng., except by the sea-coast, 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 23. [CONF. in order to free passage of rivers, and safety of fish, 12 E. 4. c. 7. s. 1.]

3. All mills, wears, stanks, stakes, and kiddles, set up in the time of King Edward I., and after, whereby ships and boats are disturbed, shall be pulled down, without being renewed; and thereupon writs shall be sent to the sheriffs, and justices shall be thereupon assigned, at all times needful, 25 Ed. 3. S. 4. c. 4.

4. If any such annoyance, as in 25 Ed. 3. c. 4., shall be done, it shall be pulled down, by the process contained in that statute; and he that shall repair such annoyance, and be thereof attainted, shall incur the penalty of 100 marks to H. M., to be levied by estreats to the exchequer; and such law shall hold of annoyance made by enhancing such wears, &c. as by new levying them, 45 Ed. 3. c. 2.

5. Commissions shall be made to justices in every county of Eng. where necessary, to survey and keep the waters and great rivers, and to amend defaults, and make due execution of the said statutes, as well by their survey, advice, and discretion, as by inquest, to be taken, and to hear and determine the things aforesaid, and to survey the wears, mills, stanks, stakes, and kiddles, made before Ed. 1.'s time, and to pull down and amend those which they find too much enhanced and straitened; and if any such nuisances of wears, &c. in old time made, be judged to be pulled down and amended, he that has the freehold shall make thereof execution at his own costs, within half a year after notice, on pain of 100 marks, to be paid to H. M. by estreats in exchequer; and he that causes them to be repaired, enhanced, or straitened, against the said judgment, and is thereof convict, shall incur 100 marks penalty; and in case any person is grieved by execution, or otherwise, in this behalf, against right and reason, he may pursue and shall have remedy, 1 H. 4. c. 12.

6. "Recital that the passage of ships was disturbed, and fry of fish destroyed, and given to swine to eat, by reason of wears in the rivers." Commissions shall be issued to justices and others in every county where needful, to inquire of all things contained in the above statutes, and to punish offenders by fine; saving to H. M. the penalties thereon; and the estreats of such fines shall be delivered by the justices to the sheriff, by indenture, who shall pay of the issues of such estreats to such justice 4s. for every day that he shall travel to exercise his commission, and shall have allowance thereof in exchequer, 4 H. 4. c. 11.

7. If by award of the commissioners assigned according to 1 H. 4. c. 12., it is found that any wears, fish-garths, mills, mill-dams, or stanks, locks, ebbing-wears, stakes, kedels, hecks or flood-gates, are made, enhanced, straitened, or enlarged, against that statute, and the offenders being duly warned by the sheriff, by scire facias, do not, within 3 months, amend and break down the same, they shall forfeit 100 marks, to be paid by estreats into exchequer, 12 E. 4. c. 7. s. 1.

8. Every offender, his heirs or assigns, continuing such default, shall forfeit 100 marks, in moieties to H. M. and party suing for same in debt, by original writ, without fine in chancery, no protection or essoin in H. M.'s service being allowed, id. s. 2.

9. Every person, other than such against whom such judgment was made, being heir or assignee to them, and continuing such wears, &c. shall forfeit for every month 100 marks, to be divided as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

(STATUTE repealed.)

ALL MEASURES SHALL BE ACCORDING TO H. M.'s STANDARD, &c., 34 Ed. 3. c. 6. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

(STATUTES in force.)

[NOTE.—All the statutes on this subject previous to 8 H. 6. c. 5. are CON. by that act, s. 1., and by 11 H. 7. c. 4. s. 1.]

1. ONE MEASURE OF WINE shall be throughout the realm, and one measure of ale, and one measure of corn, viz. the quarter of London, and one breadth of dyed cloth, russets, and haberjects, viz. 2 yards within the lists. And it shall be of weights as of measures, 9 H. 3. (M.C.) c. 25.

2. 35. THE ASSIZE OF 32 GALLONS WINE MEASURE which is about 28 gallons old standard, well packed, and containing usually 1000 full herrings at least, shall be good assize of herring barrels, 13 El. c. 11. s. 5.

36. FOR REFORMATION OF FALSE WEIGHTS and measures, 16 C. 1. c. 19. and recital in s. 1. [RE. as to s. 7. as to water measures of corn ground or unground, and salt, by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. See rest of this title, MARKETS AND FAIRS, pl. 6.]

37. There shall be but one weight, measure, and yard, according to the standard of exchequer throughout the realm, as well within as without privileged places, and every measure of corn shall be stricken without heap: and whoever shall sell, buy, or keep any other weight, measure, or yard, whereby any article is bought or sold, shall (if lawfully convicted by the oath of one witness before a justice or head officer of the county, city, or town, or corporation where the offence is committed) forfeit for each offence 5s., to be levied by distress and sale of their goods and chattels, by the churchwardens and overseers, to the use of the poor of the parish; and in default of distress any justices or head officer respectively may commit the party to gaol till the penalty be paid, 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 2.

38. The act shall not extend to the rents of farms or lands, or to corn rents payable to any lords, colleges, or societies, by lease, covenant, or agreement; but the same shall be paid as before, and water measure shall continue in ports, maritime towns, and other places as formerly, id. s. 7. [RE. as in pl. 36.] General issue, id. s. 8. And treble costs to defendant, id. s. 9. [See the sections at length, MARKET, pl. 11.]

39. FOR ASCERTAINING THE MEASURES OF CORN AND SALT, 22 C. 2. c. 8., and recital in s. 1. [an additional act 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 12.]

40. If any person shall sell any corn or salt usually sold by the bushel by any other measure than that which is agreeable to the standard in H. M.'s exchequer, called the Winchester measure, containing 8 gallons to the bushel, struck even by the brim by the seller, and sealed, he shall forfeit 40s. to be levied as in pl. 37., by warrant of any justice of peace, 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. [Penalty enlarged 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 12. s. 2. pl. 47.]

41. If any head officer of any city, borough, or liberty, shall knowingly and wilfully suffer any person to sell or buy corn or salt by any other measure, or shall suffer any other measure to be used, or on complaint of the breach of this statute shall not duly punish the same, then upon conviction thereof by presentment or indictment before the general sessions of the county, he shall forfeit 5l., one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, to be levied by distress and sale of goods; and for default of distress, by imprisonment by warrant of the justices, 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 3.

42. If the clerk of the market within the verge, or the head officer, lord of liberty, or other person authorized to seal measures, shall neglect, being required, to seal any bushel, half bushel, or peck, duly gauged, he shall forfeit for the first offence 5l. and for every other offence 10l., to be levied as in pl. 40.; or if the clerk of the market within the verge takes more than the lawful fees, or if any other person exacts more than 1d. for sealing a bushel, or one halfpenny for a half bushel or peck, or one farthing for sealing any measure containing one gallon, pottle, quart, pint, or half pint, he shall incur the penalties in 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 2. pl. 37. (viz. 5l.) to be levied as in s. 2. of that act, id. s. 4.

43. At the charge of the persons who have the profit of the market in any city, corporation or market town, there shall be one measure of brass provided and chained in the public market place, on pain to forfeit for every person so neglecting 5l., to be recovered and applied as in s. 3. pl. 41., id. s. 5.

44. All constables shall search if any persons use any other measure, or strike the same in other manner than herein directed, or sell or buy by a measure, unsealed; and in case they find any such unsealed measure shall break the same; and for every offence against this act, shall present such offender at the next private or quarter sessions, id. s. 6.

45. No person punished for any offence by virtue of this act, shall be questioned for the same offence by virtue of any other act, id. s. 7.

46. No person shall take any toll, but according to such proportion as the measures in this act appointed bear to the measures whereby the same have been usually taken, id. s. 8.

47. Every person who shall sell or buy any corn ground or unground, or salt by the bag, or without measuring, being thereto required, or in any other manner than as is by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 37. directed, and that without shaking the measure by the buyer, shall forfeit, beside the penalty of the former act, all corn or salt bought or sold contrary to this act, or the value thereof, to the person complaining, 22 & 23 C. 3. c. 12. s. 2.

48. On complaint made to any justice, that any corn or salt hath been sold contrary to this act, the proof shall lie upon the defendant; wherein if such person fail, he shall forfeit as by this act, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant of one justice before whom he shall be convicted, which penalties shall be distributed by the latter as by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2: pl. 40. directed, id. s. 3.

49. Where in markets there is not a clerk of the market to seal measures, the head officer or other person who has the benefit of such market shall seal all measures duly gauged that shall be brought to him, taking fee as in 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 4. pl. 42., appointed; id. s. 4.

50. Every person to whom any salt, rent, or tithe-corn is due by lease or custom, may take the same, or its value, according to the proportion and by the like measures as were due before this parliament, id. s. 5.

51. THE CAPACITY OF THE WINCHESTER BUSHEL, 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 5. s. 29. [The rest of this act is Exr.]

52. Every round bushel with a plain bottom 18½ inches wide throughout, and 8 inches deep shall be a legal Winchester bushel, according to the standard in H. M.'s exchequer, id. ibid.

53. TO ASCERTAIN THE WATER MEASURE OF FRUIT, 1 A. St. 1. c. 15.

54. The water measure shall be round, and in diameter 18½ inches within the hoop, and 8 inches deep, and so in proportion; and every water measure by which apples and pears are sold shall be heaped as usual, and whosoever shall buy or sell them by other measure shall forfeit 10s., one half to the informer and the other half to the poor of the parish, being thereof convicted by oath of one witness before any justice or head officer of the county or corporation, where the offence is committed; such sum to be levied by the petty constable of the parish, under warrant from such justice, &c. of the offender's goods by distress and sale, id. s. 1.

55. This act shall not extend to any measures sealed by the masters wardens, assistants, and commonalty of the freemen of the London Fruiterers Company, to be used in measuring fruit sold by them in the city, or within 3 miles distance thereof, id. s. 2.

56. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTION OF THE USE OF FALSE and deficient measures, 35 G. 3. c. 102., 37 G. 3. c. 143. (PUBLIC clause both acts, s. 9.) 55 G. 3. c. 43. [The 55 G. 3. c. 43., seems in a great measure a re-enactment of 35 G. 3. c. 102. and 37 G. 3. c. 143., and they are therefore incorporated together.]

57. The justices of peace of Eng. and Wa. may, at their respective petty sessions, appoint one or more persons who shall have power to examine the measures within their several divisions, districts, and limits, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 1., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 1.

58. The persons so appointed (having been first sworn faithfully to execute their offices) shall, as often as such justices shall direct, enter in the day time into the shop, house, outhouses, and other places near such shop or house, and into the stall or standing place of any person within their respective divisions or limits, who shall sell by retail, and by any measure of capacity, any liquid or dry goods, or other article soever, and then and there shall search for, view, and examine all measures of capacity in such shop, &c., and seize any of them not being according to the standard in exchequer, which on such search shall be found therein, and detain the same to be produced before the petty sessions, on the hearing of the information which shall be preferred against the person in whose shop, &c. any such deficient measure is found; which person, on conviction in petty sessions, on view, confession, or oath of one witness, shall forfeit the same, to be broken or disposed of as the justices shall direct; and shall also forfeit for every such false and deficient measure not less than 5s. nor more than 20s., at the justices' discretion, which forfeiture, with costs of conviction, shall be levied by warrant under the hands and seals of the justices, or under that of one of them, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, [with the expences of distress and sale, 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 2.] [and if no sufficient distress is found, and such penalties with the said costs are not forthwith paid, such justices, or either of them shall, by like warrant, commit the offender to the gaol or house of correction of the limit where the offence is committed, for not more than one month, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2.] 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 2.

59. Every person who shall wilfully abstract or in any wise oppose any of the persons so authorized to examine such measures, and every person selling or retailing by measure, who shall refuse to produce his measures in order to their examination shall, for every such offence, on due conviction on oath before any justice, forfeit not more than [40s.

nor less than 5s., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 3.] 5l. nor less than 40s. at his discretion, to be levied and recovered as in 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2. directed, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 3., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 3.

60. The convicting justice or justices shall cause the amount of every such forfeiture to be applied towards the expences of executing these statutes, the residue if any, being paid to the treasurer of the county, city, &c. to the public stock thereof, and shall also prepare and sign returns of the forfeitures levied by them in pursuance hereof, and transmit them to the clerk of the peace at every quarter session, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 4., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 3., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 2.

61. The quarter sessions shall allow to such examiners of measures, a reasonable recompence for their trouble, to be paid out of the general stock of the county, division, city, or town, &c., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 5., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 4.

62. The quarter sessions shall purchase for the use of their respective counties or other limits, proper measures duly marked according to the exchequer standard, which shall be deposited either with the clerk of the peace or other proper person in a proper place within their limits, directed by the justices, and shall be produced by the persons having them in custody, on reasonable notice at such time and place as any person shall by writing under his hand appoint, the latter paying the reasonable costs of producing the same, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 6., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 7.

63. If the majority of inhabitants of any parish, township, or place, are desirous specially to appoint some person to examine the measures therein, they may (at a vestry duly holden for that purpose) nominate 5 or more substantial householders to be approved and appointed by such petty sessions for the division, &c. wherein such parish, &c. shall lie, with all the powers in s. 1., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 7., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 4.

64. No appointment for such parish, &c. shall be made, until the inhabitants have procured the proper measures duly marked according to the exchequer standard, for use of such parish, &c., to be deposited in custody of the persons appointed as in s. 7.; and the petty sessions may direct the costs of procuring such measures, and the examiner's salary to be paid out of the poor rate for such parish, &c., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 8., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 5.

65. No proceedings touching convictions under these acts shall be removed by certiorari or other process, into any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 9., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7.

66. The conviction of offenders against 55 G. 3. c. 43. shall be in this form:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, A. D., at a petty session holden at — before us A. B. and C. D. justices of the peace, acting in and for the said —, E. F. of — the said — was duly convicted before us the said justices, for that he, the said E. F., on the — day of — now last past, at —, in the said —, contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, [here state the offence]; and we the said justices do declare and adjudge that the said E. F. hath, for such offences, forfeited the said [several] measures [—], and hath also forfeited the sum of —l. of lawful money of G. B., to be applied as the law directs; and the further sum of —l. of like lawful money for the reasonable costs and charges attending this conviction. Given under our hands and seals on the day, and in the year first mentioned.' 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 10.; [The form of conviction given by 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 8. is not given, as it seems practically superseded by 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 10.]

67. Every person convicted and punished for an offence against either of these acts, shall not be otherwise punished for the same offence, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 11., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 5.

68. Nothing in this act shall lessen the authority which any person, body politic or corporate, or person appointed at any court leet, may have for examining or destroying measures within their jurisdictions, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 12., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 6.

69. No prosecution shall take place under this act unless information thereof is given on oath to some justice within [one month, 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 8. altered to] 6 weeks after the offence, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 13.

WEST INDIES:

1. TO ENCOURAGE SUBJECTS OF FOREIGN STATES TO LEND MONEY on security of free or leasehold estates in any of H. M.'s colonies in the West Indies, and to render the securities granted to such aliens effectual for recovering payment of the money so to be lent, by sale thereof, 13 G. 3. c. 14. [Six pounds per cent. between British subjects, 14 G. 3. c. 79., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51. s. 1., MORTGAGE, pl. 10.]

2. All persons, foreigners or aliens, may lend money at not exceeding 5l. per cent. per ann., on security of any free or leasehold estate in any of H. M.'s colonies in the West Indies and hold the same as an effectual security for the money lent, and prosecute any suit for recovering it as in this act, whether the foreign state of which such alien is a natural born subject be at war with this kingdom or not, 13 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

3. In case of non-payment of the money lent on such security at the time agreed upon, such foreigners may bring and prosecute, by themselves or attorneys, any suit at common law, on any bond or other collateral security, or on any covenant on the part of the borrower contained in any such mortgage deeds; and also bills in the court of chancery of the colony where the estate lies, praying a decree of sale of the mortgaged premises for payment of the debt due thereon, in which suit the plaintiff shall be entitled to like remedies, for recovery of his debt and costs as any British subject can have, except the being entitled to obtain, directly or indirectly, the actual possession of such mortgaged premises by any process of execution at common law, or to foreclose the equity of redemption by decree or order of any court of equity soever, 15 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2.

4. The court of chancery where such bills shall be brought, may order the sale of such mortgaged premises in the same manner as where the mortgagor had consented to a sale, id. s. 3.

5. In such cases, service of any writ or process of such court on the known attorney or agent of such foreigners residing within the jurisdiction thereof, shall be deemed good service; and in case the defendant is absent, and has no such agent residing within such jurisdiction, then, on affidavit thereof by the person seeking such relief, or his attorney duly constituted to the satisfaction of the court, (in which affidavit shall be expressed the residence of such foreigner, according to the best of the deponent's information and belief,) the court may issue a commission under seal to commissioners authorizing them to take affidavit of the service of such writ or process, on the defendant personally or at his usual residence, and to certify the same; which affidavit, returned with such commission into the court, shall be competent evidence of service of such writ or process; and if defendant shall not, within 6 months, after service on the attorney, or agent in the colony or on himself abroad, appear to the said bill, either in person or by attorney appointed under hand and seal, or according to the usage of the county to which he belongs, then the court of chancery in which such suit is brought, shall take the bill pro confesso, and decree an account to be taken by one of the masters of the court of what is due to defendant for principal, interest and costs; in taking which account, complainant shall be obliged to shew before the master vouchers for all credits that he shall claim; and the court, on the coming in of the master's report, shall make a final decree, appointing a time and place for payment of the sum, which, by such report, shall appear due to defendant, together with interest, till tendered as in s. 5., and adjudging a redemption of the mortgaged premises on payment of principal, interest and costs, either to defendant, his attorney, or into bank of Eng., as in s. 5., id. s. 4.

6. After a time and place for redemption of such mortgage, and the money to be paid for such redemption are ascertained by the court, according to the usual course, if the money is then and there tendered, and if such mortgagee or his representative, or attorney refuse to receive it, or shall not attend for that purpose, then the mortgagor, his representative, or attorney, may pay such money into the bank of Eng., in the name and with privity of the accountant-general of the court of chancery in Eng., to be placed to his account there ex parte the mortgagor or his representative, pursuant to 12 G. 1. c. 32., there to remain for the benefit of the mortgagee, and to be laid out on government or parliamentary securities as after mentioned, until he shall, on petition to chancery, in a summary way, at his expence, obtain an order for payment thereof, and of all interest arising therefrom, id. s. 5.

7. A certificate under the hand of the accountant-general, (which he is to give without fee as well to the mortgagor as mortgagee on application,) that the mortgagor or his heirs or representatives, or attorney, have paid such sum into the bank of Eng., shall discharge him and his heirs; and after such certificate is given, the mortgagor, his heirs, or assigns, and all persons who may be surety for payment of the sum originally lent, or its interest, shall be discharged thereof, and the legal estate of the mortgagee shall, after granting such certificate, be re-vested in the mortgagor, id. s. 6.

8. In the mean time, and until the mortgagee or his representatives apply by petition to chancery for an order to receive the sum, the accountant-general shall place it out on government or parliamentary securities, and pay the interest to the person entitled to the sum paid into the bank, id. s. 7.

9. The high court of chancery shall make an order for payment of the sum paid into the bank, and of all dividends therefrom to the person entitled thereto, on application to the court by petition in a summary way by the mortgagee; on the hearing whereof, it shall be sufficient for the petitioner to prove to satisfaction of the court, that he is the person for whose use the money was paid into the bank, or the legal representative of such person, without requiring any of the proceedings in the court of chancery of the colony to be transmitted hither; and on producing such order to the accountant-general, the money shall be paid to the person specified therein, or to his attorney without fee, id. s. 8.

WILLS. (See EXECUTORS, &c.)

1. WIDOWS MAY BEQUEATH THE CROP OF THEIR GROUND as well of their dowers as of other their lands and tenements; saving to the lords of the fee all the customs and services due for their dowers and other tenements, 20 H. 3. (St. Merton). c. 2.

2. HOW LANDS MAY BE WILLED BY TESTAMENT, 32 H. 8. c. 1. ss. 1—2. and s. 14. (commonly called The Statute of Wills) [virtually REP. as to ss. 3—13. and 15—17. by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.; AMD. 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 5. s. 4. and s. 14., which is virtually REP. as to ss. 1—3. 5—13. and 15—19. by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

3. Every person having any manors, lands, or hereditaments, holden in socage, shall have power to give and devise, as well by his last will and testament in writing, or otherwise by any act lawfully executed in his lifetime, all his said hereditaments or any of them, 32 H. 8. c. 1. s. 1. From 20th July 1540, id. s. 2.

4. But [suing of liveryes, REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.] reliefs and heriots shall be paid as usual, id. s. 14.

5. Every person having a sole estate in fee simple, or seised in fee simple in coparcenery, or in common of lands or other hereditaments in possession, reversion or remainder, may at pleasure give or devise to any person (except bodies corporate), by his last will and testament in writing, or otherwise by act lawfully executed in his lifetime, by himself solely, or by himself and other jointly or severally, his interest in such hereditaments, or in any rents, commons, or other profits thereof, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 5. s. 4.

6. Wills made of lands or hereditaments by any feme covert or infant within 21 years, idiot or person de non sane memory, shall not be good in law, id. s. 14.

7. TO ENABLE THE INHABITANTS OF THE PROVINCE OF York to dispose of their personal estates by their wills, notwithstanding the custom of that province, 4 W. & M. c. 2. [REP. from 26th March 1704 as to the proviso in s. 3., which excepts the citizens of York from the operation of the rest of the statute, (see pl. 9.), 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 2.]

8. "Recital, that by custom within the province of York, the widows and younger children of persons dying inhabitants of that province are entitled to a part of the goods of their late husbands and fathers, (called their Reasonable Part), notwithstanding any disposition by will and jointures made in their lifetime of such husbands, &c." Persons inhabiting or having any goods within that province, may, by their last wills and testaments, give and dispose of all their goods and personal estate to their executors, or to such other person as they shall think fit, in as ample a manner as within the province of Canterbury; and the widows, children, and other the kindred of such testators, shall be barred to claim any part in any other manner than as by such wills appointed, 4 W. & M. c. 2. s. 2. [EXT. to the citizens of York city by 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1., notwithstanding the proviso in 4 W. & M. c. 2. s. 3.]

9. Nothing in this act shall extend to the citizens of [York, REP. 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1.] and Chester, being freemen of that city, inhabiting therein at the time of their deaths; but every such citizen's widow and children shall have such reasonable part of the testator's personal estate as they ought by the above recited custom, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 2. s. 3.

10. TO REGULATE WILLS AND DEVISES OF REAL PROPERTY, (This title is framed) 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 5, 6. 12. 19—24. [AMD. as to nuncupative wills, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 14., and the wages due to workmen in H. M.'s dock yards declared not to be bona notabilia, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 26. And further AMD. as to the distribution of estates pur autre vie in cases where there is no devise, and no special occupant thereof, 14 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9. and further AMD. as to the attestation of wills and codicils of real estates in Eng. and the American colonies, 25 G. 3. c. 6. See the rest of 29 C. 2. c. 3. (viz.) ss. 1—4. 17. FRAUDS, pl. 23.; ss. 7—11. USES AND TRUSTS; s. 12. ESTATES (Life), pl. 9.; ss. 13—15. JUDGMENT, pl. 4—6.; s. 16. EXECUTION, pl. 18.; s. 18. RECOGNIZANCE, pl. 15.; s. 25. EXECUTORS, &c., pl. 38.]

11. All devises and bequests of any lands or tenements, devisable either by force of the statute of wills, 32 H. 8. c. 1. or by this statute, or by force of the custom of Kent, or of any borough, or any other particular custom, shall be in writing, and signed by the devisor, or by some other person in his presence, and by his express directions, and shall be attested and subscribed in his presence by 3 or 4 credible witnesses, or shall be utterly void, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5.

12. After recital of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. as in last pl., IT IS ENACTED, that, if any person shall attest the execution of any will or codicil, to whom any beneficial devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, or appointment of, or affecting any real or personal estate, other than and except charges on lands, tenements, or hereditaments, for payment of any debt or debts, shall be thereby given or made, such devise, &c. shall so far only as concerns the person so attesting, be utterly void, and such persons shall be admitted as a witness to such execution within the intent of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5., 25 G. 2. c. 6. s. 1.

13. In case by any will or codicil any lands, &c. (as in last pl.) are charged with any debt or debts, and any creditor, whose debt is so charged, attests the execution of such will, &c. he shall, notwithstanding such charge, be admitted to prove the execution within the intent of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. as in pl. 15., id. s. 2.

14. The credit of every such witness, so attesting the execution of any will or codicil, in any of the cases in this act before-mentioned, and all circumstances relating thereto, shall be subject to the consideration and determination of the court and jury, before whom any such witness is examined, or his testimony or attestation used, or of the court of equity, in which his testimony or attestation is used in like manner, to all intents and purposes, as the credit of witnesses ought, in all other cases, to be considered of and determined, id. s. 6.

15. No person to whom any beneficial estate, interest, gift, or appointment is given or made, which is by s. 1. pl. 13. of this act enacted to be void, or who has refused to receive any legacy on tender thereof made, shall, after he has been so examined, demand or take possession of, or receive any profits or benefit of, or from any such estate, interest, &c. so given or made to him by any such will or codicil, or demand or accept from any person soever, any such legacy or bequest, or any satisfaction or compensation for the same, in any manner, or under any pretence soever, id. s. 7. [Saving for the validity of wills executed and attested according to 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. where the devisee has been in quiet possession for 2 years next before 6th May 1751;] And the competency of witnesses where the will, &c. has been contested between the heir at law and devisee, in any prior will, for recovering the lands mentioned in the latter, or for obtaining any other judgment relative thereto, before 6th May 1751, id. s. 8. [Exp.] But no possession of any heir at law or devisee in such prior will, or of any claimant under them, which is consistent with, or may be warranted by any will or codicil, attested according to this act, or where the estate descended to such heir at law till a future or executory devise, under any will, &c. attested according to this act, shall be deemed a possession within s. 2., id. s. 9.

16. This act shall extend to such of the British colonies and plantations in America, where 29 C. 2. c. 3. is by act of assembly made or by usage received as law, or where, by act of assembly or usage, the attestation and subscription of a witness or witnesses are made necessary to devises of lands, &c. and shall have the same force in the construction of, or for avoiding doubts on the said acts of assembly and laws of the said colonies, as on 29 C. 2. c. 23. in Eng. id. s. 10.

17. As to cases arising in any of the above colonies, no such devise, legacy, or bequest, shall be avoided by this act, unless the will or codicil, whereby it is given, is made after 1st March 1753, id. s. 11.

18. No devise, in writing, of lands, &c. as in pl. 12. nor any clause thereof, shall be revocable otherwise than by some other will or codicil in writing, or other writing, declaring the same, or by burning, cancelling, tearing, or obliterating the same, by the testator himself, or in his presence, and by his directions and consent; but all devises and bequests of lands and tenements shall remain in force till burnt, cancelled, torn, or obliterated by the testator, or his directions, in manner aforesaid, or unless the same be altered by some other will or codicil, in writing, or other writing of the devisor, signed in presence of 5 or 4 witnesses, declaring the same, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 6.

19. Any estate pur autre vie shall be devisable by will in writing, signed by the devisor, or by some other person in his presence, and by his express directions attested and subscribed in his presence by 3 or more witnesses; and if no such devise of them is made, such estates shall be chargeable in the hands of the heir, if it comes to him by reason of a special occupancy, as assets by descent, as in case of lands in fee-simple, and if there is no special occupant they shall be assets in hands of the executors of party having the estate thereof by virtue of the grant, id. s. 12.

20. Such estates, pur autre vie, in case there is no special occupant thereof, of which no devise has been made according to 29 C. 2. c. 3. (viz. ss. 5, 6.) or so much thereof as have not been so devised, shall be distributed as the personal estate of the testator or intestate, 14 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9.

21. No nuncupative will shall be good where the estate thereby bequeathed exceeds 30*l.* value, that is not proved by the oaths of 3 witnesses at least that were present at the making thereof; nor unless it be proved that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid the persons present, or some of them, bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect; nor unless it was made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, and in the house of his habitation where he had been resident for 10 days or more, except where such person was surprised or taken sick, being from his own home, and died before he returned to the place of his dwelling, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 19.

22. All such witnesses as are and ought to be allowed to be good witnesses on trials at law, by the laws and customs of this realm, shall be deemed good witnesses to prove any nuncupative will, or any thing relating thereto, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 14

23. After 6 months passed after the speaking of the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove any will nuncupative, except the said testimony or the substance thereof were committed to writing within 6 days after making the same, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 20.

24. No letters testamentary, or probate of any nuncupative will, shall pass the seal of any court till 14 days at least after the decease of the testator are fully expired; nor shall any nuncupative will be at any time received to be proved, unless process has first issued to call in the widow or next of kindred to the deceased, that they may contest the same if they please, id. s. 21.

25. No will in writing concerning any goods, or chattels, or personal estate, shall be repealed; nor any clause, devise, or bequest therein altered or changed by any words, or will by word of mouth only, except the same be committed to writing in the life of the testator, and after the writing thereof read to and allowed by the testator, and proved to be so done by 3 witnesses at least, id. s. 22.

26. Notwithstanding this act, any soldier being in actual military service, or any mariner and seaman being at sea, may dispose of his moveables, wages, and personal estate, as he might have done before making this act, id. s. 23.

27. Nothing in this act shall alter or change the jurisdiction, or right of probate of wills concerning personal estates; but the prerogative court of the archbishop of Canterbury, and other ecclesiastical courts, and other courts having right to the probate of such wills, shall retain the same right and power as they had before, subject to this act, id. s. 24.

28. The power of granting probates of the wills and letters of administration of the goods and chattels of workmen in H. M.'s yards and docks, is in the ordinary of the diocese, or in such other person to whom the ordinary power of probate or granting such letters belongs where such persons die; and the salary or wages due to them for work done in H. M. yards or docks, shall not be deemed bona notabilia, whereby to found the jurisdiction of the prerogative court, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 26.

WINES.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. OF THE ASSIZE OF WINE, Stat. Incert. Temp. c. 5. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. i. 387. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

2. CONCERNING SALE OF WINES, 24 H. 8. c. 6. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

3. TO AUTHORIZE CERTAIN OF H. M.'s council to set prices on wines to be sold by retail, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 7. [CON. 37 H. 8. c. 23. BOTH EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REGULATE THE ASSAY AND PRICE OF WINES, 6 Ed. 1. c. 13., 4 Ed. 3. c. 12.

2. THE MAYOR AND BAILIFFS OF London, before the annual coming of the two barons of exchequer into the city, as in c. 14., shall inquire of wines sold against the assize, and present the same before them at their coming, when the parties shall be amerced, where before they used to tarry, till the coming of the justices in eyre, 6 Ed. 1. c. 15.

3. Proclamation shall be made, that none be so hardy to sell wines but at reasonable rates, regarding the price at the port and the carriage therefrom: and assay thereof shall be made at Easter and Michaelmas every year, and oftener, if necessary, by the lords or head-officers of the towns, and all the wines found spoiled or corrupt shall be poured out and the vessels broken; and the chancellor, treasurer, justices of K. B., C. P., and of assize, shall have power to inquire on the conduct of officers of towns herein, and to punish them reasonably, 4 Ed. 3. c. 12.

4. PROCLAMATION SHALL BE MADE, that no English merchant shall engross nor forestal wines in Gascony, nor take them by way of buying from any Gascon or other, to pay in Eng. for any greater sum than wines are commonly sold in Gascony, by pretext of earnest, or peril of sea, or other colour, on pain of [life and member, REP. 37 Ed. 3. c. 16.] and forfeiture of such wines, and of all their other goods to H. M., and of their lands and tenements to the chief lords, who shall have a writ of escheat in such case, 27 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5. [CON. 38 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 10.]

5. ALL MERCHANTS, Gascons, and other strangers, may safely bring their wines into Eng., to whatever part they please, and make profit thereof, [but H. M.'s butler may make purveyance thereof, &c., REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12.] id. c. 6.

6. No ENGLISH MERCHANT, or his servant, or agent, shall go to Gascony there to abide, nor shall have any other, there dwelling, to make bargain, or buying of wines, by any colour before the time of vintage, viz. before common passage is made to seek wines there, id. c. 7. [The rest of this act seems Exp.]

7. ALL MERCHANTS, ALIENS, DENIZENS, and others, who bring wines and other merchandize of any sort, to the staples, cities, boroughs, and good towns, or to the sea-ports within the realm, may safely and without impeachment of any, sell them in gross or retail to any purchasers; and no persons soever shall go by land or water to meet such wines, &c. coming to the realm on sea nor elsewhere, to forestal or buy them, or in other manner to give earnest on them before they come to the staple, or the port where they are discharged, nor enter the ships for that purpose, till the merchandizes are set on land to be sold, on the penalties in pl. 3., 27 Ed. 3. St. 2. c. 11.

8. ALL MERCHANTS AND DENIZENS which are not artificers, may pass into Gascony, to fetch wines there, so that by this general licence greater plenty may come, and greater market be had of wines within the realm: and that all aliens may come therein with their wines, and freely sell them without disturbance: saving that it shall be always lawful to H. M., on advice to him or his council to ordain on this article as best seems to him, for the profit of him and his commons, 38 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 11.

9. TO LIMIT THE PRICES OF WINES, 28 H. 8. c. 14. ss. 2—4. [CONF. 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 7. See rest of statute, GAUGING, pl. 11. AMD. 5 El. c. 5. s. 25. REP. as to s. 1. only, by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11., and 12 C. 2. c. 25. ss. 12—13.]

10. The lords chancellor, treasurer, president of the council, privy-seal, and two chief justices of K. B. or 5, 4, or 3 of them, may, at discretion, set the prices of all kinds of wine, per butt, ton, pipe, hogshend, puncheon, tierce, barrel, or runlet, when sold in gross, so that they cause such prices to be written, and open proclamation thereof to be made in chancery in term time, or else in the city, borough, or town, where such wines are sold in gross, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 2. and if persons refuse to sell wines at the price fixed, the chief officers of corporate towns may enter their houses, cellars, &c., and take the same at such prices, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3. [Such prices shall be yearly set between 20th Nov. and 31st Dec., 37 H. 8. c. 23. s. 2.]

11. All persons authorized to sell wines by retail in the several places wherein they are authorized, may sell the wines at such prices as shall be limited by H. M.'s proclamation in that place, made by assent of such lords, as by 28 H. 8. c. 14. were authorized to set prices on wines, 5 El. c. 5. s. 25.

12. Any person, who after such prices so set and proclaimed as above, shall sell any wines in gross by fraud contrary to the same, shall forfeit for every vessel by them sold in gross contrary hereto 40s., one half to H. M., and the other half to the head officer of the city or town corporate, if within such, but if without, then to the party suing by original writ of debt, &c. or information, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3.

13. The justices of every shire, and all head-officers of cities and towns corporate, in their respective jurisdictions, as well within franchise as without, may hear and determine the default of such as shall attempt to sell wine in gross or retail contrary to this act, at their discretion, id. s. 4.

14. TO AVOID THE GREAT PRICES and excess of wines, 7 Ed. 6. c. 5. [REP. as to ss. 1—2. by 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 43.]

3. AGAINST CONJURATION, WITCHCRAFT, AND DEALING with evil and wicked spirits, 1 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 2—5. [REPE. 9 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REPEAL SEVERAL STATUTES AGAINST CONJURATION, enchantment and witchcraft, and for punishing such persons as pretend to exercise or use any kind of sorcery, witchcraft, &c., 9 G. 2. c. 5. [See for Ire. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 18. repealing 28 El. c. 2. (Ire.) "Against witchcraft and sorcery."]

2. The 1 J. 1. c. 12., shall be repealed, except as far as it repeals 5 El. c. 16. id. s. 1. The 9 M. (Sc.) Ancient witchcraft, is repealed, id. s. 2.

3. No prosecution shall lie against any person for witchcraft, sorcery, enchantment or conjuration, or for charging another with such offence, id. s. 3.

4. Every person who shall pretend to use witchcraft, &c., or undertake to tell fortunes, or from skill in any occult or crafty science to discover where lost or stolen goods may be found, shall, when convicted on indictment or information in Eng., or on indictment or libel in Scot. suffer imprisonment for one year, and once in every quarter thereof, in some market town, on the market day, stand on the pillory one hour, and shall, if the court think fit, be obliged to give sureties for his good behaviour, id. s. 4.

WITNESSES. (See EVIDENCE.)

1. ALL PERSONS WHO SHALL APPEAR AS WITNESSES on behalf of the prisoner on any trial for treason or felony, before admitted to give evidence, shall take an oath to depose the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, in such manner as witnesses for the crown are obliged to do; and if convicted of any wilful perjury in such evidence, shall suffer the pains, forfeitures, &c. inflicted on persons convicted of wilful perjury, 1 A. St. 2. c. 9. s. 3. [See the rest of this act, FELONY, pl. 49. Skips, pl. 13.]

2. FOR OBVIATING OBJECTIONS TO THE COMPETENCY of witnesses in certain cases, 27 G. 3. c. 29.

3. From 1st Aug. 1787, the inhabitants of every parish, township and place shall be competent witnesses for the purpose of proving the commission of any offence within the limits of such parish, &c., notwithstanding the penalty incurred by such offence, or any part thereof, is or may be given, or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c. or otherwise for the benefit or use, or in aid or exoneration of such parish, &c., id. s. 1.

4. Nothing in this act shall extend to any action or proceeding in which the penalty or penalties to be recovered exceed 20*l.*, id. s. 2.

5. TO RENDER PERSONS CONVICTED OF PETTY LARCENY competent witnesses: No person shall be an incompetent witness by reason of a conviction for petty larceny, 31 G. 3. c. 35.

6. TO DECLARE THE LAW AS TO WITNESSES refusing to answer: A witness cannot by law refuse to answer a question relevant to the matter in issue, the answering of which has no tendency to accuse himself, or to expose him to penalty or forfeiture of any nature, on the sole ground that his answer may establish, or tend to establish, that he owes a debt, or is otherwise subject to a civil suit, either at instance of H. M. or of any other person, 46 G. 3. c. 37.

7. TO AUTHORIZE THE JUDGES TO WHOM petitions for certain bills are referred, to examine witnesses on oath, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 105.

8. Any one or more of the judges of Scot. or Ire. to whom any petition for any bill concerning lands, hereditaments in Ire. and Scot., or other heritable subjects in Scot., shall be referred by the house of lords, may examine on oath all witnesses produced before him or them, touching the matter of such petition and reference: and for that purpose may administer an oath accordingly; and every person taking such oath shall be punishable for any false evidence given under it, as if it had been administered to him at the bar of the house of lords, id. ibid.

9. FOR BETTER EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES in the courts of equity in Ire., and for empowering the courts of law and equity there to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B., 55 G. 3. c. 157.

10. The lord chancellor of Ire., or persons having custody of the great seal there, shall appoint one or more fit persons to swear and examine in Eng. and Scot. witnesses produced before him or them, there to be sworn and examined in suits depending in the court of chancery of Ire. as a court of equity, and to take in Eng. or Scot. answers, pleas, and demurrers of defendants, and affidavits of parties and others, in such suits, in the same manner as the masters in ordinary of the said court of chancery may swear; and the examiner of the court may examine such witnesses, and as the said masters may take such answers, pleas, demurrers and affidavits, according to the practice of the court, id. s. 1.

11. The lord-treasurer, chancellor and barons of exchequer in Ire., or any 2 or more of them, whereof the lord-treasurer, chancellor, or lord chief baron shall be one, shall appoint one or more fit persons for the same purposes as to suits in law or equity in the exchequer with all the powers of the said barons therein, id. s. 2.

12. The lord-chancellor, &c., the master of the rolls and judges of K. B. and C. P., the barons of exchequer, or 5 or more of them in Ire., of whom the chancellor and C. J.s of K. B. and C. P. or C. B. of exchequer shall be one, shall from time to time direct the fees to be taken by the several commissioners appointed under this act, exclusive of travelling expences, when required to leave home for any of the purposes of this act, and shall also from time to time direct the rates to be taken for such travelling expences, id. s. 3.

13. The persons so to be appointed by the courts of chancery and exchequer in Ire., shall hold such offices at pleasure of the court appointing them, and shall be deemed officers of the court, and called extraordinary commissioners for the above purposes; and may summon persons to attend them respectively at such times and places as they shall respectively appoint, to be sworn and examined as witnesses in suits depending in the courts appointing them, in the same manner as commissioners appointed by special commission by such courts respectively, may examine such witnesses, id. s. 4.

14. Every person appointed an extraordinary commissioner under this act, shall, previous to entering on the duties of his office, take an oath for the faithful execution thereof: (see the form next pl.) which oath shall be taken by every such officer appointed by the court of chancery of Ire. to such duty in Eng. before a master in chancery, or commissioner of affidavits appointed by the court of chancery of Eng., who are hereby required to administer the same: and by every officer appointed by the court of chancery of Ire., to such duty in Scot. before one of the lords of session in Scot. or other commissioner lawfully authorized to take affidavits there, who are also hereby required to administer the same: by every officer appointed by the court of exchequer in Ire. to such duty in Eng., before a baron of exchequer of Eng., or other person in Eng. by that court appointed to take affidavits therein, who are also hereby required to administer the same: by every officer appointed by the Irish exchequer to such duty in Scot. before any baron of Scotch exchequer, or commissioner of affidavits in that court, who are also hereby required to administer the same: and every oath so taken, shall, immediately after it hath been taken, be transmitted by the officer so taking it to the proper officer for filing affidavits in the court by which such person has been appointed extraordinary commissioner, who shall file and preserve the same, 55 G. 3. c. 157. s. 5.

“I—do solemnly and sincerely swear, that I will duly and faithfully, and to the best of my skill and power, execute the office of an extraordinary commissioner of the court of — of — in —, for the purposes mentioned in an act passed in the — year of the reign of His Majesty king Geo. 3. intituled An act for the better examination of witnesses in the courts of equity in Ire. and for empowering the courts of law and equity in Ire. to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B.; and shall, in every respect, to the best of my knowledge, conform to the rules and orders of the said court, and provisions of the said act. So help me God.”

15. The courts of chancery and exchequer in Ire. shall make such orders touching the conduct of such officers, the examination of such witnesses, and the taking such answers, pleas, demurrers and affidavits in their said courts; and the transmitting the same to the said courts respectively, as to the said courts seems proper, id. s. 7.

16. Every person in Eng. or Scot. sworn or deposed and examined as a witness, or sworn or deposed to the truth of any answer or plea, or affidavits before any officer appointed under this act for taking the same, and who shall in his answer, plea, or affidavit, wilfully swear or depone falsely, shall be deemed guilty and incur the penalties of perjury in the open court wherein the suit in which such oath was so taken then depended, id. s. 8.

17. The courts of K. B. and C. P. in Ire. shall have the same powers of granting commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B. as they now respectively have in Ire., and every person wilfully swearing falsely in any affidavit to be made before any person empowered to take affidavits under the above authority, shall be deemed guilty of, and incur the punishment of perjury, as in last pl. id. s. 9.

18. To enable the examination of witnesses to be taken in India, in support of bills of divorce on account of adultery committed in India, 1 G. 4. c. 101.

19. Whensoever either house of parliament on petition of any party praying a bill for dissolution of any marriage, and stating that the witnesses necessary to substantiate its allegations are resident in India, shall see cause to direct their examinations to be taken there, the speaker shall thereupon issue his warrant or warrants to the judges of the supreme courts of Calcutta, Madras and Ceylon, and recorder of Bombay, respectively, accordingly as the witnesses proposed to be examined are resident within any one such presidency or island, for examination on oath of all witnesses produced before them touching the allegations of such bill, and any notices or matters specified in such warrant; and where warrants are so issued, duplicates thereof with copies of such bill shall be transmitted by different ships at desire of the agent of the parties soliciting the bill to the persons to whom the warrants are directed, id. s. 1.

20. Immediately on receipt of such warrants, the judges or recorder to whom they are directed, shall appoint some time with all convenient speed for examination of witnesses, and receiving other proofs touching and in opposition to its allegations, and touching the matters specified in such warrant: and in the interim shall give such public notice of the examination, and issue such process for attendance of agents, counsel, or witnesses, and may adjourn from time to time as may be requisite: which examinations shall be then and there openly and publicly taken viva voce on the oaths of witnesses, and of skilful interpreters administered according to the forms of their respective religions, and shall by some sworn officer of the court be reduced into writing, and 2 copies made: and the judges or recorder shall certify the same under official seal of their several courts, with a declaration by them that the examinations have in their judgment been fairly conducted, and that all fit witnesses have been produced for ascertaining the whole truth, as far as their attendance could be reasonably obtained: and shall transmit the same by different ships to the speaker who issued the warrant: and every such examination so returned shall be good evidence, and shall be allowed and read in either or both houses as required, id. s. 2.

21. Such judges or recorder may ask any questions of any witness so produced, and require any further witnesses resident within their jurisdiction to be produced, as appears fit for due investigation of the matter specified in the warrant: and shall allow such attendance by counsel, and such cross examination of witnesses as they deem fit for that purpose, and if necessary, may name some proper person to attend as counsel and agent in opposition to such bill, and procure any evidence necessary for that purpose, in order to full disclosure of the facts and circumstances of the case, id. s. 3.

22. “After recital that by usage of parliament no proceedings by bill therein have continuance from one session to another,” IT IS ENACTED, That no proceedings touching any bill for dissolution of marriage, wherein such warrant has been issued, shall be discontinued by prorogation or dissolution of parliament until the examination has been returned: and such proceedings may be resumed and proceeded on in a subsequent session of parliament, 1 G. 4. c. 101. s. 4.

WOMEN.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR TAKING AWAY CLERGY FROM OFFENDERS AGAINST 3 H. 7. c. 2. pl. 5. concerning taking away women against their wills unlawfully, 39 El. c. 9. [REP. 1 G. 4. c. 116. s. 1.]

8. It shall not be lawful to take, or convey away any maid, or woman, child, unmarried, being within the age of 16 years, from the custody, and against the will of the father, or of such persons to whom he by his will or other act shall appoint, or bequeath, the keeping or education of such maid, &c. except such taking be had by or for her master, or mistress, or guardian, in socage, without fraud, id. s. 2.

9. Every person above the age of 14 years, who shall unlawfully take, or convey any maid, or woman child, unmarried, and within the age of 16 years, from the custody, and against the will of the father, mother, or persons who then happen to have by lawful means the education or governance of such child, shall, on conviction, suffer 2 years imprisonment, or pay such fine as is imposed by the star-chamber, id. s. 3. [Star-chamber dissolved, 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 3.]

10. Every person who shall so take away, or cause to be taken away, and deflower any such maid, or woman child, or shall against the will, or without the knowledge of her father, if her father is alive, or of her mother, having the custody of such child, if the father be dead, by secret letters, messages, or otherwise contract matrimony with such maiden, or woman child, shall being convicted suffer 5 years imprisonment, or pay such fine as is assessed by the star-chamber, to go in moieties to H. M., and the parties grieved, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 8. s. 4.

11. The star-chamber, justices of assize by inquisition or indictment, shall hear and determine the said offences, and the same process shall lie in such indictment, as on an indictment of trespass at common law, id. s. 5.

12. If any woman child, or maiden, being above the age of 12 years, and under that of 16, consents to such person, that shall so make any contract of matrimony against this act, her next of kin to whom the inheritance should descend after her death, shall have all such lands and hereditaments as she had in possession, reversion, or remainder, at the time of such consent, during the life of the person so contracting matrimony: and after his decease, shall descend to such persons as they should have done, if this act had never been other than to him who shall so contract matrimony, id. s. 6.

13. This act shall not affect any custom or authority, touching orphans, within London, or any other city, borough, or town, id. s. 7.

14. CONCERNING WOMEN CONVICTED OF SMALL FELONIES, 21 J. 1. c. 6. [Con. indefinitely, 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. 16 C. 1. c. 4.; and see 3 W. & M. c. 9. s. 6. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 30.; and 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 13., id. pl. 31., which are MADE PERP. 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 14. s. 1., id. pl. 26.]

15. Every woman lawfully convicted by her confession, or by verdict of 12 men, of or for the felonious taking of any money, goods, or chattels, above the value of 12d. and under that of 10s.: or as accessory to any such offence, the same being no burglary nor robbery in or near the highway, nor the felonious taking of any money, goods, or chattels, from the person of any man or woman, privily, without his or their knowledge, but being only such an offence as in the like case a man might have his clergy, shall for the first offence be branded, and marked in the hand, on the brawn of the left thumb, with a hot burning iron, with a roman T thereon, the said mark to be made by the gaoler, openly in the court before the judge, [see as to commutation of this punishment, tit. BURNING IN THE HAND, pl. 2.] and also to be further punished by imprisonment, [whipping, REP. 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.] stocking, or sending to the house of correction, in such manner and form, and for so long, (not exceeding the space of one whole year,) as the judge, or other justices before whom she is so convicted, or having authority in the cause, shall in their discretion think meet, according to the quality of the offence, and then to be delivered out of prison for the same, 21 J. 1. c. 6.

16. TO ABOLISH THE PUNISHMENT OF PUBLIC WHIPPING ON female offenders, 1 G. 4. c. 57.

17. The 57 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1. shall be repealed, id. s. 1. Judgment or sentence shall, in no case, be given against any female offender, that she shall suffer public or private whipping, 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.

18. Where the punishment of whipping female offenders, either publicly or privately, hath hitherto formed the whole or part of the judgment or sentence pronounced against them, or has in any other case been inflicted, it shall and may be lawful for the court, or justice before whom conviction takes place, to pass sentence of confinement to hard labour, in the common gaol, or house of correction, for not exceeding 6 months, nor less than one month, or of solitary confinement, for not exceeding 7 days at one time, id. s. 3.

WOODS. (See FORESTS; TREES.)

(STATUTE repealed.)

FOR ESTABLISHING REGULATIONS IN THE OFFICE of surveyor or general of H. M.'s woods, forests, parks, and chaces, 43 G. 3. c. 31. [REP. 46 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF WOODS, 55 H. 8. c. 17. [MADE PERP. AND AMD. 13 El. c. 25. ss. 3. 18. As to inclosing woods, &c. 22 E. 4. c. 7. FORESTS, pl. 52.]

2. In all coppice-woods, or underwoods, which shall be felled at 24 years growing or under, there shall be left standing for every acre of wood felled, 12 standils or storers of oaks; if there be not so many of oak, there shall be left so many of other kind, viz. of elm, ash, aspe, or beech, as shall make up the number, likely to be timber trees, the same standils to be of such standils or stores as have been left there at any selling of the same underwoods in times past; and the stores so left shall be preserved till they be 10 inches square within 3 foot of the ground, upon pain that every owner, having an estate in the ground, causing any such underwoods to be felled, and not leaving such stores, to forfeit for every standil not so left, 3s. 4d. the one half to H. M., and the other to the party that will sue for same in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., 55 H. 8. c. 17. s. 1.

3. All underwoods which shall be cut down at the age of 14 years, or under, from 20th April next, after the felling thereof during 4 years, shall be inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise preserved from cattle, by them which shall have possession in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood, 3s. 4d. for every month; and all underwoods which shall be so felled, being above 14 years growth, and not above 24 years, after the felling during 6 years, shall be inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise preserved from cattle, at the costs of such which shall have interest in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood 3s. 4d. for every month, id. s. 2.

4. No person shall convert into pasture or tillage any such underwoods, containing 2 acres or above, which now be wood, and reserved to the use of increase of wood or underwood, and being 2 furlongs distant from the house of the owner, or from the house whereunto such wood doth lie, upon pain to forfeit for every acre 40s., id. s. 3.

5. All persons and bodies politic and corporate, which shall have any several woods growing with great trees above 24 years growth, shall at the felling or weeding thereof leave standing in such wood, for every acre 12 trees of oak of the same great trees, if there be so many there, and for lack of oaks, as many other trees of elm, ash, beech or aspe, as shall make the full number, the same to be preserved during 20 years next after such felling of such woods; and also from the 20th April next after the felling thereof, during 7 years sufficiently inclose them, or the springs thereof otherwise preserve from cattle, upon pain to forfeit for every such great tree lacking 6s. 8d., and upon pain that owner of the soil causing such great trees to be cut down, shall forfeit 6s. 8d., and upon pain to forfeit for every rood not inclosed or preserved, for every month 3s. 4d., id. s. 5.

6. Every owner of such woods, &c. may sell the same for building, repairing, and inclosing of houses, orchards, and gardens, and for inclosing of parks, forests, chaces, or other grounds, and for making or repairing of waterworks, bridges, floodgates, making or amending of ships, and other vessels, and for all other things concerning their own affairs, as they might have done before this act, id. s. 6.

7. No person which shall have any woods or underwoods, wherein any other persons have used time out of remembrance to have common of pasture, shall fell such woods, (except it be to his own use) until the fourth part of such woods, or as much as the fourth part shall amount unto, be set out and inclosed, as herein provided, viz. the owner of the soil shall call together the commoners, or the more part of them, and by the assent of the more part of them shall set out such fourth part; and if the lord and commoners do not agree, then 2 justices of peace, not being of the alliance, council, or fee of the owner, being thereunto appointed by the justices in quarter sessions, upon request made by the owner, shall have power to call before them, upon such penalties as the justices shall appoint, 12 of the commoners and inhabitants; and upon the appearance of the owners, &c. or the more part of them, the justices shall declare the cause of their appearance, and shall by their assent proceed to the severing of such fourth part; and if the justices, owners, commoners, and inhabitants cannot agree, such justices shall set out by mete and bound the fourth part, or so much under the fourth part of such woods as shall by the justices be thought necessary; and within 3 months after such severance, the owner of the woods shall inclose the same, and after such inclosure, such owner may fell the woods, id. s. 7.

8. There shall be left standing upon the part so severed, like number of standils or storers of young oaks, or other young trees of elm, ash, aspe, or beech, if it be underwoods that be so felled; and if the woods felled shall be great trees, then such number shall be left standing of great trees, upon like penalties, as in s. 5. pl. 5. limited; and the part so severed shall be immediately inclosed, and kept inclosed for 7 years, in like manner, and upon the like penalties as in s. 5. limited; and the standils, storers, and great trees, appointed to be left standing, shall be so preserved, as in s. 5.; and no beasts, during 7 years after the felling of the woods, shall be put in or suffered to feed in any parcel of such part so set forth, upon pain of 4d. for every beast, id. s. 8.

9. If any owner of such woods in any waste ground, cut down any trees contrary to the form aforesaid, every person so offending shall forfeit for every tree 6s. 8d.; one half of all such forfeitures to be to H. M., and the other moiety to such person that will sue, as in s. 1. id. s. 9.

10. The commoners may use their common for their cattle within the residue of the woods not inclosed, as if this act had never been: and the owner of the soil shall be excluded to put any cattle in the same residue, or to take any profit of the pasture upon the same, during the 7 years, after the felling of the underwood growing in such part so severed and inclosed; and after the 7 years expired, until the next cutting down of the woods upon the part severed, as well the same part as the residue shall be used in common, as well by the lord as by the commoners, 35 H.8. c.17. s.10.

11. Any person may fell and inclose all woods and underwoods in waste grounds, which have been used to be inclosed for the maintenance of wood, id. s.11.

12. If the part of wood so inclosed be not felled within 4 months after the inclosing, the commoners may put their cattle into the ground so inclosed, as long as the wood shall be unfelled, and the owner shall leave places of entrance and exit for their beasts, id. s.12.

13. This act shall not extend to any owner of woods within the wilds of Kent, Surry, and Sussex, other than to the common woods within such wilds, id. s.13.

14. This act shall not charge any person with any penalty, for any timber trees growing within 2 miles of the sea, in Cornwall, or any other timber tree, being scar and dead in the tops, or any other timber trees to be taken by H. M.'s commission, or for any offence, unless the person offending be sued within one year after the offence committed, id. s.15.

15. If any person break or destroy any fences made for the saving of the same woods, he shall forfeit 10s., id. s.16.

16. If any person suffer his swine, of the age of 10 weeks, during such years as the woods be appointed to be inclosed, to go in any ground or woods, unless the swine be ringed or pegged, the owners of such swine shall forfeit for every swine 4d., the one half, if it be in H. M.'s woods, to be to his highness, and the other to the finder; and if it be within any other person's grounds, the one half to be to the owners of the soil, and the other part to him that will sue, as in s.1., id. s.17.

17. Where any woods shall be felled in any park, or ground inclosed, wherein deer shall be kept, the owners of such parks, &c. shall be chargeable for the inclosure and preservation of the same but for 4 years after such felling, id. s.18.

18. If the inclosures of any of such woods be broken down against the will of the owner, whereby cattle escape and hurt the spring, or if the woods be by any means destroyed or hindered, without the assent of such owners, the penalties shall be extended upon the persons by whose default the wood shall be so destroyed, &c. and not upon the owner, id. s.19.

19. Every owner of such woods, underwoods, grounds, and coppice, after the same have been fenced, or the spring otherwise preserved, 2 years, may put colts and calves, under the age of one year, into such woods, &c., id. s.20.

20. All woods or coppices, intended by 35 H.8. c.17. to be inclosed, and the springs thereof preserved, shall be sufficiently inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise saved, 2 full years more than by such act limited, according to age of woods felled, upon like pains as are contained in such act; and no cattle shall be put into any coppice woods inclosed, from the time of the sale, until the end of 5 years, nor from the end of 5 years any other cattle but calves and yearling colts, until the end of 6 years, if the wood was under the age of 14 years, at the last fall; or until 8 years, if the wood was above the age of 14 at the last fall, 15 El. c.25. s.18.

21. TIMBER SHALL NOT BE FELLED TO MAKE COALS FOR THE making of iron, 1 El. c.15.

22. No person shall convert to coal or fuel for the making of iron, any timber trees of oak, beech, or ash, or any part thereof, of the breadth of one foot square at the stub, and growing within 14 miles of the sea, or of the rivers of Thames, Severne, Wye, Humber, Dee, Time, Teese, Trent, or any other river, &c. by the which carriage is used by boat to the sea, upon pain of forfeiture for every tree or part thereof so employed, 40s., one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for same by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. id. s.1.

23. This act shall not extend to the county of Sussex, nor to the wild of Kent, nor to the parishes of Charewood, Newdigate, and Leigh, in the wild of Surry, id. s.2.

24. TOUCHING IRON MILLS NEAR London, on the river Thames, 23 El. c.5.

25. No person shall convert to coal or fuel, for the making of iron in any iron mills, furnace, or hammer, any wood or underwood, which shall grow within 22 miles from London, or within 22 miles of the Thames, from Dorchester, in the county of Oxford, downwards; or within 4 miles of the foot of the hills called the Downs, betwixt Arundel and Pemsey, in Sussex, nor within 4 miles of Winchelsey and Rye, nor within 2 miles of the town of Pemsey, nor within 3 miles of Hastings; upon pain to forfeit for every load 40s., one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue, by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c., id. s.1.

26. This act shall not extend to any woods in any such part of the wilds of Surry, Sussex, or Kent, as is distant above 18 miles from London, and 8 miles from the Thames, id. s.2.

27. No new iron works shall be erected within 22 miles of London, nor within 14 miles of the Thames, nor within 4 miles of the Downs, or of the towns of Pemsey, Winchelsey, Hastings, or Rye, upon pain of 100l., to be recovered and applied as aforesaid, 23 El. c.5. s.3.

28. This act shall not extend to any woods upon any lands of Christopher Durrel, in the parish of Newdigate, within the wild of Surry, which have been coppiced for the use of his iron works, id. s.4.

29. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE TIMBER IN THE wilds of the counties of Sussex, Surry, and Kent, and for the amending of highways decayed by carriages to and from iron mills there, 27 El. c.19. [REF. as to highways, 39 El. c.19. which is REF. 7 G.3. c.42. s.57.]

30. No person shall set up within the counties of Sussex, Surry, or Kent, any iron mills, furnace, finery, or blowery, for the making or working of iron, other than upon such former bays or pens whereupon hath been, or shall be standing, some iron mills, furnace, or hammer, or else upon such lands as the party shall furnish the same, with sufficient supply of his own woods, being to him in fee, or for life, without impeachment of waste; nor shall convert to coals or fuel for the making or working of iron in any iron mills, &c. the bodies of any sound timber trees, apt for the making of cleftwares, or sawing timber of oak, ash, or elm, of the bigness of one foot square at the stub, or any part of the same; upon pain of forfeiture for every iron mill, &c. 300l., and for every body of such timber tree, so converted, 40s.; one half of which forfeitures to be to H. M., and the other half to him that will sue, by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. 27 El. c.19. s.1.

31. The owners of such trees, the bodies whereof shall be employed for timber or cleft ware, within the wilds of Sussex, Surry, or Kent, the same not being within 18 miles of London, or 8 miles of the Thames, or 4 miles of the towns of Rye, and Winchelsey, or 3 miles of Hastings, or 4 miles of the foot of the Downes, between Arundel, and Pemsey, in Sussex, may employ the tops and offals of such trees for fuel for iron works, id. s.2.

32. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF UNLAWFUL CUTTING, or stealing, or spoiling of wood or underwood, and destroyers of young timber trees, 15 C.2. c.2. (and recital in s.1.) See further, 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. 6 G.1. c.16. TREES, pl.1.]

33. Every constable, or other person, shall have power to apprehend all persons they suspect having or carrying any burden of wood, underwood, poles, young trees, bark, or bast, of any trees, or any gates, stiles, posts, poles, rails, or hedge wood, broom, or furze; and by warrant under hand and seal of one justice of peace, any officer may search the houses or other places of all persons they suspect to have any wood, &c. and where they shall find any such, to apprehend all persons suspected for taking the same, and them carry before a justice; and if they do not give a good account how they came by such wood, &c. or shall not within some convenient time to be set by the justice, produce the party of whom they bought the same, or some witness to depose on oath for sale of the wood, &c. they shall be convicted of the offence of cutting and spoiling of the same woods, &c. within the statute, 43 El. c.7. [TRESPASS, pl.8.] and liable to the pains thereby and by this act inflicted, 15 C.2. c.2. s.2.

34. Every person so convicted shall, for the first offence, give the owner such damages, and within such time, as the justice shall appoint, and pay down to the overseers of the poor, such sum not exceeding 10s. as the justices shall think meet: and if such offender do not make satisfaction to the owner, and pay to the poor the justice shall commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding one month, or to be whipped by the constable. And if such person shall again commit the said offence, and be convicted, he shall be sent to the house of correction for one month, and kept to hard labour. And if such person shall again commit such offence, and be convicted, the third time he shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, id. s.3.

35. Whosoever shall buy any burdens of wood, poles, or sticks, which may be justly suspected to have been unlawfully come by, one justice, upon complaint, may examine the matter upon oath; and if they find that the same was bought of a person who might justly be suspected to have unlawfully come by the same, and that the same was unlawfully come by, such justice shall award the party to pay treble the value to the party from whom the same was unlawfully taken, and in default of present payment, may issue warrants to levy same by distress and sale of offender's goods, and in default of distress may commit the party to gaol, there to remain one month, id. s.4.

36. No person shall be questioned for any offence upon this law, that hath been punished for the same by any former law; nor unless he be questioned within 6 weeks after the offence, id. s.5.

37. IF ANY PERSON SHALL MALICIOUSLY SET FIRE, OR BURN, or cause to be burnt any wood, underwood, or coppice, such setting on fire, or burning, or causing to be burnt shall be declared felony, and the offender shall suffer as a felon; and where such offences are committed in Scot., such offenders shall suffer as wilful fire raisers, according to 7 A. c.21. s.7. relating to SCOTLAND (Treason), 1 G.1. St.2. c.48. s.4. [See the rest of this act. TREES, pl.1.]

38. IF ANY PERSON, NOT HAVING A RIGHT OR LEGAL LICENCE to do the same, shall set fire to, burn, or destroy, or shall abet, aid, or assist in or at the burning or destroying of any grass, furze, or fern, growing, or being in or upon any forest or chase within Eng. without the consent of the owner or person entrusted with the care of such forest, &c. and being brought before a justice for the county, riding, division, or place, where the forest, &c. is, and is convicted by confession or oath of one witness, or on view of such justice, such person so convicted shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* or less than 40*s.*, to go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, to be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice; and in case no distress is found, such justice may commit such offender to the common gaol of the county or place for not exceeding 3 months or less than one, 28 G. 2. c. 19.

39. EVERY SURVEYOR OF H. M.'s WOODS AND HIS DEPUTY, AND officers, and keepers of any forest or chase, may seize and take away for their own use any saw, axe, or other instrument used by persons whom they find unlawfully stocking up, sawing, cutting down, topping and destroying any timber tree, or other tree, underwood, or covert within such chase, 4 G. 3. c. 31. s. 4.

40. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF THE OFFICE OF THE SURVEYOR-general of woods and forests, 46 G. 3. c. 142.

41. Any officer appointed to every office under the surveyor-general [now the commissioners of woods, forests, and land-revenues,] of woods and forests, parks, and chases, shall take the oath herein set down to be administered by such surveyor or by any justice of peace, if such surveyor shall direct such officer to be sworn before one, id. s. 2.

42. All returns and estimates of the quantity, quality, and value of timber, trees, coppice, and underwood, and of inclosures, buildings, repairs, plantations, and other works to be done under authority of such surveyor, and all accounts of money received or expended for sale of any such timber, trees, &c. and for such inclosures, &c. or for any other matter rendered by any officers under such surveyor, shall be subscribed with the name, and in the hand-writing, and verified by oath of such officer, such oath to be certified in writing upon such report, &c. either by some justice or such surveyor, and which oath either of them may administer, id. s. 3.

43. All such estimates, returns, and accounts, shall be transmitted by party making the same so subscribed to such surveyor, previous to such verification thereof, to require the party making the same to attend before him, and be examined on oath, touching all or any of the particulars and items contained in such estimates, &c. and the conduct of any such officers in execution of their duty; which examination such surveyor shall reduce to writing, and cause it to be signed by such party; and if any unintentional error has been made in such estimates, &c. the same may be corrected previous to its verification by oath, and such correction certified by such surveyor on the estimate, &c. id. s. 4.

44. If any such officer or other person in such examination or verification, shall be guilty of wilful perjury, he shall be liable to all the pains by law provided in case of wilful perjury, id. s. 5.

45. Such surveyor may send and receive letters and packets, postage free, in such manner and under such restrictions as other officers in 4 G. 3. c. 44. and 42 G. 3. c. 63. named, are thereby permitted so to do, id. s. 6.

46. All money, bills, and drafts received by such surveyor on account of the revenue under his management, shall, the day after received, or the day after any bill has been accepted, be paid into the bank of Eng. for which receipt the cashier shall give a good discharge, and the same shall there be placed to the account intitled "The account of the public monies of the surveyor-general of the woods and forests," inserting the name of such surveyor-general for the time being, id. s. 7.

47. Such surveyor may reserve for casual and ordinary payments in his own, or his banker's hands, a sum not exceeding 3000*l.*, or any larger sum the treasury may direct; and when the money so reserved is under such sum, such surveyor may make up the same by drafts upon such fund in the bank of Eng., id. s. 8.

48. The payments into the exchequer of any such revenue shall be made by an order of such surveyor to the bank, to write the sum required from his account; and the bank on receipt of such order shall deliver a cancelled note for the amount to such surveyor, who shall pay same into the exchequer, where it shall be received as so much cash, id. s. 9.

49. Such surveyor shall make all other payments required out of the money in the bank by drafts on the bank, and shall specify the particular service, salary, or other charge for which given; and such draft shall have marked in the margin a figure corresponding to the page in the book kept by such surveyor, wherein is entered the service for which such draft was given, id. s. 10.

50. All drafts drawn pursuant to this act, shall be a sufficient authority to the bank to pay the same to the bearer, id. s. 11.

51. On death, resignation, or removal of any such surveyor, the balance of cash then in the bank shall vest in his successor in trust for the public service, and shall be forthwith transferred and placed to his accounts; and such successor may issue his drafts for all demands unpaid which accrued in the time of the former surveyor, id. s. 12.

52. Such surveyor shall keep such account with the bank; and if he observe the rules hereby prescribed, he shall not be answerable for any money paid into the bank, and the bank shall answer for all money received from such surveyor, id. s. 13.

53. If any person shall knowingly forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging, &c. the name or hand-writing of such surveyor, or his deputy, to any draft, instrument, or writing, in order to receive or obtain any money from the bank of Eng., on account of such surveyor, or any draft, instrument, or writing in form of a draft made by such surveyor or his deputy, or shall utter or publish any such, knowing same to be forged, or counterfeited with intent to defraud any person whatever, such person shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony without clergy, id. s. 14.

54. TO ABOLISH THE OFFICES OF THE WARDENS, CHIEF JUSTICES, and justices in eyre, north and south of Trent, 57 G. 3. c. 61.

55. The offices of wardens, chief justices and justices in eyre of H. M.'s forests, chases, parks, and warrens, north and south of Trent, shall upon determination of the present interests, be wholly abolished, and the duties thereof performed by the first commissioner of the woods and forests and land revenues; and the powers of the offices hereby abolished shall for that purpose be vested in him, and the same shall be exercised by him in like manner, and as fully as they have been by such wardens, &c.; provided such commissioner shall have no fee, salary, &c. in respect thereof, id. s. 1.

56. The salaries of such officers so abolished shall make part of the consolidated fund of the U. K., and a sum equal to such salaries shall be retained in the exchequer as part of such fund, and not issued to the civil list, id. s. 2.

25. No person shall wind any piece of wool not sufficiently warped, nor wind within any fleece, clay, lead, lambs' wool, or other things, whereby the fleece may be more weighty, to the deceit of the buyer, on penalty of forfeiting 2s. to the finder and prover of such deceit, on summary determination of any justice residing at or near the place, who shall, on information laid, summon the offender to appear at a fixed time and place; and on their appearance or default shall examine and give judgment on the premises, 23 H. 8. c. 17. s. 1., 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 79.

26. This act concerning washing of wool shall not extend to any shire the inhabitants whereof have not used to wash their sheep before shearing, or to persons using to sell their wool by tale, and not by weight, 23 H. 8. c. 17. s. 2.

27. If it appear to the satisfaction of the justice that any such act was not done with intent to deceive the buyer, or that any clay or earth found in such fleece was not intentionally put there to give it weight, but became mixed with the same during the pasturing, &c. of the sheep subsequent to washing, he shall discharge the accused, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 80.

28. If the penalties hereby inflicted for false winding or selling of wool are not paid in 6 days after conviction, they may be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods under the justices warrant, id. s. 81.

29. The seller of wool, touching which any information has been made, and is pending, may immediately after his summons apply to the justice granting it, and require him on information given for that purpose, to summon the person who actually wound or folded the wool in question to appear at the time fixed in the original summons, or at any other time fixed by the justice, (of which notice shall be given by the seller to complainant), at which time the justice shall determine the complaint, whether the actual winder appear or not, (proof being made that he had been summoned), and if it appear to him that the offence was committed by such winder, &c. without privity of the seller, the former shall be liable to the penalties, and in default of payment, or if they cannot be recovered from him, he may be committed to gaol for not exceeding 3 calendar months, nor less than 21 days, (unless sooner paid), with costs, if any, the seller remaining liable to the penalties, if such a case is not proved, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 82.

30. Any person aggrieved by the determination of such justice, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, giving within 5 days after conviction notice in writing to the respondent in such appeal, and shall at the time of making such appeal enter with 2 sureties into a recognizance before such justice to appear and prosecute the same at the said sessions, and abide by the order of the court, and to pay costs if awarded against him (if any), and the sessions shall determine the appeal, and award costs to be paid by either party, id. s. 83.

31. No conviction shall be set aside in any court for want of form, or mis-stating any fact provided the material facts, alleged therein, and on which it is grounded, are proved to the satisfaction of the court, id. s. 84.

32. TOUCHING CLOTH-WORKERS, AND CLOTHS READY WROUGHT, to be shipped over the sea, 8 Ed. c. 6. (and recital in s. 1.)

33. For every nine cloths unwrought, exported contrary to any former statute by force of any licence, the party shall carry over also one woollen cloth of like quality and size ready wrought and dressed, viz. rowed, barbed, first coursed, and shorn, on pain of 10s. penalty for every such 9 cloths, 8 Ed. c. 6. s. 2.

34. Such tenth cloth shall not be accounted one of those permitted to be transported by such licence, id. s. 3.

35. No person shall ship or carry beyond seas contrary to any former statute in force any Kentish or Suffolk cloth unwrought and undressed, viz. not rowed, &c. within this realm, on pain of 10s. penalty for each cloth, id. s. 4.: No licence for transporting cloth shall extend to Kentish, or Suffolk cloth, id. s. 5.

36. All forfeitures under this statute shall go one moiety to H. M. the other to the master and wardens of the company of cloth-workers to the use of their poor, and be recoverable by action of debt, or information without essoin, &c. or wager of law, id. s. 6.

37. No PERSON SHALL IMPORT ANY WOOL-CARDS FOR SALE on pain of forfeiture of such cards, or their value, in moieties to H. M. and the party seizing or suing in any court of record, 39 Ed. c. 14. ss. 1—2. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4. ENF. 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19.]

38. No foreign wool-cards, card-wire, or iron-wire for making wool-cards shall be imported on like penalty, and recoverable as in 39 Ed. c. 14., to or within the county, city, &c. where the offence committed, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19. s. 1. But nothing herein shall hinder the amending or exportation of old overworn wool-cards, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19. s. 2.

39. FOR PUNISHING FRAUDS COMMITTED BY SORTERS, kembers, and spinners of wool, and weavers of woollen yarn, 7 J. 1. c. 7.

40. Every person who shall deceitfully embezzle, sell, or detain any wool or yarn delivered by any clothier to any sorter, carder, kember, spinster, or weaver, as well the sorter, &c. so offending, as the buyers and receivers, knowing the same, being convicted by confession, or by one witness upon oath, before 2 justices of peace, or if within a town corporate, before the mayor or chief officer, and one of the aldermen or most substantial persons of the town shall make the party grieved such satisfaction, as by the justices, &c. shall be ordered: and if the offenders shall not be thought sufficient, or do not make satisfaction, they shall for the first offence be apprehended and whipped, or set in the stocks, in the place where the offence committed, or in some market town in the county; and for the second offence incur the like or further punishment, by whipping or stocks, id. s. 2.

41. Every receiver of wool or yarn embezzled or purloined contrary to this act, knowing it to be embezzled, &c. shall be subject to like punishment, id. s. 3.

42. Every spinner in Essex, receiving wool to be spun into yarn for any clothier, or maker of bays, says, or other stuffs, dwelling in Cogshall, Bocking, Braintree, Halsted, Wittam, or Colchester, who shall deliver back the yarn by any shorter reel than 2 yards about, shall be subject to like punishment, id. s. 4.

43. FOR ENCOURAGING THE WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES OF THIS kingdom, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 32. ss. 6, 12, 13. [CON. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 10., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28. s. 3., and indefinitely 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. s. 1. AMD. 4 & 5 A. c. 7. CONF. by 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. which repeals the rest of the act.]

44. No wool shall be shipped from Ire. but from Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kinsale, Cork, and Drogheda, [now REP. 4 & 5 A. c. 7.] nor imported from Ire. into any ports but Liverpool, Chester, Bristol, Minehead, Barnstaple, Bideford, and Exeter, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 32. s. 6. and 4 & 5 A. c. 7.

45. Any person may buy any cloth, stuffs, stockings, or other manufacture of wool made in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and the same freely export into any parts beyond seas, paying usual customs, [which see, 39 G. 3. c. 52. Sch.], id. s. 13.

46. Nothing herein shall avoid the charters and grants made to the Levant, Eastland, Russia, or African companies, or their privileges, id. s. 13. [See as to African company, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 28., AFRICAN TRADE, pl. 2.]

47. TO PREVENT UNLAWFUL COMBINATIONS OF WORKMEN in the woollen manufactures, and for better payment of their wages, 12 G. 1. c. 34. [Ext. in toto to the manufactures enumerated in 22 G. 2. c. 27. MANUFACTURES, pl. 3.; also as to prohibiting payment of wages in goods, &c. (vis. ss. 3—6.) to the steel and iron manufacturers, 57 G. 3. c. 115. s. 1. same tit., and to labourers in the collieries, 57 G. 3. c. 122. s. 1. same tit. pl. 8.; and Ext. in toto to Scot. and Ire., 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 3. AND. 13 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 16—17., 29 G. 2. c. 33., 58 G. 3. c. 51.]

48. This statute extends to combers of jersey and wool, to frame-work knitters, and makers of stockings, and to all persons concerned in any woollen manufactures, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 8.

49. All contracts, bye-laws or orders, in unlawful clubs and societies, made by or between wool combers or weavers, or journeymen of those trades, for regulating the same, or for settling the prices of goods, or for advancing their wages, or for lessening their usual hours of work, are declared illegal and void; and if any wool comber or weaver, &c. or other person concerned in the woollen manufactures, shall keep up, sign, or be knowingly concerned in any contract, bye-law or order of any club or combination by this act declared illegal, or shall attempt to put any such illegal agreement, &c. in execution, the offender, being convicted on the oath of one witness before 2 justices of peace, upon any prosecution within 3 calendar months after the offence, shall by order of such justices be committed either to the house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, or to the common gaol of the county, &c. there to remain for not exceeding 3 months, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 1.

50. If any person retained as a wool comber or weaver, or as a servant in either art, shall depart from his service before the end of the term, or shall quit or return his work before it is finished, unless for reasonable cause to be allowed by two justices, every such offender, being convicted before two justices as aforesaid, shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months' hard labour; and if any person employed as a wool comber or weaver, shall wilfully damnify or destroy (without the owner's consent,) any goods or work committed to his care, he shall, being convicted as aforesaid, forfeit to the owner double the value, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant of 2 justices, who, for want of distress, shall commit him to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, id. s. 2.

51. Every clothier, serge-maker, or woollen or worsted stuff-maker, or person employed in making any woollen cloths, serges or stuffs, or concerned in employing wool-combers, weavers, or other labourers in the woollen manufacture, shall pay all persons by them employed the full wages agreed on in money, [or in notes of the bank of Eng., or any duly licensed banker where the workman consents to take the same, but not otherwise, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. See MANUFACTURES, pl. 44.] and not in goods, or in any other manner, or make any deduction on account of any goods sold previous to such agreement; and any 2 justices of peace, on complaint made, may summon the offenders, and for non-payment of the wages in money, issue their warrant for levying the same by distress and sale of goods; and for want of distress, commit the offender to the common gaol for 6 months, or till he shall pay the wages, or give satisfaction to the party, id. s. 3. [And see ante 4 Ed. 4. s. 1. s. 5. 10 A. c. 16. s. 6. and 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3. &c.]

52. If any clothier, &c. shall pay any wages either in goods or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, (to be levied as in s. 3. one moiety to the informer, and the other to the party grieved, id. s. 4. [The distribution of the penalty REP. 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2., and given to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or in Scot. to the kirk session of the parish in which the offence has been committed, for the use of the poor thereof, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 3.]

53. If the informer is called to give evidence the whole penalty shall then go to the poor of the parish, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 4. [Form of conviction is given, id. Sch. (A.) tit. MANUFACTURES, pl. 48.]

54. Every prosecution on 12 G. 1. c. 34., for paying any persons employed in the woollen manufactures in goods, or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, [except as in pl. 51.] shall be commenced in 3 months after the offence, 13 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 16, 17. [Form of conviction given as in last pl.]

55. If any clothier, serge, woollen, or stuff, worsted or woollen-yarn stocking maker, or person concerned in making the same, or any other person concerned for himself or another, in employing weavers, combers of jersey or wool, worsted combers, spinners, knitters or other labourers in the woollen manufactures, shall pay any person employed by him his wages in goods, or by truck, bill or note, or in any other manner than in money, [but see 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. pl. 51., and before that enactment bank of Eng. notes seem to have been a good payment in cash if accepted as such, 37 G. 3. c. 45. s. 8., c. 91. s. 7.] shall forfeit 20*l.*, 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3.

56. The penalties made payable by this act may be recovered by action of debt, by any party suing for same, or, on conviction, [see the form of conviction referred to pl. 55.] before any 2 justices of the county or place where the offence is committed, either by confession of the party, or on oath of one witness, and if not paid, with costs of distress, &c., within 14 days after conviction, shall be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods, by warrant of such justices, who, for want of sufficient distress, shall commit the offender to the house of correction for not more than 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 4.

57. If any of the penalties be levied on conviction before the justices of peace, one moiety shall be paid to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the other to the informer, id. s. 5. [See 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 3. pl. 52., (which is Ext. s. 1. to this act,) and gives the penalty half to the informer, and half to the churchwardens, &c. for the use of the poor; and s. 4. gives the whole penalty to the poor, if the informer gives evidence.]

58. In case any action of debt be brought for any of the penalties, the defendant shall not be liable to conviction before the justices of peace for the same offence; nor in case of information laid before the justices and conviction, shall the offender be liable to an action of debt on the same offence, id. s. 6.

59. Any person grieved by any order of such justices, may appeal to the next general or quarter-sessions for the county or division where such order is made; having first entered into a recognizance, with security before such justices, to prosecute and abide by their order thereon, and giving 8 days' notice in writing of such appeal to the respondent; and the justices in sessions shall determine such appeal, and make such order, and award such costs and damages by distress and sale of the goods of any person refusing to pay the same; and for want of sufficient distress, may commit the party to the common gaol of the said county or division, for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction made; which order shall be final; and no proceedings of any such justices out of sessions, or of the justices in sessions, in pursuance of this act, shall be removed by certiorari, or other process of law, id. s. 7. [Treble costs may be awarded to be paid by appellant, if the cause of appeal is determined against him, 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 3. MANUFACTURES, pl. 53.]

60. All prosecutions for offences against this act shall be commenced within 3 months after the offence committed, id. s. 8.

61. The 29 G. 2. c. 33. ss. 1—2. "which enacts that the justices at any general or quarter sessions next after Michaelmas, yearly, shall make rates for the payment of wages to weavers, and others employed in the woollen manufactures, according to the number of yards that the chains are laid upon the warping bars, and not otherwise," repealed, 30 G. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

62. All contracts or agreements made between any clothier or maker of mixed, medley, or white broad cloth, and the weavers employed by him, as to any wages, shall be valid, id. s. 2.

63. Such contracts shall extend only to the prices of workmanship or wages to be paid, and not to the payment thereof in any other manner than in money, id. s. 3. [But see pl. 51.]

64. If any clothier, &c. do not pay the weavers employed by him their wages, &c. in money, within 2 days next after the work performed and delivered to such employer, or some person on his behalf (the same being demanded) he shall forfeit 40*s.* for every such offence, to be recovered and disposed of as in 29 G. 2. c. 33., id. s. 4. [See pl. 52.]

65. Any person aggrieved by any order of the 2 justices, may appeal to the next quarter-sessions, giving notice of such appeal; and if it appears to the sessions that reasonable notice was not given, they shall adjourn the same to the next quarter-sessions, and there finally determine the same; and shall have power to award costs, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 5. [And see note to last pl. and note to next pl.]

66. If any person shall assault any master wool-comber, weaver, or other person concerned in the woollen manufactures, whereby such master, &c. shall receive any bodily hurt, for not complying with any such illegal bye-laws, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 49., or shall write or send any letter or message threatening hurt to any such master, &c., or to burn or destroy their houses, or to cut down his trees, or maim or kill his cattle, for not complying with any demands of his workmen, or for not submitting to any such illegal bye-laws, &c., every person wilfully offending in the premises, being convicted on indictment found within 12 calendar months after the offence committed, shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 6. [The ss. 5—6 are Ext. to persons employed in the manufactures enumerated in 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 12. MANUFACTURES, pl. 33.]

67. Breaking into a shop to cut serges or woollen goods in the loom, or tools used in making them, &c., punished with death, id. s. 7. [Ext. to silk manufactures 6 G. 3. c. 28. s. 15., but REP. 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 4.]

68. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING any cloth or woollen goods remaining on the rack or tenters, or any wollen yarn or wool left out to dry, from being stolen or taken away in the night time, 15 G. 2. c. 27.

69. If any cloth or woollen goods remaining on the rack or tenters, or any woollen yarn, or wool left out to dry, be stolen or taken away in the night time, any justice of peace of the same county or place, on complaint made within 10 days after such goods stolen, by the owner, may by warrant authorize any constable, headborough, or other peace-officer, in the day-time, to enter into and search the houses, out-houses, or other places of every person whom the owner of such goods, on his oath, declares he suspects to have stolen or received the same; and in case such constable, &c. find any cloth, woollen goods, or wool, which, from the information of the person making such oath, he has reason to suspect to be so stolen or received, he shall apprehend every person in whose custody such goods are found, and carry him before some justice of the peace of the same county, division, or town: and if such person suspected give not a satisfactory account how he acquired the property or possession of such goods, or within some convenient time set by the said justice, produce not the party of whom he received the same, or some other witness to depose on oath such property or right to the possession of the said goods, he shall be deemed convicted of the said offence of stealing or taking away the said cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool; and shall for the first offence forfeit to the owner treble the value; and in default of payment in the time appointed by such justice, he shall issue forth his warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods; and in default of such distress, shall commit him to the common goal of the place where apprehended, for 3 months, or until he pay the same; and for any further offence, shall, on conviction, besides the forfeiture of treble the value to be levied as aforesaid, be committed to the common gaol for 6 months; and if convicted of such offence, the justice before whom he is so convicted shall commit the offender to the common gaol, to remain till the next assizes or great session for trial thereat, and if such offender shall not, by producing the party of whom he acquired the property or possession of such goods, or otherwise prove to the satisfaction of the jury, that he lawfully obtained the property or possession of the same, he shall be adjudged guilty of felony and suffer transportation for 7 years, and be liable to the same punishment for returning therefrom as other felons transported are liable to, 15 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1.

70. If any person so suspected and apprehended is aggrieved by the judgment of any justice, he may (unless twice before convicted) appeal unto the next general quarter sessions, who shall give such relief, and make such order therein, as seems meet; and such order shall be final, id. s. 2.

71. This act shall not alter or repeal any law for the punishment of persons stealing or receiving such cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool, except in such cases where the proof is laid upon the offender, id. s. 3.

72. PERSONS INDICTED FOR FELONIOUS CUTTING AND STEALING any cloth or other woollen manufactures from the rack or tenter in the night time, and thereupon found guilty by 12 men, or by confession, or who will not answer to the same according to law, or shall wilfully stand mute, or challenge peremptorily above 20 jurymen, or shall upon such indictment be outlawed, shall be excluded from clergy, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. [See the rest of this act, STORES (PUBLIC), pl. 4, 5.]

73. Judges may, at their discretion, relieve the offender, and transport him for 7 years from the time of transportation, and during all that time there to be kept to labour; and if he refuse to be so transported, or shall afterwards return to Eng., Wa., or Ber., within the 7 years, he shall be put to execution on the judgment so pronounced against him, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 4. [CONF. 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25. s. 11.]

74. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF THE WOOLLEN MANUFACTURE, and for preventing disputes among the persons concerned therein, 13 G. 1. c. 23. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 19.

75. No maker of mixed medley or white cloth may use any warping bars, but only such as are of the measure following, viz. every long warping bar 3 yards 3 inches in length and no more; and every round warping bar 4 yards and 4 inches round, and no more; the 3 inches on the long bar, and the 4 inches on the round bar, being in lieu of the over-measure usually allowed in cloths; and the thrums at the end of the warping bars shall not exceed 8 inches in length; and if any maker of such cloth shall use any warping bar of other length, or with thrums exceeding 8 inches in length, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 1.

76. Every maker of such cloth or goods mixed with wool shall give out all wool, yarn, and other materials, at 16 oz. to the lb., and shall receive it back by the same weight, without fraud, on penalty of 5*l.* for every offence, id. s. 2.

77. All prosecutions for offences against this act, shall be heard by 2 justices, on information given on oath within three calendar months after offence; and they shall hear and determine the same, and on conviction issue their warrants to levy the penalties by distress and sale of goods; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish; and for want of distress, may commit the offender to the county gaol for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction made, id. s. 4.

78. All disputes relating to work, wages, or damages, between any clothier and weaver, or other person employed in such manufacture, shall be heard and determined by 2 justices; who, on complaint, shall summon the parties, hear and examine on oath, and adjudge satisfaction; and give costs and damages, and issue their warrants to levy such costs and damages, by distress and sale of goods of persons refusing for 10 days to pay the same; and for want of distress, to commit them to the county gaol, or house of correction, for not more than 3 months, or till satisfaction made, 13 G. 1. c. 23. s. 5.

79. Persons aggrieved by any order of the justices may appeal to the next quarter sessions, giving 6 days' notice, who shall make such order, and award such costs and damages as shall seem reasonable, and shall levy by their order or warrants the costs and damages by distress and sale of goods, and for want of distress may commit the party to the county gaol or house of correction, for any time not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, which order of sessions shall be final, nor shall the proceedings of any justices in pursuance hereof, be removed by certiorari or other process, id. s. 6.

80. Any one justice of peace on information on oath that any persons are suspected to be guilty of any of the above ill practices, may issue his warrant to any constable or other peace officer, churchwarden, or overseer, directing him in the day-time to enter any house or other suspected place to search for all such bars and weights, as are used by any clothier or maker of woollen goods; and if such clothier, &c. shall interrupt such officer, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 7.

81. If any end-gatherers shall be found buying or carrying ends of yarn, wefts, thrums, short yarn, or other refuse of cloth, druggot, or other woollen goods, or goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), any constable or peace officer may, by warrant of one justice, search such person and his bags; and if he find any such ends of yarn, &c. shall carry him before any justice, which person, on conviction of any of the said offences on oath of one witness or by confession, shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue or vagrant, and shall be punished as by 12 A. St. 2. c. 23. s. 8. directed, id. s. 8. [And see 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 4. tit. VAGRANT, pl. 33.]

82. Every person sued for any thing done in pursuance hereof, may plead the general issue; and if plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has verdict or judgment against him, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 18.

83. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRAUDS and embezzlements by persons employed in the woollen manufactory, 14 G. 3. c. 25.

84. If any picker, scribbler, spinner, weaver, or other person, employed in manufacturing of woollen cloth, or in preparing materials for that purpose, shall not return all working tools, wool, yarn, chain, woof, or abb, delivered out to be manufactured, and all materials wherewith he is entrusted, or give a satisfactory account touching the same to his employer, or shall fraudulently steam, damp, or water the wool or yarn delivered to him to be worked up; or if any person shall take off, cut, or pick out, the list, sorrel, or other mark of any piece of cloth, and shall be convicted of any such offence before some justice, either by confession, or oath of one witness, such person shall be committed to the house of correction for one month, id. s. 1.

85. If any person so employed, and entrusted, shall not have delivered or accounted for such tools and materials, and shall abscond, or sell, or dispose of the same; or if any person shall fraudulently buy or receive such tools or materials; or if any person shall be charged on suspicion of having embezzled and kept back, by damping, steaming, or watering the wool and yarn delivered out to him; or with having sold, bought, or received the same, and oath shall be made thereof before one justice, such justice shall issue his warrant to any constable, or peace officer, to enter and search, in the day-time, the residence of offender, and also such other place of which the clothier, his clerk, or servant, shall make oath, that he have just cause to suspect, it appearing to the said justice to be reasonable suspicion that the said working tools, or materials, or part thereof, may be secreted and lodged: and if on search, any of the said working tools, &c. as in s. 1., shall be found, the said constable, &c. shall seize the same, and apprehend the person in whose possession the same shall be found, and bring him before the same, or some other justice; and unless he can give a good account how he came by the same, to the satisfaction of such justice, such person shall be thereof convicted, and suffer punishment as in s. 1., and all such tools, &c. as in s. 1. so seized, and not accounted for, shall, upon such conviction, be delivered over to the churchwardens or overseers, for sale; and applying the monies arising therefrom, after defraying the expences thereof to the use of the poor, id. s. 2.

86. In case the person accused shall request of such justice to appoint a reasonable time to produce the person from whom he bought or received the same, or some witness to prove the sale or delivery; such justice shall appoint such time, and issue a summons to the constable where such person or witness shall reside, requiring him to appear before him to be examined and give evidence, on oath, of the matters; but such person at the time of such request, shall enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, as such justice shall think proper, for his appearance at the time set, or for want of such recognizance, shall be consented until the time that shall be appointed for the appearance of such party or witnesses; and if afterwards convicted of any of the offences, he shall suffer such punishment as in s. 1. directed, 14 G. 3. c. 25. s. 3.

87. Any justice, on information on oath that there is just cause to suspect that any ends of yarn, wests, thrumms, short yarn, or other refuse of cloth, druggot, or of other woollen goods, or of goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), have been collected and received, and are lodged or concealed, in any place, by warrant under his hand and seal, shall cause such place to be searched in the day-time; and if such ends of yarn, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted), above 3 pounds, shall be found therein, to seize the same; and also cause the person in whose house the same shall be found, to be brought before him, or some other justice, and on proof being made thereof upon oath before such justice, that such ends, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted) were found in the dwelling-house, or other place of such person, such person not exculpating himself to the satisfaction of such justice, shall thereupon suffer such punishment as in s. 1., and the materials found in his custody shall, by order of such justice, be burnt or destroyed, id. s. 4.

88. If on information on oath before any justice against any offender against this act, it shall appear to him, that such person hath been before convicted of any offence against this act; he shall not convict, but shall commit him to the house of correction until next general quarter-session, or until he enter into a recognizance, with sureties, to appear at, and abide the order of such sessions; and such justice shall bind over the informer to prosecute at the said sessions, which shall enquire into and determine the same in a summary way; and if such person be found guilty, they shall commit such offender to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 5.

89. If it appear to the sessions, that such person hath been convicted at some sessions of any offence against this act; they shall, on a like enquiry and conviction, in a summary way, direct the offender to be committed to the house of correction, for not exceeding 6 months, and to be once publicly whipped at such time and place as they shall direct, id. s. 6.

90. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of any justice may appeal; and the justice shall make known to such person, at the time of conviction, his right to appeal to the next quarter sessions, the person then giving to such justice notice in writing, signifying his intention to appeal, and also entering into a recognizance at the time of such notice, with sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of, and pay costs awarded by sessions; and the sessions shall on proof of such notice and recognizance, hear and determine the appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party, if they think proper; but if on such hearing the judgment of the justice, before whom such appellant convicted, is affirmed, such appellant shall suffer such punishment, in consequence of such conviction, as in s. 1., id. s. 7.

91. The justice before whom any offender shall be convicted, shall cause the conviction to be made out in form following, id. s. 8.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A. B. is convicted before me [or us], — of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the county, division, liberty, or place [as the case may be], of having [here specify the offence, and the time and place where the same was committed]. Given under my hand and seal, or our hands and seals [as the case may be], the day and year aforesaid.

And shall cause the said conviction to be fairly wrote over, upon parchment; and also to be returned to the next general quarter session, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and kept among the records of sessions, id. s. 9.

92. No person shall be proceeded against for any offence against this act, unless information be made on oath, before one justice, in 3 months; and no order, &c. shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 10.

92. (a) To AMEND 22 G. 2. c. 27. [see MANUFACTURES, pl. 8. which act is AMD. 15 G. 3. c. 14.]

93. So much of 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1. [and semble of 1 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1., 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 1.] as subjects persons to punishments for reeling short yarn, Rer., 14 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

94. Any person who shall reel false or short yarn, and be thereof convicted by the oath or affirmation of the owner, or of any other credible witness, or by the confession, before one justice, shall, for first offence, forfeit from 5s. to 20s.; for the second offence from 40s. to £l.; and for every other offence, such justice may commit the person convicted to the house of correction to be kept to hard labour for one month, and also order him to be once publicly whipped at the nearest market-town upon a market-day; all which penalties shall go to the party grieved, 14 G. 3. c. 44. s. 2.

95. The justice shall make the conviction as follows:

Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A. B. is convicted before me, [or us] — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for —, [specifying the offence, and the time and place when and where the same was committed, and also specifying that it was the first, second, or third offence against this act, as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year aforesaid.

Which shall be fairly wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general quarter session to be filed by the clerk of the peace, among the records, 14 G. 3. c. 44. s. 3.

96. Any clerk of the peace where such conviction is filed, upon application, shall cause a copy to be delivered to such person on payment of one shilling for every copy, id. s. 4.

97. Any person convicted may, at time of conviction, enter into a recognizance conditioned to try such appeal, abide the order of, and pay such costs as adjudged by the sessions; which shall take cognizance of such appeal, and may affirm such conviction, and award such costs as they think proper; and if not paid, according to the justices' order, such costs may be recovered by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice; and if no goods found, sufficient to pay the costs and charges of distress, they may commit to the common gaol for 3 months; and the determination of the sessions shall be final; and no order or other proceedings shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 5.

98. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by 14 G. 3. c. 44. on persons convicted of reeling false or short yarn, with the costs of prosecution, shall (if not paid according to the order of the justice) be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant, under the hand and seal of the justice, with the costs of distress and sale; and if no goods found sufficient to answer the penalties, with costs of distress, then such justice shall commit such offender to the common gaol for one month, unless such penalties and charges, &c. shall be sooner paid, 15 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

99. Any person aggrieved may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions; and the sessions may hear and determine the appeal, and make order therein; which shall be conclusive, id. s. 2.

100. FOR PUNISHING PERSONS WILFULLY and maliciously destroying any woollen goods, or any implements prepared for or used in the manufacture thereof, 22 G. 3. c. 40. (and recital in s. 1.); [See rest of this statute, LINEN MANUFACTURES, pl. 11. SILK MANUFACTURES, pl. 45. EXT. to Scot. 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2.]

101. If any person shall by day or night break or enter by force into any house or shop, with intent to cut or destroy any serge or other woollen goods in the loom, or any tools employed in making thereof, or shall wilfully and maliciously cut or destroy the same in the loom, or on the rack, or shall burn, cut, or destroy any rack on which serges or woollen goods are hung to dry; or shall wilfully, &c. break or destroy any tools used in making the same; every such offender, being lawfully convicted, shall be guilty of felony without clergy [in Scot. being convicted before any justiciary or circuit court, shall suffer death as in other capital crimes, 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2], 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 1.

102. TO EXPLAIN, AMEND AND REDUCE INTO ONE ACT of parliament several laws now in being for preventing the export of live sheep, rams, and lambs' wool, woollens, mortlings, shortlings, yarn, and worsted, cruels, coverlids, waddings, and other manufactures, or pretended manufactures, made of wool slightly wrought up, or otherwise put together, so as the same may be reduced to and made use of as wool again, mattresses or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing, fullers' earth, fulling and tobacco-pipe clay from this kingdom and from Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, into foreign parts; and for making 23 H. 8. c. 17. "For true winding of wool," more effectual, 28 G. 3. c. 38. [AMD. as to export of live sheep to Isle of Man by 38 G. 3. c. 63. s. 9., 45 G. 3. c. 99. s. 8., 51 G. 3. c. 50.; of wools, &c. to Ire. by 48 G. 3. c. 44.; of worsted yarn to Canada by 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 9., 53 G. 3. c. 55.; as to export of tobacco, or pipe clay, or fullers' earth, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49.; as to carrying wool, &c. coastwise, 57 G. 3. c. 89.]

103. All and singular the statutes now in force, or so much thereof as relate in any manner to the carrying coastwise [see now 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.], or to any of the isles of Jersey, &c., or to prevent the export of live sheep, rams, and lambs' wool, woollens, mortlings, shortlings, yarn, [worsted yarn, how exported to Canada, see 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 9.] or worsted made of wool, woollens, cruels, coverlids, waddings, or other manufactures, or pretended manufactures made of wool slightly wrought up or otherwise put together, so as the same may be reduced to, and used as wool again, or mattresses or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing or carding, or any fuller's earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, except 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. ss. 3—5. shall be Rer., 28 G. 3. c. 38. And this act shall, from the time of its passing, take effect as hereinafter mentioned viz. from 1 May 1786, up to which date all forfeitures incurred under former acts are remitted, 28 G. 3. c. 38. ss. 87, 88. [See as to 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40., infra, pl. 119. 178.]

104. If any person shall bring, deliver, send, receive, or take, or cause, or procure to be brought, &c., or taken into any ship, vessel, or boat, any rams, sheep, or lambs, of any description soever, of the breed of G. B., or of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, being alive, to be conveyed out of G. B., or any of the said isles, the said rams, sheep, or lambs, and the vessel or boat on board which they are taken or received shall be forfeited, and liable to be seized and secured for benefit of the seizer or seizers; and every such offender, his or her aiders, procurers, &c. knowing thereof, and thereof convicted, shall, for every sheep or lamb brought, &c. (as above), or taken with any such intent into any ship, vessel, or boat, forfeit 5l. of lawful money of G. B., and also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 6 months, and until such forfeitures shall be paid, so as the whole imprisonment for nonpayment of the forfeiture shall not exceed 2 years; which forfeitures shall be for the benefit of the person who shall sue; but nothing in this act shall subject any person or vessel to any of the pains or forfeitures for carrying any wether sheep, or of the wool growing upon them, to be carried alive in any ship, vessel, or boat, out of G. B., or out of any of the said isles, for the only necessary food of the master, mariners, passengers, or persons therein, and for no other purpose, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 2.

105. No live wether sheep shall be put on board any vessel for food until application has been made to the comptroller and collector of customs of such port where the same are to be shipped, and a licence obtained from them for the shipping thereof, which licence shall specify the number of wether sheep to be put on board, and they shall in no case exceed such number as in the judgment of the officers granting such licence shall be deemed sufficient for the use of such master, mariners, or passengers, during the voyage; nor shall the same be shipped but in the presence of proper officers appointed to attend the same, on pain that the sheep put on board shall become forfeited to the person seizing the same, and the person shipping or attempting to ship the same shall forfeit 20s. for every sheep to the person who shall inform, id. s. 3.

106. If there is no comptroller or collector of customs at the place, then such licence shall be obtained from, and the shipping of such live wether sheep shall be made in the presence of some officer of H. M.'s revenue nearest to such place, who is to grant such licence and attend to the shipping of such sheep, id. s. 4.

107. Nothing in this act with respect to any officer being present at the shipping of sheep, or granting a licence, shall extend to the shipping of live wether sheep on board any ship, &c. bound only to or from any port between the Mull of Cantire and Cape Wrath, for the food of the master, mariners, passengers, or persons on board, and for no other purpose, id. s. 5.

108. As in Scot. estates and farms often consist of mainland and small islands within the different firths or seas adjacent, on which islands sheep are fed, and which, for that and other purposes, must be removed on board boats or other vessels from one island to another, this act shall not hinder any landholder, proprietor, or tenant of such estate or farm, from carrying and exchanging from the mainland to any island in the firths adjacent, or from such island to another, or from thence to the mainland on board boats or vessels, any live sheep or lambs as occasion may require, id. s. 6. [The s. 7. requiring bond to be given against export of sheep before removing or exchanging them, and s. 8. for thereupon obtaining a licence from a justice for such removal, &c. is Rer. 57 G. 3. c. 88.]

109. All persons who shall carry, export, transport, or otherwise convey, or cause to be carried, &c. out of G. B., or out of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them, into any parts out of the kingdom or isles aforesaid, any wool soever of the growth of the said kingdom or isles, or any woolfells, mortlings, shortlings, yarn or worsted made of wool, woolflocks, cruels, coverlids, waddings, or other manufactures, or pretended manufactures made of wool slightly wrought up, or otherwise put together, so as the same made be reduced to, and made use of as wool again, or mattresses, or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing or carding, or any fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays [but see s. 10. next pl., and 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49. pl. 110.] and also all owners of any ship or vessel, and all owners of every horse or other beast of burthen, waggon, cart, or carriage, upon which any articles before enumerated are exported, transported, carried or conveyed, packed or loaded, with an intent to be exported, knowing thereof, and being actually aiding, and also every master and mariner of or in such vessel, knowing thereof, and being actually aiding, and also every factor or servant, or other person soever, and every collector, customer, comptroller, waiter, searcher, surveyor, or other officer soever, knowing thereof, and actually aiding, and thereof convicted, shall forfeit for the first offence 3s. for every lb. weight of such wool or other articles, or 50l. in the whole, at election of the person suing, and shall also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 3 months, and till the penalty is paid, so as the whole imprisonment for the nonpayment of such penalty shall not exceed 12 months; and in case of a further conviction for a second or subsequent offence of the same kind, the person so again offending shall forfeit 3s. for every lb. weight of such wool and articles prohibited from being exported, or 50l. at the election of the person who shall sue, and shall also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 6 months, and till the penalty in which he shall be convicted shall be paid, so as the whole imprisonment for nonpayment of the penalty shall not exceed 2 years; all which forfeitures shall be for the benefit of the person who shall sue; and the said wool and articles, packed, loaded, removed, carried, conveyed, or shipped, with intent to export the same, shall, together with the ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, waggon, cart, and other carriage, horses or beasts, be liable to be seized, and shall become forfeited for the benefit of the person who shall seize, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 9.

110. Nothing in this act shall prohibit the exportation of tobacco-pipe clay from any port in this kingdom to any British sugar plantation in the West Indies, under 17 G. 3. c. 43. id. s. 10. [Nor of fulling earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, to any place in possession of H. M., as long as it is allowed to be exported to the sugar plantations, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49.]

111. Every owner of wool, or any other enumerated woollen and worsted articles prohibited from being exported, or his agent, who shall carry, or cause to be carried, any wool or other last mentioned articles, to any port on the sea coast within G. B., with an intention to convey the same to any other port on the sea coast within the same kingdom, from whence the same may be shipped off or carried into foreign parts, shall first cause entry to be made of the said wool, &c. at the port, containing the exact weight, marks, and numbers of the same, before he presume to load or carry away any of the said wool, &c. within 5 miles of such port on the sea coasts, from whence the same is to be conveyed; and if any wool, &c. shall be carrying towards the sea, for the purpose aforesaid, without being first entered in manner aforesaid, and without being accompanied with a certificate of such entry, and which the officer is to give, the wool, &c. so found, and also the horses and carriages conveying the same, shall be forfeited for the benefit of the person who shall seize, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 11. [But see 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

112. The above clause is not to extend to the hindering any person from carrying his wool from the place of shearing, on horses, or by carts and waggons, to his own dwelling-house or outhouses, though within 5 miles or less of the sea, so as such person, within 10 days after shearing, and before he remove or dispose of the same, from the place where it was first carried after shearing, do under his hand certify to the officers of customs in the next port the true quantity of wool; (that is to say), the number of fleeces, and where the same is housed, and that such person do not remove, or dispose of the said wool to any other place, without first certifying to the officer, under his hand, his intention to remove the same, three days before such removal; and the officers shall receive and keep such certificates, and make a register of them; but in case such person shall neglect to make and send such certificates to the officer of the next port, or shall remove, or dispose of any of the said wool, before such certificate of his intention made and delivered, such person shall have no benefit by this proviso, but be liable to the penalties in the foregoing clause, id. s. 12. [But see 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

113. In case any sheep shall be shorn between 1st March and 1st July in each year, for the sole purpose of sending them to market; and in case the owner shall not remove or dispose of the wool shorn from such sheep, from the places where the same were first carried after shearing, without first certifying in 3 days in manner aforesaid, it shall not be necessary for such owner to certify the true quantity of the wool and number of fleeces, and where the same are housed, until such owner shall certify in manner before mentioned the quantity of wool and number of fleeces shorn from the whole of the flock belonging to him, after the general shearing for that season, id. s. 14.

114. Any person authorized as after mentioned, may seize for his own use all such wool, woolfells, mortlings, shortlings, and other woollen and worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, which he shall see or discover to be brought, carried, or laid on shore, at or near the sea, or any navigable river, to the intent to be exported contrary to this act; and the offender shall be subject to the like forfeiture, as persons are subject unto for exporting, &c. id. s. 15.

115. It shall be lawful to export the quantities of wool hereinafter mentioned out of Southampton only, unto Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, for the only use of any of the inhabitants of the said isles, but under the regulations in this act, respecting the removal and shipping of wool, and so as such wool shall be shipped on board some vessel then the property of some person residing within one of the isles, and so as the shipper do, before the shipping, deliver unto the collector, customer, comptroller, surveyor, or searcher of Southampton, a writing under the hand and seal of the governor of Jersey, or of his deputy, as to the wool which is to be exported to the said island; and under the seal of the governor of Guernsey, or of his deputy, as to the wool which is to be exported to Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in which writing it shall be expressed that the party named therein is authorized to export so much wool, expressing the number of tods, to the same isles, or one of them, to be manufactured in one of the isles, and that such party authorized to export such wool, hath, before the making of the said writing, entered into sufficient bond to H. M. for the landing of the said wool in manner aforesaid, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 16.

116. The governor of Jersey, or his deputy, shall not make to any person any writing as above, to authorize him to transport out of Southampton unto Jersey, in one year, from 1 Jan. any greater quantity of wool than 4000 tods; and the governor of Guernsey to transport unto Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in one year, accounting from 1 Jan. any greater quantity of wool than 2000 tods for Guernsey, 400 for Alderney, and 200 for Sark; and the customer of Southampton shall keep account of all the wool so by him permitted to be laden by this act, and shall not permit any greater quantity to be laden than prescribed, in one year, upon forfeiture of his place, and 500*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will sue in any court of record. And if any of the governors, or their deputies, shall give any licence for exporting from Southampton into the said isles, any greater quantity of wool; then the governor shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* for every tod licensed to be exported over the proportion by this act limited, one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue in any court of record, id. s. 17. [See as to exportation to Canada, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 9., 52 G. 3. c. 55.]

117. The governors aforesaid, or their deputies, clerks, officers, or servants, for the granting such licence, and for entering a remembrance of the same into some book, shall have 1*s.*, id. s. 18.

118. No wool, or any of the enumerated woollen or worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, shall be put on board any vessel, hulk, or boat, whereof any alien born or natural born subject, not inhabiting within G. B., shall be owner or part owner; and such vessel, hulk, or boat, wherein such wool, &c. shall be shipped, shall be forfeited to the seizer. Provided this act shall not extend to any lamb skins ready dressed and prepared, fit for fur or linings, id. s. 19.

119. Any buyer or manufacturer of wool within Kent and Sussex, residing within 15 miles of the sea, having given such bond, with sureties, as is mentioned in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40., may sell any wool to any buyer or manufacturer within the said counties, who has also given such bond, and to remove and lodge the same at the warehouse belonging to the person to whom the same shall be sold, as often as necessary, although the person purchasing shall live within 15 miles of the sea, such wool being removed, and such person giving such notice of the lodging and housing thereof, as is by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. required, id. s. 20. [But semb. Rep. 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

120. Nothing in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. [now Rep. in toto, 54 G. 3. c. 78.] shall prevent any wool shorn or lodged within 10 miles of the sea, within Kent and Sussex, from being removed to any place, where a regular fair shall be held for the sale of wool; and in case the same is not sold, to bring back such wool to the place from whence taken; provided, previous to the removal, a permit be taken out containing the quantity to be removed, and to continue in force for such time as may be necessary for removal to the fair, and returning thereof to the place from whence taken, in case the same shall not be sold at such fair, and the proper officers shall grant such permits upon application from the grower of the wool, id. s. 21. [But semb. Rep. as to permits, 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

121. Every permit shall accompany the wool for which the same has been granted, and shall, in case of such wool being sold at the fair, be produced by the purchaser to the officer, who shall then grant to such purchaser another permit for taking such wool from such fair, which permits shall specify the quantity to be moved, and the time during which it shall be in force, id. s. 22.

122. In case of the return of such wool unsold, the same shall become subject to the same rules, as in case the same had never been moved to any fair, id. s. 23.

123. If any person shall counterfeit, or in anywise alter any certificate in the recited act mentioned, or any license, or instrument hereby directed to be made or given, or shall cause the same to be counterfeited, &c. or shall knowingly make use of any counterfeited licence, he shall forfeit 20*l.* to any person who shall sue, id. s. 24. [S*emb.* superseded since 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

124. No wool, or other woollen or worsted articles, prohibited from being exported, shall be removed towards the sea, within 5 miles of the sea coast of any part of G. B., between sun-setting and sun-rising, upon pain of being forfeited, together with the horses, waggon, cart, or carriage, for the benefit of the seizer; and the driver, knowing thereof, shall be committed to the house of correction for one month, id. s. 25. [R*ep.* 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

125. Nothing in the last clause shall prevent any farmer or grower of wool from removing, after sun-setting, such wool as shall have been shorn that day, from the place of shearing to the dwelling or storehouse of such farmer, although such removal be towards the sea, and within 5 miles of the coast, id. s. 26.

126. Nothing herein shall hinder any person from carrying any parcels of woollen or worsted yarn twisted, of 2 or more threads, and manufactured for knitting, so as each parcel be directed to, and carrying to some retailer of such yarn, and so as there be not more than 14 pounds weight directed to and carrying for one person at the same time, and so as such parcel be marked according to the acts requiring the marking thereof, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 27.

127. No wool, woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, woolflocks, worsted, bay, or woollen yarn, shall be packed up in any other package otherwise than in packs or trusses of leather or canvass, called pack cloths, or in linen or woollen; and all such packs or trusses shall be stamped on the outside with the word "wool," in not less than 3 inches in length, on forfeiture of all such wool, &c. to the seizer, and also upon forfeiture, by the person to whom such wool, &c. shall belong, not exceeding 1*s.* for every lb. weight of such wool, &c. seized, to the person seizing, as the court or justices before whom such wool, &c. shall be condemned, shall direct: but nothing herein shall prevent any person from packing any worsted or woollen yarn in paper, so that such paper is fairly directed to the person to whom the same is intended to be sent, and the word "worsted" or "yarn" be wrote or marked thereon, in letters not less than 1 inch in length, and that the quantity in one such paper contained do not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, id. s. 28.

128. The justices before whom any complaint or information respecting the word "wool" not being stamped on the outside of the package, shall be made, shall, if they think fit, order the wool, &c. seized to be returned to the owner; but in such case, the forfeiture incurred by such offence shall not be mitigated below 6*d.* per lb., id. s. 29.

129. All persons who shall pack any wool, or other woollen or worsted articles, in any package, otherwise than according to the above directions, or who shall press together, or cause to be pressed together, with screws, presses, or other engine, any wool soever, or any yarn made of wool, or other woollen or worsted articles prohibited from being exported, into any pack; or put, press, pack, or steam the same, or cause to be put, &c. into any butt, pipe, hogshhead, chest, or other cask, upon any pretence whatsoever, shall forfeit all such wool, &c. with the package thereof, and 3*s.* per lb. weight of wool, &c. the whole of which penalties shall be paid by the owner or packer to the person who shall seize or sue, id. s. 30.

130. Every person who shall press together, or cause to be pressed together, with any screws, presses, or engine, any wool, or woollen or worsted articles prohibited from being exported, into any truss, sack, pack, bag, or other wrapper, or shall put, press, pack, or steam the same, or cause to be put, &c. into any butt, pipe, hogshhead, chest, or any other cask or vessel, contrary to this act; and all persons aiding in such packing, shall, above the penalties before mentioned, be subject to the same pains and penalties as are inflicted upon exporters of wool; and the court and justices before whom such persons are tried and convicted, shall punish such offender accordingly: provided, in case any person who may have assisted in such illegal package shall, before apprehended, appear before any justice, and make discovery of the master packer, and other the persons concerned in such package, so that they may be prosecuted to conviction, then the person giving such information shall not be liable to the penalties, and, on conviction of such offender, shall be entitled to the wool, &c. packed: provided, in case the master packer, or person assisting in such package shall, before information taken against him, discover to any justice the name of the person by whom he was employed to pack the same, so that such person may be prosecuted to conviction, then such master packer, or person who shall give such information, shall not be liable to the penalties, and shall be entitled to the wool; and the person directing such wool, &c. so to be packed, shall, on conviction, be liable to the penalties before inflicted on exporters of wool, id. s. 31.

131. Every person who shall keep any wharf for the reception of wool in any port in G. B. shall, within one month after he begins to keep the same, enter into a bond to H. M. in 200*l.*, and which shall be deposited with the commissioners of customs at London, that no part of the wool deposited with him shall, with his privity, be illegally put on board any vessel; and such wharfinger shall also keep a regular entry and account of the quantity of bags or cloths of wool by him received and delivered, the time when, and the names and residence of the persons from whom such wool was received, and to whom such wool was delivered, with the marks and numbers upon the sheets, and the weight of such wool; a copy of which account shall be by him delivered to the principal officers of customs, at the port at which he shall reside, at the end of every 6 months, and oftener if required by such officer; and if any wharfinger refuse to enter into such bond, he shall forfeit 200*l.* to the person who shall sue; and in case he refuse to keep and deliver such account, or be convicted of keeping or delivering a false account, such wharfinger shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be paid to the person who shall sue; and if he shall knowingly permit such wool to be put on board any vessel, otherwise than according to this act, he and all persons aiding therein shall, on conviction, be subject to the pains before enacted against the exporters of wool; and any person giving information, so that such wharfinger and persons may be convicted, shall be entitled to 40*l.*, which shall be paid to such informer by the commissioners of customs immediately after conviction, id. s. 32.

132. Every person keeping a wharf at which any wool shall be lodged, shall, within 7 days after he shall receive any wool at such wharf by land carriage, or by inland navigation, transmit a note in writing, signed by the owner of such wharf, or his agent, which shall certify the quantity of wool received, and the number of sheets to the customer or comptroller at the port at which such wharf shall be kept, in case there shall be such officer, and for want thereof, to such other officer of customs as shall be stationed at such port, upon pain of forfeiting 10*l.* to any person who shall sue, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 33.

133. No wool, woollens, mortlings, shortlings, combed wool, wool-flocks, or woollen bay yarn, worsted yarn, cruels, or wool slightly manufactured, prohibited from being exported, shall be put on board any vessel or boat, to be carried coastwise, [see now 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.] unless notice be first given to the commissioners or chief managers of the customs, or to the customer, or collector and comptroller of customs at the port from which the same is to be sent, of the quantity, quality, and package, together with the marks, numbers, and weight, with the name of the ship, and master, together with the name of the owner of the goods, and his abode, and the place at which the same are to be landed, and the name of the person to whom the same are consigned; and also unless a bond be first entered into to H. M., by two persons, in treble the value of the goods intended to be carried coastwise, that the same shall (the danger of the seas excepted) be landed accordingly, which bond shall be executed by the owner of the goods, or some person by him appointed to execute the same, and which execution shall be deemed to be the act of such owner, or shipper; which shipper, if acting as agent, or having sold such goods to any person, shall recover from the proprietor of the goods shipped, all money such shipper shall expend, without wilful default, by reason of his entering into such bond; and in case such bond shall be entered into for any wool, or other last enumerated articles, being the property of different persons, then such owner, or persons for whose account such bond was entered into, shall be accountable for his share of the money expended, in proportion to the amount of such goods so shipped; and also unless a licence be first taken out under the hands of the commissioners or chief managers of customs, or any 3 of them, or from the customer, or collector and comptroller where such bond is given, for the lading, carrying, and landing thereof as aforesaid, which licence they are to grant without fee to the person demanding the same: and if any wool, &c. shall be carried on board any vessel, to be carried coastwise, before such bond shall be entered into, and such licence taken out, &c., then all such wool, &c. or the value thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, and all the guns, ammunition, tackle, apparel, and furniture, for the benefit of the person first informing thereof, id. s. 34.

134. "As in Scotland, there are many lochs or inlets of the sea, to which it may be necessary to carry wool, &c. from one part of the coast of such lochs to another, on board vessels; and there are also, adjacent to the coasts of Scotland, a great many islands from whence wool, the produce of the said islands must be brought to the mainland of Scotland, or be carried from such mainland to the islands thereof, &c." therefore the carrying, shipping, or landing of wool, &c. to such intent only, shall not be deemed carrying, &c. for the purpose of carrying the same coastwise; nor shall the carrying, shipping, or landing of such wool, &c. to such lochs, or from such islands to the mainland of Scotland, or from such mainland to such islands, for such intent only, be subject to the restrictions respecting the carrying wool, &c. coastwise; provided nothing herein shall authorize the carrying such wool, to open sea, save as aforesaid, but under such restrictions as are herein expressed, id. s. 55. [And see s. 6. pl. 108.]

135. When any wool, woollens, mortlings, shortlings, combed wool, woolflocks, woollen or bay yarn, worsted yarn, cruels, or wool slightly manufactured, shall be shipped to be carried coastwise under this act, the customer, or collector and comptroller of customs at the port from whence such goods shall have been shipped, shall, on the clearance of such ship, transmit a notice in writing, setting forth the quantity, quality, and package of such wool, &c., together with the marks and numbers thereof, with the name of the ship and of the master, to the customer of the port to which such wool, &c. are intended to be conveyed, under penalty of 10*l.*, to be paid by the officer neglecting to transmit such notice, which penalty shall be paid to the person who shall inform; and the bonds before directed to be entered into on the shipping of the said wool, &c. shall not be discharged until a certificate, under the hand and seal of the customer of the port in G. B. where the same were landed, expressing the quantity, quality, and package, marks, numbers, name of the ship and master, out of which such wool, &c. were landed, shall be produced to and left with the person in whose possession such bond shall be kept, at the custom-house of the port whence the said wool, &c. were shipped, and which certificate the customer, &c. of the port at which such wool, &c. shall be landed, is to transmit to the customer, &c. at the port from whence the same were shipped, within 7 days after the landing thereof, under the penalty of 10*l.*, to be paid by the officer neglecting to transmit such certificate to the person who shall inform; and the said customer, &c. at the port at which such wool, &c. shall be landed, shall also grant and deliver another certificate of such landing to the masters of the vessel from which the same shall be landed, without fee, when requested; and all such bonds as shall remain undischarged by such certificate for 6 months, shall be transmitted to the commissioners of customs at London, who are to put them in suit; and if the wool in such notices shall not be landed at the port to which the same were consigned within a reasonable time, then the customer, &c. at the port to which the same were licensed to be sent, shall transmit a notice thereof to the customer, &c. at the port from whence such wool, &c. were shipped, that inquiry may be made in what manner the same have been disposed of or delivered, and which inquiry the customer, &c. is to make without delay, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 36.

136. No wool or other woollen or worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling clay, or tobacco-pipe clay, shall be put on board any vessel or boat, bound to parts beyond the seas, under the penalty of forfeiture, for the benefit of the person who shall inform, of all such goods, and also of such ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, on which such goods shall be laden, and all the guns, ammunition, tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging to such ship, &c. and moreover the master shall, in such case, be deemed the exporter thereof, and be subject to the penalties in such case provided, unless such master shall, upon being apprehended, discover the person who actually shipped such goods, and enter into a recognizance with 2 sureties, before some justice, to prosecute and give evidence against such shipper, so that he may be convicted, id. s. 37. [But see as to export of fullers' earth, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49. pl. 110.]

137. Nothing in the above exception shall extend to the masters of vessels not regularly clearing out to foreign parts, but if any wool or other last-mentioned goods shall be discovered on board such vessel, and where no such clearance can be exhibited, then the master shall be deemed the shipper, and such master, and all persons on board such vessel, knowing of such illicit transaction, shall be liable to the pains before enacted against exporters of wool; provided, in case any person on board any ship not regularly cleared out to foreign parts, other than the master, shall, on being apprehended, give information, so that such master may be convicted, or the vessel condemned, such person informing shall not be liable to any penalties to which he might otherwise be liable, and shall also be entitled to 40*l.*, which shall be paid to such informer by the commissioners of customs, immediately after conviction, id. s. 38. [The s. 39. is Rer. 57 G. 3. c. 88. see pl. 180.]

138. The wool, &c. prohibited from being exported, which shall be found on board such vessel, or within such carriage, or upon such horse or beast, shall be forfeited to the person who shall seize the same, id. s. 40. [The s. 41. is Rer. 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.]

139. No master of any vessel, who shall ship any wool to be carried coastwise, shall unpack, or permit to be unpacked, any wool to him delivered (except through necessity, of which such master shall make oath in writing before one justice, on his arrival at the port to which such wool shall be consigned), upon pain of forfeiting, for every bag unpacked, 40*s.* to the owners of such wool, id. s. 42. [The s. 43. is Rer. 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.]

140. All coquets for carrying wool, or the said articles, from any port within the kingdom of G. B., or the said isles, shall be written on paper, and not parchment, and signed by 3 of the chief officers of such ports; and all certificates of landing, in any other of the ports, shall be written upon paper only, and signed in like manner; and all wool, &c. both at shipping and landing, shall be weighed in the presence of the said officers giving such coquets, and the exact weight, marks, and numbers shall be expressed in the coquets, and written therein, without any obliteration, erasure, or interlineation soever, id. s. 44.

141. All persons who, by insurance or otherwise, shall undertake that any sheep, wool, or other articles before enumerated, shall be carried to any parts beyond the seas, from this kingdom, contrary to this act, or who in pursuance of such insurance, &c. shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, any sheep, &c. in any parts beyond the seas, such person and their aiders, shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished as exporters of wool, id. s. 45.

142. All persons who shall pay or agree to pay any money for insuring, or exporting any sheep, &c. contrary to this act, shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished as exporters of sheep or wool; and moreover, such sheep, so insured, shall become forfeited to the person who shall sue, id. s. 46.

143. In case the insurer, conveyor, or manager of such fraud, or the person agreeing to insure, &c. do, within 6 months after such agreement, first give notice thereof to the commissioners of customs, so as the person concerned with him be convicted, he shall not only be discharged of such offence, but shall also have to his own use, such sheep, wool, and other articles enumerated, and which shall be insured, after the charges of prosecution are deducted, and shall likewise retain to his own use the insurance money; and in case the party insured shall, within the like space of 6 months, first make discovery thereof to the commissioners, so as the person concerned with him shall be convicted, he shall recover back such insurance money as he paid; and in case the insurance money is not at the time of discovery actually paid, then the person is indemnified from paying the same, and all agreements entered into for paying such monies are void; and the person first discovering shall also be discharged from the punishment to be inflicted upon him, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 47.

144. All policies of insurance made on goods laden or to be laden on any vessel bound from G. B. to foreign parts, which shall afterwards appear to be wool, woollen or worsted yarn, or any of the enumerated articles prohibited, shall be deemed void, notwithstanding any words soever which shall be inserted in such policy; and nothing shall be recovered by the assured from the insurer for loss or damage, or for the premium given as the consideration for insuring such wool, &c. id. s. 48.

145. The master or commander, or any other commissioned or deputed officer of any of H. M.'s ships or sloops, in any port, creek, or road, or in the open sea, within the limits of the station assigned to such ships, may enter, or cause to be entered and searched, any ship, vessel, or boat, and if upon search any sheep, wool, or other articles prohibited from being exported shall be found therein, and the master shall not immediately produce to the commander a coquet licensing such articles to be carried coastwise, &c. such commander shall seize such ship, &c. and carry the same, together with the crew and cargo, into some port in G. B., and there deliver the same into the custody of the collector and comptroller, id. s. 49.

146. All wool, and other articles prohibited from being exported, found on board any ship, vessel or boat, contrary to this act, and which shall have been seized by any of H. M.'s ships or sloops, shall be lodged in H. M.'s warehouse in such port where the same shall be seized or brought, until condemned, and being condemned, such wool, &c. shall be exposed publicly to sale, after 60 days public notice being given in writing at the custom-house of the port, and on the Royal Exchange of London, by inch of candle, to the last and best bidder; and all ships, &c. so seized, and hereby forfeited, and which shall be condemned, shall, together with all their guns, &c. be exposed to sale in like manner, and the produce of the wool, ships, &c. so sold, after deducting the expences of prosecution and condemnation, shall be divided, one-third to the commander, one-third to the officers of the ship that took the same, and the remaining third to the mariners belonging to such ships, to be equally divided amongst the mariners, by the collectors of the port, or such person as shall be authorized to pay the same; and if such seizure shall be made upon the information of any person not a mariner on board such ship so appointed to cruise, such informer shall not only be indemnified from the pains, &c. to which exporters, their aiders and abettors are liable, but shall also receive one-third part of the produce of such sale, after deducting the expences, and the residue thereof shall be divided as before directed, id. s. 50.

147. Every commander of such ship or sloop neglecting his duty, shall lose all pay due, and suffer 6 months imprisonment, and be forever incapable of serving H. M. in the navy, customs, excise, or salt duties; and any person giving information against such commander, shall, on conviction of such offender, be entitled to 40*l.*, to be paid to such informer immediately after conviction, by the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, or other revenue as after-mentioned, with respect to forfeitures incurred by persons unable to pay, id. s. 51.

148. No person, except an officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, who shall suspect that any sheep, wool, or articles hereby prohibited, are carrying contrary to this act, may examine or seize such sheep, &c. other than in company with a constable, or officer of the peace, who are, on application made to them, immediately to attend the person applying for such assistance, id. s. 52.

149. If any constable or officer of the peace, or if any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, upon application to him, shall neglect or refuse to attend any person, or shall neglect his duty in the premises, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, one moiety, after deducting the charges of recovering, to the person suing, and the other moiety to the poor of the parish where the offence has been committed; provided nothing in this act shall take away the power hereby given to the commanders and officers of ships of war, to seize any ship, &c. the master whereof shall not produce such coquet as aforesaid, id. s. 53.

150. Every person who, by deputation, commission, or other instrument, under the hands and seals of the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, shall be appointed to act as an officer under them for putting this act in execution, shall be esteemed an officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, id. s. 54.

151. If any officer of revenue, or other person, &c. shall make any collusive seizure, information, or agreement soever, whereby the owner, his agent or servants, or any offender against this act, may avoid the seizures, &c. he shall, upon conviction, be subject to the like pen-ties as are incurred by exporters of wool; and such information and seizure, and all proceedings thereupon, shall be for the benefit only of the person (not an accomplice) who shall first discover such collusive information and seizure; provided any person concerned in such collusive seizure or agreement, who shall first discover such offence to the commissioners, shall be discharged thereof, provided he makes such discovery within 3 months after offence committed, and so as one or more of his accomplices be convicted thereof; and if such person first making such discovery, be not an officer of revenue, or owner of the goods, he shall, as a farther encouragement, have 40*l.*, the same to be paid by the commissioners of customs on the conviction of such offender, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 55.

152. If any person putting this act in execution, shall be opposed, wounded, or beaten, in seizing or attempting to seize any sheep, or any other goods before enumerated, by any person, either in the day or night, by land or water, which were intended to be exported, or which were carrying on board any vessel, the person who shall so oppose, &c. and all other persons whatsoever, being armed with offensive weapons, or wearing any disguise, who shall rescue, or attempt to rescue any sheep, &c. seized, such person being convicted of any of the said offences shall, by order of the court, be transported for not exceeding 7 years; and if such offender shall return into G. B. before the expiration of the time for which he shall be transported, he shall suffer as felons without benefit of clergy, id. s. 56.

153. If any person shall offer or promise to give any bribe, or reward soever, to any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, or to any person soever, to permit the exportation or concealment of any sheep, &c. prohibited from being exported, or the removing thereof, contrary to this act, or to conceal or connive at any other act whereby any of the provisions hereby made may be evaded, such offender shall (whether the offer be accepted or not) forfeit 300*l.*, to be recovered and applied to the use of him who shall inform, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 57.

154. Every officer of excise, customs, or salt duties, neglecting the duty by this act required, or compounding for any ship, sheep, wool, or articles before mentioned, and by this act forfeited, shall be deemed aiders in the exportation, and suffer the punishment against exporters thereof, id. s. 58.

155. All bonds in pursuance of this act shall not be chargeable with any of the duties upon stamped vellum, &c. id. s. 59.

156. In all questions, prosecutions, suits, and informations, it shall not be necessary for the prosecutor, upon any hearing or trial, to prove that such sheep were of the breed, or such wool of the growth of this kingdom; but without such proof, upon such hearing and trial, it shall be deemed, that such sheep were of the breed, and such wool of the growth of this kingdom, unless the contrary shall be proved by the defendant, id. s. 60.

157. All actions, suits, prosecutions, and informations, to be commenced upon this, or 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. [now REP. 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.] for any offence done against this or the said act, or for any penalty, may be prosecuted (except where in this act otherwise directed) in any court of record at Westminster, or in the exchequer in Scot., or in any court of oyer and terminer, great session, or gaol delivery, or at the quarter sessions of the peace, or before 2 justices of the peace, in a summary way, at the election of the seizer or informer, id. s. 61.

158. No prosecution or information shall be proceeded upon, before 2 justices in a summary way, where the seizure, penalty, or forfeiture then claimed, shall exceed in the whole 200*l.*, id. s. 62.

159. The said quarter sessions, and also such 2 justices, shall direct all such ships, vessels, goods, carriages, and cattle, as shall be by them declared to be forfeited, and which shall have been seized by this or the said act, to be publicly sold to the highest bidder, at such time and place as they think proper; and also, by their order or warrant, shall levy all penalties incurred by any offender against this or the said act, and also all costs awarded upon any appeal touching the same, by distress and sale of the goods of such offender, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, after deducting the charges of distress and sale, id. s. 63.

160. One clear moiety of the seizures, penalties, and forfeitures (except the penalties of the bonds, and except as by this act otherwise directed), shall, when recovered, be paid to such person who shall give such information to any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, and after deducting the expences of recovering such penalties, the remainder of the other moiety shall be paid to the officer assisting in making such seizures; but in case any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties shall make any of the seizures before directed, without information, then, after deducting the expences of recovery, the remainder of such produce shall be paid to the officer seizing, id. s. 64.

161. Any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, constables, and other officers of the peace, and all persons acting in their assistance, may detain all persons found actually exporting, or attempting to expart, any sheep, wool, or other enumerated articles, or who shall be aiding in the exporting, or attempting to export the same, and them may carry before one or more justices near, who shall, if he or they are cause, commit the person brought to the county gaol till the next general quarter sessions, there to be tried and dealt with as by this act is directed; which sessions shall examine, hear, try, and determine all such offences, and, upon conviction of the offenders, punish them, in manner before in s. 63. pl. 139. mentioned, 28 G. 3. c. 58. s. 65.

162. The persons who shall convey any offender arrested by the authority of this act before any justice, shall, in case such offender shall be committed to prison, enter into recognizance to H. M., before such justice, in 40*l.*, conditioned to appear at such general quarter sessions, and to prosecute the person committed, id. s. 66.

163. If it appear to the satisfaction of the justices before whom any offender shall be convicted of any of the offences before mentioned, for which only a pecuniary penalty is imposed, either by the confession of the party convicted, or by the testimony of a witness, that such offender hath not goods sufficient to answer to penalty, then without giving any warrant for the purpose, or if such penalty cannot be wholly levied by the warrant issued, the justices who have convicted such offender, or any other 2 justices of the same county, upon proof thereof, may commit such offender to the common gaol for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 67.

164. If any offender ordered to be committed to prison under this act, for any offence for which a pecuniary penalty alone is imposed, shall, before commitment to prison, procure security to be given by 2 sureties, to the satisfaction of the justices, for payment of the penalty, with charges, within 14 days, exclusive of the day of conviction, then such justices may accept such security, and upon non-payment thereof at the time stipulated, the same justices, or any other 2 justices for the same county may cause the party convicted, and his sureties, to be apprehended by warrant under their hands and seals, and every of them may commit to the common gaol for such time as the party convicted was subject to have been imprisoned, in case no security had been given, id. s. 68.

165. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of such justices may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, giving, within 14 days after such conviction, notice in writing to the informer of such appeal, and at the time of making such appeal, with 2 sufficient sureties, entering into recognizances before the same justices, to appear and prosecute such appeal at the said sessions, and abide by the order of the same court, and to pay the costs thereby awarded against such persons; and such appeal shall, by the said sessions, be examined, and the case fully inquired into, and the matter heard and determined; and in case such judgment so appealed against is affirmed, the party appealing shall pay to the informer double costs, id. s. 69.

166. In case the person appealing shall pay the penalty under such conviction into the hands of the justices by way of deposit, or shall be committed to prison, such person may appeal to the general quarter sessions, on entering (without sureties) into such recognizances, and remaining in prison in the mean time, or depositing such penalty in the hands of the justices, there to remain till the appeal is determined, id. s. 70.

167. Every information shall be made on oath; and the justices before whom any complaint or information is made may summon before them, at the instance of either party, any witness to appear before them, at the time and place specified in the summons; and the person summoned shall appear, and submit to be examined, id. s. 71.

168. In any case any person shall take any greater fees for any surffiance, licence, or certificate, or other matter, than the fee herein limited, the offender shall forfeit to the party aggrieved 5*s.* for every 1*d.* taken over the fee allowed, id. s. 72.

169. In case any person shall be prosecuted in any court of record at Westminster, for any penalty incurred, a capias may issue on the first process, specifying the penalty sued for, and the person sued shall be obliged to give good bail, &c., id. s. 73.

170. Actions and informations shall be tried in any court of record, by a jury of freeholders, to be summoned out of any other county than that wherein the facts shall be committed, id. s. 74.

171. If any person is in prison for want of sufficient bail for any of the penalties, and refuses to appear or plead to a declaration or information to be delivered to such person, or to the gaoler at the said prison, for the space of one term, judgment shall be entered against him by default, id. s. 75.

172. If any person shall be convicted for any of the offences specified in this act, and there happens to have been no seizure whereby the informer or prosecutor can be rewarded, then the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, or other revenue, may cause 1*s.* per lb. weight for all such of the articles for which such offender shall be convicted, or 40*l.*, in case the quantity cannot be known, to be paid by the receiver-general, out of any public money in his hands; and the money paid by any officer shall be allowed in his account as so much money paid to H. M., and such officer shall be discharged thereof, 28 G. 3. c. 58. s. 76.

173. No person shall be liable to be prosecuted for any offence, unless such prosecution shall be commenced within 3 years, id. s. 77.

174. To encourage persons to discover the exporters of sheep, &c., prohibited from being exported, the first 3 persons who have been aiding in exporting of sheep, &c. who shall give information thereof to any justice within this kingdom, whereby the punishment and penalties appointed by this act may be inflicted and recovered, the party so discovering (not being owner or part owner of the said sheep, &c.) shall not suffer any of the penalties or punishments; provided, if any owner of any vessel, or any master or mariner, or person, aiding in loading any vessel, or boat, knowing of such exportation, shall, within 3 months after the knowledge thereof, or after his return into G. B., give the first information thereof before any of the barons of the exchequer, or before the head officer of any port where he shall first arrive, or before any justice of the peace, upon his oath, of the number and quantity of the articles so transported, and by whom, where, and in what ship, and shall enter into recognizance to H. M., with 2 sureties before any justice, in 40*l.* each, personally to appear and give evidence of the same; then such owner, master, and mariners, or other person so aiding therein, shall not be liable to any of the penalties, but shall be enabled to recover such benefit as is appointed to be allowed by this act on conviction of such offender, id. s. 78. [See ss. 85, 86. ante, pl. 6, 7; ss. 79—84. pl. 25—31.]

175. No prosecution for any offences, and penalties now due remitted, id. s. 87, 88. [Exceptions, id. s. 90. Exp.]

176. If any person who shall claim the benefit of this act, shall, after such claim, bring any action, &c. against any officer of the navy, customs, excise, or salt, or other person who has aided such officer, for any act done by them, by reason of any of the offences discharged by this act, such claim shall be deemed to be an absolute release to such officer, from all actions, &c. and such officer may plead the general issue, and recover costs against the persons bringing such action, id. s. 89.

177. In case any action, suit, or information is commenced on account of the seizure of any ship, vessel, or boat, waggon, cart, carriage, horse, or other beast of burden, or of any sheep, &c. as illegally carried or exported, or intended to be exported, or for any matter done by virtue of this act, such action shall be commenced within 6 months, and shall be laid in the proper county; and the person sued may plead the general issue; and if the jury find for the defendant, &c. he shall recover treble costs; and in case any information is commenced and brought to trial on account of any seizure, wherein a verdict shall be found for the claimer thereof, and it appears to the judge or court, that there was a probable cause of seizure, the judge or court shall certify on the record that there was a probable cause for seizure; in such case the defendant shall not be entitled to costs, nor shall the seizer be liable to any action, indictment, or prosecution, on account thereof; and in case any action, indictment, or other prosecution is commenced and brought to trial against any person, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, if the court or judge shall certify on the record that there was a probable cause for seizure, then the plaintiff, besides the ship or goods seized, or the value thereof, shall not be entitled to above 2*d.* damages, nor to any costs, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution be fined above 1*s.* id. s. 91.

178. SO MUCH OF 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. (viz. comm. semb. ss. 3—5.) which remained unrepealed by 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. (see that act, s. 90. pl. 119.) and so much of 28 G. 3. c. 58. as requires that notice shall be given, or entry made by the owner or owners of wool shorn, or housed, or laid up, or lodged, within 10 miles of the sea side, or as requires any certificate of any wool, or number of fleeces shorn or housed, or removed or disposed of, or as requires notice or bond to be given, on entry made, or any permit to be taken out, or licensed certificate, or other instrument, before the removal of any wool, or as requires any certificate to be taken from any officer; or as prohibits any persons residing near the sea from selling or buying wool, without having entered into bond, or as subjects to forfeiture wool carried towards the sea side, unless it has been entered, or as subjects wool first found within 10 miles of the sea to forfeiture, if afterwards lodged within 15 miles of the sea, or as subjects any wool, or horses, or carriages carrying the same, between sun-set and sun-rise, to any forfeiture, is repealed, 34 G. 3. c. 78.

Exceptions to the Prohibition of Export of the above Articles.

179. Any 3 commissioners of customs in Eng., may grant their licence to remain in force one month from the date, for exportation from any one port of G. B., into the port of Douglas, or Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, any number of live sheep, not exceeding 100, in the whole in any one year, which sheep shall be exported accordingly under the like regulations and forfeitures, so far as they are applicable as the export of wool, is by 28 G.3. c.38., allowed to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark; 38 G.3. c.63. s.9. [Like power for exportation from Whitehaven, Liverpool or Bristol, by licence to be in force 3 months, of not exceeding 100 sheep to the same ports of the Ile of Man, given 45 G.3. c.99. s.8. And also for exportation from Liverpool or Whitehaven, by licence to be in force for one month, of 300 sheep to the same ports of the Ile of Man, 51 G.3. c.50. NOTE. For the regulations of export of wool, from Eng., or Scot., to Ire.; viz. the giving bond for its due export; licence from board of customs, &c. see 48 G.3. c.44. The export of 5000 lbs. weight of worsted, or woollen yarn, from the port of London, annually to Lower Canada, was allowed to H. M. by advice of his privy council by 47 G.3. S.1. c.9.; and was EXT. to 20,000 lbs. by 52 G.3. c.55. So fullers earth, fulling and tobacco pipe clays, may be exported to any place in possession of H. M., so long as it is allowed to be exported to the sugar plantations, under 17 G.3. c.43. s.4. See 28 G.3. c.38. s.10. 47 G.3. S.1. c.49. pl. 110.]

180. All the provisions of 28 G.3. c.38. [viz. those contained in ss.39. 41. and 43.] as to carrying coastwise the last above mentioned articles, are REP., and the same when so carried are now subject to all the regulations imposed by 32 G.3. c.50. on goods prohibited to be exported from G. B., 57 G.3. c.88. ss.1, 2.

181. TO ENABLE WOOLCOMBERS TO EXERCISE TRADES in any town or place in G. B., 35 G.3. c.124.

182. Woolcombers and their wives and children, may set up that or any other trade, in any town, or place, in this kingdom, and shall not be removeable to their last places of settlement, till chargeable to their new place of residence, &c. id. s.1. [The same regulations are here provided in favour of woolcombers, as those enacted for woollen manufacturers in general, by 49 G.3. c.109. ss.5—8. pl. 185.]

183. TO REPEAL (ss.1—2.) AND AMEND SEVERAL ACTS respecting the woollen manufacture, and for allowing persons employed in any branch thereof, to set up trade in any part of G. B., 49 G.3. c.109. [For the repeals by ss.1—2. see this tit. STATUTES REP. & EXP.]

184. Nothing herein shall avoid contracts of apprenticeship, in any part of the woollen manufacture; but no such apprenticeship is requisite in order to exercise the trade as a master or journeyman, id. s.3. But this act shall revive no act repealed by any act herein repealed, id. s.4.

185. Persons who have served an apprenticeship to any branch of the woollen manufacture, or who by law are entitled to exercise the same, and their wives, and families, may set up and exercise that or any other trade, in any town, or place in G. B., nor shall be removeable from thence to their last settlement, till they become actually chargeable to such place, and if impleaded in any court soever for using any of the said trades, then, on proving their legal apprenticeship, or that they are wives or children of persons entitled as above, they shall on the general issue be found "not guilty," with double costs to be paid them by the plaintiff, or prosecutor, if the verdict is against him, or if he discontinues or is nonsuit, id. s.5.

186. Such persons may be summoned and sworn by any 2 or more justices of the county, town, or place, where they, their wives, or families, may set up trade, as to the place of their last legal settlement, and an attested copy of such affidavit shall be given to them, and shall be evidence of their last settlement, at any general or quarter sessions, id. s.6.

187. Where such persons are summoned a second time, they need not swear again, but may leave a copy of such attested copy if required, id. s.7.

188. This act shall not prejudice the privileges of the universities of Oxford, or Cambridge, or give liberty to any person to set up as a vintner, &c. there, without leave of the chancellor, id. s.8. Nor shall extend to the city of London, or to alter the laws and customs of apprentices there, id. s.9.

WORKS, PUBLIC.

1. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF THE CONDUCT OF THE office of works, and the expenditure thereof, 54 G.3. c.157. [Sections 6—12. of 22 G.3. c.82. (see that act, KING, &c. pl. 72.) are REP. by 54 G.3. c.157. s.1.]

2. H. M. may appoint a surveyor-general of H. M.'s works, and public buildings, out of whatever funds their expence is to be defrayed; who shall have 1500*l.* per ann. salary, and be disabled from sitting in parliament during the holding his said office, 54 G.3. c.157. s.2 [But see tit. KING.]

3. Any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, from time to time, may nominate and appoint a fit and proper person, being an architect by profession, to be assistant-surveyor and cashier in the said office, and also to nominate and appoint any number of persons, not exceeding 8; and being architects by profession, under the denomination of "architects attached to the office of works," who shall be subject to the orders and directions of the said surveyor-general, in preparing plans, estimates, working drawings, and reports, and also in making surveys, inspecting workmen, and superintending the execution of contracts, at all times, and at such of the royal palaces, or other public buildings, as the said surveyor may appoint, and grant to the said assistant surveyor and cashier such salary, and to the said attached architects such salary and commission, as to them the said commissioners of the treasury may seem proper, 54 G.3. c.157. s.3.

4. They may abolish any of the offices at present existing in the office of works, which appear to them inexpedient to continue, and may appoint such officers and clerks in the office of such surveyor-general, with such salaries as to them seem expedient, id. s.4. And in case they deem it expedient to abolish any offices at present existing in the office of works, they may make such provision by way of retired allowance for every person whose office may be so abolished, as they shall deem just and reasonable, till such person is otherwise provided for, id. s.5.

5. The assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall not be in any manner engaged in any business as architects or builders, other than under the provision of this act, and the orders of the said surveyor-general; nor shall they become contractors, either openly or secretly, for execution of any public buildings, or works of any description, carried on under control, or superintendence of the said surveyor-general; provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the attached architects in the office of works, or the clerks of the works, or labourers, in trust, or any of them, from carrying on their private business as architects, &c. id. s.6.

6. Neither the surveyor-general, nor the assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the attached architects, or any other of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, shall take, or receive any fee, perquisite, or gratification whatever, in respect of any business done in the said office, or connected therewith, other than the salaries, or commission to which they may be entitled under this act, or under authority of treasury, id. s.7.

7. If any of the said officers and clerks so employed, except the said attached architects and clerks of the works, and labourers in trusts,) shall be in any manner engaged in business as architects, or builders, other than under the provisions of this act, and the orders of the said surveyor-general, or if the said assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, shall become contractors, either openly or covertly, for the execution of any public buildings, or works of any description, carried on under the control or superintendence of the said surveyor-general, or if the said surveyor-general, or the said assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the said attached architects, or any other of the officers or clerks, so employed as above, shall take any fee, perquisite, or gratification, in respect of business done in the said office, or connected therewith, other than the salary or commission to which he may be entitled under this act, or the authority of the treasury, and such taking or receiving is proved to the satisfaction of the treasury, for the time being, every such person shall be deprived of his situation in the said office of works, id. s.8.

8. The treasury shall, as soon as conveniently may be after passing this act, prepare a full and complete code of instructions for the conduct of the whole business of the office of works, and for the regulation and control of its whole expenditure, in all its branches and departments, conformably to the true intent and meaning of 22 G.3. c.82. and shall transmit the same to the surveyor-general of the office, signed by any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, for the guidance of the said surveyor-general, and his assistant, and his attached architects, and of all the other officers and clerks employed in the said office, in the performance and exercise of their several and respective duties therein, and the said commissioners shall cause a copy of the said code of instructions to be laid before parliament, within 21 days after their signature thereof, if parliament be then sitting, but if not, then within 21 days after its next meeting; and the treasury may from time to time alter, vary, and change such code of instructions, or issue any additional instructions, for the conduct of the business of the office of works, and the regulation of the expenditure thereof, in such manner as the good of H. M.'s service may, from time to time, appear to them to require, always laying before parliament, as above directed, with regard to the original code, a copy of such new instructions, id. s.9.

WRECK.

1. WHAT SHALL BE ADJUDGED WRECK OF THE SEA, AND WHAT not, 3 E.1. (West. Prim.) c.4.

2. Where a man, a dog, or a cat, escape quick out of the ship, such ships, or any thing within them, shall not be adjudged wreck; but the goods shall be saved and kept by view of the sheriff, coroner, or H. M.'s bailiff, and delivered into the hands of such as are of the town; so that if any sue for those goods, and after prove that they were his, or perished in his keeping, within a year and a day, they shall be restored; and if not, they shall remain to H. M., and be seized by the sheriffs, coroners, and bailiffs, and delivered to them of the town, to answer before the justices of the wreck belonging to H. M.; and where wreck belongeth to another, he shall have it in like manner; and he that otherwise doth, and is thereof attained, shall be awarded to prison, and make fine at H. M.'s will, and shall yield damages also; and if a bailiff do it, and be disallowed by his lord, and the lord will pretend any title thereto, the bailiff shall answer, if he have whereof; and if he have not, the lord shall deliver his bailiff's body to H. M., 3 Ed. (West. Prim.) c. 4.

3. CONCERNING WRECK OF THE SEA, WHERESOEVER IT IS FOUND, if any lay hands on it, he shall be attached by sufficient pledges, and the price of the wreck valued, and delivered to the towns, 4 Ed. 1. S. 2. [See rest of this statute, CORONER, pl. 3—12.]

4. FOR PRESERVING ALL SUCH SHIPS AND GOODS THEREOF, which shall happen to be forced on shore or stranded on the coasts of this kingdom, or any other of H. M.'s dominions, 12 A. S. 2. c. 18. (PUBLIC clause, id. s. 6.) [MADE PERP. 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 1. AMD., id. s. 2.]

5. The sheriffs, justices of peace of every county or county of a city or town, and all mayors, bailiffs, and other head officers of corporations and port towns near the sea, and all constables, headboroughs, and officers of the customs therein, shall, on application made to them on behalf of any commander of a ship, being in danger of being stranded, or being stranded, command the constables of the ports nearest the coasts where such ship shall be in danger, to summon as many men as shall be thought necessary, to the assistance, and for preservation of such ship and cargo; and if there shall be any ship belonging to H. M., or her subjects, riding near the place, the officers of the customs, and constables, are required to demand of the superior officers of such ship, assistance by their boats, and such hands as they can conveniently spare for the same purpose; and in case such superior officer of such ship neglect to give such assistance, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered by the superior officer of the ship in distress, with costs, by action of debt or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, 12 A. S. 2. c. 18. s. 1.

6. The collectors of the customs, and the commanding officer of any ships, and all others who shall act in the preserving of any such ship in distress, or her cargo, shall, within 30 days, be paid a reasonable reward by the commander or owners of such ship in distress, or by the merchant whose ship or goods shall be saved; and in default thereof, the ship or goods shall remain in the custody of such officer of the customs, or his deputy, until such charges be paid, and until the said officer of the customs, and the master or other officer of the ship, and all others so employed, shall be reasonably gratified, or security given for that purpose, to the satisfaction of the parties. And in case after such salvage, the commander, mariners, or owners of such ship so saved, or merchant whose goods shall be saved, shall disagree with the officer of the customs, or his deputy, touching the monies deserved by any of the persons employed, the commander of such ship so saved, or the owner of the goods, or the merchant interested, and also the officer of the customs, may nominate 3 of the neighbouring justices of peace, who shall adjust the quantum of gratuities to be paid to the several persons, and such adjustments shall be binding on all parties, and shall be recoverable in an action at law in any of H. M.'s courts of record; and in case no person appears to make claim to the goods saved, the chief officer of the customs of the nearest port shall apply to 3 of the nearest justices of peace, who shall put him or some other responsible person in possession of the goods, such justices taking an account of the goods, to be signed by the officer of the customs; and if the goods shall not be claimed within 12 months, public sale shall be made thereof, (and if perishable goods, forthwith to be sold) and after charges deducted, the residue of the monies, with an account of the whole, shall be transmitted to H. M.'s exchequer, there to remain for the benefit of the owner, who upon affidavit or other proof of his property, to the satisfaction of one of the barons, shall, upon his order receive the same, id. s. 2. [Goods saved from stranded ships, after paying salvage and charges, are liable to customs, 5 G. 1. c. 11. s. 13. For proceedings where salvage under this act is not paid or secured, see 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 7.; regulations extended, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 21., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 19. pl. 65. and see 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32. pl. 84.]

7. If any person besides those empowered by the officer of the customs, and the constables, shall enter or endeavour to enter on board any such ship in distress, without the leave of the commander, or of the officer of the customs, or constable, or in case any person shall molest them in the saving of the ship or goods, or shall endeavour to hinder the saving of such ship or goods, or shall deface the marks of any such goods, before the same be taken down in a book, by the commander and the first officer of the customs, such person shall, within 20 days, make double satisfaction, at discretion of the 2 next justices of peace, or in default thereof, shall by them be sent to the next house of correction, where he shall be employed in hard labour for 12 months; and any commander or superior officer of the ship in distress, or the officer of the customs, or constables on board the ship, may repel by force any such persons as shall, without consent as aforesaid, press on board the said ship in distress, and thereby molest them in the preservation of the ship, 12 A. S. 2. c. 18. s. 3.

8. In case any goods shall be found upon any person, that were stolen or carried off from any such ship in distress, he, on whom such goods shall be found, shall, on demand, deliver the same to the owner, or to such person authorized by the owner to receive the same, or shall be liable to pay treble the value, to be recovered by such owner in an action, 12 A. S. 2. c. 18. s. 4.

9. Every person who shall make or be assisting in the making a hole in any ship so in distress, or steal any pump, or shall be aiding in the stealing such pump, or shall wilfully do any thing tending to the immediate loss of such ship, shall be guilty of felony without clergy, id. s. 5.

10. If any action be prosecuted for any thing done in pursuance of this act, all persons so sued may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff in such suit is nonsuit, or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall recover full costs, id. s. 6.

11. If any officer of the customs shall, by fraud or wilful neglect, abuse the trust hereby reposed in him, and is convicted thereof, he shall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered in any court of record, and shall be incapable of the same or any other employment relating to the customs, id. s. 7.

12. This act shall be read four times in the year in all churches and chapels of every seaport town, and upon the sea coast, upon the Sundays next before Michaelmas-day, Christmas-day, Lady-day, and Midsummer-day, in the morning, after prayers, and before sermon, id. s. 8.

13. This act shall not prejudice H. M., or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of a manor, or other person, in relation to any right to wreck, or goods that are flotsam, jetsam, or lagan, id. s. 9.

14. The statute 12 A. S. 2. c. 18. shall not affect the ancient jurisdiction of the admiralty, or Cinque Ports, but shall be put in execution within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, by the proper officers of the admiralty court, 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 2.

15. FOR MORE EQUAL PAYING, AND BETTER COLLECTING CERTAIN small sums for relief of shipwrecked mariners and distressed persons, H. M.'s subjects in the [kingdom of Portugal, 8 G. 1. c. 17.] [or in the ports of Cadiz, and Port St. Mary's, in the kingdom of Spain, 9 G. 2. c. 25.] and for other uses usually contributed to by the merchants trading to [Portugal, 8 G. 1. c. 17.] [and to those ports in Spain, 9 G. 2. c. 25.] 8 G. 1. c. 17. and 9 G. 2. c. 25. [See note to next pl.]

16. FOR COLLECTING AT THE PORT OF Leghorn, certain small sums of money, to which the merchants trading there have usually contributed for relief of shipwrecked mariners, captures, and other distressed persons, H. M.'s subjects, and for other charitable and public uses, 10 G. 2. c. 14. [The titles of the three last statutes seem sufficient in this place.]

17. FOR ENFORCING THE LAWS AGAINST PERSONS WHO SHALL steal or detain shipwrecked goods, and for relief of persons suffering losses thereby, 26 G. 2. c. 19.

18. Every person who shall plunder, steal, take away, or destroy any goods or effects from or belonging to any ship or vessel of H. M.'s subjects, or others, being in distress, wrecked, lost, stranded, or cast on shore, in any of his dominions (whether any living creature be on board such vessel or not) or any of the furniture, tackle, apparel, provision, or part of such vessel, or beat or wound with intent to kill, or otherwise wilfully obstruct the escape of any person endeavouring to save his life from such ship, or the wreck thereof, or put out any false light with intention to bring any ship into danger, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted, shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 1.

19. When goods or effects of small value are stranded, lost, or cast on shore, and are stolen without circumstances of cruelty or violence, any person may prosecute for such offence, by way of indictment for petit larceny, and the offenders being convicted shall suffer as in cases of petit larceny, id. s. 2.

20. Any justice of peace, on information on oath, of any part of the cargo or effects belonging to any ship lost or stranded upon or near the coast aforesaid, being unlawfully carried away or concealed in any house or place, or of some reasonable suspicion thereof, may issue his warrant for searching such house or place, as in other cases of stolen goods, and if the same are found therein, or in the custody of any person not legally authorized or entitled to keep the same, and the owner or occupier of such house or place, or the person in whose custody the same are found, shall not, on demand, deliver the same to the owner, or to the person authorized to demand the same, or shall not give a good account to the satisfaction of the justice how he became possessed thereof, such justice upon proof of such refusal, shall commit the offender to the common goal for 6 months, or till he has paid treble the value of the goods so unlawfully detained, to such owner, or to the person authorized to receive the same, id. s. 3.

21. Every person who shall offer to sale any goods or effects belonging to any vessel lost, stranded, or cast on shore, and unlawfully taken away, or suspected so to have been; the person to whom the same are so offered for sale, or any officer of the customs or excise, or any constable, or other peace officer, shall stop and seize the said goods and effects, and shall carry the same, or give notice of such seizure to some justice of peace; and if the person who offered the said goods to sale, or some other person on his behalf, shall not appear before the said justice within 10 days next after such seizure, and make out to his satisfaction, that the property of the said goods is in him or in the person by whom he was employed to sell the same, the said goods shall, by order of the justice, be forthwith delivered over to or for the use of the rightful owner, upon payment of a reasonable reward for such seizure (to be ascertained by the justice) to the seizer, and such justice shall commit the person who so offered the said goods to sale, to the common gaol for 6 months, or till he have paid such lawful owner, or to the person authorized to receive the same, treble the value of the goods so unlawfully offered to sale as above, 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 4.

22. In case any person not employed by the master, mariners, or owners or other persons lawfully authorized in the salvage of any vessel, or her cargo or provision, in the absence of persons so employed or authorized, shall save any such ship or effects, and cause them to be carried for the benefit of the owners into port, or to any near adjoining custom-house, or other place of safe custody, giving notice thereof to some justice of peace, magistrate or custom-house or excise officer, or shall discover to any such magistrate or officer where any such effects are wrongfully bought, sold, or concealed, such person shall be entitled to a reasonable reward, to be paid by the masters or owners of such vessels or goods, and to be adjusted, in case of disagreement, in like manner as the salvage is to be adjusted and paid by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6., or in the manner hereinafter prescribed, id. s. 5.

23. The justice of peace, mayor, bailiff, collector of the customs, or chief constable nearest to the place where any ship or goods shall be stranded or cast away, shall forthwith give public notice for a meeting to be held of the sheriff or his deputy, the justices of peace, mayors, or other chief magistrates of towns corporate, coroners, and commissioners of the land-tax, or any 5 or more of them, who shall give aid in the execution of this act, and of 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and employ proper persons for saving ships in distress, and such ships and effects as are stranded or cast away, and also examine persons upon oath concerning the same, or the salvage thereof, and adjust the quantum of such salvage, and distribute the same among the persons concerned therein, in case of disagreement; and every such sheriff, justice of peace, mayor, chief magistrate, coroner, lord of a manor, under-sheriff, or commissioner of land-tax, acting at such meeting, shall be paid 4s. per day for his expences out of the effects saved, by their care or direction, id. s. 6.

24. If the charges and rewards for salvage directed to be paid by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and by this act, be not paid, or sufficient security given for the same within 40 days, the officer of the customs concerned in such salvage, may borrow money sufficient to pay such charges and rewards, or any part thereof then unpaid, or not secured as above, by or upon one or more bills of sale, under his hand and seal, of the ship or cargo saved, or such part thereof as is sufficient, redeemable upon payment of the principal sum so borrowed, and interest after the rate of 4 per cent. per ann., id. s. 7.

25—27. If oath be made before any magistrate lawfully empowered to take the same of any such plunder or theft, and the examination in writing thereupon taken is delivered to the clerk of the peace of the county or division wherein such fact is committed, or to his deputy, or if oath be made before any such magistrate, of the breaking any ship contrary to 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 3. pl. 7.; and the examination in writing thereupon taken is delivered to such clerk of the peace or his deputy, then such clerk of the peace shall cause the offender to be prosecuted for the same, either in the county where the fact is committed, or in any county next adjoining, in which adjoining county any indictment may be laid by any other prosecutor; and if the fact is committed in Wa., then the prosecution shall be carried on in the next adjoining English county, and the necessary charges of such prosecutions by the clerk of the peace shall be paid by the treasurer of the county or division where the fact is committed, to such amount as the justices of peace in their sessions shall order; and if such clerk of the peace neglects to carry on such prosecution, he shall forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence to any person who shall sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 8.

28. The commissioners of the land-tax, the deputy sheriff, the coroner, and the officers of excise in each county, riding, and division, shall be proper officers for putting in execution this act and the 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. with those in that act, s. 1. pl. 5. named for that purpose, id. s. 9.

29. The lord warden and deputy-warden of the cinque ports, and the lieutenant of Dover Castle, and the judge official, and commissary of the court of admiralty of the cinque ports, 2 ancient towns, and the members thereof, and every of them, and every other person appointed by the lord warden pursuant to 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. [now Ref. see PILOTAGE, STATS. Rep., &c. pl. 1.] shall be the persons to put in execution, within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, 2 ancient towns and their members, all the powers by this act, and by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and 4 G. 1. c. 12. given, 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 10.

30. If any sheriff or his deputy, justice of peace, mayor, or other magistrate, lord of a manor, commissioner of land-tax, chief or petty constable, or other peace officer, or any custom-house or excise officer, or other person lawfully authorized, be assaulted, beaten, and wounded, for the exercise of his duty, in the salvage of any ship in distress, or of any ship or goods stranded, wrecked, or cast on shore, or lying under water, in any of H.M.'s dominions, any person so assaulting, beating, and wounding, shall, on conviction, by indictment at the assizes, or general gaol delivery, or at the general or quarter sessions for the county or division where such offence is committed, be transported for 7 years to some of H.M.'s colonies in America, and be subject to such punishment in case of return before that time, as other persons under sentence of transportation, id. s. 11.

31. Any justice of peace, in case of need, and in absence of the high sheriff, may take sufficient power of the county, to repress all unjust violence, and enforce the execution of this act, id. s. 12.

32. All persons so assembled, to save any ship or goods, shall conform in the first place to the orders of the master, or other officers or owners, or other persons employed by them; and for want of their presence or directions, to the orders of the persons authorized by this act, or by the 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1. pl. 5. in the following subordination, as any of them happen to be present, viz. in the first place, to the orders of any officer of customs, then of any officer of excise, then of the sheriff or his deputy, then of any justice of peace, then of the mayor or chief magistrate of any corporation, then of the coroner, then of any commissioners of the land-tax, then of any chief constable, then of any petty constable, or other peace officers; and any person acting wilfully contrary to such orders, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, to be levied by warrant of one justice; and in case of non-payment, shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 13.

33. This act shall not prejudice H.M. or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of manor, or other person, in any right to any wreck, or goods which are flotsam, jetsam, or lagan, id. s. 14.

34. The officer of the customs who acts in preserving any ship in distress, or the cargo, shall, as soon as may be, cause all persons belonging to, and others who can give any account of the ship or cargo, to be examined on oath before some justice, as to the name or description of the ship, and the names of the master or chief officer and owners thereof, and of the cargo, and of the ports from or to which she was bound, and the occasion of her distress; which examination such justice shall take in writing, and shall deliver a copy thereof, together with a copy of the account of the goods, to the said officer of customs; who shall forthwith transmit the same to the secretary of the admiralty; who shall publish in the next London Gazette so much thereof as is necessary for the information of persons interested, id. s. 15.

35. The 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and the 4 G. 1. c. 12. pl. 4. shall remain in force, save only so far as altered by this act, id. s. 16.

36. Nothing in this act extends to Scot., id. s. 18.

37. FOR CHARGING FOREIGN LIQUORS AND TOBACCO DERELICT jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck brought or coming into G.B. with the duties payable on importation of the same, 52 G. 3. c. 159.

38. All liquors and tobacco derelict jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck brought or coming into this kingdom, shall be liable to pay the same duties, and entitled to the same drawbacks and allowances to which liquors and tobacco of the like kind regularly imported are by any law in force liable or entitled, id. s. 1.

39. Every person bringing into this kingdom, or finding or discovering on the coasts thereof any foreign liquors or tobacco derelict jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck, for which any customs or excise duty is imposed, shall, within 24 hours next after he has so brought, found, or discovered such liquors or tobacco, if the same are found on land, or within 24 hours next after the same have been landed, if found at sea, give notice thereof to the next custom-house or excise office, or to some neighbouring officer of customs or excise, specifying the place where such liquors are then deposited, and the proper officers shall thereupon forthwith take a particular account of the kinds and quantities of such liquors, &c.; and shall demand of the person in whose possession the same may be, or who have found or brought the same to land, the full customs or excise duties due in respect thereof; and if such duties are not on such demand paid by such persons, the said officers shall cause such liquors, &c. to be safely lodged in a warehouse to be kept therein under H.M.'s lock, till the duties are paid, or the liquors, &c. sold in manner hereinafter mentioned, id. s. 2.

40. Every person who shall bring into this kingdom, or find or discover on the coasts thereof, any such foreign liquors or tobacco derelict, &c. on which any customs or excise duty is by law imposed, and shall not give notice thereof as above, shall forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence, id. ibid.

41. Every person who shall remove, open, or alter in quantity or quality, or cause to be so removed, &c. or aid, or assist in removing, &c. any such liquors or tobacco, or break, sever, or destroy, or cause to be broken, &c. or assist in the breaking, &c. any of the cases or packages containing any such liquors or tobacco, before such liquors, &c. are by them deposited in a warehouse as aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit 100*l.*; and all such liquors, &c. so removed, opened, or altered in quantity or quality, together with the casks and other packages respectively containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively may be seized by any officer of customs or excise; provided always, that if the duties on such liquors, &c. are not paid within 18 months next after the said liquors, &c. are deposited in such warehouse, the commissioners of customs or excise shall sell and dispose of such liquors, &c. or any part thereof, for the satisfying the duties payable in respect of such liquors, &c. and also the expences of conveying such liquors, &c. to such warehouse, and of the keeping and sale of such liquors and tobacco, rendering the overplus (if any) of the monies arising by the said sale after payment of the said expences to the person by law entitled to the same; and if upon such liquors, &c. being put up to sale, no person shall offer or bid for the same as much or more money than the duties payable in respect thereof, together with the warehouse rent and expences taken together would amount to, then the said commissioners shall permit the person by law entitled to the same to dispose thereof for exportation, only subject to the usual regulations in such cases; or if such person or persons shall refuse so to do, then to sell and dispose of such liquors, &c. for exportation, or to destroy the same, as such commissioners may deem most expedient; but nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent any such liquors, &c. as the said commissioners may deem necessary for that purpose, from being sold duty free for payment of the salvage expences incurred in respect thereof, id. s. 2.

42. The lord of the manor on which such liquors or tobacco are found having by law just claim thereto, or where no such lord exists, then the person bringing into this kingdom, or finding or discovering on the coasts thereof any such foreign liquors, &c. may retain the same in his own custody for a year and day, computed from such bringing, finding, or discovering thereof, on his entering into bond to H.M., his heirs, and successors, with 2 sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the proper officer of customs or excise, in treble the value of such liquors, &c. for due payment of the duties in respect thereof at the end of such year and day, or in default of such payment, shall restore such liquors, &c. at the end of such year and day to the proper officer of customs or excise, in the same state and condition as the same were in at the time of such bringing, finding, &c. thereof, id. s. 3.

43. Every person, who shall assault, oppose, molest, or hinder any such officer in the due execution of this act, or of any of the powers thereby given to any such officer, &c. shall forfeit 200*l.* for every offence, id. s. 4.

44. All penalties hereby imposed, and sued for, or prosecuted under order or permission of the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot., or by any officer of customs, may be recovered and disposed of in such manner as any penalties incurred, or goods forfeited for any offence against the laws of customs may now be legally sued for, &c.; and the officer of the customs concerned in any such seizures or prosecutions shall receive such share of the produce arising from the said seizures as he is now by law entitled to upon prosecution of seizures for unlawful importation, and to such share of the produce arising from any such penalty or composition paid for any offence against this act, as they are now by any law or regulation entitled to upon prosecutions for pecuniary penalties, id. s. 5.

45. All penalties imposed and sued for by order of the commissioners of excise in Eng. or Scot. respectively, or by any officer of excise, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such means, as any penalty may be sued for, &c. by any law of excise, or by action of debt, &c. or information in any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot. respectively, and one moiety of every such penalty shall be to H.M., and the other to him who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same, id. s. 6.

46. FOR PREVENTING FRAUDS AND DEPREDACTIONS COMMITTED ON merchants, ship owners, and underwriters by boatmen and others, [on the coasts, and in the harbours, bays, and rivers of Eng., Wa., and Ber., see s. 1.], AND ALSO FOR REMEDYING CERTAIN DEFECTS relative to the adjustment of Salvage in Eng., under 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6. 49 G. 3. c. 122. [which is CON. 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. and AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 87. ss. 2—8., and both these acts incorporated in and AMD. by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. PUBLIC CLAUSES, 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 33., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 39.]

47. All pilots, boatmen, hovellers, or other persons, taking up any anchors, cables, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, or materials, or any goods, or merchandize, which may have been parted with, cut from, or left by any ship or vessel within any harbours, rivers, or bays, or on any of the coasts of this kingdom, whether such vessel shall be or shall have been in distress or otherwise, and which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by any such boatman, &c. shall send a report in writing of the articles so found, and stating the marks, if any, thereon, and also an accurate and particular description of the bearings, distances, and situations, and time when and where the same were so found, to a deputy vice-admiral or his agent, at or near to the port or place where such boatman, &c. shall first arrive with such articles, within 48 hours after his arrival at such port or place, or before he shall leave the port, if he shall quit it before that time shall expire; and shall also, within such period as aforesaid, deliver such articles so found into a proper warehouse, or such other place as the vice-admiral of each county shall appoint for safe custody, until the same are claimed by the owner thereof, or his agent or agents, and the salvage, together with such other expences, as are herein-after directed to be paid in respect of such articles, paid by him, or security given for payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the salvor or salvors thereof; and every such pilot, &c. who shall wilfully and fraudulently keep possession of, or retain, or conceal, or secrete any anchors or cables, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, or materials, or any goods or merchandize, or deface, take out, or obliterate the marks and numbers thereon, or alter the same in any manner, with intent thereby directly or indirectly to prevent the discovery and identification of such articles so found, weighed, &c. and shall not report and deliver the same at some proper warehouse or other place in the manner aforesaid, and within the time herein-before limited, shall forfeit all claim to salvage, and shall, on conviction, be adjudged and deemed guilty of receiving goods, knowing them to have been stolen, and shall suffer like punishment as if the same had been stolen on shore, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 1., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 1.

48. Every deputy vice-admiral or his agent, to whom any such report shall be sent, shall, within 2 days, forward the same, or a true copy thereof, to the secretary of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strand in London, and the same shall be placed by the said secretary in some conspicuous situation, for inspection of all persons choosing to inspect and examine the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 2. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 2.; Provided, that no report shall be forwarded by such deputy vice-admiral or his agent to the said corporation, till the articles so to be deposited, in respect of which a report is required to be made as herein-before directed, shall amount in value to 20*l.*, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 2., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 3.

49. Any deputy vice-admiral or his agent may seize and detain any such articles as have not been so reported; upon which seizure he shall deposit the same in the warehouse or other place to be appointed as in s. 1. pl. 47., and shall, within 2 days thereafter, send a report in writing of the articles as seized, and stating the marks (if any) thereon, to the Trinity-house, as directed to be made public in s. 2.; and if he shall not make such report as aforesaid within 2 days after such seizure as aforesaid, he shall, on conviction before any justice of peace or magistrate, on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit 20*l.* for every such neglect, together with double the value of the goods so seized, one half of which penalty shall be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township where such offence is committed; and every deputy vice-admiral or his agent, who shall make any such seizure, without previous information being given to him, shall, on the same articles being claimed by and delivered to the owner thereof, or his agent, be entitled to receive such sum of money as shall be equal to one-third of the value thereof, after payment of the duties, and any charges incidental to recovery and preservation of the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 3., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 4.

50. If the owner and deputy vice-admiral or agent so seizing cannot agree on the value of the articles, it shall be ascertained in like manner as in s. 37. pl. 84. directed, with regard to salvage, or shall be referred to decision of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 4. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 5.

51. If such seizure is made in consequence of information given to them, the deputy vice-admiral or agent so seizing shall only receive from the owners or their agents of the articles 1-6th of the value thereof, and one other 1-6th shall be paid to the person giving the information, the value of such articles to be ascertained, as in s. 3. pl. 49., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 5. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 6.

52. If any such articles, so reported and delivered into the warehouse or other place as aforesaid, shall not be claimed within a year and day after such report has been transmitted to the Trinity-house as above, the same shall be sold, and a certificate of such sale delivered to the purchaser thereof, under directions of the admiralty, and the monies arising from sale thereof applied in the manner directed in 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6.; and if seized by the deputy vice-admiral or his agent as aforesaid, then the seizer, and any person who has given the information which led to the seizure (if any was so given), shall be equally entitled to the salvage allowed by the admiralty to the salvors in the case of unclaimed property, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 6. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 7.

53. If the salvors of any such articles, or of any goods so found, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, and so lodged and reported as aforesaid, and the owners thereof, or agents, cannot agree respecting the amount of salvage to be paid for the same, or the value thereof, as the case may be, then the matter in difference shall be determined by any 3 justices residing near the place where such articles or goods shall be deposited, [who, not in the act] shall begin to proceed in their inquiry, as to such matters in dispute, within 48 hours after such difference is referred to them for their determination thereof; and if they cannot agree respecting the same, they may nominate any 3rd person conversant in maritime affairs, at their option, who shall ascertain the amount of the salvage to be paid, or the value thereof, as the case may be, within 48 hours after he has been so nominated; and the said justices, and such 3rd person so nominated as aforesaid, shall have full power, whenever they see occasion, to examine the parties, or their witnesses, on oath, which oath they are hereby authorized to administer, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 7., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 8.

54. The said justices may decide, in like manner, and within the same time as herein-before directed with regard to salvage, on all claims and demands soever, made by pilots, boatmen, and other persons, for service of any description (except pilotage) rendered by them to any vessel, as well for carrying off from the shore to such vessel any anchors, cables, or other stores from any port of the coast of Eng., Wa., and Ber., or for saving and preserving any goods or merchandize wrecked, stranded, or cast away from any vessel, or for being instrumental in saving the life of any person on board the same, the master or owners, or their agent or agents, being present with such justices; and the latter shall have full power to hear and determine on all cases of services rendered by pilots, boatmen and others, to vessels (except pilotage), whether they are at the time in distress or not, and they shall have like power of examining the parties or their witnesses on oath, as last herein-before directed; and their decision shall be final and conclusive on all parties, except in cases where an appeal is interposed by either party to the high court of admiralty, within 30 days after the award of the justices or such person so appointed, as in last pl., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 8., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 9.

55. In case the parties so claiming to be entitled to salvage, or who are to pay the same, or their agents, are dissatisfied with such award and decision of the justices, or person so to be nominated, as in pl. 53. either of them may respectively, within 10 days after such award is made, but not afterwards, declare to the justices, or such nominee, his desire of obtaining the judgment of the high court of admiralty respecting the said salvage, and thereupon he shall proceed, by taking out a monition within 30 days from the date of the award; in which case, the justices shall deliver to the owners and proprietors, or their agents, any such anchor or cable, goods, or other articles, respecting which any claim for salvage is made on the owners or proprietors thereof, or their agent, giving sufficient bail in the amount of the sum awarded for salvage or compensation, and which shall be taken by a commissioner for taking examinations in prize cases, if there is one in the port or place where such difference shall arise; but if there is no such commissioner there, then the said justices, to whom such difference has been referred, or either of them, or any other justice of peace may take; and after taking, shall certify the same according to the form in the schedule, and transmit the same without delay to the high court of admiralty, together with a true certificate in writing, of the gross value of the whole of the articles respecting which salvage is claimed, and also a copy of such proceedings and awards, on unstamped paper, certified under the hand of such commissioner or justice taking the bail as above, and the same shall be admitted by such court of admiralty as evidence in the cause, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 9., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 10.

SCHEDULE to which this act refers.

' On the — day of — in the year of our Lord —, before me — at — in the county of — [ship's name,] A. B. [here insert the names of the salvors against, and name the stores and other articles (id est) Anchors and cables, &c. as the case may be] certain goods and merchandizes lately found and taken possession of, and belonging to the said ship, whereof — was master, and also against the said — master, and the owners [or if the owners alone appear by themselves or agents, then leave out the master's name] of the said goods and merchandize, in a cause of salvage [master's name] on which day appeared personally — of — and — of — who produced themselves as sureties for the said — the master, and for the owners of the said goods and merchandize, and submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., bound themselves, their heirs, executors, and administrators, for the master and owners of the said goods and merchandize, in the sum of — of lawful money of G. B., unto the said — to answer such salvage and expences, or the value of the goods [as the case may be] as shall be herein-after decreed by the said court, according to the tenor of the act in that case made and provided; and unless they shall so do, they hereby consent that execution shall issue forth against them, their heirs, executors, and administrators, goods and chattels, wherever the same shall be found, to the value of the sum above mentioned.'

This bail was duly taken, acknowledged, and received, at the time and place above written, before me, the undersigned commissioner; and I do believe and consider the persons above mentioned sufficient security for the said sum of —.

56. The persons so to be named by the said justices shall decide on the amount of salvage to be paid, or on the value of the articles, or on the remuneration to be made to persons rendering assistance to vessels, or persons as aforesaid, may demand and receive from the owners of the articles saved, or of the vessels in behalf of which the services may have been rendered, or their agents, a sum not exceeding 2l. 2s. which fee shall be paid by the latter after he has made his award or decision, and on delivery of the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 10., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 11.

57. Every person who shall wilfully cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink or destroy, or shall do or commit any act with intent and design to cut away, &c. or in any other way to injure or conceal, any buoy, buoy rope or mark belonging to any vessel, or which may be attached to any anchor or cable, belonging to any vessel whatever, whether in distress or otherwise, shall, on conviction of such offence, be deemed guilty of felony, and may be transported for any term not exceeding 7 years, or in mitigation of such punishment to be imprisoned for any number of years, at discretion of the court in which the conviction is made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 11., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 12.

58. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully, and with intent to defraud and injure the true owner thereof, or any person interested therein as aforesaid purchase or receive any anchors, cables, or goods or merchandize taken up, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, whether having belonged to any vessel in distress or otherwise, or having been preserved from any wreck, if the directions herein-before contained with regard to such articles have not been previously complied with, such persons shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, as if they had been stolen on shore, and suffer the like punishment as for a misdemeanor at common law, or be liable to be transported for 7 years, at discretion of the court before which he is tried, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 12., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 13.

59. In case the master, mate, or crew of any vessel bound to parts beyond the seas, shall find and take on board her any anchor, cable, goods or merchandize, or shall receive the same on board from any other person who has found the same, knowing the same to have been so found, the master, mate, or other person in command of such vessel, shall make a true entry in the log book of such ship, of the description of the articles so found or taken on board, stating the marks (if any) thereon, and the bearings and distances, and other minute description, and the time when and where the same were found and taken on board; and shall also at the first possible opportunity, transmit a report in writing, containing a true copy of such entry to the Trinity House, and on the return of such vessel to any port in Eng., Wa., or Ber. he shall deliver the same articles into the possession of a deputy vice-admiral or his agent, in or nearest to such port at which he shall first arrive, and within 24 hours after his arrival, with the like report as before directed; which deputy, &c. shall transmit such report to the Trinity House, to be placed by them for inspection, as in s. 2. pl. 48. and if the same is not claimed by the owners, or their agent, within a year and a day after such report is transmitted, the same shall be sold according to law with regard to unclaimed property; and in default thereof, or if the master of such vessel shall dispose of such anchor, &c. to any person soever, or shall not on his first return to any port within Eng., Wa., or Ber., report and deliver the same according to this act, he shall for every such offence forfeit all claim to salvage, and on conviction before any justice or magistrate on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 100*l.* nor less than 30*l.* one-half of which penalty shall be paid to the informer, and the other to the president and governors, for the relief and support of maimed and disabled seamen, and of the widows and children of such as are killed, slain, or drowned in the merchants service, under 20 G. 2. c. 38. tit. SEAMEN, pl. 62. and shall also pay double the value of such articles to the owner thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 13., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 14.

60. The deputy vice-admiral, or his agent, who makes the report required by s. 1. pl. 47. to the Trinity House, may receive from the owners of the articles in respect of which the report is made, or if the same are not claimed, then out of the produce of their sale the sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each report; and the secretary or other proper officer of the Trinity House may receive in like manner the sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each report so to be received by the said corporation, to be made public by them as in s. 2. pl. 48. which sum shall be paid to the said deputy, &c. before delivery of the goods, and accounted for by him to the Trinity House, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 14., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 15.

61. Every pilot, hoveller, boatman, or master of a vessel, who shall convey to any foreign port any anchor or cable which may have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by them, or purchased by them of other persons, knowing them to have been so weighed, &c. without being so reported, and shall there sell and dispose of the same, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for not exceeding 7 years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 15., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 16.

62. All persons who shall trade or deal in buying and selling anchors, cables, sails, or old junk, old iron, or marine stores of any kind or description, shall have their names, with the words "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in letters of not less than 6 inches in length, upon the front of all their storehouses, warehouses, and other deposits, for such goods; and in default of so doing, shall, on conviction before any justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates of any jurisdiction where such storehouse, &c. is, on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township where the offence is committed; and no such dealers or traders shall cut up any cable, or part of a cable, exceeding 5 fathoms in length, or uncant, untwine, or unlay the same into junk or paper stuff on any pretence, without first obtaining a permit from some justice or magistrate residing near the residence of such dealer, which permit shall not be granted, unless affidavit is made that the cable so intended to be cut up had been bonâ fide purchased by the party so intending to cut up the same, and without any knowledge or suspicion on his part, that the same had been dishonestly come by; and in which shall also be specified the particular quality and description of such cable, and the name of the seller thereof, which affidavit shall be recited at length in the permit thereupon granted, on pain of forfeiting for the first offence any sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.* and for every second or further offence, not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.* to be recovered before any justice of peace; one-half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish in which such offence is committed, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 16., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 17.

63. All dealers in such marine stores shall keep a book fairly written, in which entries shall be from time to time regularly made, of all old marine stores by them from time to time bought, containing a true account and description of the times when so bought by them, and of the names and abodes of the sellers, and before any person who shall obtain such permit for cutting up any such cable (as herein-before, pl. 62. required), shall proceed to cut up the same by virtue thereof, there shall be published, by the space of one week at least before cutting up the same, one or more advertisements in some public newspaper printed nearest to the storehouse, &c. where the articles are deposited, notifying that such party had obtained such permit, for the purpose of cutting up such cable, and of the kind and quality therein described, and also specifying the place where such articles are deposited; whereupon every person who has just cause to suspect that such articles are the property of such person, and has verified upon oath the fact of such his suspicion before any justice or magistrate residing near the said storehouse, &c. by warrant for that purpose thereupon granted, may require of such dealer, who has so advertised, and is so sworn to be suspected as aforesaid, the production and examination of the book of entries hereby required by him to be kept, and inspect and examine the cables described in such permit; and in case such dealer, when so thereunto required shall neglect or refuse to produce to the person named in such warrant, as the person on whose oath the same have been obtained, the book containing his entries, or shall neglect to keep such book in which the above entries shall be made, or to permit such inspection or examination as aforesaid, or shall, after obtaining such permit for cutting up, and before the cutting up any such cable, neglect to publish such one or more advertisements relative thereto, as before required, the offender in all or any of the above particulars shall forfeit and pay, for his first offence, any sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, and for every second or further offence, any sum not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.*, one-half of which penalty shall, on conviction before any justice or magistrate resident as aforesaid, be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township in which such offences are committed; and in case any of the penalties by this act imposed are not paid, with the charges incident to the conviction, immediately thereon, the same may be levied by warrant under hand and seal of such justice or magistrate, on the goods and chattels of any such offender; and in case no sufficient distress is found, he shall be committed by the latter to gaol, in case of a first offence for 6, and in case of a second or further offence, for 12 calendar months, unless the said penalty and the charges are sooner paid, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 17., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 18.

64. All manufacturers of anchors and kedge anchors, shall place their names, together with a progressive number, and also the weight of the anchor, in legible characters on the crown, and also on the shank under the stock of each anchor, which they shall manufacture; and shall also place their names, together with a number, and the weight of the kedge anchor upon the crown, and also on the shank near the stock of every kedge anchor which they shall manufacture; and every manufacturer who neglects to place such name, number, or weight as herein-before directed, shall, on conviction before any justice or magistrate, on oath of one credible witness, or on the confession of the offender, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township in which the offence is committed, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 18., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 19.

65. Every justice of peace before whom any person is convicted of any offence against these acts, may cause the conviction to be drawn up as follows; and no certiorari, or other process for removal of any such conviction, or any proceedings thereon, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, shall be granted, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 19., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 20.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A. B. is convicted before me [or us] — one [or two, as the case may be,] of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — [here specify the offence, and the time and place when and where committed, as the case may be,] contrary to an act passed in the 2d year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here insert the title of this act.] Given under my hand and seal [or, our hands and seals,] the day and year first above written.

66. Any person so convicted of any offence against this act, may, within 3 calendar months next after such conviction, appeal to the general quarter sessions for the county, city, or place where the matter of appeal arises, first giving 10 days notice of such appeal to the persons appealed against, and of the matter thereof, and entering into a recognizance before some justice of the peace for such county, city, or place, with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; which quarter sessions shall, on due proof of such notice having been given and recognizance entered into, hear and determine the matter of such appeal, and may either confirm or quash the conviction, and award such costs to either party as to them shall seem just, which decision therein shall be final; and no proceeding had in pursuance of this act shall be quashed for want of form only, or removed by certiorari, or any other process soever, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or elsewhere, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 20., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 21.

67. The inhabitants of any parish, township, or place shall be competent witnesses for proving the commission of any offence against these acts within the limits of such parish, &c. notwithstanding the penalties thereby incurred, or any part thereof, is given or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c., or otherwise for the benefit or use, or in aid or in exoneration of such parish, &c. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 21. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 22.

68. All felonies, misdemeanors, and other offences under these acts, may be laid to be committed, and shall be tried in any city or county (being a county) where any such article, matter, or thing, in relation to which such offence has been committed, has been found in the possession of the person committing the offence; or if sold in foreign parts, then in the county or place in which the person selling the same shall reside, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 22. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 23.

69. Nothing in these acts shall extend to the limits in 48 G. 3. c. 130. and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. pl. 86. specified; nor affect the provisions of 48 G. 3. c. 104.; 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 23., 49 G. 3. c. 122. ss. 24—25. [But 48 G. 3. c. 104. is REP. and EXP. See PILOTAGE, STATS. exp., &c. pl. 4.]

70. Nothing herein shall extend to the taking away or abridging, in any manner whatever, the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., or of the admiralty courts of the Cinque Ports, two ancient towns, and their members, of Great Yarmouth, in Norfolk, of Dunwich, in Suffolk, or of Southampton, in Hants, or of Southwold, in Suffolk, or of Lynn Regis, in Norfolk; but the said courts respectively, and the judges thereof for the time being, may have, use, exercise and enjoy jurisdiction over all such matters, rights, and offences as they have heretofore had, &c. as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if these acts had not been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 24. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 26.

71. Neither this act nor any thing herein contained shall deprive or prejudice the rights of H. M. his heirs or successors, or any claiming under them, or any patentee or grantee of the crown, or any lords, &c. of manors soever, but such respective rights shall be enjoyed in as ample a manner in every respect as if these acts had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 25., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 27.

72. No lord of any manor, or other person who may be entitled to or claim to be entitled to wreck of the sea, or to any goods found jetsam, flotsam, or lagan, shall be entitled to appropriate such wreck or goods to his own use, or otherwise to dispose thereof, until he has caused a report thereof in writing to be given to the deputy vice-admiral of that part of the coast where the same shall have been stranded, wrecked, or found, or to his agent; or if there is no such deputy vice-admiral or agent residing within the distance of 50 miles, then to the Trinity House; which report shall contain an accurate and particular description of the wreck or goods found, and of the place or places and time or times where and when found, and of any marks thereon, and of such other particulars as may better enable the owners thereof to recover the same, and also of the place or places where the same are deposited and may be found and examined by any person claiming any right to such wreck or goods, nor until the full expiration of a year and a day after the delivery of such notice, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and the deputy vice-admiral or agent aforesaid shall, within 48 hours after receiving such report as aforesaid, transmit a copy thereof to the secretary of the Trinity House, upon pain of forfeiting for any neglect to transmit such account as aforesaid 50*l.*, to any person who will sue for the same; and the said secretary shall cause such account to be placed in some conspicuous situation, for inspection of all persons claiming to examine the same; but nothing herein contained shall repeal or in any manner affect any of the provisions of 53 G. 3. c. 159. pl. 37., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 26., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 2.

73. When any goods found or taken possession of by any lord of a manor, or person entitled to wreck of the sea, or to goods found flotsam, jetsam, or lagan, or his agent, or servant, or by any vice-admiral, or his deputy or agent, or by any officer or other person soever acting under authority of this act, or of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. pl. 86., shall be of so perishable a nature, or so much injured or damaged, that they cannot be kept, then such goods shall and may, at request of any of the persons interested therein, or in the saving thereof, with consent and approbation of some justice of peace not interested in the same or in the saving thereof, and in his presence or in that of some person for that purpose specially appointed by him, be sold by public auction or private contract, as such justice may direct by some writing under his hand, which writing shall contain an accurate and particular account of the goods, and marks thereon, or other particulars belonging thereto, and of the times and places of the finding and intended sale thereof; and the money raised by such sale, after defraying the reasonable expences of sale, to be settled by such justice, shall be deposited in the hands of the lord of the manor, or other person, or deputy vice-admiral, who would have received the custody of the goods so sold, to abide and be subject to the claims of all persons, as the goods themselves would be subject if remaining unsold; provided that all persons required to transmit reports to the deputy vice-admiral of the finding any goods, as in pl. 72., shall, in case of any such sale, likewise transmit to him an account of such sale, and of the proceeds thereof; and the latter shall forward such reports to the Trinity House, within the like periods and under the like penalties for any neglect therein, as in cases of any goods found and required to be reported under the provisions of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. or of these acts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 27., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 3.

74. The commissioners of customs and excise shall permit all goods, wares, and merchandize saved from any vessel stranded or wrecked on the homeward voyage, to be forwarded to the port of original destination; and also permit goods saved from any vessel stranded or wrecked on their respective outward voyage, to be returned to the port at which the same were shipped; but such commissioners shall take security for due protection of the revenue in respect thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 28.

75. The deputy vice-admiral of the part of the coast where any vessel is stranded or wrecked, or where any wreck of the sea or goods are cast on shore, and his agent, and also the owner or master of any such vessel, and the owners of any such goods, or of any part thereof, and any officer of customs or excise, and other officer, and all persons soever employed or acting in aid of any such deputy vice-admiral, officer, master, or owner, in saving or recovering any such vessel, or the cargo, stores, tackle, or other articles belonging to the same, or preserving the lives of the crew or persons belonging thereto, or of any wreck as aforesaid, may pass and repass with their horses, carts, carriages, or servants, over any lands near to the part of the sea coast where such vessel is so wrecked or stranded, or on which such wreck shall be cast, without interruption or obstruction by the owner or occupier thereof, for the purpose of rendering assistance in saving, recovering, and preserving any such vessel, or goods or stores, or any cables, anchors, spars, masts, cordage, or other tackle or articles belonging to her, or for saving or otherwise assisting in preserving the lives of the crew, or persons on board, or for taking possession of and securing for benefit of the owners thereof, of any wreck or goods, or other things cast or found on shore, or near thereto, provided there is no road by which the parties may pass and repass with as much convenience and expedition as over such lands; and also to place any planks, timber, or any part of the wreck, or any goods or stores removed or saved from any such vessel, or any other wreck or goods as aforesaid, upon any such land for a reasonable time, until they can be removed to some warehouse or place of deposit, making compensation to the occupier of such lands for any damage done by the above means, which compensation shall be a charge upon the wreck or goods in respect whereof the damage may be done, in like manner as salvage; and in case the parties cannot agree as to the amount thereof, then it shall be settled by 2 justices of peace, or of a third person to be named by them, in such manner and within such times as the amount of salvage is directed to be ascertained and settled by 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32., which is adopted and consolidated with s. 37. of this act, pl. 84., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 29., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 4.

76. If any owner or occupier of any land or premises, over which any person is authorized by these acts to pass and repass, for any of the above purposes, shall interrupt, impede, or hinder any such person from passing over his land or premises with horses, carts, carriages, and servants, for such purposes or any or either of them, by locking his gates or refusing on request to open them, or otherwise, or shall obstruct or hinder the placing any wreck, goods, stores, or other articles upon his land, or shall prevent their remaining there for a reasonable time, until, they can be removed to some warehouse or safe place of public deposit such occupier shall forfeit 100*l.* to any person who will sue for the same, by action of debt, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 30., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 5.

77. Questions in relation to salvage of any vessel, or of any goods, which shall be performed between high and low water mark, shall be within the jurisdiction or cognizance of the high court of admiralty, or of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 31., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 6.

78. In every case in which any damage is done by any foreign vessel to any British vessel, barge, boat, or other craft, or any buoy or beacon, in any harbour, port, river, or creek, and it appears on a summary application made to any judge of any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or to the judge of the high court of admiralty respectively, that such damage or loss has probably been sustained or arisen by the misconduct or negligence of the master or mariners of such foreign vessel, he may cause such foreign vessel, being in any harbour, &c. to be arrested and detained, till the master, or owner, or consignee, or some agent of either, shall undertake to appear and be defendant in any action brought for such damage, and give such sufficient security, by bail or otherwise, for all costs and damages, if recovered, as shall be ordered by such judge, if upon the trial of such action or suit it appears that such loss or damage has arisen from such negligence or misconduct, and in such action the person giving security shall be made defendant, and shall be stated to be the owner of the foreign vessel doing such damage; and it shall not be necessary in such action to give any other evidence of the liability of such person to the same, than the production of the judge's order, made in relation to such security as above, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 32., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 7.

79. All penalties above 20*l.*, or which by these acts, or by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. are made recoverable by action or suit, shall be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 33., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 8.

80. Nothing in this statute shall take away, abridge, or prejudice any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity House, 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 28. [This provision is not repeated in 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75.]

81. Nor shall any thing in these acts take away, &c. any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity House of Hull, or in the commissioners acting under any acts of parliament relating to the adjustment of salvage for anchors, cables, and other ships' materials found in the Humber, or vested in the Trinity Houses of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Scarborough respectively; but they shall hold and enjoy the same as fully to all intents and purposes as if this act had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 34., and 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 29.

82. Nor take away any right, property, authority, or jurisdiction of the mayor, or of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, to, in, and on the Thames and Medway, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 35. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 30.

83. Nothing in these acts shall extend to Scot. and Ire., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 36., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 31.

84. All the means which in virtue of 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. exist and may now be by law applied for conclusively adjusting, and recovering the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons acting or being employed in the salvage of any ship or vessel, or the materials or stores belonging thereto, or goods, in cases where application has been first made pursuant to that act, to officers of the customs, or other the officers in that behalf mentioned, and assistance has been thereupon rendered in pursuance of the provisions of that act, shall be by law applicable in like manner, to all intents and purposes, in cases where the salvors have acted under and by authority of any magistrate, or of the commander or other superior officers, mariners, or owners of any vessel in distress, though no such application has been made to, nor any authority or assistance derived from, any officer of customs, or other the officer or officers in that statute in that behalf mentioned; and thereupon on payment or tender and refusal of the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons who have acted or been employed in such salvage, or in case such payment or tender cannot be made, on security being given for the true payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the justices who shall have adjusted such quantum or gratuities, no officer of customs, or other person having custody of such vessel, materials, stores, or goods, may any longer retain the custody of the same, or any part thereof, by pretence of any claim or right to compensation or gratuity of such salvage as aforesaid, or for having acted or been employed therein, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 37., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32.

85. The owner or owners, or, if they refuse, the salvors may sell so much of the property saved as is sufficient to defray the salvage adjudged, and all expences attending the same, and any other reasonable expences respecting the property allowed by the high court of admiralty, or by the justices acting in execution of this act; and on production of an order or decree from that court, or of an award made by the above justices, the commissioners of customs and excise shall allow the sale of such goods free from payment of duties: provided that, in all cases in which they think it advisable, they may refer any such award produced to them from the justices acting in execution of the provisions of this act, to the judgment and revision of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 38.

86. FOR PREVENTING THE VARIOUS FRAUDS and depredations committed on merchants, ship-owners and underwriters, by boatmen, and others, within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports: AND ALSO FOR REMEDYING CERTAIN DEFECTS relative to the adjustment of SALVAGE, under 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6. 48 G. 3. c. 130. [CON. 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1., and AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 87. ss. 2—8., and both these acts incorporated with and AMD. by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. PUBLIC clauses, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 24., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 22.]

87. "Whereas, 48 G. 3. c. 130. was CON. to the end of the session of parliament of 1821, by 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1., and it is expedient that it be continued, except as hereby altered," be it enacted, that the lord warden of the cinque ports for the time being may appoint by instrument under his hand and seal, 3 or more substantial persons in each of the cinque ports' 2 ancient towns, and their members, to adjust and determine any difference relative to salvage, which may arise between the master of any vessel, and the person or persons bringing such cables and anchors ashore, and if any ship or vessel is either forced or cut from her cables and anchors by extremity of weather, or other accident, and leaves the same in any roadstead, or other place, within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports' 2 ancient towns, and their members, and the salvage cannot be adjusted between the persons concerned, the same shall be determined by any 3 or more of the persons so to be appointed as above, within 24 hours after such difference is referred to them for their determination thereof, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding: provided that such commissioners shall immediately after their nomination proceed to elect some proper person, who shall be a notary, or master extraordinary in chancery as their secretary or register, except to the port of Dover, where the register for the time being of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports shall be the register, and which secretary or register shall enter in a book kept for that purpose, all the proceedings of such commissioners, and also a copy of the award, which they shall from time to time make; but such election of secretaries or registers shall be subject to the approbation of the existing lord warden, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 1. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 1.

88. The boundaries of the jurisdiction of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, in regard to any matter or thing contained in these statutes, shall be as follows: from a point to the western end of Seaford, in the county of Sussex, called Red Cliff, including the same: thence passing in a line one mile without the sand or shoal, called the Horse of Wiltendon, and continuing the same distance without the ridge and new shoals, and thence in a line within 5 miles of Cape Grimes, [Crisnes, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 20.] on the coast of France; thence round the shoal called the Overfalls, 2 miles distant from the same, thence in a line without, and the same distance along the eastern side of the Gallopier Sand, till the north end thereof bears west north-west true bearing from the west north-west bearing of the Gallopier, it runs in a direct line across the shoal called the Thwart Middle, till it reaches to the shore under the Maze Tower: from thence, following in a line of the shore up to St. Orsyth, in the county of Essex, and following the course of the shore up [to, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 18. only] the river Coln, to the landing-place nearest Brightlingsea: from thence in a direct line to Shor Bacon: from thence to the point of Shellness, on the Isle of Shippey: and from thence across the waters to Faversham, and from thence following the line of coast round the north and south Forelands and Beachy-head, till it reaches the said Red Cliff, including all the waters, creeks and havens comprehended between them; but nothing in these acts shall enlarge or abridge the local limits of the ancient jurisdiction, rights, and privileges of the lord high-admiral of Eng., or the lord warden, or admiral of the Cinque Ports, respectively, or their respective representatives; but the same shall remain according to ancient usage, and the above description shall only be deemed applicable to the purposes of these statutes, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 18., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 20.

89. The said commissioners so appointed as above, may decide on all demands made by pilots, hovellers, boatmen, and other persons for services of any sort rendered to any vessel, as well for carrying off from shore to her any anchors, cables, or other stores from any part or port of the coast of Kent, Sussex, Essex, or Isle of Thanet, or from the sea, or any other place to Ramsgate, Dover, or any other harbour, port, or place on the said coasts, within the aforesaid jurisdiction, [viz. of the Cinque Ports, &c. see pl. 88.] or for saving and preserving within that jurisdiction, any goods or merchandize wrecked, stranded, or cast away from any vessel, the master or owners thereof, or their agents being present at the place of sitting of the commissioners; and shall have full power to hear and determine on all cases whatever of services rendered by pilots, boatmen, and others, to shipping within the above jurisdiction, whether in distress or not; and whenever they see occasion, may examine the parties, or their witnesses on oath, which oaths shall be administered by their secretary or register, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 2., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 2.

90. The commissioners and their secretary or register, who shall decide on any of the above demands, may demand and receive of and from the owners of such vessels, or the proprietors of any such goods, against whom any pilot, boatman, or other person shall make any demand for services of any sort rendered to such vessels, or for the sole saving any goods wrecked, stranded, or cast away within the above jurisdiction, and such owners shall pay to them such fee for deciding on such demand as shall be adjudged to them in that behalf by the existing lord warden of the cinque ports; provided that no person appointed commissioner under this act, shall have authority to act in any other port or place than that in which he is resident, or from which his usual place of residence is not distant more than one mile: and before such commissioners shall in any case proceed to act, they shall severally take the following oath before a magistrate or commissioner of K. B. or C. P., or a master extraordinary in chancery, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 3., 48 G. 3. c. 130. ss. 3, 4.

"I A. B. do swear, that I have not, neither will I in any way, directly, or indirectly, take or receive any fee, emolument or reward, from any of the parties whose interests are referred to my decision (except such fee or reward as shall be allowed by the lord warden to be paid to me by the ship owners or proprietors of the cargo, or their agents), and that I will not accept or receive any fee whatever from the persons claiming reward or salvage, but that I will decide, according to the best of my judgment, on the evidence to be brought before me, without favour or affection to either party. So help me God."

91. In case the parties so claiming to be entitled to salvage, or compensation for services rendered as above, or the parties who are to pay the same, or their agents, are dissatisfied with such award and decision of the commissioners, either of them may, within 8 days after such award made, but not afterwards, declare to the commissioners his desire of obtaining the judgment of some competent court of admiralty, respecting such salvage or compensation, and thereupon such party, or parties shall forthwith be required by the commissioners to declare whether they will proceed in the high court of admiralty of Eng., or in that of the Cinque Ports, and shall so proceed within 20 days from the date of such award by taking out monition against the adverse party; but in such case the commissioners shall permit the ship and cargo, notwithstanding such declaration and proceeding, to depart on her voyage, or to deliver to the owners and proprietors, or their agents, any goods or merchandize, respecting which any claim for salvage shall be made on the owners or proprietors thereof, or their agents, giving good bail in double the amount of the sum awarded, and which bail the said commissioners, or any of them, shall take and certify according to the form in the schedule annexed, and shall transmit the same without delay, to the court of admiralty in which the intention of proceeding shall be so declared, together with a true certificate in writing of the gross value of the whole ship and cargo, or other goods, respecting which salvage is claimed, and also an official copy of such proceeding and awards certified by their secretary or register: and the same shall be admitted by such court of admiralty as evidence in the cause, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 4. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 5.

92. On appeal so being made to either of such courts of admiralty, the same shall be held to be final, and no ulterior appeal shall be to H. M. in chancery from the sentence of either of such courts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 5.

93. Every person who shall wilfully cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink, or destroy, or shall commit any act, with intent to cut away, &c., or in any other way injure, or conceal any buoy, buoy-rope, or mark belonging to any vessel, or attached to any anchor or cable belonging to any vessel whatever, within the above jurisdiction, [see pl. 88.] with intent thereby to defraud any person, or body corporate, shall on conviction for such offence be deemed guilty of felony, and liable to be transported for not exceeding 14 years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 6., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 6.

94. All anchors, cables, buoys, ropes, or other ship's stores or materials, or any goods or merchandizes of any sort whatever, which may have been parted with, cut from, or left by any vessel in the Downs, or elsewhere, within the above jurisdiction whether in distress or otherwise, and which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by any pilots, boatmen, hovellers, or other persons, shall be by them delivered, either at Ramsgate, Deal, or Dover, [Harwich, Brightlessea, or Wivenhoe, added by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 7.] six public places of deposit declared by this act for the reception of all such articles, or such other places as shall be declared by the lord-warden, in the same state in which they are found, to the serjeant or serjeants of the admiralty at the cinque ports, or their deputies, or such other person as he shall authorize to receive the same; but if any such articles so found, &c. are not so delivered immediately, or duly reported to such serjeant, &c., on the finding thereof, and are afterwards discovered in the custody of any such pilot, &c. or other person, he shall on conviction be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen, and shall suffer like punishment as if the same had been stolen on shore, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 7. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 7.

95. All merchandize, materials, of any sort, or marine stores of any description, whether belonging to H. M. or to any British subjects or foreigners, which may be preserved from any vessel stranded, deserted by her crew, or wrecked, either on shore or on the Goodwin or any other sand or shoal, or any part of the main land, or any part or place within the above jurisdiction, shall be landed, and delivered at one of the 6 places of deposit belonging to the lord-warden's deputies at Ramsgate or Deal, Dover, [Harwich, Brightlessea, or Wivenhoe, added by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 8.] or such other place as shall be declared such by the lord-warden for that purpose, which ever shall be most convenient or contiguous to the place where the loss occurs: and every person, who having preserved, or taken possession of such merchandize, or marine stores within the above jurisdiction, shall sell, dispose of, or otherwise make away with the same, or shall in any manner conceal, deface, take out, or obliterate the marks or numbers thereon, or alter the same in any manner with intent thereby, directly or indirectly, to prevent the discovery and identity thereof by the owners, shall be guilty of felony, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 8., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 8.

96. Nothing herein shall extend to prevent or restrain the serjeants, deputies, or other officer of the lord warden, from seizing all such anchors, cables, buoys, buoy-ropes, or other ship's stores, or materials, as in s. 7. pl. 94. and likewise all such merchandize and marine stores, as in s. 8. last pl. which they shall find concealed, or attempted to be concealed within the jurisdiction aforesaid, [see pl. 88.] or which he or they shall find in possession of any person who shall be conveying, or in the act of preparing to convey the same out of the said jurisdiction, or from any place where the same have been landed within the same, to any other place within the same, other than to one of the above public places of deposit; but all and singular the above officers may seize the same as well on shore as at sea, within the said jurisdiction, and may take and carry the same to one of the said public places of deposit, any law or custom notwithstanding, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 9., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 9.

97. Every person, within the above jurisdiction, who shall knowingly, and with the intent to defraud and injure the true owners thereof, purchase or receive any anchors, cables, ropes, or other ship's stores or materials of any description, or any merchandize, or lading, which may have been taken up, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, whether the same have belonged to any vessel in distress, or otherwise, or have been preserved from any wreck within the jurisdiction aforesaid, such person shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, as if the same had been stolen on shore, and suffer like punishment as for a misdemeanor at common law, and be also liable to transportation for 7 years at discretion of the court, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 10., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 10.

98. Whenever anchors, cables, and other marine stores or merchandize, which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, within the jurisdiction aforesaid, are carried away to places out of such jurisdiction, the serjeant or serjeants of the admiralty of the Cinque Ports, deputies, or any other officer of the lord warden, may seize such anchor, cable, or other marine stores, or merchandize, out of the jurisdiction aforesaid, and there take and carry away the same to some one of the above [see pl. 95.] public places of deposit, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 11., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 11. [or place the same in a place of security till proceedings are instituted against the same, either in the high court of admiralty, or in that of the Cinque Ports, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 11. only.]

99. Every pilot, boatman, or other person, within the above jurisdiction, who shall counsel, instruct, direct, advise or procure any master or other person on board any vessel within the above jurisdiction, whether she be at the time in distress or otherwise, to cut such vessel's cable, or buoy rope, or to do any other act whatever, which shall, or may tend to the destruction or wreck of such ship, with intent thereby to prejudice any owner or person, body politic or corporate, that hath underwritten, or shall underwrite any policy or policies of insurance on such vessel, or her freight, or on any goods laden on board her, shall, on conviction be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be liable to not exceeding 14 years transportation, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 12.

100. All dealers in buying and selling anchors, cables, sails, old junk, or paper, stuff, old iron, or marine stores of any kind, within the above jurisdiction, shall have their names, with the words "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in letters of not less than 6 inches long on the front of all their store and warehouses, and other depôts for such goods: and in default of so doing, they shall, on conviction before one or more persons appointed to act as magistrates within the limits, in pl. 88. mentioned, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, one half to be paid to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed: and no such dealers shall cut up any cables, or part of the same, or uncant, untwine, or unlay the same, or cordage of any description, into junk or paper stuff, nor any wounding, worming, or cable matting on the same, or on rigging, on any pretence soever, without first obtaining a permit from one or more of the lord warden's deputies, which shall not be granted unless affidavit has first been made before some such magistrate as above, and has been delivered to, and left with the person granting such permit in which affidavit there shall be sworn that the cable and cordage so intended to be cut up had been purchased fairly, and without fraud, by the party so intending to cut up the same, and without knowledge or suspicion on his part, that the same had been dishonestly come by, and which affidavit shall also specify the particular quantity and description of such cable, &c., and the name or names of the seller, and shall be recited at length in the permit, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 12., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 13.

101. All dealers in such marine stores, within the limits of the Cinque Ports 2 ancient towns, and their members, shall keep a book, or books, fairly written, in which entries shall be from time to time regularly made of all marine stores from time to time bought by them, containing a true account and description of the times when the same were so respectively bought, and of the names and abodes of the respective sellers thereof, and also that before the party who has obtained such permit for the cutting up any such cable or cordage, as in pl. 100. required to be obtained, shall proceed to cut up the same, by virtue thereof, there shall be published, by the space of one week at least, before the time of cutting up the same, one or more advertisements in some public newspaper, printed within the counties of Kent, Essex, and Sussex, and near to the usual residence or abode of such party, notifying that he had obtained such permit for the purpose of cutting up such quantity of cable or cordage, and of the kind or quality therein described, a true copy of which permit shall be inserted in the advertisement; whereupon every person having just cause to suspect, and having verified on oath the fact of such his suspicion, before any of the persons duly authorized to act as magistrates, within the above limits, by warrant of such magistrate granted to him for that purpose, may require of and from any such dealer, who has so advertised, and is so sworn to be suspected as above, the production and examination of the books of entries hereby required to be kept by him, and to inspect and examine the cables and cordage described in the permit; and if any such dealer shall, when so required, neglect or refuse to produce to the person named in such warrant, as the person on whose oath the same was obtained, the above book of entries, or shall neglect to keep such a book, or to permit the above inspection and examination, or shall after obtaining such permit for cutting up any cable, &c. and before cutting up the same, neglect to publish such one or more advertisements relative thereto, as herein-before required, he shall forfeit any sum, not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, for the first, and not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 30*l.* for any 2nd or further offence; one half of which penalties shall, on conviction before any of the said magistrates, be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish in which the offence is committed; and any of the above penalties which are not paid with the charges incident to the conviction immediately thereupon, shall be levied by warrant of such magistrate, by distress, on the goods of such offender; and if there is no sufficient distress, then every such offender may be committed to the common gaol, within the above limits, for 6 months, in case of any first, and for a 2nd or further offence for 12 months, unless the penalty and charges be sooner paid, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 13. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 14.

102. The inhabitants of any parish, township, or place, within the above jurisdiction, shall be deemed to be competent witnesses for the purpose of proving the commission of any offence against this act within the limits of such parish, &c. notwithstanding the penalty incurred by such offence, or any part thereof, may be given, or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c. or otherwise for use or in aid or exoneration of such parish, &c., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 14., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 15.

103. The lord warden, and deputy wardens of the cinque ports, the lieutenant of Dover castle, and the judge official and commissary of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports, two ancient towns, and the members thereof for the time being, and any other officer specially appointed by the lord warden, and all and every of them may execute within the jurisdiction aforesaid, all the acts, matters, and things in this act contained in like manner, to all intents and purposes, as any magistrate, or magistrates, commissioner, or commissioners, to be appointed under this act, may perform the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 15., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 16.

104. "After recital of the manner of issuing commissions for punishment of offences, under the provisions of 28 H. 8. c. 15. ss. 5, 6. PIRACY, pl. 6, 7. and that no such commission hath been for a long time sent to any place within the Cinque Ports," IT IS ENACTED, that as often as H. M. shall direct, a commission according to the said act, to the admiral or admirals, or his or their lieutenant-deputy, and deputies, H. M. on application of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, may direct such commission jointly to them, and also to the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, for the time being, and to his deputy, and the commissioners who shall sit by virtue of such commission so jointly addressed, to whatever shire or place in the realm it is limited, shall have full power to enquire into, try, and determine all offences named in that, or in any other act, relating to proceedings under such commission, by the oaths of 12 good and lawful inhabitants in the shire, limited in the said commission, whether committed within the jurisdiction of the lord high-admiral, or in that of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports: and every trial, conviction, judgment, and proceeding, under such commission, shall be as effectual in law, and followed by the same consequences to the offenders, as if it were had by any separate commission issued under the said act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 16. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 17.

105. Provided that nothing in these acts shall extend to taking away, abridging, prejudicing, or impeaching, in any manner whatever, the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., or of that of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports, 2 ancient towns, and their members: but those courts respectively, and the judges thereof, for the time being, may exercise jurisdiction over all such matters, as fully as if this act had not been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 16. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 18.

106. Nothing in these acts shall impeach or prejudice any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges, heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity-house, but that corporation shall enjoy the same as fully as if this act had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 17., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 19.

107. The like means which, by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. pl. 6. subsist, and may be applied for conclusively adjusting and recovering the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons acting or employed in the salvage of any vessel or goods, in cases where application shall have been first made, pursuant to that statute, to offices of customs, or other the officers therein in that behalf mentioned, and assistance has been thereupon rendered and had in pursuance of the provisions of that statute, shall be by law applicable in like manner, to all intents and purposes, in cases where the salvors have acted under and by the mere authority of the commander, or other superior officers, mariners, or owners of any vessel in distress, though no such application has been made to, nor any authority or assistance derived from any officer of customs, or other officers, in s. 1, 2. pl. 5, 6. mentioned; and on payment, or tender, and refusal of the quantum of monies, or gratuities to be paid to the several persons who have acted, or been employed in such salvage, or in case such payment or tender cannot be made, nor security given for due payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, who have adjusted such quantum of gratuities, no officer of customs, or other person having possession or custody of such vessel or goods, shall any longer retain possession of the same or any part thereof, by reason or pretence of any right to compensation or gratuity for such salvage, or for having acted, &c. therein, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 19., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 21.

108. In all cases where the salvors have acted without application made to, and without authority or assistance derived from any officer of customs, or other officer in 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1. pl. 5. mentioned, and the superior officers, mariners, or owners of such vessel so saved, or the merchant or other person whose goods are so saved, or their agents, shall disagree with the salvors touching the quantum of the monies or gratuities deserved by any persons so employed as above, the commander of the vessel so saved, or the owner or merchant interested in the goods, or their agents, and such salvors may nominate 3 of the neighbouring justices of peace to adjust the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to such salvors, and if the parties shall not agree in such nomination, then on application of any of the parties to any one neighbouring justice, he shall nominate 2 other like justices, who shall thereupon adjust the quantum of the monies and gratuities to be paid to all and each of such salvors, who shall disagree with such superior officer, &c. touching the quantum of monies or gratuity to be paid to him or them respectively, for his having been employed and acted in such salvage, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 22.

109. The owners, or if they refuse, the salvors may sell so much of the property saved as will defray the salvage adjudged and all expences attending the same, and such other reasonable charges respecting the said property, as shall be allowed by the high court of admiralty, or by that of the Cinque Ports, or of an award made by the commissioners appointed under this act; the commissioners of customs and excise shall allow such sale free of duty, but in cases where they deem it advisable, may refer any such award to the judgment or revision of the first mentioned court, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 20.

110. Nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction to be exercised within the Cinque Ports, or that of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 21. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 23.

WRITS.

1. IN WHAT CASE A WRIT OF ENTRY, sur disseisin in the post, doth lie, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 29. [See ACTION REAL.]

2. If those alienations whereon a writ of entry was wont to be granted be made in so many degrees, that by reason thereof the same writ cannot be granted in the usual form, the plaintiff shall have a writ to recover his seisin, without making mention of the degrees to be provided by H. M.'s council, id. ibid.

3. THE CHAMPION'S OATH IN A WRIT OF RIGHT, 3 E. 1. c. 41.

4. The champion of the demandant shall not be compelled to swear that he or his father saw the seisin of his lord, or his ancestor, and that his father commanded him to dereign that right; but the oath shall be kept in all other points, id. ibid. [RE. virtually 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2.]

5. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE JUSTICES IN EYRE, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 10. [see the rest of this act, ATTORNEY, pl. 2.]

6. Justices in their circuits shall appoint a time of 15 days, or a month, within which time it shall be proclaimed, that all such as deliver writs, shall deliver them within such time, and when the time cometh the sheriff shall certify to the chief justice in eyre, how many writs he hath, and what, and that no writ be received after that time; and if any be, the process thereupon shall be of none effect, provided a writ abated during the circuit may be amended; also writs of dower, of men having died within the summons of the circuit assizes of darrein presentment, and quare impedit, of churches vacant within the foresaid summons, shall be received at any time before the departure of the justices; also writs of novel disseisin, at what time the disseisin was done, shall be received in the circuits of justices, id. ibid.

7. OF WRITS IN consimili casu, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 24.

8. In cases where a writ is granted out of chancery, for the fact of another, the plaintiff shall not depart the court without remedy, because the land is transferred from one to another, and that in the register of chancery no writ is found in such case, as of a house, a wall, or a market, but the writ is granted against him who raised the nuisance; for although the house, &c. is transferred to another, the writ shall not be denied; but where in one case a writ is granted, in like case, requiring like remedy, the writ shall be made as before. And if such things levied be transferred from one to another, the writ shall be thus [Quæritur est nobis, A. quod B. & C. levaverant, &c.] 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 24. s. 1.

9. In like manner as a parson of a church may recover common of pasture, by writ of novel disseisin, his successor shall recover by a writ of quod permittat, against the disseisor, or his heirs, though a like writ was never granted out of chancery before, 13 Ed. 1. West. Sec. c. 24. s. 2.

10. In like manner as a writ is granted, to try whether land be the free alms of such church or lay fee, so such writ shall be made to try whether it be the free alms of this church, or another church, in case where the free alms of one church is transferred to another church, id. ibid.

11. As often as it happens in chancery, that in one case a writ is found, and in another case falling under like law, and needing like remedy, is found none, the clerks of chancery shall agree in making a writ, or shall adjourn the plaintiff to the next parliament, and write the cases in which they cannot agree, and refer them to the next parliament, and by consent of the learned of the law, a writ shall be made, that there be no failure of justice, id. ibid.

12. NO WRIT CONCERNING THE COMMON LAW SHALL BE AWARDED under the petit seal, 28 Ed. 1. c. 6.

13. THAT SHALL BE DONE WITH THEM THAT MAKE FALSE RETURNS to H.M.'s writ, as is ordained by 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. [See SHERIFF, pl. 1.] with like pain, 28 Ed. 1. c. 16.

14. OF THE RETURN OF WRITS IN LIBERTIES; OR by sheriffs, 12 Ed. 2. St. 1. c. 5.

15. For returns delivered to sheriffs, by bailiffs of franchises, an indenture shall be made between the bailiff of the franchise, and the sheriff, by his proper name; and if the sheriff change the return so delivered to him by indenture, and be thereof convict of the suit of the lord, if he hath sustained loss, he shall be punished by H. M. for his false return, and shall yield unto the lord, and to the party, double damages; also sheriffs and other bailiffs that receive H. M.'s writs, shall send their own name with the returns, so that the court may know of whom they took such returns; and if any sheriff or other bailiff leave out his name in his returns, he shall be grievously amerced, id. ibid.

16. AGAINST FALSE RETURNS OF BAILIFFS OF FRANCHISES, a man shall have averment, and recover as well against them as against the sheriff, as well of too little issues returned as in other cases, so that it fall not in prejudice of the lords, nor in blemish of their franchise, and that the estate of holy church be always saved, and that all the punishment fall upon the bailiffs, by punishment of their bodies, if they have not whereof to answer, 1 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5.

17. AT WHAT TIME OR PLACE OF THE COUNTY A MAN doth deliver any writ to the sheriff, they shall receive the writs, and make a bill, after the form contained in the statute, 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. [See SHERIFFS, pl. 1.] without taking any thing; and if they refuse to make a bill, other persons that present shall set to their seals; and if the sheriff or under-sheriffs do not return the writs, they shall be punished after the form in the same statute; and the justices of assizes shall have power to inquire thereof at every man's complaint, and to award damages, 2 Ed. 3. c. 5.

18. A juris utrum MAINTAINABLE FOR A PARSON, OR vicar, 14 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 17. [The parsons' writ of right, 3 Bla. Comm. 252-3.]

19. Vicars, parsons, and wardens of chapels, and provosts wardens, and chaplains of perpetual chauntries, shall have their writs of juris utrum, of land, tenements, rents, and possessions annexed, or given perpetually in alms to vicarages, chapels, or chauntries, and recover by other writs in their case, as far forth as parsons churches or prebends, id. ibid.

20. NO WRIT SHALL BE ABATED BY EXCEPTION OF cognizance of villenage, if demandant or plaintiff will aver that he who alleged the exception was free the day of the writ purchased, 37 Ed. 3. c. 17.

21. NO WRIT OF habeas corpus, or certiorari, shall be granted, to remove any prisoner out of gaol, or to remove any recognizance, except they be signed by the chief justice, or, in his absence, by one of the justices of court, for which they are awarded, upon pain, that the writer of such writs not so signed, shall forfeit to king and queen 5*l.*, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. s. 7.

22. TO PREVENT PERJURY, SUBORNATION OF PERJURY, and unnecessary expences at law, 43 El. c. 5. and recital in s. 1. [Con. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

23. NO writ of habeas corpus, or other writ to be sued out of any court of record at Westminster, to remove any action, suit, or cause depending in any court within any city or town corporate, or elsewhere, having jurisdiction to hold plea in any action, &c. shall be received or allowed by the judge, or officers of the court, wherein or to whom such writ is delivered, (but they may proceed in such cause, as if no such writ were sued forth,) except such writ be so delivered before the jury which is to try such cause between the plaintiff and the party suing such writ, have appeared, and one of such jury sworn, 43 El. c. 5. s. 2.

24. IN ALL ACTIONS OF DEBT AND ALL OTHER PERSONAL actions, and in all actions of ejectione firme, for lands, or tenements, which shall hereafter be depending by original writ, in any court of record at Westminster, after issue joined therein to be tried by a jury, and also after judgment had in either of such courts, in any such action, there shall not need to be 15 days between the teste day and day of return of any writ of ven. fac., habeas corpora juratorum, or distringas juratorum, or fi. fa., or ca. sa., and the want of such days shall not be error, 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 2. s. 6.

25. This act shall not extend to any writ of ca. sa., whereon an exigent after judgment is to be awarded, nor to any ca. sa. against the defendant, in order to charge the bail, id. s. 7.

26. Nothing herein shall extend to any action popular, nor to any action which is brought on any penal statute, (except debt, for not setting out tithes,) nor to any indictment, presentment, inquisition, information, or appeal, id. s. 11. [See the rest of this act, viz. ss. 1-4. ARREST, pl. 6-10.; s. 5. PRISON AND PRISONER, pl. 24.; ss. 8-10. EXECUTIONS, pl. 9.]

ADDENDA.

ACTION REAL.

15. (a) IN SUMMONSES AND ATTACHMENTS IN PLEA of land, the summons and attachments from henceforth shall contain the term of 15 days full at the least, according to the common law, if it be not in attachment for taking assizes in the king's presence, or of pleas before justices in eyre during the eyre, 28 Ed. 1. c. 15.

ALEHOUSES.

9. H. M. by order in council may prohibit for a time, in such order limited either generally or particularly and by name, or description, the exportation from the kingdom of all or any sort of provision or victual, or any article used as food, under such restrictions as he shall think fit; and in like manner recall such order in whole or in part, or make such alteration therein as he deems fit, id. s. 1.

10. All provision, &c. included in such order which is afterwards exported or laden on board any ship, &c. to be exported, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs; and all persons offending herein shall forfeit treble the value of such provisions, and such ship, &c. with all her tackle, &c. shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs, id. s. 2.

11. All penalties and forfeitures herein contained may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of as penalties incurred on any goods or ships forfeited for any offence against the customs laws may be; and the seizing officer shall receive such share of such seizures and of such pecuniary penalties as he is now entitled to, id. s. 3.

12. This act and such orders shall not extend to prohibit the exportation of so much of any such provisions, &c. as shall be necessary for the use of any ship's crew on a voyage out and home, and for the live stock on board of such ship; or for victualling H. M.'s ships or vessels; or any of H. M.'s forces, forts, and garrisons; or to prohibit the exportation [of such provisions, &c. these words are omitted in the act,] to the British forts, castles, or factories in Africa, or for the use of British ships trading on such coast; or to prohibit any person from shipping any provisions, &c. to be carried coastwise, having such coast surffiance, cocket, or coast despatch for such purpose, and on such security being given for the landing, &c. the same, as may be required by any law for carrying provisions coastwise, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 2. s. 4.

13. This act shall not prevent evidence from being received by the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot. in case any vessel is under seizure for having provision on board contrary to H. M.'s order, or in any information or suit brought for the forfeiture of such vessel on account of such provisions, &c. being on board, in order to show from the small quantity of such provision that the same was on board without the knowledge either of the owner or master, or other person having the charge of such ship, and without any wilful neglect on their part; and in every case where such proof is made, the ship shall not be forfeited, id. s. 5.

14. The 32 G. 3. c. 80. and all acts now in force for regulating the coast trade, shall be applied in execution of this act, except where hereby or by such order of H. M. expressly altered, id. s. 6.

15. Copies of such orders as shall be made by H. M. in council, if made during the sitting of parliament, shall be laid before parliament within 3 days after issued; and if made when parliament is not sitting, then within 14 days after the meeting of parliament, id. s. 7.

CORPORATION.

8. (a) The [three oaths and declaration, viz. the corporation oaths and declaration in 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 1. ss. 5, 6. REP. by 5 G. 1. c. 6. s. 2. and the two] oaths of allegiance and supremacy shall be from time to time administered and tendered to such person or persons who by this act are to take the same (see s. 12. pl. 11.) by such person or persons respectively who by the charters or usages of any city, corporation, borough, cinque port, and its members, or other port town, ought to administer the oath for due executing any office, [of magistracy or any place or trust, or other employment concerning the government thereof, s. 4. Exp.] and in default of such persons, by 2 justices of peace of such city, &c. if such there be, or otherwise by 2 justices of the county where such city, &c. is, 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 1. s. 10.

8. (b) The said justices of peace and other persons hereby authorized to administer the said oaths respectively, shall cause memorandums or entries to be made of all oaths so taken before them, and deliver the same once in a year to the town-clerk or other register or clerk of every such city, &c. who shall cause the same to be fairly entered into the books or register belonging to the said city, &c., id. s. 11.

EAST INDIA COMPANY.

363. (a) After 25th May, 1815, it shall not be lawful for the E. I. C., or for the court of directors thereof, with the sanction of the court of proprietors, to charge the Co.'s funds with the payment of any gratuity to any officer civil or military, or other person, exceeding 600*l.* unless the grant or resolution for that purpose has been approved and confirmed by the board of control; and copies of all warrants or instruments granting any salary, pension, or gratuity, shall be submitted to both houses of parliament within one month after such grant, if parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after their next meeting, 55 G. 3. c. 64.

FORGERY.

35. (a) EVERY PERSON who shall forge or counterfeit the handwriting of any person in the superscription of any letter or packet to be sent by the post, in order to avoid the payment of postage [or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or procure to be forged, &c. the date upon such superscription, or shall write and send by the post, or cause to be written, &c. any letter, &c. the superscription or cover whereof shall be forged, &c. in order to avoid the payment of postage, knowing the same to be forged, &c., on conviction, 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14.] shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, 4 G. 3. c. 24. s. 8., 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL.

45. (a) "Whereas it is expedient that the payment of bills for out-pensions heretofore by 56 G. 3. c. 101. s. 5. directed to be made by the clerk to the treasurer of the navy should be authorized to be made by the deputies of the treasurer of Greenwich hospital;" BE IT ENACTED, that from and after 3d June, 1818, all bills drawn by the paymaster of pensions at Greenwich hospital or under his authority, for payment of out-pensions, may be directed to and paid by any deputy or deputies to the treasurer thereof; and all the penalties, provisions, and regulations now in force with respect to such payment of pensions, when made or directed to be made by the said clerks of the navy treasurer, shall be applied to the payments of pensions, directed to be made by the deputy or deputies of the hospital treasurer as fully as if herein re-enacted, 58 G. 3. c. 64. s. 7. [See the rest of this statute, tit. PRIZE, pages 1295—1302. pl. 10. 18. 56—61. and the schedules, pl. 105.]

45. (b) After 3d June 1818, the certificates on all bills drawn by the treasurer or deputy-treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or by the paymaster of pensions for the payment of any prize or bounty money, grant, pension, or other allowance of money in favour of any person residing at any port or place at which a deputy of the said hospital shall have been or shall be appointed, shall be attested by such deputy and by no other person, id. s. 8.

45. (c) It shall be lawful for every licensed agent to send a list of all orders which he may have received or shall hereafter receive from non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines to the agent appointed for distribution of any prize or prizes, bounty-money, grant, or other allowances of money; which orders, if deposited at Greenwich hospital, shall not be revocable after distribution of the money to which they relate has commenced; and such distributing agent shall not, after receiving any list as aforesaid, pay the non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines named therein, or any of them, the share or shares due to any of them respectively, but shall pay the same over with the unclaimed and forfeited shares to Greenwich hospital, to be refunded by the treasurer to the non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines entitled thereto, or the payers named in the orders respectively, in like manner as unclaimed shares are directed to be paid and refunded; and the distributing agents shall, on requisition of the clerk of the cheque of the hospital, deliver to the latter any order deposited in their hands by licensed agents, to be kept at the said hospital; and such distributing agent shall receive from the said clerk of the cheque a receipt for and undertaking to produce the same, whenever the production thereof is deemed expedient, id. s. 9.

HOSPITAL.

1. (a) AS TO HOSPITALS OF THE patronage and foundation of H. M. the ordinaries, by virtue of H. M.'s commission to them directed, shall inquire of the manner of their foundation, governance, and estate, and of all other matters necessary and requisite in this behalf, and shall certify the inquiries thereof taken into H. M.'s chancery; and as to other hospitals, the ordinaries shall inquire in like manner, and of like things, and thereupon make thereof correction and reformation according to laws of holy church as to them belongs, 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 1.

IRELAND, (ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.)

1. FOR PREVENTING and removing all doubts concerning the exclusive rights of the [parliament, and, virtually expired since 39 & 40 G. 5. c. 67. Act of Union] courts of Ire. in matters of [legislation and] judicature, and for preventing any writ of error or appeal from any courts in Ire. from being received, heard and adjudged in any courts in G. B., 23 G. 3. c. 28.

2. The right claimed by the people of Ire. [to be bound only by laws enacted by H. M. and the parliament of that kingdom in all cases, Exp. since Act of Union] and to have all suits of law or equity instituted in Ire. decided in H. M.'s courts therein finally and without appeal, is hereby declared, established, and ascertained for ever, and shall at no time be questioned or questionable, id. s. 1.

3. No writ of error or appeal shall be received or adjudged, or other proceeding had, by or in any courts in this kingdom in any suit at law or equity instituted in any court in Ire., and if had shall be void, id. s. 2.

4. ALL LAWS in force at the time of the union with Ire., and all courts of civil and ecclesiastical jurisdiction in the respective kingdoms shall remain as by law established, subject to alteration by parliament; provided that all writs of error and appeals which before the union might be finally decided by the house of lords of either kingdom, shall be so decided in that of U. K.; and after that event there shall remain in Ire. an instance court of admiralty for determination of causes civil and maritime only, the appeal from which shall be to H. M.'s delegates in his court of chancery of Ire., and all laws in force in either kingdom contrary to any act passed for effectuating these articles are, after the union, repealed, 39 & 40 G. 5. c. 67. Art. 8. (s. 1.)

OFFENCE AND OFFENDER.

1. (a) FOR REGULATING THE TRIAL OF OFFENDERS IN Eng. who after offence committed fly into Scot., and vice versa, 4 J. 1. c. 1. ss. 26—38. [See ss. 1—23. SCOTLAND (UNION). CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4. AMD. as to s. 36., 7 J. 1. c. 1. See as to apprehending offenders in Scot. under warrants issued by justices of peace in Eng. for offences committed in Eng., and vice versa, 13 G. 3. c. 31., 44 G. 3. c. 92., 45 G. 3. c. 92., and 54 G. 3. c. 186. tit. JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 60—83.]

1. (b) All offences of conjurations, witchcraft, and dealing with evil spirits, murder, manslaughter, felonious burning of houses and corn, burglary, robbing of houses by day, robbery, theft, buggery with man or beast, and rape, committed by any of H. M.'s natural born subjects of Eng. or its dominions within Scot., and the accessories of and to the same, shall be enquired of and determined by the justices of assize or commissioners ofoyer and terminer or gaol delivery, being natural born subjects of Eng. by lawful men of the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmoreland, or any of them, at the election of such justices, &c., as if such offences had been committed therein. On which trials the party arraigned may produce and examine witnesses on oath for his justification, 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 26.

1. (c) Justices of peace of such counties may, on complaint made, bind over by recognizance in a convenient sum taken to H. M.'s use, as well the prosecutor as the witnesses he shall desire to produce, (so as such witnesses be paid their charges), to prosecute and give evidence, id. s. 27.

1. (d) Every accessory to any such offences committed in Scot. offending in Eng. shall be proceeded withal, indicted, tried, judged, and executed, though the principal is not convicted or attainted; and no such offender shall be allowed the benefit of his clergy, nor admitted to peremptory challenge above 5, and every indictment for any such offences so committed, shall be judged good in law though the words contra pacem coronam et dignitatem nostram be omitted, id. s. 28.

1. (e) No sheriff, under-sheriff, or other minister to whom it appertains, shall return any juror to try any such offence so committed except such juror has *5*l.* per annum* freehold in the county where the trial is had, on pain to forfeit for each juror so returned 40*l.*; one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c.; and the offender may challenge any juror passing on his life for want of such freehold, 4*J.* 1. c. 1. s. 29.

1. (f) No natural born subject of Eng. shall, for any of such offences committed in Scot. or for being accessory to the same, forfeit any lands, &c. either free or copy, or customary, nor shall his blood be corrupted, nor his wife lose her dower; but nevertheless he shall forfeit to H.M. his goods and chattels, id. s. 30.

1. (g) "Recital that a like act is to be made in Scot." therefore, on complaint made by any subject of Eng. to any of the justices of assize, commissioners of oyer and terminer, or justice of peace, being natural born subjects of Eng. of any such offence committed by such subjects of Scot. within Eng., in case where the offender is returned into Scot., such justice, &c. shall bind over by recognizance as well the said party prosecutor as any witnesses he desires, as in s. 27. pl. 1. (c), aforesaid, wherein if default is made and proved by certificate or otherwise before the lord treasurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer, or any of them, in the exchequer-chamber, and a decree is made that such recognizance is forfeited, then the court of exchequer shall proceed to levy the debt as if the recognizance was adjudged forfeited by due course of law, id. s. 31, 32.

1. (A) Every subject of Scot. either party grieved or witness, who shall prosecute in such cases within Eng. and thereby have occasion to repair hither, either voluntarily or on such recognizance, shall have and enjoy privilege from arrests concerning all causes, as well capital as others, committed before they so came into Eng. (except treason or murder) so long as they shall be necessarily going, coming, or abiding within Eng. for such prosecution, id. s. 33.

1. (i) Every such offence so committed shall be laid in the indictment to be committed within the realm of Scot., according to the truth, and not in the county where trial is had, id. s. 34.

1. (k) Provided that if any Scotch subject is proceeded against and tried in Scot. on the prosecution of the party grieved, and on evidence in open court for any offence committed in Eng., he shall not be proceeded against in Eng. for the same offence; but he shall plead his former acquittal, conviction, &c. within Scot.; and thereupon proceedings shall be stayed, until the court is informed of the truth thereof by certificate from Scot. or otherwise; and if true, the party shall be forthwith discharged, id. s. 35.

1. (l) No Englishman shall be sent out of Eng. for trial in Scot. for offences committed in Scot., id. s. 36. [But see next pl.]

1. (m) If any person shall commit any offence within Scot., which by the law of Eng. is adjudged petty treason, murder, manslaughter, felonious burning of houses and corn, burglary, robbery of houses by day, robbery, theft or rape, and shall fly into Eng., and is apprehended within the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Westmoreland, or any parts of the same, or within any places lying on the north side of the river Tyne, commonly called Bedlingtonshire, Norhamshire and Islandshire, the town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, and the town of Berwick upon Tweed; the justices of assize, or one of them, the justices of gaol delivery, or four of them, the justices of peace, or four of them at quarter sessions, may, on examination of the offence by warrant under hand and seal, send all such offenders into Scot. for trial, 7*J.* 1. c. 1. ss. 1—3.

1. (n) Continuance of act, s. 4. Execution of act suspended until a similar law is made in Scot. for sending Scotchmen committing offences in Eng. and flying into Scot., back again into Eng. for trial, id. s. 5. [both Exp.]

1. (o) At all such trials for such offences so committed, the jurors, or the greater part of them (who are to be of a better condition than usual, see s. 29. pl. 1. (e), shall, in their discretion and consciences, upon their oaths, receive only such good and lawful witnesses on their oaths, either for or against the party as shall not appear to them, or the greater part of them, to be unworthy witnesses, either in regard of their hatred and malice, or their favour and affection, either to the prosecutor or the party arraigned, or of their former evil life, 4*J.* 1. c. 1. s. 37.

1. (p) Such offenders, if peers of the realm, shall be tried by their peers, as in cases of treason or felony, id. s. 38.

PARLIAMENT.

159. (a) Nothing in 20*G.* 3. c. 17. or 22*G.* 3. c. 31. shall prevent any person from voting at any such election of a knight or knights of the shire, or of a burgess or burgesses for Cricklade, for or in respect of any messuages, lands, or tenements, which have been charged or assessed for 6 calendar months next before such election, towards some aid granted or to be granted to H.M., his heirs, &c. by a land-tax in the name of a tenant or tenants actually occupying the same at the time of such assessment being made, although the name of the person so claiming to vote, or the person or persons by or through whom such person so claiming to vote derives his title, or of the predecessor of such person, shall not be inserted in the assessment, according to the form thereof to 20*G.* 3. c. 17. (pl. 162.) annexed, 30*G.* 3. c. 35. s. 2.

195. (a) No MEMBER OF THE house of commons shall be capable of being a commissioner or farmer of the customs, or of holding or enjoying in his own name or in trust for him any place or employment touching the farming collecting, or managing the customs, 12*G.* 13*W.* 3. c. 10. s. 89.

195. (b) If any such member enjoy or execute such place or employment, he is declared incapable of sitting or voting in such parliament, id. s. 90.

195. (c) No commissioner, collector, or other person concerned in collecting or managing the customs, shall by word, message, writing, or in other manner, endeavour to persuade any elector to give or dissuade him from giving his vote for the choice of any knight of the shire, citizen, or burgess; and every offender therein shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, to be recovered in any of H.M.'s courts at Westminster; and every person convict on such suit shall become disabled of ever bearing any office relating to the customs, or other place of trust under H.M., id. s. 91.

POOR.

2. (a) TO PREVENT DISPUTES TOUCHING THE PARISHES or places where improved wastes and drained and improved marsh lands shall be charged to parochial rates, 17*G.* 2. c. 37.

2. (b) Where there shall be any dispute or uncertainty in what parish or place waste and barren lands, and lands formerly fen or marsh ground, or covered with water heretofore improved or drained, or hereafter to be improved, &c. lie, and ought to be rated, every occupier of such lands, or of houses built thereon, tenements, tythes arising therefrom, mines therein, and saleable underwoods therein growing, shall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within such parish and place lying nearest to such lands, in like manner and subject to the same regulations as all other lands within such parish, &c.; and if any dispute arise touching what parish, &c. such lands ought to be rated in, the justices of the peace for the county, riding, liberty or division where such lands lie, may, at their next general quarter-sessions, after notice given to the officers of the several parishes, &c. abutting on such lands, and to all other persons interested therein, determine the same on appeal of any person interested, and at such sessions cause such lands or hereditaments to be allotted to and equally assessed in such parish, &c. as they see just; and such determination and allotment shall be final as to the parish, &c. in which such lands, &c. shall be rated; and the said lands, &c. shall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within such parish, &c. only, to which they are so allotted, id. s. 1.

2. (c) Nothing in this act, nor any allotment to be made by the justices at the general quarter sessions in pursuance thereof, shall affect or determine the boundaries of any parish, &c. to any purpose other than for the rating such lands, &c. to the relief of the poor and other parochial rates, id. s. 2. [Nothing herein shall avoid or alter 16*G.* 17*C.* 2. c. 11. s. 17. for draining Deeping Fen, id. s. 3.]

QUARTER SESSIONS.

14. (a) CONCERNING THE EXECUTION OF CERTAIN STATUTES (viz. by the establishing of the six weeks sessions), 33*H.* 8. c. 10. [REPEALED] and the business of the six weeks sessions transferred to, and to be executed at, the ancient quarter sessions, 33*H.* 8. c. 7.]

106. (a) After 2*d July* 1813, there shall be paid to the said governors, ministers, consuls, and merchants, for the maintenance of all such seafaring men and boys subjects of the U.K. as shall be shipwrecked, captured, or by other unavoidable accidents driven or cast away, or as shall be discharged unserviceable from any of H.M.'s ships, and to every master or person having charge of a ship taking on board and subsisting them as in 31*G.* 2. c. 10. s. 27. last pl. expressed, such sum of money per diem as the admiralty shall from time to time in their discretion direct to be paid, the like sum per diem only being deducted for such time and for so many persons as such master shall want of his ship's complement during the voyage, 53*G.* 3. c. 85.

SOLDIER.

6. FOR ENABLING THE WIVES AND FAMILIES of soldiers embarked on foreign service to return home, 51 G. 3. c. 106. [AMD. and EXT. to the wives, &c. of soldiers dying or employed on foreign service, 52 G. 3. c. 120., both acts REP. 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1.]

7. FOR ENABLING THE WIVES AND FAMILIES of soldiers embarked in Ire. for foreign service to return to their homes, 52 G. 3. c. 27. [REP. 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

73. TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND the provisions of several acts for enabling wives and families of soldiers to return to their homes, 52 G. 3. c. 92. [see 43 G. 3. c. 61. tit. VAGRANT, pl. 76—80. But see the system of passing vagrants abolished, and for what time, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64, VAGRANT, pl. 45.]

74. The 51 G. 3. c. 106. and 52 G. 3. c. 27. 120. shall be REP. id. s. 1. The secretary at war in G. B., or the chief secretary, or in his absence the under secretary for the military department in Ire. shall issue passes to be filled up by any magistrate or justice under this act, for granting allowances to enable the wives, widows, and children, of soldiers, in certain cases herein specified, and in any other case in which such secretaries respectively think it expedient, to return home; and may make such regulations in relation to the issuing and filling up of such passes, and the certificates and vouchers on which the same are to be issued, and the allowances advanced, as such secretaries respectively think fit, id. s. 2.

75. The commanding officer of every regiment, battalion, corps, or detachment about to embark for foreign service, and the commanding officer of every regiment, &c. in which any soldier shall die on service, leaving widows or children destitute of the means of returning home, shall cause a return to be made out of the wives, widows, and children of the soldiers of such regiment, &c. who are desirous to return home, and are unable to do so without assistance under this act, stating the several places of residence to which such wives, &c. are desirous to go, whether in G. B. or Ire., and shall give to each such wife, &c. a duplicate of the part that applies to her and her children, certifying thereon that the person to whom such duplicate is given is the widow or wife, or reputed wife, and the child or children of a soldier in his regiment, &c. and distinctly stating that such certificate does not entitle such wife, &c. to any allowance, and that no payment shall be made thereon; but that such certificate is only given for the purpose of identifying such wife, &c. before the magistrate or justice, and enabling him to fill up such pass as shall be allowed by such secretaries; and every such commanding officer shall transmit all such returns or duplicate copies thereof as relate to any wives or widows of soldiers desirous to return to their homes in G. B., to the secretary at war in London; and of such as return to Ire., to the chief secretary of the military department in Dublin; and when any such wives, &c. have to go through any part of G. B. and Ire. in returning home, then to both of such secretaries, 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 3.

76. Each wife or widow to whom any such duplicate is delivered, shall take it to some justice or magistrate, who shall fill up and sign such an engraved form of pass, bearing H. M.'s arms, and signed by the secretary at war, or any officer in his department, and sealed with his official seal in G. B.; or a like form signed by such chief or under-secretary for the military department in Dublin, or some officer in his department, and sealed with his official seal if in Ire.; as shall be transmitted to such magistrate, &c. on application by him made to them; and such magistrate, &c. shall fill up the blanks in the pass, and certify the same, and make out a route in the proper column for such wife, &c. specifying the place to which such woman is going, and her route; and shall deliver such pass to her in exchange for such duplicate, in order that she may receive an allowance not exceeding 1*d.* for herself, and 1*d.* for each child, id. s. 4.

77. On production of any such pass to any overseer of the poor if in Eng. or any treasurer of the kirk-session if in Scot., or postmaster if in Ire., of any place through which such woman shall proceed according to the route specified in such pass, he shall, out of the money in his hands applicable to the poor-rates if an overseer or treasurer, or out of any public money if a postmaster, pay her an allowance not exceeding the rate per mile in such pass specified, for the number of miles to the next city, town, or place to which she is going, not exceeding 18 miles; and he shall indorse on such pass the money so paid, and take a receipt of the woman signed by her or with her mark, specifying the regiment, &c. to which her husband belongs, or if a widow did belong, so as the description in the receipt may correspond with that in the pass, id. s. 5.

78. The sums so advanced by such overseer or treasurer shall, on production and delivery of such receipt to the collector of excise of the district within which such overseer, &c. acts, be repaid for the use of the poor by such collector, out of any public money in his hands, and all sums so repaid, and all sums advanced by any postmaster in Ire., shall be allowed in their accounts, and such overseer, &c. shall give such collector a receipt for such repayment, and the receipt of such overseer, &c. and that of the woman, shall be taken as cash in payment of the excise duties by such collectors, and the woman's receipt shall be taken as cash in payment of the post office duties in Ire. by such postmaster, and be allowed in their accounts; and all monies so advanced in G. B. shall be repaid by the general agent, or any other person appointed for such purpose by the secretary at war in London, to such person as the commissioners of excise in Eng. and Scot. shall authorize to draw for or receive the same on account of the duties; and sums so advanced in Ire. shall be repaid by the general agent or other person appointed for that purpose, by the chief secretary, or in his absence the under-secretary, for the military department in Ire. to the receiver-general of H. M.'s post office in Ire., 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 6.

79. In the city of Dublin every such woman shall in every instance apply to the agent of the regiment in Dublin, to which she belongs, and not to the postmaster, and such agent shall advance such money and indorse and subscribe such certificate as above, and shall be allowed such sum in his accounts; and such indorsement shall be as valid as if done by such postmaster, id. s. 7.

80. If by sickness or accident any such woman or child has been left at any place of embarkation, or at the last quarters of any regiments, &c. or at any place on the march from such last quarters, to any place of embarkation, and the regulations of this act for giving any such allowances have not been performed, and any such woman or child has been omitted in any such return, then the officer commanding where such woman and child have been left, shall make out such return as hereby prescribed of such woman and child, and transmit it to the war office at London or Dublin, and give such woman such duplicate, and transmit such further return as may be necessary under any special circumstances of the case to the secretary at war in London, or chief-secretary, &c. in Dublin, as the case requires; and such return and duplicate shall be of the same effect as if done as herein before directed, id. s. 8.

81. Every such soldier's wife or widow shall, at the last place of receiving any allowance under this act, antecedent to her arrival at home, or the port or place of embarkation, deliver up the pass so given her to the person so advancing such allowance; and the overseer or treasurer paying such allowance in G. B. shall deliver such pass to the excise collector, and every pass so delivered up shall, if in G. B., be transmitted by such collector to the secretary at war in London, and if in Ire. be transmitted by the postmaster to the under-secretary of the military department in Dublin, id. s. 9.

82. If contrary winds or want of a vessel, or if by sickness or other unavoidable cause, such woman is detained more than one night, at any place from the signing of the pass by the magistrate, &c. to her arrival at the port of embarkation or at home, whether in G. B. or Ire., then such woman may apply to any justice who shall examine into the facts on oath, and if satisfied of the truth thereof, shall give such woman an order to receive from the overseer of the poor or treasurer of kirk-session, or person acting as postmaster, as the case requires, if on her journey, and if at her port of embarkation, then from the district paymaster, the sum of 1*s.* per day for the maintenance of herself, and 6*d.* per day for that of each child specified in the pass; and such payment shall be made her so long as she is unavoidably detained, and such order, with such woman's receipt, and the certificate of some magistrate or justice of such detention, and the period thereof, shall be a sufficient voucher for every such payment, and sums so paid shall be duly vouched and discharged as in s. 6. pl. 72. (f) directed, id. s. 10.

83. All wives and widows of soldiers having any such passes, and not complying with the regulations of this act, shall be liable to be treated as vagrants, and may be passed as such to their homes in Eng., Ire., and Scot., as if no pass had been given, id. s. 11. FORM of the CONSENT of the Ordinary and Patron (to be written on parchment. See s. 1. pl. 35.)

A. B. rector, vicar, &c. (as the case shall be) of the parish, chapelry, or perpetual curacy (as the case shall be) of in the county of under the jurisdiction of the ordinary, having produced to us the said ordinary, and patron of the said church and living, a certificate under the hand of a skilful and experienced workman, or surveyor, of the state and condition of the buildings upon the glebe belonging to the said church, chapelry, or perpetual curacy (as the case shall be), and of the value of the timber and other materials thereupon, fit to be sold, or employed about such buildings; and also a plan, made by the said of the work proposed to be done by new buildings and repairs upon the said glebe, and an estimate of the expence attending the same, after applying the said materials, or the money to arise from the sale thereof, in such buildings and repairs; and also a particular account in writing, signed by the said A. B., of the annual profits of such living, and of the rents, stipends, taxes, and other outgoings annually issuing thereout, verified upon oath, pursuant to the directions of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, to promote the resolute of the parochial clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing houses, and other necessary buildings and tenements, for the use of their benefices; and having considered such certificate, plan, and account: Now, we do approve thereof; and do consent, that such buildings and repairs shall be made as therein specified; and that the said A. B. do borrow and take up at interest the sum of being the estimate of the expences, after deducting the value of the timber and other materials thought proper to be sold, and which appears to us, from the said account, a sum not exceeding two years neat income and produce of the said living; which money is to be paid to (a person nominated by us and the said A. B.) and applied according to the direction of the said act.

FORM of the MORTGAGE. (See s. 1. pl. 35.)

THIS indenture, made the day of in the year of the reign of his majesty between the reverend and in the year of our Lord of the parish church, curacy or chapelry of rector, or vicar, &c. in the county of and the diocese of the bishop of of the one part; and of the other part. Whereas the said pursuant to the directions of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, intituled An act to promote the residence of the parochial clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing houses, and other necessary buildings and tenements, for the use of their benefices, hath obtained the consent of the ordinary of the said diocese, and the patron of the said church and living, to borrow and take up at interest the sum of to be laid out and expended in building, rebuilding or repairing (as the case shall be) the parsonage house, and other necessary offices, upon the glebe belonging to the said church, chapel, or curacy, as appears by an instrument, signed by the said ordinary and patron, hereunto annexed: And whereas the said hath agreed to lend and advance the sum of upon a mortgage of the glebe, tythes, rents and other profits and emoluments of the said living, pursuant to the direction and the true intent and meaning of the said act: Now this indenture witnesseth, that the said in consideration of the sum of five shillings to him in hand paid, and of the sum of paid at or before the sealing and delivery hereof, into the hands of (a person or persons (as the case shall be) nominated by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent to receive the same, pursuant to the direction of the said act (which nomination is also hereunto annexed), and which receipt of the said sum of the said have or hath acknowledged by an indorsement on the back of this deed), hath granted, bargained, sold, and demised, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, and demise unto the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, all the glebe lands, tythes, rents, moduses, compositions for tythe, salaries, stipends, fees, gratuities, and other emoluments and profits whatsoever, arising, coming, growing, renewing, or payable to the rector, vicar, or incumbent (as the case shall be) of the said living in respect thereof, with all and every their rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to have, hold, receive, take, and enjoy the said premises, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, from henceforth, for and during the term of years, fully to be complete and ended, in as full, ample, and beneficial manner, and with such remedies and powers for obtaining and recovering the same, and every part thereof, to all intents and purposes, as the said his successors, rectors, vicars, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said church, could or might, or ought to have held, enjoyed, received, taken, or recovered the same, if these presents had not been made:

In cases where the mortgage by this act directed is to be made by the ordinary and patron alone, without the incumbent, this covenant and proviso are to be omitted, and the form is to be varied in such other respects as shall be necessary.

[And the said A. B. for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, doth hereby covenant, promise, and agree, to and with the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, That he the said A. B. during the time he shall continue rector, vicar, &c. of the said parish and parish church, shall and will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said his executors, administrators, or assigns, interest for the said sum of or so much thereof as shall remain due at the end of every year, to be computed from the day of the date of these presents, after the rate of per centum per annum, by yearly payments, the first of the said payments to begin and be made on the day of next; and also, at the several times before mentioned for payment of the interest as aforesaid, shall and will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the sum of five pounds per centum per annum of the principal which remained due at the beginning of the year in which every such payment is to be paid, in case the said A. B. shall be resident upon the said living for the time mentioned in, and according to the true intent and meaning of the said act; and in case the said A. B. shall not reside upon the said living during the time mentioned in, and according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, he shall pay, or cause to be paid, the sum of ten pounds per centum per annum of the said principal money, by such yearly payments as aforesaid, instead of the said sum of five pounds per centum per annum, and shall and will continue such respective payments of the said interest, and on account of the said principal money, so long as he shall continue rector, vicar, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said parish and parish church, unless all the said principal money and interest for the same shall be sooner paid and discharged. Provided always, and these presents are upon this condition, That if the said A. B. and his successors shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the said principal money and interest for the same, in manner and at the times aforesaid, according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, and of these presents, and also all costs and charges which shall have been occasioned by the nonpayment thereof, these presents, and every thing herein contained, shall cease and be void. Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the said A. B. and his successors, peaceably and quietly to hold, occupy, possess, and enjoy all and singular the said glebe lands, tythes, rents, moduses, composition for tythes, stipends, fees, gratuities, and other emoluments and profits whatsoever, arising or to arise from or in respect of the said living, until default shall be made by him or them respectively in the payment of the interest and principal, or some part thereof, at the times and in the manner aforesaid. In witness, &c.

NOMINATION of a Clergyman by the Bishop, to settle any Dispute about the Proportion of the Payments within the Year in which any Avoidance shall happen. (See s. 7. pl. 42.)

I THE right reverend bishop of pursuant to the authority of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, intituled An act to promote the residence of the parochial clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing, or purchasing houses, and other necessary buildings and tenements, for the use of their benefices, do hereby nominate the reverend being a clergyman within my said diocese, to adjust and determine the matter in dispute between the reverend clerk, the present incumbent of the rectory, vicarage, &c. of within my diocese, and the representatives of the last incumbent (in case of his death) or the said (in case of his resignation or promotion) concerning the due proportion to be paid by each of the said parties of the principal and interest which accrued due within the year in which such death or other avoidance happened, according to the direction, true intent, and meaning of the said act. Given under my hand, this day of

(describe particularly the lands purchased) lying near and convenient to the parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. (or if the house be lately purchased) [lying near a certain messuage, house or tenement, and buildings, lately purchased for the habitation of the minister of the said rectory, &c. under the powers of the said act] and it hath been found most convenient, and agreed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, that the glebe lands (or tythes, as the case shall be) herein-after described, belonging to the said rectory, &c. shall be sold, to raise the sum of being the purchase money for the said lands herein-before described (or exchanged, if the same is to be done by exchange, in order to make an equivalent for such lands), and a contract hath been made with the said G. H. for the absolute sale, at the price or sum of (or exchange, as the case shall be) of part of the glebe land (or of the tythes, as the case shall be) belonging to the said rectory, &c. herein-after mentioned; that is to say, (here describe the particulars of the land or tythes proposed to be sold or exchanged) which contract is hereby ratified and confirmed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent: Now this indenture witnesseth, that the said A. B. C. D. and E. F. in order to carry the said contract into execution, and to fulfil the purposes of the said recited act, in pursuance of the powers thereby to them given, and in consideration of the sum of the receipt whereof is acknowledged on the back of this deed; which sum hath been paid and applied in the purchase of the lands herein-before described; have, and each of them hath granted, bargained, and sold (and exchanged, if the same be by exchange), and by these presents do, and each of them doth grant, bargain, sell (and exchange, if by exchange) unto the said G. H. and his heirs and assigns, all, &c. (here describe the lands or tythes, as the case shall be), with their and every of their rights, privileges, and appurtenances, to hold to and to the use of the said G. H. his heirs and assigns for ever. (If done by exchange, add the following words) [in exchange for certain lands which belonged to the said G. H. and are, by indentures of equal date herewith, exchanged and conveyed to the said C. D. in trust, for the sole use and benefit of the said E. F. and his successors, rector, vicars, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said living or benefice for the time being, for ever.] And the said A. B. C. D. and E. F. do hereby severally covenant for themselves, their several executors and administrators, to and with the said G. H. his heirs and assigns, that they, nor any of them, have or hath done any act whereby the said lands (or tythes, as the case shall be) can or may be incumbered; and that the said G. H. his heirs and assigns, shall and may, from time to time, for ever hereafter, peaceably and quietly hold and enjoy the said glebe lands or tythes (as the case shall be) according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, without any lett, hindrance or interruption of or from them or any of them. In witness, &c.

FORM of the DEED of Purchase or Exchange of Buildings or Lands to be annexed to the Living or Benefice. (See s. 10. pl. 45.)

THIS indenture, made the day of in the year of the reign of his majesty king and in the year of our Lord between A. B. of the one part, C. D. ordinary of the rectory, vicarage, chapelry, or perpetual cure (as the case shall be) of in the county of of E. F. of patron of the said rectory, &c. and the reverend G. H. clerk, incumbent of the said rectory, &c. of the other part. Whereas there is no parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. [or, the parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. is become so ruinous and decayed (or so mean) that it is not fit for the habitation of the minister of the said rectory, &c.] and one year's neat income or produce of the said living or benefice will not be sufficient to rebuild or repair the said house, with the necessary offices belonging thereto: And whereas a certain messuage, house, or tenement, with the buildings thereunto belonging, situate in the property of the said A. B. and lying within the distance of yards from the church (or chapel, as the case shall be) of the said rectory, &c. appears to the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, proper and convenient for the habitation and use of the minister of the said rectory, &c. No. 3. (See s. 4. pl. 38.)

FORM of AGREEMENT, at the Public Meeting, for two or more Parishes, Townships, or Places, to unite in adopting the Provisions of the Act, made in the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor.

It is agreed at a public meeting duly held this day of at in the county of pursuant to the directions of the said act, That the parish [or township] of [as the case shall be] shall, from henceforth, in conjunction with the parishes or townships of and [as the case shall be] adopt in all respects the provisions, rules, orders, and regulations, and comply with all the requisites prescribed by the said act for parishes uniting for those purposes; and that a convenient workhouse, and other buildings and necessary conveniences, shall be immediately provided at or near and properly fitted up and accommodated for the purposes mentioned in the said act: And we recommend to the consideration of the justices of the limit wherein such workhouse will be situate, A. B., C. D., and E. F., as fit and proper persons qualified for guardians of the poor; and G. H., I. K., and L. M., as fit persons to be governors of the poor house for the said parish [or township, as the case shall be]; and do agree to allow the person who shall be appointed guardian a salary of per annum for his trouble in executing that office; and to the person who shall be appointed governor of the poor house a salary of for his trouble in executing that office.

No. 4. (See s. 4. pl. 38.; s. 19. pl. 57.)

FORM of AGREEMENT for uniting the Parishes [or Townships, as the case shall be] of A., B., C., and D., for the Purpose of providing a House or Houses, and the better maintaining and employing their Poor, pursuant to the Statute of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third.

It is agreed, this day of by and between the guardians of the poor of the parishes of and in the county of and of the townships of (which maintain their own poor separate and distinct from the other parts of their respective parishes) whose names are hereunto subscribed, pursuant to the opinion of two third parts in number and value as aforesaid, of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates within such respective parishes and townships, at meetings duly held for that purpose, qualified according to the directions of the act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, and with the approbation of A. B. and C. D. two justices of the peace, according to the directions of the said act, That the said respective parishes and townships shall be united, for the better maintaining and employing their poor; and that a convenient house or houses, with proper buildings and accommodations thereto, and with land fit for gardens, orchards, and the keeping of a cow or cows, shall be built [purchased or hired, as shall be found most suitable], at or near for the reception and accommodation of the poor, as soon as conveniently may be, and if hired, the same shall be rented upon such terms as shall be agreed upon between the guardians of the poor of the said several parishes and townships, or the major part of them, and the person or persons owning or being authorized to let such buildings, lands, and premises; but no such agreement shall be made for a longer term than twenty-one years, unless the guardian or guardians shall have an option to vacate it at the end of that term, on giving twelve months notice in writing of his or their intentions so to do, nor for a shorter term than three years: and such houses shall be fitted up and made convenient for the purposes aforesaid, at the expence of the landlords [or tenants, as shall be agreed between them]: That the rents of the said houses, the expences of fitting up, making additions or alterations [where they shall be agreed to be paid by the tenants], and of the furniture thereof, and also the utensils and materials to be used for the purpose of employing the poor, and the wages and allowances to be paid to the governor of the house, shall be paid by the said several guardians in their due proportions, according to the amount of the money raised by the poor's rates for their several parishes and townships, in respect of their poor, on a medium of three years preceding such agreement; and that such proportion shall be ascertained by and whom we have nominated for that purpose, and shall be paid by the guardians of the poor of the said respective parishes and townships, to the person who shall be authorized to receive the same, within seven days after the same shall be so ascertained; and that the money earned by the labour of such poor shall be brought to the credit of that account at the end of every year: That the expences of victuals, beer, and firing for the poor and the governor [and for the assistants, when any shall be found necessary] in every such house or houses, with all other small incidental expences, shall be proportioned, at the end of every month, according to the number of poor which shall be sent from each of the said respective parishes, townships, and places, and for the time they shall have resided there within such month: That the guardians of the poor of any of the said parishes, townships, or places, shall be at liberty to withdraw from this agreement at the end of the first three years, or any succeeding three years, on giving twelve months notice of such their intention, if it shall be so determined by three fourth parts of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates, and qualified as aforesaid, at a public meeting, summoned by due notice as aforesaid, specifying the occasion of such meeting; and in such case they shall receive one half of their due proportion, to be ascertained by the persons above named, or such other persons as the parties shall agree upon for that purpose, of the value of the furniture, stock, utensils, and implements, then remaining at such poor house, after paying their proportion of the rent, and of the salaries to the governor and other officers, to the end of the then growing year: And that the guardians of the poor of each parish, township, and place shall provide suitable and convenient clothing for the poor, to be sent to the said house or houses from their respective parishes, townships, or places, and charge the expences thereof in their accounts. And we recommend to the justices of the limit where such house is to be situated, A. B., C. D., and E. F., as persons duly qualified for the office of visitor of the said poor house, and I. K., L. M., and N. O., as persons duly qualified for the office of governor of the said poor house.

We A. B. and C. D., the justices of peace mentioned in the within written agreement, do hereby give our approbation to the parishes and places herein named being united for the purposes of the act within mentioned.

No. 15. (See s. 24. pl. 64.)

MODE of adjusting the First Account mentioned in the Act respecting Utensils, Materials, Furniture, Rent, et cetera.

Let it be supposed that the parishes or townships of A., B., C., and D., have agreed to be united under the authority of the act; and that E. and F. are the persons named in the agreement as arbitrators, or referees, to settle and adjust the proportions which each parish or place is to pay.

It will be necessary for E. and F. at their first meeting, to call upon the officers of every such parish, township or place, for their assessments and accounts, in order to see what they have paid to their poor on a medium of three years preceding the agreement: who are required by the act to produce them, under a penalty for refusal.

When the arbitrators have got these materials, it will be necessary to separate and deduct every matter which does not relate to the poor; for instance, money paid to the county rates, or for the expences of the constable, headborough or militia, which are all now included in the poor's rates; and, as some of these parishes may have had expences occasioned by litigations about settlements and removals, and others may not, they should exclude all such expences in the account.

When the accounts have been so inspected and examined, and the proper deductions made, they may be supposed to appear:

That A. has paid for the first of the three years	-	-	65	7	6
for the second year	-	-	87	2	0
for the third year	-	-	105	0	0
Making together	-	-	257	9	6

A third part of which sum (being A. 's medium) will be	-	-	85	16	6
Let B. 's payments be calculated in the same manner, which may be supposed to amount, on the medium of three years, to	-	-	110	0	0
C. 's do. to	-	-	97	0	0
D. 's do. to	-	-	140	0	0

The total amount of the annual payments will be 452 16 6

Suppose the month's expences paid by the several parishes under the above heads, according to the directions of the act, should amount to 300*l.* the question will be, If 452*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* (the total medium of all the parishes) required 300*l.*, what will 85*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* require? When that shall be worked by the rule of three, multiplying the third number by the second, and dividing it, when so multiplied, by the first, the answer will be,

That A. 's proportion amounts to	-	-	59	9	5
B. 's proportion, when worked in the same manner, will be	-	-	76	5	0
C. 's do.	-	-	67	4	7
D. 's do.	-	-	97	1	0

Making together the whole sum expended 300 0 0

When those medium sums shall be settled and proportioned at their first meeting, there will be no occasion to repeat that trouble afterwards, as the first sum will be the same on all future calculations; and to prevent trouble in adjusting the proportions at every monthly meeting, at every poorhouse, soon after the first medium proportion shall be so ascertained, there shall be a table fixed, calculating the proportions of each parish, township or place, to any given sum, from the smallest to the greatest, that is likely to be expended in that district within the month; which will make every account clear and easy to the meanest understanding, and will be liquidated in an instant.

No. 16. (See s. 24. pl. 64.)

MODE of adjusting the Second Account mentioned in the Act, respecting the Victuals, Beer, Firing, and other Necessaries.

As soon as the agreement is made for uniting several parishes, &c. the guardians shall meet and consider what will be a proper weekly sum to be paid into the hands of the treasurer for every person admitted into the poor house, estimating it as near as they can to the probable expence of maintaining them; the guardians should pay to the treasurer, at every monthly meeting, what shall be due for every such person, upon that calculation, for the time he has been kept there in the month preceding; and, in order to avoid fractions, if any person shall have been there four days, or more, in any of the weeks, it should be considered as a full week, and if less than four days, no charge shall be made for it: That, in order to avoid difficulties in adjusting the account, a table should be provided, in like manner as before, and fixed up in the house, with proper columns for the number of persons, the number of weeks, and the total amount, according to the weekly sum so agreed upon; by which that account will likewise be settled without the least trouble or difficulty.

RULES, ORDERS, BYE-LAWS and REGULATIONS, to be observed and enforced at every POOR HOUSE to be provided and established under the Authority of the Act of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third. (EXTENDED to all Poor Houses, 49 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5. pl. 90.)

First. THAT the several persons who shall be sent to any such poor house, who are capable of doing any work, shall be employed by the governor in some labour which may be best suited to their strength and capacity.

Second. That the governor shall take particular care to keep the said house, and the several apartments therein, and also the several persons who shall inhabit the same, clean and wholesome; and for that purpose he shall employ such of the said poor persons who shall be sent thither, whom he shall think most able and best qualified for the offices, to assist him therein, and also in the providing and dressing victuals for the use of such poor persons; and if any such poor person shall refuse or neglect to perform the work or labour in which he or she shall be so employed, or shall be directed to do by the governor, every such person shall be punished by confinement or alteration of diet, in such manner as the governor shall direct; and for a second offence of the like sort, complaint thereof shall be made to some justice of the peace for the limit, who, on conviction, shall commit such person to the house of correction for any time not exceeding two calendar months nor less than one calendar month.

Third. That the apartments in the house or houses to be provided as aforesaid, shall be adapted so as to accommodate the poor who shall be sent thither in the best manner they are capable.—That the governor shall place in the best apartments such poor persons who, having been creditable housekeepers, are reduced by misfortune, in preference to those who are become poor by vice and idleness; and that separate apartments shall be provided for the reception of the sick and distempered poor, and an apothecary or surgeon to be sent for to attend them when there shall appear necessity for it, at the expence of the parish or place to which such poor persons belong.

Fourth. That such poor persons who are able to work, shall be called up by ring of bell, and set to work, by six in the morning from Lady Day to Michaelmas, and by eight from Michaelmas to Lady Day: and continue until four in the afternoon from Michaelmas to Lady Day, and from Lady Day to Michaelmas till six in the afternoon (meal times and times for reasonable recreation excepted); and if any such poor person shall refuse or neglect to do such work as shall be allotted him or her, or wilfully spoil the same, or depart from such house without leave from the governor, or shall be guilty of any disorder or disobedience to these rules and orders, the governor shall reprove such person for the same, and punish him or her by confinement or alteration of diet, as the said governor shall think fit; and if such person shall be guilty of the like offence a second time, the governor shall complain thereof to the visitor of such house, who is hereby authorized to order the punishment of confinement to be increased to such degree as he shall think fit.

Fifth. That the governor shall enter in a book to be kept by him, an account of the household goods, linen, furniture and utensils, provided for the said house; and also an account of the materials bought for manufacture, and of the goods manufactured there; which shall be laid before the guardians at their monthly meeting, and before the visitor whenever he comes to such house.

Sixth. That the governor shall visit the several persons maintained in such house or houses, and their apartments, once at least in every day; and shall take care that there is no waste of fire, candles, or provisions; and shall see that the fires and candles are put out at the hours fixed for such persons going to bed, which shall be at eight of the clock between Michaelmas and Lady Day, and nine between Lady Day and Michaelmas.

Seventh. That when any person shall die in the house, the governor shall take care that the body of such person be immediately removed into some separate apartment, and be decently buried as soon as conveniently may be; and also take care of the cloaths and goods of such person, and deliver them to the guardian of the poor of the parish or place to which such person did belong, who is to pay the charges of the funeral of such poor person.

Eighth. That no poor person be permitted to go out of the poor house, nor any person permitted to come into such house or houses, except the persons maintained and employed there, without the permission of the governor; and that no spirituous liquors be permitted to be drank in such house or houses; and that no other liquor shall be brought thither, without the permission of the said governor.

Ninth. That the rules, orders and bye-laws shall be publicly read by the governor to all the poor persons kept in such house or houses, once at least in every month.

Tenth. That all the poor persons able to go to church, shall attend divine service every Sunday.

Eleventh. That the governor shall dismiss from the poor house or workhouse, every person who shall, in the opinion of the guardian or guardians, be thought improper to continue longer there, and upon an order from him or them for that purpose.

No. XI. — Schedule of 28 G. 3. c. 48. s. 3. CHIMNEY SWEEPERS. pl. 5.

THIS indenture, made the day of [] in the year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and in the year of our Lord [] between A. B. and C. D. churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the parish of [] in the county of [] [or E. F. the father or next friend of the boy to be placed out, as the case may be] of the one part; and [] of the parish of [] in the county of [] chimney-sweeper, of the other part:

Witnesseth, that the said churchwardens and overseers of the poor [or the said E. F. as the case may be], by and with the consent and approbation of G. H. and I. K. two of his majesty's justices of the peace acting in and for the county, riding, city, town, borough, or division [as the case may be], signified as hereunder written, put, bound, and by these presents put and bind a poor boy of the said parish, township, or place, being of the age of [] years [as the case may be], to be apprentice to the said [] he being his first, second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth apprentice [as the case may be], to learn the trade, business, art, and mystery of a chimney sweeper, and with him (or her) to dwell, remain, and serve from the day of the date of these presents, for and during the term of [] years from hence next ensuing, fully to be complete and ended; during all which time he

the said apprentice, his said master (or mistress) faithfully shall serve and obey, his (or her) secrets keep, and his (or her) lawful commands every where gladly do and perform; he shall not haunt alehouses or gaming houses, nor absent himself from the service of his said master (or mistress) day or night, without his (or her) leave, but in all things as a faithful apprentice shall behave himself towards his said master (or mistress) and all his (or her) during the said term: And the said [] in consideration of the good will which he (or she) hath and beareth towards the said apprentice, and of the faithful service so to be performed by him, doth hereby covenant, promise, and agree with the said churchwardens and overseers of the poor [or the said E. F. as the case may be], that he (or she) the said [] his (or her) said apprentice, in the art and mystery of a chimney-sweeper, which he (or she) now useth, shall and will teach and instruct, or cause to be taught and instructed, in the best manner that he (or she) can, and shall and will provide and allow unto the said apprentice, during all the said term, competent and sufficient meat, drink, washing, lodging, apparel, and all other things necessary for the said apprentice: And that the said executors, administrators, or assigns, shall not nor will assign over this present indenture, or the apprentice to be bound thereby, without the consent and approbation, in writing, of two or more such justices of the peace, to be signified according to the form of the approbation hereunder written: And whereas, from the nature of the business or employment of a chimney sweeper, it is necessary for the boys employed in climbing to have a dress particularly suited to that purpose, which dress is only fit for that part of the occupation; the said doth hereby also covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said churchwardens and overseers of the poor [or the said E. F. as the case may be] to find and allow such suitable dress for the said apprentice, as often as need or occasion shall be and require, and provide for and deliver to the said apprentice, once in every year at least, during the term aforesaid, over and above the said dress proper for climbing, one whole and complete suit of clothing, with suitable linen, stockings, hats, and shoes: And further, that the said shall and will, at least once in every week, cause the said apprentice to be thoroughly washed and cleansed from soot and dirt, and shall and will require the said apprentice to attend the public worship of God on the Sabbath day, and permit and allow him to receive the benefit of any other religious instruction; and that the said apprentice shall not wear his sweeping dress on that day: And that the said [] shall not nor will compel or oblige the said apprentice to call the streets or any other places, before seven of the clock in the morning, nor after twelve of the clock at noon, between Michaelmas and Lady Day, nor before five of the clock in the morning, nor after twelve of the clock at noon, between Lady Day and Michaelmas: And that the said shall not, nor will at any time during the said term, let out his (or her) said apprentice for hire by the day, night, or otherwise, to any other person or persons exercising or using the said trade, nor shall the said or any person or persons whomsoever by his (or her) directions, require or force him the said apprentice to climb or go up any chimney which shall be actually on fire, nor make use of any violent or improper means to force him to climb or go up any such chimney; but shall in all things treat his (or her) said apprentice with as much humanity and care as the nature of the employment of a chimney sweeper will admit of. In witness, &c.

Form of Approbation by Justices. (See s. 1. pl. 2.)

WE, the above named G. H. and J. K. two of his majesty's justices of the peace acting in and for the county, riding, city, town, borough, or division [as the case may be], having inspected and examined the above-named [the boy to be placed out or assigned over], do hereby consent to and approve of his being bound [or assigned over] as an apprentice to the above-named [the master or mistress] according to the terms and stipulations expressed in the above written indenture.
